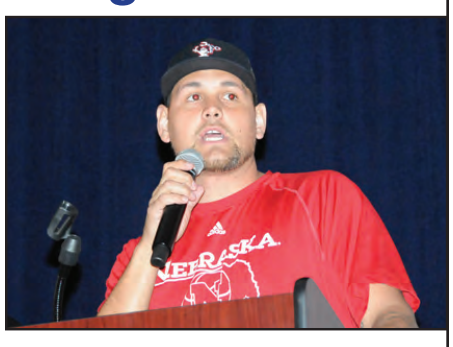
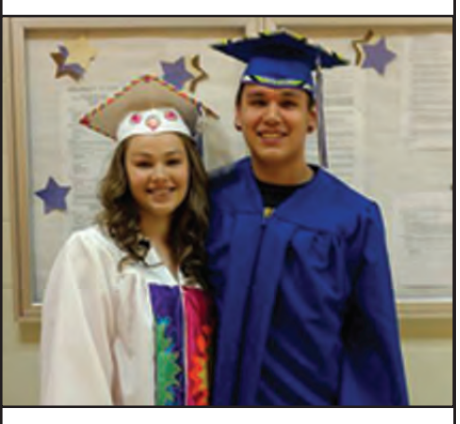
Bago Bits…



Coach Aaron LaPointe recognized his Junior Varsity Boys Basketball team at the recent WHS Sports Award Banquet.

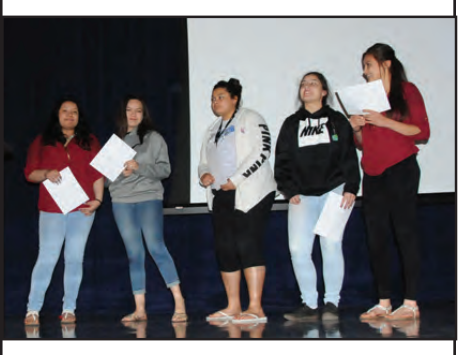
A piping hot yeast frybread sounds good about now, brother John is on my stink list for not inviting me over for some of He-nu's tasty bread.

WHS Graduate Allie Frenchman this week signed with the Little Priest Tribal College Lady Warriors. Allie is pictured here with her mom, I think they said Hu Jope Ga was at the Native.



WHS Grads Allie Frenchman and Miguel "Migz" Baker enjoying their last time in the halls as Indians.
On Friday, May 19, 2017 at 3:00 p.m. Ho-Chunk, Inc will be presenting the Valedictorian and Salutatorian of the Winnebago Public School the Class of 2017 each with a $600.00 Gift Certificate toward the purchase of an electronic device from All Native Solutions.

A must stop area on the Winnebago Rez. Anyone know the spot stop by the WIN office, if you guess right. A little prize in it for you. "Dollar" Bill Hamann was the only one who guessed last issues right.



The Winnebago Cheer Team being recognized and lettered by Coach Sarah Snake.

Track season wrapped up last week with the District Meet. Congrats Track stars.

Winnebago Students Capture Standing Bear Awards

WHS Spring Sports Banquet held to Award Athletics

The Winnebago High School recently held a Sports Awards Banquet to recognize and honor all their spring time athletics programs. Here Coach Tramner recognizes his Wrestling team for their 2nd year of outstanding performances. The Winnebago Indians 3rd Place State Basketball Tournament finishers were also honored, some with pins and some who lettered. Also honored were the Indians Cheer Team, Girls Basketball, Speech, and Band. After the Awards presentations the athletes and supporters were treated to some delicious Flowers Island buffet fried chicken and succulent sides.

Indianz.com… Dakota Access Pipeline won't be fined for oil spill in South Dakota

The Dakota Access Pipeline spilled crude oil in South Dakota just as work on the controversial project was wrapping up.

A database on the South Dakota Department of Environmental and Natural Resources shows the location of the spill but further details aren't provided. The Aberdeen American News was the first to confirm the date of the incident -- April 4 -- and the amount of oil involved -- about 84 gallons.

The wealthy operators of the pipeline, though, won't be fined, the paper reported. The spill was reported and cleaned up within the required time frame, a scientist with the department told the paper.

Still, the report of the relatively minor spill raised alarms in Indian Country. Tribal leaders and activists say it's only a matter of time before Dakota Access causes significant harm.

"The Dakota Access pipeline has not yet started shipping the proposed half million barrels of oil per day and we are already seeing confirmed reports of oil spills from the pipeline. This is what we have said all along: oil pipelines leak and spill," Chairman Dave Archambault II of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe said in a statement on Wednesday.

"Do we have more spills just waiting to happen? This is our home, our land and our water," said Joye Braun, a citizen of the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe in a statement provided by the Indigenous Environmental Network. "This just proves their hastiness is fueled by greed not in the best interest for tribes or the Dakotas"

Even though work on the pipeline is complete thanks to the Trump administration, Standing Rock and Cheyenne River leaders are still hoping to stop oil from flowing. They have motions pending in court to set aside the federal government's approval of the project but a hearing, if any, hasn't been scheduled as of Thursday morning.

A spokesperson for Energy Transfer Partners, the parent company of Dakota Access, has told the Associated Press that the pipeline is expected to be fully operational by June 1.

To view general information about the spill in South Dakota, enter "Dakota Access" in the "Site Name/Responsible Party" field of the spill database.

Former Winnebago tribal officer pleads guilty

Kevin Abourezk Lincoln Journal Star May 9, 2017

A former Winnebago Tribal Council member -- one of nine indicted last summer in an alleged conspiracy to steal from the tribe's casino -- has pleaded guilty.

Lawrence Payer, 71, is the first former council member to make a plea in the case. A second former council member, Louis Houghton, is set to issue a plea for his role in the alleged theft at a May 22 hearing in U.S. District Court in Omaha.

Last July, a federal grand jury indicted nine former Winnebago council members, charging each with conspiracy, theft and misapplication of funds belonging to an Indian gaming establishment, and wire fraud. Those council members included: Payer, Houghton, former tribal chairman John Blackhawk, Darwin Snyder, Thomas Snowball Jr., Travis Mallory, Charles Aldrich, Morgan Earth and Ramona Wolfe.

As part of his plea agreement, Payer only admits to misapplying funds belonging to an Indian gaming establishment. If the court agrees to his plea agreement, the other charges against Payer -- including conspiracy to steal casino funds and wire fraud -- would be dropped.

He faces up to 10 years in prison and a $250,000 fine for the remaining charge, though the U.S. Attorney's Office has recommended he be sentenced to five years of probation and be ordered to repay any funds he obtained illegally from the casino.

The indictments came after an FBI investigation determined that while on the tribal council, the defendants had given themselves raises and bonuses totaling $327,500 directly from the tribe's WinnaVegas Casino Resort without approving them at council meetings. It showed that in 2013 and 2014, the nine were issued $87,000 in gift certificates by the casino and uploads to prepaid debit cards paid for by the casino totaling $240,500. These distributions were recorded on the casino's books as miscellaneous administrative expenses, according to the indictment.

The case stemmed from a 2015 tribal investigative report. In the wake of that report, the nine resigned or were ousted from office by newly-elected council members.

In My Opinion

Thoughts from a Long Two Weeks… by Lance Morgan

In the last two weeks, I went to Alaska to address the annual convention of the Tlinget and Haida Tribes. I went to Washington DC because we had a hearing on our lawsuit against the ATF. I hosted several politicians the next day in DC as part of my duties as the Chair of the Siouxland Chamber of Commerce. I helped the Tribe lobby to get a law introduced to get back the land that was left in Iowa after the river moved. I went to Boston to give a speech at the Harvard Business School on building a sustainable company and community. The Harvard speech was huge for me, because I felt it was a real honor to be asked back to my old stomping grounds. I visited my oldest daughter that weekend at college and then flew home late Sunday. I thought I would give the office a try on Monday and then drove to Rapid City to give a shortened version of the speech I gave at Harvard at a summit for the Great Plains Tribal Chairman. Whew.

However, I made a poor joke in Rapid City about my parents parking in their yard in Winnebago and compared it to our neighboring tribe and that is all I will remember from these trips. It pissed off a lot of our neighbors to the south. I apologized for it because it wasn't necessary to make that contrast. I can assure you I got an earful from many of my Omaha friends and some who probably took it way too far. So I do all these cool things and what am I remembered for? Having a big mouth. Story of my life.

Actually, the whole episode was an interesting lesson because I realize that what Ho-Chunk, Inc. and the Winnebago Tribe has accomplished has given us a platform to discuss issues and that I should use that platform a little more wisely in the future and I am about to start that right now.

I almost can't help myself from talking smack though. I have become obsessive about building up our community. I think we need to raise our standards at every level and in everything we do. We are getting better, but so much still just slides by. Yes, I don't like it when people park in their yard or park on the sidewalk. The sidewalks are for children to walk and ride their bikes.

But it isn't about the yard parking really. It is about acceptance of how things are around here and that if you try to change them then you are some how trying to act white or a jerk or something. We need to expect our kids to do better in school. We need to expect our people to work. We need to expect our homes to be clean and healthy. We need to destroy Meth usage. We need to raise our standards on everything we can.

Two years ago, I committed to the Tribe we could build 100 housing units and the infrastructure for 100 more in the next five years. For comparison purposes, Walthill has only built a few new housing units in the last couple years. I am not sure about Macy, but Pender's 10-year plan only anticipates needing 38 homes. So 100 is no small task. However, we will have hit just a bit over 50 by the end of 2017, which is year 2 of the 5 years. Our population in Winnebago is booming and over 2,000 people, which is up by 500 over the last 10 years.

I lose sleep at night thinking about how to create the jobs, the houses, and infrastructure to ensure our people have what they need in the future. People take for granted our success, but I can assure you that it is fragile and could easily slide back. The difference between success and failure is quite small and often comes down to a few hard working people making it happen. So pushing the comfort zone and hard work is our approach because the price of failure is high, but we try to do it with some heart and pride.

I have Ho-Chunk's outstanding facilities crew plant trees every year. I have them spend lots of efforts on plants and flowers and making sure our community is clean. I have always tried to do everything first class because I know what people are thinking. They are quick to judge us because of lack of understanding of who we are as a people and how hard our situation was to overcome. I want our community to not just look good, but look better than anyone else's. I want our kids to not just compete in sports, but to dominate in academics too. I want our homes to be of the highest standards for our people. I am just one person and lots of people are always mad at me for something, so if we are going to make Winnebago great then it will take the whole community striving to hit the highest standards and if it starts with not parking in your yard or sidewalk, then so be it.

JESUS OUR SAVIOR LUTHERAN OUTREACH

Pastor Ricky Jacob

"Who is my mother?"

This past Sunday many took the time to call their mothers. They may have treated them with a meal, sent flowers or a card, or given them chocolates. For some of us, we are not able to express our words of gratitude to the one whom God blessed with the gift of a child.

I recall a time that I preached a sermon on Mother's Day and a woman informed me that her mother did not love or care for her. Sadly not every mother serves her child as she should.

This brings me to the question that is the title of this article: "Who is my mother?" This question was asked by Jesus. Jesus was born of the Virgin Mary in an unnatural and miraculous way, by the work of the Holy Spirit.

Let us turn to the Gospel of Matthew, the twelfth chapter: 'While [Jesus] was still speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. But he replied to the man who told him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother"' [Matthew 12:46-50 ESV].

Who then is the mother of Jesus? Surely Mary was blessed to be the mother of Jesus, the mother of the Son of God. However, giving birth to Jesus did not make her automatically his God-fearing mother. What did Jesus say was the key to being considered his mother or brother or sister? It was whoever 'does the will of my Father in heaven is his brother and sister and mother.'

What is the will of Jesus Heavenly Father? In a word it is 'love.' Love Creator God above everything else and to love one's neighbor as oneself. One's closest neighbors are one's family members. So a mother is blessed by God with the vocation of loving her child or her children.

Another Bible passage comes to mind in regard to mothers: 'As [Jesus] said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!" But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it"' [Luke 11:27-28 ESV]!

Once again Jesus places the emphasis on the ones who not only hear the word of God, but who also keep it or led by God's Spirit love God and one's neighbors. One of the duties of fathers and mothers is to teach their children the Sacred Word of God.

Through the reading of this Word, one quickly learns that he or she has failed to love God above everything else, and to love one's neighbor – including one's closest neighbors his/her family as one should.

The Good News is that Jesus was able to live according to the will of His Father and offer Himself as the perfect sacrifice. Through faith in Jesus one is forgiven for his or her failures to love Jesus' Heavenly Father; nor to love his or her mother, father, son or daughter as one should. Jesus offers forgiveness and His Spirit which empowers to strive to love our mother and father, son or daughter as one should.

WHS Senior Honored for his Donations…

Kyle Urbanec was awarded the LifeServe Donor Distinction Red Honor Cord by Nurse Julie Benson and Jackie Koch at the May 7th commencement exercises. He has donated six times since he turned sixteen. That means he has saved up to 18 lives. That is because one pint of whole blood can be divided into three parts and given as needed to individual patients.

Winnebago Pubic is very proud of the seven graduating seniors who have donated a total of 19 pints of blood. Those students are Gabe Aldrich, Ethan Bird, Josh Miles, Kristin Neff, Jacey Price, and Iktomi Rice. Together they have saved up to 57 lives.

Did you know?

Premature infants need on average 1-4 units of red blood cells.

Cancer patients need 3-10 units of red blood cells/10-30 units of platelets.

Automobile and trauma patients need 5-100 units of red blood cells.

Cardiovascular surgery patients need 3-8 units of red blood cells/1-10 units of platelets.

Burn victims need 20 units of platelets.

Organ and marrow transplant patients need 10-30 units of red blood cells/100-200 units of platelets.

Someone needs blood every two seconds.

Less than 10 percent of the eligible U.S. population donates annually.

There is no substitute for human blood.

One in seven people entering a hospital need blood.

We hope that the seniors who have given so willingly during their high school career will continue to be donors as they enter the next stages of their lives.

Winnebago Track & Field season is in the books for these two young athletes…I know Ed but I don't know the other guy so I wasn't gonna say his name. Anyway, you can help me out. My WHS Sports correspondent is currently cruzing around Seattle, Washington with Academy students. So I'm not clear on all the kids names. Congrats Bago!

Stop by today and experience NEW for yourself!

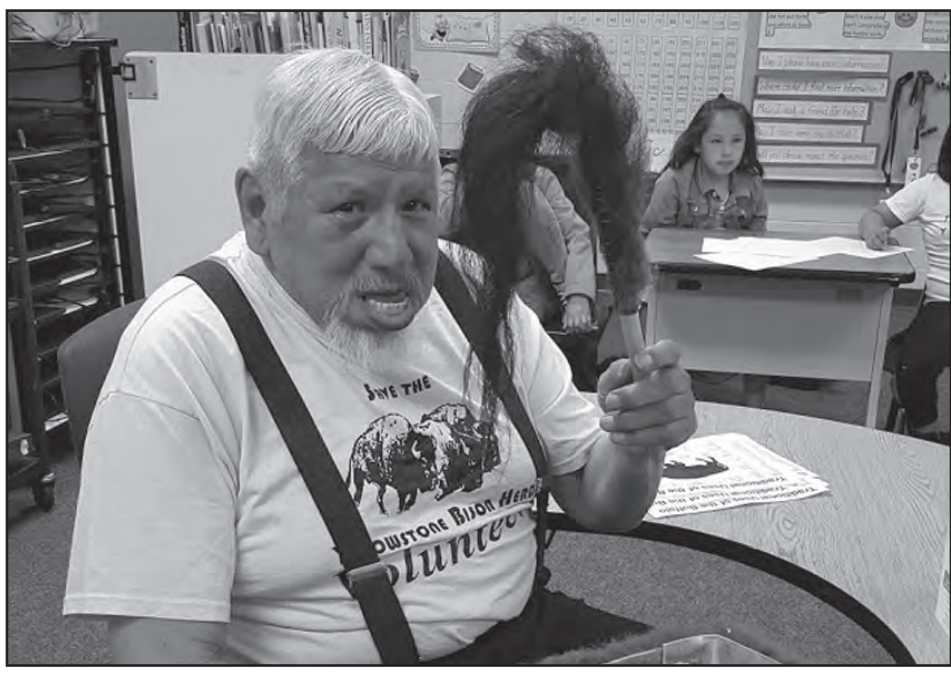
News from WPS 4th grade class…



The Mrs. Finzen and Mrs. Aman's fourth grade class saw an exciting conclusion to their Nebraska Studies Unit. Louie LaRose came to school and gave an interesting and informative presentation about the buffalo. The students were so captivated with his talk and buffalo items that you could hear a pin drop in the classroom.

The annual Nebraska Studies 4th grade field trip was once again a rousing success. The students spent the day watching history come alive as they toured a number of historical sites and listening to speakers share their knowledge about local history and nature. The day wouldn't of been complete without a stop in the park eat to have some well deserved fun.

The Social Services Program provides assistance to the community by helping our clients overcome barriers to employment and education. Our goal is to assist clients to become self-sufficient by providing them with supportive and preventive services.

Onsite Services that we provide:

GED prep classes —- Monday 9 am—12 pm & Wednesday 1 pm—4 pm
Job Club —- Second Friday of every month from 1 pm—2 pm
Workin' With Tradition Workshops Resumes Interviewing Skills
Computer Lab is open to the public for job search, applying for jobs or educational purposes.

Contact us today!!

We are located on the hill in the Human Services Building (downstairs)

(402) 878-2447

Hours: 8:00 am—4:30 pm

NOTICE:

WHDC tenants, please be considerate of your neighbors & pick up any curbside garbage. We realize most of this is from traffic riding through your neighborhoods but we all need to take pride in our community. Have your school aged children help by picking up garbage off your lawns after school, picking up toys and keeping bicycles away from the curb and out of the way of vehicle parking areas.

Also, remember to have your non-running vehicles either fixed or towed to an alternate spot as parking is limited especially in areas like the Senior Complex and other apartment parking lots. Not only does it make it harder for tenants with working vehicles but it is also a draw for vandalism.

We appreciate your cooperation & are here to assist you in any matters pertaining to lease compliance. Feel free to call me, Dawn Snake, new Resident Services coordinator at the Winnebago Housing & Development Commission, @ (404) 878-2241 Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:00 am to 4:30 pm.

Thank You!
