

WINNEBAGO PUBLIC SCHOOL GRADUATES THE LARGEST SENIOR CLASS IN WPS HISTORY

WINNEBAGO, NE – On Sunday, May 14th, Mother’s Day, The Winnebago Public School graduated its largest class in history, with 60 students walking the stage. The ceremony began at 2:00pm in the Winnebago Public School gymnasium, where graduates proudly received their diplomas.

The commencement opened with the rendition of the Flag song sung by the New Breed singers and a cedar blessing by Craig (Tunny) Cleveland Jr. Thank you, Tunny, for taking the time to individually feather off our graduates. WPS 2006 alumni William (Willy) Bass took the floor as our commencement speaker. William began his speech by honoring all the mothers in the community and thanking them for their dedication to our graduates. “When we talk about what our legacy could be, monumental things happen.”

Class of 2023 Salutatorian Sae Doxey (Bear clan) acknowledged the mothers in the community and especially her classmates for their outstanding accomplishments and triumphs throughout their high school years, specifically during COVID. She also greatly thanks her mother, Angel, and her sister, Janae, for being strong, reliable figures in her life.

Class of 2023 Valedictorian Alexander George (Bear clan) quotes American poet EE Cummings in his speech. “It takes courage to navigate these new waters and stay true to oneself.” Alex also thanks his mother, Iva, for all his dedication, love, and support during high school. Alexander and Sae received the Nebraska College Preparatory, Susan Buffet, and the Academy Student scholarships.

The Ho chunk renaissance team was also on the scene showing support, gifting the male graduates medicine pouches and female graduates bone necklaces to symbolize their accomplishment, and wishing them luck with their degrees. The bone necklaces represent wealth and hierarchy to the Winnebago people, such as education being an investment in oneself.

The medicine pouches as Bleu St Cyr explains, “These younger men will be the fathers of their homes one day, and to make sure they guide their families in a good way, we want them to use the tobacco in its rightful way, that’s why we are gifting them these pouches.”

Congratulations, class of 2023, the largest graduating class in WPS history! May you all find your passions and thrive wherever you put your degree to use. The community stands beside you all.

LIFT UP YOUR EYES

Submitted by: Pastor Ricky Jacobs

Have you ever questioned the ways of Mauna? Have you ever said 'my God' would never allow that to happen? Have you ever grown impatient with God and complained to Him?

The chosen tribe of Israel had been blessed time and time again. They were provided with grain from heaven, no less, the bread of angels. They could gather the honey like flakes each morning and bake it into bread. They did not have to sow the seed, pull weeds, or separate the grain from the chaff. This was not good enough for them. They detested this 'miserable' food.

They spoke against Mauna. How did Mauna respond? He responded in a way that you would not expect. You might even reason that your God would not do that. Mauna sent venomous snakes which bit the complainers and they died.

The people came to Moses their God-appointed leader and said, “We sinned when we spoke against Mauna [YAHWEH] and against you. Pray that Mauna [YAHWEH] will take the snakes away from us.” So Moses prayed for the people.

Did Mauna take the poisonous snakes away? He DID NOT. Instead He instructed Moses to make a snake out of bronze and place it on a pole. And anyone who is bitten could lift up their eyes and live. Or they could be obstinate and die.

We often pray that Mauna would take away our disease, our suffering, our trials. Sometimes Mauna answers our prayers and mercifully does what we ask. Sometimes He says wait. And at other times He says no. (Did Mauna take away COVID?) In each of these responses He wants us to lift up our eyes to Him in faith.

Mauna has His ways of dealing with sin and its consequences, death and banishment. He offers a compassionate way for you and for me to be reconciled with our Creator. It deals with lifting up one's eyes, but not to a bronze snake. Today the way to paradise is in lifting one's eyes in faith the Son of God who was lifted up on a pole.

In answering Nicodemus' question on how can one be restored spiritually, Jesus gave this answer: Just as Moses lifted up the bronze snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that everyone who believes in him may have everlasting life in paradise. [see John 3:14-15]

Lift your eyes in faith to Jesus as your Lord and Savior! Or not.

What are the side effects of antidepressants?

The number of people who have some kind of side effect from taking an antidepressant is about the same for all the antidepressant medicines. However, the side effects of each medicine may be different, and some medicines are likely to cause some side effects more often than others. The most common side effects listed by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for the antidepressants discussed are:

- Nausea and vomiting
- Weight gain
- Diarrhea
- Sleepiness
- Sexual problems

Other more serious but much less common side effects listed by the FDA for the antidepressant medicines discussed can include seizures, heart problems, an imbalance of salt in your blood, liver damage, suicidal thoughts, or serotonin syndrome a life-threatening reaction where your body makes too much serotonin). Serotonin syndrome can cause shivering, diarrhea, fever, seizures, and stiff or rigid muscles.

If you are having suicidal thoughts or other serious side effects like seizures or heart problems while taking antidepressant medicines, contact your doctor immediately.

Medicines Most Likely To Cause Certain Side Effects

Although all antidepressants can cause side effects, some are more likely to cause certain side effects than others.

Side Effect	Medicines Most Likely To Cause This Side Effect
Nausea/vomiting	■ Venlafaxine (Effexor®, Effexor XR®) ■ Paroxetine (Paxil®)
Weight gain	■ Mirtazapine (Remeron®, Remeron SolTab®) □ Between 2 and 7 pounds in 6 to 8 weeks
Diarrhea	■ Sertraline (Zoloft®)
Sleepiness	■ Trazodone (Desyre®)
Sexual problems (such as decreased sex drive or difficulty getting an erection)	■ Paroxetine (Paxil®, Paxil CR®) ■ Escitalopram (Lexapro®), fluoxetine (Prozac®, Prozac Weekly®), paroxetine (Paxil®, Paxil CR®), or sertraline (Zoloft®) had more sexual side effects than bupropion (Wellbutrin®, Wellbutrin SR®, Wellbutrin XL®)

The National Suicide Prevention Lifeline is available at 1-800-273-8255 (TALK) or go to www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org.

Some people have symptoms after they stop taking certain antidepressant medicines. These are called “withdrawal symptoms”. Withdrawal symptoms include headache, dizziness, light-headedness, nausea, and anxiety. You should never stop taking your medicine without first talking with your doctor.

- More people had these symptoms after they stopped taking paroxetine (Paxil, Paxil CR) and venlafaxine (Effexor, Effexor XR).
- Fewer people had withdrawal symptoms after they stopped taking fluoxetine (Prozac, Prozac Weekly).

Ask your doctor

- Which antidepressant medicine do you think might be best to treat my depression?
- What side effects should I be looking for, and when should I tell you about them?
- How will we know if it is time to try a different amount of medicine or a different medicine?
- Do any of my other health problems or medicines affect how well the antidepressant might work?
- Should I also see a talk therapist or counselor?
- What effect that NOT taking medicine for depression may have on my life, work, and relationships?
- The cost of the medicine.

You may need to try several different antidepressant medicines before finding the one that improves your symptoms and has side effects that you can manage. It is important to talk with your doctor about:

- The length of time it may take to try a medicine before knowing if it is helping you or if it causes a side effect.
- When you need to let your doctor know about a side effect from the medicine.
- What role your family and friends might take to support you while you are treating your depression.

THE GREAT BAGO BANK HEIST

Submitted by: Ben Crawford, Musuem Curator

Although today there is no bank in the town of Winnebago, 116 years ago in 1907 there existed the Winnebago State Bank. Although small, the bank would come to be involved in some exciting history. At that time, much of the Tribe still lived closer to the river and many of the businesses in town were run by non-natives, including the bank. Having opened in 1907 the bank was close to where Rise Up Nutrition now stands. The unlucky bank was robbed only a shortly after it opened.

At some point around the early morning hours of May 21st the telephone lines between Homer and Winnebago were cut and the owner of the nearby Winnebago Poolhall heard the sound of breaking glass, and later the sound of a several explosions. The explosions were apparently dynamite used to break open the bank safe. After the first explosion the Poolhall owner and other men went out into the night to witness armed men going in and out of the bank, working to retrieve the money from the safe. Around $1,200 worth of cash, silver, gold, and checks were stolen – the equivalent of almost $40,000 in 2022. Witnesses were held at gunpoint to prevent them from calling for police. Eventually the robbers fled north with a team of horses. Pursers were able to contact Sioux City police who arrested some suspects, with one man later being arrested in Montana in connection with the robbery.

As of May 31, 1907 none of the money had been recovered and its unknown at if the accused robbers were convicted as apparently much of the evidence was circumstantial.

Women Mental Health Awareness

MENTAL DISORDER DIFFERENCE

Mental disorders can affect women and men differently. Some disorders are more common in women, such as depression, anxiety, and eating disorders.

There are also certain disorders that are unique to women. For example, some women experience symptoms of depression at times of hormone change, such as during or after pregnancy (perinatal depression), around the time of their period (premenstrual dysphoric disorder), and during menopause (perimenopause-related depression).

STATISTICS

- More than 1 in 5 women in the United States experienced a mental health condition in the past year, such as depression or anxiety.
- 53% of women who have mental health problems have experienced abuse.
- More than three quarters of women (78%) of women who have faced extensive physical and sexual violence - in both childhood and adulthood - have experienced life threatening trauma, and 16% have Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD).

ACHIEVE BETTER MENTAL HEALTH

Good habits to improve mental health will look different for every woman. Some women relax by taking a quiet bath and reading a book while others release stress through physical activity. To help maintain good mental health, you can do the following:

- Exercise regularly.
- Practice mindfulness (living in the moment).
- Get eight hours of sleep each night.
- Express gratitude for things and people in your life.
- Say positive things about yourself and others.
- Make new friends and connections.
- Participate in activities you enjoy.
