Rule 1 SCOPE OF RULES.

- a. Scope. These rules govern procedure in appeals to the Winnebago Supreme Court from the Winnebago Tribal Court or the Winnebago Juvenile Court; and in applications for writs or other relief which the Winnebago Supreme Court or a judge thereof is competent to give. When these rules provide for the making of a motion or application in the Winnebago Tribal Court or the Winnebago Juvenile Court, the procedure for making such motion or application shall be in accordance with the practice of those respective courts.
- b. “Tribal Court” defined. Unless otherwise specifically stated, the term “Tribal Court” as used in these Rules shall be deemed to refer to both the Winnebago Tribal Court and Winnebago Juvenile Court.
- c. Jurisdiction not affected. These Rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Supreme Court as established by the laws of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska; and all provisions of these Rules shall be subject to the Constitution, the Law and Order Code, and Ordinances of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 3

Rule 2 SUSPENSION OF RULES. In the interest of expediting decision(s), the furtherance of the administration of justice, or for other good cause shown, the Winnebago Supreme Court may, except as provided in Rule 26(b), suspend the requirements or provisions of any of these Rules in a particular case on application of a party or on its own motion, and may order proceedings in accordance with its direction.

PART II
APPEALS FROM JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS OF THE TRIBAL COURT

Rule 3 APPEAL AS OF RIGHT—HOW TAKEN.

- a. Filing the notice of appeal. An appeal permitted by the laws of the Tribe as of right from the Tribal Court to the Winnebago Supreme Court shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the clerk of the Tribal Court within the time allowed by Rule 4, or by the statute applicable in the specific case. Failure of an appellant to take any step other than the timely filing of a notice of appeal does not affect the validity of the appeal, but is ground only for such action as the Winnebago Supreme Court deems appropriate, which may include dismissal of the appeal.
- b. Joint or consolidated appeals. If two or more persons are entitled to appeal from a judgment or order of the Tribal Court, and their interests are such as to make joinder practicable, they may file a joint notice of appeal, or may join in appeal after filing separate timely notices of appeal, and they may thereafter proceed on appeal as a single appellant. Appeals may be consolidated by order of the Winnebago Supreme Court upon its own motion or upon motion of a party, or by stipulation of the parties to the several appeals.
- c. Content of the notice of appeal. The notice of appeal shall specify the parties to the appeal, shall designate the order, commitment, or judgment appealed from, whether the appeal is from the Winnebago Tribal Court or the Winnebago Juvenile Court, and a short statement of the reasons or grounds for the appeal. An appeal shall not be dismissed for informality of form or title of the notice of appeal.
- d. Service of the notice of appeal. The clerk of the Tribal Court shall serve notice of the filing of a notice of appeal by mailing a copy thereof (which copy shall be provided by the appealing party) to counsel of record of each party other than the appellant, and to the party at his/her last known address; and shall forthwith certify and deliver to the clerk of the Supreme Court for filing the notice of appeal, who shall enter such filing upon the docket of the Supreme Court. When an appeal is taken by a defendant in a criminal case, the clerk shall also serve a copy of the notice of appeal upon him/her, either by personal service or by mail addressed to him/her. The clerk shall note on each copy served the date on which the notice of appeal was filed. Failure of the clerk to serve notice shall not affect the validity of the appeal. Service shall be sufficient notwithstanding the death of a party or his/her counsel. The clerk shall note in the docket the names of the parties to whom he/she mails copies with the date of mailing.
- e. Payment of fees. Upon the filing of any separate or joint notice of appeal from the Tribal Court, the appellant shall pay to the clerk of the Tribal Court, for deposit in the Court Fund, a filing fee of twenty dollars ($20.00), except that payment of a filing fee shall not be required for an appeal by the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, its officers, or agents when acting in their official capacity. If a private party joins in an appeal by the Tribe, Tribal officers, or Tribal agents, the private party shall pay the required filing fee. The Supreme Court, or a judge or justice thereof, may waive payment of the filing fee in criminal cases when the defendant, by affidavit or otherwise, establishes that he/she is without sufficient funds or resources with which to pay the required fees.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 3

Rule 4 APPEAL AS OF RIGHT—WHEN TAKEN.

- a. Appeals in civil cases.
1. In a civil case in which an appeal is permitted by law as of right from the Tribal Court to the Winnebago Supreme Court, the notice of appeal required by Rule 3 shall be filed with the clerk of the Tribal Court within the following time periods after entry of the judgment or order appealed from if a time certain is not otherwise provided by statute:
 - i. From an order or judgment in an action for forcible entry or forcible or unlawful detainer: Ten (10) days;
 - ii. From an order, decree, or judgment of the Tribal Court (except an order, decree, or judgment which terminates parental right): One (1) month;
 - iii. From an order, decree, or judgment of the Tribal Court which terminates parental rights: Three (3) months;
 - iv. From a final order, commitment, or judgment in any civil case not hereinabove provided for: Twenty (20) days.
 2. Except as provided in (a)(4) of Rule 4, a notice of appeal filed after the announcement of a decision or order, but before the entry of the judgment or order, shall be treated as filed after such entry and on the day thereof.
 3. If a timely notice of appeal is filed by a party, any other party may file a notice of appeal within fourteen (14) days after the date on which the first notice of appeal was filed, or within the time otherwise prescribed by this Rule 4(a), whichever period last expires.
 4. If a timely motion under the Winnebago Rules of Civil Procedure is filed in the Tribal Court by any party, the time for appeal for all parties shall run from the entry of the order denying a new trial or granting or denying any other such motion. A notice of appeal filed before the disposition of any of the above motions shall have no effect. A new notice of appeal must be filed within the prescribed time measured from the entry of the order disposing of the motion as provided above. No additional fees shall be required for such filing.
 5. The Tribal Court, upon a showing of excusable neglect or good cause, may extend the time for filing a notice of appeal in a civil action upon motion filed not later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the time prescribed by this Rule 4(a). Any such motion which is filed before expiration of the prescribed time for the filing of notice of appeal may be ex parte unless the Tribal Court otherwise requires. Notice of any such motion which is filed after expiration of the prescribed time shall be given to the other parties in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure. No such extension shall exceed thirty (30) days past such prescribed time or ten (10) days from the date of entry of the order granting the motion, whichever occurs later.
 6. A judgment or order is entered within the meaning of this Rule 4(a) when it is entered in compliance with the Winnebago Rules of Civil Procedure.
- b. Appeals in criminal cases. In a criminal case, the notice of appeal by a defendant shall be filed in the Tribal Court within ten (10) days of the entry of the final judgment or other appealable order appealed from. A notice of appeal filed after the announcement of a decision, sentence, or order, but before entry of the judgment or order, shall be treated as filed after such entry and on the day thereof. If a timely motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 36 of the Winnebago Rules of Criminal Procedure on any ground other than newly discovered evidence has been made, an appeal from a judgment of conviction may be taken within ten (10) days after the entry of an order denying the motion. A motion for a new trial based on the ground of newly discovered evidence will similarly extend the time for appeal from a judgment of conviction if the motion is made before or within ten (10) days after entry of the judgment. When an appeal by the Tribe is authorized by statute, the notice of appeal shall be filed by the Tribe in the Tribal Court within ten (10) days after the entry of the judgment or order appealed from unless a different time is specifically set by the statute authorizing the appeal. A judgment or order is entered within the meaning of this subdivision when it is entered in the criminal docket pursuant to the Winnebago Rules of Criminal Procedure. Upon showing of excusable neglect, the Supreme Court may, before or after the time has expired, with or without motion or notice, extend the time for filing a notice of appeal for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the expiration of the time otherwise prescribed by this subdivision of these Rules.

Rule 5 RESERVED FOR PROVISIONS RELATING TO INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

Rule 6 RESERVED FOR PROVISIONS RELATING TO INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

Rule 7 BOND FOR COSTS ON APPEAL IN CIVIL CASES. The Tribal Court may require an appellant to file a bond or provide other security in such form and amount as it finds necessary to ensure payment of costs on appeal in a civil case. The provisions of Rule 8(b) apply to a surety upon a bond given pursuant to this Rule.

Rule 8 STAY OR INJUNCTION PENDING APPEAL.

- a. Procedure. Application for a stay of the judgment or order of the Tribal Court pending appeal, or for approval of a supersedeas bond, or for an order suspending, modifying, restoring or granting an injunction during the pendency of an appeal must ordinarily be made in the first instance in the Tribal Court. A motion for such relief may be made to the Winnebago Supreme Court, or to a judge thereof, but the motion shall show that application to the Tribal Court for the relief sought is not practicable, or that the Tribal Court has denied an application or has failed to afford relief which the applicant requested, with the reasons given by the Tribal Court for its action. The motion shall also show the reasons for the relief requested and the facts relied upon, and if the facts are subject to dispute, the motion shall be supported by affidavits or other sworn statements or copies thereof. With the motion shall be filed such parts of the record as are relevant to the motion. Reasonable notice of the motions shall be given to all parties. The motion shall be filed with the clerk of the Tribal Court, and normally will be considered by the entire Supreme Court, but in exceptional cases where such procedure would be impracticable due to the requirements of time, the application may be made to and considered by a single judge of the Court pending review by the entire Court. In cases where relief has not been previously requested in the Tribal Court, the Supreme Court may, if it determines such action to be appropriate under the circumstances, remand the motion to the Tribal Court for its initial determination.
- b. Bond, proceedings against sureties. Relief available in the Supreme Court under this Rule may be conditioned upon the filing of a bond or other appropriate security in the Tribal Court. If security is given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the Tribal Court as his/her agent upon whom any papers affecting his/her liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. It is the responsibility of the surety to provide the clerk of the Tribal Court with his/her proper and current address, and a supply of stamped, self-addressed envelopes, if he/she wishes copies of any papers served upon the clerk as his/her agent to be mailed to him/her. His/her liability may be enforced on motion in the Tribal Court without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the Tribal Court shall prescribe may be served on the clerk of the Tribal Court who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known.
- c. Criminal cases. Appeal in criminal cases shall be had in accordance with the provisions of Rule 40 of the Winnebago Rules of Criminal Procedure.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 3

Rule 9 RELEASE IN CRIMINAL CASES.

- a. Appeal of order denying release pending appeal. An appeal authorized by law from an order refusing or imposing conditions of release pending appeal of the underlying judgment of conviction and sentence shall be determined promptly. Upon entry of an order refusing or imposing conditions of release pending appeal of the underlying judgment of conviction and sentence, the Tribal Court shall state in writing the reasons for the action taken. The appeal in such matters shall be heard without the necessity of briefs after reasonable notice to the appellee upon such papers, affidavits, and portions of the record as the parties shall present. The Supreme Court, or a judge thereof pending action by the entire Court, may order the release of the appellant pending the appeal.
- b. Procedure. Application for release after a judgment of conviction shall be made in the first instance in the Tribal Court. If the Tribal Court refuses release pending appeals, or imposes conditions of release, the Court shall state in writing the reasons for the action taken. Thereafter, if an appeal is pending, a motion for release, or for modification of the conditions of release, pending review may be made to the Supreme Court or to a designated judge thereof. The motion shall be determined promptly upon such papers, affidavits, and portions of the record as the parties shall present and after reasonable notice to the appellee. The Supreme Court or a judge thereof, pending action by the entire Court, may order the release of the appellant pending disposition of the motion.
- c. Criteria for release. The decision as to release pending appeal shall be made as follows: The burden of establishing that the defendant will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or to the community rests with the defendant.

Rule 10 THE RECORD ON APPEAL.

- a. Composition of the record on appeal. The original papers and exhibits filed in the Tribal Court, the transcript or tape recording of the proceedings, if any, and a certified copy of the docket entries prepared by the clerk of the Tribal Court shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.
- b. Transcript, duty of appellant to order, notice of partial transcript.
 1. Within ten (10) days after filing the notice of appeal, the appellant shall order from the clerk or reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already on file as he/she deems necessary. The order shall be in writing, and within the same period a copy shall be filed with the clerk of the Tribal Court. If no such parts of the proceedings are to be ordered, within the same period, the appellant shall file a certificate to that effect.
 2. If the appellant intends to urge on appeal that a finding or conclusion is unsupported by the evidence or is contrary to the evidence, he/she shall include in the record a transcript of all evidence relevant to such finding or conclusion.
 3. Unless the entire transcript is to be included, the appellant shall, within the ten (10) days time provided in (b)(1) of this Rule 10, file a statement of the issues he/she intends to present on the appeal and shall serve on the appellee a copy of the order or certificate and of the statement. If the appellee deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary, he/she shall, within ten (10) days after the service of the order or certificate and the statement of the appellant, file and serve on the appellant a designation of additional parts to be included. Unless within ten (10) days after service of such designation the appellant has ordered such parts, and has so notified the appellee, the appellee may within the following ten (10) days order the parts or move in the Tribal Court for an order requiring the appellant to do so.
 4. At the time of ordering, a party must make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for payment of the cost of the transcript. If a typewritten transcript is ordered, the clerk or reporter shall charge a fee of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) for each original page, and fifty cents ($.50) for each copy of an original page. If a copy of a tape recording of the proceedings is ordered, the clerk or reporter shall charge fifteen dollars ($15.00) per each sixty (60) minute tape copy ordered. All such fees paid on behalf of a clerk or reporter paid by Tribal monies shall be deposited in the Court Fund, unless specific statutory authority for other disposition of such monies is provided. All such fees paid on behalf of an independent reporter appointed or authorized by the Tribal Court to record its proceedings, but not paid from Tribal funds, shall be paid over to such reporter.

- c. Procedure when no transcript available. If no report of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including his/her recollection. The statement shall be served on the appellee, who may serve objections or propose amendment thereto within ten (10) days after service. Thereupon, the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted to the Tribal Court for settlement and approval, and as settled and approved shall be included by the clerk of the Tribal Court in the record on appeal.
- d. Agreed statement as the record on appeal. In lieu of the record on appeal as defined in subdivision (a) of this Rule, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the trial court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. If the statement conforms to the truth, it, together with such additions as the Court may consider necessary fully to present the issues raised by the appeal, shall be approved by the Tribal Court, and shall then be certified to the Supreme Court as the record on appeal and transmitted to the Supreme Court records.
- e. Correction or modification of the record. If any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the Tribal Court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by the judge of that Court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the Tribal Court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the Supreme Court on proper suggestion or of its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement be corrected, and if necessary, that a supplemental record be certified and transmitted. All other questions as to the form and content of the record shall be presented to the Winnebago Supreme Court.

Rule 11 TRANSMISSION OF RECORD.

- a. Chief clerk to serve as appellate court clerk. The chief clerk of the Tribal Court shall also serve as the clerk of the Supreme Court in all cases arising in the Winnebago Tribal Courts.
- b. Transmission and filing of record. In all cases, including juvenile, civil and criminal actions, the clerk in charge of the papers in that case shall, within five (5) working days after a notice of appeal is filed, prepare, certify, and deliver to the clerk of the Supreme Court for filing with the Supreme Court all papers comprising the record of the case appealed except the transcript. Such compilation shall be indexed with page numbers. All parties to the appeal shall be notified of the filing of the record with the Supreme Court, and a copy of the index to the record shall be attached to the notice for the benefit of the parties. Copies of any documents contained in the record shall be available to the parties at a cost of twenty-five cents ($.25) per page.
- c. Completion of record. Upon receipt of an order for a transcript or additional tape recording, the clerk or reporter shall acknowledge at the foot of the order the fact that he/she has received it and the date on which he/she expects to have the transcript or copy of the tape recording completed and shall transmit the order, so endorsed, to the clerk of the Supreme Court. If the transcript cannot be completed within thirty (30) days of receipt of the order, the clerk or reporter shall request an extension of time from the clerk of the Supreme Court, and the action of the clerk of the Supreme Court shall be entered on the docket and the parties notified. In the event of the failure to file the transcript or complete making copies of the tapes within the time allowed, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall notify the chief judge of the Supreme Court and take such steps as may be directed by the chief judge of the Supreme Court. Upon completion of the transcript, the clerk or reporter shall file it with the clerk of the Tribal Court and shall notify the clerk of the Supreme Court that he/she has done so.

- d. Transmission of transcript. Upon receipt of the transcript, or notification that requested copies of tape recordings of the proceedings are completed, or the filing of a statement as provided in Rule 10(c) or (d), the clerk of the Tribal Court shall forthwith notify the parties that the transcript, tapes, or statement is completed and ready for transmittal to the Winnebago Supreme Court, shall state in the notice the date upon which the notice was given, and the date the final record will be delivered to the Winnebago Supreme Court. The parties may receive their copies (if ordered) of such transcript, tapes, or statement as soon as they become available whether before or after formal notice of such availability is mailed to the parties. Fifteen (15) days after the mailing of the notice of completion of the transcript, tapes, or statement, the clerk of the Tribal Court shall deliver the original thereof to the clerk of the Winnebago Supreme Court for filing. Upon filing by the clerk of the Supreme Court, the record shall be deemed received and completed for the purposes of the appeal.

Rule 12 DOCKETING THE APPEAL; FILING THE RECORD.

- a. Docketing the appeal. Upon receipt of the Notice of Appeal and of the docket entries and papers transmitted by the clerk of the Tribal Court pursuant to Rule 3(d), the clerk of the Supreme Court shall thereupon enter the appeal on the docket. An appeal shall be docketed under the title given to the action in the Tribal Court, with the appellant identified as such, but if such title does not contain the name of the appellant, his/her name, identified as appellant, shall be added to the title. In Juvenile Court appeals, the docket books shall contain the correct names of the parties, however, all opinions or other papers of the Court, which may become public information, shall contain only initials or other similar designations and not the names of the parties.
- b. Upon receipt of the completed record on appeal as provided in Rule 11(d), the clerk of the Supreme Court shall file it and shall immediately give notice to all parties of the date on which it was filed.

The Supreme Court, or a judge or justice thereof, will accept original jurisdiction in such matters only upon a showing of compelling necessity and urgency. If an application is made to or transferred to the Tribal Court and denied, renewal of the application before the Supreme Court, or a judge or justice thereof is not favored; the proper remedy is by appeal to the Supreme Court from the order of the Tribal Court denying the writ.

- a. Transfer of custody pending review. Pending review of a decision in a habeas corpus proceeding commenced before a court, justice or judge of the Winnebago Tribe for the release of a prisoner, a person having custody of the prisoner shall not transfer custody to another unless such transfer is directed in accordance with the provisions of this Rule. Upon application of a custodian showing a need therefor, the Court, justice or judge rendering a decision may make an order authorizing transfer and providing for the substitution of the successor custodian as a party.
- b. Detention or release pending review of decision failing to release. Pending review of a decision failing or refusing to release a prisoner in such a proceeding, the prisoner may be detained in the custody from which release is sought, or in other appropriate custody, or may be released upon his/her recognizance, with or without surety, as may appear fitting to the Court or justice or judge rendering the decision, or to the Supreme Court en banc.
- c. Detention or release pending review of decision ordering release. Pending review of a decision ordering the release of a prisoner in such a proceeding, the prisoner shall be released upon his/her recognizance, with or without surety, unless the Court or justice or judge rendering the decision, or the Supreme Court shall otherwise order.
- d. Modification of initial order respecting custody. An initial order respecting the custody or release of the prisoner and any recognizance of surety taken shall govern review in the Supreme Court unless for special reasons shown to the Supreme Court the order shall be modified, or an independent order respecting custody, release or surety shall be made.

Rule 24 PROCEEDINGS IN FORMA PAUPERIS.

- a. Leave from Tribal Court to proceed to Supreme Court. A party to an action in the Tribal Court who desires to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis shall file in the Tribal Court a motion for leave so to proceed, together with an affidavit showing, in explicit detail, his/her inability to pay fees and costs or to give security therefor, his/her belief that he/she is entitled to redress, and a statement of the issues which he/she intends to present on appeal. If the motion is granted, the party may proceed without further application to the Supreme Court, and without prepayment of fees or costs in either court or the giving of security therefor. If the motion is denied, the Tribal Court shall state in writing the reasons for the denial.
- b. Special rule for parties previously granted permission to proceed in forma pauperis. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a party who has been permitted to proceed in an action in the Tribal Court in forma pauperis, or who has been permitted to proceed there as one who is financially unable to obtain an adequate defense in a criminal case, or a case involving the termination of parental rights, may proceed on appeal in forma pauperis without further authorization unless, before or after the notice of appeal is filed, the Tribal Court shall certify that the appeal is not taken in good faith or shall find that the party is otherwise not entitled so to proceed, in which event the Tribal Court shall state in writing the reasons for such certification or finding.

- c. Remedy for denial of motion by Tribal Court. If a motion for leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis is denied by the Tribal Court, or if the Tribal Court shall certify that the appeal is not taken in good faith or shall find that the party is otherwise not entitled to proceed in forma pauperis, the clerk shall forthwith serve notice of such action. A motion for leave so to proceed may be filed in the Supreme Court within thirty (30) days after service of notice of the action of the Tribal Court. The motion shall be accompanied by a copy of the affidavit filed in the Tribal Court, or by the affidavit prescribed by the first paragraph of this subdivision if no affidavit has been filed in the Tribal Court, and by a copy of the statement of reasons given by the Tribal Court for its action.

PART VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 25 FILING AND SERVICE.

- a. Filing. Papers required or permitted to be filed in the Supreme Court shall be filed with the clerk. Filing may be accomplished by mail addressed to the clerk, but filing shall not be timely unless the papers are received by the clerk within the time fixed for filing, except that briefs and appendices shall be deemed filed on the day of mailing if the most expeditious form of delivery is by mail, excepting special delivery or overnight mail, is utilized. If a motion requests relief which may be granted by a single judge, the judge may permit the motion to be filed with him/her, in which event he/she shall note thereon the date of filing and shall thereafter transmit it to the clerk.
- b. Service of all papers required. Copies of all papers filed by any party and not required by these Rules to be served by the clerk shall, at or before the time of filing, be served by a party or person acting for him/her on all other parties to the appeal or review. Service on a party represented by counsel or lay advocate shall be made on the counsel or lay advocate.
- c. Manner of service. Service may be personal or by mail. Personal service includes delivery of the copy to a clerk, secretary, or other responsible person at the office of counsel or lay advocate. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.
- d. Proof of service. Papers presented for filing shall contain an acknowledgment of service by the person served or proof of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service and of the name of the person served, certified by the person who made service. Proof of service may appear on or be affixed to the papers filed. The clerk may permit papers to be filed without acknowledgment or proof of service, but shall require such to be filed promptly thereafter.

Rule 26 COMPUTATION AND EXTENSION OF TIME.

- a. Computation of time. In computing any period of time prescribed by these Rules, by an order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, in which event the period extends until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than seven (7) days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation. As used in this Rule, "legal holiday" includes New Year's Day, Tribal Constitution Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Friday of Pow-Wow, Labor Day, Tribal Election Day, Native American Day, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Day and Day After (Friday), Christmas Day and any other day appointed as a holiday by the President or the Congress of the United States or the Tribal Council of the Winnebago Tribe.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 3

- b. Enlargement of time. The Court, for good cause shown, may upon motion enlarge the time prescribed by these Rules or by its order for doing any act, or may permit an act to be done after the expiration of such time; but the Supreme Court may not enlarge the time for filing a notice of appeal.
- c. Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party is required or permitted to do an act within a prescribed period after service of a paper upon him/her and the paper is served by mail, three (3) days shall be added to the prescribed period.

Rule 27 MOTION

- a. Content, response, reply. Unless another form is elsewhere prescribed by these Rules, an application for an order or other relief shall be made by filing a motion for such order or relief with proof of service on all other parties. The motion shall contain or be accompanied by any matter required by a specific provision of these Rules governing such a motion, shall state with particularity the grounds on which it is based, and shall set forth the order or relief sought. If a motion is supported by briefs, affidavits, or other papers, they shall be served and filed with the motion. Any party may file a response in opposition to a motion other than one for a procedural order within seven (7) days after service of the motion, but motions authorized by Rules 8, 9, and 41 may be acted upon after reasonable notice, and the Court may shorten or extend the time for responding to any motion.
- b. Determination of motions for procedural orders. Notwithstanding the provisions of (a) of this Rule 27 as to motions generally, motions for procedural orders, including any motion under Rule 26(b), may be acted upon at any time, without awaiting a response thereto, and pursuant to rule or order of the court, motions for specified types of procedural orders may be disposed of by the clerk. Any party adversely affected by such action may, by application to the Court, request consideration, vacation or modification of such action.
- c. Power of a single judge to entertain motions. In addition to the authority expressly conferred by these Rules or by law, a single judge of an appellate court may entertain and may grant or deny any request for relief which under these Rules may properly be sought by motion, except that a single judge may not dismiss or otherwise determine an appeal or other proceeding, and except that an appellate court may provide by order or rule that any motion or class of motions must be acted upon by the court. The action of a single judge may be reviewed by the court.
- d. Form of papers; number of copies. All papers relating to motions may be typewritten. Three (3) copies shall be filed with the original, but the court may require that additional copies be furnished.

Rule 28 BRIEFS.

- a. Brief of the appellant. The brief of the appellant shall contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:
 - 1. A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with reference to the pages of the brief where they are cited.
 - 2. A statement of the issues presented for review.
 - 3. A statement of the case. The statement shall first indicate briefly the nature of the case, the course of proceedings, and its disposition in the court below. There shall follow a statement of the facts relevant to the issues presented for review, with appropriate references to the record (see subdivision (e)).
 - 4. An argument. The argument may be preceded by a summary. The argument shall contain the contentions of the appellant with respect to the issues presented, and the reasons therefor, with citations to the authorities, statutes and parts of the record relied on.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

5. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.
- b. The brief of the appellee shall conform to the requirements of subdivision (a)(1)-(4), except that a statement of the issues or of the case need not be made unless the appellee is dissatisfied with the statement of appellant.
- c. Reply brief. The appellant may file a brief in reply to the brief of the appellee, and if the appellee has cross-appealed, the appellee may file a brief in reply to the response of the appellant to the issues presented by the cross appeal. No further briefs may be filed except with leave of court.
- d. References in briefs to parties. Counsel will be expected in their briefs and oral arguments to keep to a minimum references to parties by such designations as “appellant” and “appellee.” It promotes clarity to use the designations used in the lower court or the actual name of the parties, or descriptive terms such as “the employee,” “the injured person,” “the taxpayer,” “the car,” etc.
- e. References in briefs to the record. References in the briefs to parts of the record reproduced in any appendix filed with the brief of the appellant (see Rule 30) shall be to the pages of the appendix at which those parts appear and to the pages in the original record. If an appendix is prepared after the briefs are filed, references in the briefs to the record shall be made to the original record. Intelligible abbreviations may be used. If reference is made to evidence, the admissibility of which is in controversy, reference shall be made to the pages of the record or of the transcript at which the evidence was identified, offered, and received or rejected.
- f. Reproduction of statutes, rules, regulations, etc. If determination of the issues presented requires the study of statutes, rules, regulations, etc. or relevant parts thereof, they shall be reproduced in the brief or in an addendum at the end, or they may be supplied to the Court in pamphlet form.
- g. Length of briefs. Except by permission of the Court, principal briefs shall not exceed fifty (50) pages, and reply briefs shall not exceed twenty-five (25) pages, exclusive of pages containing the table of contents, table of citations and any addendum containing statutes, rules, regulations, etc.
- h. Briefs in cases involving cross appeals. If a cross appeal is filed, the plaintiff in the court below shall be deemed the appellant for the purposes of this Rule and Rule 31, unless the parties otherwise agree or the Court otherwise orders. The brief of the appellee shall contain the issues and argument involved in his/her appeal as well as the answer to the brief of the appellant.
- i. Briefs in cases involving multiple appellants or appellees. In cases involving more than one appellant or appellee, including cases consolidated for purposes of the appeal, any number of either may join in a single brief, and any appellant or appellee may adopt by reference any part of the brief of another. Parties may similarly join in reply briefs.
- j. Citation of supplemental authorities. When pertinent and significant authorities come to the attention of a party after his/her brief has been filed, or after oral argument but before decision, a party may promptly advise the clerk of the court, by letter with a copy to all counsel, setting forth the citations. There shall be a reference either to the page of the brief or to a point argued orally to which the citations pertain, but the letter shall without argument state the reasons for the supplemental citations. Any response shall be made promptly and shall be similarly limited.

Rule 29 BRIEF OF AN AMICUS CURIAE. A brief of an amicus curiae may be filed only if accompanied by written consent of all parties, or by leave of Court granted on motion or at the request of the Court, except that consent to leave shall not be required when the brief is presented by the Winnebago Tribe, the United States or an officer or agency thereof, or by a state, territory, commonwealth or Indian tribe. The brief may be conditionally filed with the motion for leave. A motion for leave shall identify the interest of the applicant and shall state the reasons why a brief of amicus curiae is desirable. Save us all parties otherwise consent, any amicus curiae shall file its brief within the time allowed the party whose position as to affirmance or reversal the amicus brief will support unless the Court for cause shown shall grant leave for later filing, in which event it shall specify within what period an opposing party may answer. A motion of an amicus curiae to participate in the oral argument will be granted only for extraordinary reasons, or on the Court's own motion.

Rule 30 APPENDIX TO THE BRIEFS. Whenever the record on appeal, or the transcripts are particularly voluminous, the Court may order the appellant to prepare, with notice and consultation by the appellee, an appendix to the briefs which shall contain the papers, documents, and portions of the transcript necessary to the determination of the issues presented on appeal. The preparation of an appendix does not prevent further referrals to the original record by any party or the Court. A party may append pertinent parts of the record to his/her brief when such is necessary for a clear presentation of the issues raised on appeal.

Rule 31 FILING AND SERVICE OF BRIEFS.

- a. Time for serving and filing briefs. The appellant shall serve and file his/her brief within twenty (20) days after the date on which the completed record is received and filed in the Supreme Court, and this motion constitutes leave therefor. The appellee shall serve and file his/her brief within twenty (20) days after service of the brief of the appellant. The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within fourteen (14) days after service of the brief of the appellee, but except for good cause shown, a reply brief must be filed at least three (3) days before argument.
- b. Number of copies to be filed and served. Three (3) copies of each brief shall be filed with the clerk in addition to the original, unless the Court by order in a particular case shall direct a lesser or greater number, and two (2) copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented.
- c. Consequence of failure to file briefs. If an appellant fails to file his/her brief within the time provided by this Rule, or within the time as extended, an appellee may move for dismissal of the appeal. If an appellee fails to file his/her brief, he/she will not be heard at oral argument except by permission of the Court.

Rule 32 FORM OF BRIEFS, THE APPENDIX, AND OTHER PAPERS.

- a. Form of briefs and appendices. Briefs and appendices may be produced in standard typographic printing or by any duplicating or copying process which produces a clear black image on white paper, including legible photocopies. Carbon copies of briefs and appendices may not be submitted without permission of the Court, except in behalf of parties allowed to proceed in forma pauperis. All printed matter must appear in at least 11 point type on opaque, unglazed paper. Briefs and appendices produced by the standard typographic process shall be bound in volumes having pages 6 1/8 by 9 1/4 inches and type matter 4 1/6 by 7 1/6 inches. Those produced by any other process shall be bound in volumes having pages not exceeding 8 1/2 by 11 inches and type matter not exceeding 6 1/2 by 9 1/2 inches, with double spacing between each line of text, except that quoted matter may be single spaced. Copies of the reporter's transcript and other papers reproduced in a manner authorized by this Rule may be inserted in the appendix; such pages may be informally renumbered if necessary.

If briefs are produced by commercial printing or duplicating firms, or, if produced otherwise and the covers to be described are available, the cover of the brief of the appellant should be blue; that of the appellee, red; that of an intervenor or amicus curiae, green; that of any reply brief, gray. The cover of the appendix, if separately printed, should be white. The front covers of the briefs and of appendices shall contain:

1. The name of the court and the number of the case;
2. The title of the case (see Rule 12(a));
3. The nature of the proceedings in the court (e.g., Appeal; Petition for Review) and the name of the court below;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 3

4. The title of the document (e.g. Brief of Appellant, Appendix); and
 5. The names and addresses of counsel representing the party on whose behalf the document is filed.
- b. Form of other papers. Petitions for rehearing shall be produced in a manner prescribed by subdivision (a). Motions and other papers may be produced in a like manner, or they may be typewritten upon opaque, unglazed paper 8 1/2 by 11 inches in size. Lines of typewritten text shall be double spaced. Consecutive sheets shall be attached at the left margin. Carbon copies may be used for filing and service if they are legible.
- A motion or other paper addressed to the Court shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the case, the file number, and a brief descriptive title indicating the purpose of the paper.

Rule 33 PREHEARING CONFERENCE. The Court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before the Court or a judge thereof for a prehearing conference to consider the simplification of the issues and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the proceeding by the Court. The Court or judge shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered and which limits the issues to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel, and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the proceeding, unless modified to prevent manifest injustice.

Rule 34 ORAL ARGUMENT.

- a. In general; local rule. Oral argument shall be allowed in all cases unless the Court, after examination of the briefs and record, shall be unanimously of the opinion that oral argument is not needed. In such cases, the Court shall notify the parties of its intention to proceed without oral argument, and shall provide any party with an opportunity to file a statement setting forth the reasons why, in his/her opinion, oral argument should be heard. Oral argument will be allowed upon request unless the Court unanimously determines:
 1. The appeal is frivolous; or
 2. The dispositive issue or set of issues has been recently authoritatively decided; or
 3. The facts and legal arguments are adequately presented in the briefs and record, and the decisional process would not be significantly aided by oral argument.
- b. Notice of argument; postponement. The clerk shall advise all parties whether oral argument is to be heard, and if so, of the time and place therefor, and the time to be allowed each side. A request for postponement of the argument or for allowance of additional time must be made by motion filed reasonably in advance of the date fixed for hearing.
- c. Order and content of argument. The appellant is entitled to open and conclude the argument. The opening argument shall include a fair statement of the case. Counsel will not be permitted to read at length from briefs, records or authorities.
- d. Cross and separate appeals. A cross or separate appeal shall be argued with the initial appeal at a single argument, unless the Court otherwise directs. If a case involves a cross-appeal, the plaintiff in the action below shall be deemed the appellant for the purpose of this Rule unless the parties otherwise agree or the Court otherwise directs. If separate appellants support the same argument, care should be taken to avoid duplication of argument.
- e. Non-appearance of parties. If the appellee fails to appear to present argument, the Court will hear argument on behalf of the appellant, if present. If the appellant fails to appear, the Court may hear argument on behalf of the appellee, if his/her counsel is present. If neither party appears, the case will be decided on the briefs unless the Court shall otherwise order.
- f. Submission on briefs. By agreement of the parties, a case may be submitted for decision on the briefs, but the Court may direct that the case be argued.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 3

- g. Use of physical exhibits at argument; removal. If physical exhibits other than documents are to be used at the argument, counsel shall arrange to have them placed in the courtroom before the court convenes on the date of the argument. After the argument, counsel shall cause the exhibits to be removed from the courtroom unless the court otherwise directs. If exhibits are not reclaimed by counsel within a reasonable time after notice is given by the clerk, they shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the clerk shall think best.

Rule 35 DETERMINATION OF CAUSES BY THE COURT EN BANC.

- a. When a hearing or rehearing en banc will be ordered. A majority of the judges of the Court who are in regular active service may order that any motion or other proceeding be heard or reheard by the Supreme Court en banc. Such hearing or rehearing is not favored and ordinarily will not be ordered except (1) when consideration by the full Court is necessary to secure or maintain uniformity of its decision, or (2) when the proceedings involve a question of exceptional importance.
- b. Suggestion of a party for hearing or rehearing en banc. A party may suggest the appropriateness of a hearing or rehearing en banc. No response shall be filed unless the Court shall so order. The clerk shall transmit any such suggestion to the judges of the Court who are in regular active service, but a vote need not be taken to determine whether the cause shall be heard or reheard en banc unless a judge in regular active service or the judge who rendered a decision sought to be reheard requests a vote on such a suggestion made by a party.
- c. Time for suggestion of a party for hearing or rehearing en banc; suggestion does not stay mandate. If a party desires to suggest that a motion or proceeding be heard initially en banc, the suggestion must be made by the date on which the appellee's brief is filed. A suggestion for rehearing a motion en banc must be made within ten (10) days after notice of the decision of the judge initially hearing the motion. The pendency of such a suggestion, whether or not included in a petition for rehearing, shall not affect the finality of the judgment of the Supreme Court or stay the issuance of the mandate.

Rule 36 ENTRY OF JUDGMENT. The notation of a judgment in the docket constitutes entry of the judgment. The clerk shall prepare, sign and enter the judgment following receipt of the opinion of the court unless the opinion directs settlement of the form of the judgment, in which event the clerk shall prepare, sign, and enter the judgment following final settlement by the Court. If a judgment is rendered without an opinion, the clerk shall prepare, sign and enter the judgment following instruction from the court. The clerk shall, on the date judgment is entered, mail to all parties a copy of the opinion, if any, or of the judgment if no opinion was written, and notice of the date of entry of the judgment.

Rule 37 INTEREST ON JUDGMENTS. Unless otherwise provided by law, if a judgment for money in a civil case is affirmed, whatever interest is allowed by law shall be payable from the date the judgment was entered in the Tribal Court. If a judgment is modified or reversed with a direction that a judgment for money be entered in the Tribal Court, the mandate shall contain instruction with respect to allowance of interest.

Rule 38 DAMAGES FOR DELAY. If the Supreme Court shall determine that an appeal is frivolous, it may award just damages and single or double costs to the appellee.

Rule 39 COSTS.

- a. To whom allowed. Except as otherwise provided by law, if an appeal is dismissed, costs shall be taxed against the appellant unless otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by the Court; if a judgment is affirmed, costs shall be taxed against the appellant unless otherwise ordered; if a - judgment is reversed, costs shall be taxed against the appellee unless otherwise ordered; if a judgment is affirmed or reversed in part, or is vacated, costs shall be allowed only as ordered by the Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 3

- b. Costs for or against the Winnebago Tribe. In cases involving the Winnebago Tribe or an agency or officer thereof, if an award of costs against or for the Winnebago Tribe is authorized by Tribal statute, costs shall be awarded in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (a); otherwise, costs shall not be awarded for or against the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska or its agencies or officers in their official capacity.
 - c. Costs of briefs, appendices, and copies of records. Unless otherwise provided by Tribal statute or Court rule, the cost of printing, or otherwise producing necessary copies of briefs, appendices, and copies of records authorized by Rule 30 shall be taxable in the Supreme Court at rates not higher than those generally charged for such work within the reservation.
 - d. Bill of costs; objection; costs inserted in mandate or added later. A party who desires such costs to be taxed shall state them in an itemized and verified bill of costs which he/she shall file with the clerk, with proof of service, within fourteen (14) days after the entry of judgment. Objections to the bill of costs must be filed within ten (10) days of service on the party against whom costs are to be taxed unless the time is extended by the Court. The clerk shall prepare and certify an itemized statement of costs taxed in the Supreme Court for insertion in the mandate, but the issuance of the mandate shall not be delayed for taxation of costs, and if the mandate has been issued before final determination of costs, the statement, or any amendment thereof, shall be added to the mandate upon request by the clerk of the Supreme Court to the clerk of the Tribal Court.
 - e. Costs on appeal taxable in the Tribal Court. Costs incurred in preparation and transmission of the record, the cost of the reporter's transcript, if necessary for the determination of the appeal, the premiums paid for cost of supersedeas bonds or other bonds to preserve rights pending appeal, and the fee for filing the notice of appeal shall be taxed in the Tribal Court as costs of the appeal in favor of the party entitled to costs under this Rule.

Rule 40 PETITION FOR REHEARING.

- a. Time for filing, content, answer, action by court. A petition for rehearing may be filed within fourteen (14) days after entry of judgment unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order of the Court. The petition shall state with particularity the points of law or fact which, in the opinion of the petitioner, the Court has overlooked or misapprehended and shall contain such argument in support of the petition as the petitioner desires to present. Oral argument in support of the petition will not be permitted except upon the Court's own motion. No answer to a petition for rehearing will be received unless requested by the Court, but a petition for rehearing will ordinarily not be granted in the absence of such a request. If a petition for rehearing is granted the Court may make a final disposition of the case without reargument or may restore it to the calendar for reargument or resubmission or may make such other orders as are deemed appropriate under the circumstances of the particular case.

Rule 41 ISSUANCE OF MANDATE. The mandate of the Court shall issue twenty-one (21) days after the entry of judgment unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order. A certified copy of the judgment and a copy of the opinion of the Court, if any, and any direction as to costs shall constitute the mandate, unless the Court directs that a formal mandate issue. The timely filing of a petition for rehearing will stay the mandate until disposition of the petition unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If the petition is denied, the mandate shall issue seven (7) days after entry of the order denying the petition unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 3

Rule 42 VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL.

- a. Dismissal in the Tribal Court. If an appeal has not been docketed, the appeal may be dismissed by the Tribal Court upon the filing in that court of a stipulation for dismissal signed by all the parties, or upon motion and notice by the appellant.
- b. Dismissal in the Supreme Court. If the parties to an appeal or other proceeding shall sign and file with the clerk of the Supreme Court an agreement that the proceeding be dismissed, specifying the terms as to payment of costs, and shall pay whatever fees are due, the clerk shall enter the case dismissed, but no mandate or other process shall issue without an order of the Court. An appeal may be dismissed on motion of the appellant upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the parties or fixed by the Court.

Rule 43 SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES.

- a. Death of a party. If a party dies after a notice of appeal is filed or while a proceeding is otherwise pending in the Supreme Court, the personal representative of the deceased party may be substituted as a party on motion filed by the representative or by any party with the clerk of the Court. The motion of a party shall be served upon the representative in accordance with the provisions of Rule 25. If the deceased party has no representative, any party may suggest the death on the record and proceedings shall then be had as the Supreme Court may direct. If a party against whom an appeal may be taken dies after entry of a judgment or order in the Tribal Court but before the notice of appeal is filed, an appellant may proceed as if death had not occurred. After the notice of appeal is filed, substitution shall be effected in the Supreme Court in accordance with this subdivision. If a party entitled to appeal shall die before filing a notice of appeal, the notice of appeal may be filed by his/her attorney of record within the time prescribed by these Rules. After the notice of appeal is filed, substitution shall be effected in the Supreme Court in accordance with this subdivision.
- b. Substitution for other causes. If substitution of a party in the Supreme Court is necessary for any reason other than death, substitution shall be effected in accordance with the procedure prescribed in subdivision (a).
- c. Public officer; death or separation from office.
 1. When a public officer is a party to an appeal or other proceeding in the Supreme Court in his/her official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his/her successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.
 2. When a public officer is a party to an appeal or other proceeding in his/her official capacity, he/she may be described as a party by his/her official title rather than by name; but the Court may require that his/her name be added.

Rule 44 CASES INVOLVING CONSTITUTIONAL OR INDIAN CIVIL RIGHTS ACT QUESTION WHERE THE WINNEBAGO TRIBE IS NOT A PARTY. It shall be the duty of a party who draws a question of the constitutionality (or unlawfulness under the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968) of any statute, ordinance, or other action of the Tribal Council in any proceeding in the Supreme Court to which the Tribe, or any agency, officer, or employee thereof in their official capacity is not a party, upon the filing of the record, or as soon thereafter as the question is raised in the Supreme Court, to give immediate notice in writing to the Court of the existence of said question. The clerk shall thereupon certify such fact to the Tribal attorney and/or Tribal prosecutor who may intervene upon such question upon motion.

1-402 Eligibility for admission.

1. Any attorney who is an active member in good standing of any State bar or Bar of the District of Columbia is eligible for admission to practice before the Courts of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, if he/she follows the procedures for admission as set out in Section 1-403.
2. Any person who has successfully completed a certified paralegal training program is also eligible for admission to practice before the Courts of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, if they follow the procedure for admission as set out in Section 1-403 and meet minimum requirements of this Section. TITLE 1 ARTICLE 4

2. Any professional attorney or lay counsel desiring to be admitted to the practice before the Winnebago Tribal Court System shall complete and submit an application for admission certifying under oath:
 - a. That he/she meets the requirements of Section 1-402 of this Code, and appending thereto a current bar admission card or letter from a State bar association or District of Columbia Association evidencing his/her admission to a good standing therein, or evidence of graduation from a certified paralegal training program.
 - b. That he/she has taken the required oath as set out in the application.
3. An admission fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be tendered with the application subject to return if the application is denied. 4. Upon receipt of an application for admission to practice before the Courts of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, the chief judge shall review the application and may, but need not, investigate the truth of the matters contained therein. If the applicant meets the qualifications set forth herein, the chief judge shall cause a certificate to be issued evidencing the admission of the applicant to practice before the Courts of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.
5. Any person denied admission shall have a right to appeal in writing directly to the Tribal Council which may conduct such inquiry or proceedings on the matter as it deems appropriate. [TCR 96-22]

1-404 Disbarment and discipline.

1. Whenever any professional attorney admitted to practice before the Winnebago Tribal Court has been disbarred or suspended from the practice of law in any state to which reference for admission to practice was made as a condition to obtaining admission to practice before the Tribal Courts, the chief judge shall immediately send notice to his/her last known address that he/she shall be suspended from practice before the Courts of the Tribe for an indefinite period unless he/she shall appear or otherwise answer within thirty days showing good cause why such order should not be entered. The attorney may also be suspended from further appearances for misconduct or improper behavior by any judge of the Tribal Court upon conditions of notice and hearing.
2. Any person appearing as lay counsel for another may be suspended from further appearances as such for misconduct or improper behavior by any judge of the Tribal Court upon conditions of notice and hearing. [TCR 86-79]

1-405 Standards of conduct and obligations for attorneys and lay counsel.

1. Every attorney admitted to practice before the Courts of the Tribe, and every lay counsel employed or appointed to represent another before such Courts when acting in such capacity or in matters in any relation thereto, shall conform his/her conduct in every respect to the requirements and suggested behavior of the Code of Professional Responsibility as adopted by the American Bar Association.
2. Both professional attorneys and lay counselors who hold themselves out as being available to act as such have a responsibility to accept as client and represent without compensation or without full compensation such persons as a judge of a Tribal Court feels have particular urgent needs for such representation but are personally unable to afford such legal help. Professional attorneys and lay counselors will be appointed if needed to represent individual clients on a free basis or on a reduced fee basis as part of the admission requirements. Provided that no person shall be obliged by this provision or otherwise to provide more than fifteen hours of free legal services during any twelve month period. [TCR 86-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

I do solemnly swear (affirm):

That I will support the Constitution of the United States and support and defend the Constitution and By-laws, and laws of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska; that I will maintain the respect due the Courts and judicial officers of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska;

That I will not counsel or maintain any suit or proceeding which shall appear to me to be unjust, nor maintain any defense except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land;

That I will employ for such purposes of maintaining the cause confided to me such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will never seek to mislead the judge or jury by any artifice, or false statement of fact or law. [TCR 86-79]

1. Disorderly, contemptuous, or insulting behavior toward a judge while holding Court, which tends to interrupt the course of the proceedings or undermines the dignity of the Court.
2. A breach of the peace, or loud boisterous conduct which tends to interrupt the course of a judicial proceeding.
3. Deceit, or abuse of process or proceedings of the Court by a party or counselor to a judicial proceeding.

9. Any other interference with the process, proceeding, or dignity of the Court or of a judge of the Court while in the performance of his/her official duties occurring while any Court hearing is in actual session. [TCR 86-79]

1-501 Civil contempt.

1. A civil contempt is prosecuted to preserve, protect, enforce or restore the duly adjudicated rights of a party to a civil action against one under legal obligation to do or refrain from doing something as a result of a judicial decree or order.
2. Relief in a civil contempt proceeding may be coercive or compensatory in nature as to the complaining party and may include a fine payable to the Court or to the complaining party or imprisonment of the party in contempt to secure compliance, or both. [TCR 86-79]

1-502 Criminal contempt.

1. Conduct which is directed at, or is detrimental to, the dignity and authority of the Court is a criminal contempt.
2. Criminal contempt is an offense which may be punishable, at the discretion of the Court based on the nature of the conduct in question, with a fine of up to five hundred dollars ($500.00) and/or up to six months in jail. [TCR 86-79]

| 1-600 | Eligibility for jury selection. | 1-603 | Power to excuse jurors. |
| 1-601 | Jury lists. | 1-604 | Compensation to jurors. |

1-600 Eligibility for jury duty.

1. Any enrolled member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska eighteen years or older, who has not been convicted of a felony or a Class I offense under this Code, and who resides on the Winnebago Indian reservation, shall be eligible to be a juror. Judges, other officers or employees of the Court, attorneys, lay counselors, and current Tribal Council members shall not be eligible to be jurors.
2. The chief judge may adopt procedures whereby non-enrolled Indians and non-Indians may be summoned for jury duty in cases in which one or more non-Indian participants are involved. [TCR 86-79, 05-111]

1-601 Jury lists. Each year, the clerk of Courts, at the direction of the Tribal Court, shall prepare a list of eligible jurors, which list shall contain not less than fifty names and which shall contain the names of persons appearing on the Tribal enrollment lists as well as other lists which would fairly represent those individuals living upon the reservation who are eligible to serve as jurors. [TCR 86-79]

1-602 Jury panel selection procedures.

1. The clerk shall subpoena not less than twenty persons from the list of eligible jurors to appear and be available to serve as jurors whenever a jury trial is scheduled in a civil or criminal matter.
2. The selection from the list of eligible jurors shall be by lot or some other means of random, impartial selection.
3. Selection of jurors to hear the case shall be accomplished as provided in the Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedures elsewhere in this Code. [TCR 86-79]

1-603 Power to excuse jurors. Only the judge assigned to hear a case shall have the power to excuse a person subpoenaed to appear as a juror and may do so on account of sickness, disability, extreme hardship, or other good cause shown upon the request for such excusal by the person subpoenaed. [TCR 86-79]

1-604 Compensation to jurors. Each juror who is called and reports for jury duty or who serves on a jury shall be entitled to receive such fees for daily service and/or mileage, if any, as the Tribal Court shall establish by Rule of the Court, consistent with available funds. [TCR 86-79]

JUDICIAL CONDUCT

|-------|---------------------------------------|-------|---|
| 1-700 | Adoption of Code of Judicial Conduct. | 1-705 | Canon 5. |
| 1-701 | Canon 1. | 1-706 | Canon 6. |
| 1-702 | Canon 2. | 1-707 | Canon 7. |
| 1-703 | Canon 3. | 1-708 | Compliance with Code of Judicial Conduct. |
| 1-704 | Canon 4. | | |

1-700 Adoption of Code of Judicial Conduct. The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska hereby adopts the Code found in Sections 1-701, et seq., of this Article to be adhered to by all judicial officers of the Court. Judicial officer is defined as all judges, magistrates, referees, and includes anyone who is engaged in the duties of a judge. [TCR 86-79]

1-701 Canon 1. A Judge Should Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary. An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should him/herself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this Code should be construed and applied to further that objective. [TCR 86-79]

1-702 Canon 2. A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in All his/her Activities.

- A. A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct him/herself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.
- B. A judge should not allow his/her family, social, or other relationships to influence his/her judicial conduct or judgment. He/she should not lend the prestige of his/her office to advance the private interest of others; nor should he/she convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him/her. He/she should not testify voluntarily as a character witness.

Commentary

Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct by judges. A judge must avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety. He/she must expect to be the subject of constant public scrutiny. He/she must therefore accept restrictions on his/her conduct that might be viewed as burdensome by the ordinary citizen and should do so freely and willingly. The testimony of a judge as a character witness injects the prestige of his/her office into the proceeding in which he/she testifies and may be misunderstood to be an official testimonial. This Canon, however, does not afford him/her a privilege against testifying in response to an official summons. [TCR 86-79]

1-703 Canon 3. A Judge Should Perform the Duties of his/her Office Impartially and Diligently. The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his/her other activities. His/her judicial duties include all duties of his/her office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

- A. Adjudicative Responsibilities
 - 1. A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. He/she should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.
 - 2. A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him/her.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 7

3. A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he/she deals in his/her official capacity, and staff, Court officials, and others subject to his/her direction and control.

Commentary

The duty to hear all proceedings fairly and with patience is not inconsistent with the duty to dispose promptly of the business of the Court. Courts can be efficient and businesslike while being patient and deliberate.

4. A judge should accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his/her lawyer, the full right to be heard according to law, and, except as authorized by law, neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding. A judge, however, may obtain the advice of a disinterested expert on the law applicable to a proceeding before him/her if he/she gives notice to the parties of the person consulted and the substance of the advice, and affords the parties reasonable opportunity to respond.

Commentary

The prescription against communications concerning a proceeding includes communications from lawyers, law teachers, and other persons who are not participants in the proceeding, except to the limited extent permitted. It does not preclude a judge from consulting with other judges, or with Court personnel whose function is to aid the judge in carrying out his/her adjudicative responsibilities. An appropriate and often desirable procedure for a Court to obtain the advice of a disinterested expert on legal issues is to invite him/her to file a brief Amicus Curiae.

5. A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the Court.

Commentary

Prompt disposition of the Court's business requires a judge to devote adequate time to his/her duties, to be punctual in attending Court and expeditious in determining matters under submission, and to insist that Court officials, litigants and their lawyers cooperate with him/her to that end.

6. A judge should abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding in any Court, and should require similar abstention on the part of Court personnel subject to his/her direction and control. This subsection does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the Court.

Commentary

"Court personnel" does not include the lawyers in a proceeding before a judge. The conduct of lawyers is governed by DR7-107 of the Code of Professional Responsibility.

7. A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording or photographing in Courtrooms and areas immediately adjacent thereto during sessions of Court, or recesses between sessions, except that under rules prescribed by a supervising appellate Court or other appropriate authority, a judge may authorize broadcasting televising, recording and photographing of judicial proceedings in Courtrooms and areas immediately adjacent thereto consistent with the right of the parties to a fair trial and subject to express conditions, limitations, and guidelines which allow such coverage in a manner that will be unobtrusive, will not distract the trial participants, and will not otherwise interfere with the administration of justice.

B. Administrative Responsibilities.

1. A judge should diligently discharge his/her administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative response abilities of other judges and Court officials.
2. A judge should require his/her staff and Court officials subject to his/her direction and control to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him/her.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 7

3. A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a judge or lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

Commentary

Disciplinary measures may include reporting a lawyer's misconduct to an appropriate disciplinary body.

4. A judge should not make unnecessary appointments. He/she should exercise his/her power of appointments only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. He/she should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

Commentary

Appointees of the judge include officials such as referees, commissioners, special masters, receivers, guardians and personnel such as clerks, secretaries, and bailiffs. Consent by the parties to an appointment or an award of compensation does not relieve the judge of the obligation prescribed by this subsection.

C. Disqualification.

1. A judge should disqualify him/herself in a proceeding in which his/her impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

- a. He/she has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding.
- b. He/she served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he/she previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it.

Commentary

A lawyer in a governmental agency does not necessarily have an association with other lawyers employed by that agency within the meaning of this subsection; a judge formerly employed by a governmental agency, however, should disqualify him/herself in a proceeding if his/her impartiality might reasonably be questioned because of such association.

- c. He/she knows that he/she, individually or as a fiduciary, or his/her spouse or minor child residing in his/her household, has a financial interest in the subject matter controversy or in a party to the proceeding or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding.
- d. He/she or his/her spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:
 - i. is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;
 - ii. is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;

Commentary

The fact that a lawyer in a proceeding is affiliated with a law firm with which a lawyer-relative of the judge is affiliated does not of itself disqualify the judge. Under appropriate circumstances, the fact that his/her impartiality might reasonably be questioned under Canon 3C(1) or that the lawyer-relative is known by the judge to have an interest in the law firm that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding. under Canon 3C(1)(d)(iii) may require his/her disqualification.

- iii. is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;
- iv. is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 7

2. A judge should inform him/herself about his/her personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform him/herself about the personal financial interests of his/her spouse and minor children residing in his/her household.
3. For the purposes of this Section;
 - a. the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;
Commentary
According to the civil law system, the third degree of relationship test would, for example, disqualify the judge if his/her or his/her spouse's father, grandfather, uncle, brother, or niece's husband were a party or lawyer in the proceeding but would not disqualify him/her if a cousin were a party or lawyer in the proceeding.
 - b. "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;
 - c. "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:
 - i. ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a financial interest in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;
 - ii. an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a financial interest in securities held by the organization;
 - iii. the proprietary interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a financial interest in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;
 - iv. ownership of government securities is a financial interest in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.
 - d. Remittal of Disqualification. A judge disqualified by the terms of Canon 3C(1)(C) or Canon 3C(1)(d) may, instead of withdrawing from the proceeding, disclose on the record the basis of his/her qualifications. If, based on such disclosure, the parties and lawyer, independently of the judge's participation, all agree in writing that the judge's relationship is immaterial or that his/her financial interest is insubstantial, the judge is no longer disqualified, and may participate in the proceeding. The agreement, signed by all parties and lawyers, shall be incorporated in the record of the proceeding.
Commentary
This procedure is designed to minimize the chance that a party or lawyer will feel coerced into an agreement. When a party is not immediately available, the judge without violating this Section may proceed on the written assurance of the lawyer that his/her party's consent will subsequently be filed. [TCR 86-79]

1-704 Canon 4. A Judge May Engage in Activities to Improve the Law, the Legal System, and Administration of Justice. A judge, subject to the proper performance of his/her judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so he/she does not cast doubt on his/her capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him/her:

- A. He/she may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 7

- B. He/she may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and he/she may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or officials, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.
- C. He/she may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. He/she may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He/she may make recommendations to public and private fund granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

As a judicial officer and person specially learned in the law, a judge is in a unique position to contribute to the improvement of the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, including revision of substantive and procedural law and improvement of criminal and juvenile justice. To the extent that his/her time permits, he/she is encouraged to do so, either independently or through a bar association, judicial conference, or organization dedicated to the improvement of the law. [TCR 86-79]

1-705 Canon 5. A Judge Should Regulate his/her Extra-Judicial Activities To Minimize the Risk of Conflict with his/her Judicial Duties.

- A. Vocational Activities. A judge may write lecture, teach, and speak on non-legal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocation activities do not detract from the dignity of his/her office or interfere with the performance of his/her judicial duties.

Commentary

Complete separation of a judge from extra-judicial activities is neither possible nor wise; he/she should not become isolated from the society in which he/she lives.

- B. Civic and Charitable Activities. A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his/her impartiality or interfere with the performance of his/her judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or non-legal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:

1. A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him/her or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any Court.

Commentary

The changing nature of some organizations and of their relationship to the law makes it necessary for a judge regularly to re-examine the activities of each organization with which he/she is affiliated to determine if it is proper for him/her to continue his/her relationship with it. For example, in many jurisdictions charitable hospitals are now more frequently in Court than in the past. Similarly, the boards of some legal aid organizations now make policy decisions that may have political significance or imply commitment to causes that may come before the Courts for adjudication.

2. A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his/her office for the purpose, but he/she may be listed as an officer, director, or trustee of such an organization. He/she should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization's fund-raising events, but he/she may attend such events.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 7

3. A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he/she may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

Commentary

A judge's participation in an organization devoted to quasi-judicial activities is governed by Canon 4.

C. Financial Activities.

1. A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his/her impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his/her judicial duties, exploit his/her judicial position, or involve him/her in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the Court on which he/she serves.

Commentary

The Effective Date of Compliance provision of this Code qualifies this subsection with regard to a judge engaged in a family business at the time this Code becomes effective.

2. Subject to the requirement of subsection (1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity including the operation of a business.
3. A judge should manage his/her investments and other financial interest to minimize the number of cases in which he/she is disqualified. As soon as he/she can do so without serious financial detriment, he/she should divest him/herself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.
4. Neither a judge nor a member of his/her family residing in his/her household should accept a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from anyone except as follows:
 - a. a judge may accept a gift incident to public testimonial to him/her; books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or an invitation to the judge and his/her spouse to attend a bar-related function or activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;
 - b. a judge or a member of his/her family residing in his/her household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same term applied to other applicants;
 - c. a judge or a member of his/her family residing in his/her household may accept any other gift, bequest, favor, or loan only if the donor is not a party or other person whose interests have come or are likely to come before him/her, and, if its value exceeds one hundred dollars ($100.00), the judge reports it in the same manner as he/she reports compensation in Canon 6C.

Commentary

This subsection does not apply to contributions to a judge's campaign for judicial office, a matter governed by Canon 7.

5. For the purposes of this Section, member of his/her family residing in his/her household means any relative of a judge by blood or marriage, or a person treated by a judge as a member of his/her family, who resides in his/her household.
6. A judge is not required by this Code to disclose his/her income, debts, or investments, except as provided in this Canon and Canons 3 and 6.

Commentary

Canon 3 requires a judge to disqualify him/herself in any proceeding in which he/she has a financial interest, however small; Canon 5 requires a judge to refrain from engaging in business and from financial activities that might interfere with impartial performance of his/her judicial duties; Canon 6 requires him/her to report all compensation he/she receives for activities outside his/her judicial office. A judge has the rights of an ordinary citizen, including the right to privacy of his/her financial affairs, except to the extent that limitations thereon are required to safeguard the proper performance of his/her duties. Owning and receiving income from investments do not as such affect the performance of a judge's duties.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

D. Fiduciary Activities. A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of his/her family, and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of his/her judicial duties. [Member of his/her family includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or person with whom the judge maintains a close family relationship.] As a family fiduciary, a judge is subject to the following restrictions:

1. He/she should not serve if it is likely that as a fiduciary he/she will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him/her, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the Court on which he/she serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

Commentary

The Effective Date of Compliance with these provisions of this Code qualifies this subsection with regard to a judge who is an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary at the time this Code becomes effective.

2. While acting as a fiduciary, a judge is subject to the same restriction on financial activities that apply to him/her in his/her personal capacity.

Commentary

A judge's obligation under this Canon and his/her obligation as a fiduciary may come into conflict. For example, a judge should resign as trustee if it would result in detriment to the trust to divest it of holding whose retention would place the judge in violation of Canon 5C(3).

E. Arbitration. A Judge Should Not Act as an Arbitrator or Mediator.

F. Extra-judicial Appointments. A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge, however, may represent his/her country, state, or locality on ceremonial occasions or in connection with historical, educational, and cultural activities.

Commentary

Valuable services have been rendered in the past to the states and the nation by judges appointed by the executive to undertake important extra-judicial assignments. The appropriateness of conferring these assignments on judges must be reassessed, however, in light of the demands on judicial manpower created by today's crowded dockets and the need to protect the Courts from involvement in extra-judicial matters that may prove to be controversial. Judges should not be expected or permitted to accept governmental appointments that could interfere with the effectiveness and independence of the judiciary. [TCR 86-79]

1-706 Canon 6. A Judge Should Regularly File Reports of Compensation Received for Quasi-Judicial and Extra-Judicial Activities. A judge may receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extra-judicial activities permitted by this Code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his/her judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

A. Compensation. Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

B. Expense Reimbursement. Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate to the occasion, by his/her spouse. Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1 ARTICLE 7

- C. Public Reports. A judge should report the date, place, and nature of any activity for which he/she received compensation, and the name of the payer and the amount of compensation so received. His/her report should be made at least annually and should be filed as a public document in the office of the clerk of the Court on which he/she serves or other office designated by rule of Court. [TCR 86-79]

3. A judge should resign his/her office when he/she becomes a candidate either in a party primary or in a general election for a non-judicial office, except that he/she may continue to hold his/her judicial office while being a candidate for election to or serving as a delegate in a state constitutional convention, if he/she is otherwise permitted by law to do so.
4. A judge should not engage in any other political activity except on behalf of measures to improve the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice.

B. Campaign Conduct.

1. A candidate, including an incumbent judge, for a judicial office that is filled either by public election between competing candidates or on the basis of a merit system election:

Unless the candidate is required by law to file a list of his/her campaign contributors, their names should not be revealed to the candidate.

3. An incumbent judge who is a candidate for retention in or re-election to office without a competing candidate, and whose candidacy has drawn active opposition, may campaign in response thereto and may obtain publicly stated support and campaign funds in the manner provided in subsection B(2). [TCR 86-79]

1-708 Compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct. Anyone, whether or not a lawyer, who is an officer of a judicial system performing judicial functions, including an officer such as a referee in bankruptcy, special master, Court commissioner, or magistrate, is a judge for the purpose of this Article except as provided below.

- A. Part-time Judges. A part-time judge is a judge who serves on a continuing or periodic basis, but is permitted by law to devote time to some other profession or occupation and whose compensation for that reason is less than that of a full-time judge. A part-time judge:

 2. Should not practice law in the Court on which he/she serves or in any Court subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the Court on which he/she serves, or act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he/she has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.
- B. Judge Pro Tempore. A judge pro tempore is a person who is appointed to act temporarily as a judge.
 1. While acting as such, a judge pro tempore is not required to comply with Canon 5C(2), (3), D, E, F, and G, and Canon 6C.
 2. A person who has been a judge pro tempore should not act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he/she has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.
- C. Retired Judge. A retired judge who receives the same compensation as a full-time judge on the Court from which he/she retired and is eligible for recall to judicial service should comply with all the provisions of this Code except Canon 5G, but he/she should refrain from judicial service during the period of an extra-judicial appointment not sanctioned by 5G. All other retired judges eligible for recall to judicial service should comply with the provisions of this Code governing part-time judges.

Effective Date of Compliance

A person to whom this Code becomes applicable should arrange his/her affairs as soon as reasonably possible to comply with it. If, however, the demands on his/her time and the possibility of conflicts of interest are not substantial, a person who holds judicial office on the date this Code becomes effective may:

- a. continue to act as an officer, director, or non-legal advisor of a family business;
- b. continue to act as an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary for the estate or person of one who is not a member of his/her family. [TCR 86-79]

WINNEBAGO RULES OF EVIDENCE
(As amended to March 1, 1993)

|-------------|---------------------------|-------------|----------------------------------|
| Rule 1A-101 | Scope. | Rule 1A-105 | Limited admissibility. |
| Rule 1A-102 | Purpose and construction. | Rule 1A-106 | Remainder of or related |
| Rule 1A-103 | Rulings on evidence. | | writings or recorded statements. |
| Rule 1A-104 | Preliminary questions. | | |

Rule 1A-101 Scope. These rules govern, evidentiary questions in all proceedings in the Courts of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, whether civil, criminal, juvenile, or otherwise except as may be otherwise specifically provided by this Tribal Code. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-102 Purpose and construction. These rules shall be construed to secure fairness in administration, elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay, and promotion of growth and development of the law of evidence to the end that the truth may be ascertained and proceedings justly determined. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-103 Rulings on evidence.

1. Effect of erroneous ruling. Error may not be predicated upon a ruling which admits or excludes evidence unless a substantial right of the party is affected:
 - a. Objection. In case the ruling is one admitting evidence, a timely objection or motion, to strike appears of record, stating the specific ground of objection, if the specific ground was not apparent from the context; or
 - b. Offer of proof. In case the ruling is one excluding evidence, the substance of the evidence was made known to the Court by offer or was apparent from the context within which questions were asked.
2. Record of offer and ruling. The Court may add any other or further statement which shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. It may direct the making of an offer in question and answer form.
3. Hearing of jury. In jury cases, proceedings shall be conducted, to the extent practicable, so as to prevent inadmissible evidence from being suggested to the jury by any means, such as making statements or offers of proof or asking questions in the hearing of the jury.
4. Plain error. Nothing in this rule precludes taking notice of plain errors affecting substantial rights although they were not brought to the attention of the Court. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-104 Preliminary questions.

1. Questions of admissibility generally. Preliminary questions concerning the qualification of a person to be a witness, the existence of a privilege, or the admissibility of evidence shall be determined by the Court, subject to the provisions of subdivision (b), in making its determination it is not bound by the rules of evidence except those with respect to privileges.
2. Relevancy conditioned on fact. When the relevancy of evidence depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the Court shall admit it upon, or subject to, the introduction of evidence sufficient to support a finding of the fulfillment of the condition.

TITLE 1A ARTICLE 1

3. Hearing of jury. Hearings on the admissibility of confession shall in all cases be conducted out of the hearing of the jury. Hearings on other preliminary matters shall be so conducted when the interests of justice require, or when an accused is a witness, if he/she so requests.
4. Testimony by accused. The accused in a criminal case does not, by testifying upon a preliminary matter, become subject to cross-examination as to other issues in the case.
5. Weight and credibility. This Rule does not limit the right of a party to introduce before the jury evidence relevant to weight or credibility. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-105 Limited admissibility. When evidence which is admissible as to one party or for one purpose but not admissible as to another party or for another purpose is admitted, the Court, upon request, shall restrict the evidence to its proper scope and instruct the jury accordingly. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-106 Remainder of or related writings or recorded statements. When a writing or recorded statement or part thereof is introduced by a party, an adverse party may require the introduction at that time of any other part or any other writing or recorded statement which ought in fairness to be considered contemporaneously with it. PRESUMPTIONS

Rule 1A-301 Presumptions in general in civil actions and proceedings.

Rule 1A-302 Applicability of state law in civil actions and proceedings.

Rule 1A-301 Presumptions in general in civil actions and proceedings. In all civil actions and proceedings not otherwise provided for by these Rules, a presumption imposes upon the party against whom it is directed the burden of going forward with evidence to rebut or meet the presumption, but does not shift to such party the burden of proof in the sense of the risk of non-persuasion, which remains throughout the trial upon the party on whom it was originally cast. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-302 Applicability of state law in civil actions and proceedings. In civil actions and proceedings, the effect of a presumption respecting a fact which is an element of a claim or defense as to which state law supplies the rule of decision is determined in accordance with state law. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-407 Subsequent remedial measures. When, after an event, measures are taken which, if taken previously, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove negligence or culpable conduct in connection with the event. This Rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, if controverted, or impeachment. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-408 Compromise and offers to compromise. Evidence of (1) furnishing or offering or promising to furnish, or (2) accepting or offering or promising to accept, a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise a claim which was disputed as to either validity or amount, is not admissible to prove liability for or invalidity of the claim or its amount. Evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations is likewise not admissible. This Rule does not require the exclusion of any evidence otherwise discoverable merely because it is presented in the course of compromise negotiations. This Rule also does not require exclusion when the evidence is offered for another purpose, such as proving bias or prejudice of a witness, negotiating a contention of undue delay, or proving an effort to obstruct a criminal investigation or prosecution. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-411 Liability insurance.

1. Evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability is not admissible upon the issue whether he/she acted negligently or otherwise wrongfully. 2. Evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability and the limits of coverage and other relevant factors is admissible in a bifurcated jury trial sounding in tort in the second phase of the UW upon the issue of the amount of actual and consequential damages to be awarded. Any motion made under this paragraph shall be served on all other parties and on the alleged victim.
 - b. The motion described in paragraph (1) shall be accompanied by a written offer of proof. If the Court determines that the offer of proof contains evidence described in subdivision (b), the Court shall order a hearing in chambers to determine if such evidence is admissible. At such hearing, the parties may call witnesses, including the alleged victim, and offer relevant evidence. Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of rule A1-104, if the relevancy of the evidence which the accused seeks to offer in the trial depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the Court, at the hearing in chambers or a subsequent - hearing in chambers scheduled for such purpose, shall accept evidence on the issue of whether such condition of fact is fulfilled and shall determine such issue.

TITLE 1A ARTICLE 4

- c. If the Court determines on the basis of the hearing described in paragraph (C) that the evidence which the accused seeks to offer is relevant and that the probative value of such evidence outweighs the danger of unfair prejudice, such evidence shall be admissible in the trial to the extent an order made by the Court specifies evidence which may be offered and areas with respect to which the alleged victim may be examined or cross-examined.
 4. For purposes of this Rule, the term past sexual behavior means sexual behavior other than the sexual behavior with respect to which an offense under Winnebago Tribal Code Sections 3-416 through 3-422 or Chapter 109A of Title 18, United States Code is alleged. [TCR 93-85]

Rule 1A-601 General rule of competency. Every person is competent to be a witness except as otherwise provided in these Rules. However, in civil actions and proceedings, with respect to an element of a claim or defense as to which state law supplies the rule of decision, the competency of a witness shall be determined in accordance with the state law. [TCR 93-85]

Rule 1A-602 Lack of personal knowledge. A witness may not testify to a matter unless evidence is introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of the matter. Evidence to prove personal knowledge may, but need not, consist of the witness' own testimony. This Rule is subject to the provisions of Rule 1A-703, relating to opinion testimony by expert witnesses. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-603 Oath or affirmation. Before testifying every witness shall be required to declare that the witness will testify truthfully, by oath or affirmation administered in a form calculated to awaken the witness' conscience and impress the witness' mind with the duty to do so. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-604 Interpreters. An interpreter is subject to the provisions of these Rules relating to qualification as an expert and the administration of an oath or affirmation to make a true translation. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-605 Competency of judge as witness. The judge presiding at the trial may not testify in that trial as a witness. No objection need be made in order to preserve the point. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-606 Competency of juror as witness.

1. At the trial. A member of the jury may not testify as a witness before that jury in the trial of the case in which the juror is sitting as a juror. If the juror is called so to testify, the opposing party shall be afforded an opportunity to object out of the presence of the jury.
2. Inquiry into validity of verdict or indictment. Upon an inquiry into the validity of a verdict or indictment, a juror may not testify as to any matter or statement occurring during the course of the jury's deliberations or to the effect of anything upon the juror's or any other juror's mind or emotions as influencing the juror to assent to or dissent from the verdict or indictment or concerning the juror's mental processes in connection therewith, except that a juror may testify on the question whether extraneous prejudicial information was improperly brought to the jury's

TITLE 1A ARTICLE 6

attention, or whether any outside influence was improperly brought to bear upon any juror. Nor may the juror's affidavit or evidence of any statement by the juror concerning a matter about which the juror would be precluded testifying be received for these purposes. [TCR 86-79; 93-85]

Rule 1A-607 Who may impeach. The credibility of a witness may be attacked by any party, including the party calling him/her. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-608 Evidence of character and conduct of witness.

1. Opinion and reputation evidence of character. The credibility of a witness may be attacked or supported by evidence in the form of opinion or reputation, but subject to these limitations: (1) the evidence may refer only to character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, and (2) evidence of truth character is admissible only after the character of the witness for truthfulness has been attacked by opinion or reputation evidence or otherwise.
2. Specific instances of conduct. Specific instances of the conduct of a witness, for the purpose of attacking or supporting his/her credibility, other than conviction of crime as provided in Rule 1A-609, may not be proved by extrinsic evidence. They may, however, in the discretion of the Court, if probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness, be inquired into on cross-examination of the witness (1) concerning character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, or (2) concerning the character for truthfulness or untruthfulness of another witness as to which character the witness being cross-examined has testified. The giving of testimony, whether by an accused or by any other witness, does not operate as a waiver of privilege against self-incrimination when examined with respect to matters which relate only to credibility. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-609 Impeachment by evidence of conviction of crime.

1. General rule. For the purpose of attacking the credibility of a witness:
 - a. Evidence that a witness other than an accused has been convicted of a crime shall be admitted, subject to Rule 1A-403, if the crime was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one year under the law under which the witness was convicted, and evidence that an accused has been convicted of such a crime shall be admitted if the Court determines that the probative value of admitting this evidence outweighs its prejudicial effect to the accused; and
 - b. Evidence that any witness has been convicted of a crime shall be admitted if it involved dishonesty of false statement, regardless of the punishment.
 - i. Time limit. Evidence of a conviction under this Rule is not admissible if a period of more than ten years has elapsed since the date of the conviction or of the release of the witness from the confinement imposed for that conviction, whichever is the later date, unless the Court determines, in the interest of justice, that the probative value of the conviction supported by specific facts and circumstances substantially outweighs its prejudicial effect. However, evidence of a conviction more than ten years old as calculated herein, is not admissible unless the proponent gives to the adverse party sufficient advance written notice of intent to use such evidence to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to contest the use of such evidence.
 - ii. Effect of pardon, annulment, or certificate of rehabilitation. Evidence of a conviction is not admissible under this Rule if (1) the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, certificate of rehabilitation, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of the rehabilitation of the person convicted, and that person has not been convicted of a subsequent crime which was punishable - by death or imprisonment in excess of one year, or (2) the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of innocence.

TITLE 1A ARTICLE 6

- iii. Juvenile adjudication. Evidence of juvenile adjudication is generally not admissible under this Rule. The Court may, however, in a criminal case allow evidence of a juvenile adjudication of a witness other than the accused if conviction of the offense would be admissible to attack the credibility of an adult and the Court is satisfied that admission in evidence is necessary for a fair determination of the issue of guilt or innocence.
 - iv. Pendency of appeal. The pendency of an appeal therefrom does not render evidence of a conviction inadmissible. Evidence of the pendency of an appeal is admissible. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-610 Religious beliefs or opinions. Evidence of the beliefs or opinions of a witness on matters of religion is not admissible for the purpose of showing that by reason of their nature his/her credibility is impaired or enhanced. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-611 Mode and order of interrogation and presentation.

- 1. Control by Court. The Court shall exercise reasonable control over the mode and order of interrogating witnesses and presenting evidence so as to (1) make the interrogation and presentation effective for the ascertainment of the truth, (2) avoid needless consumption of time, and (3) protect witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment.
- 2. Scope of cross-examination. Cross-examination should be limited to the subject matter of the direct examination and matters affecting the credibility of the witness. The Court may, in the exercise of discretion, permit inquiry into additional matters as if on direct examination.
- 3. Leading questions. Leading questions should not be used on the direct examination of a witness except as may be necessary to develop testimony. Ordinarily leading questions should be permitted on cross-examination. When a party calls a hostile witness, an adverse party, or a witness identified with an adverse party, interrogation may be by leading questions. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-612 Writing used to refresh memory. If a witness uses a writing to refresh memory for the purpose of testifying either:

- 1. While testifying; or
- 2. Before testifying if the Court in its discretion determines it is necessary in the interest of justice, an adverse party is entitled to have the writing produced at the hearing to inspect it, to cross-examine the witness thereon, and to introduce in evidence those portions which relate to the testimony of the witness. If it is claimed that the writing contains matters not related to the subject matter of the testimony, the Court shall examine the writing in camera, excise any portions not so related, and order delivery of the remainder to the party entitled thereto. Any portion withheld over objections shall be preserved and made available to the appellate Court in the event of an appeal. If a writing is not produced or delivered pursuant to order under this Rule, the Court shall make any order justice requires, except that in criminal cases when the prosecution elects not to comply, the order shall be one showing the testimony or, if the Court in its discretion determines that the interests of justice so require, declaring a mistrial. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

TITLE 1A ARTICLE 6

Rule 1A-613 Prior statements of witnesses.

1. Examining witness concerning prior statements. In examining a witness concerning a prior statement made by the witness, whether written or not, the statement need not be shown nor its contents disclosed to the witness at that time, but on request the same shall be shown or disclosed to opposing counsel.
2. Extrinsic evidence of prior inconsistent statements of witness. Extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement by a witness is not admissible unless the witness is afforded an opportunity to explain or deny the same and the opposite party is afforded an opportunity to interrogate the witness thereon, or the interests of justice otherwise require. This provision does not apply to admissions of a party-opponent as defined in Rule 1A-801(d)(2). [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-614 Calling and interrogation of witnesses by Court.

1. Calling by Court. The Court may, on its own motion or at the suggestion of a party, call witnesses, and all parties are entitled to cross-examine witnesses thus called.
2. Interrogation by Court. The Court may interrogate witnesses, whether called by itself or by a party.
3. Objections. Objections to the calling of witnesses by the Court or to interrogation by it may be made at the time or at the next available opportunity when the jury is not present. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-615 Exclusion of witnesses. At the request of a party, the Court shall order witnesses excluded so that they cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses, and it may make the order on its own motion. This Rule does not authorize exclusion of (1) a party who is a natural person, or (2) an officer or employee of a party which is not a natural person designated as its representative by its attorney, or (3) a person whose presence is shown by a party to be essential to the presentation of his/her cause. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-616 Patient/Client – Physician/Counselor Privilege.

1. Definitions.
 - a. A “patient” is a person who consults or is examined or interviewed by a physician for purposes of diagnosis or treatment of his/her physical, mental or emotional condition.
 - b. A “physician” is (i) a person who is licensed to practice medicine pursuant to the laws of any state or nation or who is reasonably believed by the patient so to be or (ii) a person licensed as a psychologist pursuant to the laws of the state or nation who devotes all or a part of his/her time to the practice of psychology.
 - c. A “client” is a person who consults or is interviewed by a professional counselor for professional counseling.
 - d. “Professional counseling” means the assessment and treatment of mental and emotional disorders within the context of professional counseling theory and practice of individuals, couples, families or groups.
 - e. A “professional counselor” is a person certified as a professional counselor pursuant to the laws of any state or nation.
 - f. A communication is “confidential” if not intended to be disclosed to third persons other than those present to further the interest of (i) the patient in the consultation, examination, or interview, persons reasonably necessary for the transmission of the communication, or persons who are participating in the diagnosis and treatment under the direction of the physician, including members of the patient’s family, or (ii) the client participating in professional counseling by a professional counselor.

TITLE 1A ARTICLE 6

2. Scope of Privilege.
 - a. A patient has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent any other person from disclosing confidential communications made for the purposes of diagnosis or treatment of his/her physical, mental, or emotional condition among himself or herself, his/her physician or persons who are participating in the diagnosis or treatment under the direction of the physician, including members of the patient's family.
 - b. A client has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent any other person from disclosing confidential communications made during counseling between himself or herself, his/her professional counselor or persons who are participating in the counseling under the direction of the professional counselor, including members of the client's family.
3. Who may claim the privilege. The privilege may be claimed by the patient or client, by his/or guardian or conservator, or by the personal representative of a deceased patient or client. The person who was the physician or professional counselor may claim the privilege but only on behalf of the patient or client. His/her authority so to do is presumed in the absence of evidence to the contrary.
4. Limits on application of privilege.
 - a. There is no privilege under this Rule for communications relevant to an issue in proceedings to hospitalize the patient for mental or emotional illness if the physician, in the course of diagnosis or treatment, has determined that the patient is in need of hospitalization or if a professional counselor deems it necessary to refer a client to determine if there is need for hospitalization.
 - b. If the judge orders an examination of the physical, mental or emotional condition of the patient, communications made in the course thereof are not privileged under this Rule with respect to the particular purpose for which the examination is ordered unless the judge orders otherwise.
 - c. There is no privilege under this Rule as to communications relevant to an issue of the physical, mental or emotional condition of the patient in any proceeding in which he/she relies upon the condition as an element of his/her claim or defense or, after the patient's death, in any proceeding in which any party relies upon the condition as an element of his/her claim or defense.
 - d. There is no privilege under this Rule in any judicial proceedings regarding injuries to children, incompetents, or disabled persons allegedly caused by parents, guardians or caregivers or in any criminal prosecution involving injury to any child, incompetent or disabled person or the willful failure to report any such injuries. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "injury(ies)" includes a sexual assault as that term is used in the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Tribal Code Sections 3-416 through 422.
 - e. There is no privilege under this Rule in any judicial proceeding regarding unlawfully obtaining or attempting to obtain (i) a controlled substance, (ii) a written or oral prescription for a controlled substance, or (iii) the administration of a controlled substance from a practitioner. For purposes of this subdivision, the definitions found in the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Tribal Code Section 3-801 shall apply. [TCR 11-71]

ARTICLE 7
OPINION AND EXPERT TESTIMONY

| | | | |
|-------------|--|-------------|--|
| Rule 1A-701 | Opinion testimony by lay witnesses. | Rule 1A-704 | Opinion on ultimate issue. |
| Rule 1A-702 | Testimony by experts. | Rule 1A-705 | Disclosure of facts or data underlying expert opinion. |
| Rule 1A-703 | Bases of opinion testimony by experts. | Rule 1A-706 | Court appointed experts. |

Rule 1A-701 Opinion testimony by lay witnesses. If the witness is not testifying as an expert, the witness testimony in the form of opinions or inferences is limited to those opinions or inferences which are (a) rationally based on the perception of the witness and (b) helpful to a clear understanding of the witness' testimony or the determination of a fact in issue. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-702 Testimony by experts. If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training or education, may testify thereto in the form of an opinion or otherwise. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-703 Bases of opinion testimony by experts. The facts or data in the particular case upon which an expert bases an opinion or inference may be those perceived by or made known to the expert at or before the hearing. If of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field in forming opinions or inferences upon the subject, the facts or data need not be admissible in evidence. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-704 Opinion on ultimate issue.

1. Except as provided in subdivision (b), testimony in the form of an opinion or inference otherwise admissible is not objectionable because it embraces an ultimate issue to be decided by the trier of fact.
2. No expert witness testifying with respect to the mental state or condition of a defendant in a criminal case may state an opinion or inference as to whether the defendant did or did not have the mental state or condition constituting an element of the crime charged or of a defense thereto. Such ultimate issues are matters for the trier of fact alone. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-705 Disclosure of facts or data underlying expert opinion. The expert may testify in terms of opinion or inference and give reasons therefor without prior disclosure of the underlying facts or data, unless the Court requires otherwise. The expert may in any event be required to disclose the underlying facts or data on cross-examination. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-706 Court appointed experts.

1. Appointment. The Court may on its own motion or on the motion of any party enter an order to show cause why expert witnesses should not be appointed, and may request the parties to submit nominations. The Court may appoint any expert witnesses agreed upon by the parties, and may appoint expert witnesses of its own selection. An expert witness shall not be appointed by the Court unless the witness consents to act. A witness so appointed shall be informed of the witness' duties by the Court in writing, a copy of which shall be filed with the clerk or at a conference in which the parties shall have opportunity to participate. A witness so appointed shall advise the parties of the witness' findings, if any; the witness' deposition may be taken by any party; and the witness may be called to testify by the Court or any party. The witness shall be subject to cross-examination by each party, including a party calling him/her a witness.

2. Compensation. Expert witnesses so appointed are entitled to reasonable compensation in whatever sum the Court may allow. The compensation thus fixed is payable from the Court fund, said fund to be reimbursed by the parties in such proportion and at such time as the Court directs, and thereafter charged in like manner as other costs.
3. Disclosure of appointment. In the exercise of its discretion, the Court may authorize disclosure to the jury of the fact that the Court appointed the expert witness.
4. Parties' experts of own selection. Nothing in this Rule limits the parties in calling expert witnesses of their own selection. [TCR 86-79, 93-85] to prepare to meet it, the proponent's intention to offer the statement and the participation of it, including the name and address of the declarant. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-804 Hearsay exceptions; declarant unavailable.

1. Definition of unavailability. Unavailability as a witness includes situations in which the declarant:
 - a. Is exempted by ruling of the Court on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the subject matter of the declarant's statement; or
 - b. Persists in refusing to testify concerning the subject matter of the declarant's statement despite an order of the Court to do so; or
 - c. Testifies to a lack of memory of the subject matter of the declarant's statement; or
 - d. Is unable to be present or to testify at the hearing because of death or then existing physical or mental illness or infirmity; or
 - e. Is absent from the hearing and the proponent of a statement has been unable to procure the declarant's attendance (or in the case of a hearsay exception under subdivision (b)(2), (3), or (4), the declarant's attendance or testimony by process or other reasonable means. A declarant is not available as a witness if exemption, refusal, claim of lack of memory, inability, or absence is due to the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of a statement for the purpose of preventing the witness from attending or testifying.
2. Hearsay exceptions. The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule if the declarant is unavailable as a witness:
 - a. Former testimony. Testimony given as a witness at another hearing of the same or a different proceeding or in a deposition taken in compliance with law in the course of the same or another proceeding if the party against whom the testimony is now offered, or, in a civil action or proceeding a predecessor in interest, had an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony by direct, cross, or redirect examination.
 - b. Statement under belief of impending death. In a prosecution for homicide or in a civil action or proceeding a statement made by a declarant while believing that the declarant's death was imminent, concerning the cause or circumstances of what the declarant believed to be impending death.
 - c. Statement against interest. A statement which was at the time of its making so far contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest, or so far tended to subject the declarant to civil or criminal liability, or to render invalid a claim by the declarant against another, that a reasonable man in his/her position would not have made the statement unless believing it to be true. A statement tending to expose the declarant to criminal liability and offered to exculpate the accused is not admissible unless corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the statement.
 - d. Statement of personal or family history. (A) statement concerning the declarant's own birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, legitimacy, relationship by blood, adoption, or marriage, ancestry, or other similar fact of personal or family history, even though declarant had no means of acquiring personal knowledge of the matter stated; or (B) a statement concerning the foregoing matters, and death also, of another person, if the declarant was related to the other by blood, adoption, or marriage or was so intimately associated with the other's family as to be likely to have accurate information concerning the matter declared.
 - e. Other exceptions. A statement not specifically covered by any of the foregoing exceptions but having equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness, if the Court determines that (A) the statement is offered as evidence of a material fact; (B) the statement is more probative on the point for which it is offered than any other evidence which the proponent can procure through reasonable efforts; and (C) the general purposes of these Rules and the interest of justice will best be served by admission of the statement into evidence. However, a statement may not be admitted under this exception unless the proponent of it makes known to the adverse party sufficiently in advance of the trial or hearing to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet it, his/her intention to offer the statement and the particulars of it, including the name and address of the declarant. [TCR 86-79, 93-85]

Rule 1A-805 Hearsay within hearsay. Hearsay included within hearsay is not excluded under the hearsay rule if each part of the combined statements conforms with an exception to the hearsay rule provided in these Rules. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-806 Attacking and supporting credibility of declarant. When a hearsay statement, or a statement defined in Rule 1A-801(d)(2),(C), (D), or (E), has been admitted in evidence, the credibility of the declarant may be attacked, and if attacked may be supported, by any evidence which would be admissible for those purposes if declarant had testified as a witness. Evidence of a statement or conduct by the declarant at any time, inconsistent with the declarant's hearsay statement, is not subject to any requirement that the declarant may have been afforded an opportunity to deny or explain. If the party against whom a hearsay statement has been admitted calls the declarant as a witness, the party is entitled to examine the declarant on the statement as if under cross-examination. Evidence that a document or data compilation, in any form (A) is in such condition as to create no suspicion concerning its authenticity, (B) was in a place where it, if authentic, would likely be, and (C) has been in existence twenty years or more at the time it is offered.

A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of official documents, the Court may, for good cause shown, order that they be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification or permit them to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification.
4. Certified copies of public records. Rule 1A-1001 Definitions. For the purpose of this Article the following definitions are applicable:

1. Writings and recordings. Writings and recordings consist of letters, words, or numbers or their equivalent, set down by handwriting, typewriting, printing, Photostatting, photographing, magnetic impulse, mechanical or electronic recording, or other form of data compilation.
2. Photographs. Photographs include still photographs, X-ray films, video tapes, and motion pictures.
3. Original. An original of a writing or recording is the writing or recording itself or any counterpart intended to have the same effect by a person executing or issuing it, an original of a photograph includes the negative or any print therefrom. If data are stored in a computer or similar device, any printout or other output readable by sight, shown to reflect the data accurately, is an original.
4. Duplicate. A duplicate is a counterpart produced by the same impression as the original or from the same matrix, or by means of photography, including enlargements and miniatures, or by mechanical or electronic re-recording or by chemical reproduction, or by other equivalent techniques which accurately reproduces the original. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-1002 Requirement of original. To prove the content of a writing, recording, or photograph, the original writing, recording, or photograph is required, except as otherwise provided in these Rules or by resolution of the Tribal Council. [TCR 86-79, 93-84]

Rule 1A-1003 Admissibility of duplicates. A duplicate is admissible to the same extent as an original unless (1) a genuine question is raised as to the authenticity of the original or (2) in the circumstances it would be unfair to admit the duplicate in lieu of the original. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-1004 Admissibility of other evidence of contents. The original is not required, and other evidence of the contents of a writing, recording, or photograph is admissible if:

1. Originals lost or destroyed. All originals are lost or have been destroyed, unless the proponent lost or destroyed them in bad faith; or
2. Original not obtainable. No original can be obtained by any available judicial process or procedure; or
3. Original in possession of opponent. 4. Collateral matters. The writing, recording, or photograph is not closely related to a controlling issue. [TCR 86-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1A ARTICLE 10

Rule 1A-1005 Public records. The contents of an official record, or of a document authorized to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed, including data compilations in any form, if otherwise admissible, may be proved by copy, certified as correct in accordance with Rule 1A-902 or testified to be correct by a witness who has compared it with the original. If a copy which complies with the foregoing cannot be obtained by the exercise of reasonable diligence, then other evidence of the contents may be given. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-1006 Summaries. The contents of voluminous writings, recordings, or photographs which cannot conveniently be examined in Court may be presented in the form of a chart, summary, or calculation. The originals, or duplicates, shall be made available for examination or copying or both, by other parties at reasonable time and place. The Court may order that they be produced in Court. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-1007 Testimony or written admission of party. Contents of writings, recordings, or photographs may be proved by the testimony or deposition of the party against whom offered or by his/her written admission, without accounting for the non-production of the original. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1A-1008 Functions of Court and jury. When the admissibility of other evidence of contents of writings, recordings, or photographs under these Rules depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the question whether the condition has been fulfilled is ordinarily for the Court to determine in accordance with the provisions of Rule 1A-804. However, when an issue is raised (a) whether the asserted writing ever existed, or (b) whether another writing recording or photograph produced at the trial is the original, or (c) whether other evidence of contents correctly reflects the contents, the issue is for the trier of fact to determine as in the case of other issues of fact. Rule 1B-204 Extradition.

1. The Chairman of the Winnebago Tribal Council of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, or any individual designated by him/her to act in his/her absence, shall have the authority to have apprehended and delivered up to the executive authority of any Indian tribe, state, or the United States, or Canada or Mexico, any person charged with or convicted of an offense, who is found within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Reservation.
2. A formal demand for extradition must be made in writing by the demanding sovereign alleging that the individual was present within the jurisdiction of the demanding sovereign at the time of the commission of the alleged crime and that, thereafter, he/she left the jurisdiction of that sovereign. Accompanying the formal demand shall be a copy of any warrant outstanding against the individual or a copy of any judgment of conviction or any sentence imposed in execution thereof, or a statement by an appropriate agent of the demanding sovereign that the individual has escaped from confinement or has violated the terms or conditions of his/her bail, probation, or parole. Additionally, the Tribal Council Chairman shall receive a copy of any indictment, a copy of any information or complaint supported by an affidavit, or a copy of an affidavit made before a magistrate or judge in said jurisdiction. The indictment, information, complaint, or affidavit made before a magistrate or judge must substantially charge the individual whose extradition is demanded with having committed an offense under the laws of that sovereign. The copy of the indictment, information, complaint, affidavit, judgment of conviction, or sentence shall be authenticated by an appropriate agent of the demanding sovereign.
3. If the Tribal Council Chairman determines that the demand should be complied with, he/she shall cause a judge of the Winnebago Tribal Court to sign a warrant for apprehension which shall be directed to the Winnebago law enforcement office for execution. 5. A full hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours after the individual is apprehended to test the validity of the arrest. It will be presumed that the individual arrested desires a full hearing

TITLE 1B ARTICLE 2

- unless the individual waives such hearing by executing in the presence of a Tribal judge a writing which states that he/she consents to the return to the demanding sovereign without a full hearing on the proposed extradition.
6. If, from the examination of the evidence presented at a hearing before a Tribal judge, it appears that the individual held is, in fact, the individual whose extradition is demanded and that he/she has fled from justice, the judge shall, by an order reciting his/her determination, commit him/her to a Tribal detention facility until such time, not exceeding thirty days, as the individual is surrendered to an agent of the demanding sovereign. Reasonable costs of detention of said individuals are to be paid by the demanding sovereign.
 7. Unless the offense, with which the individual has been charged or of which he/she has been convicted, is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it was committed, the Tribal judge may, in lieu of confinement, admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties in such a sum as he/she deems proper, until he/she is surrendered to an agent of the demanding sovereign.
 8. The Tribal Council Chairman shall also have the authority to demand the return of an individual charged with a crime, with escaping from confinement, or with violating the term or conditions of his/her probation, or parole within the Winnebago reservation, from the executive authority of any other sovereign authorized to receive such demand.
 9. When the return to the Winnebago reservation of an individual charged with or convicted of a crime within the reservation is required, a Tribal judge shall present to the Tribal Council Chairman a written application for the return of such individual. The application shall state the name of the individual, the crime with which he/she has been charged or of which he/she has been convicted, the approximate time, place and circumstances of its commission, and the jurisdiction in which he/she is believed to be, including location of the individual in such jurisdiction, at the time the application is made. The application shall certify that, in the opinion of the judge, the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the individual to the reservation for trial or other hearing and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.
 10. An individual returned to the reservation by means of extradition based on a criminal charge shall not be subject to personal service of process in any civil action arising out of the same circumstances involved in the criminal proceeding until he/she has been finally convicted or, if acquitted, until he/she has had reasonable opportunity to return to the jurisdiction from which he/she was extradited.
 11. Nothing contained in these procedures shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the Winnebago Tribe of their right, power, or privilege to try such demanded individual for any crime committed within the reservation or of their right, power, or privilege to regain custody of such individual by extradition proceedings for the purpose of trial, sentence, or punishment for any crime committed within the reservation. 1. Complaint. Every criminal proceeding shall be commenced by the filing of a criminal complaint. The complaint is a sworn written statement of the essential facts charging that a named individual(s) has committed a particular offense.
2. Contents of complaints. Complaints shall contain:
 - a. The name and address of the Court;
 - b. The name of the defendant, if known, or some other name, if not known, plus whatever description of the defendant is known;
 - c. The signature of the Tribal prosecutor or his/her assistant and his/her typewritten name;
 - d. A written statement describing in ordinary and plain language the facts of the offense alleged to have been committed including a reference to the time, date, and place as nearly as may be known;
 - e. The person against whom or against whose property the offense was committed and the names of the witness of the Tribe if known, otherwise no statement need be made;
 - f. The general name and Tribal Code title and section number of the alleged offense.
3. Error. No minor omission from or error in the form of the complaint shall be grounds for dismissal of the case unless some significant prejudice against the defendant can be shown to result therefrom.
4. Time of filing complaint. A complaint may be filed at any time within the period prescribed by Article 3 of this Title, provided, that if an accused has been arrested without a warrant the complaint shall be filed immediately or in no case later than the time of arraignment.
5. The clerk or prosecutor shall assist all parties with writing and filing criminal complaints.

Rule 1B-302 Arrest warrant or summons to appear; contents; service.

1. If it appears from the complaint that an offense has been charged against the defendant, a judge of the Tribal Court shall issue a summons to the defendant to bring him/her before the Court. An arrest warrant shall issue only upon a complaint charging an offense by the defendant against the criminal law of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska supported by the testimony or affidavit of some

TITLE 1B ARTICLE 3

- person having knowledge of the facts of the case through which the judge can determine that probable cause exists to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant committed it.
2. Issuance of arrest warrants or summons. Unless the Tribal judge has reasonable grounds to believe that the person will not appear on a summons, a summons shall be issued instead of an arrest warrant.
 3. Contents of arrest warrants. The warrant of arrest shall be signed by the judge issuing it, and shall contain the name and address of the Court; the name of the defendant, or if the correct name is unknown, any name by which the defendant is known and the defendant's description; and a description of the offense charged with a reference to the section of the Winnebago Code of Criminal offenses alleged to have been violated. It shall order and command the defendant be arrested and brought before a judge of the Tribal Court to enter a plea.
 4. Contents of summons. A criminal summons shall contain the same information as an arrest warrant except that, instead of commanding the arrest of the accused, it shall order the defendant to appear before a Tribal judge within five days or on some certain day to enter a plea to the charge, and a notice that upon the defendant's failure to appear, an arrest warrant shall issue and that the defendant may be further charged with disobeying a lawful order of the Court. If the defendant fails to appear in response to a summons, or refuses to accept the summons, an arrest warrant shall issue. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-302.1 Service of arrest warrants and summons.

1. Warrants for arrest and criminal summons may be served by any Tribal or federal law enforcement officer or any adult person authorized in writing by the Tribal judge. Service may be made at any place within the jurisdiction of the Tribe.
2. Warrants of arrest and summons are to be served at a person's home between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. unless an authorization to serve such process at night is provided by a Tribal judge. Warrants and summons may be served at any time on an individual found in a public place.
3. The date, time, and place of service or arrest shall be written on the warrant or summons along with the signature of the person serving such, and the warrant returned to the Court. A copy, so signed, shall be given to the person served or arrested at the time of arrest if reasonably possible, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible.
4. An officer need not have the warrant in his/her possession at the time of arrest, but if not, he/she shall inform the defendant of the charge, that a warrant of arrest has been issued and shall provide the defendant a copy of the warrant not later than the time of arraignment. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-302.2 Citation instead of arrest.

1. Whenever a law enforcement officer would be empowered to make an arrest without a warrant but has reasonable grounds to believe an immediate arrest is not necessary to preserve the public peace and safety, he/she may, in his/her discretion, issue the defendant a citation instead of taking said person into custody. Such citation shall be considered a Court order. Provided that in the case of infractions, the officer may issue a citation, and may not take said person into custody.
2. Contents of citation.
 - a. The citation shall contain the name and address of the Court, the name or address and description of the defendant, a description of the offense charged, and the signature of the law enforcement officer who issued the citation.
 - b. The citation shall contain an agreement by the defendant to appear before a Tribal judge within five days or on a day certain to answer to the charge and the signature of the defendant.

TITLE 1B ARTICLE 3

- c. The citation shall contain a notice that upon defendant's failure to appear, an arrest warrant shall issue and that the defendant may be further charged with disobeying a lawful order of the Court.
- d. One copy of the citation shall be given to the defendant and two copies shall be delivered to the prosecutor.

Rule 1B-303 Search and seizure.

- 1. Search warrants. A search warrant is an order directed to any Tribal or federal law enforcement officer directing him/her to search a particular place for described persons or property and if found to seize them.
- 2. A warrant shall issue order on an affidavit or affidavits sworn to before a Tribal judge and establishing grounds for issuing the warrant. If the judge is satisfied that grounds for the application exist or that there is probable cause to believe that they exist, he/she shall issue a warrant identifying the property and naming or describing the person or place to be searched. The finding of probable cause may be based on hearsay evidence either in whole or in part. Before ruling on a request for a warrant, the judge may require the defendant to appear personally and be examined under oath. The warrant shall be directed to any police or law enforcement officer or official and shall command such person or persons to search, within a specified period of time not to exceed ten days, the person or place named for the property specified.
- 3. Contents of search warrant. Every search warrant shall contain the name and address of the Court and the signature of the judge issuing the warrant. It shall specifically describe the place to be searched and the items to be searched for and seized. The search warrant shall be directed to any Tribal or federal law enforcement officer and contain the date on which it was issued.
- 4. Service of search warrants. Search warrants shall be served by any Tribal or federal law enforcement officer between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m., unless otherwise directed on the warrant by the judge who issued it. A copy of the warrant shall be left with an occupant or owner over sixteen years of age at the place searched if present during said search. If the place to be searched is not occupied at the time of the search, a copy of the warrant shall be left in some conspicuous place on the premises.
- 5. Inventory. The officer serving a search warrant shall make a signed inventory of all property seized and attach such inventory to the warrant. A copy of the inventory and search warrant shall be left with an occupant or owner over sixteen years of age if present during the search or left in a conspicuous place with the search warrant if an occupant is not present during the search.
- 6. Return of search warrants.
 - a. The officer shall endorse on the warrant the date, time, and place of service and the signature of the officer serving it.
 - b. The warrant shall be returned to the Court with an inventory of property seized within twenty four hours of service, Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded.
 - c. In every case the warrant shall be returned within ten (10) days of the date of issuance.
- 7. Property subject to seizure. Property which is subject to seizure is property in which there is probable cause to believe is:
 - a. Stolen, embezzled, contraband, or otherwise criminally possessed; or
 - b. Which is or has been used to commit criminal offense; or
 - c. Property which constitutes evidence of the commission of a criminal offense.
- 8. Warrantless searches. A law enforcement officer may conduct a search without a warrant only:
 - a. Incident to a lawful arrest; or
 - b. With the consent of the person to be searched; or
 - c. When he/she has reasonable cause to believe that the person searched may be armed and dangerous; or

TITLE 1B ARTICLE 3

- d. When the search is of a vehicle capable of being moved and the officer has probable cause to believe that it contains property subject to seizure.
 - e. In any other circumstances wherein federal law has held that warrant prior to the search in those circumstances would not be unreasonable.
9. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the Tribal Court for the return of the property on the grounds that he/she is entitled to lawful possession of the property illegally seized. The judge may receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to the decision of the motion. If the motion is granted, the property shall be returned and shall not be admissible at any hearing or trial unless it is subsequently seized in a lawful manner.
10. A law enforcement officer may stop any person in a public place whom he/she has probable cause to believe is in the act of committing an offense, or has committed an offense, or is attempting to commit an offense and demand of him/her his/her name, address, an explanation of his/her actions and may, if he/she has reasonable grounds to believe his/her own safety or the safety of others nearby is endangered, conduct a frisk type search for weapons of such person.
11. The term property is used in this Rule to include documents, books, papers, and any other tangible object. The term daytime as used in this Rule shall mean the hours from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. according to local time. [TCR 86-79]

 - a. When an offense is committed or attempted in his/her presence;

- 4. Any person making an arrest may orally summon as many persons as he/she deems necessary to help him/her.
- 5. If the offense charged is an offense in violation of the Major Crimes Act, the arrest may be made at any time of the day or night, otherwise the arrest pursuant to a warrant cannot be made at night unless such is specifically authorized by the issuing judge.
- 6. Any law enforcement officer, upon making an arrest:
 - a. Must inform the person to be arrested of his/her intention to arrest him/her, of the cause or reasons for the arrest, and his/her authority to make it, except when the person to be arrested is actually engaged in the commission of, or an attempt to commit an offense, or

 - e. Shall, as soon as is reasonably possible, deliver the person arrested to a police office or do as commanded by the arrest warrant or deliver the person arrested to the jail and obtain a complaint and arrest warrant. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-304.1 Arrest in hot pursuit.

1. Any law enforcement officer otherwise empowered to arrest a person within this jurisdiction may continuously pursue such person from a point of initial contact within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe to any point of arrest within or without the Winnebago Tribe's jurisdiction, and such arrest shall be valid, provided, that such officer shall respect and comply with the extradition requirements of the jurisdiction in which the arrest is finally made, if applicable.
2. Any law enforcement officer commissioned by the federal government, any Indian tribe, or the state when in hot and continuous pursuit of any person for the commission of a felony within such other jurisdiction may arrest such person within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, provided, that any person so arrested shall be forthwith delivered to a Winnebago police officer for a show cause hearing pursuant to the extradition laws of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-304.3 Notification of rights. Upon arrest, the defendant shall be notified that he/she has the following rights:

1. The right to remain silent and that any statements made by him/her may be used against him/her in Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1B ARTICLE 3

Rule 1B-305 Arraignment.

1. Arraignment defined. Arraignment is the bringing of an accused person before the Court, informing him/her of the charge against him/her and of his/her rights, receiving his/her plea and setting bail. Arraignment shall be held in open Court upon the appearance of an accused in response to a criminal summons or citation or, if the accused was arrested and confined, within forty-eight hours of the arrest, Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excepted.
2. Procedure at arraignment. Arraignment shall be conducted in the following order:
 - a. The judge should request the prosecutor to read the charges.
 - b. The prosecutor should read the entire complaint, deliver a copy to the defendant and state the maximum authorized penalty, and that he/she has the following rights:
 - i. The right to remain silent.
 - ii. To be tried by a jury upon request if incarceration upon conviction is a possibility.
 - iii. To consult with an attorney at his/her own expense, or with the public defender, and that if he/she desires to consult with an attorney or the public defender the arraignment will be postponed.
 - c. The judge should determine that the accused understands the charge against him/her and explain to the defendant.
 - d. The judge shall ask the defendant if he/she wishes to obtain counsel and, if the defendant so desires, he/she will be given a reasonable time to obtain counsel. If the defendant shows his/her indigency and counsel is available for appointment under the rules relating to attorneys, counsel may be appointed. If the defendant is allowed time to obtain or consult with counsel, he/she shall not be required to enter a plea until the date set for his/her appearance.
 - e. The judge should then ask the defendant whether he/she wishes to plead guilty, nolo contendere, or not guilty.
3. Receipt of plea at arraignment. The defendant shall plead guilty, nolo contendere, or not guilty to the offense charged.
 - a. If the defendant refuses to plead, the judge shall enter a plea of not guilty for him/her.
 - b. If the defendant pleads not guilty, the judge shall set a trial date and conditions for bail prior to trial.
 - c. If the defendant pleads nolo contendere or guilty, the judge shall question the defendant personally to determine that he/she understands the nature of his/her action, the rights that he/she is waiving and that his/her action is voluntary. The judge may refuse to accept a guilty plea. If the guilty plea is accepted, the judge may immediately sentence the defendant or order a sentencing hearing. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-306 Pre-trial diversion. Prior to trial, at the discretion of the judge, a defendant in a Class II or III criminal action may be referred to a community agency for job training, counseling and/or education for a period not to exceed ninety days, if the defendant agrees. During this interval the criminal complaint shall be held in abeyance. At the conclusion of this period, the judge shall review the results of the diversion and, if he/she determines that the diversion was successful, the criminal charge shall be dismissed. Pre-trial diversion is a voluntary alternative, and the accused must be provided the opportunity to consult with counsel prior to a decision to participate. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-307 Commitments. No person shall be detained or jailed under this Code for a period longer than forty-eight hours, Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excepted, unless a commitment bearing the signature of a judge of the Tribal Court has been issued.

1. A temporary commitment may be issued pending investigation of charges or trial.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1B ARTICLE 3

2. A final commitment may be issued for those persons incarcerated as a result of a judgment and sentence of the Winnebago Tribal Court. [TCR 86-79]

Rule IB-308 Bail.

1. Except as herein provided, all persons arrested for offenses under this Code and incarcerated shall be given the opportunity to make bail and be released pending their trial or appeal.
2. Bail-release prior to trial — personal recognizance. Every person charged with a criminal offense before trial, unless the judge should determine that such a release will not reasonably assure the appearance of such person lawfully required by law, or that release of such person will pose a significant danger to the community, the accused or any other person.
3. Bail — Release Prior to Trial — Alternatives. Where the judge determines that a person charged with a criminal offense should not be released on his/her personal recognizance, the judge may choose from among the following alternatives to assure the appearance of the person at any time lawfully required:
 - a. Release after deposit by the accused or a bondsman of bond either in cash or other sufficient collateral in an amount specified by the judge or a bail schedule. The judge, in his/her discretion, may require that the accused post only a portion of the total bond, the full sum to become due if the accused fails to appear as ordered.
 - b. Release after execution of a bail agreement by one or more responsible members of the community.
 - c. Release to custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to assure the accused's appearance.
 - d. Release with reasonable restrictions on the travel, association or place of residence of the accused during the period of release.
 - e. Release upon any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure the appearance of the accused as required.
 - f. No release where the judge finds, from the arguments presented or the past record of the defendant, that no conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant or that release of the defendant will pose a significant danger to the community, the accused or to any other person.
4. Bail release pending appeal. Every person who has been convicted of a Tribal offense and has appealed the conviction may request bail pursuant to the provisions for bail herein provided.
5. A bail schedule for Class III offenses shall be adopted by the Court and a defendant may obtain release from jail at any time prior to arraignment by posting the amount or amounts of bail specified in the bail schedule for the offense or offenses charged, provided, however, that if the arresting officer or complaining witness shall certify to the jailer, or if the jailer shall certify based on his/her own observation, that the defendant is at the time he/she is brought to the jail unconscious or in an intoxicated or apparently intoxicated condition, or for any reason does not appear to be in a conscious and sober condition, such defendant shall not be allowed to post bail according to the bail schedule for eight hours.
6. At the arraignment or other appropriate time, the judge shall set bail at an amount not to exceed twice the maximum fine payable for the offense charged, which will tend to assure the appearance of the defendant at a trial and at such other times as his/her appearance is necessary. A defendant may, at arraignment, request that any bail posted under the bail schedule be reduced or that he/she be released under terms other than bail as authorized elsewhere in this Title.
7. The required bail may be tendered in the form of cash, collateral or a bail bond executed by two or more reliable persons as sureties subject to the jurisdiction of the Court in the form which the Court shall direct.
8. In the event the defendant fails to appear as required, the Court will forfeit any cash or collateral deposited or order the sureties of the bail bond to pay the designated amount to the Court. The

TITLE 1B ARTICLE 3

- liability of the sureties may be enforced by order of the Court without the necessity of an independent action or judgment.
9. The Court may order the forfeiture of bail for non-appearance set aside if it appears that justice does not require the enforcement of the forfeiture.
 10. The right to be released on bail as provided herein shall not accrue and state laws shall be subject to be released on bail by the jurisdiction under whose authority the arrest was made according to the provisions of the laws under which their arrest was made. A person arrested for violation of federal law shall not be entitled to be released on bail until the prosecution of such charges has been declined by the United States Attorney, plus a reasonable time thereafter, not to exceed thirty-six hours after receipt of notification of such declination, in which charges for violation of this Code, if any, may be filed, provided that upon the arrest of any person solely for violation of federal law, custody of the arrested party shall immediately be given to the appropriate federal authorities. Unless such authorities accept custody of the defendant and make arrangements with the chief of police to physically remove the arrested party from the Tribal jail, or to pay the Tribal jail to hold said party as federal prisoners, the chief of police shall release said party from custody upon twenty-four hours notice to the appropriate United States Attorney and to the Tribal prosecutor if no Tribal charges have been filed as of that time.
 11. Security offered as bail shall be returned immediately on an acquittal or finding of not guilty, provided, that bail may be continued until sentencing or a ruling on an appeal, at the discretion of the Court. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-309 Joinder.

1. Joinder of offenses. Two or more offenses may be charged in one complaint so long as they are set out in separate counts and:
 - a. They are part of a common scheme or plan; or
 - b. They arose out of the same transaction or events.
2. Joinder of defendants. Two or more defendants may be joined in one complaint if they are alleged to have participated in a common act, scheme, or plan to commit one or more offenses. Each defendant need not be charged in each count.

Rule 1B-310 Plea.

1. A defendant may plead guilty, nolo contendere, or not guilty. The Court shall not accept a plea of guilty or nolo contendere without first addressing the defendant personally and determining that the plea is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea. If the defendant refuses to plead or if the Court refuses to accept a plea of guilty, or nolo contendere, the Court shall enter a plea of not guilty. The Court shall not enter a judgment upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere unless it is satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea.
2. The defendant, with the consent of the Court and of the prosecutor, may plead guilty to any lesser offense than that logged which is included in the offenses charged in the complaint or to any lesser degree of the offense charged. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-310.1 Withdrawing guilty plea. A motion to withdraw a plea of guilty may be made before sentence is imposed, defeated, or suspended, except that the Court may allow a guilty plea to be withdrawn to correct a manifest injustice. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-310.2 Plea bargaining. Whenever the defendant pleads, guilty as a result of a plea arrangement with the prosecutor, the full terms of such agreement shall be disclosed to the judge. The judge, in his/her discretion, is not required to honor such agreement. [TCR 86-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1B ARTICLE 3

Rule 1B-311 Pleading and motions before trial: defenses and objections.

1. Pleading in criminal proceedings shall consist of the complaint and the plea of either guilty, nolo contendere, or not guilty. All other pleas and motions shall be made in accordance with these Rules.
2. Motions raising defenses and objections may be made as follows.
 - a. Any defenses or objections which are capable of determination other than at trial may be raised before trial by motion.
 - b. Defenses and objections based on defects in the institution of the prosecution of the complaint other than that it fails to show jurisdiction in the Court or fails to charge an offense may be raised on motion only before trial or such shall be deemed waived, unless the Court for good cause shown grants relief from such waiver. Lack of jurisdiction or failure to charge an offense may be raised as defenses or noticed by the Court on its own motion at any state of the proceeding.
 - c. Such motions shall be made in writing and filed with the Court at least five business days before the day set for trial. Such motions will be argued before trial or the date of trial unless the Court directs otherwise. Decision on such motions shall be made by the judge and not by the jury.
 - d. If a motion is decided against a defendant, the trial shall proceed as if no motion were made. If a motion is decided in favor of a defendant, the judge shall alter the proceedings, allow an interlocutory appeal to be taken as provided in the Appellate Rules or enter judgment as is appropriate in light of the decision. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-312 Joinder of offenses.

1. The Court may order two or more defendants tried together if they could have been joined in a single complaint or may order a single defendant tried on more than one complaint at a single trial.
2. If it appears that a defendant or the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or other defendants for trial together, the Court may order separate complaints and may order separate trials or provide such other relief as justice requires. In ruling on a motion for severance, the Court may order the Tribe to deliver to the Court for inspection in chambers any statements made by a defendant which the Tribe intends to introduce in evidence at the trial. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-313 Discovery and inspection.

1. The police, or prosecutor, shall, upon request, permit the defendant or his/her attorney to inspect and copy any statements or confessions, or copies thereof, made by the defendant if such are within the possession or control of, or reasonably obtainable by the police or prosecution. The police and prosecution shall also make available copies of reports of physical, mental or scientific tests or examinations relating to or done on the defendant.
2. The defendant or his/her attorney shall reveal by written notice to the Court and the prosecutor at least five working days before trial the name and addresses of any witnesses upon whom the defense intends to rely to provide an alibi or insanity defense for the defendant. Failure to provide such notice will prevent the use of such witnesses by the defense unless it can be shown by the defense that prior notice was impossible or that no prejudice to the prosecution has resulted, in which case the judge may order the trial delayed or make such other orders as tend to assure a just determination of the case. [TCR 86-79]

TITLE 1B ARTICLE 3

Rule 1B-314 Subpoena.

1. The defendant and the prosecutor shall have the right to subpoena any witnesses they deem necessary for the presentation of their case, including subpoenas issued in blank. Subpoenas in criminal cases shall be issued, served and returned as in civil cases.

1. All trials of offenses shall be by the Court without a jury unless the defendant files a request for jury trial at the arraignment or at least ten (10) days prior to the date originally set for trial. Requests for jury trials need not be granted in cases where imprisonment is not a possibility.
2. Juries shall be composed of six members with one alternate if such is deemed divisible by the Court.
3. In a case tried without a jury, the judge shall make a general finding of guilt or innocence and shall upon request of a party, make specific findings which may be embodied in a written decision. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-402 Trial jurors.

1. Jurors shall be drawn from the list of eligible jurors, prepared as provided in the rules promulgated by the Court, by the clerk in advance of trial. Jurors to sit at trial shall be drawn by lot from the group of potential jurors by the judge or clerk at trial. All adult Tribal members who are residents of the reservation are eligible jurors unless such person is incompetent or subject to incarceration or other restraint on his/her liberty due to a judgment and sentence in a criminal case. Any person convicted of a felony within the preceding five years for which he/she did not receive a pardon is not eligible for jury duty.
2. The Court shall permit the defendant or his/her counsel and the prosecutor to examine the jurors and the Court itself may make such an examination.
3. Challenges regarding jury members may be taken as follows:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1B ARTICLE 4

2. If the parties are ready to proceed, the judge should swear all prospective jurors, if the case is to be tried by jury, to decide the case in a fair and impartial manner if selected for jury duty.
3. If the case is to jury, the Court should select a panel of six potential jurors by random and question them to determine if they have any interest in the case.
4. When the Court is satisfied that no juror is directly interested in the case, the prosecution and then the defendant shall be allowed to question the prospective jurors.
5. If it appears that a prospective juror is related to a party in the case or is biased for or against a party, or if the outcome would significantly affect the property, family, or other important interest of the prospective juror, the Court shall dismiss him/her for cause and select another person from the jury panel.
6. Both the prosecutor and the defendant may alternatively request the Court to dismiss any juror by peremptory challenge. Each party shall have three challenges and the Court may not refuse to grant them. No reasons need be given for the challenges and alternate jurors shall be examined and selected as the original panel was selected. The final jury panel should then be sworn.
7. The Court should request the prosecutor to read the criminal complaint and to make his/her opening statement. Prior to reading the complaint, the Court should explain to the jury that the complaint is not evidence, but is being read for the sole purpose of informing the defendant and the jury of the offense charged against the defendant.
8. The prosecutor should then read the complaint and briefly present the facts which he/she intends to prove to show the offense. No argument of the facts or law shall be allowed.
9. The defense may then make an opening statement or may reserve their opening statement until beginning the presentation of the defense evidence.
10. The prosecutor shall then present his/her evidence followed by the defendant's presentation of his/her defense evidence. After the defendant has presented his/her evidence, the prosecutor may present evidence in rebuttal.
11. The prosecutor shall then present his/her closing arguments, the defendant his/her closing argument, and the prosecutor shall be allowed to present a rebuttal.
12. If trial is to a jury, the judge should give them his/her instructions and they shall retire to decide their verdict. If trial is to the judge, he/she shall then make his/her decision or announce the time at which he/she will present his/her decision.
13. If the verdict is not guilty, the defendant should be discharged and bail exonerated.
14. If the verdict is guilty, the judge may impose sentence immediately or may hold a hearing to decide on an appropriate sentence.

1. If by reason of death, sickness or other disability, the judge before whom a jury trial has commenced is unable to proceed with the trial, any other Tribal judge may, upon certifying that he/she has familiarized him/herself with the record of the trial, proceed with the trial.
2. If by reason of death, sickness or other disability, the judge before whom the defendant has been tried is unable to perform the required duties of a judge after the verdict or finding of guilt, any other Tribal judge may perform those duties unless such judge feels he/she cannot fairly perform those duties in which case a new trial may be granted. 1. The Court on motion from defendant or on its own motion, shall order the entry of a judgment of acquittal of one or more offenses charged in the complaint after the evidence of either side is closed if the evidence is insufficient as a matter of law to sustain a conviction of such offenses. A motion for acquittal by the defendant does not affect his/her right to present evidence.
2. If a motion for judgment of acquittal is made at the close of all evidence, the Court may reserve decision on the motion, submit the case to the jury and decide the motion any time either before or after the jury returns its verdict or is discharged. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-409 Instructions. At the close of evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the Court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the Court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the request. At the same time, copies of such requests shall be furnished to adverse parties. The Court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to the arguments of counsel to the jury, but the Court shall instruct the jury after the arguments are completed. No party may assign as error any portion of the charge or omission therefrom unless he/she objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which he/she objects and the grounds of the objection. Opportunity shall be given out of the hearing or if necessary out of the presence of the jury. [TCR 86-79]

Rule 1B-410 Verdict.

1. The verdict of a trial to a judicial panel shall be by majority vote and shall be returned in open Court.

TITLE 1B ARTICLE 4

If trial was by the Court without a jury, the Court, on motion of a defendant for a new trial, may vacate the judgment, if entered, take additional testimony, and direct the entry of a new judgment. A motion for a new trial based on the ground of newly discovered evidence may be made only within one month after final judgment, but if an appeal is pending, the Court may grant the motion only on the remand of the case. Rule 1C-101 Guidelines Adopted. The Winnebago Tribal Court has undertaken to prescribe uniform child support guidelines and criteria pursuant to the federal Final Rule for Tribal Child Support Enforcement IV-D Programs, 45 CFR 309 (March 30, 2004) and Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Family Relations Code, Title 12, Article 5. The child support guidelines in this Article are hereby adopted, effective thirty (30) days from the date of approval by the Winnebago Tribal Council. The guidelines shall apply to civil cases pending on or after the effective date. Proceedings to establish child support obligations are civil in nature and where not governed by the procedures set forth under this Article, shall be conducted according to the Winnebago Rules of Civil Procedure. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-102 Table. The table contained in this chapter is established as guidelines for use by the Winnebago Tribal Court in determining the amount of child support. The table is applicable to modification of child support orders as provided in Rule 1C-119, below. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-103 Purpose. The main principle behind these Tribal child support guidelines is to provide for the best interests of the children by recognizing the equal duty of both parents to contribute to the support of their children in proportion to their respective net incomes. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-104 Temporary and Permanent Support. The Tribal child support guidelines are intended to be used for both temporary and permanent support determinations. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-105 Rebuttable Presumption. The Tribal child support guidelines shall be applied as a rebuttable presumption. All orders for child support obligations shall be established in accordance with the provisions of the Tribal guidelines unless the Tribal Court finds that one or both parties have produced sufficient evidence to rebut the presumption that the Tribal guidelines should be applied. All stipulated agreements for child support must be reviewed against the Tribal guidelines and if a deviation exists and is approved by the Tribal Court, specific written findings giving the reason for the deviation must be made. Written findings must state the amount of support that would have been required under the guidelines and include a justification of why the order varies from the guidelines. Deviations must take into consideration the best interests of the child. In the event of a deviation, the reason for the deviation shall be contained in the findings portion of the decree or order, or worksheet 5 should be completed by the Tribal Court and filed in the Court file. Deviations from the guidelines are permissible under the following circumstances:

TITLE 1C ARTICLE 1

1. When there are extraordinary medical costs of either parent or child;
2. When special needs of a disabled child exist;
3. If total net income exceeds $15,000 monthly, child support for amounts in excess of $15,000 monthly may be more but shall not be less than the amount which would be computed using the $15,000 monthly income unless other permissible deviations exist. To assist the Court and not as a rebuttable presumption, the Court may use the amount at $15,000 plus: 10 percent of net income above $15,000 for one, two, and three children; 12 percent of net income above $15,000 for four children; 13 percent of net income for five children; and 14 percent of net income for six children;
4. For juveniles placed in foster care; or
5. Whenever the application of the guidelines in an individual case would be unjust or inappropriate.

All orders for child support, including modifications, must include a basic income and support calculation worksheet 1, and if used, worksheet 2 or 3. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-106 Total Monthly Income. “Total monthly income” is income of both parties derived from all sources, except all means-tested public assistance benefits, including Tribal or State TANF and any earned income tax credit and payments received for children of prior marriages. This would include income that could be acquired by the parties through reasonable efforts. For instance, the Court may consider as income the retained earnings in a closely-held corporation of which a party is a shareholder if the earnings appear excessive or inappropriate. All income should be annualized and divided by 12. For example, a party who receives a salary of $200 gross per week would have an annualized gross income of $10,400 ($200 times 52) and a monthly income of $866.67 (10,400 divided by 12). If the person is paid $200 every 2 weeks, his or her annualized gross income would be $5,200 ($200 times 26) and monthly income would be $433.33 (5,200 divided by 12).

Examples of income may include any form of periodic payment to an individual, including, but not limited to, salaries, wages, commissions, self-employment income, workers’ compensation, unemployment benefits, annuity payments, military and naval retirement, pension and disability payments, spousal maintenance received under a previous order or the current proceeding, Social Security or Veterans benefits provided for a dependent child, gaming winnings, Tribal per capita payments, and any form of federal or Tribal trust benefits derived from a person’s status as an enrolled member of any federally-recognized tribe, including but not limited to general assistance payments, oil or other mineral royalties, agricultural leases, and water leases.

It is the responsibility of the person with seasonal employment to budget income so that payments are made monthly throughout the year.

The Tribal Court may consider overtime wages in determining child support if the overtime is a regular part of the employment and the employee can actually expect to regularly earn a certain amount of income from working overtime. In determining whether working overtime is a regular part of employment, the Court may consider such factors as the work history of the employee for the employer, the degree of control the employee has over work conditions, and the nature of the employer’s business or industry.

Depreciation calculated on the cost of ordinary and necessary assets may be allowed as a deduction from income of the business or farm to arrive at an annualized total monthly income. After an asset is shown to be ordinary and necessary, depreciation, if allowed by the Tribal Court, shall be calculated by using the

TITLE 1C ARTICLE 1

“straight-line” method, which allocates cost of an asset equally over its useful duration or life. An asset’s life should be determined with reference to the Class-lives and Recovery Periods Table created pursuant to 26 CFR § 1.167(a)-11. A party claiming depreciation shall have the burden of establishing entitlement to its allowance as a deduction.

Copies of at least two (2) years’ tax returns, financial statements, and current wage stubs should be furnished to the Tribal Court and the other party to the action at least three (3) days before any hearing requesting relief. Any party claiming an allowance of depreciation as a deduction from income shall furnish to the Court and the other party copies of a minimum of five (5) years’ tax returns at least 14 days before any hearing pertaining to the allowance of the deduction.

If applicable, earning capacity may be considered in lieu of a parent’s actual, present income and may include factors such as work history, education, occupational skills, and job opportunities. Earning capacity is not limited to wage-earning capacity, but includes moneys available from all sources. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-107 Deductions. The following deductions should be annualized to arrive at monthly net income:

1. Taxes. Standard deductions applicable to the number of exemptions provided by law will be used to establish the amount of federal and state income taxes.
2. FICA. Social Security deductions, or any other mandatory contributions in lieu of Social Security deductions including any self-employment tax paid.
3. Retirement. Individual contributions, in a minimum amount required by a mandatory retirement plan. Where no mandatory retirement plan exists, a deduction shall be allowed for a continuation of actual voluntary retirement contributions not to exceed 4 percent of the gross income from employment or 4 percent from the net income from self-employment.
4. Child Support. Child support previously ordered for other children.
5. Other Children. Subject to Rule 1C-122, credit may be given for biological or adopted children for whom the obligor provides regular support. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-108 Monthly Support. The combined monthly net income of both parties from line 4 of worksheet 1 is compared to table 1. For example, if the combined monthly net income was $1,500 and there were three children, we would find $530 as the child support from table 1 (read across the table from $1,500 to the “Three Children” column to find $530). [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-109 Parent's Monthly Share. This is the child support amount from line 7, worksheet 1 (or line 9 if applicable), multiplied by the percentage contribution of each parent from line 6, worksheet 1. In our example, if F had a monthly net income of $1,000 and M had a monthly income of $500, each parent's monthly share would be $355.10 for F (.67 times $530) and $174.90 for M (.33 times $530). F would be required to pay M $355.10 per month in the event M was awarded custody of the children. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-110 More Than One Child. If there is more than one child, the Court’s order should specify the amount of child support due for the children, with the amount recalculated and reduced as the obligation to support terminates for each child. The amount due for each possibility should be calculated separately from table 1. In our example, if M was awarded custody of the children, F would be required to pay $355.10 (.67 times $530) when there are three children, $328.30 (.67 times $490) when there are two children, and $258.62 (.67 times $386) when there is one child. See worksheet 4. The order should direct that child support continue only until each child reaches majority under Winnebago law, becomes emancipated, becomes self-supporting, marries, or dies, or until further order of the Tribal Court. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-111 Minimum Support. It is recommended that even in very low income cases, a minimum support of $50, or 10 percent of the obligor's net income, whichever is greater, per month be set. This will help to maintain information on such obligor, such as his or her address, employment, etc., and, hopefully, encourage such person to understand the necessity, duty, and importance of supporting his or her children. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-112 Non-Cash Support. A non-cash support payment may satisfy a set child support obligation only where:

1. The obligor and obligee agree to the non-cash support as a form of payment and the Court approves of the non-cash support in the written order;
2. The Court states the specific dollar amount of the child support obligation in the written order;
3. The Court describes in the written order the type(s) of non-cash support that will be permitted to satisfy the underlying specific dollar amount of the child support order and that only 50% of the underlying child support obligation may be met by non-cash support; and
4. The Court provides in the written order that the non-cash support will not be permitted to satisfy child support obligations that have been assigned to any tribal or state public agency.

The making of direct payments to or for the benefit of the child, the giving of gifts, the purchasing of food, clothing and the like, or the payment of bills shall not satisfy the aforesaid child support obligation unless such payments are approved by the Court as Non-Cash Support under this Rule. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-113 Visitation or Parenting Time Adjustments. Visitation or parenting time adjustments or direct cost sharing should be specified in the support order. If child support is not calculated under Rule 1C-115, an adjustment in child support may be made at the discretion of the Tribal Court when visitation or parenting time substantially exceeds alternating weekends and holidays and 28 days or more in any 90-day period. During visitation or parenting time periods of 28 days or more in any 90-day period, support payments may be reduced by up to 80 percent. The amount of any reduction for extended parenting time shall be specified in the Court's order and shall be presumed to apply to the months designated in the order. Any documented substantial and reasonable long-distance transportation costs directly associated with visitation or parenting time may be considered by the Court and, if appropriate, allowed as a deviation from the guidelines. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-114 Split Custody. Split custody is defined as each parent having physical custody of one or more of the children. Worksheet 2 shows how to do this calculation. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-115 Joint Physical Custody. When a specific provision for joint physical custody is ordered and each party's parenting time exceeds 142 days per year, it is a rebuttable presumption that support shall be calculated using worksheet 3. When a specific provision for joint physical custody is ordered and one party's parenting time is 109 to 142 days per year, the use of worksheet 3 to calculate support is at the discretion of the Court. If child support is determined under this paragraph, all reasonable and necessary direct expenditures made solely for the child(ren), such as clothing and extracurricular activities, may be allocated between the parents, as determined by the Court, but shall not exceed the proportion of the obligor's parental contributions (worksheet 1, line 6). For purposes of these guidelines, a "day" shall be generally defined as including an overnight period. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-116 Alimony. These guidelines intend that spousal support be determined from income available to the parties after child support has been established. [TCR 08-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1C ARTICLE 1

Rule 1C-117 Child-Care Expenses. Child-care expenses are not specifically computed into the guidelines amount. If the Tribal Court chooses to allocate child-care expenses, the Court shall consider such expenses independently of any amount computed by use of these guidelines. Care expenses for the child for whom the support is being set, which are due to employment of either parent or to allow the parent to obtain training or education necessary to obtain a job or enhance earning potential, shall be allocated to the obligor parent as determined by the Court, but shall not exceed the proportion of the obligor's parental contribution (worksheet 1, line 6) and shall be added to the basic support obligation computed under these guidelines. The value of the federal income tax credit for child care shall be subtracted from actual costs to arrive at a figure for net child-care expenses. The Court may impute the value of the federal child-care tax credit using worksheet 6 if the parent incurring the child-care expense has monthly gross income above $2,100 for one child; $2,500 for two children; $2,600 for three children; $2,700 for four children; $2,800 for five children; and $2,900 for six children. The value shall be imputed at 25 percent of the child-care expense, not to exceed $62.50 per month for one child and $125 per month for two or more children. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-118 Child(ren)'s Health Insurance and Nonreimbursed Health Care Expenses. The child support order shall address how or whether the parents will provide for the child(ren)'s health care needs through health insurance as well as the nonreimbursed reasonable and necessary child(ren)'s health care costs that are not included in table 1 that are provided for in subparagraph 2 of this rule.

1. Health Insurance. The increased cost to the parent for health insurance for the child(ren) of the parent shall be prorated between the parents. When worksheet 1 is used, it shall be added to the monthly support from line 7, then prorated between the parents to arrive at each party's share of monthly support on line 10 of worksheet 1. The parent requesting an adjustment for health insurance premiums must submit proof of the cost for health insurance coverage of the child(ren). The parent paying the premium receives a credit against his or her share of the monthly support.
2. Health Care. Children's health care expenses are specifically included in the guidelines amount of up to $480 per child per year. The Tribal Court may order that either parent provide health insurance to meet children's health care needs where appropriate. All nonreimbursed reasonable and necessary children's health care costs in excess of $480 per child per year shall be allocated to the obligor parent as determined by the Court, but shall not exceed the proportion of the obligor's parental contribution (worksheet 1, line 6). [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-119 Modification. Application of the child support guidelines which would result in a variation by 10 percent or more, but not less than $25, upward or downward, of the current child support obligation, child care obligation, or health care obligation, due to financial circumstances which have lasted 3 months and can reasonably be expected to last for an additional 6 months or for a period of time determined by the Tribal Court, establishes a rebuttable presumption of a material change of circumstances. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-120 Basic Subsistence Limitation. A parent's support, child care, and health care obligation shall not reduce his or her net income below the minimum of $851 net monthly for one person, or the poverty guidelines updated annually in the Federal Register by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under authority of 42 U.S.C. § 9902(2), except minimum support may be ordered as defined in Rule 1C-111 above. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-121 Limitation on Increase. Under no circumstances shall there be an increase in support due from the obligor solely because of an increase in the income of the obligee. [TCR 08-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 1C ARTICLE 1

Rule 1C-122 Limitation on Decrease. An obligor shall not be allowed a reduction in an existing support order solely because of the birth, adoption, or acknowledgment of subsequent children of the obligor; however, a duty to provide regular support for subsequent children may be raised as a defense to an action for an upward modification of such existing support order. [TCR 08-79]

Rule 1C-123 Maintenance and Review of Guidelines. The Tribal Court shall maintain uniform child support guidelines and criteria and review the guidelines and criteria at least once every four years, pursuant to the Final Rule for Tribal Child Support Enforcement IV-D Programs, 45 CFR § 309.105 (March 30, 2004). The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Child Support Enforcement Program Director is responsible for notifying the Tribal Court Judges and Court Administrator when a review and potential revision of the guidelines are necessary. The Tribal Court Judges and Court Administrator shall convene a Guidelines Advisory Committee of five members, including one member appointed by the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Attorney General's office, two employees of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Child Support Enforcement Program appointed by the Child Support Director, one Tribal Court Judge, and the Tribal Court Administrator. The Tribal Court Judge(s) will review reports submitted to the Tribal Court by the Guidelines Advisory Committee. The initial review shall be performed within three years of July 1, 2008, and subsequently within the four-year period of the most recent review. [TCR 08-79]

2-108 Court costs not charged to Tribe. The Tribe, its officers, employees, agents, or political subdivisions acting in their official capacity shall not be charged or ordered to pay any Court costs or attorney fees under this Act, but if these entities prevail in the action, the cost which such entities would have been required to pay may be charged as costs to the losing party as in other cases. [TCR 86-109]

2-109 Effect of previous Court decisions. All previous decisions of the Courts of the Tribe, insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act, shall continue to have precedential value in the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-110 C.F.R. not applicable. Any and all provisions of part 11 of Title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations as presently or hereafter constituted are declared to be not applicable to the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-111 Laws applicable to civil actions.

1. In all civil cases, the Tribal Court shall apply:
 - A. The Constitution, statutes, and common law of the Tribe not prohibited by applicable federal law, and, if none, then
 - B. The federal law including federal common law, and, if none, then
 - C. The laws of any state or other jurisdiction which the Court finds to be compatible with the public policy and needs of the Tribe.
2. No federal or state law shall be applied to a civil action pursuant to paragraphs (B) and (C) of subsection (1) of this Section if such law is inconsistent with the laws of the Tribe or the public policy of the Tribe.
3. Where any doubt arises as to the customs and usages of the Tribe, the Court, either on its own motion or the motion of any party, may subpoena and request the advice of elders and counselors familiar with those customs and usages. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-112 Court action when no procedure provided. In any case in which no specific procedure is provided for by Tribal laws or Court rules, the Court may proceed in any lawful fashion not inconsistent with Tribal law, the rules of the Court, or the Indian Civil Rights Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-201 Commencement of Action. A civil action is commenced by filing a complaint with the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-202 One form of action. There shall be one form of action to be known as a “civil action.” [TCR 86-109]

2-203 “Claim” defined. As used in this Act, the term “claim” means any right of action which may be asserted in a civil action or proceeding and includes, but is not limited to, a right of action created by statute. [TCR 86-109]

2-204 Notice of pendency of action. Upon the filing of a complaint in the Tribal Court, the action is pending so as to charge third persons with notice of its pendency. While an action is pending, no third person shall acquire an interest in the subject matter of the suit as against the plaintiff’s title, except as provided in Sections 2-205 and 2-206 of this Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-205 Notice of pendency contingent upon service. Notice of the pendency of an action shall have no effect unless service of process is made upon the defendant within one hundred twenty days after the filing of the petition. [TCR 86-109]

2-206 Special notice for actions pending in other Courts. No action pending in either state or federal Court, or the Court of any other Indian tribe, shall constitute notice with respect to any real property or personal property located within the Tribal jurisdiction until a notice of pendency of the action, identifying the case and the Court in which it is pending and giving the legal description of the land affected, or the description of the personal property and its location (if known) affected by the action, is filed of record in the office of the clerk of the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-207 Pleadings allowed; form of motions.

1. Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and answer; a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under the provisions of Section 2-217; and a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the Court may order a reply to an answer or a third-party answer.
2. Motions and other papers.
 - A. An application to the Court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall:
 - i. be made in writing;
 - ii. state with particularity the grounds therefor; and
 - iii. set forth the relief or order sought.The requirement of a writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.
 - B. The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these Rules.
 - C. All motions shall be signed in accordance with Section 2-211 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-208 General rules of pleading.

1. Claims for relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (A) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (B) a demand for judgment for the relief the pleader seeks. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.
2. Defenses; form of denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms the party's defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If a party is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, the party shall so state, and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only part or a qualification of an averment, the pleader shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, the pleader may make denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs or may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as the pleader expressly admits; but, when the pleader does not so intend to controvert all its averments, including averments of the grounds upon which the Court's jurisdiction depends, the pleader may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in Section 2-211.
3. Affirmative defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively each of the following defenses relied upon:
 - A. Accord and satisfaction;
 - B. Arbitration and award;
 - C. Assumption of risk;
 - D. Contributory negligence;
 - E. Discharge in bankruptcy;
 - F. Duress;
 - G. Estoppel;
 - H. Failure of consideration;
 - I. Fraud;
 - J. Illegality;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

- K. Injury by fellow servant;
- L. Laches;
- M. License;
- N. Payment;
- O. Release;
- P. Res judicata;
- Q. Statute of frauds;
- R. Statute of limitations;
- S. Waiver;
- T. Any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense.

When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the Court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

- 4. Effect of failure to deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.
- 5. Pleading to be concise and direct; consistency.
 - A. Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required.
 - B. A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them, if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as the party has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal, equitable, or other grounds. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in Section 2-211 of this Act.
- 6. Construction of pleadings. All pleadings shall be so constructed as to do substantial justice. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-209 Pleading special matters.

- 1. Capacity. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or to be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party, except to the extent required to show the jurisdiction of the Court. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of a party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued, or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, the party shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge, and that party shall have the burden of proof on that issue.
- 2. Fraud, mistake, condition of the mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other conditions of mind of a person may be averred generally.
- 3. Conditions precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.
- 4. Official document or act. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

5. Judgment. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign Court, judicial or quasi-judicial, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.
6. Time and place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.
7. Special damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-210 Form of pleadings, motions, and briefs.

1. Caption; names of parties. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the Court, the title of the action, the file number, and a designation of the type of pleading in the terms expressed in Section 2-207(1). In the complaint, the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties. In the initial third-party complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, motion and petition in intervention or a pleading by a party suing or being sued in a representative capacity, appropriate designations of all affected parties shall be made and their names stated. Thereafter, papers relating to such matters may contain only the name of the first party in each category with an appropriate indication of other parties.
2. Paragraphs; separate statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as is practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings, motions, or briefs. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense founded upon other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.
3. Adoption by reference; exhibits. Statements in a pleading, motion, or brief may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion or brief. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading, or a motion, or a brief is a part thereof for all purposes. [TCR 86-109]

2-211 Signing of pleadings. Every pleading of a party represented by a licensed attorney or advocate shall be signed by at least one attorney or advocate of record in his/her individual name, whose address and telephone number shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney or advocate shall sign his/her pleading and state his/her address and telephone number. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The English and American Common Law Rule in equity that the averments of an answer under oath must be overcome by the testimony of two witnesses or of one witness sustained by corroborating circumstances is not applicable in the Tribal Courts. The signature of an attorney or advocate constitutes a certificate by him/her that he/she has read the pleading; that to the best of his/her knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this Section, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a willful violation of this Section, an attorney or advocate may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

2-212 Defenses and objections—when and how presented—by pleadings or motions—motion for judgment on the pleadings.

1. When presented.
 - A. A defendant shall serve an answer within twenty days after the service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant, except when service is made under any one of Sections 2-316, 2-318 or 2-321 of this Act and a different time is prescribed in the order of Court, or under a statute of the Tribe. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him/her shall serve an answer thereto within twenty days after the service upon him/her. The plaintiff shall serve his/her reply to a counterclaim in the answer within twenty days after service of the answer, or, if a reply is ordered by the Court, within twenty days after the service of the order unless the order otherwise directs. The Tribe or an officer or agency thereof shall serve an answer to the complaint or to a cross-claim, or a reply to a counterclaim, within sixty days after the service upon the Tribal attorney, chief executive officer and chairman, (or the chief executive officer of the Tribe if there is no Tribal attorney) of the pleading in which the claim is asserted, provided that no default judgment shall be entered against the Tribe, and upon affidavit of the chief executive officer of the Tribe that the Tribe has no attorney but that an attorney contract is pending for Bureau of Indian Affairs approval, the Court shall allow the Tribe to answer within twenty days after the approval of the attorney contract or within sixty days after service, whichever is later. The service of a motion permitted under this Section alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the Court: (i) if the Court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten days after notice of the Court's action; (ii) if the Court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten days after the service of the more definite statement.
 - B. Within the time in which an answer may be served, a defendant may file an entry of reappearance and reserve twenty additional days to answer or otherwise defend. Any entry of appearance shall extend the time to respond twenty days from the last date for answering and is a waiver of all defenses numbered B, C, D, E and I of paragraph (2) of this Section, provided, that a waiver of sovereign immunity shall not be implied under defense I of paragraph (2) of this Section since a defense based upon sovereign immunity is a defense to the subject matter jurisdiction of the Court and not a defense to the parties' capacity to be sued.
2. How presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may, at the option of the pleader, be made by motion:
 - A. Lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter;
 - B. Lack of jurisdiction over the person;
 - C. Improper venue;
 - D. Insufficiency of process;
 - E. Insufficiency of service of process;
 - F. Failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted;
 - G. Failure to join a party under Section 2-403;
 - H. Another action pending between the same parties for the same claim;
 - I. Lack of capacity of a party to be sued; and
 - J. Lack of capacity of a party to sue.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, the adverse party may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting defense (F) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Section 2-1005, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all materials made pertinent to such a motion by Section 2-1005. Every motion to dismiss shall be accompanied by a concise brief in support of that motion unless waived by order of the Court.

3. Motion for judgment on the pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Section 2-1005, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all materials made pertinent to such motion by Section 2-1005.
4. Preliminary hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (A)-(J) in subdivision (2) of this Section, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in subdivision (3) of this Section shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the Court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.
5. Motion for more definite statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, the party may move for a more definite statement before interposing a responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the Court is not obeyed within ten days after notice of the order or within such other time as the Court may fix, the Court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.
6. Motion to strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading, or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by this Act, upon motion made by a party within twenty days after the service of the pleading upon the party or upon the Court's own initiative at any time, the Court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.
7. Consolidation of defenses in motion. A party who makes a motion under this Section may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to the party. If a party makes a motion under this Section but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to the party which this Section permits to be raised by motion, the party shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in subdivision (8)(B) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.
8. Waiver or preservation of certain defenses.
 - A. A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper venue, insufficiency of process, insufficiency of service of process or lack of capacity of a party to sue is waived (i) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in subdivision (7), or (ii) if it is neither made by motion under this Section nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Section 2-218(1) to be made as a matter of course, or (iii) if a permissive counterclaim is filed pursuant to Section 2-214(2).
 - B. A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under Section 2-403, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim, and a defense of another action pending may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Section 2-207(1), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

- C. Whenever it is determined, upon suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the Court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the Court shall dismiss the action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-25]

2-213 Final dismissal on failure to amend. On granting a motion to dismiss a claim for relief, the Court shall grant leave to amend if the defect can be remedied and shall specify the time within which an amended pleading shall be filed which should normally be ten days absent good cause for a shorter or longer time. If the amended pleading is not filed within the time allowed, final judgment of dismissal with prejudice shall be entered on motion except in cases of excusable neglect. In such cases, amendment shall be made by the party in default within a time specified by the Court for filing an amended pleading. Within the time allowed by the Court for an amended pleading, a plaintiff may voluntarily dismiss the action without prejudice. [TCR 86-109]

2-214 Counterclaim and cross-claim.

1. Compulsory counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the Court cannot acquire jurisdiction. But the pleader need not state the claim if (A) at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action, or (B) the opposing party brought suit upon the claim by attachment or other process by which the Court did not acquire jurisdiction to render a personal judgment on that claim, and the pleader is not stating any other counterclaim under this Section.
2. Permissive counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.
3. Counterclaim exceeding opposing claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.
4. Counterclaim against the Tribe. This Act shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counterclaims or to claim credits against the Tribe or an officer or agency thereof. A compulsory counterclaim does not waive the defense of sovereign immunity when made by the Tribe or an officer or an agency thereof. A permissive counterclaim waives the defense of sovereign immunity for the purpose of determining the permissive counterclaim stated by the Tribe, its officer, or agency, but does not waive such defense for any other purpose.
5. Counterclaim maturing or acquired after pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving a pleading may, with the permission of the Court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.
6. Omitted counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, the pleader may by leave of Court set up the counterclaim by amendment, except that when such amendment is served within the time otherwise allowed for amendment without leave of the Court by Section 2-218(1) of this Act.
7. Cross-claim against co-party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

8. Joinder of additional parties. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2-403 and 2-404.
9. Separate trials; separate judgments. If the Court orders separate trials as provided in Section 2-806(2), judgment on a counterclaim, or cross-claim, may be rendered in accordance with the terms of Section 2-1001(2) when the Court has jurisdiction to do so, even if claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-215 Counterclaim: effect of the statute of limitations.

1. Where a counterclaim and the claim of the opposing party arise out of the same transaction or occurrence, the counterclaim shall not be barred by a statute of limitation notwithstanding that it was barred at the time the petition was filed, and the counterclaimant shall not be precluded from recovering an affirmative judgment.
2. Where a counterclaim and the claim of the opposing party:
 - A. Do not arise out of the same transaction or occurrence; and
 - B. Both claims are for money judgments; and
 - C. Both claims had occurred before either was barred by a statute of limitations; and
 - D. The counterclaim is barred by a statute of limitations at the time that it is asserted, whether in an answer or an amended answer, the counterclaim may be asserted only to reduce the opposing party's claim.
3. Where a counterclaim was barred by a statute of limitations before the claim of the opposing party arose, the barred counterclaimant cannot be sued for any purpose. [TCR 86-109]

2-216 Counterclaims against assigned claims. A party, other than a holder in due course, who acquired a claim by assignment or otherwise, takes the claim subject to any defense or counterclaims that could have been asserted against the person from whom he/she acquired the claim, but the recovery on a counterclaim may be asserted against the assignee only to reduce the recovery of the opposing party. [TCR 86-109]

2-217 Third-party practice.

1. When defendant may bring in third party. At any time after commencement of the action a defending party, as a third-party plaintiff, may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to the third-party plaintiff for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The third-party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if the third-party plaintiff files the third-party complaint not later than ten days after serving the original answer. Otherwise the third-party plaintiff must obtain leave on motion upon notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the summons and third-party complaint, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make any defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in Section 2-212 and any counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in Section 2-214. The third-party plaintiff may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third party has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert any defenses as provided in Section 2-212 and any counterclaims and cross-claims as provided in Section 2-214. A third-party defendant may proceed under this Section against any person who is not a party to the action who is or may be liable to the third-party defendant for all or part of the claim made in action against the third-party defendant. Any party may move to strike the third-party claim, or for its severance or separate trial.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. When plaintiff may bring in third party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, the plaintiff may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this Section would entitle a defendant to do so.
3. Party defendants in real property actions. Abrogated. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-218 Amended and supplemental pleadings.

1. Amendments. A party may amend the party's pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, the party may so amend it at any time within twenty days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend the party's pleading only by leave of the Court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within ten days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the Court otherwise orders.
2. Amendments to conform to the evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the Court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the Court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice the party in maintaining the party's action or defense upon the merits. The Court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence. Where the pre-trial conference order has superseded the pleadings, the pre-trial order is controlling, and it is sufficient to amend the order and the pleadings need not be amended.
3. Relation back of amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him/her, the party to be brought in by amendment (A) has received such notice of the institution of the action that the party will not be prejudiced in maintaining a defense on the merits, and (B) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against the party. The delivery or mailing of process to the Tribal attorney, or his/her designee, or the Tribal Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer and a Tribal Council member, or an agency or officer thereof who would have been a proper defendant if named, satisfies the requirement of clauses (1) and (2) of this subparagraph (3) with respect to the Tribe or any agency or officer thereof to be brought into the action as a defendant.
4. Supplemental pleadings. Upon motion of a party the Court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit the party to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which would have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be granted even though the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or defense. If the Court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead to the supplemental pleading, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

2-219 Pre-trial procedure; formulating issues.

1. In any action, the Court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties and any unrepresented parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:
 - A. The simplification of the issues;
 - B. The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
 - C. The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
 - D. The identification of witnesses and documents;
 - E. The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a master or other Tribal Court judge for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury;
 - F. Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.
2. The Court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The Court in its discretion may establish by rule a pre-trial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to non-jury actions or extend it to all actions. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-220 Lost pleadings. If a pleading be lost or withheld by any person, the Court may allow a copy thereof to be substituted. [TCR 86-109]

2-221 Tenders of money or property. When a tender of money or property is alleged in any pleading, it shall not be necessary to deposit the money or property in Court when the pleading is filed, but it shall be sufficient if the money or property is deposited in Court at trial, or when ordered by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-222 Dismissal of actions.

1. Voluntary dismissal: effect thereof.
 - A. By plaintiff: by stipulation. Subject to the provisions of Section 2-407 or Section 2-902 or any statute of the Tribe, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of the Court.
 - i. by filing a notice of dismissal at any time before service by the adverse party of an answer or of a motion of summary judgment, whichever first occurs; or
 - ii. by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal without the consent of the defendants operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once voluntarily dismissed, with the consent of the defendants, in any Court of any Indian Tribe, the United States, or any state an action based on or including the same claim, unless such previous dismissal was entered due to inability to obtain personal jurisdiction over an indispensable party or lack of subject matter jurisdiction in the Court in which the case was previously filed. If the plaintiff claims either or both of these exceptions, it shall so state in its notice of dismissal and shall apply to the Tribal Court, upon notice to all adverse parties, for an order determining that the previous dismissal was within one or both of the two stated exceptions and that the plaintiff was entitled to dismiss the current action without prejudice. The Court may grant such application in its discretion and allow the plaintiff to dismiss without prejudice on such terms as are just, due regard being had for costs, attorney fees, and inconvenience of the defendants, and any apparent motive to harass, embarrass, or delay the defendants.

- B. By order of the Court. Except as provided in paragraph (A) of this subdivision of this Section, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the Court and upon such terms and conditions as the Court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon the defendant of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the Court. Unless otherwise provided in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.
2. Involuntary dismissal: effect thereof. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with this Act, any Court rule, or any order of the Court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against the defendant. After the plaintiff, in an action tried with the Court without a jury, has completed the presentation of his/her evidence, the defendant, without waiving his/her right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The Court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the Court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the Court shall make findings as provided in Section 2-851(1). Unless the Court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision and any dismissal not provided for in this Section, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction, or for failure to join a party under Section 2-403, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.
3. Dismissal of counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. The provisions of this Section apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to paragraph (A) of subdivision (1) of this Section shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing. Upon request of the plaintiff, separate or additional summons shall issue against any defendants. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-302 Form of summons. The summons shall be signed by the Court clerk, be under the seal of the Court, contain the name of the Court and the names of the parties, be directed to the defendant, state the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney, if any, otherwise the plaintiff's address, and the time within which this Act requires the defendant to appear and defend, and shall notify the defendant that in case of the defendant's failure to do so, judgment by default will be rendered against the defendant for the relief demanded in the complaint. [TCR 86-109, 93-84, 94-07]

2-303 Who may serve process personally.

1. Process including a subpoena, if served in person, shall be served by a Tribal police officer, or a Bureau of Indian Affairs police officer, a person licensed to make service of process in civil cases pursuant to Court rule, or a person specially appointed by the Court for that purpose. A subpoena may also be served by any person over eighteen years of age who is not a party to the action.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

2. When process has been served and return thereof is filed in the office of the Court clerk, a copy of the return shall be sent by the Court clerk to the serving party's attorney within three days after the return is filed.
3. Process, other than a subpoena, shall not be served by a party's attorney except as provided in Section 2-304 of this Article. A party shall not make service of process unless appearing without an attorney, in which case the party may make service of process in the same manner and to the same extent that an attorney for the party could have served that process under this Article.
4. The Court shall freely make special appointments to serve all process under this paragraph. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-304 Service of process by mail.

1. A summons and petition, and a subpoena, may be served by mail by the plaintiff's attorney, or any person authorized to serve process pursuant to Section 2-303 of this Article.
2. Service by mail may be accomplished by mailing the subpoena, or a copy of the summons and petition, by certified mail, return receipt requested and delivery restricted to the addressee.
3. Service pursuant to this paragraph shall not be the basis for the entry of a default or a judgment by default unless the record contains a return receipt showing acceptance by the defendant or a returned envelope showing refusal of the process by the defendant. If delivery of the process is refused, upon the receipt of notice of such refusal and at least ten days before applying for entry of default or judgment by default, the person serving the process shall mail to the defendant by first-class mail postage prepaid a copy of the summons and petition and a notice that despite such refusal the case will proceed and that judgment by default will be rendered against him/her unless he/she appears to defend the suit. A copy of said notice and proof of mailing thereof shall be filed of record in the case prior to the entry of a judgment by default. Any such default or judgment by default shall be set aside upon motion of the defendant if the defendant demonstrates to the Court that the return receipt was signed or delivery was refused by an unauthorized person. Such motion shall be filed within one year after the defendant has notice of the default or judgment by default but in no event more than two years after the judgment.
4. In the case of an entity described in subsection (3) of Section 2-317 of this Article, acceptance or refusal by an officer or by any employee of the registered office or principal place of business who is authorized to or who regularly receives certified mail shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed.
5. In the case of governmental organization subject to suit, acceptance or refusal by an employee of the office of the officials specified in the appropriate subsection of Section 2-317 of this Article who is authorized to or who regularly receives certified mail shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed. [TCR 86-109]

2-305 Service by publication. Service of summons upon a named defendant may be made by publication when it is stated in the petition, verified by the plaintiff or his/her attorney, or in a separate affidavit by the plaintiff or his/her attorney filed with the Court, that with due diligence service cannot be made upon the defendant by any other method. [TCR 86-109]

2-306 Publication service upon parties and the unknown successors of named parties.

1. Service of summons upon named parties, the unknown successor of a named party, a named decedent, or a dissolved partnership, corporation, or other association may be made by publication when it is stated in the complaint, verified by the plaintiff or his/her attorney, or in a separate affidavit by the plaintiff or his/her attorney filed with the Court, that the person who verified the complaint or the affiant does not know, and with due diligence cannot ascertain, the following:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

- A. Whether a person named as a party is living or dead, and, if dead, the names of whereabouts of his/her successors, if any.
 - B. The names or whereabouts of a party and the unknown successors, if any, of the named decedent or other parties.
 - C. Whether a partnership, corporation, or other association named as a party continues to have legal existence or not; or the name or whereabouts of its officers or successors.
 - D. Whether any person designed in a record as a trustee continues to be the trustee; or the names or whereabouts of the successors of the trustee.
 - E. The names or whereabouts of the owners or holder of special assessment improvement bonds, or any other bonds, sewer warrants or tax bills or similar instruments.
2. Service pursuant to this Section shall be made by publication of a notice, signed by the Court clerk, in a newspaper authorized by law to publish legal notices which is published within the reservation. If no newspaper authorized by law to publish legal notices is published within the reservation, the notice shall be published in same such newspaper of general circulation within the reservation which is published in an adjoining county.
3. All named parties, their unknown successors, and other persons who may be served by publication may be included in one notice. The notice shall state:
- A. The name of the Court in which the petition is filed.
 - B. The names of the parties.
 - C. Designate the parties whose unknown successors are being served, if any.
 - D. That the named parties and their unknown successors have been sued and must answer the complaint or other pleading on or before a time to be stated (which shall not be less than thirty one days from the date of the publication), or judgment, the nature of which shall be stated, will be rendered accordingly.
 - E. It is not necessary for the publication notice to state that the judgment will include recovery of costs in order for a judgment following the publication notice to include costs of suit.
4. If jurisdiction of the Court is based on property, any real property subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and any property or debts to be attached or garnished must be described in the notice.
5. Service is complete upon publication. [TCR 86-109]

2-307 Publication notice for recovery of money. When the recovery of money is sought, it is not necessary for the publication notice to state the separate items involved, but the total amount that is claimed must be stated. When interest is claimed, it is not necessary to state the rate of interest, the date from which interest is claimed, or that interest is claimed until the obligation is paid. [TCR 86-109]

2-308 Publication notice in quiet title actions. In an action to quiet title to real property, it is not necessary for the publication notice to state the nature of the claim or interest of either party, and in describing the nature of the judgment that will be rendered should the defendant fail to answer, it is sufficient to state that a decree quieting plaintiff's title to the described property will be entered. It is not necessary to state that a decree forever barring the defendant from asserting any interest in or to the property is sought or will be entered if the defendant does not answer. In quiet title action, notice shall be published twice. The second publication shall be not less than seven nor more than forty five days after the first publication. The answer shall be due thirty one days after the second publication, and service is complete upon the second publication. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

2-309 Completion of publication service. Service by publication is complete when made in the manner and for the time prescribed in this Article. Service by publication shall be proved by the affidavit of any person having knowledge of the publication with a copy of the published notice attached. No default judgment may be entered on such service until proof of service by publication is filed with and approved by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-310 Entry of default on party served by publication. Before entry of a default judgment or order against a party who has been served solely by publication under this Article, the Court shall conduct an inquiry to determine whether the plaintiff, or someone acting in his/her behalf, made a distinct and meaningful search of all reasonably available sources to ascertain the whereabouts of any named parties who have been served solely by publication under this Section. Before entry of a default judgment or order against the unknown successors of a named defendant, a named decedent, or a dissolved partnership, corporation, or association, the Court shall conduct an inquiry to ascertain whether the requirements described in subsection (1) of Section 2-306 of this Article have been satisfied. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-311 Vacating default judgments where service is by publication.

1. A party against whom a default judgment or order has been rendered, without other service than by publication in a newspaper, may, at any time within three years after the date of the judgment or order, have the judgment or order opened and be let in to defend.
2. Before the judgment or order is opened, the applicant shall notify the adverse party of his/her intention to make such challenge, and shall:
 - A. File a full answer to the petition;
 - B. Pay all costs if the Court requires them to be paid; and
 - C. Satisfy the Court by affidavit or other evidence that during the pendency of the action he/she had no actual notice thereof in time to appear in Court and make his/her defense.
3. The title to any property which is the subject of a default judgment and which passed to a purchaser in good faith by or in consequence of the judgment or order to be opened shall not be affected by any proceedings under this Section. Nor shall proceedings under this Section affect the title of any property sold before judgment under an attachment.
4. The adverse party, on the hearing of any application to open a judgment or order as provided by this Section, shall be allowed to present evidence to show that during the pendency of the action the applicant had notice thereof in time to appear in Court and make his/her defense. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-312 Certain technical errors not grounds for vacating judgment.

1. No judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered in any action against unknown heirs or devisees of a deceased person shall ever be construed, or held to be, either void or voidable upon the ground that an affidavit of the plaintiff to the effect that the name of heirs or devisees, or any of them, and their residences are unknown to the plaintiff, was not annexed to his/her complaint so long as said affidavit is on file in the action, and all such judgments, if not otherwise void, are hereby declared to be valid and binding from the date of rendition.
2. No judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered in any action against any person or party served by publication shall be construed or held to be void or voidable because the affidavit for such service by publication on file in the action was made by the attorney for the plaintiff or because the complaint or other pleading was verified, if verification is necessary, by the attorney for the plaintiff or party seeking such service by publication. In all such cases it shall be conclusively presumed, if otherwise sufficient, that the allegations and statements made by such an attorney were and are in legal effect and for all purposes made by plaintiff and shall have the same force and effect as if actually made by the plaintiff.

3. All such judgments, if not otherwise defective or void, are hereby declared valid and legally effective and conclusive as of the date thereof as if such affidavit was made or the complaint or pleading was verified by the plaintiff or other party obtaining such service by publication. [TCR 86-109]

2-313 Meaning of “successors” for publication purposes. The term “successors” includes all heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees, and assigns, immediate and remote, of a named individual, partnership, corporation, or association. [TCR 86-109]

2-314 Minimum contacts required for effective long arm service. Service outside of the Tribal jurisdiction does not give the Court in persona jurisdiction over a defendant who is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of this Tribe, or who has not, either in person or through an agent, submitted him/herself to the jurisdiction of the Courts of this Tribe either by appearance, written consent, or having voluntarily entered into sufficient contacts with the Tribe, its members, or its territory to justify Tribal jurisdiction over him/her in accordance with the principals of due process of law and federal Indian law. [TCR 86-109]

2-315 Consent is effective substitute for service. If service cannot be made by personal delivery or by mail, a defendant of any class referred to in subsection (1) or (3) of Section 2-317 of this Article may be served as provided by Court order in any manner which is reasonably calculated to give him/her actual notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard. The Court may enter an order requiring such service whenever service has been by publication only prior to entering a default judgment.

2-316 Service pursuant to Court order. If service cannot be made by personal delivery or by mail, a defendant of any class referred to in subsection (1) or (3) of Section 2-317 of this chapter may be served as provided by Court order in any manner which is reasonably calculated to give him/her actual notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard. The Court may enter an order requiring such service whenever service has been by publication only prior to entering a default judgment.

2-317 Summons and complaint; person to be served. The summons and complaint shall be served together. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such copies as are necessary. These provisions are not jurisdictional, but if the failure to comply with them prejudices the party served, the Court may extend the time to answer. Service shall be made as follows:

1. Upon an individual other than an infant or incompetent person, by delivering a copy of the summons and a copy of the complaint to him/her personally or by leaving copies thereof at his/her dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.
2. Upon an infant or an incompetent person, by serving the summons and complaint to either parent, the legal guardian of the infant or incompetent person, if any, or the person with whom the infant resides if the infant is under the age of fourteen years, or upon the person with whom the incompetent person resides. If the infant is over the age of fourteen years, by serving either parent or the legal guardian of the infant, if any, or the person with whom the infant resides and by serving the infant personally if the legal guardian cannot be located.
3. Upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association which is subject to suit under a common name, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

- complaint to an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the defendant. Service may also be had upon such entities by delivering the summons and complaint to a place of business of such entity and leaving a copy with the person in charge of that place of business at the time service is made.
4. Upon the United States, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the United States attorney for the district in which the action is brought or to an assistant United States attorney or clerical employee designated by the United States attorney in a writing filed with the clerk for the Court and by sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail to the attorney general of the United States at Washington, District of Columbia, and in any action attacking the validity of an order of an officer or agency of the United States not made a party, by also sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail to such officer or agency.
 5. Upon any officer or agency of the United States, by serving the United States and by sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail to such office or agency. If the agency is a corporation the copy shall be delivered as provided in subsection (3) of this Section.
 6. Upon a state, a state municipal corporation, or any other Indian tribe not a party to this Act, or other governmental organization thereof subject to suit, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the chief executive officer thereof or by serving the summons and complaint in the manner prescribed by the law of that state or Tribe for the service of summons or other like process upon any such defendant.
 7. Upon this Tribe by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the chief executive officer of the Tribe, and to the Tribal Chairman in a writing filed with the clerk of the Tribal Court, and by sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Tribal attorney and in any action attacking the validity of an order of an officer or agency of the Tribe not made a party, by also sending a copy of the summons and complaint by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to such officer or agency. The name and address of the Tribal attorney may always be obtained from the Bureau of Indian Affairs, or the chief executive officer of the Tribe.
 8. Upon any officer or agency of this Tribe by serving the Tribe as provided by subsection (7) of this Section, and by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to such officer or agency. If the agency is a corporation, the copy shall be delivered as provided in subsection (3) of this Section. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-25]

2-317.1 Effect of service of some of several defendants.

1. Where the action is against two or more defendants, and one or more shall be served, but not all of them, the plaintiff may proceed as follows:
 - A. If the action be against defendants jointly indebted upon contract, tort, or any other cause of action, he/she may proceed against the defendants served, unless the Court otherwise orders; and if he/she recovers judgment, it may be entered against; (i) all the defendants thus jointly indebted only insofar as the judgment may be enforced against the joint property of all, and (ii) against the defendants served insofar as the judgment may be enforced against the separate property of the defendants served, and if they are subject to arrest, against the persons of the defendants served.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

- B. If the action be against defendants severally liable, he/she may, without prejudice to his/her rights against those not served, proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants.
- 2. A judgment against one or more defendants served, whether jointly or severally liable, shall not be construed to make such judgment a bar to another action against those not served. [TCR 86-109]

2-318 Service upon party not inhabitant of or found within the territorial limits of the reservation.

- 1. Whenever an ordinance of the Tribe or an order of the Court of the Tribe provides for service of summons, or of a notice, or of an order in lieu of summons upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the geographical boundaries of the Tribal reservation, service may be made under the circumstances and in the manner prescribed by the ordinance or order, or, if there is no provision therein prescribing the manner of service, in a manner stated in this Act.
- 2. In any action against a foreign corporation or association where service is authorized by Tribal law upon a Tribal officer, and the party seeking service elects to serve the Tribal officer, service shall be made as follows:
 - A. The Tribal Court clerk shall issue a summons and shall forthwith mail or personally serve triplicate copies of said summons, together with a copy of the complaint and the service fee to the Tribal officer. The Court clerk shall make due return, indicating that the summons and complaint copies have been delivered to the Tribal officer and the date of such delivery. Receipt of the summons and complaint by the Tribal officer shall constitute service upon him/her. Within three working days after service upon him/her, the Tribal officer shall send copies of the summons and complaint to such foreign corporation or association, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its office as shown by the articles of incorporation, or charter, or by the latest information officially filed in the office of the Tribal officer. The summons shall set forth the last-known address of the office of the corporation or association as ascertained by the parties by use of due diligence, and the Tribal officer shall mail copies of the summons and complaint to the corporation or association at this address. The Tribal officer shall maintain one copy of the summons and complaint with the records of the corporation or association.
 - B. The original summons that is served on the Tribal officer shall be in form and substance the same as provided in suits against residents of the Tribal jurisdiction. The summons shall state an answer date which shall be not less than forty five days nor more than sixty days from the date that such summons was issued. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-319 Territorial limits of effective service.

- 1. All process, other than subpoena or process involving the detention, seizure, or arrest of persons or property, may be served anywhere within the reservation boundaries, or any Indian country, as defined by 18 U.S.C. 1151, which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribe and, when authorized by an ordinance or statute of the Tribe or by this Act, beyond these territorial limits.
- 2. In addition, persons who are brought in as parties pursuant to Section 2-217 of this Act, or as additional parties to a pending action or a counterclaim or cross-claim therein pursuant to Section 2-403, may be served in the manner stated in subsections 1-6 of Section 2-317 of this Act at all places outside the reservation of the Tribe but within the United States, and persons required to respond to an order of commitment for civil contempt may be served, but not arrested, at the same places.
- 3. A subpoena or process involving the detention, seizure, or arrest of persons or property, may be served and compulsorily enforced only within the Indian country, as defined by 18 U.S.C. 1151, which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribe. A subpoena or other process involving the detention, seizure or arrest of a person or property may be served anywhere within the United States, but no compulsory enforcement thereof may be maintained in this Court unless such person or property is located within the Indian country of the Tribe when service is made.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

4. When the exercise of jurisdiction is authorized by Tribal or federal law, service of the summons and complaint may be made outside this reservation:
 - A. By personal delivery in the manner prescribed for service within this reservation.
 - B. In the manner prescribed by the law of the place in which the service is made for service in that place in an action in any of its Courts of general jurisdiction.
 - C. By publication, in appropriate circumstances.
 - D. As directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory, or
 - E. As directed by the Court. [TCR 86-109, 93-84]

2-320 Return of service of process.

1. The person serving the process shall make proof of service thereof to the Court promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the process. If service is made by a person other than a Tribal police officer, a Bureau of Indian Affairs police officer or their deputy, or an attorney by mail, he/she shall make affidavit thereof. Return of receipt for certified or registered mail shall be attached to the proof of service if service was made by mail. A copy of each publication of notice shall be attached to the return of service by publication. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.
2. The person serving the summons shall state on the copy that is left with the party served, as well as on the return, the date that service is made. Where service is to be made by mail, the person mailing the summons shall state on the copy that is mailed to the party to be served the date of mailing. These provisions are not jurisdictional, but if the failure to comply with them prejudices the party served, the Court may extend the time to answer. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-321 Alternative provisions for service in a foreign country.

1. Manner. When the law of the Tribe referred to in Section 2-318 of this Article authorizes service upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the territorial limits of effective service of the Tribal Court, and when service is to be effected upon the party in a foreign country, it is also sufficient if service of the summons and complaint is made: (A) in the manner prescribed by the law of the Tribe, state, or foreign country for service in that Tribe, state, or country in an action in any of its Courts of general jurisdiction; or (B) as directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory when service in either case is reasonably calculated to give actual notice; or (C) upon an individual, by delivery to him/her personally, and upon a corporation or partnership or association, by delivery to an officer, a managing or general agent; or (D) by any form of mail, requiring a signed receipt, to be addressed and as directed by the order of the Court. Service under (C) or (D) above may be made by any person who is not a party and is not less than eighteen years of age or who is designated by order of the Tribal Court or by the foreign Court. On request, the clerk shall deliver the summons to the plaintiff for transmission to the person or the foreign Court or officer or who will make the service.
2. Return. Proof of service may be made as prescribed by Section 2-320 of this Article, or by the law of the Tribe, state or foreign country, or by order of this Court. When service is made by mail pursuant to subsection (1) of this Section, proof of service shall include a receipt signed by the addressee or other evidence of the delivery to the address satisfactory to the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-322 Subpoena.

1. For attendance of witnesses; form; issuance. Every subpoena shall issued by the clerk under the seal of the Court, shall state the name of the Court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The clerk shall issue a subpoena for the production of documentary or other physical evidence signed and sealed, but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.
2. Production of documentary evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the Court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith may (A) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or (B) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.
3. Service. A subpoena may be served by a Tribal police officer, a Bureau of Indian Affairs police officer, or by any other person authorized by the Court or by this Act who is not a party and is not less than eighteen years of age. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and by tending to him/her the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the Tribe or an officer or agency thereof, fees and mileage need not be tendered, but fees paid shall be charged to such Tribal officer or agency budget. A subpoena may be served as provided in Section 2-304 if accepted by the addressee. All subpoena service expenses may be recovered as other costs.
4. Subpoena for taking depositions; place of examination.
 - A. Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition as provided in Sections 2-505(2) and 2-506(1) or presentation of prepared notices to be attached to the subpoena constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance by the clerk of the Tribal Court of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of the examination permitted by Section 2-501(2), but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of Section 2-501(3) and subdivision (2) of this Section. The person to whom the subpoena is directed may, within ten days after the service thereof or on or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance, if such time is less than ten days after service, serve upon the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials. If objection is made, any party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials except pursuant to an order of the Court from which the subpoena was issued. The party serving the subpoena may, if objection has been made, move upon notice to the deponent for an order at any time before or during the taking of the deposition.
 - B. A resident of the Tribal jurisdiction may be required to attend an examination at any place within the exterior boundaries of the reservation as defined in Section 2-105(4) of this Act.
5. Subpoena for hearing or trial.
 - A. At the request of any party, subpoenas for attendance at a hearing or trial shall be issued by the clerk of the Tribal Court. A subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial may be served at any place within the Tribal jurisdiction, or at any place without the Tribal jurisdiction that is within one hundred miles of the place of the hearing or trial specified in the subpoena; and, when a statute of the Tribe provides therefor, the

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

Court upon proper application and cause shown may authorize the service of a subpoena at any other place.

- B. A subpoena directed to a witness in a foreign country shall issue under the circumstances and in the manner and be served as may be provided by any Tribal statute.
6. Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him/her within the Tribal jurisdiction may be deemed a contempt of the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-330 Summons; time limit for service.

1. If service of process is not made upon a defendant within one hundred twenty days after the filing of the complaint and the plaintiff cannot show good cause why such service was not made within that period, the action shall be dismissed as to that defendant without prejudice upon the Court's own initiative with notice to the plaintiff or upon motion.
2. If service of process is not made upon a defendant within one hundred eighty days after the filing of the complaint, the action shall be deemed to have been dismissed without prejudice as to that defendant. This Section shall not apply to service in a foreign country. [TCR 86-109]

2-331 Service and filing of pleadings and other papers.

1. Service: when required. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the Court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every paper relating to discovery required to be served upon a party unless the Court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except the pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons. In an action begun by seizure of property, in which no person need be or is named as defendant, any service required to be made prior to the filing of an answer, claim, or appearance shall be made upon the person having custody or possession of the property at the time of its seizure.
2. Service: how made. Whenever service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney (including any person licensed to practice law before the Tribal Court) the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party him/herself is ordered by the Court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to the attorney or party or by mailing it to the attorney or party at the attorney or party's last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the Court who shall mail a copy thereof to the party's last address of record. Delivery of a copy within this Section means: handing it to the attorney or to the party, or leaving it at an office with his/her clerk, or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at the person's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person fifteen years of age or older then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.
3. Service: numerous defendants. In any action in which there are an unusually large number of defendants, the Court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross-claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the Court directs.

4. Filing. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party together with a certificate of service, shall be filed with the Court within a reasonable time after service, but the Court may on motion of a party or on its own initiative order that depositions upon oral examination and interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admission, and answers and responses thereto not be filed unless on order of the Court or for use in the proceeding.
5. Filing with the Court defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the Court as required by this Article shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the Court except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with the judge, in which event the judge shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the clerk. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-340 Time.

1. Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Act, by order of the Court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, or any other day when the office of the clerk of the Court does not remain open for public business until 4:30 p.m. in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday or when the act to be done is the filing of a paper in Court, a day on which weather or other conditions have made the office of the clerk of the Court inaccessible or any other day when the office of the clerk of the Court does remain open for public business until 4:30 p.m. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than or equal to seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays or any other day when the office of the clerk of the Court does not remain open for public business until 4:30 p.m. shall be excluded in the computation. As used in this Section and in the provisions relating to the Court, "legal holiday" includes New Year's Day, Tribal Constitution Anniversary Day (being February 28), Memorial Day, Independence Day, the Monday after the Winnebago Pow-Wow, Labor Day, Native American Day (being the fourth Monday in September), Tribal Election Day (being the first Tuesday after the first Monday in October), Veterans Day, and any other day appointed as a holiday by the President or the Congress of the United States or by the Tribe.
2. Enlargement. When by this Act or by a notice given thereunder or by order of the Court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the Court for cause shown at any time in its discretion may (A) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if request thereof is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order, or (B) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Sections 2-857(2), 2-852(3), (4) and (5), and Section 2-1009(2), except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.
3. For motions—affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than five days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by this Act or by order of the Court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in Section 2-1008(3), opposing affidavits may be served not later than one day before the hearing, unless the Court permits them to be served at some other time.
4. Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

upon the party and the notice or paper is served upon the party by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-341 General cases in which extraterritorial service authorized. Service of summons and complaint, third-party complaints, and other process by which an action is instigated may be made outside the territorial limits described in Section 2-319 in the following cases in addition to any circumstances specifically or otherwise provided for:

1. In all actions arising under the Tribal juvenile statutes or the Indian Child Welfare Act;
2. In all divorce actions when one of the parties is a resident of the Tribal jurisdiction or a member of the Tribe;
3. In all actions arising in contract where the contract was entered into, or some material portion thereof was to be performed, within the Tribal jurisdiction; or
4. In all actions arising out of the negligent operation of an automobile within the Tribal jurisdiction by a non-resident when an injury to person or property resulted within the Tribal jurisdiction from the negligent operation of the motor vehicle. [TCR 86-109]

2-342 Legal newspaper. All newspapers regularly published at least once each week for a period of two years prior to the date of publication of a notice within the reservation or in any county adjacent thereto, and the Tribal newspaper shall be legal newspapers for the publication of any notice required to be published by Tribal law. PARTIES

| | | | |
|-------|--|-------|---|
| 2-401 | Parties plaintiff and defendant: capacity. | 2-406 | Interpleader. |
| 2-402 | Joinder of claims, remedies, and actions. | 2-407 | Class actions. |
| 2-403 | Joinder of persons needed for just adjudication. | 2-408 | Derivative actions by shareholders and members. |
| 2-404 | Permissive joinder of parties. | 2-409 | Intervention. |
| 2-405 | Misjoinder and non-joinder of parties. | 2-410 | Substitution of parties. |

2-401 Parties plaintiff and defendant: capacity.

1. Real party in interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in that person's own name without joining the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the Tribe so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the Tribe. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.
2. Capacity to sue or be sued. Except as otherwise provided by law, every person, corporation, partnership, or incorporated association shall have the capacity to sue or be sued in its own name in the Courts of the Tribe, and service may be had upon unincorporated associations and partnership as provided in Section 2-317(3) of this Act, upon a managing or general partner, or upon an officer of an unincorporated association.
3. Infants or incompetent persons. Whenever an infant or incompetent person has a representative, such as a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the infant or incompetent person. An infant or incompetent person who does not have a duly appointed representative may sue by next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for an infant or incompetent person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the infant or incompetent person.
4. Assignment of tort claims prohibited. Claims arising in tort may not be assigned and must be brought by the injured party, provided, that this subsection shall not preclude subrogation of the proceeds of such tort claims for the benefit of any person, including insurance companies, who have compensated the injured party for their injuries, including property damage, to the extent of the payment made by the third party.
5. Definitions. Abrogated. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-402 Joinder of claims, remedies, and actions.

1. Joinder of claims. A party asserting a claim for relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims, legal or equitable as the party may have against an opposing party.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

2. Joinder of remedies: fraudulent conveyances. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the Court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to that plaintiff, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money.
3. Joinder of actions by the Court. Abrogated. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-403 Joinder of persons needed for just adjudication.

1. Persons to be joined if feasible. A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the Court of jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action shall be joined as a party in the action if:
 - A. In the person's absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties.
 - B. The person claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in the person's absence may:
 - i. as a practical matter impair or impede the person's ability to protect that interest or
 - ii. leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of the claimed interest.

If the person has not been so joined, the Court shall order that the person be made a party. If the person should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, the person may be made a defendant, or in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff.
2. Determination by Court whenever joinder not feasible. If a person as described in subdivision (1)(A)-(B) hereof cannot be made a party, the Court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the Court in making such determination include:
 - A. First, to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to the person or those already parties;
 - B. Second, the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided;
 - C. Third, whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; and
 - D. Fourth, whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for non-joinder.
3. Pleading reasons for non-joinder. A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any person as described in subdivision (a)(1)-(2) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.
4. Exception of class actions This Section is subject to the provisions of Section 2-407. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-404 Permissive joinder of parties.

1. Permissive joinder.
 - A. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, and if any question of law or fact common to all these persons will arise in the action.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

- B. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, and if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action, or if the claims are connected with the subject matter of the action.
 - C. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.
- 2. Abrogated.
 - 3. Separate Trials. The Court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom the party asserts no claim, or who asserts no claim against the party, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-405 Misjoinder and non-joinder of parties. Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Leave of the Court shall not be required when the pleader amends his/her pleadings within the time period for amendment of pleadings without leave of the Court specified in Section 2-215(1). Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately upon order of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-406 Interpleader.

- 1. Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that the plaintiff is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this Section supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted in Section 2-404.
- 2. The provisions of this Section shall be applicable to actions brought against a Tribal policeman or other officer for the recovery of personal property taken by him/her under execution or for the proceeds of such property so taken and sold by him/her; and the defendant in any such action shall be entitled to the benefit of this Section against the party in whose favor the execution issued.
- 3. The Court may make an order for the safekeeping of the subject of the action or for its payment or delivery into the Court or to such person as the Court may direct, and the Court may order the person who is seeking relief by way of interpleader to give a bond, payable to the clerk of the Court, in such amount and with such surety as the Court or judge may deem proper, conditioned upon the compliance with the future order or judgment of the Court with respect to the subject matter of the controversy. Where the party seeking relief by way of interpleader claims no interest in the subject of the action and the subject of the action has been deposited with the Court or with a person designated by the Court, the Court should discharge him/her from the action and from liability as to the claims of the other parties to the action with costs and, in the discretion of the Court, a reasonable attorney fees.
- 4. In cases of interpleader, costs may be adjudged for or against any party, except as provided in subsection (3) of this Section. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

2-407 Class actions.

1. Prerequisites to a class action. One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if: (A) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, (B) there are questions of law or fact common to the class, (C) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and (D) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.
2. Class actions maintainable. An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of subsection (1) are satisfied and in addition:
 - A. The prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - i. Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class; or
 - ii. Adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.
 - B. The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.
 - C. The Court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: (i) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (ii) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; (iii) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; (iv) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.
3. Determination by order whether class action to be maintained; notice; judgment; actions conducted partially as class actions.
 - A. As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the Court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subdivision may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.
 - B. In any class action maintained under subdivision (2)(C), the Court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that (i) the Court will exclude the member from the class if the member so requests by a specified date; (ii) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and (iii) any member who does not request exclusion may, if the member desires, enter an appearance through counsel.
 - C. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (2)(A) or (2)(B), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the Court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (2)(C), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (3)(B) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the Court finds to be members of the class.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

- D. When appropriate (i) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or (ii) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this Section shall then be construed and applied accordingly.
 - E. Abrogated.
4. Orders in conduct or actions. In the conduct of actions to which this Section applies, the Court may make appropriate orders:
- A. Determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;
 - B. Requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the Court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;
 - C. Imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;
 - D. Requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly;
 - E. Dealing with similar procedural matters.
- The orders may be combined with an order under Section 2-219, and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.
5. Dismissal or compromise. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the Court directs. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-408 Derivative actions by shareholders and members.

- 1. In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall be verified and shall allege:
 - A. That the plaintiff was a shareholder or member at the time of the transaction of which the plaintiff complains or that the plaintiff's share or membership thereafter devolved on the plaintiff by operation of law.
 - B. That the action is not a collusive one to confer jurisdiction on a Court of the Tribe which it would not otherwise have. The complaint shall also allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action the plaintiff desires from the directors or comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for the plaintiff's failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort.
- 2. The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the Court directs. The Court shall not take jurisdiction over such actions concerning the internal affairs of corporations or other entities formally organized under the law of some other jurisdiction absent the consent of all parties to the controversy or some compelling reason to assume such jurisdiction.
- 3. An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action, the Court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in Section 2-407(4) and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in Section 2-407. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

2-409 Intervention.

1. Intervention of right. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (A) when a statute of the Tribe confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (B) when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and the applicant is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede the applicant's ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.
2. Permissive intervention. Upon timely application anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a Tribal, federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirement or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion, the Court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.
3. Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties as provided in Section 2-331. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. If the motion to intervene is granted, all other parties may serve a responsive pleading upon leave of the Court.
4. Intervention by the Tribe. In any action, suit, or proceeding to which the Tribe or any agency, officer, or employee thereof is not a party in their official capacity, wherein the constitutionality or enforceability of any statute of the Tribe affecting the public interest is drawn in question the parties, and upon their failure to do so, the Court shall certify such fact to the chief executive officer of the Tribe, the Tribal attorney, and the Tribal legislative body and the Court shall permit the Tribe to intervene for presentation of evidence, if the evidence is otherwise admissible in the case, and for argument on the question of constitutionality or enforceability. The Tribe shall, subject to the applicable provisions of law, have all the rights of a party, and be subject to the liability of a party—as to Court costs only—to the extent necessary for a proper presentation of the facts and law relating to the question of constitutionality or enforceability of the Tribal laws at issue. It shall be the duty of the party raising such issue to promptly give notice thereof to the Court either orally upon the record in open Court or by a separate written notice filed with the Court and served upon all parties, and to state in said notice when and how notice of the pending question will be or has been certified to the Tribe as provided above. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-410 Substitution of parties.

1. Death. If a party dies, the Court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by any party or by the successors or representatives of the deceased party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided in Section 2-331 and upon persons not parties in the manner provided for the service of a summons, and may be served within or without the Tribal jurisdiction. Unless the motion for substitution is made not later than ninety days after the death is suggested upon the record, the action shall be dismissed as to the deceased party.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

- A. In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.
- B. Actions for libel, slander, and malicious prosecution shall abate at the death of the defendant.
- C. Other actions, including actions for wrongful death, shall survive the death of a party.
- 2. Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the Court upon motion served as provided in subdivision (1) of this Section may allow the action to be continued by or against his/her representative.
- 3. Transfer of interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the Court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in subdivision (1) of this Section.
- 4. Public officers; death or separation from office.
 - A. When a public officer is a party to an action in his/her official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his/her successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.
 - B. When a public officer sues or is sued in his/her official capacity, he/she may be described as a party by his/her official title rather than by name but the Court may require his/her name to be added. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-501 General provisions governing discovery.

1. Discovery methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission. Unless the Court orders otherwise under subdivision (3) of this Section, the frequency of use of these methods is not limited. Discovery may be obtained as provided herein in aid of execution upon a judgment.
2. Scope of discovery. Unless otherwise limited by order of the Court in accordance with this Article, the scope of discovery is as follows:
 - A. In general. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
 - B. Insurance agreements. A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this paragraph, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.
 - C. Trial preparation: materials. Subject to the provisions of subdivision (2)(D) of this Section, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subdivision (2)(A) of this Section and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including the other party's attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of the party's case and that the party is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the Court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation. A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a Court order. The provisions of Section 2-512(1)(D) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this paragraph, a statement previously made is (i) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (ii) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

- D. Trial preparation: experts. Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of subdivision (2)(A) of this Section and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:
- i. (a) A party may, through interrogatories, require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at a trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion. (b) Upon motion, the Court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to subdivision (2)(D)(iii) of this Section, concerning fees and expenses as the Court may deem appropriate.
 - ii. A party may discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only as provided in Section 2-510(2) or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.
 - iii. Unless manifest injustice would result, (a) the Court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under subdivisions (2)(D)(i)(b) and (2)(D)(ii) of this Section; and (b) with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision (2)(D)(ii) of this Section, the Court shall require the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.
3. Protective orders. Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, the Court in which the action is pending or alternatively, on matters relating to a deposition, the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is to be taken may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: (A) that the discovery not be had; (B) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (C) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (D) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (E) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the Court; (F) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the Court; (G) that a trade secret or other confidential

- research development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; (H) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the Court. If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the Court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Section 2-512(1)(D) apply to award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.
4. Sequence and timing of discovery. Unless the Court upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery.
 5. Supplementation of responses. A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement the response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:
 - A. A party is under a duty seasonably to supplement the response with respect to any question directly addressed to (i) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and (ii) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at a trial, the subject matter on which the person is expected to testify, and the substance of the person's testimony.
 - B. A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response if the party obtains information upon the basis of which (i) the party knows that the response was incorrect when made, or (ii) the party knows that the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.
 - C. A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the Court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.
 6. Discovery conference. At any time after commencement of an action, the Court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference on the subject of discovery. The Court shall do so upon motion by the attorney for any party if the motion includes:
 - A. A statement of the issues as they then appear;
 - B. A proposed plan and schedule of discovery;
 - C. Any limitations proposed to be placed on discovery;
 - D. Any other proposed orders with respect to discovery; and
 - E. A statement showing that the attorney making the motion has made a reasonable effort to reach agreement with opposing attorneys on the matters set forth in the motion. Each party and each party's attorney are under a duty to participate in good faith in the framing of a discovery plan if a plan is proposed by the attorney for any party. Notice of the motion shall be served on all parties. Objections or additions to matters set forth in the motion shall be served no later than ten days after service of the motion. Following the discovery conference, the Court shall enter an order tentatively identifying the issues for discovery purposes, establishing a plan and schedule for discovery, setting limitations on discovery, if any; and determining such other matters, including the allocation of expenses, as are necessary for the proper management of discovery in the action. An order may be altered or amended whenever justice so requires. Subject to the right of the party who properly moves for a discovery conference to prompt convening of the conference, the Court may combine the discovery conference with a pretrial conference authorized by Section 2-219.
 7. Signing of discovery requests, responses, and objections. Every request for discovery or response or objection thereto made by a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign the request, response, or objection and state the party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that the signer has read the request, response, or objection, and that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief formed after a reasonable inquiry it is: (A) consistent with this Act and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law; (B) not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and (C) not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the discovery already had in the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation. If a request, response, or objection is not signed, it shall be stricken unless it is signed promptly after the omission is called to the attention of the party making the request, response, or objection, and a party shall not be obligated to take any action with respect to it until it is signed. If a certification is made in violation of this Section, the Court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, shall impose upon the person who made the certification, the party upon whose behalf the request, response, or objection is made, or both, an appropriate sanction, which may include an order to pay the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of the violation, including a reasonable attorney's fee. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-502 Depositions before action or pending appeal.

1. Before action.

- A. Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate testimony regarding any matter that may be cognizable in Tribal Court may file a verified petition in the Tribal Court if the Tribal jurisdiction is the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show: (i) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in the Tribal Court but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought; (ii) the subject matter of the expected action and the petitioner's interest therein; (iii) the facts which the petitioner desires to establish by the proposed testimony and the petitioner's reasons for desiring to perpetuate it; (iv) the names or description of the persons the petitioner expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known; and (v) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which the petitioner expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.
- B. Notice and service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the Court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least twenty days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served either within or without the Tribal jurisdiction in the manner provided in Section 2-317 for service of summons. If personal service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the Court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in Section 2-317(4) an attorney or advocate who shall represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent, the provisions of Section 2-401(3) apply. Any attorney appointed pursuant to this Section shall be compensated as provided by the Court from the Court fund, such compensation to be taxed as costs against the person perpetuating the testimony.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- C. Order and examination. If the Court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatives. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with this Article and the Court may make orders of the character provided for by Sections 2-509 and 2-510.
 - D. Use of deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under this Article or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the Courts of the jurisdiction in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in the Tribal Court, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2-507(1).
- 2. Pending appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of the Tribal Court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the Court may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the Tribal Court. In such case, the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the Tribal Court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the Tribal Court. The motion shall show (a) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he/she expects to elicit from each; (b) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the Court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by Sections 2-509 and 2-510, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these sections for depositions taken in actions pending in the District Court.
 - 3. Perpetuation by action. This Section does not limit the power of a Court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-503 Persons before whom depositions may be taken.

- 1. Within the Tribal jurisdiction. Within the jurisdiction of the Tribe, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the Tribe, or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the Court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony. All parties shall be subject to these provisions anywhere within the reservation as defined in this Act. The term officer as used in Sections 2-505, 2-506 and 2-507 includes a person appointed by the Court or designated by the parties under Section 2-504.
- 2. Outside the Tribal jurisdiction. Outside the Tribal jurisdiction, depositions may be taken (A) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States; or (B) before a person commissioned by the Court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of the commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony; or (C) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or a letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impractical or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in (Name of Tribe, State, or Country)." Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the Tribal jurisdiction under these sections.

3. Disqualification for interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-504 Stipulations regarding discovery procedure. Unless the Court orders otherwise, the parties may by written stipulation (1) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions; and (2) modify the procedures provided by this Article for other methods of discovery except that stipulations extending the time provided in Sections 2-508, 2-509, and 2-511 for responses to discovery may be made only with the approval of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-505 Depositions upon oral examination.

1. When depositions may be taken. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of Court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of thirty days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant or service made by publication, except that leave is not required (A) if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery; or (B) if special notice is given as provided in subdivision (2)(B) of this Section. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided in Section 2-322. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of Court on such terms as the Court prescribes.
2. Notice of examination: general requirements; special notice; non-stenographic recording; production of documents and things; deposition of organization.
 - A. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.
 - B. Leave of Court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice (i) states that the person to be examined is about to go out of the Tribal jurisdiction and outside the reservation, or is about to go out of the United States, or is bound on a voyage to sea, and will be unavailable for examination unless the person's deposition is taken before expiration of the thirty day period; and (ii) sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff's attorney shall sign the notice, and the attorney's signature constitutes a certification by the attorney that to the best of the attorney's knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true. The sanctions provided by Section 2-211 are applicable to the certification. If a party shows that when the party was served with notice under this subdivision (2)(B) the party was unable through the exercise of due diligence to obtain counsel to represent the party at the taking of the deposition, the deposition may not be used against the party.
 - C. The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition.
 - D. The parties shall stipulate in writing or the Court may upon motion order that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means. The stipulation or order shall designate the person before whom the deposition shall be taken, the manner of recording, preserving and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. A party may arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at the party's own expense. Any objections under subdivision (3), any changes made by the witness, the witness' signature identifying the deposition as the witness' own or the statement of the officer that is required if the witness does not sign, as provided in subdivision (5), and the certification of the officer required by subdivision (6) shall be set forth in a writing to accompany a deposition recorded by non-stenographic means.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- E. The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with Section 2-509 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of Section 2-509 shall apply to the request.
 - F. A party may, in the party's notice and in a subpoena, name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which the person will testify. A subpoena shall advise a non-party organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This subdivision (2)(F) does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these sections.
 - G. The parties may stipulate in writing or the Court may upon motion order that a deposition be taken by telephone. For the purposes of this Section and Sections 2-503(1), 2-512(1), 2-512(2)(A) and 2-322(4), a deposition taken by telephone is taken in the jurisdiction and at the place where the deponent is to answer questions propounded to the deponent.
3. Examination and cross-examination: record of examination; oath; objections. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of the Winnebago Rules of Evidence. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under the officer's direction and in the officer's presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with subdivision (2)(D) of this Section. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed. All objections made at time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and the party taking the deposition shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.
4. Motion to terminate or limit examination. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as to unreasonably annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the Tribal Court or the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in Section 2-501(3). If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the Tribal Court. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall - be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of Section 2-512(1)(D) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

5. Submission to witness; changes; signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by the witness, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within thirty days of its submission to the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless on a motion to suppress under Section 2-507(4)(D) the Court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.
 6. Certification and filing by officer; exhibits; copies; notice of filing.
 - A. The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by the officer and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the officer shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of [here insert name of witness]" and shall promptly file it with the Tribal Court or send it by registered or certified mail to the clerk thereof for filing. Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that if the person producing the materials desires to retain them the person may: (i) offer copies to be marked for identification and annexed to the deposition and to serve thereafter as originals if the person affords to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals; or (ii) offer the originals to be marked for identification, after giving each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, in which event the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to with the deposition.
 - B. Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent. The Court may, by section, establish the maximum charges which are reasonable for such services.
 - C. The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.
 7. Failure to attend or to serve subpoena; expenses.
 - A. If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by that party and that party's attorney in attendance, including reasonable attorney's fees.
 - B. If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon the witness and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because that party expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by that party and that party's attorney in attendance, including reasonable attorney's fees. TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

2-506 Depositions upon written questions.

1. Serving questions; notice. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Section 2-322. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of Court on such terms as the Court prescribes. A party desiring to take a deposition upon written questions shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating (A) the name and address of the person who is to answer them, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs; and (B) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association of governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of Section 2-505(2)(F). Within thirty days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within ten days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect questions upon all other parties. Within ten days after being served with redirect questions, a party may serve re-cross questions upon all other parties. The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.
2. Officer to take responses and prepare record. A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly in the manner provided by Section 2-505(3), (5), and (6), to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received by the officer.
3. Notice of filing. When the deposition is filed the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-507 Use of depositions in Court proceedings.

1. Use of depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions:
 - A. Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.
 - B. The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated under Section 2-505(2)(F) or Section 2-507(1) to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.
 - C. The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the Court finds: (i) that the witness is dead; or (ii) that the witness is outside the jurisdiction of the Tribe, and cannot be served with a subpoena to testify at trial while within the Tribal jurisdiction unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering deposition; or (iii) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (iv) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (v) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open Court to allow the deposition to be used.

- D. If only part of the deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require the offerer to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts. Substitution of the parties pursuant to Section 2-410 does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action in any court of any Indian tribe, the United States, or any state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties, or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor. A deposition previously taken may also be used as permitted by the Winnebago Rules of Evidence.
2. Objections to admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Section 2-503(2) and subdivision (3)(C) of this Section, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reasons which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.
3. Effect of errors and irregularities in depositions.
- A. As to notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.
- B. As to disqualification of officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.
- C. As to taking of deposition.
- i. Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.
- ii. Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of the parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.
- iii. Objections to the form of written questions submitted under Section 2-506 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within five days after service of the last questions authorized.
- D. As to completion and return of deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Sections 2-505 and 2-506 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-508 Interrogatories to parties.

1. Availability: procedures for use. Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of Court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within thirty days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within forty-five days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The Court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under Section 2-512(1) with respect to an objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. Scope: use at trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Section 501(2), and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the Winnebago Rules of Evidence. An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the Court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pre-trial conference or other later time.
3. Option to produce business records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, including a compilation, abstract or summary thereof, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit, or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries. A specification shall be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and identify, as readily as can the party served, the records from which the answer may be ascertained. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-509 Production of documents and things and entry upon land for inspection and other purposes.

1. Scope. Any party may serve on any other party a request (A) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on the requestor's behalf, to inspect and copy any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phono records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonable usable form), or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Section 2-501(2) and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (B) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Section 2-501(2).
2. Procedure. The request may, without leave of Court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts. The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within thirty days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within forty-five days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The Court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order under Section 2-512(1) with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested. A party who produces documents for inspection shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the request.

3. Persons not parties. A person not a party to the action may be compelled to produce documents and things or to submit to an inspection as provided in Section 2-322. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-510 Physical and mental examination of persons.

1. Order for examination. When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the Court may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a suitably licensed or certified examiner to produce for examination the person in the party's custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.
2. Report of examining physician.
 - A. If requested by the party against whom an order is made under Section 2-510(1) or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to the requesting party a copy of the detailed written report of the examiner setting out the examiner's findings, including results of all tests made, diagnoses and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery, the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless, in the case of a report or examination of a person not a party, the party shows that the party is unable to obtain it. The Court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report on such terms as are just, and if an examiner fails or refuses to make a report the Court may exclude the examiner's testimony if offered at the trial.
 - B. By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege the party may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine the party in respect of the same mental or physical condition.
 - C. This subdivision applies to examinations made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This subdivision does not preclude discovery of a report of an examiner or the taking of a deposition of the examiner in accordance with the provisions of any other section of this Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-511 Requests for admission.

1. Request for admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Section 2-501(2) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of Court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within thirty days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the Court may allow, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by the party's attorney, but, unless the Court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of forty-five days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify an answer to deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, the party shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless the party states that the party has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by the party is insufficient to enable the party to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter on which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; the party may, subject to the provisions of Section 2-512(3) deny the matter or set forth reasons why the party cannot admit or deny it. The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the Court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the Court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this Section, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The Court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pre-trial conference at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Section 2-512(1)(D) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. Effect of admission. Any matter admitted under this Section is conclusively established unless the Court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provision of Section 2-219 governing amendment of a pre-trial order, the Court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action be sub-served thereby, and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the Court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice that party in maintaining the action or defense on the merits. An admission made by a party under this Section is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not any admission for any other purpose nor may it be used against the party in any other proceeding. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-512 Failure to make or cooperate in discovery: sanctions.

1. Motion for order compelling discovery. A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:
 - A. Appropriate Court. An application for an order to a party may be made to the Tribal Court, or, on matters relating to a disposition, to the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken if necessary. An application for an order to a deponent who is not a party may be made to the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken.
 - B. Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Sections 2-505 or 2-506, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Section 2-505(2)(F) or Section 2-506(1) or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Section 2-508, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Section 2-509, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before applying for an order. If the Court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to Section 2-501(3).

- C. Evasive or incomplete answer. For purposes of this subdivision, an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.
 - D. Award of expenses of motion. If the motion is granted, the Court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust. If the motion is denied, the Court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances made an award of expenses unjust. If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the Court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.
2. Failure to comply with order.
- A. Sanctions by Court in jurisdiction where deposition is taken. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the Court in the jurisdiction in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that Court. Sanctions imposed in such matters by any foreign Court shall be given full faith and credit and promptly enforced by the Tribal Court, subject to the Tribal Court's authority to modify the sanctions as justice may require.
 - B. Sanction by Court in which action is pending. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Section 2-505(2)(F) or Section 2-506(1) to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under subdivision (1) of this Section or Section 2-510, the Court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:
 - i. An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;
 - ii. An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting that party from introducing designated matters in evidence;
 - iii. An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;
 - iv. In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of Court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- v. Where a party has failed to comply with an order under Section 2-510(1) requiring that party to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in paragraphs (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subdivision, unless the party failing to comply shows that the party is unable to produce such person for examination. In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising that party or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.
3. Expenses on failure to admit. If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under Section 2-511, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, the requesting party may apply to the Court for an order requiring the other party to pay the other party the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The Court shall make the order unless it finds that (A) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Section 2-511(1); or (B) the admission sought was of no substantial importance; or (C) the party failing to admit has reasonable ground to believe that the party might prevail on the matter; or (D) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.
4. Failure of party to attend at own deposition or serve answers to interrogatories or respond to request for inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Section 2-505(2)(F) or Section 2-506(1) to testify on behalf of a party fails (A) to appear before the officer who is to take the deposition, after being served with a proper notice; or (B) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Section 2-508, after proper service of the interrogatories, the Tribal Court on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under paragraphs (i), (ii), and (iii) of subdivision (1)(B) of this Section. In lieu of any order in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising that party or both to the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust. The failure to act described in this subdivision may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by Section 2-501(3). The clerk of the Court shall, on application of any party having a cause or any matter pending in the Court, issue a subpoena for a witness, under the seal of the Court. The clerk may issue separate subpoenas for each person, issue one subpoena carrying the names of all persons subpoenaed, or may at the request of any party, issue subpoenas in blank. A subpoena may be served by the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or by the party, or any other person in the manner provided in Section 2-317. When a subpoena is not served by the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, proof of service shall be shown by affidavit; but no costs of service of the same shall be allowed, except when served by the Tribal police, a licensed process server, Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or a person serving by special appointment. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-602 Subpoenas--contents. The subpoena shall be directed to the person therein named, requiring him/her to attend at a particular time and place to testify as a witness; and it may contain a clause directing the witness to bring with him/her any book, writing or other thing, under his/her control, which he/she is bound by law to produce as evidence. [TCR 86-109]

2-603 Subpoena for deposition. When the attendance of the witness before any officer authorized to take depositions is required, the subpoena may be issued by such officer. [TCR 86-109]

2-605 Witness may demand fees--exception. A witness may demand his/her traveling fees and fee for one day's attendance as shall be set by Court rule, when the subpoena is served upon him/her; and if the same be not paid, the witness shall not be obligated to obey the subpoena. The fact of such demand and non-payment shall be stated in the return, provided, however, that witnesses subpoenaed by any Tribal department, board, commission or legislative committee authorized to issue subpoenas shall be paid their attendance and necessary travel, as provided by law for witnesses in other cases, at the time their testimony is concluded out of funds appropriated to such department, board, commission or legislative committee. In the case of subpoena issued by such Tribal agencies, the witness may not refuse to attend because fees and travel expenses were not paid in advance. [TCR 86-109]

2-606 Disobedience of subpoena. Disobedience of a subpoena, or refusal to be sworn or to answer as a witness, when lawfully ordered, may be punished as a contempt of the Court or officer by whom his/her attendance or testimony is required. [TCR 86-109]

2-607 Attachment of witness. When a witness fails to attend in obedience to a subpoena (except in case of a demand and failure to pay his/her fees), the Court or officer before whom his/her attendance is required may issue an attachment to the chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police or their deputy, commanding him/her to arrest and bring the person therein named before the Court or officer, at a time and place to be fixed in the attachment, to give his/her testimony and answer for the contempt. If the attachment be not for immediately bringing the witness before the Court or officer, a sum may be fixed not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) in which the witness may give an undertaking, with surety, for his/her appearance; such sum shall be endorsed on the back of the attachment; and if no sum is so fixed and endorsed, it shall be one hundred dollars ($100.00). If the witness be not personally served, the Court may, by a rule, order him/her to show cause why an attachment should not issue against him/her. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-608 Punishment for contempt.

1. The punishment for the contempt provided in Section 2-607 of this Act shall be as follows: when the witness fails to attend, in obedience to the subpoena, except in cases of a demand and failure to pay his/her fees, the Court or officer may fine the witness in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00). In case the witness attends but refuses to be sworn or to testify, the Court or officer may fine the witness in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00), or may imprison him/her in the Tribal jail, there to remain until he/she shall submit to be sworn, testify, or give his/her deposition. The fine imposed by the Court or Tribal agency shall be paid into the Tribal treasury, and that imposed by the officer at a deposition shall be for the use of the party for whom the witness was subpoenaed. The witness shall also be liable to the party injured for any damages occasioned by his/her failure to attend, or his/her refusal to be sworn, testify, or give his/her deposition.
2. The punishment provided in this Section shall not apply where the witness refuses to subscribe a deposition. The punishment provided in this Section is civil in nature, and shall not be interpreted in any way as a criminal punishment, nor shall the punished person be deemed convicted of any criminal offense.
3. When the witness purges his/her contempt, the Court, officer, or agency may suspend any punishment imposed. [TCR 86-109]

2-609 Discharge when imprisonment illegal. A witness so imprisoned by an officer before whom his/her deposition is being taken, by a Tribal agency officer, may apply to a judge of the Tribal Court who shall have power to discharge him/her, if it appears that his/her imprisonment is illegal. [TCR 86-109]

2-610 Requisites of attachment--order of commitment. Every attachment for the arrest, or order of commitment to jail of a witness by the Court or an officer, pursuant to this Article, must be under the seal of the Court or officer, if he/she has an official seal, and must specify, particularly, the cause of arrest or commitment; and if the commitment be for refusing to answer a question, such question must be stated in the order. Such order of commitment may be directed to the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, and shall be executed by committing him/her to the Tribal jail, and delivering a copy of the order to the jailer. 2-614 Witness may demand fees each day--exception. At the commencement of each day after the first day, a witness may demand his/her fees for that day's attendance in obedience to a subpoena; and if the same be not paid, he/she shall not be required to remain, except witnesses subpoenaed by any Tribal department, board, commission, or legislative committee or body authorized by law to issue subpoenas shall be paid for their attendance and necessary travel from that agency's approved budget as provided by law in other cases at the time their testimony is completed. 2-654 Disgrace as ground for refusal to testify. No witness is privileged to refuse to testify to any fact, or produce any paper, respecting which he/she shall be examined by the Tribal legislative body, or by any subordinate committee or agency thereof authorized to issue subpoenas, upon the ground that his/her testimony to such fact or his/her production of such paper may tend to disgrace or otherwise render him/her infamous, provided that such fact or paper is reasonably related to the exercise by the body, agency, or committee of authority delegated to it by law. [TCR 86-109]

2-701 Meeting for selection of jurors.

1. On the first Monday in November, or as soon thereafter as may be, and, at any time upon the order of the chief appellate judge of the appellate Court, the Jury Selection Board, composed of the Tribal secretary or one of his/her deputies, the Tribal tax director or one of his/her deputies, the chief of the Tribal police or one of his/her deputies, the chairman of the board of commissioners of the Tribal housing authority or his/her delegate, the Court clerk or one of his/her deputies, and one of the judges of the Court, shall meet at the office of the Court clerk and select from a list to be compiled of all qualified jurors, as prescribed in this Article, all qualified jurors for service in the Tribal Court for the ensuing calendar year in the manner hereinafter provided.
2. For the purpose of ascertaining the names of all persons qualified for jury service, it shall be the duty of the following officers to provide the following lists of qualified prospective jurors to the Court clerk:
 - A. The Tribal secretary shall supply a list of all enrolled Tribal members of their households over eighteen years of age who are residents of the Tribal jurisdiction.
 - B. The Tribal tax director shall supply a list of all individual taxpayers irrespective of Tribal membership over eighteen years of age who are residents of the Tribal jurisdiction.
 - C. The chairman of the board of commissioners of the Tribal housing authority shall supply a list of all known tenants of the housing authority and members of their households irrespective of Tribal membership over eighteen years of age who are residents of the Tribal jurisdiction.
 - D. The Court clerk shall supply a list of all persons over eighteen years of age irrespective of Tribal membership who have registered upon the Court clerk's jury selection roll for jury service.
3. Each such list shall contain, insofar as is known, the date of birth or age, name, and actual place of residence of each person within the category on the list.
4. Whenever possible, these lists shall be prepared at least thirty days prior to the meeting to allow time for the typing of the names contained therein on cards as hereafter, or shall be presented typed upon the cards as thereafter provided.
5. Whenever such is, or may become reasonably available and efficient, the lists may be printed from computer memory on cards in the manner hereafter provided. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-702 Court clerk's jury selection roll. It shall be the duty of the Court clerk to maintain at all times a jury selection roll upon which any person who is or may be eligible for jury service may enter their name,

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 7

date of birth, and place of residence. Such roll shall be provided to the jury selection board in order that all qualified persons who may not be identified in paragraphs (A), (B), or (C) of subsection (2) of Section 2-701 of this Article shall have the opportunity for jury service. [TCR 86-109]

2-703 Preparation of jury wheel. Said officers shall write or cause to be written or typed the names of all persons who are known to be, or may be qualified jurors under the law on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on said cards, whenever possible, the post office address of each juror so selected, along with their age or date of birth and place of residence under the direction of the Court clerk. Whenever such can be avoided, no person's name shall be placed upon more than one card. The expenses of preparation of such cards are to be paid from the Court fund. The cards containing said names shall be deposited in a circular hollow wheel, to be provided for such purpose by the Court clerk after the jury selection board has examined the contents thereof and removed therefrom and destroyed any cards found therein. Said wheel shall be in the form of a drum made of iron, steel, or other substantial material, and shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on its axle and big enough to freely mix all the cards placed therein, the size thereof in each case to be determined by the number of names placed therein, and shall be locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks, so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock; and said wheel and the clasps thereto attached into which the locks shall be fitted, shall be so arranged that said wheel cannot be opened unless both of said locks are unlocked at the time the wheel is opened. The keys to such locks shall be kept, one by the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police and the other by the Court clerk. The chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, and the Court clerk shall not open such wheel, not permit the same to be opened by any person, except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified; but said chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, and Court clerk shall keep such wheel, when not in use, in a safe and secure place where the same cannot be tampered with. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-704 Drawing general jury panel.

1. The judges of the Court shall, more than twenty days prior to each jury docket of Court, determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the Court during the jury docket, and shall thereupon order the drawing of such number of jurors from the wheel, said jury to be known as the general panel of jurors for service for the respective jury docket for which they are designated to serve. A majority of said judges, or the Chief Judge, are authorized to act in carrying out the provisions of this Section.
2. The Court clerk or one of his/her deputies and the chief of the Tribal police, or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or one of his/her deputies in open Court and under the direction of the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court, or during his/her absence or disability, some other judge of the Tribal Court, shall draw from the wheel containing the names of the jurors, after the same has been well turned so that the cards therein are thoroughly mixed, one by one until the number of jurors for jury service as directed by the Court are procured and shall record such names as they are drawn. The officers attending such drawing shall not divulge the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person.
3. Additional and other drawing of as many names as the Court may order may be had at any such time as the Court or judge may order for the completion of a jury panel, or for the impaneling of a new jury if, in the judgment of the Court, the same shall be necessary, or if, for any cause, the Court, in its discretion, shall deem other jurors necessary. The Court may excuse or discharge any person drawn and summoned as a juror, whenever, in its discretion, such action shall be deemed expedient.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 7

4. No person may be required, over his/her objection, to render service as a juror for more than a total of twenty working days in any one calendar year unless, when this time limit is reached, he/she is sitting on a panel engaged in the consideration of a case, in which event he/she may be excused when such case is terminated; provided, that if the judge is of the opinion that the jury business of a jury docket fixed by the Court may be concluded within six days, he/she may require a jury, or a juror, to remain until the termination of said jury service. Persons summoned for jury service need not be required to serve during previously fixed days or weeks or a docket fixed by the Court for jury trials, but they may be recalled from time to time as the trial needs of the Tribal Court may require, without regard to the docket term fixed by the Court for jury trials for which they were originally summoned. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-705 Use of a jury panel. The general panel of jurors shall be used to draw juries in all actions tried during the jury docket for which they were summoned. In the event of a deficiency of said general panel at any given time to meet the requirements of the Court, the presiding judge having control of said general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet such emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are not further needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel, except when only a single jury is needed or when the Court determines that undue delay will be caused thereby to the prejudice of a party, in which case the Court may issue an open venire to the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or other suitable person for such number of jurors as may be necessary to be selected from the body of the Tribal jurisdiction without resort to the jury wheel, provided, that no person shall be called to serve under an open venire more often than once each year. [TCR 86-109]

2-706 Certifying and sealing lists. The list of names so drawn for the general panel shall be certified under the hand of the Court clerk or the deputy doing the drawing and the judge in whose presence said names were drawn from the wheel to be the list drawn by said clerk for the said jury docket, and shall be sealed up in envelopes endorsed “jurors for the jury docket of the Tribal Court scheduled to commence on _____” (filling in the blank with the appropriate date) and the clerk doing the drawing shall write his/her name across the seals of the envelopes. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-707 Oath and delivery of envelopes. The judge attending the drawing shall deliver such envelopes to the Court clerk, or one of his/her deputies, and the judge shall, at the same time, administer to the Court clerk and to each of his/her deputies an oath in substance as follows: “You and each of you do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law, nor communicate to anyone the name or names of persons appearing on the jury lists until the time a list is opened as prescribed by law at which time it shall be published, that you will not, directly or indirectly converse or communicate with anyone selected as juror concerning any case pending for trial in the Court at the next jury docket, so help you God,” or as prescribed in subsection 732 (b) of this Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-708 Sealing and retaining juror name cards. When the names are drawn for jury service the cards containing such names shall be sealed in separate envelopes, endorsed “cards containing the names of jurors for the petit jury for the jury docket of the Tribal Court commencing on _____” (filling in the blank with the appropriate date); and said envelopes shall be retained securely by the clerk, unopened, until after the jury has been impaneled for such docket, and, after such jurors so impaneled have served one jury docket, the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors for that docket shall then be opened by the Court clerk, or his/her deputy, and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served on a jury shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the Court clerk or his/her deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving on a jury shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officer who shall next select jurors for the wheel, provided, that no person shall serve as a juror more often than once a year, except upon order of the Court for lack of sufficient jurors or as herein provided. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 7

2-709 Refilling wheel. If the wheel containing the names of jurors be lost or destroyed, with the contents thereof, or if all the cards in said wheel be drawn out, such wheel shall immediately be refurnished, and cards bearing the names of jurors shall be placed therein immediately in accordance with law. [TCR 86-109]

2-710 Summoning jurors. The summons of persons for service on the juries in the Tribal Court shall be served by the Court clerk by mailing a copy of such summons containing the time, place, and the name of the Court upon which said jurors are required to attend, by registered or certified mail, or as directed by the judge, to the person selected for service not less than ten days before the day said person is to appear as a juror in the Court. The Court clerk shall make a return of such service by filing an affidavit stating the date of mailing and type of mail used in sending the summons; provided, that this shall not prevent service of special open venire or talisman by the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-711 On-call system jurors.

1. When an on-call system is implemented by order of the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court, each juror retained for service subject to call shall be required to contact a center for information as to the time and place of his/her next assignment.
2. For purposes of this Section, "on-call system" means a method whereby the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court estimates the number of jurors required for a jury docket of Court, and those jurors not needed during any particular period are released to return to their home or employment subject to call when needed.
3. Pursuant to summons for service on petit juries in the Tribal Court, each qualified, nonexempt juror is retained for service subject to call and is assigned to a judge or a case. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-712 Drawing trial jurors from panel. Prospective jurors for the trial of an action shall be drawn by the Court clerk, in open Court in the presence of a judge, by lot either by wheel, by numbering the prospective jurors' cards and then drawing numbers from a pool containing a numbered marker for each prospective juror available to be called, or by some similar form of random drawing approved by the Court. The initial six jurors shall be drawn as shortly before the trial of the action as is reasonably practical in the discretion of the Court. As prospective jurors are removed or dismissed by challenge, whether peremptory or for cause, the clerk shall draw another name from the general pool who shall take the place of the challenged prospective juror and be subject to voir dire to the same extent as the prospective jurors originally chosen. [TCR 86-109]

2-713 Qualifications and exemptions of jurors.

1. All members of the Tribe and other citizens of the United States who are over eighteen years of age and have resided within the Tribal jurisdiction for a period of thirty days, who are of sound mind and discretion and of good moral character are competent to act as jurors, except as herein provided.
2. The following persons are not qualified to serve as jurors:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 7

Persons who have been convicted of any felony or crime involving moral turpitude, provided that when such conviction has been vacated, overturned upon appeal, or pardoned or when any such person has been fully restored to his/her civil rights by the jurisdiction wherein such conviction occurred, the person shall be eligible to serve as a juror.
 - H. Elected Tribal officials.
3. Persons over seventy years of age, ministers, practicing physicians, optometrists, dentists, public school teachers, federal employees, regularly organized full time fire department employees, and women with otherwise unattended minor children not in school may be excused from jury service by the Court, in its discretion, upon request.
4. Any Tribal member, Tribal taxpayer, or person employed within the Tribal jurisdiction may serve as a juror notwithstanding that they are not a resident of the Tribal jurisdiction if they volunteer to do so by signing the jury selection roll maintained by the Court clerk. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-714 Substantial compliance. A substantial compliance with the provisions of this Article, shall be sufficient to prevent the setting aside of any verdict rendered by a jury chosen hereunder, unless the irregularity in drawing, and summoning, or impaneling the same resulted in depriving a party litigant of some substantial right; provided, however, that such irregularity must be specifically presented to the Court at or before the time the jury is sworn to try the cause. [TCR 86-109]

2-715 Oath to jury. After selection of the jury, and prior to the opening statements of the parties, the Court or clerk shall place the jury under oath or affirmation to well and truly try and determine the action before them exclusively upon the evidence presented in the Court and the law as given by the Court, and to return their true verdict thereon without partiality for any unlawful cause or reason. [TCR 86-109]

2-721 Discharge of employee for jury service--penalty. Every person, firm, or corporation who discharges an employee or causes an employee to be discharged because of said employee's absence from his/her employment by reason of said employee's having been required to serve as a juror on a jury of the Tribal Court, or any other Court, shall be guilty of an offense, and, upon conviction thereon, shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00). [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-722 Civil liability--damages. Every person, firm or corporation who discharges or causes to be discharged an employee because of said employee's absence from his/her employment by reason of said employee having been required to serve as a juror on a jury, in the Tribal Court or any other Court, shall be liable to the person so discharged in a civil action at law for both actual and punitive damages. Damages shall include all pecuniary losses suffered including, but not limited to, lost earnings, both past and future, mental anguish, and all reasonable damages incurred in obtaining other suitable employment, including the cost of relocation and retraining, if any, and a reasonable attorney's fee to be determined by the Court. TRIAL

| | | | |
|-------|----------------------|-------|---------------------------------|
| 2-801 | Trial defined. | 2-804 | Trial by jury or by the Court. |
| 2-802 | Trial of issues. | 2-805 | Assignment of cases for trial. |
| 2-803 | Jury trial of right. | 2-806 | Consolidation; separate trials. |

2-801 Trial defined. A trial is a judicial examination of the issues, whether of law or fact, in an action. [TCR 86-109]

2-802 Trial of issues. Issues of law must be tried by the Court. Issues of fact arising in actions for which a jury trial is provided by law may be tried by a jury, if a jury trial is demanded, unless a reference be ordered, as hereinafter provided. All other issues of fact shall be tried to the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-803 Jury trial of right.

1. Right preserved. The right of trial by jury as declared by the Tribal Constitution or a statute of the Tribe, or the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 shall be preserved inviolate. In all actions, except forcible entry and detainer, arising in contract or tort where the amount in controversy, or the value of the property to be recovered, as stated in the prayer for relief or an affidavit of a party, or as found by the Court where the amount in controversy is questioned by the affidavit of the adverse party, exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), except as otherwise specifically provided by law, and in all actions for the involuntary removal of children from the custody of their parents or custodian and the involuntary termination of parental rights, the action may be tried to a jury upon demand of any party. All other actions and issues of fact shall be tried to the Court.
2. Demand. Any party entitled to a jury trial may demand a trial by jury of an issue triable of right by a jury pursuant to any law of the Tribe by serving upon the other parties a demand therefor in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than ten days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be endorsed upon a pleading of the party. Such demand shall not be effective unless, at the time of filing or at such later time as the Court shall by rule allow, the party making such demand deposit with the Court clerk a reasonable jury fee in such amount as the Court shall by rule determine. The amount of such deposit shall be set by the Court in such amount as may be reasonably necessary to offset the costs of juror fees for the impaneling and trying of the action, without being in an amount which may preclude or prevent a party from exercising their right to a jury trial. Such rules shall contain a provision for waiver of the deposit requirement for persons proceeding in forma pauperis.
3. Same; specification of issues. In the demand, a party may specify the issues which the party wishes so tried; otherwise the party shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If the party has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within ten days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the Court may order, may serve a demand for a trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.
4. Waiver. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this Section and to file it as required by Section 2-331(4) constitutes a waiver by the party of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties. Even though previously demanded, the trial by jury may be waived by the parties, in actions arising on contract, and with the assent of the Court in other actions, in the following manner: By the consent of the party appearing, when the other party fails to appear at the trial by him/herself or attorney.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

By written consent, in person or by attorney, filed with the clerk. By oral consent, in open Court, entered on the journal. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-804 Trial by jury or by the Court.

1. By jury. When trial by jury has been demanded as provided in Section 2-803, the action shall be designated upon the docket as a jury action. The trial of all issues so demanded shall be by jury, unless (A) the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the Court or by an oral stipulation made in open Court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the Court sitting without a jury, or (B) the Court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury of some or all of those issues does not exist under the constitution and statutes or ordinances of the Tribe, or under the Indian Civil Rights Act.
2. By the Court. Issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in Section 2-803 shall be tried by the Court; but, notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such demand might have been made of right, the Court in its discretion or upon motion of a party may order a trial by jury of any or all issues properly triable to a jury.
3. Advisory jury and trial by consent. In all actions not triable by right by a jury the Court upon motion or of its own initiative may try any issue with an advisory jury or, except in actions against the Tribe when a statute of the Tribe provides for trial without a jury, the Court, with the consent of both parties, may order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right. [TCR 86-109, 93-84, 94-27]

2-805 Assignment of cases for trial. The district Court shall provide by rule for the placing of actions upon the trial calendar:

- A. Without request of the parties; or
- B. Upon request of a party and notice to the other parties; or
- C. In such other manner as the Courts deem expedient. Precedence shall be given to actions entitled thereto by any statute of the Tribe. [TCR 94-07]

2-806 Consolidation; separate trials.

1. Consolidation. When different actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the Court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delays.
2. Separate trials. The Court, in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, or third party claims, or issues, always preserving inviolate the right to trial by jury as declared by the Indian Civil Rights Act, the Tribal Constitution or as given by a statute of the Tribe. 2-821 Summoning jury. The general mode of summoning and impaneling the jury, in cases in which a jury trial may be had, is such as is or may be provided by Article 7 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-822 Causes for challenging jurors. If there shall be impaneled, for the trial of any action, any juror, who shall have been convicted of any crime which by law renders him/her disqualified to serve on a jury; or who has been arbitrator on either side, relating to the same controversy; or who has an interest in the action; or who has an action pending between him/her and either party; or who has formerly been a juror on the same claim; or who is the employer, employee, counselor, agent, steward or attorney of either party; or who is subpoenaed as a witness; or who is of kin to either party within the second degree by blood or marriage, he/she may be challenged for such causes; in either of which cases the same shall be considered as a principal challenge, and the validity thereof be tried by the Court; and any juror who shall be returned upon the trial of any of the causes hereinbefore specified, against whom no principal cause of challenge can be alleged, may, nevertheless, be challenged on suspicion of prejudice against, or partiality for either party, or any other cause that may render him/her, at the time, an unsuitable juror; but a resident or taxpayer of the Tribal jurisdiction, or a member of the Tribe or any municipality therein shall not thereby be disqualified in actions in which the Tribe or such municipality is a party. The validity of all principal challenges and challenges for cause shall be determined by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-823 Examination of jurors. The Court may permit the parties or their attorneys to conduct the examination of prospective jurors or may itself conduct the examination. In the latter event, the Court shall permit the parties or their attorneys to supplement the examination by such further inquiry as it deems proper or shall itself submit to the prospective jurors such additional questions of the parties or their attorneys as it deems proper. [TCR 86-109]

2-824 Alternate jurors. The Court may direct that not more than three jurors in addition to the regular jury be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become or are found to be unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the regular jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a regular juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. Each side is entitled to one preemptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law if alternate jurors are to be impaneled. The additional preemptory challenges may be used against an alternate juror only, and the other preemptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against an alternate juror. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

2-825 Order of challenges. The plaintiff first, and afterward the defendant, shall complete his/her challenges for cause. They may then, in turn, in the same order, have the right to challenge one juror each, until each shall have preemptorily challenged three jurors, but no more. [TCR 86-109]

2-826 Challenges to jurors--filling vacancies. After each challenge, the vacancy shall be filled before further challenges are made; and any new juror thus introduced may be challenged for cause as well as preemptorily. [TCR 86-109]

2-827 Alternate method of selecting jury. Notwithstanding other methods, the trial judge may direct in his/her discretion that a jury in an action be selected by calling and seating twelve prospective jurors in the jury box and then examining them on voir dire; when twelve such prospective jurors have been passed for cause, each side of the lawsuit shall exercise its preemptory challenges out of the hearing of the jury by alternately striking three names each from the list of those so passed for cause, and the remaining six persons shall be sworn to try the case. If there be more than one defendant in the case, and the trial judge determines on motion that there is a serious conflict of interest between them, he/she may, in his/her discretion, allow each defendant to strike three names from the list of jurors seated and passed for cause. In such case, he/she shall appropriately increase the number of jurors initially called and seated in the jury box for voir dire examination. [TCR 86-109]

2-828 Oath of jury. The jury shall be sworn to well and truly try the matters submitted to them in the case before them, and to give a true verdict, according to the law and the evidence. [TCR 86-109]

2-829 Juries of less than six--majority verdict. All juries shall be composed of six persons, and a unanimous verdict shall be required, except that the parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of any number less than six and greater than two, or that a verdict or a finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury. 2-831 Order of trial. When the jury has been sworn in an action before a jury, and in trials to the Court, when the Court is ready to proceed, the trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the Court for special reasons otherwise directs:

1. The party on whom rests the burden of proving the issues may briefly state his/her case, and the evidence by which he/she expects to sustain it.
2. The adverse party may then briefly state his/her defense and the evidence he/she expects to offer in support of it, or the adverse party may reserve his/her opening statement until the beginning of the presentation of his/her evidence.
3. The party on whom rests the burden of proving the issues must first produce his/her evidence; after he/she has closed his/her evidence, the adverse party may interpose a motion for a directed verdict thereto upon the ground that no claim for relief or defense is proved. If the Court shall sustain the motion, no formal verdict of the jury shall be required, but judgment shall be rendered for the party whose motion for a directed verdict is sustained as the state of the pleadings or the proof shall demand.
4. If the motion for a directed verdict be overruled, the adverse party may then briefly state his/her case if he/she did not do so prior to the beginning of the presentation of the evidence, and, shall then produce his/her evidence.
5. The parties will then be confined to rebutting evidence unless the Court, for good reasons in furtherance of justice, shall permit them to offer evidence in the original case.
6. After the close of the evidence, and when the jury instructions have been finalized by the Court, the parties may then make their closing arguments as to the evidence proved and reasonable inferences to be drawn therefrom. The party having the burden of proving the issue shall first present his/her argument. Thereafter, the other party shall present his/her argument, and then, the party having the burden of proof shall have the opportunity for rebuttal argument. The Court may place reasonable limitation upon the time allowed for closing argument, provided, that each side to the action should have the same total time for argument if time restrictions are placed thereon.
7. After closing arguments of the parties have been completed, the Court shall instruct the jury as to the law of the case, and shall give a copy of the written instructions to the jury for their use during their deliberations.
8. The Court shall then place the bailiff or same other responsible person under oath to secure the jury against interference, and the jury shall retire to determine its verdict. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

2-832 Taking of testimony.

1. Form. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, unless otherwise provided by a statute of this Tribe by this Act, or by the Winnebago Rules of Evidence.
2. Affirmation in lieu of oath. Whenever under this Act an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.
3. Evidence of motions. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the Court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the Court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.
4. Interpreters. The Court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix his/her reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the Court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 93-84, 94-07]

2-833 Exceptions unnecessary. Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the Court are unnecessary; but it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the Court is made or sought, makes known to the Court the action which he/she desires the Court to take or his/her objection to the action of the Court and his/her grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him/her. [TCR 86-109]

2-834 Instructions to jury--objection.

1. At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the Court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the Court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The Court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury. The Court, at its election, may instruct the jury before or after argument, or both. No party may assign as error the giving or the failure to give an instruction unless that party objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which the party objects and the grounds of the objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury. The Tribal Court shall furnish copies of the instructions to the plaintiff and defendant prior to the time said instructions are given by the Court to the jury.
2. All instructions requested, and modifications thereof, shall be reduced to writing, numbered, and signed by the party or his/her attorney asking the same and filed in the record of the case.
3. When either party asks special instructions to be given to the jury, the Court shall either give such instructions as requested, or positively refuse to do so; or give the instructions with modification in such manner that it shall distinctly appear what instructions were given in whole or part, and in like manner those refused, so that either party may except to the instructions as asked for, or as modified, or to the modification, or to the refusal.
4. All instructions given by the Court must be numbered, signed by the judge; and filed together with those asked for by the parties as part of the record. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-835 Uniform jury instructions. The appellate Court, in its discretion, is authorized to promulgate by rule uniform instructions to be given in jury trials or civil or criminal actions, which, if applicable in a civil or criminal action, due regard being given to the facts and prevailing law, shall be used unless the Court determines that the instruction does not accurately state the law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

2-836 Objections to instructions--copies to parties. Repealed. [TCR 94-07]

2-837 View by jury. Whenever, in the opinion of the Court, it is proper for the jury to have a view of the property which is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order them to be conducted, in a body, under the charge of an officer, to the place, which shall be shown to them by some person appointed by the Court for that purpose. While the jury are thus absent, no person, other than the person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial. [TCR 86-109]

2-838 Deliberation of the jury. When the case is finally submitted to the jury, they shall retire for deliberation. When they retire, they must be kept together, in some convenient place, under charge of an officer, until they agree upon a verdict or be discharged by the Court, subject to the discretion of the Court, to permit them to separate temporarily at night, and at their meals. The officer having them under his/her charge shall not suffer any communication to be made to them, or make any him/herself, except to ask them if they are agreed upon their verdict, and to communicate a request by the jury to the Court, in open Court, unless by order of the Court; and he/she shall not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations, or the verdict agreed upon. [TCR 86-109]

2-839 Admonition of jury on separation. If the jury are permitted to separate, either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, they shall be admonished by the Court that it is their duty not to converse with, or suffer themselves to be addressed by, any other person, on any subject of the trial, and that it is their duty not to form or express an opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them. [TCR 86-109]

2-840 Information after retirement. After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the law arising in the case, they may request the officer to conduct them to the Court, where the information on the point of law shall be given in writing, and the Court may give its recollections as to the testimony on the point in dispute, or cause the same to be read by the stenographer or played back on an electronic recording device by the reporter in the presence of, or after notice to, the parties or their counsel. Upon motion in appropriate circumstances, the Court may order that other portions of the record relating to the same issue also be read or played back to the jury upon the questioned point. [TCR 86-109]

2-841 When the jury may be discharged. The jury may be discharged by the Court on account of the sickness of a juror, or other accident or calamity requiring their discharge, or by consent of both parties, or after they have been kept together until it satisfactorily appears to the Court that there is no possibility of their agreeing. [TCR 86-109]

2-842 Re-trial. In all cases where the jury are discharged during the trial, or after the case is submitted to them, it may be tried again immediately, or at a future time, as the Court may direct. [TCR 86-109]

2-843 Proof of official record.

1. Authentication.
 - A. Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any Indian Tribal jurisdiction, state, district, or commonwealth, or within a territory subject to the administrative or judicial jurisdiction of the United States, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by the officer's deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a Court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the Court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the officer's office.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

- B. Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of an embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the Court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final attestation or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification. The final certification is unnecessary if the record and the attestation are certified as provided in a treaty or convention to which the United States and the foreign country in which the official record is located are parties.
2. Lack of record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subdivision (1)(A) of this Section in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subdivision (1)(B) of this Section for a summary in the case of a foreign record, it is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.
 3. Other proof. This Section does not prevent the proof of official records of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-844 Determination of foreign law. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign jurisdiction shall give notice in his/her pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The Court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under the Tribal rules of evidence. The Court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law. The Tribal Court shall take judicial notice of the law of any foreign jurisdiction within the United States published in any official publication of that jurisdiction upon reasonable notice of the law in question. The term "foreign jurisdiction within the United States" includes every federally-recognized Indian Tribe, every state, territory, or possession of the United States, the United States, and their political subdivisions and agencies. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-845 Appointment and duties of masters.

1. Appointment and compensation. The Tribal Court with the concurrence of a majority of all the judges thereof may appoint one or more standing masters, and the trial judge, in an appropriate case, may appoint a special master to act in a particular case. The word "master" includes a referee, an auditor, and an examiner, a commissioner, and an assessor. The compensation to be allowed to a master shall be fixed by the Court, and shall be charged upon such of the parties or paid out of any fund or subject matter of the action, which is in the custody and control of the Court as the Court may direct. The master shall not retain the master's report as security for the

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

- master's compensation; but when the party ordered to pay the compensation allowed by the Court does not pay it after notice and within the time prescribed by the Court, the master is entitled to a writ of execution against the delinquent party.
2. Reference. A reference to a master shall be the exception and not the rule. In actions to be tried by a jury, a reference shall be made only when the issues are complicated; in actions to be tried without a jury, save in the matter of account and of difficult computation of damages, a reference shall be made only upon a showing that some exceptional condition requires it.
 3. Powers. The order of reference to the master may specify or limit the master's powers and may direct the master to report only upon particular issues or to do or perform particular acts or to receive and report evidence only and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing the hearings and for the filing of the master's report. Subject to the specifications and limitations stated in the order, the master has and shall exercise the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before the master and to do all acts and make all measures necessary or proper for the efficient performance of the master's duties under the order. The master may require the production before the master of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents, and writings applicable thereto. The master may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order of reference and has the authority to put witnesses on oath and may examine them, and may call the parties to the action and examine them upon oath. When a party so requests, the master shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in Section 2-832(3) for a Court sitting without a jury.
 4. Proceedings.
 - A. Meetings. When a reference is made, the clerk shall forthwith furnish the master with a copy of the order of reference. Upon receipt thereof, unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the master shall forthwith set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within twenty days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. It is the duty of the master to proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and master, may apply to the Court for an order requiring the master to speed the proceedings and make the report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the master may proceed ex parte, or, in the master's discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.
 - B. Witnesses. The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the master by the issuance and service of subpoenas as provided in Section 2-322. If without adequate excuse a witness fails to appear or give evidence, the witness may be punished for a contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided in Sections 2-512(2) and 2-322(6).
 - C. Statement of accounts. When matters of accounting are in issue before the master, the master may prescribe the form in which the accounts shall be submitted and in any proper case may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items thus submitted or upon a showing that the form of statement is insufficient, the master may require a different form of statement to be furnished, or the accounts or specific items thereof to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as the master directs.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

5. Report.
- A. Content and filing. The master shall prepare a report upon the matters submitted to the master by the order of reference and, if required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, the master shall set them forth in the report. The master shall file the report with the clerk of the Court and serve on all parties notice of the filing. In an action to be tried without a jury, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference, the master shall file with the report a transcript of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The clerk shall forthwith mail to all parties notice of the filing.
 - B. In non-jury actions. In an action to be tried without a jury the Court shall accept the master's findings of fact unless clearly erroneous. Within ten days after being served with notice of the filing of the report, any party may serve written objections thereto upon the other parties. Application to the Court for action upon the report and upon objection thereto shall be by motion and upon notice as prescribed in Section 2-340(4). The Court after hearing may adopt the report or may modify it or may reject it in whole or in part or may receive further evidence or may recommit it with instructions.
 - C. In jury actions. In an action to be tried by a jury, the master shall not be directed to report the evidence. The master's findings upon the issues submitted to the master are admissible as evidence of the matters found and may be read to the jury, subject to the ruling of the Court upon any objections in point of law which may be made to the report.
 - D. Stipulation as to findings. The effect of a master's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference; but, when the parties stipulate that a master's findings of fact shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered.
 - E. Draft report. Before filing the master's report, a master may submit a draft thereof to counsel for all parties for the purpose of receiving their suggestions. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

| 2-852 | Delivery of verdict. | 2-856 | Jury must assess amount of recovery. |
| 2-853 | Requisites of verdicts. | 2-857 | Motions for a directed verdict and for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. |
| 2-854 | General and special verdict. | | |

2-851 Findings by the Court.

1. Effect. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the Court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and judgment shall be entered pursuant to Section 2-1007; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions, the Court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Request for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial Court to judge the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a master, to the extent that the Court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the Court. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact and conclusions of law appear therein. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under Section 2-212(2) or Section 2-222(2).
2. Amendment. Upon motion of a party made no later than ten days after entry of judgment, the Court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial pursuant to Section 2-1008. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the Court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question had made in the Tribal Court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-852 Delivery of verdict. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they must be conducted into the Court, and their verdict rendered by their foreman. When the verdict is announced, either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the clerk or the Court asking each juror if it is his/her verdict. If any one answers in the negative, the jury must again be sent out, for further deliberation. [TCR 86-109]

2-853 Requisites of verdicts. The verdict shall be written, signed by the foreman and read by the clerk to the jury, and the inquiry must be made whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagrees, the jury must be sent out again; but if no disagreement be expressed, and neither party requires the jury to be polled, the verdict is complete and the jury discharged from the case. If, however, the verdict be defective in form only, the same may, with the assent of the jury before they are discharged, be corrected by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-854 General and special verdict. The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is that by which they pronounce generally upon all or any of the issues, either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant. A special verdict is that by which the jury finds facts only. It must present the facts as

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

established by the evidence, and not the evidence to prove them; and they must be so presented as that nothing remains to the Court but to draw from them conclusions of law. [TCR 86-109]

2-855 Special verdict and interrogatories.

1. Special verdicts. The Court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event, the Court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use other method of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The Court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the Court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives his/her right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires, he/she demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand, the Court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.
2. General verdict accompanied by answer to interrogatories. The Court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The Court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are consistent with each other, judgment shall be entered thereon, but, when the answers to one or more interrogatories is inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment may be entered pursuant to Section 2-1007 in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or the Court may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment shall not be entered, but the Court shall return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or shall order a new trial. [TCR 86-109]

2-856 Jury must assess amount of recovery. When, by the verdict either party is entitled to recover money of the adverse party, the jury, in their verdict, must assess the amount or recovery. [TCR 86-109]

2-857 Motion for a directed verdict and for judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

1. Motion for directed verdict: When made; effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefor. The order of the Court granting a motion for a directed verdict is effective without any assent of the jury.
2. Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. Whenever a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the Court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Not later than ten days after entry of judgment, a party who has moved for a directed verdict may move to have the verdict and any judgment entered thereon set aside and to have judgment entered in accordance with his/her motion for a directed verdict. A motion for a new trial may be joined with this motion, or a new trial may be prayed for in the alternative. If a verdict was returned, the Court may allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of the judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed. If no verdict was returned, the Court may direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed or may order a new trial.

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

3. Same: Conditional rulings on grant of motion.
 - A. If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, provided for in subsection (2) of this Section, is granted, the Court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the appellate Court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the appellee on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the appellate Court.
 - B. The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Section 2-1000 not later than ten days after entry of the judgment notwithstanding the verdict.
4. Same: Denial of motion. If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, on appeal, assert grounds entitling him to a new trial in the event the appellate Court concludes that the trial Court erred in denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. If the appellate Court reverses the judgment, nothing in this Section precludes it from determining that the appellee is entitled to a new trial, or from directing the trial Court to determine whether a new trial shall be granted. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

- | | | | |

| 2-901 | Seizure of person or property. | 2-905 | Security--proceedings against sureties. |
| 2-902 | Receivers appointed by Tribal Courts. | 2-906 | Execution. |
| 2-903 | Deposit in Court. | | |
| 2-904 | Process in behalf of and against persons not parties. | | |

2-901 Seizure of person or property. At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law of the Tribe, existing at the time the remedy is sought. [TCR 86-109]

2-902 Receivers appointed by Tribal Courts. An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the Court. The practice in the administration of estates by receivers or by other similar officers appointed by the Court shall be in accordance with Tribal probate law, or, if none, then the practice heretofore followed in the Courts of the United States or as provided in rules promulgated by the Tribal Court. In all other respects the action in which the appointment of a receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by this Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-903 Deposit in Court. In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of Court, may deposit with the Court all or any part of such sum or thing. Money paid into Court under this Section shall be deposited and withdrawn in accordance with Tribal law detailing accounting procedures for the Court clerk's office, and if there be none, then in accordance with the Tribal procedure for the administration and accounting of federal grant monies, upon order of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-904 Process in behalf of and against persons not parties. When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, he/she may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if he/she were a party; and, when obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, he/she is liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if he/she were a party. [TCR 86-109]

2-905 Security--proceedings against sureties. Whenever this Act or other Tribal law permits the giving of security by a party, and security is given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits him/herself to the jurisdiction of the Court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the Court as his/her agent upon whom any papers affecting his/her liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. His/her liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the Court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the Court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known. Any surety authorized to give a bond or stipulation or other undertaking in either the federal Courts or the state Courts within the state within which any portion of the Tribal jurisdiction lies, and any individual approved by the Court who resides within the jurisdiction of Tribe (except officers of the Court or elected Tribal officials) shall be eligible to give such bond or stipulation, or undertaking in the Tribal Court under this Act or other Tribal law unless otherwise prohibited by Tribal law. 2-906 Execution.

1. In General. Process to enforce a judgment for the payment of money shall be a writ of execution, unless the Court directs otherwise. In aid of the judgment or execution, the judgment creditor may obtain discovery from any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in this Act.
2. Against certain public officers. When a judgment otherwise authorized has been entered against a collector or other officer of revenue of the Tribe or against an officer, or employee, or agency of the Tribe in their official capacity; or if judgment is entered against an individual in his/her personal capacity who purported to act as an officer or employee of the Tribe, and the Court has given certificate of probable cause for his/her act wherein the Court determines that the individual had probable cause to believe that his/her action was authorized by the Tribe in his/her official capacity, execution shall not issue against the officer or his/her property but the final judgment shall be satisfied as may be provided by appropriation of such judgment (or such part thereof as the legislative body of the Tribe deems permissible considering the extent of available Tribal resources) from available Tribal funds. This Section is not intended, nor shall it be construed, as a waiver of sovereign immunity. [TCR 86-109]

| | | | |
|-------|--|-------|--|
| 2-911 | Injunction defined. | 2-919 | Security. |
| 2-912 | Cause for injunction--temporary restraining order. | 2-920 | Use of affidavits. |
| 2-913 | Temporary restraining order; notice; hearing; duration. | 2-921 | Injunction by defendant. |
| 2-914 | Temporary restraining order--Service. | 2-922 | Injunction is equitable. |
| 2-915 | Preliminary injunction. | 2-923 | Modification of preliminary injunction. |
| 2-916 | Preliminary injunction--criteria. | 2-924 | Modification of permanent injunction. |
| 2-917 | Form and scope of injunction or restraining order. | 2-925 | Injunctions tried to the Court. |
| 2-918 | Employer and employee; interpleader; constitutional cases. | 2-926 | Enforcement of restraining orders and injunctions. |

2-911 Injunction defined. The injunction provided for by this subpart is a command to refrain from or to do a particular act for the benefit of another. It may be the final judgment in an action, or may be allowed as a provisional remedy, and when so allowed, it shall be by order. [TCR 86-109]

2-912 Cause for injunction--temporary restraining order. When it appears, by the verified complaint or an affidavit that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded, and such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of some act, the commission or continuance of which, during the litigation, would produce injury to the plaintiff; or when, during litigation it appears that the defendant is doing, or threatens, or is about to do, or is procuring or suffering to be done, some act in violation of the plaintiff's rights respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual, a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction may be granted to restrain such act. And when, during the pendency of an action, it shall appear, by affidavit or proof, that the defendant threatens or is about to remove or dispose of his/her property with intent to defraud his/her creditors, or to render the judgment ineffectual, a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction may be granted to restrain such removal or disposition by statute. [TCR 86-109]

2-913 Temporary restraining order; notice; hearing; duration. A temporary restraining order may be granted after commencement of the action without written or oral notice to the adverse party or his/her attorney only if:

1. It clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or his/her attorney can be heard in opposition; and
2. The applicant's attorney certifies to the Court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting his/her claim that notice should not be required.

Temporary restraining orders should not be granted except in cases of extreme urgency. Every temporary restraining order granted without notice shall be endorsed with the date and hour of issuance; shall be filed forthwith in the clerk's office and entered of record; shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice; and shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed ten days, as the Court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the motion for a preliminary injunction shall be set down for hearing at the earliest possible time and take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing, the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction and, if he/she does not do so, the Court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On two day's notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the Court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification, and in that event, the Court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require. [TCR 86-109]

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2-914 Temporary restraining order--service. Temporary restraining orders shall be served in the same manner as provided for service of the summons and complaint. [TCR 86-109]

2-915 Preliminary injunction.

1. Notice. No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the adverse party. Notice may be in the form of an order to appear at a designated time and place and show cause why a proposed preliminary injunction should not be issued, or in such form as the Court shall direct. The burden of showing the criteria for issuance of a preliminary injunction remains with the moving party.
2. Consolidation of hearing with trial on merits. Before or after the commencement of the hearing of an application for a preliminary injunction, the Court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing of the application. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon an application for a preliminary injunction which would be admissible upon the trial on the merits becomes part of the record on the trial and need not be repeated upon the trial. This subsection shall be so construed and applied as to save the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury. [TCR 86-109]

2-916 Preliminary injunction--criteria. Unless a statute of the Tribe provides specifically for preliminary injunctive relief upon a showing of particular circumstances, no preliminary injunction shall be granted unless upon hearing the evidence presented by the parties the Court determines that:

1. There is a substantial likelihood that the moving party will eventually prevail on the merits of their claim for a permanent injunction or other relief; and
2. The moving party will suffer irreparable injury unless the preliminary injunction issues. Irreparable injury means an injury which cannot be adequately remedied by a judgment for money damages; and
3. The threatened injury to the moving party outweighs whatever damage or injury the proposed preliminary injunction may cause the opposing party; and
4. The preliminary injunction, if issued, would not be adverse to the public interest, and would not violate the public policy of the Tribe or the United States. [TCR 86-109]

2-917 Form and scope of injunction or restraining order. Every order granting an injunction and every restraining order shall set forth the reasons for its issuance; shall be specific in terms; shall describe in reasonable detail, and not by references to the complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and is binding only upon the parties to the action, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-918 Employer and employee; interpleader; constitutional cases. This Article does not modify any statute of the Tribe relating to temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunctions in actions affecting employer and employee; or relating to preliminary injunctions in actions of interpleader or in the nature of interpleader; or any other case where temporary restraining orders or preliminary injunctions are expressly authorized or prohibited upon certain express terms or condition. [TCR 86-109]

2-919 Security.

1. No restraining order or preliminary injunction shall issue except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the Court deems proper, for the payment of such costs, damages, and a reasonable attorney fee as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. No such security shall be required of the Tribe or of an officer or agency thereof.
2. The provisions of Section 2-905 apply to a surety upon a bond or undertaking under this Section.
3. A party enjoined by a preliminary injunction may, at any time before final judgment, upon reasonable notice to the party who has obtained the preliminary injunction, move the Court for additional security, and if it appears that the surety in the undertaking has removed from the Tribal jurisdiction, or is insufficient, the Court may vacate the preliminary injunction unless sufficient surety be given in a reasonable time upon such terms as may be just and equitable. [TCR 86-109]

2-920 Use of affidavits. On the hearing for a restraining order or preliminary injunction, each party may submit affidavits which shall be filed as a part of the record. [TCR 86-109]

2-921 Injunction by defendant. A defendant may obtain a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction upon filing his/her answer containing an appropriate counterclaim. He/she shall proceed in the manner hereinbefore prescribed. [TCR 86-109]

2-922 Injunction is equitable. Relief by way of a restraining order, preliminary, or permanent injunction is of equitable cognizance and shall be issued or refused in the sound discretion of the Court. Relief by way of injunction shall be denied where the moving party may be adequately compensated for his/her injuries in money damages. The Tribal Court shall not enjoin the enforcement of the Tribal tax laws or the collection of Tribal taxes except to the extent that such relief is specifically provided for in those tax laws. No injunction shall issue to control the discretion or action of a governmental officer or employee when such officer or employee had been delegated the authority to exercise his/her discretion in determining how to act upon the subject matter, and is acting or refusing to act in a manner not prohibited by Tribal law or the Indian Civil Rights Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-923 Modification of preliminary injunction. If the preliminary injunction be granted, the defendant, at any time before the trial, may apply, upon notice, to the Court to vacate or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint and affidavits upon which the injunction is granted, or upon affidavits on the part of the party enjoined, with or without answer. The order of the judge, allowing, dissolving or modifying an injunction, shall be returned to the office of the clerk of the Court and recorded. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2-924 Modification of permanent injunction. A final judgment containing a permanent injunction may be modified or dissolved by separate action upon a showing that the facts and circumstances have changed to the extent that the injunction is no longer just and equitable, or that the injunction is no longer needed to protect the rights of the parties. [TCR 86-109]

2-925 Injunctions tried to the Court. All injunctive actions shall be tried to the Court and not to a jury unless the Court orders an advisory jury pursuant to Section 2-804(3) of this Act.

2-926 Enforcement of restraining orders and injunctions. A restraining order or injunction granted by a judge may be enforced as the act of the Court. Disobedience of any injunction may be punished as a contempt, by the Court or any judge who might have granted it. An attachment may be issued by the Court or judge, upon being satisfied, by affidavit or testimony, of the breach of the injunction, against the party guilty of the same, who may be required to make immediate restitution to the party injured, and give further security to obey the injunction; or, in default thereof, he/she may be committed to close custody, until he/she shall fully comply with such requirements, or be otherwise legally discharged, or be punished by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each day of, or separate act of, contempt, to be paid into the Court fund, or by confinement in the Tribal jail for not longer than sixty days.

2-931 Order of delivery--procedure.

1. The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of specific personal property may claim the delivery of the property at the commencement of suit, as provided herein.
 - A. The complaint must allege facts which show (i) a description of the property claimed; (ii) that the plaintiff is the owner of the property or has a special ownership or interest therein, stating the facts in relation thereto, and that he/she is entitled to the immediate possession of the property; (iii) that the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant; (iv) the actual value of the property, provided that when several articles are claimed, the value of each shall be stated as nearly as practicable; (v) that the property was not taken in execution on any order or judgment against said plaintiff, or for the payment of any tax, fine or amercement assessed against him/her, or by virtue of an order of delivery issued under this Act, or any other mesne or final process issued against said plaintiff; or, if taken in execution or on any order or judgment against the plaintiff, that it is exempt by law from being so taken; and, (vi) the prayer for relief requests that the Court issue an order for the immediate delivery of the property.
 - B. The above allegations are verified by the party or, when the facts are within the personal knowledge of his/her agent or attorney and this is shown in the verification, by said agent or attorney.
 - C. A notice shall be issued by the clerk and served on the defendant with the summons which shall notify the defendant that an order of delivery of the property described in the complaint is sought and that the defendant may object to the issuance of such an order by a written objection which is filed with the clerk and delivered or mailed to the plaintiff's attorney within five days of the service of the summons. In the event that no written objection is filed within the five-day period, no hearing is necessary and the Court clerk shall issue the order of delivery. Should a written objection be filed within the five-day period specified, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for prompt hearing. At such hearing, the Court shall proceed to determine whether the order for prejudgment delivery of the property should issue according to the probable merit of the plaintiff's complaint. Provided, however, that no order of delivery may be issued until an undertaking has been executed pursuant to Section 2-933 of this Act.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

- D. Nothing in this Act contained shall prohibit a party from waiving his/her right to a hearing or from voluntarily delivering the goods to the party seeking them before the commencement of the proceedings or at anytime after institution thereof.
2. Where the notice that is required by subsection (1) of this Section cannot be served on the defendant but the judge finds that a reasonable effort to serve him/her was made and at the hearing the plaintiff has shown the probable truth of the allegations in his/her complaint, the Court may issue an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property. If an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property is issued without actual notice being given the defendant, the defendant may move to have said order dissolved and if he/she does not have possession of the property, for a return of the property. Notice of the right to move for return of said property shall be contained in the order for seizure and delivery of such property which shall be served upon the defendant or left in a conspicuous place where the property was seized, and the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, shall hold said property in such cases for three working days prior to delivery to the plaintiff in order to give the defendant a reasonable opportunity to move for the return of such property. Notice of said motion with the date of the hearing shall be served upon the attorney for the plaintiff in the action. The motion shall be heard promptly, and in any case within ten days after the date it is filed. The Court must grant the motion unless, at the hearing on defendant's motion, the plaintiff proves the probable truth of the allegations contained in his/her complaint. If said motion and notice is filed before the chief of the Tribal police or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, turns the property over to the plaintiff, the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, shall retain control of the property pending the hearing on the motion.
3. The Court may, on request of the plaintiff, order the defendant not to conceal, damage or destroy the property or a part thereof and not to remove the property or a part thereof from the Tribal jurisdiction pending the hearing on plaintiff's request for an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property, and said order may be served with the summons. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-932 Penalty for damage of property subject to order of delivery. Any person who willfully and knowingly damages property in which there exists a valid right to issuance of an order of delivery, or on which such order has been sought under the provisions of this Act, or who conceals it, with the intent to interfere with enforcement of the order, or who removes it from the jurisdiction of the Court with the intention of defeating enforcement of an order of delivery, or who willfully refuses to disclose its location to an officer charged with executing an order for its delivery, or, if such property is in his/her possession, willfully interferes with the officer charged with executing such writ, may be held in civil contempt of Court, and shall be guilty of an offense, and if convicted of such offense shall be subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) and imprisonment for a term of not more than six months, or both; and, in addition to such civil and criminal penalties, shall be liable to the plaintiff for double the amount of damage done to the property together with a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the Court, which damages and fee shall be deemed based on tortious conduct and enforced accordingly.

2-933 Undertaking in replevin. The order shall not be issued until there has been executed by one or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff, to be approved by the Court, an undertaking in not less than double the value of the property as stated in the complaint to the effect that the plaintiff shall duly prosecute the action, and pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him/her, including attorney's fees and, if the property be delivered to him/her, that he/she will return the same to the defendant if a return be adjudged; provided that where the Tribe or its agents or subdivisions is party plaintiff, an undertaking in replevin shall not be required of the plaintiff, but a writ shall issue upon complaint duly filed as provided by law. The undertaking shall be filed with the clerk of the Court, and shall be subject to the provisions of Section 2-905 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-934 Replevin Bond--value. On application of either party which is made at the time of executing the replevin bond or the redelivery bond, or at a later date with notice to the adverse party, the Court may hold a hearing to determine the value of the property which the plaintiff seeks to replevy. If the value as determined by the Court is different from that stated in the complaint, the value as determined by the Court shall control for the purpose of Sections 2-933 and 2-938 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-935 Order of delivery. The order for the delivery of the property to the plaintiff shall be addressed and delivered to the chief of the Tribal police or to the Bureau of Indian Affairs police. It shall state the names of the parties, the Court in which the action is brought, and command the chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police to take the property, describing it, and deliver it to the plaintiff as prescribed in this Act, and to make return of the order on a day to be named therein. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-936 Order returnable. The return day of the order of delivery, when issued at the commencement of the suit, shall be the same as that of the summons; when issued afterwards, it shall be ten days after it is issued. [TCR 86-109]

2-937 Execution of order. The chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police, shall execute the order by taking the property therein mentioned. He/she shall also deliver a copy of the order to the person charged with the unlawful detainer of the property, or leave such copy at his/her usual place of residence, or at the place such property was seized. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-938 Re-delivery on bond. If, within three working days after service of the copy of the order, there is executed by one or more sufficient sureties of the defendant, to be approved by the Court or the chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police, an undertaking to the plaintiff, in not less than double the amount of the value of the property as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, to the effect that the defendant will deliver the property to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and will pay all costs and damages that may be awarded against him/her, the chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police shall return the property to the defendant. If such undertaking be not given within three working days after service of the order, the Chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police shall deliver the property to the plaintiff. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-939 Exception to sureties.

2-940 Proceedings on failure to prosecute action. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and judgment rendered against him/her, or his/her action be dismissed, or if he/she otherwise fails to prosecute his/her action to final judgment, the Court shall, on application of the defendant or his/her attorney, proceed to inquire into the right of property, and right of possession of the defendant to the property taken. [TCR 86-109]

2-941 Judgment--damages--attorney fees. In an action to recover the possession of personal property, judgment for the plaintiff may be for the possession, or for the recovery of possession, or the value thereof in case a delivery cannot be had, and of damages for the detention. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and the defendant claim a return thereof, judgment for the defendant may be for a return of the property, or the value thereof in case a return cannot be had, and damages for taking and withholding the same. The judgment rendered in favor of the prevailing party in such action may include a reasonable attorney fee to be set by the Court, to be taxed and collected as costs. [TCR 86-109]

2-942 Officer may break into building. The chief of the Tribal police or other law enforcement officer, in the execution of the order of delivery issued by the Tribal Court, may break open any building or enclosure in which the property claimed, or any part thereof, is concealed, upon probable cause to believe that the property is concealed therein, but not until he/she has been refused entrance into said building or enclosure and the delivery of the property, after having demanded the same, or if no person having charge thereof is present. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-943 Compelling delivery by attachment. In an action to recover the possession of specific personal property, the Court may for good cause shown, before or after judgment, compel the delivery of the property to the officer or party entitled thereto by attachment, and may examine either party as to the possession or control of the property. Such authority shall only be exercised in aid of the foregoing provisions of this subpart. [TCR 86-109]

2-944 Improper issue of order of delivery. Any order for the delivery of property issued under this subpart without the affidavit and undertaking required, shall be set aside and the plaintiff shall be liable in damages to the party injured. [TCR 86-109]

2-945 Joinder of cause of action for debt--stay of judgment. In any action for replevin in the Tribal Court, it shall be permissible for the plaintiff to join with the claim in replevin, a claim founded on debt claimed to be owing to the plaintiff if the debt shall be secured by a lien upon the property sought to be recovered in the claim in replevin. In such cases, the execution of the judgment for debt shall be stayed pending the sale of the property and the determination of the amount of debt remaining unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale thereto. | 2-954 | Order of attachment. | 2-959 | Re-delivery on bond. |
| 2-955 | When returnable. | | |

2-951 Grounds for attachment. The plaintiff in a civil action for the recovery of money may, at or after the commencement thereof, have an attachment against the property of the defendant, and upon proof of any of the following grounds:

1. When the defendant, or one of several defendants, is a foreign corporation, or a nonresident of the Tribal jurisdiction (but no order of attachment shall be issued on this clause for any claim other than a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment or decree, unless the claim arose wholly within the Tribal jurisdiction); or
2. When the defendant, or one of several defendants, has absconded with intention to defraud his/her creditors; or
3. Has left the Tribal jurisdiction to avoid the service of summons; or
4. So conceals him/herself that a summons cannot be served upon him/her; or
5. Is about to remove his/her property, or a part thereof, out of the jurisdiction of the Court with the intent to defraud his/her creditors; or
6. Is about to convert his/her property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his/her creditors; or
7. Has property or rights in action, which he/she conceals; or
8. Has assigned, removed or disposed of, or is about to dispose of, his/her property, or a part thereof, with the intent to defraud, hinder or delay his/her creditors; or
9. Fraudulently contracted the debt, or fraudulently incurred the liability or obligations for which the suit has been brought; or
10. Where the damages for which the action is brought are for injuries arising from the commission of a criminal offense; or
11. When the debtor has failed to pay the price or value of any article or thing delivered, which by contract he/she was bound to pay upon delivery; or
12. When the action is brought by the Tribe, or its officers, agents, or political agencies or subdivisions for the purpose of collection of any Tribal tax, levy, charge, fee, assessment, rental, or debt arising in contract or by statute and owed to the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-952 Attachment affidavit. An order of attachment may be issued by the Court when:

1. There is filed in the office of the Court clerk a civil complaint stating a claim for relief and an application that the Court issue an order of attachment which states facts which show:
 - A. The nature of the plaintiff's claim;
 - B. That it is just;
 - C. The amount which the affiant believes the plaintiff ought to recover; and,

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

- D. The existence of some of the grounds for an attachment enumerated in Section 2-951 of this subpart.
2. The application must be verified by the plaintiff, or, where his/her agent or attorney has personal knowledge of the facts, by said agent or attorney.
 3. The defendant has been served with a notice, issued by the clerk, which shall notify the defendant that an order of attachment of property is requested and that he/she may object to the issuance of such an order by a written objection which is filed with the Court clerk and mailed or delivered to the plaintiff's attorney within five days of the receipt of the notice. A copy of plaintiff's application shall be attached to and served with the notice, and the notice and application may be served with the summons in the action.
 4. If no written objection is filed within the five day period, no hearing is necessary and the clerk may issue the order of attachment. If a written objection is filed within the five day period, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for a prompt hearing with notice to the adverse party. If the plaintiff proves the probable merit of his/her cause and the truth of the matters asserted in his/her application for an order of attachment, the Court may issue the order of attachment. Provided, however, before an order of attachment is issued by either the Court or the clerk, the plaintiff has executed an undertaking pursuant to Section 2-953 of this Act. The Tribe and its agents shall not be required to execute an undertaking.
 5. If the Court finds that the defendant cannot be given notice as provided herein, although a reasonable effort was made to notify him/her, but at the hearing the plaintiff proves the probable merit of his/her claim and the truth of the matters asserted in his/her application, the Court may issue the order of attachment. The defendant may subsequently move to have the attachment vacated as provided in Section 2-991.19 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-953 Attachment bonds. The attachment bond for the benefit of the party whose property is attached shall be in such form and in such amount, not less than double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, as the Court shall direct, and shall guarantee payment of all damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees incurred as a result of a wrongful attachment. No bond shall be required of the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-954 Order of attachment. The order of attachment shall be directed and delivered to the chief of the Tribal police. It shall require him/her to attach the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, stocks, rights, credit, moneys and effects of the defendant within the Tribal jurisdiction not exempt by law from being applied to the payment of the plaintiff's claim, or so much thereof as will satisfy the plaintiff's claim, to be stated in the order as in the affidavit, and the probable cost of the action not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00). [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-955 When returnable. The return day of the order of attachment when issued at the commencement of the action, shall be the same as that of the summons, and otherwise within twenty days of the date of issuance. [TCR 86-109]

2-956 Order of execution. Where there are several orders of attachment against the defendant, they shall be executed in the order in which they are received by the chief of the Tribal police. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-957 Execution of attachment order. The order of attachment shall be executed by the chief of the Tribal police without delay. He/she shall go to the place within the Tribal jurisdiction where the defendant's property may be found, and declare that, by virtue of said order, he/she attaches said property at the suit of the plaintiff; and the officer shall make a true inventory and appraisal of all the property attached, which shall be signed by the officer and returned with the order, leaving a copy of said inventory with the person or in the place from which the property was seized. 2. When the property attached is real property, third parties shall not be affected until a copy of the attachment order and the legal description of the real property attached shall be filed and placed of record in the land tract book maintained by the Court clerk. [TCR 86-109]

2-959 Re-delivery on bond. The chief of the Tribal police shall re-deliver the property to the person in whose possession it was found, upon the execution by such person, in the presence of the chief of the Tribal police, an undertaking to the plaintiff, with one or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that the parties to the same are bound, in double the appraised value thereof, that the property, or its appraised value in money, shall be forthcoming to answer the judgment of the Court in the action. | 2-963 | Service upon garnishee; notice; hearing. | | | |

2-961 Garnishment in aid of execution; when issued; procedure; court order; continuing lien; when invalid.

1. In all cases when a judgment has been entered by the Court, the judgment creditor or his or her agent or attorney may file an affidavit setting forth the amount due on the judgment, interest, and costs with the clerk and that he/she has good reason to and does believe that any person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, naming him, her, or it, has property of and is indebted to the judgment debtor. Upon the filing of said affidavit, the clerk shall issue a summons which shall set forth the amount due on the judgment, interest, and costs as shown in the affidavit and require such person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, as garnishee, to answer written interrogatories to be furnished by the judgment creditor with his/her affidavit and to be attached to such summons. The summons shall be returnable within ten days from the date of its issuance and shall require the garnishee to answer the attached interrogatories within ten days from the date of service upon him/her.
2. Except when wages are involved, the garnishee shall hold the property of every description and the credits, as defined in this Subpart D, of the judgment debtor in his/her possession or under his/her control at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories until the further order of the Court. If the only property in the possession or under the control of the garnishee at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories is credits of the judgment debtor and the amount of such credits is not in dispute by the garnishee, then such garnishee shall only hold the credits of the judgment debtor in his/her possession or under his/her control at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories to the extent of the amount of the judgment, interest, and costs set forth in the summons until further order of the Court. When wages are involved, the garnishee shall pay to the employee-judgment debtor the amount of earnings exempted from garnishment by Section 2-965(2), and any earnings remaining after such payment shall be retained by the garnishee until further order of the Court.
3. A garnishee holding only credits of the judgment debtor may pay the money owing to the judgment debtor by him into Court. He shall be discharged from liability to the judgment debtor for any money so paid not exceeding the judgment creditor's claim.
4. A garnishee shall not be subjected to costs beyond those caused by his resistance of the claim against him; and if he discloses the property under his control, or the true amount owing by him, and delivers or pays the same according to the order of the Court, he shall be allowed his costs.
5. If it appears from the answer of the garnishee that the judgment debtor is an employee of the garnishee, that the garnishee otherwise owed earnings to the judgment debtor when the garnishment summons was served, or that earnings would be owed within sixty days thereafter and there is not a successful written objection to the summons or interrogatories, on application by the judgment

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

- creditor, the Court shall order that the nonexempt earnings, if any, withheld by the garnishee after service of the summons be transferred to the Court for delivery to the judgment creditor who is entitled to such earnings.
6. Except for garnishments in support of a person, the payments may be made payable to the judgment creditor or assignee and shall be forwarded to the issuing court to record the judgment payment prior to the Court delivering the payment to the judgment creditor or assignee. The Court shall, upon application of the judgment creditor, further order that the garnishment is a continuing lien against the nonexempt earnings of the judgment debtor. An order of continuing lien on nonexempt earnings entered pursuant to this Section shall require the garnishee to continue to withhold the nonexempt earnings of the judgment debtor for as long as the continuing lien remains in effect.
 7. Beginning with the pay period during which the summons was served and while the continuing lien remains in effect, the garnishee shall deliver the nonexempt earnings to the Court for each pay period or on a monthly basis if the garnishee so desires and shall deliver to the judgment debtor his or her exempt earnings for each pay period.
 8. A continuing lien ordered pursuant to this Section shall be invalid and shall have no force and effect upon the occurrence of any of the following:
 - A. The underlying judgment is satisfied in full or vacated or expires;
 - B. The judgment debtor leaves the garnishee's employ for more than sixty days;
 - C. The judgment creditor releases the garnishment;
 - D. The proceedings are stayed by a court of competent jurisdiction, including the United States Bankruptcy Court;
 - E. The judgment debtor has not earned any nonexempt earnings for at least sixty days; or
 - F. The Court orders that the garnishment be quashed.
 9. "Credit" as used herein shall mean any money of the judgment debtor held by the garnishee or any liquidated and undisputed amount of money owed by the garnishee to the judgment debtor.
[TCR 11-26]

2-962 Priority of garnishments and liens.

1. To determine priority, garnishments and liens shall rank according to time of service.
2. Garnishments, liens, and wage assignments which are not for the support of a person shall be inferior to wage assignments for the support of a person. Garnishments, which are not for the support of a person and liens, shall be inferior to garnishments for the support of a person.
3. Only one order of continuing lien against earnings due the judgment debtor shall be in effect at one time. If an employee's wages are already being garnished pursuant to a continuing lien at the time of service of a garnishment upon an employer, the answer to garnishment interrogatories shall include such information along with the date of termination of such continuing lien and the title of the case from which such garnishment is issued. Except as provided in subsection 2 of this Section, a continuing lien obtained pursuant to this Section shall have priority over any subsequent garnishment or wage assignment. [TCR 11-26]

2-963 Service upon garnishee; notice; hearing.

1. The summons, interrogatories and order of garnishment shall be served upon the garnishee in the manner provided for service of a summons in a civil action.
2. The judgment creditor or his or her agent or attorney shall send to the judgment debtor by certified mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor a copy of the summons, interrogatories and order of garnishment. Judgment creditor shall include with the summons a notice to the judgment debtor regarding the exemptions from garnishment and the judgment debtor's right to have a hearing to determine whether any exemptions apply to the proposed garnishment.

3. If the judgment debtor in a garnishment proceeding requests a hearing on exemptions, the Court shall grant the hearing within ten days of the request.

2-964 Answer; interrogatories; response; objections; contempt; hearing.

1. The garnishee shall answer, under oath, all the interrogatories put to him touching the property of every description and credits of the defendant in his possession or under his control at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories, and he shall disclose truly the amount owing by him to the defendant, whether due or not, and, in case of a corporation, any stock therein held by or for the benefit of the defendant, at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories.
2. A person who fails to respond or object to a summons and garnishment interrogatories served in accordance with this Subpart or make payment in accordance with this Subpart shall be subject to an action for contempt of Court. Such person, if found in contempt, shall be liable in the full amount of wages or credits of the judgment debtor held by them up to the full amount of the judgment, or 10% of the judgment, whichever is greater, plus judgment creditor's attorney fees and costs to bring the contempt action.
3. In lieu of responding to the garnishment interrogatories, a garnishee may file an objection(s) to the garnishment interrogatories within the time provided for the response thereto. The judgment creditor, the judgment debtor, or the garnishee may request a hearing with the Court to determine the validity of the asserted objections. The garnishee shall have the burden of proving the validity of its objections. The Court may award attorney fees and costs should the garnishee's objections be overruled.
4. After receipt of the garnishee's answer to garnishment interrogatories, the judgment creditor may request a hearing to determine the completeness and/or truthfulness of the garnishee's responses. The judgment creditor shall have the burden of proving that garnishee's responses to interrogatories are incomplete and/or untruthful. Should the garnishee's responses be upheld, the Court may award attorney fees and costs to the garnishee. The Court may combine a hearing under this subsection with a hearing requested pursuant to subsection 3 of this Section.
5. In its capacity as an employer, the Tribe, its officers and managers shall comply with the requirements of this Subpart. However, the Tribe shall not be subject to any fine or fee provided for in this Subpart. [TCR 11-26]

2-965 Exemptions from garnishment.

1. Credits held by a garnishee shall not be subject to execution where held in an account that enjoys any tax-exempt status under federal law for the purpose of providing for the judgment debtor's retirement from employment. All other credits held by a garnishee shall be fully subject to execution.
2. Judgment debtor's wages held or owed by a garnishee shall be exempt from execution up to 75% of the total wages owed or held. In determining the total wages under this subsection, amounts subject to a prior or subsequent order or garnishment in support of a minor child shall not be included. [TCR 11-26]

2-992.1 Appointment of receiver. A receiver may be appointed by the appellate Court, the Tribal Court, or any judge of either:

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property, or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his/her claim, or between partners or others jointly owning an interest in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff, or of any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund, or the proceeds thereof, is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.
2. In any action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his/her mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, where it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured, or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed, and that the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.
3. After judgment, to carry the judgment into effect.
4. After judgment, to dispose of the property according to the judgment, or to preserve it during the pendency of an appeal, or in proceeding in aid of execution, when an execution has been returned unsatisfied, or when the judgment debtor refuses to apply his/her property in satisfaction of the judgment.
5. In the cases provided in this Act, and by special statutes, when a corporation has been dissolved, or is insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights.
6. In all other cases where receivers should be appointed to protect the property and rights of the parties thereto in dispute by the usages of the Court in equity. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-992.2 Persons ineligible. No party, or attorney, or person so interested in an action shall be appointed receiver therein except by consent of all parties thereto. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.3 Oath and bond. Before entering upon his/her duties, the receiver must be sworn to perform them faithfully, and with one or more sureties, approved by the Court, execute an undertaking to such person and in such sum as the Court shall direct, to the effect that he/she will faithfully discharge the duties of receiver in the action and obey the orders of the Court therein. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.4 Powers of receiver. The receiver has, under the control of the Court, power to bring and defend actions in his/her own name, as receiver; to take and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, to collect debts, to compound for and compromise the same, to make transfers, and generally to do such act respecting the property as the Courts may authorize. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2-992.5 Investment of funds. Funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest, by order of the Court; but no such order shall be made, except upon the consent of all the parties to the action, or except by order of the Court when the principal and interest earned thereon are guaranteed by the federal government and may be withdrawn within a reasonable time. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.6 Disposition of property litigated.

1. When it is admitted, by the pleadings or oral or written examination of a person, that he/she has in his/her possession or under his/her control any non-exempt money or other thing capable of delivery, which is held by him/her as trustee for a party, or which belongs or is due to a party, the Court may order the same to be deposited in Court or delivered to such party, with or without security, subject to the further direction of the Court.
2. Any person abiding by an order of the Court in such cases and paying or delivering the money or other property subject to said order into Court, shall not thereafter be liable to the party for whom he/she held as trustee, or to whom the money or property belonged or was due, in any civil action for the collection or return of the property or money delivered or paid into Court.
3. Such order may be made by ordering the party to procure the deposit or payment into Court of the property, which order may be enforced by contempt, or the Court, upon proper application, may order the person holding said property to be served with summons and brought into the action as a special defendant for the sole purpose of determining the nature and amount of property in his/her possession subject to payment into Court under this Section, and ordering said person to pay or deliver such non-exempt property into Court. After such payment has been made, the person shall be dismissed from the action.
4. In cases where judgment has been obtained against the party whose property or money is to be paid into Court, it is not necessary to formally appoint a receiver for the money or property paid into Court under this Section, but the Court clerk shall act as receiver, as an aid to the enforcement of judgment, and shall pay such money or deliver such property over to the person entitled thereto in conformity with the order of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.7 Punishment for disobedience of Court. Whenever, in the exercise of its authority, the Court shall have ordered the deposit or delivery of money or other thing, and the order is disobeyed, the Court, besides punishing the disobedience as for contempt, may make an order requiring the chief of the Tribal police to take the money, or thing, and deposit or deliver it, in conformity with the direction of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-992.8 Vacation of appointment by appellate Court. In all cases in the appellate Court in which a receiver has been appointed, or refused, by any justice of the appellate Court, the party aggrieved may within ten days thereafter have the right to file a motion to vacate the order refusing or appointing such receiver, and hearing on such motion may be had before the appellate Court, if the same be in session, or before a quorum of the justices of said Court in vacation, at such time and place as the said Court or the justices thereof may determine, and pending the final determination of the cause, if the order was one of the appointment of a receiver, the moving party shall have the right to give bond with good and sufficient sureties, and in such amount as may be fixed by order of the Court or a justice thereof, conditioned for the due prosecution of such case, and the payment of all costs and damages that may accrue to the Tribe, or any officer, or person by reason thereof, the authority of any such receiver shall be suspended pending a final determination of such cause, and if such receiver shall have taken possession of any property in controversy in said action, the same shall be surrendered to the rightful owner thereof, upon the filing and approval of said bond. Process shall be served as provided in Section 2-993.5 of this subpart upon all defendants, whether named as defendants at the time of the commencement of the action or subsequently added, and a defendant may answer as provided in Section 2-993.6 of this subpart. The Court meanwhile may order such distribution of a deposit as the facts warrant.

3. Filing. In addition to filing the complaint with the Court, the plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk at least one copy thereof for the use of the defendants and additional copies at the request of the clerk or of a defendant. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.5 Process in eminent domain.

1. Notice; delivery. Upon the filing of the complaint the plaintiff shall forthwith deliver to the clerk joint or several notices directed to the defendants names or designated in the complaint. Additional notices directed to defendants subsequently added shall be so delivered. The delivery of the notice and its service have the same effect as the delivery and service of the summons.
2. Same; form. Each notice shall state the Court, the title of the action, the name of the defendant to whom it is directed, that the action is to condemn property, a description of his/her property sufficient for its identification, the interest to be taken, that the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney an answer within twenty days after the service of the notice, and that the failure so to serve an answer constitutes a consent to the taking and to the authority of the Court to proceed to hear the action and to fix the compensation. The notice shall conclude with the name of the plaintiff's attorney and an address where he/she may be served. The notice need contain a description of no other property than that to be taken from the defendants to whom it is directed.
3. Service of notice.
 - A. Personal service. Personal service of the notice shall be made in accordance with the rules for personal service of summons upon a defendant who resides within the United States or its territories or insular possessions and whose residence is known. A copy of the complaint may, but need not, be served.
 - B. Service by publication. Upon the filing of a certificate of the plaintiff's attorney stating that he/she believes a defendant cannot be personally served, because after diligent inquiry his/her place of residence cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff or, if ascertained, that it is beyond the territorial limits of personal service as provided in this Section, service of the notice shall be made on that defendant by publication in a newspaper published in the county where the property is located, or if there is no such newspaper, then in a newspaper having a general circulation where the property is located, once a week for not less than three successive weeks. Prior to the last publication, a copy of the notice shall also be mailed to a defendant who cannot be personally served as provided in this Section but whose place of residence is then known. Unknown owners may be served by publication in a like manner by a notice addressed to "Unknown Owners."
 - C. When publication service complete. Service by publication is complete upon the date of the last publication. Proof of publication and mailing shall be made by certificate of the plaintiff's attorney, to which shall be attached a printed copy of the published notice with the name and dates of the newspaper marked thereon.
4. Return; amendment. Proof of service of the notice shall be made and amendment of the notice or proof of its service allowed in the manner provided for the return and amendment of the summons. [TCR 86-109]

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2-993.6 Appearance or answer. If a defendant has no objection or defense to the taking of his/her property, he/she shall serve a notice of appearance designating the property in which he/she claims to be interested. Thereafter he/she shall receive notice of all proceedings affecting it. If a defendant has any objection or defense to the taking of his/her property, he/she shall serve his/her answer within twenty days after the service of notice upon him/her. The answer shall identify the property in which he/she claims to have an interest, state the nature and extent of the interest claimed, and state all of his/her objections and defenses to the taking of his/her property. A defendant waives all defenses and objections not so presented, but at the trial of the issue of just compensation, whether or not he/she has previously appeared or answered, he/she may present evidence as the amount of the compensation to be paid for his/her property, and he/she may share in the distribution of the award. No other pleading or motion asserting any additional defense or objection shall be allowed. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.7 Amendment of pleadings. Without leave of Court, the plaintiff may amend the complaint at any time before the trial of the issue of compensation and as many times as desired, but no amendment shall be made which will result in a dismissal forbidden by Section 2-993.9 of this subpart. The plaintiff need not serve a copy of an amendment, but shall serve notice of the filing, as provided in Section 2-331 (2) of this Act, upon any party affected thereby who has appeared and, in the manner provided in Section 2-993.9 of this subpart, upon any party affected thereby who has not appeared. The plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk of the Court for the use of the defendants at least one copy of each amendment, and he/she shall furnish additional copies on the request of the clerk or of a defendant. Within the time allowed by Section 2-993.6 of this subpart, a defendant may serve his/her answer to the amended pleading, in the form and manner and with the same effect as therein provided. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.8 Substitution of parties. If a defendant dies or becomes incompetent or transfers his/her interest after his/her joinder, the Court may order substitution of the proper party upon motion and notice of hearing. If the motion and notice of hearing are to be served upon a person not already a party, service shall be made as provided in Section 2-993.5(3). [TCR 86-109]

2-993.9 Dismissal of action.

1. As of right. If no hearing has begun to determine the compensation to be paid for a piece of property and the plaintiff has not acquired the title or a lesser interest in the property or taken possession thereof, the plaintiff may dismiss the action as to that property, without an order of the Court, by filing a notice of dismissal setting forth a brief description of the property as to which the action is dismissed.
2. By stipulation. Before the entry of any judgment vesting the plaintiff with title or a lesser interest in or possession of property, the action may be dismissed in whole or in part, without an order of the Court, as to any property by filing a stipulation of dismissal by the plaintiff and the defendant affected thereby; and, if the parties so stipulate, the Court may vacate any judgment that has been entered.
3. By order of the Court. At any time before compensation for a piece of property has been determined and paid and after motion and hearing, the Court may dismiss the action as to that property, except that it shall not dismiss the action as to any part of the property of which the plaintiff has taken possession or in which the plaintiff has taken title or a lesser interest so taken, or, if the possession, title, or interest in such property is to be returned to the defendant upon dismissal by motion of the plaintiff, the Court may also award reasonable actual damages incurred, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1000.00) in excess of fair rental value of the premises during the period in which the plaintiff held possession or title against the plaintiff notwithstanding the doctrine of sovereign immunity. The Court at any time may drop a defendant unnecessarily or improperly joined.

4. Effect. Except as otherwise provided in the notice, or stipulation of dismissal, or order of the Court, any dismissal is without prejudice. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.10 Deposit and its distribution. The plaintiff shall deposit with the Court any money required by law as a condition to the exercise of the power of eminent domain; and, although not so required, may make a deposit when permitted by statute. In such cases the Court and attorneys shall expedite the proceedings for the distribution of the money so deposited and for the ascertainment and payment of just compensation. If the compensation finally awarded to any defendant exceeds the amount which has been paid to him/her on distribution of the deposit, the Court shall enter judgment against him/her and in favor of the plaintiff for the overpayment. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.11 Costs. Costs shall normally be paid by the plaintiff in condemnation actions unless the Court, in its discretion, determines that a defendant should pay his/her own costs, which may include a reasonable portion of plaintiff's costs because of inequitable conduct or other statutory reason. 2-1001 Judgment; costs.

1. Definition; form. "Judgment" as used in this Article includes a final determination of the rights of the parties in an action, including those determined by a decree and by any order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a master, or the record of prior proceedings.
2. Judgment upon multiple claims or involving multiple parties. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, or when multiple parties are involved, the Court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the claims, or rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.
3. Demand for judgment; default. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in the party's pleadings.
4. Costs. Except when express provision therefor is made either in a statute of the Tribe or in this Article, costs shall be allowed as of course to the prevailing party unless the Court otherwise directs; but costs, including attorney fees and statutory authorization for collection of damages or requirement for bonds or undertakings, against the Tribe, its officers and agencies shall be imposed only to the extent specifically permitted by Tribal law. A general statement in this Article that such are payable by a party or by the plaintiff or defendant is not authority to impose such costs, damages, or requirements upon the Tribe, its officers, and agencies. Costs may be taxed by the clerk on one day's notice. On motion served within ten days thereafter, the action of the clerk may be reviewed by the Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

5. Applied to probate proceedings. A judgment shall be considered a lawful debt in all proceedings held by the Department of the Interior or by the Tribal Court in the distribution of decedent's estates. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-1002 Default.

1. Entry. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk shall enter the party's default.
2. Judgment. Judgment by default may be entered as follows:
 - A. By the clerk. When the plaintiff's claim against a defendant is for a sum certain or for a sum which can by computation be made certain, the clerk upon request of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the defendant, if the defendant has been defaulted for failure to appear and if he/she is not an infant or incompetent person.
 - B. By the Court. In all other cases the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the Court therefor; but no judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative who has appeared therein. If the party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, the party (or, if appearing by representative, the party's representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least three days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the Court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take in account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the Court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when and as required by any statute of the Tribe.
3. Setting aside default. For good cause shown, the Court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment of default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Section 2-1009 (2).
4. Plaintiff, counterclaimants, cross-claimants. The provisions of this Section apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Section 2-1001 (3).
5. Judgment against the Tribe. No judgment by default may be entered against the Tribe, its officers, or agencies unless sixty days written notice has been served upon the chief executive officer and the Tribal legislative authority. If during such sixty day period the Tribe is without counsel, and the Tribe has submitted to the Bureau of Indian Affairs an attorney contract for approval, no default may be entered until thirty days after approval of the contract. During such period, the Tribe, its agencies, or officers shall be allowed to cure any default. No judgment by default shall be entered against the Tribe, its agencies, or officers in any case until the claimant establishes his/her claim or right to relief, including his/her authority to bring the suit, and his/her damages by evidence satisfactory to the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-1003 Offer of judgment. At any time more than ten days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him/her for the money or property or to the effect specified in his/her offer, with costs then accrued. If within ten days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the clerk shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one party to another has been determined by verdict or order or judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability, or both, remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than ten days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability. [TCR 86-109]

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1004 Judgment for specific acts--vesting title. If a judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver deeds or other documents or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the Court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the Court and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment or sequestration against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The Court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the Tribal jurisdiction, and the interest in said property at issue in the action is not held in trust by the United States as Indian lands, the Court in lieu of directing a conveyance of that interest may enter a judgment divesting the interest from any party and vesting it in others and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or judgment is for delivery or possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution or assistance upon application. [TCR 86-109]

2-1005 Summary judgment.

1. For claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of twenty days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in the party's favor upon all or any part thereof.
2. For defending party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in the party's favor as to all or any part thereof.
3. Motion and proceedings thereon. The motion shall be served at least ten days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be entered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.
4. Case not fully adjudicated on motion. If on motion under this Section judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the Court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

5. Form of affidavits; further testimony; defense required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The Court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this Section, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the adverse party's pleading, but the adverse party's response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this Section, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If the adverse party does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against the adverse party.
6. When affidavits are unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that the party cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify the party's opposition, the Court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.
7. Affidavits made in bad faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the Court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this Section are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the Court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused the other party to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-1006 Declaratory judgment. The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment in actions arising in equity, or through contract, or pursuant to any specific Tribal law authorizing a declaratory judgment, shall be in accordance with this Article, and the right to trial by jury may be demanded under the circumstances and in the manner provided in Section 2-804. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The Court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar. [TCR 86-109]

2-1007 Entry of judgment.

1. Subject to the provision of Section 2-1001 (2), the Court shall promptly approve the form of the judgment, and the clerk shall thereupon enter it:
 - A. Upon a general verdict of a jury, or upon a decision by the Court that a party shall recover only a sum certain or costs or that all relief shall be denied, the clerk, unless the Court otherwise orders, shall forthwith prepare, sign and enter the judgment without awaiting any direction by the Court;
 - B. Upon a decision by the Court granting other relief, or upon a special verdict or a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories the Court shall promptly approve the form of the judgment, and the clerk shall thereupon enter it.
2. Every judgment shall be set forth on a separate document. A judgment is effective only when so set forth and when entered in the civil docket book. Entry of the judgment shall not be delayed for the taxing of costs. Attorneys shall not submit forms of judgment except upon direction of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1008 New trials; amendments of judgments.

1. Grounds. A new trial is a re-examination in the same Court, of an issue of fact, or of law, or both and may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the following reasons:
 - A. Irregularity in the proceedings of the Court, jury, referee, or prevailing party, or any order of the Court or referee, or abuse of discretion, by which the party was prevented from having a fair trial; or
 - B. Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party; or
 - C. Accident or surprise, which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against; or
 - D. Excessive or inadequate damages, appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice; or
 - E. Error in the assessment of the amount of recovery, whether too large or too small, where the action is upon a contract, or for the injury or detention of property; or
 - F. That the verdict, report, or decision is not sustained by sufficient evidence, or is contrary to law; or
 - G. Newly-discovered evidence, material for the party applying, which he/she could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the trial; or
 - H. Error of law occurring at the trial, and objected to by the party making application; or
 - I. When, without fault of the complaining party, it becomes impossible to make a record sufficient for appeal.

On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the Court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions, and direct the entry of a new judgment.

2. Time for motion. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than ten days after the entry of the judgment, except that a motion based upon newly discovered evidence shall be made within one year from the date of the judgment.
3. Time for serving affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has ten days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding twenty days either by the Court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The Court may permit reply affidavits.
4. On initiative of Court. Not later than ten days after entry of judgment the Court of its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the Court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the Court shall specify in the order the grounds therefor.
5. Motion to alter or amend a judgment. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than ten days after entry of the judgment. [TCR 86-109]

2-1009 Relief from judgment or order.

1. Clerical mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the Court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the Court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the appeal is docketed in the appellate Court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the appellate Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2. Mistakes; inadvertence; excusable neglect; newly discovered evidence; fraud; etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the Court may relieve a party or a party's legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (A) mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; (B) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Section 2-1008 (2); (C) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (D) the judgment is void; (E) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment on which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (F) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (A), (B), and (C) not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken.

A motion under this subsection (2) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This Section does not limit the power of a Court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified as provided in Title 28, U.S.C., Section 1655, of the proceedings, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the Court. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review, are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in this Article or by an independent action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-1010 Harmless error. No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the Court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the Court inconsistent with substantial justice. The Court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties. [TCR 86-109]

2-1011 Stay of proceedings to enforce a judgment.

1. Automatic stay; exceptions—injunctions, receiverships, and patent accountings. Except as stated in this Article, no execution shall issue upon a judgment nor shall proceedings be taken for its enforcement until the expiration of ten days after its entry. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action, or a judgment or order directing an accounting, shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal. The provisions of subsection (3) of this section govern the suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting of an injunction during the pendency of an appeal.
2. Stay on motion for new trial or for judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the Court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to Section 2-1008, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant Section 2-1009, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to Section 2-857, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Section 2-851(2).
3. Injunction pending appeal. When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the Court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

4. Stay upon appeal. When an appeal is taken, the appellant by giving a supercedeas bond may obtain a stay subject to the exceptions contained in subsection (1) of this Section. The bond may be given at or after the time of filing the notice of appeal or of procuring the order allowing the appeal, as the case may be. The stay is effective when the supercedeas bond is approved by the Court.
5. Stay in favor of the Tribe or agency thereof. When an appeal is taken by the Tribe or an officer or agency thereof or by direction of any department of the government of the Tribe, the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.
6. Power of the appellate Court not limited. The provisions in this Section do not limit any power of the appellate Court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.
7. Stay of judgment as to multiple claims or multiple parties. When the Court has ordered a final judgment under the conditions stated in Section 2-1001(2), the Court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1012 Disability of a judge. If a trial or hearing has been commenced and the judge is unable to proceed, any other judge may proceed with it upon certifying familiarity with the record and determining that the proceedings in the case may be completed without prejudice to the parties. In a hearing or trial without a jury, the successor judge shall at the request of a party recall any witness whose testimony is material and disputed and who is available to testify again without undue burden. The successor judge may also recall any other witness. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-1013 Reserved. [TCR 86-109]

2-1014 Judgment against infant. It shall not be necessary to reserve in a judgment or order the right of a minor to show cause against it after his/her attaining full age; but in any case in which such reservation would be proper, the minor, within two years after arriving at the age of eighteen years, may show cause against such order or judgment. [TCR 86-109]

2-1015 Judgments as liens. Judgments of the Tribal Court and the Courts of the United States shall be liens on real estate of the judgment debtor within the Tribal jurisdiction from and after the time a certified copy of such judgment has been filed in the Court clerk's land tract records book. A five dollar ($5.00) fee shall be collected for each requested filing in the land tract records book. No judgment whether rendered by the Tribal Court or a Court of the United States shall be a lien on the estate of a judgment debtor until it has been filed in this manner. Execution shall be issued only by the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-1016 Discharge of money judgment liens. In the event of an appeal to the Tribal appellate Court from a money judgment, the lien of such judgment, and any lien by virtue of an attachment issued and levied in the action in which such judgment was rendered, shall cease upon the judgment debtor or debtor's depositing, with the Court clerk of the Tribal Court, cash sufficient to cover the whole amount of the judgment, including interest, costs and any attorney fees, together with costs and interest on the appeal, accompanied by a written statement, executed by the judgment debtor or debtors, that such deposit is made to discharge the lien of such judgment and any lien by virtue of an attachment issued and levied in the action, as provided for herein. It shall be the duty of the Court clerk, upon receipt of such a cash deposit and written statement, immediately to enter the same and the amount of cash received upon the civil appearance docket in the action, upon the judgment docket opposite the entry of such judgment, and upon the land tract records book if the judgment has been filed therein. It shall further be the duty of the Court clerk to deposit the cash so received in any action in a separate interest bearing official depository account and to hold the same pending final determination of the action, and, upon final determination of the action, to pay, or apply the same upon any judgment that might be rendered against the depositor or depositors, and to refund any balance in excess of any such judgment to the depositor or depositors, or, in the event the action be finally determined in favor of the depositor or depositors, to refund the whole amount thereof to the depositor or depositors. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1017 Additional case deposits. A judgment creditor may, at any time, upon reasonable notice to the judgment debtor or debtors, move the Court for the deposit of additional cash, and if it appears that the cash which has been deposited is insufficient to cover the whole amount of the judgment, including interest, costs and any attorney fees, together with costs and interest on the appeal, the Court shall order the deposit of additional cash. If the additional cash is not deposited within a reasonable time, which time shall be set by the Court, the judgment shall be revived and attachment may be issued thereon. [TCR 86-109]

2-1018 Reversal by appellate Court. In the event of a reversal of the judgment by the appellate Court, no money deposited to discharge the lien of such judgment shall be refunded by the Court clerk until final disposition of the action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1019 Interest on money judgments. All money judgments of the Tribal Court shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent simple interest per annum, except authorized judgments against the Tribe, its political subdivisions, and agents in their official capacity which judgments shall not bear interest unless such is specifically provided for, provided that when a rate of interest is specified in a contract, the rate therein shall apply to the judgment debt and be specified in the judgment if the rate does not exceed the lesser of any limitation imposed by Tribal law, or the law of the jurisdiction in which the contract was made, upon the amount of interest which may be charged. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1020 Exempt property. The following property shall be exempt, except as to enforcement of contractual liens or mortgages, from garnishment, attachment, execution and sale, and other process for the payment of principal and interest, costs, and attorney fees upon any judgment of the Tribal Court:

1. Three-fourths of the new wages earned per week by the person or an amount equivalent to forty times the federal minimum hourly wages per week, whichever is greater, except as may be specifically provided by law for child support payments.
2. One automobile of fair market value not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).
3. Tools, equipment, utensils, or books necessary to the conduct of the person's business but not including stock or inventory.
4. Actual trust or restricted title to any lands held in trust by the United States, or subject to restrictions against alienation imposed by the United States but not including leasehold and other possessory interests in such property.
5. Any dwelling used as the actual residence of the judgment debtor, including up to five acres of land upon which such dwelling is located whether such dwelling is owned or leased by the judgment debtor.
6. Household goods, furniture, wearing apparel, personal effects, but not including televisions, radios, phonographs, tape recorders, home computers, (not otherwise exempt) more than two firearms, works of art, and other recreational or luxury items.

8. All implements of husbandry used upon the homestead, not more than four cows with their immature offspring, two hogs with their immature offspring, ten chickens, and feed suitable and sufficient to maintain said livestock and fowls for a period of one year.
9. All ceremonial or religious items. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1020.1 Payment of judgment from individual Indian moneys. Whenever the Tribal Court shall have ordered payment of money damages to an injured party and the debtor refuses or neglects to make such payment within the time set for payment by the Court, or when an execution is returned showing no property found, and when the debtor has sufficient funds to his/her credit at any Bureau of Indian Affairs Agency office to pay all or part of such judgment, the clerk of the Tribal Court, upon request of the judgment creditor, shall certify the record of the superintendent of the agency, who shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior the record of the case and the amount of available funds. If the secretary shall so direct, the disbursing agent shall pay over to the judgment creditor the amount of the judgment, or such lesser amount as may be specified by the secretary from the account of the judgment debtor.

| 2-1021 | Definition. | 2-1025 | Stay of execution of foreign judgment. |
| 2-1022 | Filing and status of foreign judgments. | 2-1026 | Fees. |
| 2-1023 | Grounds for non-recognition. | 2-1027 | Optional procedure. |
| 2-1024 | Notice of filing. | | |

2-1021 Definition. In this Article, “foreign judgment” means any judgment, decree, or order of a Court of the United States, any Indian Tribe, or of any other Court which is entitled to comity or full faith and credit in the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-1022 Filing and status of foreign judgments. A copy of any foreign judgment authenticated in accordance with the applicable act of Congress or of the statutes of the Tribe may be filed in the office of the Court clerk. The clerk shall treat the foreign judgment in the same manner as a judgment of the Tribal Court. A judgment so filed has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of the Tribal Court and may be enforced or satisfied in like manner. Provided, however, that no such filed foreign judgment shall be a lien on real estate of the judgment debtor until a certified copy of the judgment so filed is also filed in the office of the Court clerk as provided by law in the land tract record book. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1023 Grounds for non-recognition.

1. A foreign judgment is not conclusive if:
 - A. The judgment was rendered under a system which does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law;
 - B. The foreign Court did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant; or
 - C. The foreign Court did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter.
2. A foreign judgment need not be recognized if:
 - A. The defendant in the proceedings in the foreign Court did not receive notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable him/her to defend;
 - B. The judgment was obtained by fraud;
 - C. The cause of action on which the judgment is based is repugnant to the public policy of the Tribe;
 - D. The judgment conflicts with another final and conclusive judgment;
 - E. The proceeding in the foreign Court was contrary to an agreement between the parties under which the dispute in question was to be settled other than by proceedings in that Court; or
 - F. In the case of jurisdiction based only on personal service, the foreign Court was a seriously inconvenient forum for the trial of action.
3. No foreign judgment in the nature of an eviction or action for forcible entry and detention or detention only, no matter how denominated, shall be entitled to comity or full faith and credit if either party to the underlying action is a member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska and the Tribal Court would have possessed concurrent jurisdiction over the underlying action. No such judgment shall be recognized or entitled to any precedential value in the Winnebago Tribal Court System. This provision shall become effective immediately upon its adoption and shall apply to any action for which no final judgment has been rendered and entered in the civil docket book by the Winnebago Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1024 Notice of filing.

1. At the time of the filing of the foreign judgment, the judgment creditor or his/her lawyer shall make and file with the clerk of the Court an affidavit setting forth the name and last known post office address of the judgment debtor, and of the judgment creditor.
2. Promptly upon the filing of the foreign judgment and the affidavit, the clerk shall mail notice of the filing of the foreign judgment to the judgment debtor at the address given and shall make a note of the mailing in the docket. The notice shall include the name and post office address of the judgment creditor and the judgment creditor's lawyer, if any. In addition, the judgment creditor may mail a notice of the filing of the judgment to the judgment debtor and may file proof of mailing with the clerk. Lack of notice of filing by the clerk shall not affect the enforcement proceedings if proof of mailing by the judgment creditor has been filed. [TCR 86-109]

2-1025 Stay of execution of foreign judgment.

1. If the judgment debtor shows the Tribal Court that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted, the Court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment until the appeal is concluded, or until the time for appeal expires, or until the stay of execution expires or is vacated, upon proof that the judgment debtor has furnished the security for the satisfaction of the judgment required by the law of the jurisdiction in which it was rendered.
2. If the judgment debtor shows the Tribal Court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of the Tribal Court would be stayed, the Court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment for an appropriate period, upon requiring the same security for satisfaction of the judgment which is required in the Tribal jurisdiction. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1026 Fees. Any person filing a foreign judgment shall pay to the Court clerk those fees now and hereafter prescribed by the statute or by authorized Court rule for the filing of an action in the Court. Fees for docketing, transcription, or other enforcement proceedings shall be the same as provided for judgment of the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1027 Optional procedure. The right of a judgment creditor to bring an action to enforce his/her judgment instead of proceedings under this subpart remains unimpaired. [TCR 86-109]

2-1031 Execution--defined. Executions shall be deemed process of the Court, and shall be issued by the clerk, and directed to the Chief of the Tribal Police. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1032 Kinds of executions. Executions are of three kinds:

1. Against the property of the judgment debtor.
2. For the delivery of possession of real or personal property, with damages for withholding the same, and costs.
3. Executions in special cases. [TCR 86-109]

2-1033 Property subject to levy. Lands, tenements, goods and chattels, not exempt by law shall be subject to the payment of debts, and shall be liable to be taken on execution and sold, as hereinafter provided. [TCR 86-109]

2-1034 Property bound after seizure. All real estate not bound by the lien of the judgment, as well as goods and chattels of the debtor, shall be bound from the time they shall be seized in an execution. [TCR 86-109]

2-1035 Execution must be issued within five years. If execution is not issued and filed as provided by this subpart within five years after the date of any judgment that now is or may hereafter be rendered, in the

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

Tribal Court or if five years have intervened between the date that the last execution on such judgment was filed and the date that writ of execution was filed, such judgment shall become unenforceable and of no effect and shall cease to operate as a lien on the real estate of the judgment debtor. Provided, that this Section shall not apply to judgments in favor of the Tribe, its subdivisions or agents. [TCR 86-109]

2-1036 Priority among property. The writ of execution against the property of the judgment debtor, issuing from the Tribal Court shall command the officer to whom it is directed, that of the goods and chattels of the debtor he/she cause to be made the money specified in the writ; and for want of goods and chattels, he/she cause the same non-trust interest in lands and tenements of the debtor; and the amount of the debt, damages and costs, for which the judgment is entered, shall be endorsed on the execution. [TCR 86-109]

2-1037 Priority among executions. When two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be sued out and when two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be delivered to the officer prior to the date of sale of this property, no preference shall be given to either of such writs; but if a sufficient sum of money be not made to satisfy all such executions; the amount made shall be distributed to the several creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective demands, provided that nothing therein contained shall be so construed as to affect any preferable lien which one or more of the judgments, on which execution issued, may have on the property of the judgment debtor. [TCR 86-109]

2-1038 Levy by priority. The officer to whom a writ of execution is delivered, shall proceed immediately to levy the same upon the goods and chattels of the debtor; but if no goods and chattels can be found, the officer shall endorse on the writ of execution, "no goods," and forthwith levy the writ of execution upon any interest in the lands and tenements of the debtor, which may be liable to satisfy the judgment; and if any of the interests in such lands and tenements of the debtor which may be liable shall be encumbered by mortgage or any other lien or liens, such lands and tenements may be levied upon and appraised and sold, subject to such lien or liens, which shall be stated in the appraisal. [TCR 86-109]

2-1039 Who makes levy. It shall be unlawful for anyone to levy an attachment or execution within the Tribal jurisdiction who is not a bonded Tribal or federal police officer. [TCR 86-109]

2-1040 When levy void. Any attachment or execution issued to, or levied by anyone other than a bonded Tribal or federal police officer shall be void and of no effect and the Court clerk or other person issuing same, or officer or other person issuing same, as the case may be, together with their bondsmen shall be liable for any damage caused thereby. [TCR 86-109]

2-1041 Penalty for unlawful levy. Anyone violating the provisions of Section 2-1039 of this Article shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) or confinement in the Tribal jail not to exceed thirty days or both. [TCR 86-109]

2-1042 Levy on property claimed by third person. If the officer, by virtue of an execution issued from the Tribal Court, shall levy the same on any goods and chattels claimed by any person other than the defendant, or be requested by the plaintiff to levy on any such goods and chattels, the officer may require the plaintiff to give him/her an understanding with good and sufficient securities to pay all costs and damages that he/she may sustain by reason of the detention or sale of such property; and until such undertaking shall be given the officer may refuse to proceed as against such property. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1043 Re-delivery to defendant. In all cases where the Tribal police chief or other officer shall, by virtue of an execution, levy upon any goods and chattels which shall remain upon his/her hands unsold, for want of bidders, for the want of time to advertise and sell, or any other reasonable cause, the officer may, for his/her own security, take of the defendant an undertaking, with security, in as such sum as he/she may deem sufficient, to the effect that the said property shall be delivered to the officer holding an execution for the sale of the same, at the time and place appointed by said officer, either by notice, given in writing, to said defendant in execution, or by advertisement published in a legal newspaper, naming therein the day and place of sale. If the defendant shall fail to deliver the goods and chattels at the same time and place mentioned in the notice to him/her, given, or pay to the officer holding the execution the full value of such goods and chattels, or the amount of said debt and costs, the undertaking, given as aforesaid, may be proceeded on as in other cases. [TCR 86-109]

2-1044 Notice of sale of chattels. The officer who levies upon goods and chattels, by virtue of an execution issued by the Tribal Court, before he/she proceeds to sell the same shall cause public notice to be given of the time and place of sale, for at least ten days before the day of sale. The notice shall be given by advertisement, published in some newspaper printed, or, in case no legal newspaper be published, by setting up advertisements in five public places in the reservation. Two advertisements shall be put up in the township where the sale is to be held; and where goods and chattels levied upon cannot be sold for want of bidders, the officer making such return shall annex to the execution a true and perfect inventory of such goods and chattels, and the plaintiff in such execution may thereupon sue out another writ of execution, directing the sale of the property levied upon as aforesaid; but such goods and chattels shall not be sold, unless the time and place of sale be advertised, as hereinbefore provided. [TCR 86-109]

2-1045 Further levy when property taken, insufficient. When any writ shall issue, directing the sale of property previously taken in execution, the officer issuing said writ shall, at the request of the person entitled to the benefit thereof, his/her agent or attorney, add thereto a command to the officer to whom such writ shall be directed, that if the property remaining in his/her hands not sold shall, in his/her opinion, be insufficient to satisfy the judgment, he/she shall levy the same upon lands and tenements, goods and chattels, or either, as the law shall permit, being the property of the judgment debtor, sufficient to satisfy the debt. [TCR 86-109]

2-1046 Filing and indexing of execution.

1. When a general execution issued and placed in the custody of the Tribal police chief for levy, a certified copy of such execution shall be filed in the office of the Court clerk and shall be indexed the same as judgment.
2. If a general or special execution is levied upon an interest lands and tenements, the Tribal police chief shall endorse on the face of the writ the legal description and shall have three disinterested persons who have taken an oath to impartially appraise the property so levied on, upon actual view; and such disinterested persons shall return to the officer their signed estimate of the real value of said property.
3. To extend a judgment beyond the initial or any subsequent statutory period, prior to the expiration of such period, a certified copy of a general execution thereon shall be filed and indexed in the same manner as judgments in the office of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1047 Waiver of appraisal. It is against the public policy of the Tribe to allow enforcement of execution upon realty without appraisal, and if the words "appraisal waived" or other words of similar import, shall be inserted in any deed, mortgages, bonds, notes, bill or written contract. They shall be of no effect whatsoever and an appraisal shall be ordered notwithstanding any contract to the contrary. [TCR 86-109]

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1048 Return of appraisal. The officer receiving such return of appraisal pursuant to Section 2-1046(2) of this Article shall forthwith deposit a copy thereof with the clerk of the Court and advertise and sell such property, agreeable to the provisions of this Article. [TCR 86-109]

2-1049 When lien restricted. If, upon such return, as aforesaid, it appear, by the inquisition, that two-thirds of the appraised value of said non-trust interest in lands and tenements so levied upon, is sufficient to satisfy the execution, with costs, the judgment on which such execution issued shall not operate as a lien on the residue of the debtor's estate, to the prejudice of any other judgment creditor; but no such property shall be sold for less than two-thirds of the value returned in the inquest; and nothing in this Section contained shall, in any way, extend to affect the sale of lands by the Tribe but all lands, the corporation or associations indebted to the Tribe, for any debt or taxes, or in any other manner, shall be sold without valuation for the discharge of such debt or taxes, agreeable to any laws in such cases made and provided. [TCR 86-109]

2-1050 Notice of sale of realty. Any non-trust interest in lands and tenements taken on execution shall not be sold until the officer causes public notice of the time and place of sale to be given by publication for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper and by putting up an advertisement upon the Courthouse door or other common bulletin board within a common area of the Courthouse and in five other public places in the reservation, two of which shall be in the township where such lands and tenements lie. Such sale shall not be held less than thirty days after the date of the first publication of the notice herein required. [TCR 86-109]

2-1051 Confirmation of sale. If the Court, upon return of any writ of execution, for the satisfaction of which lands or tenements have been sold, shall, after having carefully examined the proceedings of the officer be satisfied that the sale has, in all respects, been made in conformity with the provisions of this Article, the Court shall direct the clerk to make an entry on the journal that the Court is satisfied of the legality of such sale, and an order that the officer make to the purchaser a deed for such interest in lands and tenements; and the officer, on making such sale, shall deposit the purchase money with the clerk of the Court where the same shall remain until the Court shall have examined his/her proceedings as aforesaid, when such clerk of the Court shall pay the same of the person entitled thereto, agreeable to the order of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-1052 Police chief's deed. The chief of the Tribal police or other officer who, upon such writ or writs of execution, shall sell the said lands and tenements, or any part thereof, shall make to the purchaser as good and sufficient deed of conveyance of the land sold, as the person or persons against whom such writ or writs of execution were issued could have made of the same, at or any time after they became liable to the judgment. The deed shall be sufficient evidence of the legality of such sale, and the proceedings therein, until the contrary be proved, and shall vest the purchaser as good and perfect an estate in the premises therein mentioned as was vested in the party at, or after, the time when such lands and tenements became liable to the satisfaction of the judgment; and such deed of conveyance, to be made by the chief of Tribal police or other officer, shall recite the execution or executions, or the substance thereof, and the names of the parties, the amount and date of rendition of each judgment, by virtue whereof the said lands and tenements were sold as aforesaid, and shall be executed, acknowledged and recorded as is or may be provided by law, to perfect the conveyance of such interests in real estate in other cases. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1053 Advance of printer's fees. The officer who levies upon the goods and chattels, or lands and tenements, or who is charged with the duty of selling the same by virtue of any writ of execution, may refuse to publish a notice of the sale thereof by advertisement in a newspaper until the party for whose benefit such execution issued, his/her agent or attorney, shall advance to such officer so much money as will be sufficient to discharge the fees of the printer for publishing such notice. [TCR 86-109]

2-1054 Demand for printing fees. Before any officer shall be excused from giving the notification mentioned in Section 2-1052, he/she shall demand of the party for whose benefit the execution was issued, his/her agent or attorney, the fees in said section specified. [TCR 86-109]

2-1055 Place of sale. All sales of interests in lands or tenements under execution shall be held at the Tribal Courthouse unless some other place within the reservation is designated by the judge having jurisdiction in the case. No Tribal policeman or other officer making the sale of property, either personal or real, nor any appraiser of such property, shall either directly or indirectly, purchase the same; and every purchase so made shall be considered fraudulent and void. [TCR 86-109]

2-1056 Other executions of realty not sold. If lands or tenements, levied on aforesaid, are not sold upon one execution, other executions may be issued to sell the property so levied upon. [TCR 86-109]

2-1057 Levy on realty under several executions. In all cases where two or more executions shall be put into the hands of the Tribal police or other officer, and it shall be necessary to levy on real estate to satisfy the same, and either of the judgment creditors, in whose favor one or more of said executions are issued, shall require the Tribal police or other officer to levy said executions, or so many thereof as may be required, or other officer to levy said executions, or so many thereof as may be required, on separate parcels of real property of the judgment debtor or debtors, it shall be the duty of the officer, when required, to levy the same on separate parcels of the real property of the judgment debtor or debtors, when, in the opinion of the appraisers, the property of said debtors will not be sufficient, at two-thirds of its appraised value, to satisfy all the executions chargeable thereon, such part of the same shall be levied on, to satisfy each execution, as will bear the same proportion in value to the whole, as the amount due to the execution bears to the amount of all the executions chargeable thereon, as near as may be according to the appraised value of each separate parcel of said real property. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1058 Deed by successor of officer making sale. If the term of service of the Tribal police chief or other officer who has made, or shall hereafter make sale of any non-trust interest in lands and tenements, shall expire, or if the Tribal police chief or other officer shall be absent, or be rendered unable by death or otherwise, to make a deed of conveyance of the same, any succeeding Tribal police chief or other officer or the law enforcement officer acting on his/her behalf, on receiving a certificate from the Court from which the execution issued for the sale of said non-trust interest in lands and tenements, signed by the clerk, by order of said Court, setting forth that sufficient proof has been made to the Court that said sale was fairly and legally made, and on tender of the purchase money, or if the same or any part thereof be paid then on proof of such payment and tender of the balance, if any, may execute to said purchaser or purchasers, or his/her legal representatives, a deed of conveyance of said lands and tenements so sold. Such deed shall be as good and valid in law and have the same effect as if the Tribal police chief or other officer who made the sale had executed the same. [TCR 86-109]

2-1059 Payment to defendant of overplus after sale. If, on any sale made as aforesaid, there shall be in the hands of the Tribal police chief or other officer more money than is sufficient to satisfy the writ or

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

writs of execution, with interest and costs, the Tribal police chief or other officer shall, on demand, pay the balance to the defendant in execution. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1060 Reversal of judgment after sale of interest in land. If any judgment or judgments, in satisfaction of which any non-trust interest in lands or tenements are sold, shall at any time thereafter be reversed, such reversal shall not defeat or affect the title of the purchaser or purchasers; but in such cases, restitution shall be made, by the judgment creditors, of the money, for which such lands or tenements were sold, with lawful interest on the day of sale. [TCR 86-109]

2-1061 Execution on judgment in favor of Tribe. In all civil actions wherein the Tribe as plaintiff, has heretofore or may hereafter recover judgment, and where in any such action an execution has or may be issued, the Tribe through the officer or officers on whose relation the action was brought, may bid at such execution sale, and buy said property offered for sale, for any amount not to exceed the amount of the judgment in such action and such additional amount as may be approved by the Tribal legislative body said amount to be credited upon the judgment.

And further, when such property offered for the sale as execution is bought by the Tribe, said property may be sold for the Tribe by the officer or officers upon whose relation the Tribe was party plaintiff, and further provided that at such execution sales the attorney or attorneys representing the Tribe may bid for the Tribe, not to exceed the amount of the judgment and such additional amount as may be approved by the Tribal legislative body, provided, however, that said bid is not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) higher than the next best bid, and if there be no other bidder, then not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00).

And further provided that in disposing of such property so acquired, if it be personal property the officer or successor of the officer in whose relation the Tribe was plaintiff may sell said property by executing a good and sufficient bill of sale, to be attested by the secretary of the Tribe. Provided, however, that in no event shall any sale be valid under this Article for any amount less than the amount for which said property was originally bid in by the Tribe. The funds obtained upon the sale of any such property shall be placed in the fund for which the judgment was obtained, or if none, then in the Tribal land purchases fund for the purchase of further real property to the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-1062 Reappraisal where realty twice advertised for sale. CONTRIBUTION

2-1071 Joint debtors or sureties.

2-1072 Joint tort-feasor; contribution; indemnity;
exemptions; covenant not to sue, etc.

2-1071 Joint debtors or sureties. When property, liable to an execution against several persons, is sold thereon, and more than a due proportion of the judgment is laid upon the property of one of them, or one of them pays, without a sale, more than his/her proportion, he/she may regardless of the nature of the demand upon which the judgment was rendered, compel contribution from the others; and when a judgment is against several, and is upon an obligation of one of them, as security for another, and surety pays the amount, or any part thereof, either by sale of his/her property or before sale, he/she may compel repayment from the principal; in such case, the person so paying or contributing is entitled to the benefit of the judgment, to enforce contribution or repayment, if within ten days after his/her payment he/she files with the clerk of Court notice of his/her payment and claim to contribution or repayment. Upon filing of such notice, the clerk shall make an entry thereof in the margin of the docket. [TCR 86-109]

2-1072 Joint tort-feasors; contribution; indemnity; exemptions; covenant not to sue, etc.

1. When two or more persons become jointly or severally liable in tort for the same injury to person or property or for the same wrongful death, there is a right of contribution among them even though judgment has not been recovered against all or any of them except as provided in this Section.
2. The right of contribution exists only in favor of a tortfeasor who has paid more than his/her pro rata share of the common liability, and his/her total recovery is limited to the amount paid by him/her in excess of his/her pro rata share. No tortfeasor is compelled to make contribution beyond his/her own pro rata share of the entire liability.
3. There is no right of contribution in favor of any tortfeasor who has intentionally caused or contributed to the injury or wrongful death.
4. A tortfeasor who enters into a settlement with a claimant is not entitled to recover contribution from another tortfeasor whose liability for the injury or wrongful death is not extinguished by the settlement nor in respect to any amount paid in a settlement which is in excess of what was reasonable.
5. A liability insurer which by payment has discharged, in full or in part, the liability of a tortfeasor and has thereby discharged in full its obligation to insurer, is subrogated to the tortfeasor's right of contribution to the extent of the amount it has paid in excess of the tortfeasor's pro rata share of the common liability. This provision does not limit or impair any right of subrogation arising from any other relationship.
6. This Article does not impair any right of indemnity under existing law. When one tortfeasor is entitled to indemnity from another, right of the indemnity obligee is for indemnity and not contribution, and the indemnity obligor is not entitled to contribution from the obligee for any portion of his/her indemnity obligation.
7. This subpart shall not apply to breaches of trust or of other fiduciary obligation.
8. When a release, covenant not to sue or a similar agreement is given in good faith to one of two or more persons liable in tort for the same injury or the same wrongful death:

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 12

Tribal jurisdiction by any method that is authorized by the statutes of the Tribe. In all other cases, the Court may grant a divorce but may not enter a personal judgment for alimony or child support. [TCR 86-109]

2-1214 Custody of children, disposition of property. That the parties appear to be in equal wrong shall not be a basis for refusing to grant a divorce. If a divorce is granted, it shall be granted to both parties. In any such case or where the Court grants alimony without a divorce or in any case where a divorce is refused, the Court may for good cause shown make such order as may be proper for the custody, maintenance and education of the children, and for the control and equitable division and disposition of the property of the parties, or of either of them, as may be proper, equitable and just, having due regard to the time and manner of acquiring such property, whether the title thereto be in either or both of said parties. In making a property settlement, the Court shall have due regard for the needs of the family and justice to the parties. [TCR 86-109]

2-1215 Orders concerning property, children, support and expenses. After a petition has been filed in an action for divorce and alimony, or for alimony alone, the Court may make and enforce by attachment or otherwise, such order to restrain the disposition of the property of the parties or of either of them, and for the use, management, and control thereof, or for the control of the children and support of the wife or husband during the pendency of the action, as may be right and proper; and may also make such order relative to the expenses of the suit as will insure an efficient preparation of the case; and, on granting a divorce the Court may require the husband or wife to pay such reasonable expenses of the other in the prosecution or defense of the action as may be just and proper considering the respective parties and the means and property of each; provided further, that the Court may in its discretion make additional orders relative to the expenses of any such subsequent actions, brought by the parties or their attorneys, for the enforcement or modification of any interlocutory or final orders in the divorce action made for the benefit of either party or their respective attorneys. Provided, no ex parte orders shall be issued until the opposing party is granted an opportunity to be heard, unless such ex parte order provides that instead of performing thereunder the opposing party may appear on a date certain, not more than twenty days thereafter, and show good cause as to why he/she should not comply with said order. [TCR 86-109]

2-1216 Care and custody of children. A petition or cross-petition for a divorce, legal separation, or annulment must state whether or not parties have minor children of the marriage. If there are such children, the Court shall make provision for guardianship, custody, support and education of the minor children, and may modify or change any order in this respect, whenever circumstances render such change proper either before or after final judgment in the action.

Any child, not emancipated and declared an adult by Court order shall be entitled to support by the parents until the child reaches eighteen years of age. If the Court determines that the parents are unable to provide for the support of the children, it may order any person obligated to support the children by the Tribal common law to be brought into the action by service of summons, and may enter an order requiring said person to contribute to the support of the children within their means. [TCR 86-109]

2-1217 Preference of child. In any divorce action in which the Court must determine custody, the child may express a preference as to which of its parents the child wishes to have custody. The Court may determine whether the best interest of the child will be served by the expression of preference and if the Court so finds then the Court may consider the expression of preference by the child in determining custody. Provided, however, the Court shall not be bound by that choice and may take other facts into consideration in awarding custody. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 12

2-1218 Paternity determination. In an action for a divorce, legal separation or annulment where there are children born to the parties, the Court may determine if the parties to the action are the parents of the children although the Court finds that the parties are not married; and if the parties to the action are the parents of the children, the Court may determine which party should have custody of said children, and it may award child support to the parent to whom it awards custody, and make an appropriate order for payment of costs and attorney's fees. [TCR 86-109]

2-1219 Interest on delinquent payments. When ordered by the Court, Court-ordered child support payments and Court-ordered payment of suit monies shall draw interest at the rate of ten percent per year from the date they become delinquent, and the interest shall be collected in the same manner as the payments upon which the interest accrues. [TCR 86-109]

2-1220 Restoration of wife's maiden name. When a divorce is granted, the wife shall be restored to her maiden or former name if she so desires. [TCR 86-109]

2-1221 Disposition of property. The Court shall enter its decree confirming in each spouse the property owned by him or her before marriage and the undisposed-of property acquired after marriage by him or her in his or her own right. Either spouse may be allowed such alimony out of real and personal property of the other as the Court shall think reasonable, having due regard to the value of such property at the time of the divorce. Alimony may be allowed from real or personal property, or both, or in the form of money judgment, payable either in gross or in installments, as the Court may deem just and equitable. As to such property, whether real or personal, which has been acquired by the parties jointly during their marriage, whether the title thereto be in either or both of said parties, the Court shall make such division between the parties as may appear just and reasonable, by a division of the property in kind, or by setting the same apart to one of the parties, and requiring the other thereof to pay such sum as may be just and proper to effect a fair and just division thereof having due regard to the needs of the family. The Court may set apart a portion of the separate estate of a spouse to the other spouse for the support of the children of the marriage where custody resides with that spouse. [TCR 86-109]

2-1222 Effect of divorce. A divorce granted at the instance of one party shall operate as a dissolution of the marriage contract as to both, and shall be a bar to any claim of either party in or to the property of the other, except in cases where actual fraud shall have been committed by or on behalf of the successful party. [TCR 86-109]

2-1223 Remarriage and cohabitation. It shall be unlawful for either party to an action for divorce whose former husband or wife is living to marry a person other than the divorced spouse within six months from date of the decree of divorce or to cohabit with such other person during said period and if an appeal be commenced from said decree, it shall be unlawful for either party to such cause to marry any other person and cohabit with such person until the expiration of thirty days from the date on which final judgment shall be entered pursuant to such appeal. Any person violating the provisions of this Section by such marriage shall be deemed guilty of bigamy. Any person violating the provisions of this Section by such cohabitation shall be deemed guilty of adultery. An appeal from a judgment granting or denying a divorce shall be made in the same manner as in any other civil case. [TCR 86-109]

2-1224 Punishment for certain remarriage and cohabitation. Every person convicted of bigamy as such offense is defined in the foregoing section shall be punished by imprisonment in the Tribal jail for a term of not more than six months. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 12

2-1225 Remarriage within six months. A marriage wherein one of the parties had not been divorced for six months shall hereafter be ground for annulment of marriage by either party. [TCR 86-109]

2-1226 Time when judgment final. Every decree of divorce shall recite the day and date when the judgment was rendered. If an appeal be taken from a judgment granting or denying a divorce, that part of the judgment does not become final and take effect until the appeal is determined. If an appeal be taken from any part of the judgment in a divorce action except the granting of the divorce, the divorce shall be final and take effect the date the decree of divorce is rendered, provided neither party thereto may marry another person until six months after the date the decree of divorce is rendered; that part of the judgment appealed shall not become final and take effect until the appeal be determined. [TCR 86-109]

2-1227 Avoidance of marriage of incompetents. When either of the parties to a marriage shall be incapable, from want of age or understanding, of contracting such marriage, the same may be declared void by the Tribal Court, in an action brought by the incapable party or by the parent or guardian of such party; but the children of such marriage begotten before the same is annulled, shall be legitimate. Cohabitation after such incapacity ceases, shall be a sufficient defense to any such action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1228 Alimony without divorce. The wife or husband may obtain alimony from the other without a divorce, in an action brought for that purpose in the Tribal Court, for any of the causes for which a divorce may be granted. Either may make the same defense to such action as he/she might to an action for divorce, and may, for sufficient cause, obtain a divorce from the other in such action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1229 Evidence. No divorce shall be granted without proof taken upon the record as in other cases. [TCR 86-109]

2-1230 Setting aside of divorce decrees. When a decree of divorce has been issued by the Tribal Court, said Court is hereby authorized to dissolve said decree at any future time, provided that both parties to the divorce action file a petition, signed by both parties, asking that said decree be set aside and held for naught. And further provided that both parties seeking to have the decree set aside shall make proof to the Court that neither one has married a third party during the time since the issuance of the decree of divorce. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1231 Termination of money payments.

1. In any divorce decree which provides for periodic alimony payments, the Court shall plainly state, at the time of entering the original decree, what dollar amount of all or a portion of each such payment is designated as support, and what dollar amount of all or a portion of such payment is a payment pertaining to a division of property. Upon the death of the recipient, the payments for support if not already accrued, shall terminate, but the payments pertaining to a division of property shall continue until completed; and the decree shall so specify. The payments pertaining to a division of property shall be irrevocable. Upon the presentation of proper proof of death of such recipient, the Court shall order the judgment for the payment of support to be terminated, and lien thereof released unless a proper claim shall be made for any amount of past due support payments by an executor, administrator or heir within ninety days from the date of death of the recipient. The Court shall also provide in the divorce decree that any such payment of support shall terminate after remarriage of the recipient, unless the recipient can make a proper showing that some amount of support is still needed and that circumstances have not rendered payment of the same inequitable. Provided however, that unless the recipient shall commence an action for such determination within ninety days of the date of such remarriage, the Court shall, upon proper application, order the payment of support terminated and the lien thereof discharged.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. An order for continuing the payments of support shall not be a lien against the real property of the person ordered to make such payments unless the Court order specifically provides for lien on real property or an arrearage in such payments of support has been reduced to a judgment.
3. The voluntary cohabitation of a former spouse with a member of the opposite sex shall be a ground to modify provisions of a final judgment or order for alimony as support. If voluntary cohabitation is alleged in a motion to modify the payment of support, the Court shall have jurisdiction to reduce or terminate support payments upon proof of substantial change of circumstances relating to need for support or ability to support. As used herein, cohabitation shall mean the dwelling together continuously and habitually of a man and a woman who are in a private conjugal relationship not solemnized as marriage according to law, or not necessarily meeting all the standards of a common law marriage. The petitioner shall make application for modification and shall follow notification procedures as used in other divorce decree modification actions. [TCR 86-109]

2-1232 Mailing of alimony and support payments. If a judicial order, judgment or decree directs that the payment of child support, alimony, temporary support or any similar type of payment be made through the office of the Court clerk, then it shall be the duty of the Court to transmit such payments to the payee by first class United States mail, if requested to do so by the payee. Such payments shall be mailed to the payee at the address specified in writing by the payee. In the event of a change in address of the payee, it shall be the duty of payee to furnish to the Court clerk in writing the new address of the payee. [TCR 86-109]

2-1233 Modification of decree. Notwithstanding that a decree of divorce has become final, the Court may modify its judgment relative to child support or alimony at any time in the interest of justice and equity, having due regard for the needs of the family or families of the parties, upon motion for modification filed in the original action and served with summons requiring an answer to said motion within twenty days. Such motions shall be heard as if they were an independent proceeding and discovery may be had. The order of the Court determining the motion for modification shall be a final appealable order. [TCR 86-109]

2-1234 Effect on common law divorce. This subpart shall not be interpreted in derogation of the Tribal common law of divorce, but is intended for use by those who prefer the statutory method of divorce or who cannot agree as to child custody and support, spousal support, property division, or other similar matters upon which agreement is necessary to effectuate a Tribal common law divorce. [TCR 86-109]

2-1235 Requirement of parenting education.

- a. Any party to a divorce action or an action involving child custody or visitation shall be required by the Court to complete a parenting education course pursuant to this Section prior to the entry by the Court of a final judgment or order modifying the final judgment in such action. The Court must approve the course, and participation in the course may be delayed or waived by the Court for good cause shown.
- b. A parenting education course pursuant to this Section shall be designed to educate the parties about the impact of the pending divorce, custody, or visitation action upon their children. The course shall include but not be limited to, information on the developmental stages of children, adjustment of children to parental separation, dispute resolution and conflict management, guidelines for visitation, stress reduction in children, and cooperative parenting.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 12

- c. Each party shall be responsible for the costs, if any, of attending a Court-ordered parenting education course. The Court may specifically allocate costs between the parties for their required participation in the course.
- d. At the request of any party, the parties shall be allowed to attend separate courses or to attend the same course at different times, specifically if violence has been present in the relationship or one party has threatened the other party with violence.

2-1301 Forcible entry and detention. The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction to try all actions for the forcible entry and detention, or detention only, of real property, and claims for the collection of rent or damages to the premises may be included in the same action, but other claims may not be included in the same action. A judgment in an action brought under this Article shall be conclusive as to any issues adjudicated therein, but it shall not be a bar to any other action brought by either party.

2-1302 Powers of Court. The Court shall have power to inquire, in the manner hereinafter directed, as well against those who make unlawful and forcible entry into lands and tenements, and detain the same, as against those who, having a lawful and peaceable entry into land or tenements, unlawfully and by force hold the same, and if it be found, upon such inquiry, that an unlawful and forcible entry has been made, and that the same lands and tenements are held unlawfully, then the Court shall cause the party complaining to have restitution thereof. [TCR 86-109]

2-1303 Extent of jurisdiction. Proceedings under this Article may be had in all cases against tenants holding over their terms and, incident thereto, to determine whether or not tenants are holding over their terms; in sales or real estate on executions, orders or other judicial process, when the judgment debtor was in possession at the time of the rendition of the judgment or decree, by virtue of which such sale was made; in sales by executors, administrators, guardians and on partition, where any of the parties to the partition were in possession at the commencement of the suit, after such sales, so made, on execution or otherwise, shall have been examined by the Court, and the same adjudged valid; and in the cases where the defendant is a settler or occupier of lands and tenements without color of title, and to which the complainant has the right of possession. This Section is not to be construed as limiting the provisions of the preceding section.
[TCR 86-109]

2-1304 Issuance and return of summons. The summons shall be issued and returned as in other cases, except that it shall command the chief of the Tribal police or other person serving it, to summon the defendant to appear for trial at the time and place specified therein, which time shall be not less than five days nor more than ten days from the date that the summons is issued. The summons shall appraise the defendant of the nature of the claim that is being asserted against him; and there shall be endorsed upon the summons the relief sought and the amount for which the plaintiff will take judgment if the defendant fails to appear. In all cases, pleadings may be amended to conform to the evidence. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1305 Service of summons. The summons may be served as in other cases except that such service shall be at least three days before the day of trial, and the return day shall not be later than the day of trial,

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

and it may also be served by leaving a copy thereof with some person over fifteen years of age, residing on the premises, at least three days before the day of trial; or, if service cannot be made by the exercise of reasonable diligence on the tenant or on any person over the age of fifteen years residing on the premises, the same may be served by registered mail with return receipt postmarked at least three days before the date of trial. [TCR 86-109]

2-1306 Constructive service of summons. If, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, service cannot be made upon the defendant personally nor upon any person residing upon the premises over fifteen years of age, then in lieu of service by registered mail, service may be obtained for the sole purpose of adjudicating the right to restitution of the premises by the Tribal Police's posting said summons conspicuously on the building on the premises, and, if there be no building on said premises, then by posting the same at some conspicuous place on the premises sought to be recovered at least ten days prior to the date of trial, and by last-known address by registered or certified mail at least seven days prior to said date of trial. Such service shall confer no jurisdiction upon the Court to render any judgment against the defendant for the payment of money nor for any relief other than the restoration of possession of the premises to the claimant. Such service shall not be rendered ineffectual by the failure of the defendant to actually receive or sign a return receipt for such mailed process. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1307 Answer or affidavit by defendant.

1. In all cases in which the defendant wishes to assert title to the land or that the boundaries of the land are in dispute, he/she shall, before the time for the trial of the cause, file a verified answer or an affidavit which contains a full and specific statement of the facts constituting his/her defense of title or boundary dispute. If the defendant files such a verified answer or affidavit, the action shall proceed as one in ejectment before the Tribal Court. If the defendant files an affidavit, he/she shall file answer within ten days after the date the affidavit is filed.
2. In all cases in which the cause of action is based on an asserted breach of a lease by the defendant, or the termination or expiration of a lease under which the defendant claims an interest in the property in a verified answer or affidavit, the plaintiff may proceed with the forcible entry and detainer action instead of an ejectment action.
3. No answer by the defendant shall be required before the time for trial of the cause.
[TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1308 Trial by Court. All cases for forcible entry and detainer or detainer only shall be tried by the Court unless the rent and damages prayed for exceeds ten thousand ($10,000) dollars. [TCR 86-109]

2-1309 Procedure where no jury available. If a jury be properly demanded by either party, and no jury is available from the general panel, the judge shall immediately direct that an open venire be issued to the chief of the Tribal police or one of his deputies, for such number of jurors as may be deemed necessary, to be selected without resorting to the jury wheel. The persons selected shall have the qualifications of jurors. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1310 Attorney fee. A reasonable attorney fee shall be allowed by the Court to the prevailing party. [TCR 86-109]

2-1311 Writ of execution; form; new trial. If judgment be for plaintiff, the Court shall, at the request of the plaintiff, his/her agent or attorney, issue a writ of execution thereon, which shall be in substantially the following form:

The officer's return shall be as upon other executions. [TCR 86-109]

2-1313 Forcible entry and detainer action on small claims docket. An action for forcible entry and detainer brought pursuant to procedures prescribed otherwise in this Title standing alone and when joined with a claim for recovery of rent, damages to the premises, where the total recovery sought, exclusive of attorney's fees and other Court costs, does not exceed the jurisdictional amount for the small claims Court, shall be placed on the small claims docket of the Tribal Court. The Court clerk shall in connection with such actions prepare the affidavit, by which the action is commenced, and the summons and generally assist the unrepresented plaintiffs to the same extent that he/she is now required so to do under the Small Claims Procedure Act. 2-1410 Proceedings in case of sickness or infirmity. The Court or judge, if satisfied with the truth of the allegation of sickness or infirmity or other good cause for not producing the body of the person, may proceed to decide on the return, or the hearing may be adjourned until the party can be produced. The plaintiff may accept to the sufficiency of, or controvert the return or any part thereof, or allege any new matter in avoidance; the new matter shall be verified, except in cases of commitment on a criminal charge; the return and pleadings may be amended without causing any delay. [TCR 86-109]

2-1411 Hearings and discharge. The Court or judge shall thereupon proceed in a summary way to hear and determine the cause, and if no legal cause be shown for the restraint or for the continuance thereof, shall discharge the party. [TCR 86-109]

2-1412 Limits an inquiry. No judge shall inquire into the legality of any judgment or process, whereby the party is in custody, or discharge him/her when the term of commitment has not expired in either of the cases following:

1. Upon process issued by any Court or judge of the United States, or of any state or where such Court or judge has exclusive jurisdiction; or,
2. Upon any lawful process issued on any final judgment of a Court of competent jurisdiction; or,
3. For any contempt of any Court, office or body having authority to commit; but an order of commitment as for a contempt, upon proceedings to enforce the remedy of a party, is not included in any of the foregoing specifications;
4. Upon a warrant or commitment issued from the Tribal Court, or any other Court of competent jurisdiction, upon indictment or information. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1413 Writ upon temporary commitment. No person shall be discharged from an order of temporary commitment issued by any judicial or peace officer for want of bail, or in cases not bailable, on account of any defect in the charge or process, or for alleged want of probable cause, but in all such cases, the Court or judge shall summon the prosecuting witnesses, investigate the criminal charge, and discharge, let to bail or recommit the prisoner, as may just and legal, and recognize witnesses when proper. [TCR 86-109]

2-1414 Writ may issue to admit to bail. The writ may be had for the purpose of letting a prisoner to bail in civil and criminal actions. [TCR 86-109]

2-1418 Issuance of warrant of attachment. Whenever it shall appear by affidavit that anyone is illegally held in custody or restraint, and that there is good reason to believe that such person will be carried out of the jurisdiction of the Court or judge, or will suffer some irreparable injury before compliance with the writ can be enforced, the Court or judge may cause a warrant of attachment to be issued, reciting the facts, and directed to the chief of the Tribal police, commanding him/her to take the person thus held in custody or restraint, and forthwith bring him/her before the Court or judge, to be dealt with according to law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1419 Arrest of party causing restraint. The Court or judge may also, if the same be deemed necessary, insert in the warrant a command for the apprehension of the person charged with causing the illegal restraint. [TCR 86-109]

2-1420 Execution of warrant of attachment. The officer shall execute the Warrant of Attachment by bringing the person therein named before the Court or judge; and the like return and proceedings shall be required and had as in case of writs of habeas corpus. [TCR 86-109]

2-1421 Temporary orders. The Court or judge may make any temporary orders in the cause or disposition of the party during the progress of the proceedings, that justice may require. | 2-1505 | Petition upon affidavit. | 2-1511 | Damages bar further actions. |
| 2-1506 | Allowance and service of writ. | 2-1512 | Penalty for refusal or neglect to perform. |

2-1501 Functions of mandamus. The writ of mandamus may be issued by the appellate Court or the Tribal Court, or any justice or judge thereof to any inferior tribunal, corporation, board or person, to compel the performance of any act which the law specially enjoins as a duty, resulting from an office, trust or station; but though it may require an inferior Tribunal or officer to exercise its judgment or proceed to the discharge of any of its functions, it cannot control judicial discretion, or discretion committed to a Tribal agency by law unless exercised in violation of law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1502 Writ not issued where remedy at law. This writ may not be issued in any case where there is a plain and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law. It may be issued on the information of the party beneficially interested. [TCR 86-109]

2-1503 Forms and contents of writs. The writ is either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ must state, concisely, the fact showing the obligation of the defendant to perform the act, and his/her omission to perform it, and command him/her that immediately upon the receipt of the writ, or at some other specified time, he/she do the act required to be performed or show cause before the Court at a specified time and place, why he/she has not done so; and that he/she then and there return the writ with his certificate of having done as he/she commanded. The peremptory writ must be in a similar form, except that the words requiring the defendant to show cause why he/she has not done as commanded, must be omitted. [TCR 86-109]

2-1504 When peremptory writ of issues. When the right to require the performance of the act is clear, and it is apparent that no valid excuse can be given for not performing it, a peremptory mandamus may be allowed in the first instance; in all other cases, the alternative writ must be first issued. The peremptory writ should not be issued if there is any doubt that a valid excuse may exist. [TCR 86-109]

2-1505 Petition upon affidavit. The petition for the writ must be made upon affidavit, and the Court may require a notice of the application to be given to the adverse party, or may grant an order to show cause why it should not be allowed, or may grant the writ without notice. [TCR 86-109]

2-1506 Allowance and service of writ. The allowance of the writ must be endorsed thereon, signed by the judge of the Court granting it, and the writ must be served personally upon the defendant; if the defendant, duly served, neglects to return the same, he/she shall be proceeded against as for contempt. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 15

2-1507 Answer. On the return day of the alternative writ, or such further day as the Court may allow, the party on whom the writ shall have been served may show cause, by answer made in the same manner as an answer to complaint in a civil action. [TCR 86-109]

2-1508 Failure to answer. If no answer be made, a peremptory mandamus must be allowed against the defendant; if answer be made, containing new matter, the same shall not, in any respect, conclude the plaintiff, who may, on the trial or other proceeding, avail him/herself of any valid objections to its sufficiency, or may countervail it by proof, either in direct denial or by way of avoidance. [TCR 86-109]

2-1509 Similarity to civil action. No other pleading or written allegation is allowed than the writ and answer; these are the pleadings in the case, and have the same effect, and are to be construed and may be amended in the same manner, as pleadings in a civil action; and the issued thereby joined must be tried, and the further proceedings thereon had, in the same manner as in a civil action. [TCR 86-109]

2-1510 Recovery by plaintiff. If judgment be given for the plaintiff, he/she shall recover the damages which he/she shall have sustained, to be ascertained by the Court, or by referees, as in a civil action, and costs; and a peremptory mandamus shall also be granted to him/her without delay. [TCR 86-109]

2-1511 Damages bar further actions. A recovery of damages, by virtue of this Article against a party who shall have made a return to a writ of mandamus, is a bar to any other action against the same party for the making of such return. [TCR 86-109]

2-1512 Penalty for refusal or neglect to perform.

1. Whenever a peremptory mandamus is directed to any public officer, body or board, commanding the performance of any public duty specially enjoined by law, if it appear to the Court that such officer, or any member of such body or board, has, without just excuse, refused or neglected to perform the duty so enjoined, the Court may impose a fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00), upon every such officer or members of such body or board. Such fine, when collected, shall be paid into the Tribal treasury.
2. Whenever the peremptory writ of mandamus is directed to any private person commanding the performance of any private duty specifically enjoined by law, if it appears to the Court that such person has, without just excuse, refused or neglected to perform the duty so enjoined, the Court may impose a civil fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) upon such person and may commit him/her to the custody of the Tribal police for a term of sixty days or until he/she shall perform or agree to perform such duty or otherwise purge his/her contempt. The Court may, in an appropriate case, order the chief of the Tribal police to perform the act required which performance shall have the same effect as if performed by the person to whom the peremptory writ was issued. 2-1601 Quo warranto; relief obtainable by civil action. The writ of quo warranto, and proceedings by information in the nature of quo warranto, are abolished and the remedies heretofore obtainable in those forms may be had by civil action; provided, that such cause of action may be instituted and maintained by the contestant for such office at any time after the issuance of the certificate of election by the Tribal election board, and before the expiration of thirty days after such official is inducted into office; provided further, that all suits now pending, contesting such elections, shall not be dismissed because of the prematurity as to time of their commencement, which shall be deemed valid and timely, if commenced after the issuance of the election certificate or after twenty days after the result of said election having been declared by such election board; and provided further, that this Article shall not apply to any primary election. [TCR 86-109]

2-1602 Grounds for action. Such action may be brought in the appellate Court by its leave or in the Tribal Court, in the following cases:

1. When any person shall usurp, intrude into, or unlawfully hold or exercise any public office, or shall claim any franchise within the Tribal jurisdiction or any office in any corporation created by authority of this Tribe;

4. When any corporation does or admits acts which amount to a surrender or a forfeiture of its rights and privileges as a corporation, or when any corporation abuses its power or intentionally exercises powers not conferred by law;
5. For any other cause for which a remedy might have been heretofore obtained by writ of quo warranto, or information in the nature of quo warranto. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1603 Persons who may bring action. When the action is brought by the Tribal attorney general when directed to do so by competent authority, it shall be prosecuted in the name of the Tribe, but where the action brought by a person claiming an interest in the office, franchise or corporation, or claiming any interest adverse to the franchise, gift or grant, which is the subject of the action, it shall be prosecuted in the same and under the direction, and the expense of such persons. Whenever the action is brought against a person for usurping an office by the Tribal attorney general, he/she shall set forth in the petition the name of person rightfully entitled to the office and his/her right or title thereto; when the action in such case is brought by the person claiming title, he/she may claim and recover any damage he/she may have sustained. 2-1604 Judgment is contest of office. In every case contesting the right to an office, judgment shall be rendered according to the rights of the parties, and for the damages the plaintiff or person entitled may have sustained, if any, to the time of the judgment. [TCR 86-109]

2-1605 Judgment for plaintiff. If judgment be rendered in favor of the plaintiff or person entitled, he/she shall proceed to exercise the functions of the office, after he/she has been qualified as required by law; and the Court shall order the defendant to deliver over all the books and papers in his/her custody or within his/her power, belonging to the office from which he/she shall have been ousted. [TCR 86-109]

2-1606 Enforcement of judgment. If the defendant shall refuse or neglect to deliver over the books and papers, pursuant to the order, the Court, or judge thereof shall enforce the order by attachment or imprisonment, or both. [TCR 86-109]

2-1607 Separate action for damages. When judgment is rendered in favor of the plaintiff, he/she may, if he/she has not claimed his/her damages in the action, have a separate action for the damages at any time within one year after the judgment. The Court may give judgment of ouster against the defendant, and exclude him/her from the office, franchise or corporate rights; and in cases of corporations, may give judgment that the same shall be dissolved. [TCR 86-109]

2-1608 Corporation. 2-1708 Actions for amounts exceeding excess of two thousand dollars. If a claim, a counterclaim, or a setoff is filed for an amount in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), the action shall be transferred to the general civil docket of the Tribal Court unless both parties agree in writing and file said agreement with the papers in the action that said claim, counterclaim or setoff shall be tried under the small claims procedure. If such an agreement has not been filed, a judgment in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) may not be enforced for the part that exceeds two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) shall deposit with the clerk of the Court costs that are charged in other cases, less any sums that have been already paid to the clerk, or his/her claim shall be dismissed and the remaining claims, if any, shall proceed under the small claims procedure. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1709 Attachment or garnishment, other matters. No attachment or prejudgment garnishment shall issue in any suit under the small claims procedure. Proceedings to enforce or collect a judgment rendered by the trial Court in a suit under the small claims procedure shall be in all respects as in other cases. No depositions shall be taken or interrogatories or other discovery proceeding shall be used under the small claims procedure except in aid of execution. No new parties shall be brought into the action, and no party shall be allowed to intervene in action. [TCR 86-109]

2-1710 Trial by Court. Actions under the small claims procedure shall be tried to the Court. Provided, however, if either party wished a reporter, he/she must notify the clerk of the Court in writing at least forty eight hours before the time set for the defendant's appearance and must deposit with said notice with the clerk the sum of twenty dollars ($20.00) against the costs or producing the record. The plaintiff and the defendant shall have the right to offer evidence in their behalf by witnesses appearing at such hearing, and the judge may call such witnesses and order the production of such documents as he/she may deem appropriate. The hearing and disposition of such actions shall be informal with the sole object of dispensing speedy justice between the parties. [TCR 86-109]

2-1711 Payment of judgment. If judgment be rendered against either party for the payment of money, said party shall pay the same forthwith, provided, however, the judge may make such order as to time of payment or otherwise as may, by him/her, be deemed to be right and just. [TCR 86-109]

2-1712 Appeals. Appeals may be taken from the judgment rendered under small claims procedure to the appellate Court of the Tribe in the same manner as appeals are taken in other civil actions, provided that any party which did not request a reporter as provided in Section 2-1710 shall not be granted a new trial or other relief on appeal due to lack of a record. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1713 Fees. A fee shall be charged and collected for the filing of the affidavit for the commencement of any action, for the filing of any counterclaim or setoff, for the mailing of the copy of the affidavit as determined by rules of the Court, and, if the affidavit and order are served by the Tribal police, the clerk shall collect the usual police service fee, which shall be taxed as costs in the case. After judgment, the clerk shall issue such process and shall be entitled to collect such fees and charges as are allowed by law for the like services in other actions. All fees collected hereunder shall be deposited with other fees that are collected by the Tribal Court. Provided that any statute providing for an award of attorney's fees shall be applicable to the small claims division if the attorney makes an appearance in the case, whether before or after judgment or on hearing for disclosure of assets. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1714 Costs. The prevailing party in an action is entitled to costs of the action, including the costs of service of the order for the appearance of the defendant and the costs of enforcing any judgment rendered therein. [TCR 86-109]

2-1715 Judgments rendered under small claims procedure.

1. Except as otherwise provided herein, judgments rendered under the small claims procedure shall not be entered upon the judgment docket. Such judgment shall not become a lien upon real property unless entered upon the judgment docket as hereinafter provided.
2. Any small claims judgment, when satisfied by payment other than through the office of the Court clerk or otherwise discharged, may be released by the Court upon written application to the Court by the judgment debtor and upon proof of due notice thereof having been mailed by the Court clerk to the judgment creditor at his last-known address at least ten days prior to the hearing of the application. Payment of all costs necessary to accomplish said release shall be paid by the judgment debtor.
3. Such judgment shall become a lien on any non-trust interest real property of the judgment debtor within the Tribal jurisdiction only from and after the time a certified copy of the judgment has been filed in the office of the Court clerk for entry in the clerk's land tract records book. No judgment under the Small Claims Procedure Act shall be a lien on the real property of a judgment debtor until it has been filed in this manner. When a judgment is entered upon the judgment docket, the Court clerk shall instruct the prevailing party of the manner in which to proceed to file such judgment for the purpose of obtaining a lien against the real property of the judgment debtor and

15. “Pecuniary benefits” shall mean benefit in the form of money, property, commercial interest, or anything else, the primary significance of which is economic gain;
16. “Person” shall mean any natural person and where relevant a corporation or an unincorporated association;
17. “Public places” shall mean a place to which the public or a substantial number of the public has access, and includes but is not limited to highways, transportation facilities, schools, places of amusement, parks, playgrounds, and the common areas of public and private buildings and facilities;
18. “Public servants” shall mean any officer or employee of government, whether elected or appointed, and any person participating as an advisor, consultant, process server, or otherwise in performing a governmental function, but the term does not include witnesses;
19. “Recklessly” shall mean acting with respect to a material element of an offense when any person disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the material element exists or will result from his/her conduct. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that, considering the nature and purpose of the actor’s conduct and the circumstances known to him/her, its disregard involves a

TITLE 3 ARTICLE 1

gross deviation from the standard of conduct that a law-abiding person would observe in the actor's situation;20. "Serious bodily injury" shall mean bodily injury which involves a substantial risk of death, or which involves substantial risk of serious permanent disfigurement, or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any part or organ of the body;

21. "Tamper" shall mean to interfere with something improperly or to make unwarranted alterations in its condition;
22. "Thing of value" shall mean real property, contract rights, choices in action, services, and any rights of use or enjoyment connected therewith; and
23. "Voluntary act" shall mean an act performed as a result of effort or determination, and includes the possession of property if the actor was aware of his/her physical possession or control thereof for a sufficient period to have been able to terminate it. [TCR 86-79]

3-108 Prosecution for multiple offenses. When the same conduct of a defendant may establish the commission of more than one offense, the defendant may be prosecuted for each such offense. He/she may not, however, be convicted of more than one offense, if.

1. One offense is a lesser included offense of another offense where conviction was sought for both;
2. One offense consists only of a conspiracy, or any attempt to commit the other; or
3. Inconsistent findings of fact are required to establish the offenses; or
4. The offenses only differ in that one is defined to prohibit a specific kind of conduct and the other prohibits the same conduct generally; or
5. The offense is defined as a continuing course of conduct and the defendant's course of conduct was uninterrupted, unless the Code provides that specific periods of such conduct constitute separate offenses. [TCR 86-79]

3-109 Limitation. Except as provided in Section 3-105, a defendant shall not be subject to separate trials for multiple offenses based on the same conduct or arising from the same criminal episode, if such offenses are known to the prosecuting officer or to the state patrol, the Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or the Tribal police at the time of the commencement of the first trial and are within the jurisdiction of the Tribe. [TCR 86-79]

3-110 Separate trials. Upon application of any party and if justice so requires, the court may order that separate trials be held for two or more offenses based on the same conduct or arising from the same criminal episode. [TCR 86-79]

3-111 Lesser included offenses.

1. A defendant may be convicted of a lesser included offense different from the offense charged in a complaint without having been specifically charged with such included offense. An offense is so included when:
 - A. It is established by proof of the same or less than all the facts required to establish the commission of the offense charged; or
 - B. It consists of an attempt to commit the offense charged or to commit an offense otherwise included therein; or
 - C. It differs from the offenses charged only in the respect that a less serious injury or risk of injury to the same person, property or public interest or a lesser kind of culpability suffices to establish its commission.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 1

2. The court must charge the jury with respect to a lesser included offense if so requested by the defendant if there is a rational basis for a verdict acquitting the defendant of the offense charged and convicting him/her of the lesser included offense. [TCR 86-79]

3-112 Double jeopardy.

1. If a defendant has been prosecuted for one or more offenses arising out of a single criminal episode or the same facts as the original prosecution, a subsequent prosecution for the same or a different offense arising out of such episode or facts is barred if:
 - A. The subsequent prosecution is for an offense that was or should have been tried in the former prosecution, unless such subsequent trial has been ordered as a separate trial by the judge; and
 - B. The former prosecution:
 - i. Resulted in acquittal; or
 - ii. Resulted in conviction; or
 - iii. Was improperly terminated; or
 - iv. Was terminated by a final order of judgment for the defendant that has not been reversed, set aside or vacated and that necessarily required a determination inconsistent with a fact that must be established to secure conviction in the subsequent prosecution.
2. There is an acquittal if the prosecution results in a finding of not guilty by the trier of fact or in a determination that there was insufficient evidence to warrant conviction. A finding of guilty of the lesser included offense is an acquittal of the greater offense even though the conviction for the lesser included offense is subsequently reversed, set aside, or vacated.
3. There is a conviction if the prosecution resulted in a judgment of guilty that has not been reversed, set aside, or vacated; a verdict that has not been reversed, set aside, or vacated and that is capable of supporting a judgment; or a plea of guilty accepted by the court.
4. There is an improper termination of prosecution if the termination takes place before the verdict, if for reasons not amounting to an acquittal, and takes place after a jury has been impaneled and sworn in, or, if the matter was to be tried without a jury, after the first witness is sworn. However, termination of prosecution is not improper if:
 - A. The defendant consents to the termination; or
 - B. The defendant waives his/her right to object to the termination; or
 - C. The court finds and states for the record that the termination is necessary because:
 - i. It is physically impossible to proceed with the trial in conformity to the law; or there is a legal defect in the proceeding not attributable to the prosecution that would make any judgment entered upon a verdict reversible as a matter of law; or
 - ii. Prejudicial conduct in or out of the courtroom not attributable to the prosecution makes it impossible to proceed with the trial without injustice to the defendant or to the prosecution; or
 - iii. The jury is unable to agree on the verdict; or
 - D. A false statement of a juror on voir dire prevents a fair trial.
5. A subsequent prosecution of an offense is not barred if the former prosecution resulted in a judgment of a guilt held invalid in a subsequent proceeding on appeal, or on writ of habeas corpus.
6. Prosecution for an offense under this Code is not barred by virtue of the fact that the defendant could be or has been charged or convicted under 18 U.S.C.A., section 1153 (Major Crimes Act) or other federal law. [TCR 86-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 1

3-113 Burden and presumption of innocence.

1. A defendant in a criminal proceeding is presumed to be innocent until each and every element of the offense against him/her is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. In the absence of such proof the defendant shall be acquitted.
2. By "element of the offense" is meant:
 - A. The conduct, attendant circumstances or results of conduct included in the definition of the offense; plus
 - B. The culpable mental state required (if any); but
 - C. Jurisdiction is not an element of the offense nor is the statute of limitations or any other matter similarly unconnected with the harm or evil incident or conduct, sought to be prevented by the statute; these matters are established by a preponderance of the evidence. The existence of justification or excuse as defenses to the offense may also be established by a preponderance of the evidence. [TCR 86-79]

3-114 Negating defenses. The prosecution need not negate any defense either in the complaint or by proof unless the defense is in issue as a result of evidence presented at trial by either side, or unless the defense is an affirmative defense, and the defendant has presented evidence of such. [TCR 86-79]

3-115 Presumptions of fact. An evidentiary presumption established by this Code has the following consequences:

1. When the evidence of facts which support the presumption exist, the issue of the existence of the presumed fact must be submitted to the jury unless the court is satisfied that the evidence as a whole clearly negates the presumed fact.
2. In submitting the issue of the presumed fact to the jury, the court shall charge the jury that the presumed fact must on all evidence be proved beyond a reasonable doubt. And, that the law regards the facts that give rise to the presumed fact as evidence which, in effect, established the presumed fact at least by a preponderance of the evidence, but does not necessarily establish such fact beyond a reasonable doubt. 3-201 Acts and omissions to act.

1. A person is not guilty of an offense unless his/her liability is based on conduct which includes a voluntary act or the omission to perform an act of which he/she is physically capable.
2. The following are not voluntary acts within the meaning of this Section:
 - A. A reflex or convulsion;
 - B. A bodily movement during unconsciousness or sleep;
 - C. Conduct during hypnosis;
 - D. A bodily movement that otherwise is not a product of the effort or determination of the actor, either conscious or habitual.
3. Liability for the commission of an offense may not be based on an omission unaccompanied by action unless:
 - A. The omission is expressly made sufficient by the law defining the offense; or
 - B. A duty to perform the omitted act is otherwise imposed by law.
4. Possession is an act, within the meaning of this Section, if the possessor knowingly procured or received the thing possessed or was aware of his/her control thereof for a sufficient period to have been able to determine hi/her possession. [TCR 86-79]

3-202 Culpability; general requirements. A person is not guilty of an offense unless he acted purposely, knowingly, or negligently, as the law may require, with respect to each element of the offense, or unless his/her acts constitute an offense involving strict liability.

1. Kinds of culpability defined are:
 - A. Purposely: a person acts purposely with respect to a element of an offense:
 - i. If the element involves the nature of his/her conduct or a result thereof, it is his/her conscious object to engage in conduct of that nature or to cause such a result; and
 - ii. If the element involves the attendant circumstances, he/she is aware of the existence of such circumstances, or he/she believes or hopes that they exist.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

- B. Knowingly: a person acts knowingly with respect to an element of an offense when:
- i. If the element involves the nature of his/her conduct or the attendant circumstances, he/she is aware that his/her conduct is of that nature or that such circumstances exist; and
 - ii. If the element involves a result of conduct, he/she is aware that it is practically certain that his/her conduct will cause such a result.
- C. Recklessly: a person acts recklessly with respect to an element of an offense when he/she consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the element exists or will result from his/her conduct. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that, considering the nature and purpose of the actor's conduct and the circumstances known to him/her, its disregard involves a gross deviation from the standard of conduct that a law-abiding person would observe in the actor's situation.
- D. Negligently: A person acts negligently with respect to an element of an offense when he/she should be aware of a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the element exists or will result from his/her conduct. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that the actor's failure to perceive it, considering the nature and purpose of his/her conduct and the circumstances known, reflects a want of that degree of care that a reasonable person would observe in the actor's situation.
- E. Strict Liability: an element of an offense shall involve strict liability only when the definition of the offense or element clearly indicates a legislative purpose to impose strict liability for an element of the offense by use of the phrase strict liability or other terms of similar import, and when so used, no proof of a culpable mental state is required to establish the commission of the element or offense.
2. When the culpability sufficient to establish an element of an offense is not specifically prescribed, such element is established if a person acts purposely, knowingly, or recklessly with respect thereto.
 3. When the law defining an offense prescribes the kind of culpability that is sufficient for the commission of an offense, without distinguishing among the elements thereof, such provisions shall apply to all the material elements of the offense, unless a contrary purpose plainly appears.
 4. When the law provides that negligence suffices to establish an element of an offense, such element also is established if a person acts purposely, knowingly, or recklessly. When recklessness suffices to establish an element, such element is also established if a person acts purposely or knowingly. When acting knowingly suffices to establish an element, such element is also established if a person acts purposely.
 5. When a particular purpose is an element of an offense, the element is established although such purpose is conditional, unless the condition negates the harm or evil sought to be prevented by the offense.
 6. When knowledge of the existence of a particular fact is an element of an offense, such knowledge is established if a person is or should be aware of a high probability of its existence, unless he/she actually believes that it does not exist.
 7. A requirement that an offense be committed willfully is satisfied if a person acts knowingly with respect to the material elements of the offense, unless a purpose to impose further requirements appears.
 8. The knowledge that certain conduct constitutes an offense is not an element of the offense unless the definition so provides. The lack of understanding of the meaning or application of the law is not a defense to an offense unless so specified.
 9. When the grade or degree of an offense depends on whether the offense is committed purposely, knowingly, recklessly, or negligently, its grade or degree shall be the lowest for which the

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

determinative kind of culpability is established with respect to any element of the offense. [TCR 86-79]

3-203 Causal relationship between conduct and result.

1. Conduct is the cause of a result when:
 - A. It is an antecedent but for which the result in question would not have occurred; and
 - B. The relationship between the cause and result satisfied any additional causal requirements imposed by this Code or the definition of the offense.
2. When a particular mental state is specified in conjunction with an element of an offense, proof of the existence of that element is not avoided because the actual result differed from that intended or that which was probable or likely under the circumstances either in kind or degree or because a different person or different property was injured or affected than that intended or than that which was probable or likely under the circumstances, unless such differences are sufficient without consideration of the mental state involved to constitute a defense or avoidance or unless such differences are of such magnitude that it would be unjust to find the element involved in light of such differences. [TCR 86-79]

3-204 Ignorance or mistake of fact.

1. The law provides that the actual state of mind which exists itself constitutes a defense when intent is an element of the offense. However, state of mind may be inferred from the acts of the defendant.
2. Although ignorance or mistake of fact will otherwise afford a defense to the offense charge, the defense is not available if the defendant would be guilty of another offense if the situation had been as he/she supposed, in which case the punishment available upon conviction shall not exceed that prescribed for the other offense. [TCR 86-79]

3-205 Liability for conduct of another.

1. A person is guilty of an offense if it is committed by his/her own conduct or by the conduct of another person for whom he/she is legally accountable, or both.
2. A person is legally accountable for the conduct of another person when:
 - A. Acting with the kind of culpability that is sufficient for the commission of the offense, he/she causes an innocent or irresponsible person to engage in such conduct, or
 - B. He/she is an accomplice of such other person in the commission of the offense.
3. A person is an accomplice of another person in the commission of an offense if:
 - A. With the purpose of promoting or facilitating the commission of an offense, he/she (i) aids or agrees or attempts to aid such other person in planning or committing it; or (ii) having legal duty to prevent the commission of the offense, fails to make proper effort to do so.
 - B. His/her conduct is expressly declared by law to establish his/her complicity.
4. When causing a particular result is an element of an offense, an accomplice in the conduct causing such result is an accomplice in the commission of that offense, if he/she acts with the kind of culpability, if any, with respect to that result that is sufficient for the commission of the offense.
5. A person who is legally incapable of committing a particular offense him/herself may be guilty thereof if it is committed by the conduct of another person for whom he/she is legally accountable, unless such liability is inconsistent with the purpose of his/her incapacity.
6. Unless otherwise provided by the Code or by the law defining the offense, a person is not an accomplice in an offense committed by another person if.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

- A. He/she is a victim of that offense; or
 - B. The offense is so defined that his/her conduct is inevitably incident to its commission; or
 - C. He/she terminates his/her complicity prior to the commission of the offense, and
 - i. Wholly deprives it of effectiveness in the offense; or gives timely warning to law enforcement authorities or otherwise makes proper effort to prevent the commission of the offense.
7. An accomplice may be convicted on proof of the commission of the offense and of his/her complicity therein, though the person claimed to have committed the offense has not been prosecuted or convicted of a different offense or degree of offense or has immunity from prosecution or has been acquitted.
8. Notwithstanding the above, no person shall be held legally accountable in any criminal proceeding for another's criminal conduct solely because of their familial or marital relationship with any person accused of criminal conduct. [TCR 86-79]

3-206 Corporation and unincorporated associations.

- 1. A person is legally accountable for any conduct he/she performs or causes to be performed in the name of a corporation or unincorporated association or in its behalf to the same extent as if it were performed in his/her own name or behalf.
- 2. Whenever a duty to act is imposed by law upon a corporation or unincorporated association, any agent of the corporation or association having primary responsibility for the discharge of the duty is legally accountable for a reckless omission to perform the required act to the same extent as if the duty were imposed by law directly upon him/herself.
- 3. When a person is convicted of an offense by reason of his/her legal accountability for the conduct of a corporation or an unincorporated association, he/she is subject to the sentence authorized by law when a natural person is convicted of an offense of the class involved. [TCR 86-79]

3-207 Intoxication.

- 1. Except as provided in subsection (4) of this Section, intoxication of the actor is not a defense unless it negates an element of the offense, including, but not limited to, "specific intent."
- 2. When recklessness establishes an element of the offense, if the actor, due to self-induced intoxication, is unaware of risk of which he/she would have been aware had he/she been sober, such lack of awareness is not a defense to the crime charged.
- 3. Intoxication does not, in itself, constitute a mental disease as that term is used in this Code.
- 4. Intoxication which (A) is not self induced, or (B) is the result of intoxication excessive in degree given the amount of intoxicant, to which result the actor does not know he/she is susceptible, is an affirmative defense if by reason thereof the defendant lacks substantial capacity either to appreciate the wrongfulness of his/her conduct or to conform his/her conduct to the requirements of the law.
- 5. "Intoxication" means a disturbance of mental or physical capabilities and/or capacities resulting from the introduction of substances into the body. Except as otherwise provided in the Code, intoxication must be proven by use of scientific testing equipment e.g., intoxilyzer. The arresting officer must have reasonable grounds to believe that such person has alcohol in his/her body, or has committed a moving traffic violation, or has been involved in a traffic accident. [TCR 86-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

3-208 Duress.

1. Except as herein otherwise provided, it is an affirmative defense that the actor engaged in conduct constituting an offense because he/she was coerced to do so by the use of, or threat to use, unlawful force against his/her person or the person of another, which a law-abiding person of reasonable firmness in his/her situation would have been unable to resist.
2. The defense provided in this Section is unavailable to a person who intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly places him/herself in a situation in which it is probable that he/she will be subject to duress.
3. It is not a defense that a spouse acted on the command of his/her spouse, unless they acted under coercion as would establish a defense under subsection (1) above. No presumption of duress arises from the mere presence of one spouse at the time the other acted.
4. The defense provided in this Section is unavailable in any situation where the coerced conduct threatens to cause death or serious bodily harm to some person other than the actor or does in fact cause such harm. [TCR 86-79]

3-209 Consent.

1. The consent of the victim to conduct constituting an offense or to the result thereof is a defense if such consent negates an element of the offense or precludes the infliction of the harm or evil sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense.
2. When conduct constitutes an offense because it threatens to cause or causes bodily harm, consent to such conduct or to the infliction of such harm is a defense only if:
 - A. The bodily harm consented to or threatened by the conduct consented to is not serious; or
 - B. The conduct and the harm are reasonably foreseeable hazards of joint participants in a lawful activity; or
 - C. The consent establishes a justification for the conduct under this Code.
3. Unless otherwise provided by the Code or the law defining the offense, assent does not constitute consent if:
 - A. It is given by a person who is legally incompetent to authorize the conduct constituting an offense; or
 - B. It is given by a person who by reason of youth, mental disease or defect or intoxication is manifestly unable or known to the actor to be unable to make a reasonable judgment as to the nature or the harmfulness of the conduct constituting the offenses; or
 - C. It is given by a person whose improvident consent is sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense; or
 - D. It is induced by force, duress, or deception. [TCR 86-79]

3-210 Entrapment.

1. A public law enforcement officer or official or a person acting in cooperation with such an official perpetrates an entrapment if for the purpose of obtaining evidence of the commission of an offense, he/she induces or encourages another person to engage in conduct constituting an offense by either:
 - A. Making knowingly false representations designed to induce the belief that such conduct is not prohibited; or
 - B. Employing methods of persuasion or inducement which create a substantial risk that such an offense will be committed by persons other than those who are ready to commit it in the absence of such inducement.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

2. The defense afforded by this Section shall be unavailable when causing or threatening bodily injury is an element of the offense charged and the prosecution is based on conduct causing or threatening such injury to a person other than the person perpetrating the entrapment.
3. Except as provided in (2) above, a person prosecuted for an offense shall be acquitted if he/she proves by a preponderance of the evidence that his/her conduct occurred in response to an entrapment. The issue of entrapment shall be tried to and decided by the court and not by jury. Evidence of past offenses shall be admissible only if the defendant takes the stand in his/her own defense. [TCR 86-79]

3-211 Mental disease or defect.

1. In any prosecution for an offense, it shall be a defense that the defendant, at the time of the conduct upon which the prosecution is based, as a result of mental disease or defect lacked substantial capacity either to appreciate the wrongfulness of his/her conduct or to conform his/her conduct to the requirement of the law.
2. As used in this Section, the terms mental diseases or defect do not include an abnormality manifested only by repeated criminal or otherwise antisocial conduct.
3. The defense afforded by this Section shall not be available unless notice of intent to rely on such defense is given at least two weeks before trial. By giving such notice, the defendant will be deemed to have consented to be examined for the prosecution by not more than two professional medical or other experts for the purpose of ascertaining the state of defendant's mental health.
4. No person who, as a result of mental disease or defect, lacks capacity to understand the proceedings against him/her or to assist in his/her own defense shall be tried, convicted, or sentenced for the commission of an offense so long as such incapacity endures.
5. The defendant shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that he/she has a mental disease or defect within the meaning of this Section. [TCR 86-79]

3-212 Justification; terms defined. As used in Sections 3-212 to 3-222 unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Unlawful forces" shall mean force, including confinement, which is employed without the consent of the person against whom it is directed and the employment of which constitutes an offense or actionable tort or would constitute such offense or tort except for a defense such as the absence of intent, negligence, or mental capacity, duress, youth, or diplomatic status; not amounting to a privilege to use the force;
2. "Assent" shall mean consent, whether or not it otherwise is legally effective, except assent to the infliction of death or serious bodily harm;
3. "Deadly force" shall mean force which the actor uses with the purpose of causing or which he/she knows to create a substantial risk of causing death or serious bodily harm. Purposely firing a firearm in the direction of another person or at a vehicle in which another person is believed to be constitutes deadly force. A threat to cause death or serious bodily harm, by the production of a weapon or otherwise, so long as the actor's purpose is limited to creating an apprehension that he/she will use deadly force if necessary, shall not constitute deadly force;
4. "Actor" shall mean any person who uses force in such a manner as to attempt to invoke the privileges and immunities afforded him/her by Sections 3-213 to 3-222, except any duly authorized law enforcement officer of the state, or the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, or the United States.
5. "Dwelling" shall mean any building or structure, though movable or temporary, or a portion thereto, which is for the time being the actor's home or place of lodging; and

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

6. “Public servants” shall mean any elected or appointed officer or employee of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, the United States, or the state, except any duly authorized law enforcement officer of the state, the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, or the United States. [TCR 86-79]

3-213 Justification; choice of evils.

1. Conduct which the actor believes to be necessary to avoid a harm or evil to him/her or to another is justifiable if:
 - A. The harm or evil sought to be avoided by such conduct is greater than that sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense charged;
 - B. Neither Section 3-213 to 3-222, nor other law defining the offense provides exceptions for defenses dealing with the specific situation involved; and
 - C. A legislative purpose to exclude the justification claimed does not otherwise plainly appear.
2. When the actor was reckless or negligent in bringing about the situation requiring a choice of harms or evils or in appraising the necessity for his/her conduct, the justification afforded by this Section is unavailable in prosecution for any offense for which recklessness or negligence, as the case may be, suffices to establish culpability. [TCR 86-79]

3-214 Public duty; execution.

1. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this Section, conduct is justifiable when it is required or authorized by:
 - A. The law defining the duties or functions of a public officer or the assistance to be rendered to such officer in the performance of his/her duties;
 - B. The law governing the execution of legal process;
 - C. The judgment or order of a competent court or tribunal;
 - D. The law governing the armed services or the lawful conduct of war; or
 - E. Any other provision of law imposing a public duty.
2. Sections 3-213 to 3-222, shall apply to:
 - A. The use of force upon or toward the person of another for any of the purposes dealt with in such sections; and
 - B. The use of deadly force for any purpose, unless the use of such force is otherwise expressly authorized by law or occurs in the lawful conduct of war.
3. The justification afforded by subsection (1) of this Section shall apply:
 - A. When the actor believes his/her conduct to be required or authorized by the judgment or direction of a competent court or tribunal or in the lawful execution of legal process, notwithstanding lack of jurisdiction of the court or defect in the legal process; and
 - B. When the actor believes his/her conduct to be required or authorized to assist a public officer in the performance of his/her duties, notwithstanding that the officer exceeded this legal authority. [TCR 86-79]

3-215 Use of force; self-protection.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Section and of Section 3-220, the use of force upon or toward another person is justifiable when the actor believes that such force is immediately necessary for the purpose of protecting him/herself against the use of unlawful force by such other person on the present occasion.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

2. The use of such force is not justifiable under this Section to resist an affect which the actor known is being made by a peace officer, although the arrest is unlawful.
3. The use of such force is not justifiable under this Section to resist force by the occupier or possessor of property or by another person on his/her behalf, where the actor knows that the person using the force is doing so under a claim of right to protect the property, except that this limitation shall not apply if:
 - A. The actor is a public officer acting in the performance of his/her duties or person lawfully assisting him/her therein or a person making or assisting in a lawful arrest;
 - B. The actor has been unlawfully dispossessed of the property and is making are entry or recapture justified by Section 3-217; or
 - C. The actor believes that such force is necessary to protect him/herself against death or serious bodily harm.
4. The use of deadly force shall not be justifiable under this Section unless the actor believes that such force is necessary to protect him/herself against death, serious bodily harm, kidnapping or sexual intercourse compelled by force or threat, nor is it justifiable if:
 - A. The actor, with the purpose of causing death or serious bodily harm, provoked the use of force against him/herself in the same encounter; or
 - B. The actor knows that he/she can avoid the necessity of using such force with complete safety by retreating or by surrendering possession of a thing to a person asserting a claim of right thereto or by complying with a demand that he/she abstain from any action which he/she has no duty to take, except that:
 - i. The actor shall not be obliged to retreat from his/her dwelling or place of work, unless he/she was the initial aggressor or is assailed in his/her place of work by another person whose place of work the actor knows it to be; and a public officer justified in using force in the performance of his/her duties or person justified in using force in his/her assistance or a person justified in using force in making an arrest or preventing an escape shall not be obliged to desist from efforts to perform such duty, effect such arrest or prevent such escape because of resistance or threatened resistance by or on behalf of the person against whom such action is directed.
5. Except as required by subsections (3) and (4) of this Section, a person employing protective force may estimate the necessity thereof under the circumstance as he/she believes them to be when the force is used, without retreating, surrendering possession, doing any other act which he/she has no legal duty to do, or abstaining from any lawful action.
6. The justification afforded by this Section extends to the use of confinement as protective force only if the actor takes all reasonable measures to terminate the confinement as soon as he/she knows that he/she safely can do so, unless the person confined has been arrested on charge of crime. [TCR 86-79]

3-216 Use of force; protection of other persons.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Section and of Section 3-210, the use of force upon or toward the person of another is justifiable to protect a third person when:
 - A. The actor would be justified under Section 3-215, in using such force to protect him/herself against the injury he/she believes to be threatened to the person whom he/she seeks to protect;
 - B. Under the circumstances as the actor believes them to be, the person whom he/she seeks to protect would be justified in using such protective force; and

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

- C. The actor believes that his/her intervention is necessary for the protection of such other person.
- 2. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this Section:
 - A. When the actor would be obliged under Section 3-215 to retreat, to surrender the possession of a thing or to comply with a demand before using force in self-protection, he/she shall not be obliged to do so before using force for the protection of another person, unless he/she knows that he/she can thereby secure the complete safety of such other person;
 - B. When the person whom the actor seeks to protect would be obliged under Section 3-215 to retreat, to surrender the possession of a thing or to comply with a demand if he/she knew that he/she could obtain complete safety by so doing, the actor is obliged to try to cause him/her to do so before using force in his/her protection if the actor knows that he/she can obtain complete safety in that way; and
 - C. Neither the actor nor the person whom he/she seeks to protect is obliged to retreat when in the other's dwelling or place of work to any greater extent than in his/her own. [TCR 86-79]

3-217 Use of force; protection of property

- 1. Subject to the provisions of this Section and of Section 3-220, the use of force upon or toward the person of another is justifiable when the actor believes that such force is immediately necessary:
 - A. To prevent or terminate an unlawful entry or other trespass upon land or a trespass against or the unlawful carrying away of tangible, movable property; provided, that such land or movable property is, or is believed by the actor to be, in his/her possession or in the possession of another person for whose protection he/she acts; or
 - B. To effect an entry or reentry upon land or to retake tangible movable property; provided, that the actor believes that he/she or the person by whose authority he/she acts or a person from whom he/she or such other person derives title was unlawfully dispossessed of such land or movable property and is entitled to possession and provided that:
 - i. The force is used immediately or on fresh pursuit after such dispossession; or
 - ii. The actor believes that the person against whom he/she uses force has no claim of right to the possession of the property and, in the case of land, the circumstances, as the actor believes them to be, are of such urgency that it would be an exceptional hardship to postpone the entry or reentry until a court order is obtained.
- 2. For the purposes of subsection (1) of this Section:
 - A. A person who had parted with the custody of property to another who refuses to restore it to him/her is no longer in possession, unless such property is movable and was and still is located on land in his/her possession;
 - B. A person who has been dispossessed of land does not regain possession thereof merely by setting foot there on; and
 - C. A person who has a license to use or occupy real property is deemed to be in possession thereof except against the licenser acting under claim of right.
- 3. The use of force is justifiable under this Section only if the actor first requests the person against whom such force is used to desist from his/her interference with the property, unless the actor believes that:
 - A. Such request would be useless;
 - B. It would be dangerous to him/herself or another person to make the request; or

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

- C. Substantial harm will be done to the physical condition of the property which is sought to be protected before the request can effectively be made.
4. The use of force to prevent or terminate at trespass is not justifiable under this Section if the actor knows that dire exclusion of the trespasser will expose him/her to substantial danger of serious bodily harm.
5. The use of force to prevent an entry or reentry upon land or the recapture of movable property is not justifiable under this Section although the actor believes that such reentry or recapture is unlawful, if:
- A. The reentry or recapture is made by or on behalf of a person who was actually dispossessed of the property; and
- B. It is otherwise justifiable under subsection (1)(B) of this Section.
6. The use of deadly force is not justifiable under this Section unless the actor believes that the person against whom the force is used is attempting to commit or consummate arson, burglary, robbery or other felonious theft or property destruction and either:
- A. Has employed or threatened deadly force against or in the presence of the actor; or
- B. The use of force other than deadly force to prevent the commission or the consummation of the crime would expose the actor or another in his/her presence to substantial danger of serious bodily harm.
7. The justification afforded by this Section extends to the use of confinement as protective force only if the actor takes all reasonable measures to terminate the confinement as soon as he/she knows that he/she can do so with safety to the property, unless the person confined has been arrested on a charge of crime.
8. The justification afforded by this Section extends to the use of advice for the purpose of protecting property only if:
- A. Such device is not designed to cause or known to create a substantial risk of causing death or serious bodily harm;
- B. Such use of the particular device to protect such property from entry or trespass is reasonable under the circumstances, as the actor believes them to be; and
- C. Such device is one customarily used for such a purpose or reasonable care is taken to make known to probable intruders the fact that it is used.
9. The use of force to pass a person whom the actor believes to be purposely or knowingly and unjustifiably obstructing the actor from going to a place to which he/she may lawfully go is justifiable if:
- A. The actor believes that the person against whom he/she uses force has no claim of right to obstruct the actor;
- B. The actor is not being obstructed from entry or movement on land which he/she knows to be in the possession or custody of the person obstructing him/her, or in the possession or custody of another person by whose authority the obstructer acts, unless the circumstances, as the actor believes them to be, are of such urgency that it would not be reasonable to postpone the entry or movement on such land until a court order is obtained; and
- C. The force used is not greater than would be justifiable if the person obstructing the actor were using force against him/her to prevent his/her passage. [TCR 86-79]

3-218 Use of force; law enforcement.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Section and of Section 3-220, the use of force upon or toward the person of another is justifiable when the actor is making or assisting an arrest and the actor believes that such force is immediately necessary to effect a lawful arrest.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

2. The use of force is not justifiable under this Section unless:
 - A. The actor makes known the purpose of the arrest or believes that it is otherwise known by or cannot reasonably be made known to the person to be arrested; and
 - B. When the arrest is made under a warrant, the warrant is valid or believed by the actor to be valid.
3. The use of deadly force is not justifiable under this Section unless:
 - A. The arrest is for a criminal offense;
 - B. Such person effecting the arrest is authorized to act as a peace officer or is assisting a person whom he/she believes to be authorized to act as a peace officer;
 - C. The actor believes that the force employed creates no substantial risk of injury to innocent persons; and the actor reasonably believes that: force; or the crime for which the arrest is made involved conduct including the use or threatened use of deadly.
 - i. There is a substantial risk that the person to be arrested will cause death or serious bodily harm if this apprehension is delayed.
4. The use of reasonable force to prevent the escape of an arrested person from custody is justifiable. A guard or other person authorized to act as a peace officer is justified in using reasonable force which he/she believes to be immediately necessary to prevent the escape of a person from jail, prison, or other institution for the detention of persons charged with or convicted of a crime.
5. A private person who assists another private person in effecting an unlawful arrest, or who assists a peace officer in effecting an unlawful arrest, is justified in using force which he/she would be justified in using if the arrest were lawful, if:
 - A. He/she reasonably believes the arrest is lawful; and
 - B. The arrest would be lawful if the facts were as he/she believes them to be.
6. The use of force upon or toward the person of another is justifiable when the actor believes that such force is immediately necessary to prevent such other person from committing suicide, inflicting serious bodily harm upon him/herself, committing or consummating the commission of a crime involving or threatening bodily harm, damage to or loss of property or a breach of the peace, except that:
 - A. Any initiation imposed by the other provisions of Sections 3-212 to 3-222 on the justifiable use of force in self-protection, for the protection of others, the protection of property, the effectuation of an arrest or the prevention of an escape from custody shall apply notwithstanding the criminality of the conduct against which such force is used; and
 - B. The use of deadly force is not in any event justifiable under this subsection unless the actor reasonably believes that there is a substantial risk that the person who he/she seeks to prevent from committing a crime will cause death or serious bodily harm to another unless the commission or the consummation of the crime is prevented and that the use of such force presents no substantial risk of injury to innocent persons.
7. The justification afforded by subsection (6) of this Section extends to the use of confinement as preventive force only if the actor takes all reasonable measures to terminate the confinement as soon as he/she knows that he/she safely can do so, unless the person confined has been arrested on a charge of crime. [TCR 86-79, 89-87]

3-219 Use of force by person with special responsibility for care, discipline, or safety of others. The use of force upon or toward the person of another is justifiable if:

1. The actor is the parent or guardian or other person similarly responsible for the general care and supervision if a minor or a person acting at the request of such parent, guardian or other responsible person and:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

- A. Such force is used for the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the welfare of the minor, including the prevention or punishment of his/her misconduct; and
 - B. Such force used is not designed to cause or known to create a substantial risk of causing death, serious bodily harm, disfigurement, extreme pain or mental distress or gross degradation; or
2. The actor is a teacher or a person otherwise entrusted with the care or supervision for a special purpose of a minor and:
 - A. The actor believes that the force used is necessary to further such special purpose, including the maintenance of reasonable discipline in a school, class or other group, and that the use of such force is consistent with the welfare of the minor; and
 - B. The degree of force, if it had been used by the parent or guardian of the minor, would not be unjustifiable under subdivision (1)(B) of this Section;
 3. The actor is the guardian or other person similarly responsible for the general care and supervision of an incompetent person, and:
 - A. Such force is used for the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the welfare of the incompetent person, including the prevention of his/her misconduct, or, when such incompetent person is in a hospital or other institution for his/her care and custody, for the maintenance of reasonable discipline in such institution; and
 - B. Such force used is not designed to cause or known to create a substantial risk of causing death, serious bodily harm, disfigurement, extreme or unnecessary pain, mental distress, or humiliation;
 4. The actor is a doctor or other therapist or a person assisting him/her at his/her direction, and:
 - A. Such force is used for the purpose of administering a recognized form of treatment which the actor believes to be adapted to promoting the physical or mental health of the patient; and
 - B. Such treatment is administered with the consent of the patient or, if the patient is a minor or an incompetent person, with the consent of his/her parent or guardian or other person legally competent to consent in his/her behalf, or the treatment is administered in an emergency when the actor believes that no one competent to consent can be consulted and that a reasonable person, wishing to safeguard the welfare of the patient, would consent;
 5. The actor is a jailer or other authorized official of a jail and:
 - A. He/she believes that the force used is necessary for the purpose of enforcing the lawful rules or procedures of the institution, unless his/her belief in the lawfulness of the rule or procedure sought to be enforced is erroneous and his/her error is the result of ignorance or mistake as to the provisions of Sections 3-212 to 3-222, any other provisions of the criminal law, or the law governing the administration of the institution;
 - B. The nature or degree of force used is not forbidden by Sections 3-214 to 3-215; and
 - C. If deadly force is used, its use is otherwise justifiable under Sections 3-212 to 3-222;
 6. The actor is a person who is authorized or required by law to maintain order or decorum in a vehicle, train or other carrier or in a place where others are assembled, and:
 - A. He/she believes that the force used is necessary for such purpose; and
 - B. Such force used is not designed to cause or known to create a substantial risk of causing death, bodily harm, or extreme mental distress. [TCR 86-79]

3-220 Mistake of law; reckless or negligent use of force.

1. The justification afforded by Sections 3-215 to 3-218, is unavailable when:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 2

- A. The actor's belief in the unlawfulness of the force or conduct against which he/she employs protective force or his/her belief in the lawfulness of an arrest which he/she endeavors to effect by force is erroneous; and
 - B. His/her error is the result of ignorance or mistake as to the provisions of Sections 3-212 to 3-222, any other provision of the criminal law, or the law governing the legality of an arrest or search.
2. When the actor believes that the use of force toward another person is justifiable (as under Sections 3-216 to 3-219), but, the actor is reckless or negligent in having such belief, the justification afforded by those sections is unavailable in a prosecution or an offense for which recklessness or negligence, as the case may be, suffices to establish culpability.
 3. When the actor is justified under Sections 3-214 to 3-219 in using force upon or toward the person of another but he/she recklessly or negligently injures or creates a risk of injury to innocent persons, the justification afforded by those sections is unavailable in a prosecution for such recklessness or negligence towards innocent persons. [TCR 86-79]

3-221 Justification in property crimes. Conduct involving the appropriation, seizure or destruction of, damage to, intrusion on or interference with property is justifiable under circumstances which would establish a defense of privilege in a civil action based thereon, unless:

1. Sections 3-212 to 3-222, or the law defining the offense deals with the specific situation involved; or
2. A legislative purpose to exclude the justification claimed otherwise plainly appears. [TCR 86-79]

3-222 Justification an affirmative defense; civil remedies unaffected.

1. In any prosecution based on conduct which is justifiable under Sections 3-212 to 3-222, justification is an affirmative defense.
2. The fact that conduct is justifiable under Sections 3-212 to 3-222, does not abolish or impair any remedy for such conduct which is available in any civil action. [TCR 86-79]

3. Arson in the first degree is a Class I offense. [TCR 86-79]

3-303 Arson, second degree; penalty.

1. A person commits arson in the second degree if he/she intentionally damages a building by starting a fire or causing an explosion or if a fire is started or an explosion is caused in the perpetration of any robbery, burglary, or criminal mischief.
2. The following affirmative defenses may be introduced into evidence upon prosecution for a violation of this Section:
 - a. No person other than the accused has a security or proprietary interest in the damaged building, or, if other persons have such interests, all of them consented to his/her conduct; or
 - b. The accused's sole intent was to destroy or damage the building for a lawful and proper purpose.

Any person who, with the intent to deceive or harm an insurer, sets fire to or burns or attempts so to do, or who causes to be burned, or who aids, counsels or procures the burning of any building or personal property, of whatsoever class or character, whether the property is of him/herself or of another, which shall at the time be insured by any person, company or corporation against loss or damage by fire, commits a Class I offense. [TCR 86-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 3

Property in possession of the actor shall not be deemed property of another who has only a security interest therein, even if legal title is in the creditor pursuant to a conditional sales contract or other security agreement;

7. "Receiving" shall mean acquiring possession, control or title, or lending on the security of the property, and
8. "Stolen" shall mean property which has been the subject of theft or robbery or a vehicle which is received from a person who is then in violation of Section 3-318. [TCR 86-79]

3-310 Consolidation of theft offenses. Conduct denominated theft in Sections 3-309 to 3-319 constitutes a single offense embracing the separated offenses heretofore known as larceny, embezzlement, false pretense, extortion, blackmail, fraudulent conversion, receiving stolen property, and the like. An accusation of theft may be supported by evidence that it was committed in any manner that would be theft under Sections 3-309 to 3-319, notwithstanding the specification of a different manner in the indictment or information, subject only to the power of the court to insure fair trial by granting a continuance or other appropriate relief where the conduct of the defense would be prejudiced by lack of fair notice or by surprise. [TCR 86-79]

3-311 Theft by unlawful taking or disposition.

1. A person is guilty of theft if he/she takes, or exercises control over, movable property of another with the intent to deprive him/her thereof.
2. A person is guilty of theft if he/she transfers immovable property of another or any interest therein with the intent to benefit him/herself or another not entitled thereto.
3. For the purposes of this Section, it shall be presumed that a lessee's failure to return leased or rented movable property to the lessor after the expiration of a written lease or written rental agreement is done with intent to deprive if such lessee has been mailed notice by certified mail that such lease or rental agreement has expired and he/she has failed within ten (10) days after such notice to return such property. [TCR 86-79]

3-312 Theft by shoplifting: penalty.

1. A person commits the crime of theft by shoplifting when he/she, with the intent of appropriating merchandise to his/her own use without paying for the same or to deprive the owner of possession of such property or its retail value, in whole or in part, does any of the following:

3-313 Theft by deception. A person commits theft if he/she obtains property of another by deception. A person deceives if he/she intentionally:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 3 ARTICLE 3

1. Creates or reinforces a false impression, including false impressions as to law, value, intention, or other state of mind; but deception as to a person's intention to perform a promise shall not be inferred from the fact alone that he/she did not subsequently perform the promise; or
2. Prevents another from acquiring information which would affect his/her judgment of transaction; or
3. Fails to correct a false impression which the deceiver previously created or reinforced, or which the deceiver knows to be influencing another to whom he/she stands in a fiduciary or confidential relationship; or
4. Uses a credit card, charge plate, or any other instrument which purports to evidence an undertaking to pay for property or services delivered or rendered to or upon the order of a designated person or bearer:
 - A. Where such instrument has been stolen, forged, revoked or canceled, or where for any other reason its use by the actor is unauthorized; or
 - B. Where the actor does not have the intention and ability to meet all obligations to the issuer arising out of his/her use of the instrument. The word deceive does not include falsity as to matter having no pecuniary significance, or statements unlikely to deceive ordinary persons in the group addressed. [TCR 86-79]

3-314 Theft by extortion.

1. A person commits theft if he/she obtains property of another by threatening to:
 - A. Inflict bodily injury on anyone or commit any other criminal offense; or
 - B. Accuse anyone of a criminal offense; or
 - C. Expose any secret tending to subject any person to hatred, contempt or ridicule, or to impair his/her credit or business repute; or
 - D. Take or withhold action as an official, or cause an official to take or withhold action; or
 - E. Bring about or continue a strike, boycott, or other collective unofficial action, if the property is not received for the benefit of group in whose interest the actor purports to act; or
 - F. Testify or provide information or withhold testimony or information with respect to another's legal claim or defense.
 - G. It is an affirmative defense to prosecution based on subdivision (1)(B), (1)(C), or (1)(D) of this Section that the property obtained by threat of accusation, exposure, lawsuit or other invocation of official action was honestly claimed as restitution or indemnification for harm done in the circumstances to which such accusation, exposure, lawsuit or other official action relates, or as compensation for property or lawful services. No other restriction, such as mail censorship or being placed in solitary confinement, is related to the stated purpose of pretrial detention.

If a reference in this Code is specific to biological parent, the term “biological parent” will be used.
44. “Protective supervision” means a legal status created by Court order under which the child is permitted to remain in his/her own home under the supervision of the Juvenile Court through the Tribal social services department during the period during which treatment is being provided to the family by the Tribal social services department or other agencies designated by the Court.

Before the plea is entered, or in case an offense is charged, at any time prior to or at the preliminary hearing, the Court shall advise any person who was juvenile at the time of the commission of the alleged act charged in any court other than a Juvenile Court, that such juvenile may orally or in writing move the Court in which the charge is pending to waive jurisdiction to the Juvenile Court for further proceedings. The prosecutor shall present the evidence and reasons why the case should be retained, and the defendant shall present evidence and reasons why the case should be transferred. The Court shall give due consideration to the criteria set forth in Section 4-122. Certification of such cases shall occur only when it is made to appear to the Tribal Court that some interest of the Juvenile Court in a matter pending before it will be served thereby.
2. In any case in which a child has come within the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court, that court shall have authority to exercise jurisdiction over adults to the extent necessary or reasonably believed to be necessary to make a proper disposition of each case, including authority to punish for contempt committed either in or out of the Court's presence.  - D. He/she has violated the conditions of probation and he/she is under the continuing jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court.
2. A child may be detained temporarily without an order of the Court by an adult other than a law enforcement officer if the child has committed or is committing an act in the presence of such adult which would be a violation of any federal or Tribal law, other than a violation of traffic and game and fish laws or regulations, if committed by an adult. The law enforcement officer assuming custody shall have the authority to consent to the admission of the child to a medical facility and to consent to emergency medical treatment necessary to protect the life or health of the child from danger of imminent harm. 4. A juvenile probation officer may take a child into temporary custody under any of the circumstances stated in subsection (1)(A) or (1)(D).
5. In all other cases, a child may be taken into custody only upon an order of the Court.

Such notification may be made to a person with whom the child is residing if a parent, guardian, or legal custodian cannot be located. If the officer taking the child into custody is unable to make such notification, it may be made by any other law enforcement officer, probation counselor, detention center counselor, or jailer in whose physical custody the child is placed. [TCR 86-79]

No such child shall thereafter be released from detention except for a hearing, reasonable advanced notice of which has been given to the Tribal prosecutor alleging new circumstances concerning the further detention of the child.
2. When, following a detention hearing as provided for by subsection (1) of this Section, the Court orders further detention of a child, a petition alleging the child to be delinquent shall be filed with the Court without unnecessary delay if one has not been previously filed, and the child shall be held in detention pending a hearing on the petition.

Upon a showing of compliance with the terms of the contract, the Court shall dismiss the petition unless it determines by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the child is in imminent danger of severe physical or mental harm. Proof of the contract shall not be an admission of the parents, guardian, or custodian of any of the facts alleged therein. [TCR 86-79]

- C. The department or the Bureau of Indian Affairs Social Services Department has prepared a treatment plan for the family to be incorporated into the consent decree which distinctly states:
- i. The specific treatment programs the parents, guardian, or custodian, or child agree to successfully complete and their duration;

The consent decree shall be monitored and modified as in other dispositions, provided that if the family fails to comply with the treatment plan, the Court, on motion of the prosecutor (presenting officer) shall proceed with adjudication.
3. A consent decree shall remain in effect for not exceeding one year, provided, that upon decree for an additional term of one year with the notice of hearing, the Court may extend the force of the decree and consent of the parties. TITLE 4 ARTICLE 3

3. The Court may appoint a guardian ad litem for any parent in proceedings who has been determined to be mentally ill by a court of competent jurisdiction, or is developmentally disabled; except that, if a conservator has been appointed, the conservator may serve as the guardian ad litem. If the conservator does not serve as guardian ad litem, he/she shall be informed that a guardian ad litem has been appointed.
4. At the time any child first appears in Court, if it is determined that he/she has no guardian of his/her person, the Court shall appoint a guardian of the child before proceeding with the matter.
5. In all proceedings brought for the protection of a child suffering from abuse or non-accidental injury, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed for said child. Said guardian shall have the power to represent the child in the legal proceedings.
6. All guardian ad litem shall, whenever practical, be required to personally visit the place of residence of the child. [TCR 86-79]

4-308 Guardian ad litem duties. In the course of discharging duties as guardian ad litem, the person so appointed shall consider, but not be limited to, the criteria provided in this Section. The guardian ad litem:

1. Is appointed to stand in lieu of a parent for a protected juvenile who is the subject of a Juvenile Court petition and shall be present at all hearings before the Court in such matter unless expressly excused by the Court, and may enter into such stipulations and agreements concerning adjudication and disposition deemed by him/her to be in the juvenile's best interests.
2. Is not appointed to prosecute or defend the parents or other custodian of the protected juvenile, but shall defend the legal and social interests of such juvenile. Social interest shall be defined generally as the usual and reasonable expectations of society for the appropriate parental custody and protection and quality of life for juveniles without regard to the socioeconomic status of the parents or other custodians of the juvenile.
3. May at any time after the filing of the petition move the Court of jurisdiction to provide medical or psychological treatment or evaluation that may be needed. The guardian ad litem shall have access to all reports resulting from any examination ordered and such reports shall be used for evaluating the status of the protected juvenile.
4. Shall make every reasonable effort to become familiar with the needs of the protected juvenile which may include:
 - A. Visitation with the juvenile within two weeks after the appointment and once every six months thereafter; and
 - B. Consultation with caseworkers, physicians, psychologists, foster parents or other custodians, teachers, clergy members, and others directly involved with the juvenile or who may have information or knowledge about the circumstances which brought the Juvenile Court action or related cases, and the development of the juvenile.

At the adjudicatory hearing, which shall be conducted as provided in the rules of juvenile procedure, except that the rules of criminal procedure shall apply in delinquency cases, the Court shall consider whether the allegations of the petition are supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning delinquent children or children in need of supervision or by

- a preponderance of the evidence in cases concerning neglected or dependent children or children-in-need-of-care; except that jurisdictional matters of the age and residence of the child shall be deemed admitted by or on behalf of the child unless specifically denied prior to the adjudicatory hearing.
2. When it appears that the evidence presented at the hearing discloses issues not raised in the petition, the Court may proceed immediately to consider the additional or different matters raised by the evidence if the parties consent.
 3. In such event, the Court, on the motion of any interested party or on its own motion, shall order the petition to be amended to conform to the evidence.
 4. If the amendment results in a substantial departure from the original allegations in the petition, the Court shall continue the hearing on the motion of any interested party, or the Court may grant a continuance on its own motion if it finds it to be in the best interests of the child or any other party to the proceeding.
 5. An adjudicatory hearing shall be held within ten days of receipt of the petition by the Court. The Court shall conduct the hearing for the sole purpose of determining the guilt or innocence of a juvenile offender or for determining if a minor is a minor-in-need-of-care, dependent or neglected.
 6. If it appears from the evidence that the child may be mentally ill or developmentally disabled the Court shall proceed under Section 4-310.
 7. Before making an adjudication, the Court may continue the hearing from time to time, allowing the child to remain in his/her own home or in the temporary custody of another person or agency subject to such conditions of conduct and of visitation or supervision by the department or Bureau of Indian Affairs Social Services Department as the Court may prescribe, if:
 - A. Consent is given by the child and his/her parent, guardian, or other legal custodian after being fully informed by the Court of their rights in the proceeding, including their right to have an adjudication made either dismissing or sustaining the petition;
 - B. Such continuation shall extend no longer than six months without review by the Court. Upon review, the Court may continue the case for any additional period not to exceed six months, after which the petition shall be either dismissed or sustained.
 8. When the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are not supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning children-in-need-of-supervision or by a preponderance of the evidence in cases concerning neglected or dependent children, the Court shall order the petition dismissed and the child discharged from any detention or restriction previously ordered. His/her parents, guardian, or other legal custodian shall also be discharged from any restriction or other previous temporary order.
 9. When the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning children-in-need-of-supervision or juvenile delinquency or by a preponderance of the evidence in cases concerning neglected or dependent child, the Court shall:
 - A. Sustain the petition and shall make an order of adjudication setting forth whether the child is in need of supervision, or neglected or dependent. In cases concerning neglected or dependent children, evidence that child abuse or non-accidental injury has occurred shall constitute prima facie evidence that such child is neglected or dependent and such evidence shall be sufficient to support an adjudication under this Section;
 - B. The Court shall then hold the dispositional hearing but such hearing may be continued on the motion of any interested party or on the motion of the Court. [TCR 86-79]

 3. If the report of the examination made pursuant to subsection (1) of this Section states that the child is mentally ill to the extent that hospitalization or institutional confinement and treatment is required, the Court may order such hospitalization, institutional confinement, or treatment prior to or after adjudication.
 4. The Court may dismiss the original petition when a child who has been ordered to receive treatment is no longer receiving treatment.
 5. The Court shall set a time for resuming the hearing on the original petition when:
 - A. The report of the examination made pursuant to subsection (1) of this Section states that the child is not mentally ill to the extent that hospitalization or institutional confinement and treatment are required;
 - B. The child is found not to be mentally ill;
 - C. The report of the examination made pursuant to subsection (1) of this Section states that the child is developmentally disabled but not mentally ill.

[TCR 86-79-15-127]

4-312 Dismissal of petition. When the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are not supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning delinquent children or children in need of supervision or by clear and convincing evidence in cases concerning neglected or dependent children, the Court shall order the petition dismissed and the child discharged from any detention or restriction previously ordered. His/her parents, guardian, or other legal custodian shall also be discharged from any restriction on the previous temporary order. [TCR 86-79]

4-313 Sustaining petition. When the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning delinquent children or children-in-need-of-supervision or by clear and convincing evidence in cases concerning neglected or dependent children, the Court shall sustain the petition and make an order of adjudication setting forth whether the child is delinquent, in need of supervision, or neglected or dependent and making the child a ward of the Court. In cases concerning neglected or dependent children, evidence that child abuse or non-accidental injury has occurred shall constitute prima facie evidence that such child is neglected or dependent and such evidence shall be sufficient to support an adjudication under this Section. 8. The individual, institution, or agency vested with the legal custody of a child may petition the Court for renewal of the decree. The Court, after notice and hearing, may renew the decree for such additional period as the Court may determine, if it finds such renewal to be in the best interest of the child. The findings of the Court and the reasons therefore shall be entered with the order renewing or denying renewal of the decree.
9. No legal custodian or guardian of the person may be removed without his/her consent until given notice and an opportunity to be heard by the Court if he/she so requests. [TCR 86-79]

4-414 Probation for delinquents and children in need of supervision.

The Court, as a condition of probation for a child who is fourteen years of age or older but less than nineteen years of age on the date of the dispositional hearing, has the power to impose a commitment, placement, or detention, whether continuous or at designated intervals, which shall not exceed forty five days. Each child placed on probation shall be given written statement of the terms and conditions of his/her probation and shall have such terms and conditions fully explained to him/her.
2. The Court shall review the terms and conditions of probation and the progress of each child placed on probation at least once every six months.
3. The Court may release a child from probation or modify the terms and conditions of his/her probation at any time, but any child who has complied satisfactorily with the terms and conditions of his/her probation for a period of two years shall be released from probation, and the jurisdiction of the Court shall be terminated. [TCR 86-79, 15-127]

4-415 Violation of probation.

1. When it is alleged that a child has violated the terms and conditions of his/her probation, the Court shall set a hearing on the alleged violation and shall give notice to the child and his/her parents, guardian or other legal custodian, and any other parties to the proceeding.
2. The child, his/her parents, guardian, or other legal custodian shall be given a written statement concerning the alleged violation and shall have the right to be represented by counsel at the hearing, at his/her or their own cost, and shall be entitled to the issuance of compulsory process for the attendance of witnesses.
3. The hearing on the alleged violation shall be conducted as soon as possible.
4. If the Court finds that the child violated the terms and conditions of probation, it may modify the terms and conditions of probation, revoke probation, or make such other action as permitted by this Article which is in the best interest of the child and the Tribe.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 4 ARTICLE 4

5. If the Court finds that the child did not violate the terms and conditions of his/her probation as alleged, it shall dismiss the proceedings and continue the child on probation under the terms and conditions previously described.
6. If the Court revokes the probation of a person over nineteen years of age, in addition to other action permitted by this Article, the Court may sentence him/her to the Tribal jail for a period not to exceed one hundred eighty days during which he/she may be released during the day for school attendance, job training, or employment, as ordered by the Court. [TCR 86-79, 15-127]

4-416 New hearing authorized.

1. A parent, guardian, custodian, or next friend of any child adjudicated under this Article, or any person affected by a decree in a proceeding under this Article, may petition the Court for a new hearing on the following grounds:
 - A. That new evidence, which was not known or could not with due diligence have been made available at the original hearing and which might affect the decree, has been discovered;
 - B. That irregularities in the proceedings prevented a fair hearing.
2. If it appears to the Court that the motion should be granted, it shall order a new hearing and shall make such disposition of the case as warranted by all the facts and circumstances and the best interest of the child. [TCR 86-79, 15-127]

4-417 Continuing jurisdiction. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the jurisdiction of the Court over any child adjudicated as neglected or dependent or in-need-of-care, or in-need-of-supervision, or delinquent shall continue until he/she becomes nineteen years of age unless terminated by Court order. [TCR 86-79, 15-127]

4-418 Permanency Hearings

1. The Court shall hold a permanency hearing to determine the permanent plan for the child. The permanency hearing may be combined with the periodic review hearing. The permanency hearing shall be held within twelve (12) months from the date that a child enters foster care, or within thirty (30) days after the Court finds that reasonable efforts to reunite the family are no longer required. A child shall be considered to have entered foster care on the earlier of the following two (2) dates: (1) The date of the adjudicatory hearing finding that the child is a child-in-need-of-care; or (2) The date that is sixty (60) days after the date the child was removed from the home.
2. At least 2 days prior to the permanency hearing, the Department will develop and submit to the Court a report that recommends and justifies a permanent placement option for the child. The report will consider the appropriateness of parental reunification, adoption, legal guardianship, permanent placement with fit relative, or an alternate planned permanent living arrangement. The Department shall make its placement recommendations based upon the best interests of the child.
3. For any child who continues to be in an out-of-home placement, subsequent permanency hearings shall be held at least every six (6) months from the date of the previous permanency hearing until jurisdiction over the child terminates.
4. At each permanency hearing, the Court shall consult with the child in an age-appropriate manner regarding the proposed permanency plan and include the following in its orders:
 - A. whether the current permanency plan for the child remains the appropriate plan to meet the health, safety, welfare, and best interests of the child;
 - B. the extent of compliance with the permanency plan for the child;
 - C. the adequacy of services provided to the child and the child's parent(s), guardian or legal custodian to reunite the family within a reasonable period of time and to find a permanent home for the child in the event that reunification is not possible; and

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 4 ARTICLE 4

- D. whether additional services are necessary to support the permanent plan, including services needed to assist the child to make a transition from foster care to successful adulthood for any child that has attained age 14.
- 5. In addition to the foregoing requirements in this section, for any child for whom another planned permanent living arrangement is the permanency plan determined for the child:
 - A. the Department shall document in its report
 - i. the intensive, ongoing, and, as of the date of the hearing, unsuccessful efforts made by the agency to return the child home or secure a placement for the child with a fit and willing relative (including adult siblings), a legal guardian, or an adoptive parent, including through efforts that utilize search technology (including social media) to find biological family members for the children; and
 - ii. the steps the Department is taking to ensure that:
 - a. the child's foster family home or child care institution is following the reasonable and prudent parent standard; and
 - b. the child has regular, ongoing opportunities to engage in age or developmentally appropriate activities (including by consulting with the child in an age-appropriate manner about the opportunities of the child to participate in the activities).
 - B. at the permanency hearing, the Tribal Court shall:
 - i. ask the child about the desired permanency outcome for the child; and
 - ii. make a judicial determination explaining why, as of the date of the hearing, another planned permanent living arrangement is the best permanency plan for the child and provide compelling reasons why it continues to not be in the best interests of the child to return home; be placed for adoption; be placed with a legal guardian; or be placed with a fit and willing relative. [TCR 15-127]
 - iii. in the case of a child who will not be returned to the parent, the hearing shall consider in-State/Tribal service area and out-of-State/Tribal service area placement options.
 - iv. In the case of a child placed out of the State/Tribal service area in which the home of the parent(s) of the child is located, the hearing shall determine whether the out-of-State/Tribal service area placement continues to be appropriate and in the best interests of the child. [TCR 18-32]

4-419 Guardianships as Recommended by CFS for permanence. CFS does not recommend the termination of parental rights of children except in extreme circumstances as outlined in Section 4-601. The preferred method of providing permanence for a child is a guardianship in accordance with the placement preferences listed in Section 4-409.

The potential guardians(s) of the child shall file, with assistance from CFS if requested, for a guardianship of the child following the procedures in Title 18 of this Code. However, if a guardianship is brought under this Title 4, CFS, as the current legal custodian of the child, shall be a party to the case.

The guardianship order under this section shall confer upon the guardian the ability to not only act as a guardian but as a conservator as well.

Guardianship Report.

1. Upon being served with a Guardianship Petition involving a minor under the legal custody of CFS pursuant to Title 4 of this Code, CFS shall prepare a Guardianship Report on the proposed guardian(s), and child.
2. The Guardianship Report shall contain all pertinent information necessary to assist the Court in determining the best interests of the child.
3. No determination may be made on a Guardianship Petition involving a minor under the legal custody of CFS pursuant to Title 4 of this Code until the report has been completed and submitted to and considered by the Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 4 ARTICLE 4

4. CFS shall appear at the Guardianship Hearing to answer any questions the Court may have involving the Guardianship Report.
5. The Court may order additional reports as it deems necessary.

Procedure. The procedure involving guardianships shall follow Title 18 of this Code unless such procedure is contradicted by this Section in which case this Section shall govern.

The underlying protection case shall not be dismissed until after a guardianship brought under this section is granted. [TCR 15-127]

1. Any person who is required to report known or suspected child abuse or neglect who has reasonable cause to suspect that a child died as a result of child abuse or neglect shall report such fact immediately to the appropriate law enforcement agency and to the appropriate coroner or medical examiner. If, before the investigation is completed, the opinion of the investigators is that assistance of the Tribal law enforcement agency is necessary for the protection of the child or other children under the same care, the Tribal law enforcement agency and the Tribal prosecutor shall be notified. In all its public discussions, the team shall not publicly disclose the names or addresses and identifying information relating to the children, families or informants in those cases.
4. At the beginning of the public discussion of each case, a designated team member shall publicly state the following information, arrived at by consensus of the team: Whether the case involves mild, moderate, or severe abuse or neglect or no abuse or neglect; whether the child is an infant, a toddler, a preschool or school-aged child, or a teenager and the sex of the child; the date of the initial report and the specific agency to which the report was made; and the dates of subsequent reports to specific social service agencies, law enforcement agencies, or other agencies. In no case shall the informant's name or other identifying information about the informant be publicly revealed. The team shall also state publicly whether the child was hospitalized and whether the child's medical records were checked.
5. At this public session, and immediately after any executive sessions at which a child abuse or neglect case is discussed, the child protection team shall publicly review the responses of public and private agencies to each report of child abuse or neglect, shall publicly state whether such responses were timely, adequate, and in compliance with provisions of this Article, and shall publicly report non-identifying information relating to any inadequate responses, specifically indicating the public and private agencies involved.

8. The team shall make a report of its recommendations to the Tribal department with suggestions for further action or stating that the team has no recommendations or suggestions. Tribal and state and federal agencies may cooperate in meeting the requirements of this subsection.
9. Each member of the team shall be appointed by the agency he/she represents, and each team member shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing agency; except that the director of the Tribal department shall appoint the representatives of the lay community, and shall actively recruit all interested individuals and consider their applications for appointment as lay-community representatives on the team.
10. The director of the Tribal department or his/her designee shall be deemed to be the coordinator of the child protection team.
11. The coordinator shall forward a copy of all reports of child abuse to the child protection team. The coordinator shall forward a copy of the investigatory report and all relevant materials to the child protection team as soon as they become available. If a person is so diverted from the criminal justice system, the Tribal prosecutor shall not file charges in connection with the case if the person participates to the satisfaction of the Tribal department and the Tribal prosecutor in the diversion program offered.
2. The initial diversion shall be for a period not to exceed two years. This diversion period may be extended for one additional one year period by the Tribal prosecutor if necessary. Decisions regarding extending diversion time periods shall be made following review of the person diverted by the Tribal prosecutor and the Tribal department.
3. If the person diverted successfully completes the diversion program to the satisfaction of the Tribal department and the Tribal prosecutor, he/she shall be released from the terms and conditions of the program, and no criminal filing of the case shall be made against him/her.
4. Participation by a person accused or suspected of child abuse in any diversion program shall be voluntary. [TCR 86-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 4 ARTICLE 5

4-513 Court proceedings; guardian ad litem.

1. In any proceeding initiated pursuant to this Section, the Court shall name as respondents all persons alleged by the petition to be the legal or actual physical custodians or guardian of the child. In every such case, the responsible person shall be named as respondent. Summons shall be issued for all named respondents.
2. The Court in every case filed under this Article shall appoint, at no fee, a guardian ad litem at the first appearance of the case in Court. 3. If the prayer of the petition is granted, the costs of this proceeding, including guardian ad litem and expert witness fees, may be charged by the Court against the respondent.
4. It is not necessary that the guardian ad litem be an attorney. [TCR 86-79]

Such computerized records shall be password coded and only department personnel, judges, justices and law enforcement personnel shall have access to the password.
4. After a child who is the subject of a report reaches the age of nineteen years, access to his/her record under this Section shall be permitted only if a sibling or offspring of such child is before any person mentioned in Section 4-503(2) and is a suspected victim of child abuse. The amount and type of information released shall depend upon the source of the report and shall be determined by regulations established by the director of the central registry. - entitled thereto as confirmed by the director of the central registry and the information released states whether or not the report is founded or unfounded. A person given access to the names or other information identifying the subject of a report shall not divulge or make public any identifying information unless he/she is a Tribal prosecutor or other law enforcement official and the purpose is to initiate Court action or unless he/she is the subject of a report.
5. Unless an investigation of a report conducted pursuant to this Article determines there is some credible evidence of alleged abuse, all information identifying the subject of the report shall be expunged from the central registry forthwith. The decision to expunge the record shall be made by the director of the central registry based upon the investigation made by the Tribal department or the Tribal law enforcement agency.
 6. In all other cases, the record of the reports to the central registry shall be sealed no later than ten years after the child's nineteenth birthday. Once sealed, the record shall not otherwise be available unless the director of the central registry, pursuant to rules promulgated by the department and upon notice to the subject of the report, gives his/her personal approval for an appropriate reason. In any case and at any time, the director may amend, seal, or expunge any record upon good cause shown and notice to the subject of the report.
 7. At any time the subject of a report may receive, upon request, a report of all information pertinent to the subject's case contained in the central registry, but the director of the central registry is authorized to prohibit the release of data that would identify the person who made the report or who cooperated in a subsequent investigation which he/she reasonably finds to be detrimental to the safety or interest of such person.
 8. At any time subsequent to the completion of the investigation, a subject of the report may request the director to amend, seal, or expunge the record of the report. If the director refuses and does not act within a reasonable time, but in no event later than thirty days after such request, the subject shall have the right to a fair hearing before the Tribal Court to determine whether the record of the report in the central registry should be amended, sealed, or expunged on the grounds that it is inaccurate or it is being maintained in a manner inconsistent with this Article. The Tribal department shall be given notice of the hearing. The burden in such a hearing shall be on the Tribal department. In such hearings the fact that there was such a finding of child abuse or neglect shall be presumptive evidence that the report was substantiated.
 9. Written notice of any amendment, sealing, or expungement made pursuant to the provision of this Act shall be given to the subject of such report and to the Tribal department. The latter, upon receipt of such notice, shall take similar action regarding such information in its files.
 10. Any person who willfully permits or who encourages the release of data or information contained in the central registry to persons not permitted access to such information by this Article shall be subject to a civil penalty not in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00) and any actual damages sustained. Persons who willfully permit or who encourage the release of this information may also be charged with a criminal offense.
 11. The central registry shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to encourage cooperation with other tribes or states and the National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect. [TCR 86-79, 15-127]

1. After a child who is the subject of a report to the central registry reaches the age of nineteen years, access to that report shall be permitted only if a sibling or offspring of such child is before any person mentioned in subsection of this Section and is a suspected victim of child abuse or neglect. The amount and type of information released shall depend upon the source of the report and shall be determined by regulations established by the director of the central registry. However, under no circumstances shall the information be released unless the person requesting such information is entitled thereto as confirmed by the director of the central registry and the information released states whether the report is founded or unfounded. A person giving access to the names or other information identifying the subject of a report shall not divulge or make public any identifying information unless he/she is a prosecuting attorney or other law enforcement official and the purpose is to initiate Court action or unless he/she is the subject of the report. 4-601 Motion for termination of parental rights.

1. Termination of a parent-child legal relationship shall be considered only after the filing of a written motion alleging the factual grounds for termination, and termination of a parent-child legal relationship shall be considered at a separate hearing following an adjudication of a child as dependent or neglected or in-need-of-care. Such motion shall be filed at least thirty days before such hearing.
2. The Department shall
 - A. The PSW will file a petition to terminate parental rights when a child has been in foster care under the Tribe's responsibility for 15 of the most recent 22 months. The petition will be filed by the end of the child's 15th month in foster care using as a start date the day the child entered foster care. Trial home visits or runaway episodes are excluded from the 15 month calculation.
 - B. The PSW will file a petition to terminate parental rights within 60 days of a finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that the child is an abandoned infant,
 - C. The PSW will file a petition to terminate parental rights when a parent has been convicted of one of the following: a) murder of another child of the parent; b) voluntary manslaughter of another child of the parent; c) aiding, abetting, attempting, conspiring, or soliciting to commit such a murder or such a voluntary manslaughter; or d) a felony assault that results in serious bodily injury to the child or another child of the parent. In these circumstances, the petition to terminate parental rights will be made within 60 days of a determination that reasonable efforts to reunify the child and parent [based on a) through d) above] are not required.

CFS may elect not to file a petition to terminate parental right if at the option of CFS the child is being cared for by a relative; or if CFS has documented in the case plan a compelling reason that termination of parental rights would not be in the child's best interest; or if services deemed necessary to safely return the child to parental care (reasonable efforts) have not been provided.

4-602 Appointment of counsel.

1. After a motion for termination of a parent-child legal relationship is filed pursuant to this Article, the parent or parents shall be advised of the right to counsel, at their own expense, and counsel shall be appointed whenever counsel is available at no fee or whenever the Court fund has sufficient unobligated funds to pay an attorney a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) per case.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 4 ARTICLE 6

2. An attorney, who shall be the child's previously appointed guardian ad litem whenever possible, shall be appointed to represent the child's best interest in any hearing determining the involuntary termination of the parent-child legal relationship. Additionally, said attorney shall be experienced, whenever possible, in juvenile law. Such representation shall continue until an appropriate permanent placement of the child is effected or until the Court's jurisdiction is terminated. If a respondent parent is a minor, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed and shall serve in addition to any counsel requested by the parent. [TCR 86-79, 86-109]

4-603 No jury trial. There shall be no right to a jury trial at proceedings held to consider the termination of a parent-child legal relationship. [TCR 86-79, 86-109]

Such affidavit shall be filed not later than ten days prior to the hearing. [TCR 86-79, 86-109]

4-605 Criteria for termination.

1. The Court may order a termination of the parent-child legal relationship upon the finding of either of the following:
 - A. That the child has been abandoned by his/her parent or parents;
 - B. That the child is adjudicated dependent or neglected or in-need-of-care and all of the following exist:
 - i. That an appropriate treatment plan approved by the Court has not been reasonably complied with by the parent or parents or has not been successful;
 - ii. That the parent is unfit;
 - iii. That the conduct or condition of the parent or parents is unlikely to change within a reasonable time.
2. In determining unfitness, conduct, or condition, the Court shall find that continuation of the legal relationship between parent and child is likely to result in grave risk of death or serious injury to the child or that the conduct or condition of the parent or parents renders the parent or parents unable or unwilling to give the child reasonable parental care. In making such determinations, the Court shall consider, but not be limited to, the following:
 - A. Emotional illness, mental illness, or mental deficiency of the parent of such duration or nature as to render the parent unlikely within a reasonable time to care for the ongoing physical, mental, and emotional needs of the child;
 - B. Conduct towards the child of a physically or sexually abusive nature;
 - C. History of violent behavior;
 - D. A single incident of life-threatening or gravely disabling injury or disfigurement of the child;

 - G. Long-term confinement of the parent;
 - H. Injury or death of a sibling due to proven parental abuse or neglect;
 - I. Reasonable efforts by child-caring agencies which have been unable to rehabilitate the parent or parents.
3. In considering any of the factors in subsection (2) of this Section in terminating the parent-child legal relationship, the Court shall give primary consideration to the physical, mental, and emotional conditions and needs of the child. The Court shall review and order, if necessary, an evaluation of the child's physical, mental, and emotional conditions. [TCR 86-79, 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 4 ARTICLE 6

4-606 Standard of proof. The Court shall order termination of parental rights if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that termination of parental rights and a permanent placement with another person is in the best interest of the child. [TCR 86-79, 86-109]

4-607 Voluntary termination of parental rights. Parental rights may be relinquished voluntarily by a parent in writing, if signed by the parent in the presence and with approval of the Court. Relinquishment shall not be accepted or acknowledged by the Court prior to ten days after birth of the child. An interpreter shall be provided if required by the Court pursuant to Section 4-608. 4-608 Interpreter for relinquishment of parental rights and consent to adoption. Parents who want to relinquish their parental rights or to consent to adoption shall be provided an interpreter if they do not understand English. [TCR 86-79, 86-109]

4-609 Review of child's disposition following termination of the parent-child legal relationship.

1. The Court, at the conclusion of a hearing in which it ordered the termination of a parent-child legal relationship, shall order that a review hearing be held not later than ninety days following the date of the termination. At such hearing, the agency or individual vested with custody of the child shall report to the Court what disposition of the child, if any, has occurred, and the guardian ad litem shall submit a written report with recommendations to the Court, based upon an independent investigation, for the best disposition of the child.
2. If no adoption has taken place within a reasonable time and the Court determines that adoption is not immediately feasible or appropriate, the Court may order that provisions be made immediately for long-term foster placement of the child. [TCR 86-79]

4-610 Expert testimony.

1. Subject to the availability of funds, an indigent parent has the right to have appointed one expert witness of his/her own choosing whose reasonable fees and expenses, subject to the Court's prior review and approval, shall be paid from the Court funds.
2. All ordered evaluations shall be made available to counsel at least fifteen days prior to the hearing. [TCR 86-79]

4-611 Effect of decree.

1. An order for the termination of the parent-child legal relationships divests the child and the parent of all legal rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations with respect to each other, except for the right of the child to inherit from the parent.
2. No order or decree entered pursuant to this Article shall disentitle a child to any benefit due him/her from any third person, including, but not limited to, any Indian tribe, any agency, any State, or the United States.
3. After the termination of a parent-child legal relationship, the former parent is not entitled to any notice of proceedings for the adoption of the child by another, nor has he/she any right to object to the adoption or to otherwise participate in such proceedings. [TCR 86-79]

4-612 Appeals.

1. Whenever an appeal is made concerning termination of parental rights, an indigent parent, upon request, subject to the availability of funds, may be provided a transcript of the trial proceeding for the appeal at the expense of the Tribe to be paid from the Court fund.

2. The rights and duties of the traditional custodians and grandparents may be enforced by Court order whenever it appears in the child's best interest to do so, provided that all interested parties shall be given notice and an opportunity to be heard. [TCR 86-79]

2. Such investigation shall include the conditions and antecedents of the child for the purpose of determining whether he/she is a proper subject for adoption; appropriate inquiry to determine whether the proposed home is a suitable one for the child; and any other circumstances and conditions which may have bearing on the adoption and of which the Court should have knowledge; and in this entire matter of investigation, the Court is specifically authorized to exercise judicial knowledge.
3. The Court may order agencies named in subsection 1 of this Section located in one or more counties to make separate investigations on separate parts of the inquiry, as may be appropriate.
4. Where the adopting parent is the spouse of parent, or in the event that a report, as outlined above deemed adequate for the purpose by the Court, has been made within the six months next preceding the filing of the petition for adoption, the Court, in its discretion, may waive the making of an investigation and the filing of a report.
5. [TCR 86-79]

4-716 Contents of adoption order. The final order of adoption shall include such facts as are necessary to establish that the child is within the jurisdiction of the Court and eligible for adoption and that the adoptive parents and home are adequate and capable for the proper care of the child, as shown by the investigation reports and the findings of the Court upon the evidence adduced at the hearings, the new name of the child, if any, and that the relationship of parent and child exists between the petitioners and the child. After a final decree of adoption pursuant to this Article is entered, the relationship of parent and child, and all the rights, duties, and other legal consequences of the natural relation of a child and parent shall thereafter exist between such adopted child, the adopting parents, and the kindred of the adopting parents. The adopted child shall inherit real and personal property from the adopting family and the adopting family shall inherit from the child in accordance with law as if such child were the natural child of the adopting parent(s).
2. After a final decree of adoption pursuant to this Article is entered, the natural parents of the adopted child, unless they are the adoptive parents or the spouse of an adoptive parent, shall be relieved and terminated from all parental rights and responsibilities for said child, including the right to inherit from the child, provided, that the child shall remain eligible to inherit from said natural parents, and retain all rights to membership in the Tribe by virtue of his/her birth to said natural parents.
3. Unless the traditional custodians and grandparents of a child have given their consent to the adoption of the child, or have had their custodial rights terminated in the same manner that a parent consents or has their rights terminated, the Court, at any time within two years after the final decree of adoption or refusal of the adoptive parents to allow visitation, whichever is later, may, upon application of a natural traditional custodian or a natural grandparent, order reasonable visitation rights in favor of said person if the Court deems such visitation in the best interest of the child. The Court may enforce such visitation rights and make orders thereto at any time after timely filing of an application therefor. Notice of such application shall be served upon the adoptive parents as a summons is served. [TCR 86-79]

4-723 Customary Adoptions. It is the fundamental belief of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska that its children are the sacred responsibility of the Tribe. One of the Tribe's basic inherent sovereign rights is the right to make decisions regarding the best interests of its children including who should provide for the care, custody and control of its children. As an exercise of its inherent sovereignty the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska has the authority and the jurisdiction to formally delegate the authority to the Tribal Court to adjudicate its own customary practices regarding child rearing and child custody.

1. These provisions governing customary adoptions shall be interpreted liberally to provide what is in the best interest of the child and the Tribe and to provide a sense of permanency and belonging to children throughout their lives and at the same time provide them with knowledge about their unique cultural heritage including their tribal customs, history, language, religion and values.

4-1101 Purpose.

The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska values the elders of our community as they possess the knowledge of tribal history, culture, and traditions that are vital to the Tribe. As such, grandparents play an important role within our tribal structure, as the caretakers of our culture and traditions, to instill those values into the upbringing of their grandchildren. As tribal elders, grandparents are responsible for providing guidance, knowledge, wisdom, and sharing experiences with their grandchildren in order to teach them their roles and responsibilities as tribal members. Therefore, the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska believes that grandparents should have certain rights in order to effectuate this purpose. [TCR 15-114]

 - F. The grandchild is illegitimate, and the grandparent is a paternal grandparent of the illegitimate grandchild and paternity has been established by a court of competent jurisdiction; or
 - G. A court in another jurisdiction ordered grandparent visitation.
2. There is a rebuttable presumption that a fit parent's decision, with regard to visitation, is in the best interest of the grandchild.
 - A. The court may grant the grandparent reasonable rights of visitation if the court finds that the grandparent has rebutted the presumption by clear and convincing evidence based upon the following:
 - i. That the grandchild will suffer emotional or psychological harm if visitation is not permitted;
 - ii. The grandparent is a fit and proper person to have visitation with the grandchild; and
 - iii. Visitation by the grandparent with the grandchild has been denied or unreasonably limited.
 - B. The court may also consider as elements of rebutting the presumption, if applicable, that:
 - i. The grandparent's child who is the parent of the grandchild has died or has become a noncustodial parent through divorce or legal separation;
 - ii. Visitation arrangements between the grandparent and grandchild were in place prior to filing of the petition;
 - iii. The grandparent has acted as the grandchild's custodian or caregiver, or otherwise has had a substantial relationship with the grandchild;
 - iv. The grandparent had frequent or regular contact with the grandchild for at least twelve (12) consecutive months;
 - v. The grandparent has provided the grandchild with guidance, knowledge, and wisdom relating to tribal history, culture and traditions; or
 - vi. Any other facts that establish that the loss of the relationship between the grandparent and the grandchild is likely to harm the grandchild.
3. If the court finds that the grandparent have successfully rebutted the presumption, then the court shall consider whether it is in the best interests of the grandchild to enter an order for reasonable grandparent visitation with the grandchild. In determining the best interests of the grandchild, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the following:
 - A. The love, affection and other emotional ties existing between the grandparent and the grandchild.
 - B. The length and quality of the prior relationship between the grandchild and the grandparent, the role performed by the grandparent in such relationship and the existing emotional ties of the grandchild to the grandparent.
 - C. The mental and physical health of all parties.

 - G. Any history of physical, emotional or sexual abuse or neglect of any child or grandchild by the parent or parents or grandparent.
 - H. Whether the parent's decision to deny, or fail to offer, visitation to the grandparent, is related to the grandchild's well-being or is for some other unrelated reason.
 - I. The willingness of the grandparent to encourage and educate the grandchild regarding tribal history, culture and traditions.
 - J. Any other factor relevant to the physical and psychological well-being of the grandchild.
4. The Court may order visitation rights to the grandparent if it finds that such an order would be in the best interests of the grandchild. [TCR 15-114]

- 1. Medical, dental, health and hospital services may be rendered to persons of any age without the consent of a parent or legal guardian when, in the physician's judgment, an emergency exists and the person is in immediate need of medical attention and an attempt to secure consent would result in delay of treatment which would increase the risk to the person's life or health.
- 2. Except as otherwise provided in Section 4-1109(2), if a grandchild is in the care of his/her grandparent who has made reasonable attempts to locate and contact the grandchild's parents, guardian or custodian, but has been unable to do so, the grandparent may obtain authority to consent to necessary medical, psychological, or dental treatment for the grandchild by executing a grandparent medical consent authorization affidavit in accordance with Section 4-1109.

The driver of any vehicle shall obey the instructions of any traffic control device applicable thereto placed in accordance with the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Traffic Code, unless otherwise directed by a peace officer, subject to the exceptions granted the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle in the Rules.
2. No provision of the Rules for which traffic control devices are required shall be enforced against an alleged violator if at the time and place of the alleged violation an official device is not in proper position and sufficiently legible to be seen by a reasonably observant person. Whenever any provision of the Rules does not state that traffic control devices are required, such provision shall be effective even though no devices are erected or in place.
3. Whenever traffic control devices are placed in position approximately conforming to the requirements of the Rules, such devices shall be presumed to have been so placed by the official act or direction of lawful authority unless the contrary is established by competent evidence.
4. Any traffic control device placed pursuant to the Rules and purporting to conform with the lawful requirements pertaining to such devices shall be presumed to comply with the requirements of the Rules unless the contrary is established by competent evidence.
5. A violation of this Section shall be a Level I penalty. [TCR 86-31, 86-79, 89-87, 03-172, Same as Neb Rev. Stat. 60-6,119]

Section 6-402 Traffic control signals; meaning; turns on red signal; when. Whenever traffic is controlled by traffic control signals exhibiting different colored lights or colored lighted arrows, successively one at a time or in combination, only the colors green, red, and yellow shall be used, except for special pedestrian signals carrying a word legend or symbol, and such lights shall indicate and apply to drivers of vehicles and pedestrians as follows:

 - a. Vehicular traffic facing a circular green indication may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless a sign at such place prohibits either such turn, but vehicular traffic, including vehicles turning right or left, shall yield the right-of-way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection or an adjacent crosswalk at the time such indication is exhibited;
 - b. Vehicular traffic facing a green arrow indication, shown alone or in combination with another indication, may cautiously enter the intersection only to make the movement indicated by such arrow or such other movement as is permitted by other indications shown at the same time, and such vehicular traffic shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection; and
 - c. Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal, pedestrians facing any green indication, except when the sole green indication is a turn arrow, may proceed across the roadway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk.
 - a. Vehicular traffic facing a steady yellow indication is thereby warned that the related green movement is being terminated or that a red indication will be exhibited immediately thereafter when vehicular traffic shall not enter the intersection, and upon display of a steady yellow indication, vehicular traffic shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at the intersection, but if such stop cannot be made in safety, a vehicle may be driven cautiously through the intersection; and
 - b. Pedestrians facing a steady yellow indication, unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal, are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway before a red indication is shown and no pedestrian shall then start to cross the roadway.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

3.
 - a. Vehicular traffic facing a steady red indication alone shall stop at a clearly marked stop line or shall stop, if there is no such line, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if there is no crosswalk, before entering the intersection. The traffic shall remain standing until an indication to proceed is shown except as provided in subdivisions (3)(b) and (3)(c) of this Section;
 - b. Except where a traffic control device is in place prohibiting a turn, vehicular traffic facing a steady red indication may cautiously enter the intersection to make a right turn after stopping as required by subdivision (3)(a) of this Section. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection;
 - c. Except where a traffic control device is in place prohibiting a turn, vehicular traffic facing a steady red indication at the intersection of two one-way streets may cautiously enter the intersection to make a left turn after stopping as required by subdivision (3)(a) of this Section. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection; and
 - d. Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal, pedestrians facing a steady red indication alone shall not enter the roadway.
4. If a traffic control signal is erected and maintained at a place other than an intersection, the provisions of this Section shall be applicable except as to those provisions which by their nature can have no application. Any stop required shall be made at a sign or marking on the pavement indicating where the stop shall be made, but in the absence of any such sign or marking, the stop shall be made at the signal.
5. A violation of this Section shall be a Level II penalty. [TCR 86-31, 86-79, 89-87, 03-172, Same as Neb Rev. Stat. 60-6,123]

Section 6-403 Pedestrian-control signals. Whenever pedestrian-control signals exhibiting the words WALK or DON'T WALK or exhibiting the symbol of a walking person or an upraised hand are in place, such signals shall indicate as follows:

1. Pedestrians facing a steady WALK indication or a symbol of a walking person may proceed across the roadway in the direction of such signal and shall be given the right-of-way by the drivers of all vehicles; and
2. No pedestrian shall start to cross the roadway in the direction of a DON'T WALK indication or a symbol of an upraised hand, but any pedestrian who has partially completed his or her crossing on the WALK or walking person indication shall immediately proceed to a sidewalk or safety island while the flashing DON'T WALK or flashing upraised hand indication is showing.
3. A violation of this Section shall be a Level I penalty. [TCR 86-31, 86-79, 89-87, 03-172, Same as Neb Rev. Stat. 60-6,124]

Section 6-404 Flashing signals; exception. Whenever an illuminated flashing red or yellow light is used in a traffic signal or with a traffic sign, it shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows:

1. When a red lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop at a clearly marked stop line or shall stop, if there is no such line, before entering the crosswalk on the nearside of the intersection or, if there is no crosswalk, at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the intersection. The right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign; and
2. When a yellow lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through the intersection or past such light only with caution.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 6 ARTICLE 4

3. This Section shall not apply at railroad grade crossings. Conduct of drivers of vehicles approaching railroad grade crossings shall be governed by the rules set forth in the Winnebago Tribal Code pertaining to such railroad grade crossings.

Section 6-405 Driving on right half of roadway required; exceptions.

1. Upon all roadways of sufficient width, a vehicle shall be driven upon the right half of the roadway except as follows:
 - a. When overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction under the rules governing such movement;
 - b. When an obstruction exists making it necessary to drive to the left of the center of the highway, except that any person so doing shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles traveling in the proper direction upon the unobstructed portion of the highway within such distance as to constitute an immediate hazard;
 - c. Upon a roadway divided into three marked lanes for traffic under the rules applicable thereon; or
 - d. Upon a roadway restricted to one-way traffic.
2. Upon all roadways, any vehicle proceeding at less than the normal speed of traffic at the time and place and under the conditions then existing shall be driven in the right-hand lane then available for traffic, or as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway, except when overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction or when preparing for a left turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway.
3. Upon any roadway having four or more lanes for moving traffic and providing for two-way movement of traffic, no vehicle shall be driven to the left of the center line of the roadway except when authorized by official traffic control devices designating certain lanes to the left side of the center of the roadway for use by traffic not otherwise permitted to use such lanes or except as permitted under subdivision (1)(b) of this Section. This subsection shall not be construed to prohibit the crossing of the center line in making a left turn into or from an alley, private road, or driveway unless such movement is otherwise prohibited by signs.
4. A violation of this Section shall be a Level I penalty. [TCR 86-31, 86-79, 89-87, 03-172, Same as Neb Rev. Stat. 60-6,131]

Section 6-406 Vehicles proceeding in opposite direction; passing. 1. The driver of a vehicle overtaking another vehicle proceeding in the same direction shall first give a visible signal of his or her intention and shall pass to the left of the other vehicle at a safe distance and shall not again drive to the right side of the roadway until safely clear of the overtaken vehicle; and

 - a. When the vehicle to be overtaken is making or about to make a left turn;
 - b. Upon a two-way street or highway with an unobstructed roadway, not occupied by parked vehicles, of sufficient width for two or more lanes of moving vehicles going in the same direction when the passing vehicle is traveling in one of such lanes; or
 - c. Upon a one-way street, or upon any roadway on which traffic is restricted to one direction of movement, when the roadway is free from obstructions and of sufficient width for two or more lanes of moving vehicles.
2. In no event shall the driver of a vehicle overtake and pass another vehicle upon the right unless such movement may be made safely upon the roadway.
3. A violation of this Section shall be a Level I penalty. [TCR 86-31, 86-79, 89-87, 03-172, Same as Neb Rev. Stat. 60-6,134]

Section 6-409 Limitations on overtaking and passing on the left; precautions required; return to right side of highway.

1. No vehicle shall overtake another vehicle proceeding in the same direction on an undivided two-way roadway when such overtaking requires the overtaking vehicle to be driven on the left side of the center of the roadway unless the left side is clearly visible for a distance sufficient to accomplish such overtaking and is free from oncoming traffic for a distance sufficient to:
 - a. Permit the overtaking vehicle to return to an authorized lane of traffic before coming within two hundred feet of any approaching vehicle; and

| 7-101 | Definitions. | 7-104 | Hearing On The Petition. |
| 7-102 | Petition. | 7-105 | Disposition. |
| 7-103 | Counsel. | 7-106 | Emergency Protective Custody. |

7-101 Definitions.

1. “Alcoholic” means an individual who has lost the power of self-control or exhibits cognitive deficiencies, general confused thinking, or other manifestations of disorientation, which show an inability to make judgments about areas of behavior that do not directly relate to his/her alcohol consumption.
2. “Drug addict” means an individual who has a physiological or psychological dependence on a drug or drugs which he/she used in a manner not prescribed by a physician.
3. “Mentally ill individual” means an individual with an organic, mental, or emotional disorder which substantially impairs the capacity to use self-control, judgment, and discretion in the conduct of personal affairs and social relations. This term is not intended to include an individual with intellectual disabilities and other developmental disabilities of significantly sub-average intellectual functioning which originates during the developmental period and is associated with impairment in adaptive behavior. Drug addiction and alcoholism do not per se constitute mental illness, although individuals suffering from these conditions may also be suffering from mental illness.
4. “Individual requiring treatment” means either:
 - a. An individual who is mentally ill, an alcoholic or a drug addict and who, as a result of such condition, can reasonably be expected within the near future to intentionally or unintentionally cause serious physical harm to him/herself, others or property and who has engaged in an act or acts or has made significant threats that are substantially supportive of this expectation; or
 - b. An individual who is mentally ill, an alcoholic or a drug addict and who, as a result of such condition, is unable to attend to his/her basic physical needs such as food, clothing, or shelter that must be attended to for him/her to avoid serious harm in the near future and who has demonstrated that inability by failing to meet those basic physical needs.
5. “Law enforcement officer” means a member of the Winnebago Police Department, a federal law enforcement officer or a state or county law enforcement officer duly cross-deputized by the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska to assert law enforcement powers within the Winnebago reservation.
6. “Respondent” means the individual alleged to be mentally ill, an alcoholic or a drug addict in the proceedings. [TCR 93-96, 11-73, 14-08]
7. “Provider” means any licensed Medical Physician, Physician Assistant, Nurse Practitioner or Psychiatrist.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 1

7-102 Petition.

1. The petition for commitment shall be filed with the Court by a Winnebago Comprehensive Healthcare System (WCHS) Provider nurse, mental health official, social services official, substance abuse counselor, Tribal prosecutor or an interested person. Any such petitioner must have reason to believe that the respondent is mentally ill, an alcoholic or a drug addict. The prosecutor shall represent the Tribe/petitioner or interested person.
2. The petition must be supplemented by a supporting statement or affidavit by at least one individual who has actual personal knowledge of the mental, alcohol or drug problem of the respondent. Such statement shall set forth the reason(s) for the proposed treatment and/or hospitalization.
3. Temporary detention order and hearing.
 - a. Upon receipt and review of the petition and any statement or affidavit, should the Tribal Judge deem an emergency to exist, he/she shall order the detention or hospitalization of the respondent in an available facility in which the freedom of the respondent is least restricted and yet the respondent, other persons and/or property are adequately protected and the respondent may be properly evaluated.
 - b. An order of the Court ordering that the respondent be detained or hospitalized prior to hearing on the petition shall be accompanied by a "Care Provider Report and Recommendation" form, and this report form shall be provided to the care provider facility. The care provider facility shall prepare the "Care Provider Report and Recommendation" regarding the respondent within seventy-two (72) hours of the beginning of the detention or hospitalization. Upon receipt, the Court shall review the report as soon as practical.
 - c. Taking into consideration the entirety of the "Care Provider Report and Recommendation" and the allegations of the petition, the Court may order the release of the respondent if the "Care Provider Report and Recommendation" recommends release. If released, the respondent shall sign a promise to appear in Court within seven (7) days after release for an initial appearance on the petition.
 - d. If the "Care Provider Report and Recommendation" recommends that the respondent remain in detention or hospitalization, the Court may order that the respondent remain in detention or hospitalization. If the respondent is ordered to remain in detention, the Court shall order an initial appearance on the petition within seven (7) days of such order of continued detention.
 - e. A respondent detained under this Section 3 may request a hearing to review his/her ongoing detention at, or at any time after, the initial appearance on the petition. Such hearing shall be held no later than seventy two (72) hours after the request. If respondent desires, he/she may challenge his/her ongoing detention at the initial hearing on the petition.
 - f. If the respondent does not request a hearing, the Court shall order a hearing to review the ongoing detention not more than thirty (30) days after the commencement of the detention. The respondent shall be provided at least seventy two (72) hours notice of the hearing and shall have the right to attend the hearing.
 - g. At a hearing held pursuant to subsections (e) or (f), the Tribe shall have the burden of showing good cause as to why the respondent should remain in detention pending a hearing on the petition. The respondent shall have the right to counsel, to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses at a hearing held pursuant to subsections (e) or (f). If the Tribe fails to show good cause for continued detention, the respondent shall be released. The Court may place reasonable conditions upon such release to ensure respondent's attendance at the hearing on the petition and to protect the respondent and the public.
 - h. The Court shall entertain a motion by the Tribal Prosecutor requesting a revocation of the release based upon evidence that the respondent is not abiding by the conditions of the release.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 1

4. The respondent shall be served with a copy of the petition. The respondent may waive a hearing and proceed to treatment. [TCR 93-96, 11-73, 14-08]

7-103 Counsel. The respondent shall have the right to an attorney at his/her own expense or, if indigent, counsel will be appointed to the extent that such is available. [TCR 93-96, 11-73]

7-104 Hearing On The Petition.

1. Unless waived by the parties, a hearing on the petition shall be held within sixty (60) days of the day on which the petition was filed.
2. Final adjudication on a petition must be held within one hundred twenty (120) days of the petition being served upon the respondent.
3. The judge who presides over the hearing shall:
 - a. Hold the hearing in the presence of the respondent or respondent's attorney;
 - b. Ensure that a complete record of the hearing is made and placed in the Court file;
 - c. Admit as evidence into record any statements or reports of physicians, psychiatrists, clinical psychologists or other medical, mental health and substance abuse practitioners and oral testimony introduced by interested parties either in support of or in opposition to the proposed treatment and/or hospitalization; and
 - d. In support of any Court-ordered disposition involving commitment to a facility for the purpose of inpatient treatment and/or hospitalization, ensure that the quantum of proof admitted and supportive of any such disposition is constituted by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent is an individual requiring treatment, as defined in Section 7- 101 herein. [TCR 93-96, 11-73, 14-08]

7-105 Disposition.

1. Upon completion of the hearing on the petition, the Court may order any one or any combination of the following dispositions based upon the evidence admitted into the record:
 - a. Dismissal of the petition if the Court determines that the respondent is not an individual requiring treatment.
 - b. Commitment of the respondent to a facility, located within or outside of the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Indian reservation, for the purpose of securing appropriate inpatient treatment and/or hospitalization.
 - c. Participation by the respondent in a periodic outpatient alcohol or drug treatment program, with the extent and term of such participation to be determined by the alcohol or drug treatment center.
 - d. Participation by the respondent in behavioral health therapy and/or prescribed medication consistent with the respondent's treatment plan.
 - e. Attendance at scheduled psychiatric medication management appointments and compliance with provider recommendations. If the respondent is a minor, participation by the respondent's legal guardian in the individual's treatment plan as required. When the Court orders inpatient treatment, hospitalization or outpatient mental health, alcohol or drug treatment meetings or therapy, the Court order shall be enforced by reservation law enforcement, with such enforcement to include arrest should the respondent fail to comply with such order. 7-106 Emergency Protective Custody.

1. A law enforcement officer may take a person into emergency protective custody if the law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a person is an individual requiring treatment within the meaning of Section 7-101(4)(a) of this Article and that the person might cause physical harm to himself, another or another's property before a petition can be filed and reviewed by the Tribal Court as provided for in Section 7-102(3) of this Article.
2. A person taken into emergency protective custody shall be placed in a secure mental health facility if possible. If placement in a secure mental health facility is not possible, the person shall be held in a detention facility, provided that such person shall be observed by a sworn officer or detention staff to ensure that he/she does not harm him/herself or others, or others do not harm him/her.

3. A Tribal employee who is taking any medication, whether prescribed or non-prescribed, which may interfere with the safe and effective performance of duties or operation of Tribal equipment is required to advise his/her supervisor of the fact before beginning work. TITLE 7 ARTICLE 11

7-1107 Education and training of employees.

1. The Winnebago Tribe will develop and implement a Drug-Free Awareness Program to inform its employees of:
 - a. The dangers of drug/alcohol abuse in the workplace;
 - b. The Tribe's policy regarding drug and alcohol use;
 - c. The availability of counseling, rehabilitation, etc., through the Tribe's Employee Assistance Program; and
 - d. The penalties that may be imposed upon employees for substance abuse violations.
2. In addition, educational activities focusing on stress, substance abuse, and other problem areas may also be provided. These activities are designed to promote early identification and self-referral, prevent problems from developing and/or becoming more severe, and enhance the quality of life.
3. Employees are encouraged to utilize the programs provided by the Tribe in seeking assistance with drug/alcohol problems. Employees' use of these services privately and on their own initiative will not jeopardize job security, promotional opportunity, and/or reputation. When such use is private and voluntary, no report of any kind will be made by the Employee Assistance Program to the Tribe unless the employee freely and willingly chooses.
4. The Tribe will develop and implement a program of training to assist supervisory personnel in the recognition of conduct and behavior that gives rise to suspicion that an employee may be a drug/alcohol abuser. The intent of this training is not to put the supervisor in a position to diagnose alcohol/drug problems, but simply to make such supervisor sufficiently aware of the causes and symptoms so that he/she may seek proper referral. Such a training program shall also inform the supervisor of the Tribe's Employee Assistance Program and policies, as well as encourage the supervisor to seek proper consultation with the Employee Assistance Program when attempting to deal with an employee's deteriorating job performance. [TCR 96-56, 11-146]

7-1108 Drug and alcohol testing procedures; reasonable suspicion.

1. Any time a supervisor has reasonable suspicion to believe that an on-duty employee is impaired by alcohol or drugs, he/she shall immediately place such employee on special assignment in order to protect the employee, fellow employees, and the public from harm. The supervisor shall immediately notify his/her supervisor of such action.
2. The two supervisors will interview the employee. If both supervisors believe, based upon a reasonable suspicion, that the employee is impaired by the use of alcohol or drugs, then said employee will be ordered, pursuant to this Act, to submit to a test of his/her blood, breath or urine.
3. In determining whether or not the employee is impaired, the supervisors may consult with their supervisor, and if not available, the personnel director, and utilize any reasonable means or procedures available to confirm or disprove such suspicion, such as a breath alcohol pre-test, sobriety tests, and/or an examination to determine comprehension and motor skills.
4. A supervisor shall transport the employee to that facility designated by the Tribe for the performance of drug or alcohol tests. As soon as practicably possible, each supervisor shall document, in writing, to the Department head the reasons and causes which gave rise to the reasonable suspicion. Additionally, this documentation shall include a narrative of what steps were taken by the supervisor(s).
5. Before a drug or alcohol test is administered, employees will be ordered to sign a consent form authorizing the test and permitting the release of test results to a designated Employee Assistance Program official(s). The consent form shall provide space for employees and applicants to acknowledge that they have been notified of the Tribe's Drug-Free Workplace Act. The consent form for drug and alcohol tests shall also set forth the following information:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 11

- b. The consequences of a confirmed positive test result.
- c. The consequences of refusing to undergo a drug test.

7-1109 Random drug and alcohol testing.

1. In addition to testing based upon reasonable suspicion and for pre-employment purposes, random testing may be conducted and any such testing will be conducted pursuant this Article. 3. Any department that provides direct services to clientele, including youth and adults, shall require random drug and alcohol testing for its employees at intervals more frequent than the general workforce. Such random drug and alcohol testing shall occur at least two (2) times per quarter for those employees who provide direct services to clientele, including youth and adults. [TCR 96-56, 11-146]

7-1110 Drug test results.

1. All drug testing shall be of the employee's urine. The initial drug screening shall be the Enzyme Immunoassay Techniques (EIT) test which shall be administered at Tribal expense. An employee or job applicant whose drug test indicates the presence of a drug group shall be given a second test, at Tribal expense, using Gas Chromatography/Mass Spectrometry (GC/MS).
2. If the GC/MS test confirms the drug group presence, both tests will be reviewed by a properly licensed and trained medical doctor. The purpose of this review is to see if the drug presence can be explained by the individual employee's medical history. In completing this review, the physician shall interview the employee and may perform a physical examination on such employee. Refusal to cooperate in such an interview or to consent to such physical examination shall be grounds for disciplinary action up to and including termination.
3. If the medical review confirms the presence of drugs in the employee's body fluids, then such test shall be considered positive. The employee or applicant shall be notified in writing in a sealed envelope marked "confidential" of the test results by the appropriate Department head or designee. The letter of notification shall identify the particular substance found.
4. An employee who tests positive for drugs may, at the employee's own expense, have a third test conducted on the same sample at a laboratory pre-approved by the Tribe which meets the minimum criteria for drug testing. If the test is for alcohol, and the Tribe orders a breath test, the employee has the right to another test at his/her own expense. The test may be of blood or breath.
5. An employee whose initial drug screening indicates the presence of a drug group may be suspended from his/her position without pay pending the results and confirmation of subsequent testing as provided in this section. If the result of the subsequent testing is confirmed negative, the employee shall be reinstated with pay retroactive to the first date of suspension.
6. Except for breath test specimens, all specimens which result in the finding of drugs or alcohol shall be refrigerated and preserved in a sufficient quantity for re-testing for a period of at least one hundred eighty (180) days.
7. Except for breath test specimens, a written record of the chain of custody shall be maintained from the time of the collection of the specimen until the specimen is no longer required. [TCR 96-56, 11-146, 12-92]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 11

1. A positive finding of alcohol by preliminary screening procedures shall be subsequently confirmed by either:
 - a. Gas Chromatography with a flame ionization detector or other scientific testing technique which has been approved by the Winnebago Tribe; or
 - b. Breath testing device operated by a breath testing device operator.
 - c. An employee who tests positive for alcohol has the right to another test at the employee's expense. The test may be of blood or breath. [TCR 96-56, 11-146]

7-1112 Refusal to submit. If an employee attempts to delay or evade by any means or otherwise refuses to consent to drug or alcohol testing, such refusal will be grounds for termination. The supervisor shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that such employee does not operate a motor vehicle by providing transportation for the employee to his/her home. Should the employee refuse to cooperate and attempt to operate a motor vehicle, the police shall be immediately notified. [TCR 96-56, 11-146]

7-1113 Positive test results. Pursuant to Section 7-1108, an employee who tests positive for drugs or who is determined, based upon test or circumstances to be impaired by alcohol, or pursuant to Section 7-1104(4), is convicted of a violation of any criminal drug or alcohol statute will be subject to the following disciplinary actions:

1. In instances where the employee has endangered the health, safety or well-being of themselves, fellow employees or citizens, the employee will be terminated.
2. In instances where this is the employee's first offense, except for as provided in Section 7-1113(5) below, the employee will be placed on performance probation and referred to the Employee Assistance Program. This shall be a management referral and as such, the employee shall be required to execute the proper medical releases so that the Employee Assistance Program may communicate to the Tribe whether such employee is in conformance with directed treatment. Such employees shall be required, in order to maintain their employment with the Tribe, to submit to random testing at intervals more frequent than the general work force to test for the consumption of alcohol or drugs for a period of time not to exceed two years. Any employee who tests positive for drugs or is shown to be impaired by alcohol pursuant to this random test, shall be terminated. Failure by an employee to comply with the Employee Assistance Program's directed treatment will result in termination.
3. In instances where the employee is already on performance probation, the employee will be terminated.
4. In instances where the employee tests positive for drugs or is determined to be impaired by alcohol and is the employee's second offense, the employee will be terminated.
5. In instances where the employee provides direct services to clientele, including youth and adults, on a regular basis, the employee will be terminated. [TCR 96-56, 11-146]

7-1114 Release of test results. At all stages of the drug/alcohol testing process, the employee's right to confidentiality will be respected and maintained as much as reasonably possible. Only those persons with a need to know are to be informed of the test results. Disclosure of test results to any other person, agency or organization is prohibited unless written authorization is obtained from the employee. All records relating to the taking of a drug or alcohol test, or the order to take a drug or alcohol test, shall be deemed confidential unless written authorization has been obtained freely and willingly from the employee, or the records become the subject of a personnel hearing or judicial proceeding. All records relating to the taking or ordering of a drug or alcohol test shall be kept in a separate file. Each Department head shall implement procedures to prevent the unauthorized distribution of the results of an order to take such a test. [TCR 96-56, 11-146]

7-1117 Prohibited acts; penalties.

1. It shall be unlawful to provide, acquire or use body fluids or breath samples for the purpose of altering results of any drug test. Any applicant or employee who violates this Section may be subject to the same disciplinary sanctions as if the applicant or employee had refused the directives of the employer to provide a body fluid or breath sample.
2. No person shall tamper with or aid or assist another in tampering with body fluids or breath samples at any time before, during or after the collection or analysis of such fluids or samples for the purpose of altering the results of any test to determine the presence of drugs or alcohol. 1. The Average Weekly Wage is calculated by the average of the Covered Employee's gross wages earned during the twenty-six (26) calendar weeks preceding the date of Injury, not including unreported tips and/or bonuses. Overtime is not to be considered in computing wages unless it is regular and frequent throughout the year. The twenty-six weeks prior to the date of Injury are presumed representative, regardless of the wages earned. In the event that a Covered Employee is employed for less than twenty-six (26) consecutive calendar weeks immediately preceding the date of Injury, the Average Weekly Wage shall be determined using the gross wages divided by the actual number of weeks the Covered Employee worked during those weeks. If the Covered Employee's work week is fewer than five days per week or if there is an irregular number of days worked per week, the total number of days that a Covered Employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks is to be divided by the number of weeks in which the Covered Employee actually performed such duties, multiplied by the Covered Employee's daily wage.  - vii. The loss of more than one phalange shall be considered as the loss of the entire finger or thumb, except that in no case shall the amount received for more than one finger exceed the amount provided in this schedule for the loss of a hand.

The total loss or permanent total loss of use of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or hearing in both ears, or of any two thereof, in one accident, shall constitute total and permanent disability and be compensated for according to subdivision (a) of this Section. In all other cases involving a loss or loss of use of both hands, both arms, both feet, both legs, both eyes, or hearing in both ears, or of any two thereof, total and permanent disability shall be determined in accordance with the facts. Amputation between the elbow and the wrist shall be considered as the equivalent of the loss of a hand, and amputation between the knee and the ankle shall be considered as the equivalent of the loss of a foot. Amputation at or above the elbow shall be considered as the loss of an arm. Compensation under this subdivision shall not be more than the maximum Weekly Benefit specified in Section 7-1228 nor less than the minimum Weekly Benefit specified in Section 7-1228, shall not be more than 300 weeks, and the 300 week maximum shall be reduced by the number of weeks that the Employee has already received benefits. If at the time of the Injury the Covered Employee received wages of less than the minimum Weekly Benefit specified in Section 7-1228, then he or she shall receive the full amount of such wages per week as Compensation.
- g. For disability resulting from permanent disability, if immediately prior to the accident the rate of wages was fixed by the day or hour, or by the output of the Covered Employee, the weekly wages shall be taken to be computed upon the basis of a workweek of a minimum of five days, if the wages are paid by the day, or upon the basis of a workweek of a minimum of forty hours, if the wages are paid by the hour, or upon the basis of a workweek of a minimum of five days or forty hours, whichever results in the higher weekly wage, if the wages are based on the output of the Covered Employee.

2. If there is a widow or widower of the deceased and no Children of the deceased, as defined in Section 7-1232(2), to such widow or widower, sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the Average Weekly Wage of the deceased, as computed in Section 7-1233, during widowhood or widowerhood.

The income Benefits payable on account of any Child under this Section shall cease when he or she dies, marries, or reaches the age of nineteen, or when a Child over such age ceases to be physically or mentally incapable of self-support, or if actually dependent reaches the age of twenty-five. A Child who originally qualified as a Dependent by virtue of being less than nineteen years of age may, upon reaching age nineteen, continue to qualify if he or she satisfies the tests of being physically or mentally incapable of self-support, actual dependency, or enrollment in an educational institution.
6. If there is no widow or widower and no Children, then to each parent, if actually dependent, thirty-three and one-third percent of such wage for each parent.

10. With respect to the beneficiaries under subdivisions (7), (8), and (9) a person ceases to be actually dependent when his or her income from all sources exclusive of such Death Benefits is such that, if it had existed at the time as of which the original determination of actual dependency was made, it would not have supported a find of dependency. In any event, if the present annual income of an actual Dependent person including Worker's Compensation Death Benefits at any time exceeds the total annual support received by the person from the deceased Covered Employee, the Worker's Compensation Benefits shall be reduced so that the total amount of income is no greater than such amount of annual support received from the deceased Covered Employee. In all cases, a person found to be actually dependent shall be presumed to be no

11. Upon the cessation of income Benefits under this Section to or on account of any person, the income Benefits of the remaining persons entitled to benefits for the unexpired part of the period during which their income Benefits are payable shall be that which such persons would have received if they had been the only persons entitled to income Benefits at the time of the decedent's death. No deduction shall be made for the amount which may have been paid for medical and hospital services and medicines or for the expenses of burial. If the Covered Employee dies from some cause other than the Injury, there shall be no liability for Compensation to accrue after his or her death. [TCR 08-27, 08-100]

7-1236 Burial Expenses.

1. Fifty percent shall be added for waiting time for all delinquent payments after thirty days' notice has been given of disability or after thirty days from the entry of a final order, award, or judgment of the Worker's Compensation Appeals Committee, except for any award or judgment against the Tribe in excess of the policy limits of the Employer's Worker's Compensation insurance provider. Such award in excess is not compensable under this Code or subject to any penalty. Such payments shall be sent directly to the person entitled to Compensation or his or her designated representative. 2. If either party after received notice under Section 7-1243 fails, by and through his or her attorney, to join in the third-party claim or suit such party waives any and all claims or causes of action for improper prosecution of the third-party suit or inadequacy of a settlement made in accordance with Section 7-1245. The party bringing the claim or prosecuting the suit is entitled to deduct from any amount recovered the reasonable expenses of making such recovery, including a reasonable sum for attorney's fees. Such expenses and attorney's fees shall be prorated (1) to the amount payable to the Employer or his or her Worker's Compensation insurer under the right of subrogation established in Section 7-1242 and (2) to the amount in excess of such amount payable to the Employer or his or her Worker's Compensation insurer under the right of subrogation. Such expenses and attorney's fees shall be apportioned by the court, which heard the claim, between the parties as their interests appear at the time of such recovery.
3. Nothing in this Worker's Compensation Code shall be construed to deny the right of an injured Covered Employee or of his or her personal representative to bring suit against such third person in his or her own name or in the name of the personal representative based upon such liability, but in such event an Employer having paid or paying Compensation to such Covered Employee or his or her Dependents shall be made a party to the suit for the purpose of reimbursement, under the right of subrogation, of any Compensation paid. [TCR 08-27, 08-100]

7-1245 Third Party Claims; Settlement Requirements.

1. A settlement of a third-party claim under the Winnebago Tribe Worker's Compensation Code is void unless:
 - a. Such settlement is agreed upon in writing by the Covered Employee or his or her personal representative and the Worker's Compensation insurer of the Employer, if there is one, and if there is no insurer, then by the Employer, or
 - b. In the absence of such agreement, the court before which the action is pending determines that the settlement offer is fair and reasonable considering liability, damages, and the ability of the third party person and his or her liability insurance carrier to satisfy any judgment.
2. If an Covered Employee or his or her personal representative or the Employer or his or her Worker's Compensation insurer do not agree in writing upon distribution of the proceeds of any judgment of settlement, the court before which the action was heard, or if no action was filed then the court in which it could be brought, shall order a fair and equitable distribution of the proceeds of any judgment or settlement. [TCR 08-27, 08-100]

7-1246 Awards.

1. Any awards issued by the Worker's Compensation Appeals Committee are strictly limited to the amount of per accident or per occurrence coverage as provided in the Employer's Worker's Compensation Insurance Policy. In no event shall the Committee grant an award in excess of the policy limits. [TCR 08-27, 08-100]

7-1301 Findings of fact.

1. The flood hazard areas of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska are subject to periodic inundation which results in loss of life and property, health and safety hazards, disruption of commerce and governmental services, extraordinary public expenditures for flood protection and relief, and impairment of the tax base, all of which adversely affect the public health, safety, and general welfare.
2. These flood losses are caused by the cumulative effect of obstructions in areas of special flood hazards, which increase flood heights and velocities, and when inadequately anchored, damage uses in other areas. Uses that are inadequately floodproofed, elevated, or otherwise protected from flood damage also contribute to the flood loss. [TCR 11-29]

7-1302 Statement of purpose. It is the purpose of this Article to promote the public health, safety, and general welfare, and to minimize public and private losses due to flood conditions in specific areas by provisions designed:

1. To protect human life and health;
2. To minimize expenditure of public money and costly flood control projects;
3. To minimize the need for rescue and relief efforts associated with flooding and generally undertaken at the expense of the general public;
4. To minimize prolonged business interruptions;
5. To minimize damage to public facilities and utilities such as water and gas mains, electric, telephone and sewer lines, streets, and bridges located in areas of special flood hazard;
6. To help maintain a stable tax base by providing for the sound use and development of areas of special flood hazard so as to minimize future flood blight areas;
7. To ensure that potential buyers are notified that property is in an area of special flood hazard;
8. To ensure that those who occupy the areas of special flood hazard assume responsibility for their actions; and
9. To protect Tribal resources. [TCR 11-29]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

7-1303 Methods of reducing flood losses. In order to accomplish its purposes, this Article includes methods and provisions for:

1. Restricting or prohibiting uses which are dangerous to health, safety, and property due to water or erosion hazards, or which result in damaging increases in erosion or in flood heights or velocities;
2. Requiring that uses vulnerable to floods, including facilities which serve such uses, be protected against flood damage at the time of initial construction;
3. Controlling the alteration of natural flood plains, stream channels, and natural protective barriers, which help accommodate or channel flood waters;
4. Controlling filling, grading, dredging, and other development which may increase flood damage; and
5. Preventing or regulating the construction of flood barriers which will unnaturally divert flood waters or may increase flood hazards in other areas. [TCR 11-29]

7-1304 Definitions. Unless specifically defined below, words or phrases used in this Article shall be interpreted so as to give them the meaning they have in common usage and to give this Article its most reasonable application.

1. "Appeal" means a request for a review of the Administrator's interpretation of any provision of this Article or a request for a variance.
2. "Area of Special Flood Hazard" means the land in the flood plain within a community subject to a one percent or greater chance of flooding in any given year. Designation on maps always includes the letters A or V.
3. "Base Flood" means the flood having a one percent chance of being equaled or exceeded in any given year. Also referred to as the "100-year flood." Designation on maps always includes the letters A or V.
4. "Basement" means any area of the building having its floor subgrade (below ground level) on all sides.
5. "Critical Facility" means a facility for which even a slight chance of flooding might be too great. Critical facilities include, but are not limited to schools, nursing homes, hospitals, police, fire and emergency response installations, installations which produce, use or store hazardous materials or hazardous waste.
6. "Development" means any man-made change to improved or unimproved real estate, including but not limited to buildings or other structures, mining, dredging, filling, grading, paving, excavation or drilling operations or storage of equipment or materials located within the area of special flood hazard.
7. "Elevated Building" means for insurance purposes, a nonbasement building which has its lowest elevated floor raised above ground level by foundation walls, shear walls, post, piers, pilings, or columns.
8. "Existing Construction" means (for the purpose of determining rates) structures for which the "start of construction" commenced before the effective date of the Flood Insurance Rate Map ("FIRM") or before January 1, 1975, for FIRM's effective before that date. "Existing construction" may also be referred to as "existing structures."
9. "Existing Manufactured Home Park or Subdivision" means a manufactured home park subdivision for which the construction of facilities for servicing the lots on which the manufactured homes are to be affixed (including, at a minimum, the installation of utilities, the construction of streets, and either final site grading or the pouring of concrete pads) is completed before the effective date of the adopted floodplain management regulations.
10. "Expansion to an Existing Manufactured Home Park or Subdivision" means the preparation of additional sites by the construction of facilities for servicing the lots on which the manufactured

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

- homes are to be affixed (including the installation of utilities, the construction of streets, and either final site grading or the pouring of concrete pads).
11. “Flood” or “Flooding” means a general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry land areas from:
 - a. The overflow of inland or tidal waters and/or
 - b. The unusual and rapid accumulation of runoff of surface waters from any source.
 12. “Flood Fringe” is that area of the floodplain, outside of the floodway, that on the average is likely to be flooded once every 100 years (i.e., that has a one percent chance of flood occurrence in any one year).
 13. “Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM)” means the official map on which the Federal Insurance Administration has delineated both the areas of special flood hazards and the risk premium zones applicable to the community.
 14. “Flood Insurance Study” means the official report provided by the Federal Insurance Administration that includes flood profiles and the water surface elevation of the base flood.
 15. “Floodplain” means any land area susceptible to being inundated by water from any source (see definition of “flooding”).
 16. “Floodway” means the channel of a river or other watercourse and the adjacent land areas that must be reserved in order to discharge the base flood without cumulatively increasing the water surface elevation more than one foot.
 17. “Freeboard” means a factor of safety usually expressed in feet above a flood level for purposes of floodplain management. “Freeboard” tends to compensate for the many unknown factors that could contribute to flood heights greater than the height calculated for a selected size of flood and floodway conditions, such as wave action, clogged bridge openings, and the hydrological effect of urbanization of the watershed.
 18. “Highest Adjacent Grade” means the highest natural elevation of the ground surface prior to construction next to the proposed walls of construction.
 19. “Lowest Floor” means the lowest floor of the lowest enclosed area (including basement). An unfinished or flood resistant enclosure, usable solely for parking of vehicles, building access or storage, in an area other than a basement area, is not considered a building’s lowest floor, provided that such enclosure is not built so as to render the structure in violation of the applicable non-elevation design requirements of this Article found at Section 5.2-1(2).
 20. “Manufactured Home” means a structure, transportable in one or more sections, which is built on a permanent chassis and is designed for use with or without a permanent foundation when attached to the required utilities. The term “manufactured home” does not include a “recreational vehicle.”
 21. “Manufactured Home Park or Subdivision” means a parcel (or contiguous parcels) of land divided into two or more manufactured home lots for rent or sale.
 22. “New Construction” means structures for which the “start of construction” commenced on or after the effective date of this Article.
 23. “New Manufactured Home Park or Subdivision” means a manufactured home park or subdivision for which the construction of facilities for servicing the lots on which the manufactured homes are to be affixed (including at a minimum, the installation of utilities, the construction of streets, and either final site grading or the pouring of concrete pads) is completed on or after the effective date of adopted floodplain management regulations.
 24. “Overlay District” means a district in which additional requirements act in conjunction with the underlying zoning district(s). The original zoning district designation does not change.
 25. “Principally Above Ground” means that at least 51% of the actual cash value of the structure is above ground.
 26. “Recreational Vehicle” means a vehicle which is:
 - a. Built on a single chassis;
 - b. 400 square feet or less when measured at the largest horizontal projection;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

- c. Designed to be self-propelled or permanently towable by a light duty truck; and
 - d. Designed primarily not for use as a permanent dwelling but as temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, travel, or seasonal use.
27. “Special Flood Hazard Area” is the land in the floodplain within a community subject to 1% or greater chance of flooding in any given year.
28. “Start of Construction” includes substantial improvement, and means the date the building permit was issued, provided the actual start of construction, repair, reconstruction, placement or other improvement was within 180 days of the permit date. The actual start means either the first placement of permanent construction of a structure on a site, such as the pouring of slab or footings, the installation of piles, the construction of columns, or any work beyond the stage of excavation; or the placement of a manufactured home on a foundation. Permanent construction does not include land preparation, such as clearing, grading and filling; nor does it include the installation of streets and/or walkways; nor does it include excavation for a basement, footings, piers, or foundations or the erection of temporary forms; nor does it include the installation on the property of accessory buildings, such as garages or sheds not occupied as dwelling units or not part of the main structure. For a substantial improvement, the actual start of construction means the first alteration of any wall, ceiling, floor, or other structural part of a building, whether or not that alteration affects the external dimensions of the building.
29. “Structure” means a walled and roofed building including a gas or liquid storage tank that is principally above ground.
30. “Substantial Damage” means damage of any origin sustained by a structure whereby the cost of restoring the structure to its before damaged condition would equal or exceed 50 percent of the market value of the structure before the damage occurred.
31. “Substantial Improvement” means any repair, reconstruction, or improvement of a structure, the cost of which equals or exceeds 50 percent of the market value of the structure either:
- a. Before the improvement or repair is started; or
 - b. If the structure has been damaged and is being restored, before the damage occurred. For the purposes of this definition, “substantial improvement” is considered to occur when the first alteration of any wall, ceiling, floor, or other structural part of the building commences, whether or not that alteration affects the external dimensions of the structure.
- The term does not, however, include either:
- a. Any project for improvement of a structure to correct existing violations of state or local health, sanitary, or safety code specifications which have been identified by the local code enforcement official and which are the minimum necessary to assure safe living conditions, or
 - b. Any alteration of a structure listed on the National Register of Historic Places or a State Inventory of Historic Places.
32. “Variance” means a grant of relief from the requirements of this Article which permits construction in a manner that would otherwise be prohibited by this Article.
33. “Violation” means a failure of a structure or other development to be fully compliant with this Article.
34. “Water Dependent” means a structure for commerce or industry which cannot exist in any other location and is dependent on the water by reason of the intrinsic nature of its operations. [TCR 11-29]

7-1305 Land to which this Article applies. This Article shall apply to all areas of special flood hazards within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. [TCR 11-29]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

7-1306 Basis for establishing the area of special flood hazard.

1. The areas of special flood hazard identified by a Federal Insurance Administration in scientific and engineering reports entitled "Flood Insurance Study" prepared for Thurston County, Nebraska and incorporated areas, including the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska," dated January 6, 2010, as amended, with accompanying and applicable Flood Insurance Rate Maps (FIRM), as amended, are hereby adopted by reference and declared to be a part of this Article.
2. The areas of special flood hazard identified by a Federal Insurance Administration in scientific and engineering reports entitled "Flood Insurance Study" prepared for Woodbury County, Iowa and incorporated areas, including the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, dated September 29, 2011, as amended, with accompanying and applicable Flood Insurance Rate Maps (FIRM), as amended, are hereby adopted by reference and declared to be a part of this Article.
3. The Flood Insurance Study reports and accompanying FIRMs are on file at the office of the Winnebago Tribal Environmental Protection Department. The best available information for flood hazard area identification as outlined in Section 7-1313(2) shall be the basis for regulation until a new or amended FIRM is issued which incorporates the data utilized under Section 7-1313(2). [TCR 11-29, 12-25]

7-1307 Penalties for non-compliance. No structure or land shall hereafter be constructed, located, extended, converted, or altered without full compliance with the terms of this Article and other applicable regulations. Violations of the provisions of this Article by failure to comply with any of its requirements (including violations of conditions and safeguards established in connection with conditions), shall constitute an offense under Title 3 of the Winnebago Tribal Code. Any person who violates this Article or fails to comply with any of its requirements shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $500.00 or imprisoned for not more than 30 days, or both, for each violation, and in addition shall pay all costs and expenses involved in the case. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Administrator from taking such other lawful action as is necessary to prevent or remedy any violation. [TCR 11-29]

7-1308 Abrogation of greater restrictions. This Article is not intended to repeal, abrogate, or impair any existing easements, covenants, or deed restrictions. However, where this Article and another ordinance, easement, covenant, or deed restriction conflict or overlap, whichever imposes the more stringent restrictions shall prevail. [TCR 11-29]

7-1309 Interpretation. In the interpretation and application of this Article, all provisions shall be considered as minimum requirements and be liberally construed in favor of the Tribe. [TCR 11-29]

7-1310 Warning and disclaimer of liability. The degree of flood protection required by this Article is considered reasonable for regulatory purposes and is based on scientific and engineering considerations. Larger floods can and will occur on rare occasions. Flood heights may be increased by man-made or natural causes. This Article does not imply that land outside the areas of special flood hazards or uses permitted within such areas will be free from flooding or flood damages. This Article shall not create liability on the part of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, any officer or employee thereof, for any flood damages that result from reliance on this Article or any administrative decision lawfully made hereunder. [TCR 11-29]

7-1311 Establishment of development permits.

1. Development permit required: A development permit shall be obtained before construction or development begins within any area of special flood hazard established in Section 7-1306. The permit shall be for all structures including manufactured homes, as set forth in the "Definitions," and for all development including fill and other activities, also as set forth in the "Definitions."

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

2. Application for development permit: Application for a development permit shall be made on forms furnished by the Administrator and may include, but not be limited to, plans in duplicate drawn to scale showing the nature, location, dimensions, and elevations of the area in question; existing or proposed structures, fill, storage of materials, drainage facilities, and the location of the foregoing. Specifically, the following information is required:
Elevation in relation to mean sea level, of the lowest floor (including basement) of all structures;
 - a. Elevation in relation to mean sea level to which any structure has been floodproofed;
 - b. Certification by a registered professional engineer or architect that the floodproofing methods for any nonresidential structure meet the floodproofing criteria in Section 7-1316(2); and
 - c. Description of the extent to which a watercourse will be altered or relocated as a result of proposed development. [TCR 11-29]

7-1312 Administration. The Tribal Flood Plain Administrator (“Administrator”) shall be responsible for administration and implementation of this Article in accordance with its provisions. [TCR 11-29]

7-1313 Duties and responsibilities of the Administrator. Duties of the Tribal Flood Plain Administrator shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Permit Review:
 - a. Review all development permits to determine that the permit requirements of this Article have been satisfied;
 - b. Review all development permits to determine that all necessary permits have been obtained from those Federal agencies from which prior approval is required;
 - c. Review all development permits to determine if the proposed development is located in the floodway. If located in the floodway, assure that the encroachment provisions of Section 7-1318(1) are met.
2. Use of other base flood data: When base flood elevation data has not been provided in accordance with Section 7-1306, basis for establishing the area of special flood hazard, the Administrator shall obtain, review, and reasonably utilize any base flood elevation and floodway data available from a Federal, State or other source, in order to administer Sections 7-1316, Specific standards for flood hazard reduction, and 7-1318 Floodways.
3. Information to be obtained and maintained:
 - a. Where base flood elevation data is provided through the Flood Insurance Study or required as in Section 2, obtain and record the actual elevation (in relation to mean sea level) of the lowest floor (including basement) of all new or substantially improved structures, and whether or not the structure contains a basement.
 - b. For all new or substantially improved floodproofed structures where the base flood elevation data is provided through the Flood Insurance Study or as required in Section 2:
 - i. verify and record the actual elevation (in relation to mean sea level), and
 - ii. maintain the flood proofing certifications required in Section 7-1311(2)(C).
 - c. Maintain for public inspection all records pertaining to the provisions of this Article.
4. Alteration of watercourses:
 - a. Notify adjacent communities prior to any alteration or relocation of a watercourse, and submit evidence of such notification to the Federal Insurance Administration.
 - b. Require that maintenance is provided within the altered or relocated portion of said watercourse so that the flood carrying capacity is not diminished.
5. Interpretation of FIRM boundaries: Make interpretations where needed, as to exact location of the boundaries of the areas of special flood hazards (for example, where there appears to be a conflict between a mapped boundary and actual field conditions). The person contesting the location of the boundary shall be given a reasonable opportunity to appeal the interpretation as provided in Section 7-1314. [TCR 11-29]

TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

7-1314 Variance procedures.

1. Appeal Board
 - a. The Appeal Board shall hear and decide appeals and requests for variances from the requirements of this Article. The Appeal Board shall be comprised of the Tribal Council.
 - b. The Appeal Board shall hear and decide appeals when it is alleged there is an error in any requirement, decision, or determination made by the Administrator in the enforcement or administration of this Article.
 - c. Those aggrieved by the decision of the Administrator, or any taxpayer, may appeal such decision to the Appeal Board as provided herein.
 - d. In passing upon such applications, the Appeal Board shall consider all technical evaluations, all relevant factors, standards specified in other sections of this Article, and:
 - i. the danger that materials may be swept onto other lands to the injury of others;
 - ii. the danger to life and property due to flooding or erosion damage;
 - iii. the susceptibility of the proposed facility and its contents to flood damage and the effect of such damage on the individual owner;
 - iv. the importance of the services provided by the proposed facility to the community;
 - v. the necessity to the facility of a waterfront location, where applicable;
 - vi. the availability of alternative locations for the proposed use which are not subject to flooding or erosion damage;
 - vii. the compatibility of the proposed use with existing and anticipated development;
 - viii. the relationship of the proposed use to the comprehensive plan and flood plain management program for that area;
 - ix. the safety of access to the property in times of flood for ordinary and emergency vehicles;
 - x. the expected heights, velocity, duration, rate of rise, and sediment transport of the flood waters and the effects of wave action, if applicable, expected at the site; and
 - xi. the costs of providing governmental services during and after flood conditions, including maintenance and repair of public utilities and facilities such as sewer, gas, electrical, and water systems, and streets and bridges.
 - e. Upon consideration of the factors of Section 1.D. and the purposes of this Article, the Tribal Council may attach such conditions to the granting of variances as it deems necessary to further the purposes of this Article.
 - f. The Administrator shall maintain the records of all appeal actions and report any variances to the Federal Insurance Administration upon request.
2. Conditions for variances
 - a. Generally, the only condition under which a variance from the elevation standard may be issued is for new construction and substantial improvements to be erected on a lot of one-half acre or less in size contiguous to and surrounded by lots with existing structures constructed below the base flood level, providing items (i-xi) in Section 7-1314.D. have been fully considered. As the lot size increases, the technical justification required for issuing the variance increases.
 - b. Variances may be issued for the reconstruction, rehabilitation, or restoration of structures listed on the National Register of Historic Places without regard to the procedures set forth in this Section.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

- c. Variances shall not be issued within a designated floodway if any increase in flood levels during the base flood discharge would result.
- d. Variances shall only be issued upon a determination that the variance is the minimum necessary, considering the flood hazard, to afford relief.
- e. Variances shall only be issued upon:
 - i. a showing of good and sufficient cause;
 - ii. a determination that failure to grant the variance would result in exceptional hardship to the applicant;
 - iii. a determination that the granting of a variance will not result in increased flood heights, additional threats to public safety, extraordinary public expense, create nuisances, cause fraud on or victimization of the public or conflict with existing local laws or ordinances.
- f. Variances as interpreted in the National Flood Insurance Program are based on the general zoning law principle that they pertain to a physical piece or property; they are not personal in nature and do not pertain to the structure, its inhabitants, economic or financial circumstances. They primarily address small lots in densely populated residential neighborhoods. As such, variances from the flood elevations should be quite rare.
- g. Variances may be issued for nonresidential buildings in very limited circumstances to allow a lesser degree of floodproofing than watertight or dry-floodproofing, where it can be determined that such action will have low damage potential, complies with all other variance criteria except Section 7-1314(2)(A), and otherwise complies with Sections 7-1315(1) and (2) of the General standards for flood hazard reduction.
- h. Any applicant to whom a variance is granted shall be given written notice that the structure will be permitted to be built with a lowest floor elevation below the base flood elevation and that the cost of flood insurance will be commensurate with the increased risk resulting from the reduced lowest floor elevation. [TCR 11-29]

7-1315 General standards for flood hazard reduction. In all areas of special flood hazards, the following standards are required:

- 1. Anchoring
 - a. All new construction and substantial improvements shall be anchored to prevent flotation, collapse, or lateral movement of the structure.
 - b. All manufactured homes must likewise be anchored to prevent flotation, collapse, or lateral movement, and shall be installed using methods and practices that minimize flood damage. Anchoring methods may include, but are not limited to, use of over-the-top or frame ties to ground anchors (Reference FEMA's "Manufactured Home Installation in Flood Hazard Areas" guidebook for additional techniques).
- 2. Construction Materials and Methods
 - a. All new construction and substantial improvements shall be constructed with materials and utility equipment resistant to flood damage.
 - b. All new construction and substantial improvements shall be constructed using methods and practices that minimize flood damage.
 - c. Electrical, heating, ventilation, plumbing, and air-conditioning equipment and other service facilities shall be designed and/or otherwise elevated or located so as to prevent water from entering or accumulating within the components during conditions of flooding.
- 3. Utilities
 - a. All new and replacement water supply systems shall be designed to minimize or eliminate infiltration of flood waters into the system.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

- b. New and replacement sanitary sewage systems shall be designed to minimize or eliminate infiltration of flood waters into the systems and discharge from the systems into flood waters.
- c. On-site waste disposal systems shall be located to avoid impairment to them or contamination from them during flooding.
- 4. Subdivision Proposals
 - a. All subdivision proposals shall be consistent with the need to minimize flood damage.
 - b. All subdivision proposals shall have public utilities and facilities such as sewer, gas, electrical, and water systems located and constructed to minimize or eliminate flood damage.
 - c. All subdivision proposals shall have adequate drainage provided to reduce exposure to flood damage.
 - d. Where base flood elevation data has not been provided or is not available from another authoritative source, it shall be generated for subdivision proposals and other proposed developments which contain at least 50 lots or 5 acres (whichever is less).
- 5. Review of Building Permits: Where elevation data is not available either through the Flood Insurance Study or from another authoritative source (Section 7-1313(2)), applications for building permits shall be reviewed to assure that proposed construction will be reasonably safe from flooding. The test of reasonableness is a local judgment and includes use of historical data, high water marks, photographs of past flooding, etc., where available. Failure to elevate at least two feet above grade in these zones may result in higher insurance rates. [TCR 11-29]

7-1316 Specific standards for flood hazard reduction. In all areas of special flood hazards where base flood elevation data has been provided as set forth in Section 7-1306, Basis for Establishing the Areas of Special Flood Hazard or Section 7-1313(2), Use of Other Base Flood Data, the following provisions are required:

- 1. Residential Construction
 - a. New construction and substantial improvement of any residential structure shall have the lowest floor, including basement, elevated one foot above the base flood elevation.
 - b. Fully enclosed areas below the lowest floor that are subject to flooding are prohibited, or shall be designed to automatically equalize hydrostatic flood forces on exterior walls by allowing for the entry and exit of floodwaters. Designs for meeting this requirement must be either certified by a registered professional engineer or architect or must meet or exceed the following minimum criteria:
 - i. A minimum of two openings having a total net area of not less than one square inch for every square foot of enclosed area subject to flooding shall be provided.
 - ii. The bottom of all openings shall be no higher than one foot above grade.
 - iii. Openings may be equipped with screens, louvers, or other coverings or devices provided that they permit the automatic entry and exit of floodwaters.
- 2. Nonresidential Construction: New construction and substantial improvement of any commercial, industrial or other nonresidential structure shall either have the lowest floor, including basement, elevated one foot above the base flood elevation; or, together with attendant utility and sanitary facilities, shall:
 - a. Be floodproofed so that below one foot above the base flood level the structure is watertight with walls substantially impermeable to the passage of water.
 - b. Have structural components capable of resisting hydrostatic and hydrodynamic loads and effects of buoyancy.
 - c. Be certified by a registered professional engineer or architect that the design and methods of construction are in accordance with accepted standards of practice for meeting provisions of this subsection based on their development and/or review of the structural

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 7 ARTICLE 13

- design, specifications and plans. Such certifications shall be provided to the official as set forth in Section 7-1313(3)(B).
- d. Nonresidential structures that are elevated, not floodproofed, must meet the same standards for space below the lowest floor as described in Section 7-1316(1)(B).
 - e. Applicants floodproofing nonresidential buildings shall be notified that flood insurance premiums will be based on rates that are one foot below the floodproofed level (e.g. a building floodproofed to the base flood level will be rated as one foot below).
3. Manufactured Homes
- a. All manufactured homes to be placed or substantially improved on sites:
 - i. Outside of a manufactured home park or subdivision;
 - ii. In a new manufactured home park or subdivision;
 - iii. In an expansion to an existing manufactured home park or subdivision; or
 - iv. In an existing manufactured home park or subdivision on which a manufactured home has incurred “substantial damage” as the result of a flood; shall be elevated on a permanent foundation such that the lowest floor of the manufactured home is elevated one foot above the base flood elevation and be securely anchored to an adequately designed foundation system to resist flotation, collapse and lateral movement.
 - b. Manufactured homes to be placed or substantially improved on sites in an existing manufactured home park or that are not subject to the above manufactured home provisions be elevated so that either:
 - i. The lowest floor of the manufactured home is elevated one foot above the base flood elevation, or
 - ii. The manufactured home chassis is supported by reinforced piers or other foundation elements of at least equivalent strength that are no less than 36 inches in height above grade and be securely anchored to an adequately designed foundation system to resist flotation, collapse, and lateral movement.
4. Recreational Vehicles: Recreational vehicles placed on sites are required to either:
- a. Be on the site for fewer than 180 consecutive days;
 - b. Be fully licensed and ready for highway use, on its wheels or jacking system, is attached to the site only by quick disconnect type utilities and security devices, and has no permanently attached additions; or
 - c. Meet the requirements of Section 7-1316(3) above and the elevation and anchoring requirements for manufactured homes. [TCR 11-29]

7-1317 Before regulatory floodway. In areas where a regulatory floodway has not been designated, no new construction, substantial improvements, or other development (including fill) shall be permitted within Zone AE on the community’s FIRM, unless it is demonstrated that the cumulative effect of the proposed development, when combined with all other existing and anticipated development, will not increase the water surface elevation of the base flood more than one foot at any point within the community. [TCR 11-29]

7-1318 Floodways. Located within areas of special flood hazard established in Section 7-1306 are areas designated as floodways. Since the floodway is an extremely hazardous area due to the velocity of floodwaters which carry debris, potential projectiles, and erosion potential, the following provisions apply:

1. Prohibit encroachments, including fill, new construction, substantial improvements, and other development unless certification by a registered professional engineer is provided demonstrating through hydrologic and hydraulic analyses performed in accordance with standard engineering practice that the proposed encroachment would not result in any increase in flood levels within the community during the occurrence of the base flood discharge.

2. If Section 7-1318(1) is satisfied, all new construction and substantial improvements shall comply with all applicable flood hazard reduction provisions of Sections 7-1315 through 1318. [TCR 11-29]

7-1319 Critical Facility. Construction of new critical facilities shall be, to the extent possible, located outside the limits of the Special Flood Hazard Area (SFHA) (100-year floodplain). Construction of new critical facilities shall be permissible within the SFHA if no feasible alternative site is available. Critical facilities constructed within the SFHA shall have the lowest floor elevated three feet or more above the level of the base flood elevation (100-year) at the site. Floodproofing and sealing measures must be taken to ensure that toxic substances will not be displaced by or released into flood waters. Access routes elevated to or above the level of the base flood elevation shall be provided to all critical facilities to the extent possible. [TCR 11-29]

Categories of hazardous waste materials include, but are not limited to: explosives, flammables, oxidizers, poisons, irritants, and corrosives. Hazardous waste does not include source, special nuclear, or by-product material as defined by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

The THPO shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

1. To identify and nominate sites, buildings, districts and objects on Tribal Lands and Aboriginal Homelands that appear to qualify for listing on the THPO Tribal Register. The THPO shall first do the following tasks in order to compile the information needed to review each nomination:
 - A. Conduct a comprehensive survey of the property;

 3. To assist and consult with the Tribal programs on issues relating to the conservation of historic and archaeological resources and on other matters within the scope of THPO duties.
 4. To initiate measures to ensure, at a minimum, that where a property listed on the Tribal Register is to be substantially altered or affected, timely steps be taken to make or have made records, including measured drawings, photographs and maps of the property, and that a copy of such records then be deposited in the Tribal archives for future use and reference. The THPO shall use its best efforts to assure adequate surveying, testing, salvaging, analysis reporting, and curation of cultural materials, where such is feasible.
 5. To recommend measures and procedures to the Tribal Council to provide for the maintenance, preservation, rehabilitation and restoration of Tribally-owned historic sites at professional standards.
 6. To take actions for the purpose of promoting historic preservation efforts. Such efforts shall include, but not limited to:

 8. To submit an annual report of program activities to the Tribal Council.
 9. To develop Tribal permits for undertakings that are implemented on trust lands within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska's reservation. THPO shall have the authority to issue such permit and revoke with cause such permit.

8-405 Cultural Resource Review Process. Any person, Tribal department, or federal or state agency that is involved in any undertaking on Tribal Lands is required to contact the THPO during the planning stage of the undertaking for a determination of whether such undertaking is located on or may impact a nearby cultural resource of the Tribe, including properties listed in or eligible for listing in the Tribal Register or National Register.

The THPO will conduct a cultural resource review in accordance with these Policies and Procedures. The cultural resource review shall be coordinated, as appropriate, with the overall planning schedule for the undertaking and with any reviews required under applicable laws of the Tribe and Federal laws, including, but not limited to, NEPA, NAGPRA, AIRFA, and ARPA.

The person, Tribal department, or federal or state agency shall coordinate compliance with the cultural resource review as prescribed in these Policies and Procedures. Tribal departments should consider the cultural resource review responsibility as early as possible in the review process and plan public participation, analysis, and review in such a way that the department can meet the purposes and requirements of these Policies and Procedures in a timely and efficient manner.

It is the responsibility of the Planning Party to make sure that any undertaking does not adversely affect any cultural resources. If a determination is made that an undertaking may have an adverse effect on cultural resources, the person, Tribal department, or federal or state agency shall meet with the THPO to decide what is best to minimize or neutralize any adverse effect on the cultural resources.

Cultural Resource Review

A cultural resource review shall include the following:

1. A determination and documentation of the area of potential effect;
2. A review of existing information on Tribal cultural resources, including any data concerning possible cultural properties;
3. A seeking of information, as appropriate, from concerned Tribal departments and other individuals likely to have knowledge of, or concerns with, Tribal cultural resources in the area;
4. Identification of issues relating to the undertaking's potential effect on Tribal cultural resources;
5. Identification of cultural resources that may be affected or impacted by the undertaking; and
6. Evaluation of the cultural significance to the Tribe and/or its members of the cultural resource.

8-406 Determination of Adverse Effects. The Department of Interior Bureau of Indian Affairs ("BIA") is the land manager of all trust lands lying within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Reservation; as such, it is the trust responsibility of the BIA Archeologist to issue a determination of no historic properties affected or potential affect, i.e., adverse effect. The THPO must either concur or not-concur with such a determination. The criteria of determining an adverse effect that the BIA archeologist implements is found in 36 CFR § 800.5 (a)(1). Adverse effects on cultural resources include, but are not limited to:

- An adverse effect is found when an undertaking may alter, directly or indirectly, any of the characteristics of a historic property that qualify the property for inclusion in the National or Tribal Register in a manner that would diminish the integrity of the property's location, design, setting, materials, workmanship, feeling, or association. Consideration shall be given to all qualifying characteristics of a historic property, including those that may have been identified subsequent to the original evaluation of the property's eligibility for the National or Tribal Register. Adverse effects may include reasonably foreseeable effects caused by the undertaking that may occur later in time, be farther removed in distance or be cumulative.

8-407 Mitigation of Adverse Effects. If the BIA and with THPO concurrence, determines that an undertaking will have adverse effects on a cultural resource, the THPO shall consult with concerned Tribal departments, Tribal members, and Tribal Council to get feedback on what mitigation alternatives need to be taken to protect the cultural resource. Five mitigation alternatives must be considered:

1. Mitigation alternative 1 – avoidance;
2. Mitigation alternative 2 – buffer zone;
3. Mitigation alternative 3 – fence out;
4. Mitigation alternative 4 – site excavation; and
5. Mitigation alternative 5 – project relocation.

8-408 Tribal Monitors. The THPO requires the use of Tribal Monitors for contractors on any undertaking involving ground disturbance to ensure the protection of cultural resources, and provide other monitoring activities on behalf of the Tribe. The THPO grants authority to Tribal Monitors to halt an activity in the area of an undertaking when the potential of an adverse effect may impact a cultural resource. FEE SCHEDULE OF SERVICES

The following services are those provided by the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska THPO in regards to professional services solicited under the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966, as amended. 25 U.S.C. §§ 300101 et seq.

The payment of fees for professional services rendered by Indian tribes during the identification phase of consultation has been established by the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation in the following excerpt of a memorandum issued July 6, 2001 and updated April 26, 2002:

When, during the identification phase of the Section 106 process, an agency or applicant seeks to identify historic properties that may be significant to an Indian tribe, it may ask for specific information and documentation regarding the location, nature, and condition of individual sites, or actually request that a survey be conducted by the tribe.

In doing so, the agency essentially asks the tribe to fulfill the role of a consultant or contractor. In such cases, the tribe would seem to be justified in requiring payment for its services, just as any other contractor. The agency or applicant is free to refuse, but retains the obligation for obtaining the necessary information for the identification of historic properties, the evaluation of their National Register eligibility, and the assessment of effects on the historic properties.

Thus, in the course of soliciting information from the THPO, the request for information regarding places/sites/resources of importance to the Tribe triggers a consultant role for the THPO in regards to searching its records, interviewing elders, or performing other professional services to aid in the resolution of the identification phase of the Section 106 process.

The fees charged for certain services are provided below:

*Review of Historical/Cultural Records Research,
Archaeological Records Review, Report Preparation,
Review of Planning Documents..... $500.00 per request
Construction Monitoring..... $400.00day + $52.50hr. + mileage, per diem, and lodging
TCP Surveying..... $400.00day + $52.50 hr. + mileage, per diem, and lodging
Site Visitation..... $200.00day + appropriate mileage, per diem, and lodging*

These fees are not absolute but shall serve as a baseline for the THPO when estimating the cost of their services on any particular project.

11-011 Definitions.

11-001 Citation. This Code shall be known as the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Business Corporation Code. [TCR 94-124]

11-011 Definitions. For the purpose of this Code, unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, the words, terms and phrases defined in this Section have the meanings given to them.

The articles of a corporation may be amended at any time to include or modify any provision that is required or permitted to appear in the articles or to omit any provision not required to be included in the articles, except that when articles are amended to restate them, the name and address of each incorporator may be omitted. Unless otherwise provided in this Code, the articles may be amended or modified only in accordance with Sections 11-133 to 11-139. [TCR 94-124]

11-133 Procedure for amendment before issuance of shares. Before the issuance of shares by a corporation, the articles may be amended pursuant to Section 11-171 by the incorporators or by the board. voting power of the shares entitled to vote, that sets forth the proposed amendment shall be submitted to a vote at the next regular or special meeting of the shareholders of which notice has not yet been given but still can be timely given. Any number of amendments may be submitted to the shareholders and voted upon at one meeting, but the same or substantially the same amendment proposed by a shareholder or shareholders need not be submitted to the shareholders or be voted upon at more than one meeting during a 15-month period. The resolution may amend the articles in their entirety to restate and supersede the original articles and all amendments to them. The provisions of this subdivision regarding shareholder-proposed amendments do not apply to a corporation registered or reporting under the federal securities laws, to the extent that those provisions are in conflict with the federal securities laws or rules promulgated thereunder, in which case the federal securities laws or rules promulgated thereunder shall govern.

Subdivision 3. Notice. Written notice of the shareholders meeting setting forth the substance of the proposed amendment shall be given to each shareholder in the manner provided in Section 11-435 for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders.

Subdivision 4. Approval by shareholders.

1. The proposed amendment is adopted when approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote, except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3) and subdivision 5.
2. For a closely-held corporation, if the articles provide for a specified proportion or number equal to or larger than the majority necessary to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, or if it is proposed to amend the articles to provide for a specified proportion or number equal to or larger than the majority necessary to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, the affirmative vote necessary to add the provision to, or to amend an existing provision in, the articles is the larger of:
 - a. The specified proportion or number or, in the absence of a specific provision, the affirmative vote necessary to transact the type of business described in the proposed amendment at a meeting immediately before the effectiveness of the proposed amendment;
or
 - b. The specified proportion or number that would, upon effectiveness of the proposed amendment, be necessary to transact the specified type of business at a meeting.
3. For corporations other than closely-held corporations, if the articles provide for a larger proportion or number to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, the affirmative vote of that larger proportion or number is necessary to amend the articles to decrease the proportion or number necessary to transact the business.

Subdivision 5. Certain restatements. An amendment that merely restates the existing articles, as amended, may be authorized by a resolution approved by the board and may, but need not, be submitted to and approved by the shareholders as provided in subdivisions 2, 3, and 4. [TCR 94-124]

11-137 Class or series voting on amendments. The holders of the outstanding shares of a class or series are entitled to vote as a class or series upon a proposed amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles, if the amendment would:

1. Increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of the class or series;
2. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the shares of the class or series;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 1.10

7. Divide the shares of the class into series and determine the designation of each series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of each series, or authorize the board to do so;
8. Limit or deny any existing preemptive rights of the shares of the class or series; or
9. Cancel or otherwise affect distributions on the shares of the class or series that have accrued but have not been declared. [TCR 94-124]

11-139 Articles of amendment. When an amendment has been adopted, articles of amendment shall be prepared that contain:

1. The name of the corporation;
2. The amendment adopted;
3. With respect to an amendment restating the articles, a statement that the amendment restating the articles correctly sets forth without change the corresponding provisions of the articles as previously amended if the amendment was approved only by the board;
4. If the amendment provides for but does not establish the manner for effecting an exchange, reclassification, division, combination, or cancellation of issued shares, a statement of the manner in which it will be effected; and
5. A statement that the amendment has been adopted pursuant to this Code. [TCR 94-124]

11-141 Effect of amendment.

Subdivision 1. Effect on cause of action. An amendment does not affect an existing cause of action in favor of or against the corporation, nor a pending suit to which the corporation is a party, nor the existing rights of persons other than shareholders.

Subdivision 2. Effect of change of name. If the corporate name is changed by the amendment, a suit brought by or against the corporation under its former name does not abate for that reason.

Subdivision 3. Effect of amendments restating, articles. When effective under Section 11-153, an amendment restating the articles in their entirety supersedes the original articles and all amendments to the original articles. [TCR 94-124]

11-153 Effective date of articles. Articles of incorporation are effective and corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed with the Tribal Secretary accompanied by a payment of $125.00, which includes a $100.00 incorporation fee in addition to the $25.00 filing fee. Articles of amendment and articles of merger are effective when filed with the Tribal Secretary or at another time within 30 days after filing if the articles of amendment so provide. Articles of merger must be

11-155 Presumption; Certificate of Incorporation. When the articles of incorporation have been filed with the Tribal Secretary and the required fee has been paid to the Tribal Secretary, it is presumed that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated, and the Tribal Secretary shall issue a certificate of incorporation to the corporation, but this presumption does not apply against the Tribe in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of incorporation or to compel the involuntary dissolution of the corporation. 11-201 Board.

Subdivision 1. Board to manager. The business and affairs of a corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a board, subject to the provisions of subdivision 2 and Section 11-457. The members of the first board may be named in the articles or elected by the incorporators pursuant to Section 11-171 or by the shareholders.

Subdivision 2. Shareholder management. The holders of the shares entitled to vote for directors of the corporation may, by unanimous affirmative vote, take any action that this Code requires or permits the board to take. As to an action taken by the shareholders in that manner:

1. The directors have no duties, liabilities, or responsibilities as directors under this Code with respect to or arising from the action;
2. The shareholders collectively and individually have all of the duties, liabilities, and responsibilities of directors under this Code with respect to and arising from the action;
3. If the action relates to a matter required or permitted by this Code or by any other law to be approved or adopted by the board, either with or without approval or adoption by the shareholders, the action is deemed to have been approved or adopted by the board; and
4. A requirement that an instrument filed with a governmental agency contain a statement that the action has been approved and adopted by the board is satisfied by a statement that the shareholders have taken the action under this subdivision. [TCR 94-124]

11-203 Number. The board shall consist of one or more directors. The number of directors shall be fixed by or in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws. The number of directors may be increased or, subject to Section 11-223, decreased at any time by amendment to or in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws. [TCR 94-124]

11-205 Qualifications; election. Directors shall be natural persons. The method of election and any additional qualifications for directors may be imposed by or in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws. A director need not be a member of the Tribe unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe. [TCR 94-124]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 2

11-207 Terms. Unless fixed terms are provided for in the articles or bylaws, a director serves for an indefinite term that expires at the next regular meeting of the shareholders. A fixed term of a director shall not exceed five years. A director holds office for the term for which the director was elected and until a successor is elected and has qualified, or until the earlier death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of the director. [TCR 94-124]

11-209 Acts not void or voidable. The expiration of a director's term with or without the election of a qualified successor does not make prior or subsequent acts of the officers or the board void or voidable. [TCR 94-124]

11-211 Compensation. Subject to any limitations in the articles or bylaws, the board may fix the compensation of directors. [TCR 94-124]

11-213 Classification of directors. Directors may be divided into classes as provided in the articles or bylaws. [TCR 94-124]

11-215 Cumulative voting for directors.

Subdivision 1. Unless the articles provide that there shall be no cumulative voting, and except as provided in Section 11-223, subdivision 5, each shareholder entitled to vote for directors has the right to cumulate those votes in the election of directors by giving written notice of intent to cumulate those votes to any officer of the corporation before the meeting, or to the presiding officer at the meeting at which the election is to occur at any time before the election of directors at the meeting, in which case:

1. The presiding officer at the meeting shall announce, before the election of directors, that shareholders shall cumulate their votes; and
2. Each shareholder shall cumulate those votes either by casting for one candidate the number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes represented by the shares, or by distributing all of those votes on the same principle among any number of candidates.

Subdivision 2. Modification. No amendment to the articles or bylaws which has the effect of denying, limiting, or modifying the right to cumulative voting for directors provided in this Section shall be adopted if the votes of a proportion of the voting power sufficient to elect a director at an election of the entire board under cumulative voting, are cast against the amendment. [TCR 94-124]

11-221 Resignation. A director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the corporation, unless a later effective time is specified in the notice. [TCR 94-124]

11-223 Removal of directors.

Subdivision 1. Modification. The provisions of this Section apply unless modified by the articles, the bylaws, or an agreement described in Section 11-457.

Subdivision 2. Removal of directors. A director may be removed at any time, with or without cause if:

1. The director was named by the board to fill a vacancy;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 2

2. The shareholders have not elected directors in the interval between the time of the appointment to fill a vacancy and the time of the removal; and
3. A majority of the remaining directors present affirmatively vote to remove the director.

Subdivision 3. Removal by shareholders. One or all of the directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of the proportion or number of the voting power of the shares of the classes or series the director represents sufficient to elect them, except as provided in subdivision 4.

Subdivision 4. Exception for corporation with cumulative voting. In a corporation having cumulative voting, unless the entire board is removed simultaneously, a director is not removed from the board if there are cast against removal of the director the votes of a proportion of the voting power sufficient to elect the director at an election of the entire board under cumulative voting.

Subdivision 5. Election of replacements. New directors may be elected at a meeting at which directors are removed. If the corporation allows cumulative voting and a shareholder notifies the presiding officer at any time prior to the election of new directors of intent to cumulate the votes of the shareholder, the presiding officer shall announce before the election that cumulative voting is in effect, and shareholders shall cumulate their votes as provided in Section 11-215, clause (2). [TCR 94-124]

11-225 Vacancies. Unless different rules for filling vacancies are provided for in the articles or bylaws:

1.
 - a. Vacancies on the board resulting from the death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of a director may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even though less than a quorum; and
 - b. Vacancies on the board resulting from newly created directorships may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors serving at the time of the increase; and
2. Each director elected under this Section to fill a vacancy holds office until a qualified successor is elected by the shareholders at the next regular or special meeting of the shareholders. [TCR 94-124]

11-231 Board meetings.

Subdivision 1. Time; place. Meetings of the board may be held from time to time as provided in the articles or bylaws at any place within or without the reservation that the board may select or by any means described in subdivision 2. If the board fails to select a place for a meeting, the meeting shall be held at the principal executive office, unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise.

Subdivision 2. Electronic communications.

1. A conference among directors by any means of communication through which the directors may simultaneously hear each other during the conference constitutes a board meeting, if the same notice is given of the conference as would be required by subdivision 3 for a meeting, and if the number of directors participating in the conference would be sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting's participation in a meeting by that means constitutes presence in person at the meeting.
2. A director may participate in a board meeting not described in paragraph (a) by any means of communication through which the director, other directors so participating, and all directors physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by that means constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

Subdivision 3. Call, meetings notice. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different time period, a director may call a board meeting by giving ten days notice to all directors of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting unless the articles or bylaws require it.

Subdivision 4. Previously scheduled meetings. If the day or date, time, and place of a board meeting have been provided in the articles or bylaws, or announced at a previous meeting of the board, no notice is required. Notice of adjourned meeting may not be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which adjournment is taken.

Subdivision 5. Waiver of notice. A director may waive notice of a meeting of the board. A waiver of notice by a director entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a director at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the director objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate thereafter in the meeting. [TCR 94-124]

11-233 Absent directors. If the articles or bylaws so provide, a director may give advance written consent or opposition to a proposal to be acted on at a board meeting. If the director is not present at the meeting, consent or opposition to a proposal does not constitute presence for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum, but consent or opposition shall be counted as a vote in favor of or against the proposal and shall be entered in the minutes or other record of action at the meeting, if the proposal acted on at the meeting is substantially the same or has substantially the same effect as the proposal to which the director has consented or objected.

11-235 Quorum. A majority, or a larger or smaller proportion or number provided in the articles or bylaws, of the directors currently holding office is a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present may adjourn a meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened, the directors present may continue to transact business until adjournment, even though the withdrawal of a number of directors originally present leaves less than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum. [TCR 94-124]

11-237 Act of the board. The board shall take action by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present at a duly held meeting, except where this Code or the articles require the affirmative vote of a larger proportion or number. If the articles require a larger proportion or number than is required by this Code for a particular action, the articles shall control. [TCR 94-124]

11-239 Action without meeting.

Subdivision 1. Method. An action required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting may be taken by written action signed by all of the directors. If the articles so provide, any action, other than an action requiring shareholder approval, may be taken by written action signed by the number of directors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the board at which all directors were present.

Subdivision 2. Effective time. The written action is effective when signed by the required number of directors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 2

Subdivision 3. Notice; liability. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all directors, all directors shall be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A director who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions taken thereby. [TCR 94-124]

11-241 Committees.

Subdivision 1. Generally. A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board may establish committees having the authority of the board in the management of the business of the corporation only to the extent provided in the resolution. Committees may include a special litigation committee consisting of one or more independent directors or other independent persons to consider legal rights or remedies of the corporation and whether those rights and remedies should be pursued. Committees other than special litigation committees are subject at all times to the direction and control of the board.

Subdivision 2. Membership. Committee members shall be natural persons. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different membership or manner of appointment, a committee shall consist of one or more persons, who need not be directors, appointed by affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present.

Subdivision 3. Procedure. Sections 11-231 to 11-239 apply to committees and members of committees to the same extent as those sections apply to the board and directors.

Subdivision 4. Minutes. Minutes, if any, of committee meetings shall be made available upon request to members of the committee and to any director.

Subdivision 5. Standard of conduct. The establishment of, delegation of authority to, and action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standard of conduct set forth in Section 11-251.

Subdivision 6. Committee members deemed directors. Committee members are deemed to be directors for purposes of Sections 11-251, 11-255, and 11-521. [TCR 94-124]

11-251 Standard of conduct.

Subdivision 1. Standard; liability. A director shall discharge the duties of the position of director in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. A person who so performs those duties is not liable by reason of being or having been a director of the corporation.

Subdivision 2. Reliance.

1. A director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:
 - a. one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
 - b. counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters that the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 2

- c. a committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, duly established in accordance with Section 11-241, as to matters within its designated authority, if the director reasonably believes the committee to merit confidence.
2. Paragraph (a) does not apply to a director who has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes the reliance otherwise permitted by paragraph (a) unwarranted.

Subdivision 3. Presumption of assent; dissent. A director who is present at a meeting of the board when an action is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present is presumed to have assented to the action approved, unless the director:

1. Objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate thereafter in the meeting, in which case the director shall not be considered to be present at the meeting for any purpose of this Code;
2. Votes against the action at the meeting; or
3. Is prohibited by Section 11-255 from voting on the action.

Subdivision 4. Elimination or limitation of liability. A director's personal liability to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director may be eliminated or limited in the articles. The articles shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

1. for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders;
2. for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
3. under Section 11-559;
4. for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; or
5. for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision in the articles eliminating or limiting liability becomes effective. [TCR 94-124]

11-255 Director conflicts of interest.

Subdivision 1. Conflict; procedure when conflict arises. A contract or other transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors, or between a corporation and an organization in or of which one or more of its directors are directors, officers, or legal representatives or have a material financial interest, is not void or voidable because the director or directors or the other organizations are parties or because the director or directors are present at the meeting of the shareholders or the board or a committee at which the contract or transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified, if:

1. The contract or transaction was, and the person asserting the validity of the contract or transaction sustains the burden of establishing, that the contract or transaction was, fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it was authorized, approved, or ratified;
2. The material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director or directors' interest are fully disclosed or known to the shareholders and the contract or transaction is approved in good faith by (1) the holders of two-thirds of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote which are owned by persons other than the interested director or directors, or (2) the unanimous affirmative vote of the holders of all outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote;
3. The material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director or directors' interest are fully disclosed or known to the board or a committee, and the board or committee authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a majority of the board or committee, but the interested director or directors shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum and shall not vote; or

TITLE 11 ARTICLE 2

4. The contract or transaction is a distribution described in Section 11-551, subdivision 1, or merger or exchange described in Section 11-601, subdivision 1 or 2.

Subdivision 2. Material financial interest. For purposes of this Section:

1. A director does not have a material financial interest in a resolution fixing the compensation of the director or fixing the compensation of another director as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, even though the first director is also receiving compensation from the corporation; and
2. A director has a material financial interest in each organization in which the director, or the spouse, parents, children and spouses of children, brothers and sisters and spouses of brothers and sisters of the director, or any combination of them have a material financial interest.

Subdivision 3. Compensation agreements. During any tender offer or request or invitation for tenders of any class or series of shares of a publicly-held corporation, other than an offer, request, or invitation by the publicly-held corporation, the publicly-held corporation shall not enter into or amend, directly or indirectly, agreements containing provisions, whether or not dependent on the occurrence of any event or contingency, that increase, directly or indirectly, the current or future compensation of any officer or director of the publicly-held corporation. This subdivision does not prohibit routine increases in compensation, or other routine compensation agreements, undertaken in the ordinary course of the publicly-held corporation's business. | 11-321 | Officers deemed elected. | | |

11-301 Officers required. A corporation shall have one or more natural persons exercising the functions of the offices, however designated, of chief executive officer and chief financial officer. [TCR 94-124]

11-305 Duties of required officers.

Subdivision 1. Presumption; modifications. Unless the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution adopted by the board and not inconsistent with the articles or bylaws, provide otherwise, the chief executive officer and chief financial officer have the duties specified in this Section.

Subdivision 2. Chief executive officer. The chief executive officer shall:

1. Have general active management of the business of the corporation;
2. When present, preside at all meetings of the board and of the shareholders;
3. See that all orders and resolutions of the board are carried into effect;
4. Sign and deliver in the name of the corporation any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments pertaining to the business of the corporation, except in cases in which the authority to sign and deliver is required by law to be exercised by another person or is expressly delegated by the articles or bylaws or by the board to some other officer or agent of the corporation;
5. Maintain records of and whenever necessary, certify all proceedings of the board and the shareholders; and
6. Perform other duties prescribed by the board.

Subdivision 3. Chief financial officer. The chief financial officer shall:

1. Keep accurate financial records for the corporation;
2. Deposit all money, drafts, and checks in the name of and to the credit of the corporation in the banks and depositories designated by the board;
3. Endorse for deposit all notes, checks, and drafts received by the corporation as ordered by the board, making proper vouchers therefor;
4. Disburse corporate funds and issue checks and drafts in the name of the corporation, as ordered by the board;
5. Render to the chief executive officer and the board, whenever requested, an account of all transactions by the chief financial officer and of the financial condition of the corporation; and
6. Perform other duties prescribed by the board or by the chief executive officer. [TCR 94-124]

11-311 Other officers. The board may elect or appoint, at a manner set forth in the articles or bylaws or in a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, any other officers

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

or agents the board deems necessary for the operation and management of the corporation, each of whom shall have the powers, rights, duties, responsibilities, and terms in office provided for in the articles or bylaws or determined by the board. [TCR 94-124]

11-315 Multiple offices. Any number of offices or functions of those offices may be held or exercised by the same person. If a document must be signed by persons holding different offices or functions and a person holds or exercises more than one of those offices or functions, that person may sign the document in more than one capacity, but only if the document indicates each capacity in which the person signs. [TCR 94-124]

11-321 Officers deemed elected. In the absence of an election or appointment of officers by the board, the person or persons exercising the principal functions of the chief executive officer or the chief financial officer are deemed to have been elected to those offices, except for the purpose of determining the location of the principal executive office, which in that case is the registered office of the corporation. [TCR 94-124]

11-331 Contract rights. The election or appointment of a person as an officer or agent does not, of itself, create contract rights. A corporation may enter into a contract with an officer or agent for a period of time if, in the board's judgment, the contract would be in the best interests of the corporation. The fact that the contract may be for a term longer than the terms of the directors who authorized or approved the contract does not make the contract void or voidable. [TCR 94-124]

11-341 Resignation; removal; vacancies.

Subdivision 1. Resignation. An officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the corporation, unless a later effective date is specified in the notice.

Subdivision 2. Removal. An officer may be removed at any time, with or without cause by a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, subject to the provisions of a shareholder control agreement. The removal is without prejudice to any contractual rights of the officer.

Subdivision 3. Vacancy. A vacancy in an office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or other cause may, or in the case of a vacancy in the office of chief executive officer or chief financial officer shall, be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws, or determined by the board, or pursuant to Section 11-321. [TCR 94-124]

11-351 Delegation. Unless prohibited by the articles or bylaws or by a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, an officer elected or appointed by the board may, without the approval of the board, delegate some or all of the duties and powers of an office to other persons. An officer who delegates the duties or powers of office remains subject to the standard of conduct for an officer with respect to the discharge of all duties and powers so delegated. [TCR 94-124]

11-361 Standard of conduct. An officer shall discharge the duties of an office in good faith, in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. A person exercising the principal functions of an office or to whom some or all of the duties and powers of an office are delegated pursuant to Section 11-351 is deemed an officer for purposes of this Section and Sections 11-467 and 11-521. 11-401 Authorized shares.

Subdivision 1. Board may authorize. Subject to any restrictions in the articles, a corporation may issue securities and rights to purchase securities only when authorized by the board.

Subdivision 2. Terms of shares. All the shares of a corporation:

1. Shall be of one class and one series, unless the articles establish, or authorize the board to establish, more than one class or series;
2. Shall be common shares entitled to vote and shall have equal rights and preferences in all matters not otherwise provided for by the board, unless and to the extent that the articles have fixed the relative rights and preferences of different classes and series; and
3. Shall have, unless a different par value is specified in the articles, a par value of one cent per share, solely for the purpose of a law, statute or rule imposing a tax or fee based upon the capitalization of a corporation and a par value fixed by the board for the purpose of a statute or rule requiring the shares of the corporation to have a par value.

Subdivision 3. Procedure for fixing terms.

1. Subject to any restrictions in the articles, the power granted in subdivision 2 may lie exercised by a resolution or resolutions approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present establishing a class or series, setting forth the designation of the class or series, and fixing the relative rights and preferences of the class or series. Any of the rights and preferences of a class or series:
 - a. may be made, dependent upon facts ascertainable outside the articles, or outside the resolution or resolutions establishing the class or series, provided that the manner in which the facts operate upon the rights and preferences of the class or series is clearly and expressly set forth in the articles or in the resolution or resolutions establishing the class or series; and

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

- b. may incorporate by reference some or all of the terms of any agreements, contracts, or other arrangements entered into by the issuing corporation in connection with the establishment of the class or series if the corporation retains at its principal executive office a copy of the agreements, contracts or other arrangements or the portions incorporated by reference.
2. A statement setting forth the name of the corporation and the text of the resolution and certifying the adoption of the resolution and the date of adoption shall be filed with the Tribal Secretary before the issuance of any shares for which the resolution creates rights or preferences not set forth in the articles; provided, however, where the shareholders have received notice of the creation of shares with rights or preferences not set forth in the articles before the issuance of the shares, the statement may be filed any time within one year after the issuance of the shares. The resolution is effective when the statement has been filed with the Tribal Secretary; or, if it is not required to be filed with the Tribal Secretary before the issuance of shares, on the date of its adoption by the directors.
3. A statement filed with the Tribal Secretary in accordance with paragraph (b) is not considered an amendment of the articles for purposes of Sections 11-137 and 11-471.

Subdivision 4. Specific terms. Without limiting the authority granted in this Section, a corporation may issue shares of a class or series:

1. Subject to the right of the corporation to redeem any of those shares at the price fixed for their redemption by the articles or by the board or at a price determined in the manner specified by the articles or by the board;
2. Entitling the shareholders to cumulative, partially cumulative, or non-cumulative distributions in the amounts fixed by the articles or by the board or in amounts determined in the manner specified by the articles or by the board;
3. Having preference over any class or series of shares for the payment of distributions of any kinds;
4. Convertible into shares of any other class or any series of the same or another class on the terms fixed by the articles or by the board or on terms determined in the manner specified by the articles or by the board; or
5. Having full, partial, or no voting rights, except as provided in Section 11-137. [TCR 94-124]

11-402 Share dividends, divisions, and combinations.

Subdivision 1. Power to effect. A corporation may effect a share dividend or a division or combination of its shares as provided in this Section. As used in this Section, the terms “division” and “combination” mean dividing or combining shares of any class or series, whether issued or unissued, into a greater or lesser number of shares of the same class or series.

Subdivision 2. When shareholder approval required; filing of articles of amendment. Articles of amendment must be adopted by the board and the shareholders tender Sections 11-135 and 11-137 to effect a division or combination if, as a result of the proposed division or combination:

1. The rights or preferences of the holders of outstanding shares of any class or series will be adversely affected.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

2. The percentage of authorized shares remaining unissued after the division or combination will exceed the percentage of authorized shares that were unissued before the division or combination. For purposes of this Section, an increase or decrease in the relative voting right of the shares that are the subject of the division or combination that arises solely from the increase or decrease in the number of the shares outstanding is not an adverse effect on the outstanding shares of any class or series and any increase in the percentage of authorized shares remaining unissued arising solely from the elimination of fraction shares under Section 11-423 must be disregarded.
3. If a division or combination is effected under this subdivision, articles of amendment must be prepared that contain the information required by Section 11-139.

Subdivision 3. By action of board alone; filing of articles of amendment.

1. Subject to the restrictions provided in subdivision 2 or any restrictions in the articles, a share dividend, division, or combination may be effected by action of the board alone, without the approval of shareholders under Sections 11-135 and 11-137. In effecting division or combination under this subdivision, the board may amend the articles to increase or decrease the par value of shares, increase or decrease the number of authorized shares, and make any other changes necessary or appropriate to assure that the rights or preferences of the holders of outstanding big shares of any class or series will not be adversely affected by the division or combination.
2. If a division or combination that includes an amendment of the articles is effected under this subdivision, then articles of amendment must be prepared that contain the information required by Section 11-139 and a statement that the amendment will not adversely affect the rights or preferences of the holders of outstanding shares of any class or series and will not result in the percentage of authorized shares that remains unissued after the division or combination exceeding the percentage of authorized shares that were unissued before the division or combination. [TCR 94-124]

11-403 Subscriptions for shares.

Subdivision 1. Signed writing. A subscription for shares, whether made before or after the incorporation of a corporation, is not enforceable against the subscriber unless it is in writing and signed by the subscriber.

Subdivision 2. Irrevocable period. A subscription for shares is irrevocable for a period of six months, unless the subscription agreement provides for, or unless all of the subscribers consent to, an earlier revocation.

Subdivision 3. Payment; installments. A subscription for shares, whether made before or after the incorporation of a corporation, shall be paid in full at the time or times or in the installments, if any, specified in the subscription agreement. In the absence of a provision in the subscription agreement specifying the time at which the subscription is to be paid, the subscription shall be paid at the time or times determined by the board but a call made by the board for payment on subscriptions shall be uniform for all shares of the same class or for all shares of the same series.

Subdivision 4. Method of collection; forfeiture; cancellation or sale for account of subscriber.

1. Unless otherwise provided in the subscription agreement, in the event of default in the payment of an installment or call when due, the corporation may proceed to collect the amount due in the same manner as a debt due the corporation.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. If the amount due on a subscription for shares remains unpaid for a period of 20 days after written notice of demand for payment has been given to the delinquent subscriber, the shares subscribed for may be offered for sale by the corporation for a price in money equaling or exceeding the sum of the full balance owed by the delinquent subscriber plus the expenses incidental to the sale. If the shares subscribed for are sold pursuant to this paragraph, the corporation shall pay to the delinquent subscriber or to the delinquent subscriber's legal representative the lesser of (i) the excess of net proceeds realized by the corporation over the sum of the amount owed by the delinquent subscriber plus the expenses incidental to the sale, and (ii) the amount actually paid by the delinquent subscriber. If the shares subscribed for are not sold pursuant to this paragraph, the corporation may collect the amount due in the same manner as a debt due the corporation or cancel the subscription in accordance with paragraph (3).
3. If the amount due on a subscription for shares remains unpaid for a period of 20 days after written notice of demand for payment has been given to the delinquent subscriber and the shares subscribed for by the delinquent subscriber have not been sold pursuant to paragraph (b), the corporation may cancel the subscription, in which event the shares subscribed for must be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares, the corporation may retain the portion of the subscription price actually paid that does not exceed ten percent of the subscription price, and the corporation shall refund to the delinquent subscriber or the delinquent subscriber's legal representative that portion of the subscription price actually paid which exceeds ten percent of the subscription price. [TCR 94-124]

11-405 Consideration for shares; value and payment; liability.

Subdivision 1. Consideration; procedure. Subject to any restrictions in the articles:

1. Shares may be issued for any consideration, including, without limitation, money or other tangible or intangible property received by the corporation or to be received by the corporation under a written agreement, or services rendered to the corporation or to be rendered to the corporation under a written agreement, as authorized by resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, or approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares present, valuing all non-monetary consideration and establishing a price in money or other consideration, or a minimum price, or a general formula or method by which the price will be determined; and
2. Upon authorization in accordance with Section 11-402, the corporation may, without any new or additional consideration, issue its own shares in exchange for or in conversion of its outstanding shares, or issue its own shares pro-rata to its shareholders or the shareholders of one or more classes or series, to effectuate share dividends, divisions, or combinations. No shares of a class or series, shares of which are then outstanding, shall be issued to the holders of shares of another class or series (except in exchange for or in conversion of outstanding, shares of the other class or series), unless the issuance either is expressly provided for in the articles or is approved at a meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all shares of the same class or series as the shares to be issued.

Subdivision 2. Value; liability. The determinations of the board or the shareholders as to the amount or fair value or the fairness to the corporation of the consideration received or to be received by the corporation for its shares or the terms of payments, as well as the agreement to issue shares for that consideration, are presumed to be proper if they are made in good faith and on the basis of accounting methods, or a fair valuation or other method, reasonable in the circumstances, and unless otherwise required by the articles, the consideration may be less than the par value, if any, of the shares. Directors or shareholders who are present and entitled to vote, and who, intentionally or without reasonable investigation, fail to vote against approving, an issue of shares for a consideration that is unfair to the corporation, or over-value property or services received or to be received by the corporation as consideration for shares issued, are jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the benefit of the then shareholders who did not consent to find are damaged by the action, to the extent of the damages of those shareholders. A director or shareholder against whom a claim is asserted pursuant to this subdivision, except in case of knowing participation in a deliberate fraud, is entitled to contribution on an equitable basis from other directors or shareholders who are liable under this Section.

Subdivision 3. Payment; liability; contribution; statute of limitations.

1. A corporation shall issue only shares that are nonassessable or that are assessable but are issued with the unanimous consent of the shareholders. "Nonassessable" shares are shares for which the agreed consideration has been fully paid, delivered, or rendered to the corporation. Consideration in the form of a promissory note, a check, or a written agreement to transfer property or render services to a corporation in the future is fully paid when the note, check, or written agreement is delivered to the corporation.
2. If shares are issued in violation of paragraph (a), the following persons are jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the difference between the agreed consideration for the shares and the consideration actually received by the corporation:
 - a. A director or shareholder who was present and entitled to vote but who failed to vote against the issuance of the shares knowing of the violation;
 - b. The person to whom the shares were issued; and
 - c. A successor or transferee of the interest in the corporation of a person described in clause (1) or (2), including a purchaser of shares, a subsequent assignee, successor, or transferee, a pledgee, a holder of any other security interest in the assets of the corporation or shares granted by the person described in clause (a) or (b), or a legal representative of or for the person or estate of the person, which successor, transferee, purchaser, assignee, pledgee, holder, or representative acquired the interest knowing of the violation.
 - a. A pledgee or holder of any other security interest in all or any shares that have been issued in violation of paragraph (1) is not liable under paragraph (2) if all those shares are surrendered to the corporation. The surrender does not impair any rights of the pledgee or holder of any other security interest against the pledgor or person granting the security interest.
 - b. A pledgee, holder of any other security interest, or legal representative is liable under paragraph (2) only in that capacity. The liability of the person under paragraph (2) is limited to the assets held in that capacity for the person or estate of the person described in clause (a) or (b) of paragraph (2).
 - c. Each person liable under paragraph (2) has a full right of contribution on an equitable basis from all other persons liable under paragraph (2) for the same transaction.
 - d. An action shall not be maintained against a person under paragraph (b) unless commenced within two years from the date on which shares are issued in violation of paragraph (1).
[TCR 94-124]

11-413 Preemptive rights.

Subdivision 1. Presumption; modification. Unless denied or limited in the articles or by the board pursuant to Section 11-401, subdivision 2, clause (b), a shareholder of a corporation has the preemptive rights provided in this Section.

Subdivision 2. Definition. A preemptive right is the right of a shareholder to acquire a certain fraction of the unissued securities or rights to purchase securities of a corporation before the corporation may offer them to other persons.

Subdivision 3. When right accrues. A shareholder has a preemptive right whenever the corporation proposes to issue new or additional shares or rights to purchase shares of the same series as the series held by the shareholder or, if a class of shares has no series, the same class as the class held by the shareholder, or new or additional securities other than shares, or rights to purchase securities other than shares, that are exchangeable for, convertible into, or carry a right to acquire new or additional shares of the same series as the series held by the shareholder or, if a class of shares has no series, the same class as the class held by the shareholder.

Subdivision 4. Exemptions. A shareholder does not have a preemptive right to acquire securities or rights to purchase securities that are:

1. Issued for a consideration other than money;
2. Issued pursuant to a plan of merger or exchange;
3. Issued pursuant to an employee or incentive benefit plan approved at a meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote;
4. Issued upon exercise of previously issued rights to purchase securities of the corporation;
5. Issued pursuant to a public offering of the corporation's securities or rights to purchase securities. For purposes of this clause "public offering" means an offering of the corporation's securities or rights to purchase securities if the resale or other distribution of those securities or rights to purchase securities is not restricted by Tribal, state or federal securities laws; or
6. Issued pursuant to a plan of reorganization approved by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to a law of this Tribe or a statute of the United States.

Subdivision 5. Fraction to be acquired. The fraction of the new issue that each shareholder may acquire by exercise of a preemptive right is the ratio that the number of shares of that class or series owned by the shareholder before the new issue bears to the total number of shares of that class or series issued and outstanding before the new issue.

Subdivision 6. Waiver. A shareholder may waive a preemptive right in writing. The waiver is binding upon the shareholder whether or not consideration has been given for the waiver. Unless otherwise provided in the waiver, a waiver of preemptive rights is effective only for the proposed issuance described in the waiver.

Subdivision 7. Notice. When proposing the issuance of securities with respect to which shareholders have preemptive rights under this Section, the board shall cause notice to be given to each shareholder entitled to preemptive rights. This notice shall be given at least ten days before the date by which the shareholder must exercise a preemptive right and shall contain:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

1. The number or amount of securities with respect to which the shareholder has a preemptive right, and the method used to determine that number or amount;
2. The price and other terms and conditions upon which the shareholder may purchase them; and
3. The time within which and the method by which the shareholder must exercise the right.

Subdivision 8. Issuance to others. Securities that are subject to preemptive rights but not acquired by shareholders in the exercise of those rights may, for a period not exceeding one year after the date fixed by the board for the exercise of those preemptive rights, be issued to persons the board determines, at a price not less than, and on terms no more favorable to the purchaser than, those offered to the shareholders. Securities that are not issued during that one year period shall, at the expiration of the period, again become subject to preemptive rights of shareholders.

Subdivision 9. Modification. No amendment to the articles which has the effect of denying, limiting, or modifying the preemptive rights provided in this Section shall be adopted if the votes of a proportion of the voting power sufficient to a director at an election of the entire board under cumulative voting are cast against the amendment. [TCR 94-124]

11-417 Share certificates; issuance and contents; uncertificated shares.

Subdivision 1. Certificated; uncertificated. The shares of a corporation shall be either certificated shares or uncertificated. Each holder of certificated shares issued in accordance with Section 11-405, subdivision 3, paragraph (1) is entitled to a certificate of shares.

Subdivision 2. Certificates; signature required. Certificates shall be signed by an agent or officer authorized by the articles or bylaws to sign share certificates or, in the absence of an authorization, by an officer.

Subdivision 3. Signature valid. If a person signs or has a facsimile signature placed upon a certificate while an officer, transfer agent, or registrar of a corporation is present, the certificate may be issued by the corporation, even if the person has ceased to have that capacity before the certificate is issued, with the same effect as if the person had that capacity at the date of its issue.

Subdivision 4. Form of certificate. A certificate representing shares of a corporation shall contain on its face:

1. The name of the corporation;
2. A statement that the corporation is incorporated under the laws of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska;
3. The name of the person to whom it is issued; and
4. The number and class of shares, and the designation of the series, if any, that the certificate represents.

Subdivision 5. Limitations set forth. A certificate representing shares issued by a corporation authorized to issue shares of more than one class or series shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state that the corporation will furnish to a shareholder upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of the shares of each class or series authorized to be issued, so far as they have been determined, and the authority of the board to determine the relative rights and preferences of subsequent classes or series.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

Subdivision 6. Prima facie evidence. A certificate signed as provided in subdivision 2 is prima facie evidence of the ownership of the shares referred to in the certificate.

Subdivision 7. Uncertificated shares. Unless uncertificated shares are prohibited by the articles or bylaws, a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present may provide that some or all of any or all classes and series of its shares will be uncertificated shares. The resolution does not apply to shares represented by a certificate until the certificate is surrendered to the corporation. Within a reasonable time after issuance or transfer of uncertificated shares, the corporation shall send to the new shareholder the information required by this Section to be stated on certificates. Except as otherwise expressly provided by statute, the rights and obligations of the holders of certificated and uncertificated shares of the same class and series are identical. [TCR 94-124]

11-419 Lost share certificates; replacement.

Subdivision 1. Issuance. A new share certificate may be issued to replace one that is alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed. The owner must (i) notify the issuer within a reasonable time after having notice of the loss and request a replacement before the issuer has notice that the security has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser; (ii) file with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond; and (iii) satisfy any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

Subdivision 2. Not over issue. The issuance of a new certificate under this Section does not constitute an over issue of the shares it represents. [TCR 94-124]

11-423 Fractional shares.

Subdivision 1. Issuance; alternative exchange. A corporation may issue fractions of a share originally or upon transfer. If it does not issue fractions of a share, it shall in connection with an original issuance of shares:

1. Arrange for the disposition of fractional interests by those entitled to them;
2. Pay in money the fair value of fractions of a share as of the time when persons entitled to receive the fractions are determined; or
3. Issue scrip or warrants in registered or bearer form that entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share upon the surrender of the scrip or warrants aggregating a full share.

Subdivision 2. A corporation shall not pay money for fractional shares if that action would result in the cancellation of more than 20 percent of the outstanding shares of a class. A determination by the board of the fair value of fractions of a share is conclusive in the absence of fraud. A certificate or a transaction statement for a fractional share does, but scrip or warrants do not unless they provide otherwise, entitle the shareholder to exercise voting rights or to receive distributions. The board may cause scripts or warrants to be issued subject to the condition that they become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date, or that the shares for which scrip or warrants are exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds distributed to the holder of the scrip or warrants, or to any other condition or set of conditions the board may impose. [TCR 94-124]

11-425 Liability of subscribers and shareholders with respect to shares. A subscriber for shares or a shareholder of a corporation is under no obligation to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares subscribed for or owned, except to pay to the corporation the full consideration for which the shares are issued or to be issued. [TCR 94-124]

11-429 Restriction on transfer or registration of securities.

Subdivision 1. How imposed. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of securities of a corporation may be imposed in the articles, in the bylaws, by a resolution adopted by the shareholders, or by an agreement among or other written action by a number of shareholders or holders of other securities or among them and the corporation. A restriction is not binding with respect to securities issued prior to the adoption of the restriction, unless the holders of those securities are parties to the agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

Subdivision 2. Restrictions permitted. A written restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of securities of a corporation that is not manifestly unreasonable under the circumstances and is noted conspicuously on the face or back of the certificate or transaction statement may be enforced against the holder of the restricted or a successor or transferee of the holder, including a pledgee or a legal representative. Unless noted conspicuously on the face or back of the certificate or transaction statement, a restriction, even though permitted by this Section, is ineffective against a person without knowledge of the restriction. A restriction under this Section is deemed to be noted conspicuously and is effective if the existence of the restriction is stated on the certificate and reference is made to a separate document creating or describing the restriction. [TCR 94-124]

11-431 Regular meetings of shareholders.

Subdivision 1. Frequency. Regular meetings of shareholders may be held on an annual or other less frequent periodic basis, but need not be held unless required by the articles or bylaws or by subdivision 2.

Subdivision 2. Demand by shareholder. If a regular meeting of shareholders has not been held during the immediately preceding 15 months, shareholders holding at least ten percent of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote may demand a regular meeting of shareholders by written notice of demand given to the chief executive officer or the chief financial officer of the corporation. Within 30 days after receipt of the demand by one of those officers, the board shall cause a regular meeting of shareholders to be called and held on notice no later than 90 days after receipt of the demand, all at the expense of the corporation. If the board fails to cause a regular meeting to be called and held as required by this subdivision, the shareholder or shareholders making the demand may call the regular meeting by giving notice as required by Section 11-435, all at the expense of the corporation.

Subdivision 3. Time; place. A regular meeting, if any, shall be held on the day or date and at the time and place fixed by, or in a manner authorized by, the articles or bylaws, except that a meeting called by or at the demand of a shareholder to subdivision 2 shall be held on the Reservation.

Subdivision 4. Elections required; other business. At each regular meeting of shareholders there shall be an election of qualified successors for directors who serve for an indefinite term or whose terms have expired or are due to expire within six months after the date of the meeting. No other particular business is required to be transacted at a regular meeting. Any business appropriate for action by the shareholders may be transacted at a regular meeting. [TCR 94-124]

11-433 Special meetings of shareholders.

Subdivision 1. Who may call. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called for any purpose or purposes at any time by:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

1. The chief executive officer;
2. The chief financial officer;
3. Two or more directors;
4. A person authorized in the articles or bylaws to call special meetings; or
5. A shareholder or shareholders holding, ten percent or more of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote, except that a special meeting for the purpose of considering any action to directly or indirectly facilitate or effect a business combination, including any action to change or otherwise affect the composition of the board of directors for that purpose, must be called by 25 percent or more of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote.

Subdivision 2. Demand by shareholders. A shareholder or shareholders holding the voting power specified in subdivision 1, paragraph (e), may demand a special meeting of shareholders by written notice of demand giving notice to the chief executive officer or chief financial officer of the corporation and containing the purposes of the meeting. Within 30 days after receipt of the demand by one of those officers, the board shall cause a special meeting of shareholders to be called and held on notice not later than 90 days after receipt of the demand, all at the expense of the corporation. If the board fails to cause a special meeting to be called and held as required by this subdivision, the shareholder or shareholders making the demand may call the meeting by giving notice as required by Section 11-435, all at the expense of the corporation.

Subdivision 3. Time; place. Special meetings shall be held on the date and at the time and place fixed by the chief executive officer, the chief financial officer, the board, or a person authorized by the articles or bylaws to call a meeting, except that a special meeting called by or at the demand of a shareholder or shareholders pursuant to subdivision 2 shall be held on the Reservation.

Subdivision 4. Business limited. The business transacted at a special meeting is limited to the purposes stated in the notice of the meeting. Any business transacted at a special meeting that is not included in those stated purposes is voidable by or on behalf of the corporation, unless all of the shareholders have waived notice of the meeting, in accordance with Section 11-435, subdivision 4. [TCR 94-124]

11-435 Notice.

Subdivision 1. To Whom given. Except as otherwise provided in this Code, notice of all meetings of shareholders shall be given to every holder of shares entitled to vote, unless:

1. the meeting is an adjourned meeting and the date, time, and place of the meeting were announced at the time of adjournment; or
2. the following have been mailed by first class mail to a shareholder at the address in the corporate records and returned undeliverable.
 - a. two consecutive annual meeting notices and notices of any special meetings held during the period between the two annual meetings; or
 - b. all payments of dividends sent during a 12-month period, provided there are at least two sent during the 12 month period. An action or meeting that is taken or held without notice under clause (b) has the same force and effect as if notice was given. If the shareholder delivers a written notice of the shareholder's current address to the corporation, the notice requirement is reinstated.

Subdivision 2. When given. In all instances where a specific minimum notice period has not otherwise been fixed by law, the notice shall be given at least ten days before the date of the meeting, or a shorter time provided in the articles or bylaws, and not more than 60 days before the date of the meeting.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

Subdivision 3. Contents. The notice shall contain the date, time, and place of the meeting, and any other information required by this Code. In the case of a special meeting, the notice shall contain a statement of the purposes of the meeting. The notice may also contain any other information required by the articles or bylaws or deemed necessary or desirable by the board or by any other person or persons calling the meeting.

Subdivision 4. Waiver, objections. A shareholder may waive notice of a meeting of shareholders. A waiver of notice by shareholder entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a shareholder at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the shareholder objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, or objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at that meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

11-436 Electronic communications.

Subdivision 1. Electronic conferences. If and to the extent authorized in the bylaws or by the board of a closely-held corporation, a conference among shareholders by any means of communication through which the shareholders may simultaneously hear each other during the conference constitutes a regular or special meeting of shareholders, if the same notice is given of the conference to every holder of shares entitled to vote as would be required by this Code for a meeting, and if the number of shares held by the shareholders participating in the conference would be sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting. Participation in a conference by that means constitutes presence at the meeting in person or by proxy if all the other requirements of Section 11-449 are met.

Subdivision 2. Participation in electronic means. If and to the extent authorized in the bylaws or by the board of a closely-held corporation, a shareholder may participate in a regular or special meeting of shareholders not described in subdivision 1 by any means of communication through which the shareholder, other shareholders so participating, and all shareholders physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by that means constitutes presence at the meeting in person or by proxy if all the other requirements of Section 11-449 are met.

Subdivision 3. Waiver. Waiver of notice of a meeting by means of communication described in subdivisions 1 and 2 may be given in the provided in Section 11-435, subdivision 4. Participation in a meeting by means of communication described in subdivisions 1 and 2 is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the shareholder objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because is not lawfully called or convened, or objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not be lawfully considered at the meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at the meeting. [TCR 94-124]

11-437 Act of the shareholders.

Subdivision 1. Majority required. The shareholders shall take action by the affirmative vote of the holders of the greater of (1) a majority of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote on that item of business, or (2) a majority of the voting power of the minimum number of the shares entitled to vote that would constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting, except where this Code or the articles require a larger proportion or number. If the articles require a larger proportion or number than is required by this Code for a particular action, the articles control.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

Subdivision 2. Voting class. In any case where a class or series of shares is entitled by this Code, the articles, the bylaws, or the terms of the shares to vote as a class or series, the matter being voted upon must also receive the affirmative vote of the holders of the same proportion of the shares present of that class or series, or of the total outstanding shares of that class or series, as the proportion required pursuant to subdivision 1, unless the articles require a larger proportion. Unless otherwise stated in the articles or bylaws in the case of voting as a class, the minimum percentage of the total number of shares of the class or series which must be present shall be equal to the minimum percentage of all outstanding, shares entitled to vote required to be present under Section 11-443. [TCR 94-124]

11-441 Action without a meeting. An action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting by written action signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote on that action. The written action is effective when it has been signed by all of those shareholders, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action. [TCR 94-124]

11-443 Quorum. The holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting are a quorum for the transaction of business, unless a larger or smaller proportion or number is provided in the articles or bylaws. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened, the shareholders present may continue to transact business until adjournment, even though the withdrawal of a number of shareholders originally present leaves less than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum. [TCR 94-124]

11-445 Voting rights.

Subdivision 1. Determination. The board may fix a date not more than 60 days, or a shorter time period provided in the articles or bylaws, before the date of a meeting of shareholders as the date for the determination of the holders of shares entitled to notice of and entitled to vote at the meeting. When a date is so fixed, only shareholders on that date are entitled to notice of and permitted to vote at that meeting of shareholders.

Subdivision 2. Certificate of beneficial owner. A resolution approved by the affirmative vote procedure whereby a shareholder may certify in writing to the corporation that all or a portion of the shares registered in the name of the shareholder are held for the account of one or more beneficial owners. Upon receipt by the corporation of the writing, the persons specified as beneficial owners, rather than the actual shareholder, are deemed the shareholders for the purposes specified in the writing.

Subdivision 3. One vote per share. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or in the terms of the shares, a shareholder has one vote for each share held.

Subdivision 4. Non-shareholders. The articles may give or prescribe the manner of giving a creditor, security holder, or other person a right to vote under this Section.

Subdivision 5. Jointly owned shares. Shares owned by two or more shareholders may be voted by any one of them unless the corporation gives written notice from any one of them denying the authority of that person to vote those shares.

Subdivision 6. Manner of voting; presumption. Except as provided in subdivision 5, a holder of shares entitled to vote any portion of the shares in any way the shareholder chooses. If a shareholder votes without designating the proportion or number of shares voted in a particular way, the shareholder is deemed to have voted all of the shares in that way. [TCR 94-124]

11-447 Voting of shares by organizations and legal representatives.

Subdivision 1. Shares held by other corporations. Shares of a corporation registered in the name of another tribal or foreign corporation be voted by the chief executive officer or another legal representative of that corporation.

Subdivision 2. Shares held by subsidiary. Except as provided in subdivision 3, shares of a corporation registered in the name of a subsidiary are not entitled to vote on any matter.

Subdivision 3. Shares controlled in fiduciary capacity. Shares of a corporation in the name of or under the control of, the corporation or subsidiary in a fiduciary capacity are not entitled to vote on any matter, except to the extent that the seller or beneficial owner possesses and exercises a right to vote or gives the corporation binding instructions on how to vote the shares.

Subdivision 4. Voting by certain representatives. Shares under the control of a person in a capacity as a personal representative, an administrator, executor, guardian, conservator, or attorney-in-fact may be voted by the person, in person or by proxy, without registration of those shares in the name of the person. Shares registered in the entire of a trustee of a trust or in the name of a custodian may be voted by the person, either in person or by proxy, but a trustee of a trust or a custodian shall not vote shares held by the person unless they are registered in the name of the person.

Subdivision 5. Voting by trustee in bankruptcy or receiver. Shares registered in the name of a trustee in bankruptcy or a receiver may be voted by the trustee or receiver either in person or by proxy. Shares under the control of a trustee in bankruptcy or a receiver may be voted by the trustee or receiver without registering the shares in the name of the trustee or receiver, if authority to do so is contained in an appropriate order of the Court by which trustee or receiver was appointed.

Subdivision 6. Shares held by other organizations. Shares registered in the name of an organization not described in subdivision 1 to 5 may be voted either in person or by proxy by the legal representative of that organization.

Subdivision 7. Pledge shares. A shareholder whose shares are pledged may vote those shares until the shares are registered in the name of the pledgee. If the corporation pledges its own shares under Section 11-553, subdivision 1, the corporation shall not be entitled to vote the shares at a meeting or otherwise. [TCR 94-124]

11-449 Proxies.

Subdivision 1. Authorization. A shareholder may cast or authorize the casting of a vote by filing a written appointment of a proxy with an officer of the corporation at or before the meeting at which the appointment is to be effective. A written appointment of a proxy may be signed by the shareholder or authorized by the shareholder by transmission of a telegram, cablegram, or other means of electronic transmission, provided that the telegram, cablegram, or other means of electronic transmission must set forth or be submitted with information from which it can be determined that the telegram, cablegram, or other electronic transmission was authorized by the shareholder. Any reproduction of the writing or transmission may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing or transmission for any purpose for which the original transmission could be used, provided that the copy, facsimile telecommunications, or other reproduction is a complete and legible reproduction of the entire original writing or transmission. An appointment of a proxy for shares held jointly by two or more shareholders is valid if signed or otherwise authorized by any one of them, unless the corporation receives from any one of those shareholders written notice either denying the authority of that person to appoint a proxy or appointing a different proxy.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

Subdivision 2. Duration. The appointment of a proxy is valid for 11 months, unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment. No appointment is irrevocable unless the appointment is coupled with an interest in the shares or in the corporation.

Subdivision 3. Termination. An appointment may be terminated at will, unless the appointment is coupled with an interest, in which case it shall not be terminated except in accordance with the terms of the agreement, if any, between the parties to the appointment. Termination may be made by filing written notice of the termination of the appointment with an officer of the corporation, or by filing a new written appointment of a proxy with an officer of the corporation. Termination in either manner revokes all prior proxy appointments and is effective when filed with an officer of the corporation.

Subdivision 4. Revocation by death, incapacity. The death or incapacity of a person appointing a proxy does not revoke the authority of the proxy, unless written notice of the death or incapacity is received by an officer of the corporation before the proxy exercises the authority under that appointment.

Subdivision 5. Multiple proxies. Unless the appointment specifically provides otherwise, if two or more persons are appointed as proxies for a shareholder:

1. Any one of them may vote the shares on each item of business in accordance with specific instructions contained in the appointment; and
2. If no specific instructions are contained in the appointment with respect to voting the shares on a particular item of business, the shares shall be voted as a majority of the proxies determine. If the proxies are equally divided, the shares shall not be voted.

Subdivision 6. Vote of proxy accepted; liability. Unless the appointment of a proxy contains a restriction, limitation or specific reservation of authority, the corporation may accept a vote or action taken by a person named in the appointment. The vote of a proxy is final, binding and not subject to challenge, but the proxy is liable to the shareholder or beneficial owner for damages resulting from a failure to exercise the proxy or from an exercise of the proxy in violation of the authority granted in the appointment.

Subdivision 7. Limited authority. If a proxy is given authority by a shareholder to vote on less than all items of business of shareholders, the shareholder is considered to be present and entitled to vote by the proxy for purposes of Section 11-437, subdivision 1, only with respect to those items of business for which the proxy has authority to vote. A proxy who is given authority by a shareholder who abstains with respect to an item of business is considered to have authority to vote on the item of business for purposes of this subdivision. [TCR 94-124]

11-453 Voting trusts.

Subdivision 1. Authorization; period; termination. Shares in a corporation may be transferred to a trustee pursuant to written agreement, for the purpose of conferring on the trustee the right to vote and otherwise represent the beneficial owner of those shares for a period not exceeding 15 years, except that if the agreement is made in connection with an indebtedness of the corporation, the voting trust may extend until the indebtedness is discharged. Unless otherwise specified in the agreement, the voting trust may be terminated at any time by the beneficial owners of a majority of the voting power of the shares held by the trustee. A copy of the agreement shall be filed with the corporation.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

Subdivision 2. Voting by trustee. Unless otherwise provided in the trust agreement, if there are two or more trustees, the manner of voting is determined as provided in Section 11-445, subdivision 5. [TCR 94-124]

11-455 Shareholder voting agreements. A written agreement among persons who are then shareholders or subscribers for shares to be issued, relating to the voting of their shares, is valid and specifically enforceable by and against the parties to the agreement. The agreement may override provisions of Section 11-449 regarding proxies and is not subject to the revisions of Section 11-453 regarding voting trusts. [TCR 94-124]

11-457 Shareholder control agreements.

Subdivision 1. Authorized. A written agreement among the shareholders of a corporation and the subscribers for shares to be issued, relating to the control of any phase of the business and affairs of the corporation, its liquidation and dissolution, or relations among shareholders of or subscribers to shares of the corporation is valid and specifically as provided in subdivision 2.

Subdivision 2. Method of approval; enforceability; copies.

1. A written agreement among persons described in subdivision 1 that relates to the control of or the liquidation and dissolution of the corporation, the relations among them or any phase of the business and affairs of the corporation, including, without limitation, directors or officers, the employment of shareholders by the corporation, or the arbitration of disputes, is valid and specifically enforceable, if the agreement is signed by all persons who are then the shareholders of the corporation, whether or not the shareholders all have voting shares, and the subscribers for shares, whether or not voting shares, to be issued.
2. The agreement is enforceable by the persons described in subdivision 1 who are parties to it and is binding upon and enforceable against only those persons and other persons having knowledge of the existence of the agreement. A copy of the agreement shall be filed with the corporation. The existence and location of a copy of the agreement shall be noted conspicuously on the face or back of each certificate for shares issued by the corporation and on each transaction statement.
3. A shareholder, a beneficial owner of shares, or another person having a security interest in shares has the right upon written demand to obtain a copy of the agreement from the corporation at the expense of the corporation.

Subdivision 3. Liability. The effect of an agreement authorized by this Section is to relieve the board and the director or directors in their capacities as directors of, and to impose upon the parties to the agreement, the liability for acts and omissions imposed by law upon directors to the extent that and so long as the discretion or powers of the director in management of the business and affairs of the corporation are exercised by the directors under a provision in the agreement. A shareholder is not liable pursuant to this subdivision by virtue of a shareholder vote, if the shareholder had no right to vote on the action.

Subdivision 4. Other agreements. This Section does not apply to, limit, or restrict agreements otherwise valid, nor is the procedure set forth in this Section the exclusive method of agreement among shareholders or between the shareholders and the corporation with respect to any of the matters described in this Section. Subdivision 1. Share register, dates of issuance.

1. A corporation shall keep at its principal executive office, or at another place or places within the United States determined by the board, a share register not more than one year old, containing the names and addresses of the shareholders and the number and classes of shares held by each shareholder.
2. A corporation shall also keep, at its principal executive office, or at another place or places within the United States determined by the board, a record of the date on which certificates or transaction statements representing shares were issued.

Subdivision 2. Other documents required. A corporation shall keep at its principal executive office, or, if its principal executive office is outside the reservation, shall make available at its registered office within ten days after receipt by an officer of the corporation of a written demand for them made by a person described in subdivision 4, originals or copies of:

1. Records of proceedings of shareholders for the last three years;
2. Records of all proceedings of the board for the last three years;
3. Its articles and all amendments currently in effect;
4. Its bylaws and all amendments currently in effect;
5. Financial statements required by Section 11-463 and the financial statement for the most recent interim period prepared in the course of the operation of the corporation for distribution to the shareholders or to a governmental agency as a matter of public record;
6. Reports made to shareholders generally within the last three years;
7. A statement of the names and usual business addresses of its directors and principal officers;
8. Voting trust agreements described in Section 11-453;
9. Shareholder control agreements described in Section 11-457; and
10. A copy of agreements, contracts, or arrangements or portions of them incorporated by reference under Section 11-401, subdivision 3.

Subdivision 3. Financial records. A corporation shall keep appropriate and complete financial records.

Subdivision 4. Right to inspect.

1. A shareholder, beneficial owner, or a holder of a voting trust certificate of a corporation that is not a publicly-held corporation has an absolute right, upon written demand, to examine and copy, in person or by a legal representative, at any reasonable time:
 - a. The share register; and
 - b. All documents referred to in subdivision 2.
2. A shareholder, beneficial owner, or a holder of a voting trust certificate of a corporation that is not a publicly-held corporation has a right upon written demand, to examine and copy, in person or by a legal representative other corporate records at any reasonable time only if the shareholder beneficial owner, or holder of a voting trust certificate demonstrates a proper purpose for the examination.
3. A shareholder, beneficiary or a holder of a voting trust certificate of a publicly-held corporation has, upon written demand stating the purpose and acknowledged before the Tribal Secretary, a right at any reasonable time to examine and copy the corporation's share register and other corporate records reasonably related to the stated purpose and described with reasonable particularity in the written demand upon demonstrating the stated purpose to be a proper purpose. The acknowledged or verified demand must be directed to the corporation at its registered office on the Reservation or at its principal place of business.

TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

4. For purposes of this Section, a proper purpose is one reasonably related to the personal interest as a shareholder, beneficial owner, or holder of a voting trust certificate of the corporation.

Subdivision 5. Protective orders. On application of the corporation, the Court may issue a protective order permitting the corporation to withhold portions of the records of proceedings of the board for a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, in order to prevent premature disclosure of confidential information which would be likely to cause competitive injury to the corporation. A protective order may be renewed for successive reasonable periods of time, each not to exceed 12 months and in total not to exceed 36 months, for good cause shown. In the event a protective order is issued, the statute of limitations for any action which the shareholder, beneficial owner, or holder of a voting trust certificate might bring as a result of information withheld automatically extends for the period of delay. If the Court does not issue a protective order with respect to any portion of the records of proceedings as requested by the corporation, it shall award reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, to the shareholder, beneficial owner, or holder of a voting trust certificate. This subdivision does not limit the right of the Court to grant other protective orders or impose other reasonable restrictions on the nature of the corporate records that may be copied or examined under subdivision 4 or the use or distribution of the records by the demanding shareholder, beneficial owner, or holder of a voting trust certificate.

Subdivision 6. Other use prohibited. A shareholder, beneficial owner, or holder of a voting trust certificate who has gained access under this Section to any corporate record including the share register may not use or furnish to another for use the corporate record or a portion of the contents for any purpose other than a proper purpose. Upon application of the corporation, the Court may issue a protective order or order other relief as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this subdivision.

Subdivision 7. Cost of copies. Copies of the share register and all documents referred to in subdivision 2, if required to be furnished under this Section, shall be furnished at the expense of the corporation. In all other cases, the corporation may charge the requesting party a reasonable fee to cover the expenses of providing the copy.

Subdivision 8. Computerized records. The records maintained by a corporation, including its share register, financial records, and minute books, may utilize any information storage technique, including, for example, punched holes, printed or magnetized spots, or micro-images, even though that makes them illegible visually, if the records can be converted accurately and within a reasonable time, into a form that is legible visually and whose contents are assembled by related subject matter to permit convenient use by people in the normal course of business. A corporation shall convert any of the records referred to in subdivision 4 upon the request of a person entitled to inspect them, and the expense of the conversion shall be borne by the person who bears the expense of copying pursuant to subdivision 7. Copy of the conversion is admissible in evidence, and shall be accepted for all other purposes, to the same extent as the existing or original records would be if they were legible visually. [TCR 94-124]

11-463 Financial statements. A corporation shall, upon written request by a shareholder, furnish annual financial statements, including at least a balance sheet as of the end of each fiscal year and a statement of income for the fiscal year, which shall be prepared on the basis of accounting methods reasonable in the circumstances and may be consolidated statements of the corporation and one or more of its subsidiaries. In the case of statements audited by a public accountant, each copy shall be accompanied by a report setting forth the opinion of the accountant on the statements; in other cases, each copy shall be accompanied by a statement of the chief financial officer or other person in charge of the corporation's financial records stating the reasonable belief of the person that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting methods reasonable in the circumstances, describing the basis of presentation, and describing any respects in which the financial statements were not prepared on a basis consistent with those prepared for the previous year. [TCR 94-124]

11-467 Equitable remedies. If a corporation or an officer or director of the corporation violates a provision of this Code, the Court may, in an action brought by a shareholder of the corporation, grant any equitable relief it deems just and reasonable in the circumstances and award expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, to the shareholder. [TCR 94-124]

11-471 Rights of dissenting shareholders.

Subdivision 1. Actions creating rights. A shareholder of a corporation may dissent from, and obtain payment for the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

1. An amendment of the articles that materially and adversely affects the rights or preferences of the shares of the dissenting shareholder in that it:
 - a. alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;
 - b. creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of the redemption of the shares, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of the shares;
 - c. alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares, securities other than shares, or rights to purchase shares or securities other than shares;
 - d. excludes or limits the right of a shareholder to vote on a matter, or to cumulate votes, except as the right may be excluded or limited through the authorization or issuance of securities of an existing or new class or series with similar or different voting rights;
2. A sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation not made in the usual or regular course of its business, but not including a disposition in dissolution described in Section 11-729, subdivision 2, or a disposition pursuant to an order of a court, or a disposition for cash on terms requiring that all or substantially all of the net proceeds of disposition be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of disposition;
3. A plan of merger, whether or not under this Code, to which the corporation is a party, except as provided in subdivision 3;
4. A plan of exchange, whether or not under this Code, to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired by the acquiring corporation, if the shares of the shareholder are entitled to be voted on the plan; or
5. Any other corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote with respect to which the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the board directs that dissenting shareholders may obtain payment for their shares.

Subdivision 2. Beneficial owners.

1. A shareholder shall not assert dissenter's rights as to less than all of the share in the name of the shareholder, unless the shareholder dissents with respect to all the shares that are beneficially owned by another person but registered in the name of the shareholder and discloses the name and address of each beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents. In that event, the rights of the dissenter shall be determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder has dissented and the other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. A beneficial owner of shares who is not the shareholder may assert dissenter's rights with respect to shares held on behalf of the beneficial owner, and shall be treated as a dissenting shareholder under the terms of this Section and Section 11-473, if the beneficial owner submits to the corporation at the time of or before the assertion of the rights a written consent of the shareholder.

Subdivision 3. Rights not to apply. The right to obtain payment under this Section does not apply to a shareholder of the surviving corporation in a merger, if the shares of the shareholder are not entitled to be voted on the merger.

Subdivision 4. Other rights. The shareholders of a corporation who have a right under this Section to obtain payment for their shares do not have a right at law or in equity to have a corporate action described in subdivision 1 set aside or rescinded, except when the corporate action is fraudulent with regard to the complaining shareholder or the corporation. [TCR 94-124]

11-473 Procedures for asserting dissenter's rights.

Subdivision 1. Definitions.

1. For purposes of this Section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.
2. "Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action referred to in Section 11-471, subdivision 1 or the successor by merger of that issuer.
3. "Fair value of the shares" means the value of the shares of a corporation immediately before the effective date of the corporate action referred to in Section 11-471, subdivision 1.
4. "Interest" means interest commencing five days after the effective date of the corporate action referred to in Section 11-471, subdivision 1, up to and including the date of payment, calculated at the rate provided by the laws of the Tribe for interest on verdicts and judgments, or if the laws of the Tribe do not establish a rate, then at the rate provided by the laws of the State of Nebraska for interest on verdicts and judgments.

Subdivision 2. Notice of action. If a corporation calls a shareholder meeting at which any action described in Section 11-471, subdivision 1 is to be voted upon, the notice of the meeting shall inform each shareholder of the right to dissent and shall include a copy of Section 11-471 and this Section and a brief description of the procedure to be followed under these sections.

Subdivision 3. Notice of dissent. If the proposed action must be approved by the shareholders, a shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenter's rights must file with the corporation before the vote on the proposed action a written notice of intent to demand the fair value of the shares owned by the shareholder and must not vote the shares in favor of the proposed action.

Subdivision 4. Notice of procedure; deposit of shares.

1. After the proposed action has been approved by the board and, if necessary, the shareholders, the corporation shall send to all shareholders who have complied with subdivisions and to all shareholders entitled to dissent if no shareholder vote was required, a notice that contains:
 - a. The address to which a demand for payment and certificates of certificated shares must be sent in order to obtain payment and the date by which they must be received;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 4

- b. Any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares that will apply after the demand for payment is received;
 - c. A form to be used to certify the date on which the shareholder, or the beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired the shares or an interest in them and to demand payment; and
 - d. A copy of Section 11-471 and this Section and a brief description of the procedures to be followed under these sections.
2. In order to receive the fair value of the shares, a dissenting shareholder must demand payment and deposit certificated shares or comply with any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares within 30 days after the notice was given, but the dissenter retains all other rights of a shareholder until the proposed action takes effect.

Subdivision 5. Payment; return of shares.

1. After the corporate action takes effect, or after the corporation receives a valid demand for payment, whichever is later, the corporation shall remit to each dissenting shareholder who has complied with subdivisions 3 and 4 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shares, plus interest, accompanied by:
 - a. the corporation's closing balance sheet and statement of income for a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the effective date of the corporate action, together with the latest available interim financial statements;
 - b. an estimate by the corporation of the fair value of the shares and a brief description of the method used to reach the estimate; and
 - c. a copy of Section 11-471 and this Section, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed in demanding supplemental payment.
2. The corporation may withhold the remittance described in paragraph (a) from a person who was not a shareholder on the date the action dissented from was first announced to the public or who is dissenting on behalf of a person who was not a beneficial owner on that date. If the dissenter has complied with subdivisions 3 and 4, the corporation shall forward to the dissenter the materials described in paragraph (a), a statement of the reason for withholding the remittance, and an offer to pay to the dissenter the amount listed in the materials if the dissenter agrees to accept that amount in full satisfaction. The dissenter may decline the offer and demand payment under subdivision 6. Failure to do so entitles the dissenter only to the amount offered. If the dissenter makes demand, subdivisions 7 and 8 apply.
3. If the corporation fails to remit payment within 60 days of the deposit of certificates or the imposition of transfer restrictions on uncertificated shares, it shall return all deposited certificates and cancel all transfer restrictions. However, the corporation may again give notice under subdivision 4 and require deposit or restrict transfer at a later time.

Subdivision 6. Supplemental payment; demand. If a dissenter believes that the amount remitted under subdivision 5 is less than the fair value of the shares plus interest, the dissenter may give written notice to the corporation of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the shares, plus interest, within 30 days after the corporation mails the remittance under subdivision 5, and demand payment of the difference. Otherwise, a dissenter is entitled only to the amount remitted by the corporation.

Subdivision 7. Petition; determination. If the corporation receives a demand under subdivision 6, it shall, within 60 days after receiving the demand, either pay to the dissenter the amount demanded or agreed to by the dissenter after discussion with the corporation or file in Court a petition requesting that the Court determine the fair value of the shares, plus interest. The petition shall name as parties all dissenters who have demanded payment under subdivision 6 and who have not reached agreement with the corporation. The jurisdiction of the Court is plenary and exclusive. The Court may appoint appraisers, with powers and authorities the Court deems proper, to receive evidence on and recommend the amount of the fair value of the shares. The Court shall determine whether the shareholder or shareholders in question have fully complied with the requirements of this Section, and shall determine the fair value of the shares, taking into account any and all factors the Court finds relevant, computed by any method or combination of methods that the Court, in its discretion sees fit to use, whether or not used by the corporation or by a dissenter. The fair value of the shares as determined by the Court is binding on all shareholders, wherever located. A dissenter is entitled to judgment for the amount by which the fair value of the shares as determined by the Court, plus interest, exceeds the amount, if any, remitted under subdivision 5, but shall not be liable to the corporation for the amount, if any, by which the amount, if any, remitted to the dissenter under subdivision 5 exceeds the fair value of the shares as determined by the Court, plus interest.

Subdivision 8. Costs; fees; expenses.

1. The Court shall determine the costs and expenses of a proceeding under subdivision 7, including the reasonable expenses and compensation of any appraisers appointed by the Court, and shall assess those costs and expenses against the corporation, except that the Court may assess part or all of those costs and expenses against a dissenter whose action in demanding payment under subdivision 6 is found to be arbitrary, vexatious, or not in good faith.
2. If the Court finds that the corporation has failed to comply substantially with this Section, the Court may assess all fees and expenses of any experts or attorneys as the Court deems equitable. These fees and expenses may also be assessed against a person who has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in bringing the proceeding, and may be awarded to a party injured by those actions.
3. The Court may award, in its discretion, fees and expenses to an attorney for the dissenters out of the amount awarded to the dissenters, if any. [TCR 94-124]

The written undertaking required by clause (a) is an unlimited general obligation of the person making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.

Subdivision 4. Prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances. The articles or bylaws either may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required by this Section or may impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained in subdivisions 2 and 3 including, without limitation, monetary limits on indemnification or advances of expenses, if the conditions apply equally to all persons or to persons within a given class. A prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances may not apply to or affect the right of a person to indemnification or advances of expenses with respect to any acts or omissions of the person occurring prior to the effective date of a provision in the articles or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances.

Subdivision 5. Reimbursement to witnesses. This Section does not require, or limit the ability of, a corporation to reimburse expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, incurred by a person in connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.

Subdivision 6. Determination of eligibility.

- a. All determinations of whether indemnification of a person is required because the criteria set forth in subdivision 2 have been satisfied and whether a person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subdivision 3 shall be made:
1. By the board by a majority of a quorum; directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding shall not be counted for determining either a majority or the presence of a quorum;
 2. If a quorum under clause (1) cannot be obtained, by a majority of a committee of the board, consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding duly designated to act in the matter by a majority of the full board including directors who are parties;
 3. If a determination is not made under clause (1) or (2), by special legal counsel, selected either by a majority of the board or a committee by vote pursuant to clause (1) or (2) or, if the requisite quorum of the full board cannot be obtained and the committee cannot be established, by a majority of the full board including directors who are parties;
 4. If a determination is not made under clauses (1) to (3), by the shareholders, excluding the votes of shares held by parties to the proceeding; or

TITLE 11 ARTICLE 5

5. If an adverse determination is made under clauses (1) to (4) or under paragraph (b), or if no determination is made under clauses (1) to (4) or under paragraph (b) within 60 days after (i) the later to occur of the termination of a proceeding or a written request for indemnification to the corporation or (ii) a written request for an advance of expenses, as the case may be, by the Court, which may be the same Court in which the proceeding involving the person's liability took place, upon application of the person and any notice the Court requires. The person seeking indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses pursuant to this clause has the burden of establishing that the person is entitled to indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses.
- b. With respect to a person who is not, and was not at the time of the acts or omissions complained of in the proceedings, a director, officer, or person possessing, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of the corporation, the determination whether indemnification of this person is required because the criteria set forth in subdivision 2 have been satisfied and whether this person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subdivision 3 may be made by an annually appointed committee of the board, having at least one member who is a director. The committee shall report at least annually to the board concerning its actions.

Subdivision 7. Insurance. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a person in that person's official capacity against any liability asserted against and incurred by the person in or arising from that capacity, whether or not the corporation would have been required to indemnify the person against the liability under the provisions of this Section.

Subdivision 8. Disclosure. A corporation that indemnifies or advances expenses to a person in accordance with this Section in connection with a proceeding by or on behalf of the corporation shall report to the shareholders in writing the amount of the indemnification or advance and to whom and on whose behalf it was paid not later than the next meeting of shareholders.

Subdivision 9. Indemnification of other persons. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to limit the power of the corporation to indemnify other persons by contract or otherwise. [TCR 94-124]

11-551 Distributions.

Subdivision 1. When permitted. The board may authorize and cause the corporation to make a distribution only if the board determines, in accordance with subdivision 2, that the corporation will be able to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after making the distribution and the board does not know before the distribution is made that the determination was or has become erroneous, and the corporation may make the distribution if it is able to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after making the distribution. The effect of a distribution on the ability of the corporation to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after making the distribution shall be measured in accordance with subdivision 3. The right of the board to authorize, and the corporation to make, distributions may be prohibited, limited, or restricted by or the rights and priorities of persons to receive distributions may be established by, the articles or bylaws or an agreement.

Subdivision 2. Determination presumed proper. A determination that the corporation will be able to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after the distribution is presumed to be proper if the determination is made in compliance with the standard of conduct provided in Section 11-251 on the basis of financial information prepared in accordance with accounting methods, or a fair valuation or other method, reasonable in the circumstances. No liability under Section 11-251 or 11-559 will accrue if the requirements of this subdivision have been met.

Subdivision 3. Effect measured.

- a. In the case of a distribution made by a corporation in connection with a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of its shares, the effect of the distribution shall be measured as of the date on which money or other property is transferred, or indebtedness payable in installments or otherwise is incurred, by the corporation, or as of the date on which the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder of the corporation with respect to the shares, whichever is the earliest.
- b. The effect of any other distribution shall be measured as of the date of its authorization if payment occurs 120 days or less following the date of authorization or as of the date of payment if payment occurs more than 120 days following the date of authorization.
- c. Indebtedness of a corporation incurred or issued in a distribution in accordance with this Section to a shareholder who as a result of the transaction is no longer a shareholder is on a parity with the indebtedness of the corporation to its general unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated, agreed to, or secured by a pledge of any assets of the corporation or a related corporation, or subject to any other agreement between the corporation and the shareholder.
- d. Sections 11-551 to 11-559 supersede all other laws of the Tribe with respect to distributions.

Subdivision 4. Restrictions.

- a. A distribution may be made to the holders of a class or series of shares only if:
 1. All amounts payable to the holders of shares having a preference for the payment of that kind of distribution, other than those holders who give notice to the corporation of their agreement to waive their rights to that payment, are paid; and
 2. The payment of the distribution does not reduce the remaining net assets of the corporation below the aggregate preferential amount payable in the event of liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights, unless the distribution is made to those shareholders in the order and to the extent of their respective priorities or the holders of shares who do not receive distributions in that order give notice to the corporation of their agreement to waive their rights to that distribution. A determination that the payment of the distribution does not reduce the remaining net assets of the corporation below the aggregate preferential amount payable in the event of liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights is presumed to be proper if the determination is made in compliance with the standard of conduct provided in Section 11-251 on the basis of financial information prepared in accordance with accounting methods, or a fair valuation, or other methods, reasonable in the circumstances. Liability under Section 11-251 or 11-559 will not arise if the requirements of this paragraph are met.
- b. If the money or property available for distribution is insufficient to satisfy all preferences, the distributions shall be made pro-rata according to the order of priority of preferences by classes and by series within those classes unless those holders who do not receive distributions in that order give notice to the corporation of their agreement to waive their rights to that distribution. [TCR 94-124]

11-553 Powers to acquire shares.

Subdivision 1. When permitted; status of shares. A corporation may acquire its own shares, subject to Section 11-551 and subdivision 3. If the corporation pledges the shares to secure payment of the redemption price thereof, then the corporation shall not be deemed to have acquired the shares for the purposes of this subdivision until the pledge is released. Shares acquired by a corporation constitute authorized but unissued shares of the corporation, unless the articles provide that they shall not be reissued, in which case the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 5

Subdivision 2. Statement of cancellation. If the number of authorized shares of a corporation is reduced by an acquisition of its shares, the corporation shall, no later than the time it makes its next annual report to shareholders or, if no report is made, no later than three months after the end of the fiscal year in which the acquisition occurs, file with the Tribal Secretary a statement of cancellation showing the reduction in the authorized shares. The statement shall contain:

1. The name of the corporation;
2. The number of acquired shares canceled, itemized by classes and series; and
3. The aggregate number of authorized shares itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to the cancellation.

Subdivision 3. Limitation on share purchases. A publicly-held corporation shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase or agree to purchase any shares entitled to vote from a person (or two or more persons who act as a partnership, limited partnership, syndicate, or other group pursuant to any written or oral agreement, arrangement, relationship, understanding, or otherwise for the purpose of acquiring, owning, or voting shares of the publicly-held corporation) who beneficially owns more than five percent of the voting power of the publicly-held corporation for more than the market value thereof if the shares have been beneficially owned by the person for less than two years, unless the purchase or agreement to purchase is approved at a meeting of shareholders by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote or the publicly-held corporation makes an offer, of at least equal value per share, to all holders of shares of the class or series and to all holders of any class or series into which the securities may be converted. For purposes of determining the period that shares have been beneficially owned by a person:

1. Shares acquired by the person by gift from a donor are deemed to have first become beneficially owned by the person when the shares were acquired by the donor;
2. Shares acquired by a trust from the settlor of the trust, or shares acquired from the trust by a beneficiary of the trust, are deemed to have first become beneficially owned by the trust or the beneficiary when the shares were acquired by the settlor; and
3. Shares acquired by an estate or personal representative as a result of the death or incapacity of a person, or shares acquired from the estate or personal representative by an heir, devisee, or beneficiary of the deceased or incapacitated person, are deemed to have first become beneficially owned by the estate, personal representative, heir, devisee, or beneficiary when the shares were acquired by the deceased or incapacitated person. [TCR 94-124]

11-557 Liability of shareholders for illegal distributions.

Subdivision 1. Liability. A shareholder who receives a distribution made in violation of the provisions of Section 11-551 is liable to the corporation, its receiver or other person winding up its affairs, or a director under Section 11-559, subdivision 2, but only to the extent that the distribution received by the shareholder exceeded the amount that properly could have been paid under Section 11-551.

Subdivision 2. Statute of limitations. An action shall not be commenced under this Section more than two years from the date of the dissolution. [TCR 94-124]

Subdivision 1. Liability. In addition to any other liabilities, a director who is present at a meeting and fails to vote against, or who consents in writing to, a distribution made in violation of Section 11-551 or a restriction contained in the articles or bylaws or an agreement, and who fails to comply with the standard of conduct provided in Section 11-251, is liable to the corporation jointly and severally with all other directors so liable and to other directors under subdivision 3, but only to the extent that the distribution exceeded the amount that properly could have been paid under Section 11-551.

Subdivision 2. Contribution from shareholders. A director against whom an action is brought under this Section with respect to a distribution may implead in that action all shareholders who received the distribution and may compel pro-rata contribution from them in that action to the extent provided in Section 11-557, subdivision 1.

- b. A class or series of shares of the corporation is not entitled to vote as a class or series solely because the plan of merger or exchange effects a cancellation of the shares of the class or series if the plan of merger or exchange effects a cancellation of all shares of the corporation of all classes and series that are outstanding immediately prior to the merger or exchange and shareholders of shares of that class or series are entitled to obtain payment for the fair value of their shares under Section 11-471 in the event of the merger or exchange.

- d. If the surviving corporation is a subsidiary, a statement of any amendments to the articles of the surviving corporation that will be part of the merger.

If the parent is a constituent corporation but is not the surviving corporation in the merger, the resolution is not effective unless it is also approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all shares of the parent entitled to vote at a regular or special meeting held in accordance with Section 11-613 if the parent is a Tribal corporation or in accordance with the laws under which it is incorporated if the parent is a foreign corporation.

Subdivision 2. Notice to shareholders of subsidiary. A copy of the plan to merger shall be mailed to each shareholder, other than the parent and any subsidiary, of each subsidiary that is a constituent corporation in the merger.

Subdivision 3. Articles of merger, contents of articles. Articles of merger shall be prepared that contain:

Subdivision 5. Certificate. The Tribal Secretary shall issue a certificate of merger to the parent or its legal representative or, if the parent is a constituent corporation but is not the surviving corporation in the merger, to the surviving corporation or its legal representative.

Subdivision 6. Rights of dissenting shareholders. In the event all of the stock of one or more Tribal subsidiaries of the parent that is a constituent party to a merger under this Section is not owned by the parent directly, or indirectly through related corporations, immediately prior to the merger, the shareholders of each Tribal subsidiary have dissenter's rights under Section 11-471, without regard to Sections 11-471, subdivision 3, and 11-473. If the parent is a constituent corporation but is not the surviving corporation in the merger, and the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation immediately after the merger differ from the articles of incorporation of the parent immediately prior to the merger in a manner that would entitle a shareholder of the parent to dissenter's rights under Section 11-471, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), if the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation constituted an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the parent, that shareholder of the parent has dissenter's rights as provided under Sections 11-471 and 11-473. Except as provided in this subdivision, Sections 11-471 and 11-473 do not apply to any merger effected under this Section.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 6

Subdivision 7. Non-exclusivity. A merger among a parent and one or more subsidiaries or among two or more subsidiaries of a parent may be accomplished under Sections 11-611, 11-613, and 11-615 instead of this Section, in which case this Section does not apply. [TCR 94-124, 15-68]

11-631 Abandonment.

Subdivision 1. By shareholders or plan. After a plan of merger or exchange has been approved by the shareholders entitled to vote on the approval of the plan as provided in Section 11-613, and before the effective date of the plan, it may be abandoned:

- a. If the shareholders of each of the constituent business entities entitled to vote on the approval of the plan as provided in Section 11-613 have approved the abandonment at a meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote and, if the shareholders of a constituent business entity are not entitled to vote on the approval of the plan under Section 11-613, the board of directors of the constituent business entity has approved the abandonment by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present;

- c. Pursuant to subdivision 2.

Subdivision 2. By board. A plan of merger or exchange may be abandoned, before the effective date of the plan, by a resolution of the board of directors of any constituent business entity abandoning the plan of merger or exchange approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, subject to the contract rights of any other person under the plan.

Subdivision 3. Filing of articles. If articles of merger or exchange have been filed with the Tribal Secretary, but have not yet become effective, the constituent business entities, in the case of abandonment under subdivision 1, clause (a), the constituent business entities or any one of them, in the case of abandonment under subdivision 1, clause (b), or the abandoning business entity in the case of abandonment under subdivision 2, shall file with the Tribal Secretary articles of abandonment that contain:

- a. The names of the constituent business entities;

- c. The surviving corporation has all the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers, and is subject to all the duties and liabilities, of a corporation incorporated under this Code;
- d. The surviving corporation possesses all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, of a public as well as of a private nature, of each of the constituent business entities. All property, real,

Confirmatory deeds, assignments, or similar instruments to accomplish that vesting may be signed and delivered at any time in the name of a constituent business entity by its current officers or, if the corporation no longer exists, by its last officers. The title to any real estate or any interest therein vested in any of the constituent business entities does not revert nor in any way become impaired by reason of the merger;

- e. The surviving corporation is responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the constituent business entities. A claim of or against or a pending proceeding by or against a constituent business entity may be prosecuted as if the merger had not taken place, or the surviving corporation may be substituted in the place of the constituent business entity. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of a constituent business entity are impaired by the merger; and
- f. The articles of the surviving corporation are deemed to be amended to the extent that changes in its articles, if any, are contained in the plan of merger.

Subdivision 3. Effect on shareholders. When a merger or exchange becomes effective, the shares of the business entity or business entities to be converted or exchanged under the terms of the plan cease to exist in the case of a merger, or are deemed to be exchanged in the case of an exchange. [TCR 94-124, 15-68]

11-651 Merger or exchange with foreign corporation.

Subdivision 1. When permitted. A Tribal corporation may merge with or participate in an exchange with a foreign business entity by following the procedures set forth in this Section, if:

- 1. with respect to a merger, the merger is permitted by the laws of the jurisdiction that governs the foreign business entity; and
- 2. with respect to an exchange, the corporation whose shares will be acquired is a Tribal corporation, whether or not the exchange is permitted by the laws of the jurisdiction that governs the foreign business entity.

2. the date and time the articles of dissolution were filed with the Tribal Secretary; and
3. a statement that the corporation is dissolved. [TCR 94-124]

11-741 Supervised voluntary dissolution. [TCR 94-124]

11-751 Judicial intervention; equitable remedies or dissolution.

Subdivision 1. When permitted. The Court may grant any equitable relief it deems just and reasonable in the circumstances or may dissolve a corporation and liquidate its assets and business:

- a. In a supervised voluntary dissolution pursuant to Section 11-741;
- b. In an action by a shareholder when it is established that:
 1. the directors or the persons having the authority otherwise vested in the board are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 7

5. the period of duration as provided in the articles has expired and has not been extended as provided in Section 11-801;
- c. In an action by a creditor when:
 1. the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution thereon has been returned unsatisfied; or
 2. the corporation has admitted in writing that the corporation is unable to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business; or
- d. In an action by the Tribal Council to dissolve the corporation in accordance with Section 11-757 when it is established that a decree of dissolution is appropriate.

Subdivision 2. Buy-out on motion. In an action under subdivision 1, clause (b), involving a closely-held corporation at the time the action is commenced and in which one or more of the circumstances described in that clause is established, the Court may, upon motion of a corporation or a shareholder or beneficial owner of shares of the corporation, order the sale by a plaintiff or a defendant of all shares of the corporation held by the plaintiff or defendant to either the corporation or the moving shareholders, whichever is specified in the motion, if the Court determines in its discretion that an order would be fair and equitable to all parties under all of the circumstances of the case. Within five days after the entry of the order, the corporation shall provide each selling shareholder or beneficial owner with the information it is required to provide under Section 11-473, subdivision 5, paragraph (a). If the parties are unable to agree on fair value within 40 days of entry of the order, the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares under the provisions of Section 11-473, subdivision 7, and may allow interest or costs as provided in Section 11-473, subdivisions 1 and 8. The purchase price shall be paid in one or more installments as agreed on by the parties, or, if no agreement can be reached within 40 days of entry of the order, as ordered by the Court. Upon entry of an order for the sale of shares under this subdivision and provided that the corporation or the moving shareholders post a bond in adequate amount with sufficient sureties or otherwise satisfy the Court that the full purchase price of the shares, plus such additional costs, expenses, and fees as may be awarded will be paid when due and payable, the selling shareholders shall no longer have any rights or status as shareholders, officers, or directors, except the right to receive the fair value of their shares plus such other amounts as might be awarded.

Subdivision 3. Condition of corporation. In determining whether to order equitable relief, dissolution, or a buy-out, the Court shall take into consideration the financial condition of the corporation but shall not refuse to order equitable relief, dissolution, or a buy-out solely on the ground that the corporation has accumulated current operating profits.

Subdivision 4. Considerations in granting relief involving closely-held corporations. In determining whether to order equitable relief, dissolution, or a buy-out, the Court shall take into consideration the duty which all shareholders in a closely-held corporation owe one another to act in an honest, fair, and reasonable manner in the operation of the corporation and the reasonable expectations of the shareholders as they exist at the inception and develop during the course of the shareholders' relationship with the corporation and with each other.

Subdivision 5. Dissolution as remedy. In deciding whether to order dissolution, the Court shall consider whether lesser relief suggested by one or more parties, such as any form of equitable relief, a buy-out, or a partial liquidation, would be adequate to permanently relieve the circumstances established under subdivision 1, clause (b) or (c). Lesser relief may be ordered in any case where it would be appropriate under all the facts and circumstances of the case.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 7

Subdivision 6. Expenses. If the Court finds that a party to a proceeding brought under this Section has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or otherwise not in good faith, it may in its discretion award reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, to any of the other parties.

Subdivision 7. Venue; parties. Proceedings under this Section shall be brought in the Court. It is not necessary to make shareholders parties to the action or proceeding unless relief is sought against them personally. [TCR 94-124]

11-753 Procedure in involuntary or supervised voluntary dissolution.

Subdivision 1. Action before hearing. In dissolution proceedings the Court may issue injunctions, appoint receivers with all powers and duties the Court directs, take other actions required to preserve the corporate assets wherever situated, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full hearing can be held.

Subdivision 2. Action after hearing. After a full hearing has been held, upon whatever notice the Court directs to be given to all parties to the proceedings and to any other parties in interest designated by the Court, the Court may appoint a receiver to collect the corporate assets, including all amounts owing to the corporation by subscribers on account of any unpaid portion of the consideration for the issuance of shares. A receiver has authority, subject to the order of the Court, to continue the business of the corporation and to sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or any of the property and assets of the corporation either at public or private sale.

Subdivision 3. Discharge of obligations. The assets of the corporation or the proceeds resulting from a sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition shall be applied in the following order of priority to the payment and discharge or:

- a. The costs and expenses of the proceedings, including attorney's fees and disbursements;
- b. Debts, taxes and assessments due the Tribe, its subdivisions, the United States, states and their subdivisions, and other tribes and their subdivisions, in that order;
- c. Claims duly proved and allowed to employees under the provisions of any applicable workers compensation act; provided, that claims under this clause shall not be allowed if the corporation carried workers' compensation insurance, as provided by law, at the time the injury was sustained;
- d. Claims, including the value of all compensation paid in any medium other than money, duly proved and allowed to employees for services performed within three months preceding the appointment of the receiver, if any; and
- e. other claims duly proved and allowed.

11-755 Qualifications of receivers; powers.

- b. The corporation was incorporated for a purpose not permitted by Section 11-101;
- c. The corporation failed to comply with the requirements of Sections 11-021 to 11-155 essential to incorporation under or election to become governed by this Code;
- d. The corporation has flagrantly violated a provision of this Code, or has violated a provision of this Code more than once, or has violated more than one provision of this Code; or
- e. The corporation has acted, or failed to act, in a manner that constitutes surrender or abandonment of the corporate franchise, privileges, or enterprise.

Subdivision 2. Notice to corporation; correction. An action shall not be commenced under this Section until 30 days after notice to the corporation by the Tribal Council of the reason for the filing of the action. If the reason for filing the action is an act that the corporation has done, or omitted to do, and the act or omission may be corrected by an amendment of the articles or bylaws or by performance of or abstention from the act, the Tribal Council shall give the corporation 30 additional days in which to effect the correction before filing the action.

11-759 Filing claims in proceedings to dissolve.

Subdivision 1. In proceedings referred to in Section 11-751 to dissolve a corporation, the Court may require all creditors and claimants of the corporation to file their claims under oath with the Tribal Secretary or with the receiver in a form prescribed by the Court.

Subdivision 2. If the Court requires the filing of claims, it shall fix a date, which shall be not less than 120 days from the date of the order, as the last day for the filing of claims, and shall prescribe the notice of the fixed date that shall be given to creditors and claimants. Before the fixed date, the Court may extend the time for filing claims. Creditors and claimants failing to file claims on or before the fixed date may be barred, by order of Court, from claiming an interest in or receiving payment out of the property or assets of the corporation. [TCR 94-124]

11-761 Discontinuance of dissolution proceedings. The involuntary or supervised voluntary dissolution of a corporation shall be discontinued any time during the dissolution proceedings when it is established that cause for dissolution no longer exists. When this is established, the Court shall dismiss the proceedings and direct the receiver, if any, to redeliver to the corporation all its remaining property and assets. [TCR 94-124]

11-763 Decree of dissolution.

Subdivision 1. When entered. In an involuntary or supervised voluntary dissolution after the costs and expenses of the proceeding and all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation have been paid or discharged and all of its remaining property and assets have been distributed to its shareholders or, if its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and discharge the costs, expenses, debts, obligations, and liabilities, when all the property and assets have been applied so far as they will go to their payment according to the priorities set forth in Section 11-753, the Court shall enter a decree dissolving the corporation.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 7

Subdivision 2. Effective date. When the decree dissolving the corporation has been entered, the corporation is dissolved. [TCR 94-124]

11-771 Deposit with Tribal Treasurer of amount due certain shareholders. Upon dissolution of a corporation, the portion of the assets distributable to a shareholder who is unknown or cannot be found, or who is under disability, if there is no person legally competent to receive the distributive portion, shall be reduced to money and deposited with the Tribal Treasurer. The amount deposited is appropriated to the Tribal Treasurer and shall be paid over to the shareholder or a legal representative, upon proof satisfactory to the Tribal Treasurer of a right to payment. [TCR 94-124]

11-781 Claims barred; exceptions.

Subdivision 2. Claims reopened. At any time within one year after articles of dissolution have been filed with the Tribal Secretary pursuant to Section 11-727 or 11-729, subdivision 1, clause (2), or a decree of dissolution has been entered, a creditor or claimant who shows good cause for not having previously filed the claim may apply to the Court to allow a claim:

- a. Against the corporation to the extent of undistributed assets; or
- b. If the undistributed assets are not sufficient to satisfy the claim, against a shareholder, whose liability shall be limited to a portion of the claim that is equal to the portion of the distributions to shareholders in liquidation or dissolution received by the shareholder, but in no event may a shareholder's liability exceed the amount which that shareholder actually received in the dissolution.

Subdivision 3. Obligations incurred during dissolution proceedings. All known contractual debts, obligations, and liabilities incurred in the course of winding up the corporation's affairs shall be paid or provided for by the corporation before the distribution of assets to a shareholder. A person to whom this kind of debt, obligation, or liability is owed but not paid may pursue any remedy before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations against the officers and directors of the corporation who are responsible for, but who fail to cause the corporation to pay or make provision for payment of the debts, obligations, and liabilities or against shareholders to the extent permitted under Section 11-559. This subdivision does not apply to dissolution under the supervision or order of the Court. [TCR 94-124]

11-901 Service of process on corporation.

Subdivision 1. Who may be served. A process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation may be served either upon the registered agent, if any, of the corporation named in the articles, or upon an officer of the corporation, or upon the Tribal Secretary as provided in this Section.

Subdivision 2. Service on Tribal Secretary when permitted. If a corporation has appointed and maintained a registered agent on the Reservation but neither its registered agent nor an officer of the corporation can be found at the registered office, or if a corporation fails to appoint or maintain a registered agent on the Reservation and an officer of the corporation cannot be found at the registered office, then the Tribal Secretary is the agent of the corporation upon whom the process, notice, or demand may be served. The return of a licensed law enforcement official, or the affidavit of a person not a party, that no registered agent or officer can be found at the registered office on the Reservation is conclusive evidence that the corporation has no registered agent or officer at its registered office. Service on the Tribal Secretary of any process, notice, or demand is deemed personal service upon the corporation and shall be made by filing with the Tribal Secretary duplicate copies of the process, notice or demand. The Tribal Secretary shall immediately forward, by certified mail addressed to the corporation at its registered office, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. Service on the Tribal Secretary is returnable in not less than 30 days notwithstanding a shorter period specified in the process, notice, or demand.

Subdivision 4. Other methods of service. Nothing in this Section limits the right of a person to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. [TCR 94-124]

11-917 Court action; remedies and penalties.

Subdivision 1. Court action. A prevailing plaintiff in any action shall be awarded costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Subdivision 2. Tribal intervention. If it appears at any stage of a proceeding in the Court that the Tribe is, or is likely to be, interested therein, or that it is a matter of general public interest, the Court shall order that a copy of the complaint or petition be served upon the Tribal Council in the same manner prescribed for 11-1301 Domestication.

1. A Foreign Corporation may become a Domestic Corporation only if the domestication is permitted by the organic law of the Foreign Corporation.
2. A Domestic Corporation may become a Foreign Corporation if the domestication is permitted by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction. Regardless of whether the laws of the foreign jurisdiction require the adoption of a plan of domestication, the domestication shall be approved by the adoption by the corporation of a plan of domestication in the manner provided in this subchapter.
3. The plan of domestication must include:
 - a. a statement of the jurisdiction in which the corporation is to be domesticated;
 - b. the terms and conditions of the domestication;
 - c. the manner and basis of reclassifying the shares of the corporation following its domestication into shares or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing; and
 - d. any desired amendments to the articles of incorporation of the corporation following its domestication.
4. The plan of domestication may also include a provision that the plan may be amended prior to filing the document required by the laws of this state or the other jurisdiction to consummate the domestication, except that subsequent to approval of the plan by the shareholders the plan may not be amended to change:
 - a. the amount or kind of shares or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, or other property to be received by the shareholders under the plan;
 - b. the articles of incorporation as they will be in effect immediately following the domestication; or
 - c. any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect any of the shareholders in any material respect.
5. If any debt security, note or similar evidence of indebtedness for money borrowed, whether secured or unsecured, or a contract of any kind, issued, incurred or executed by a Domestic Corporation before [the effective date of this subchapter] contains a provision applying to a merger of the corporation and the document does not refer to a domestication of the corporation, the provision shall be deemed to apply to a domestication of the corporation until such time as the provision is amended subsequent to that date. [TCR 15-68]

11-1302 Action on a Plan of Domestication.

In the case of a domestication of a Domestic Corporation in a foreign jurisdiction:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 13

1. The plan of domestication must be adopted by the board of directors.
2. After adopting the plan of domestication the board of directors must submit the plan to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors must also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the plan, unless the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, in which case the board of directors must transmit to the shareholders the basis for that determination.
3. The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of domestication to the shareholders on any basis.
4. If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the corporation must notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of domestication is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the plan and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. The notice shall include or be accompanied by a copy of the articles of incorporation as they will be in effect immediately after the domestication.
5. Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to paragraph (3), requires a greater vote or a greater number of votes to be present, approval of the plan of domestication requires the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan exists, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the plan, the approval of each such separate voting group at a meeting at which a quorum of the voting group consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the domestication by that voting group exists.
6. Separate voting by voting groups is required by each class or series of shares that:
 - a. are to be reclassified under the plan of domestication into other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing;
 - b. would be entitled to vote as a separate group on a provision of the plan that, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would require action by separate voting groups under Section 11-137; or
 - c. is entitled under the articles of incorporation to vote as a voting group to approve an amendment of the articles.
7. If any provision of the articles of incorporation, bylaws or an agreement to which any of the directors or shareholders are parties, adopted or entered into before [the effective date of this subchapter], applies to a merger of the corporation and that document does not refer to a domestication of the corporation, the provision shall be deemed to apply to a domestication of the corporation until such time as the provision is amended subsequent to that date. [TCR 15-68]

11-1303 Articles of Domestication.

1. After the domestication of a Foreign Corporation has been authorized as required by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction, articles of domestication shall be executed by any officer or other duly authorized representative. The articles shall set forth:

 - b. the jurisdiction of incorporation of the corporation immediately before the filing of the articles of domestication and the date the corporation was incorporated in that jurisdiction; and

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 13

2. The articles of domestication shall either contain all of the provisions that Section 11-111(1) requires to be set forth in articles of incorporation and any other desired provisions that Section 11-111(4) permits to be included in articles of incorporation, or shall have attached articles of incorporation. In either case, provisions that would not be required to be included in restated articles of incorporation may be omitted.
3. The articles of domestication shall be delivered to the Tribal Secretary for filing, and shall take effect at the effective time provided in Section 11-153. [TCR 15-68]

11-1304 Surrender of Charter Upon Domestication.

1. Whenever a Domestic Corporation has adopted and approved, in the manner required by this subchapter, a plan of domestication providing for the corporation to be domesticated in a foreign jurisdiction, articles of charter surrender shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly authorized representative. The articles of charter surrender shall set forth:

 - b. The title to all real and personal property, both tangible and intangible, of the corporation remains in the corporation once domesticated, without reversion or impairment;
 - c. All debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the domesticating corporation continue as debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the domesticated corporation to the extent it would not impair the sovereign immunity of the domesticating corporation should it become a tribally-owned corporation;
 - d. An action or proceeding pending by or against a domesticating corporation may be continued as if the domestication had not occurred to the extent it would not impair the sovereign immunity of the domesticating corporation should it become a tribally-owned corporation;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11 ARTICLE 13

- e. The articles of domestication, or the articles of incorporation attached to the articles of domestication, constitute the articles of incorporation of a Foreign Corporation domesticating in this state;
 - f. The shares of the corporation are reclassified into shares, other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, or into cash or other property in accordance with the terms of the domestication, and the shareholders are entitled only to the rights provided by those terms and to any appraisal rights they may have under the organic law of the domesticating corporation; and
2. When a domestication of a Domestic Corporation in a foreign jurisdiction becomes effective, the Foreign Corporation is deemed to appoint the Tribal Secretary as its agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce the rights of shareholders who exercise appraisal rights in connection with the domestication.
 3. The owner liability of a shareholder in a Foreign Corporation that is domesticated in this jurisdiction shall be as follows:

11-1306 Abandonment of a Domestication.

1. Unless otherwise provided in a plan of domestication of a Domestic Corporation, after the plan has been adopted and approved as required by this subchapter, and at any time before the domestication has become effective, it may be abandoned by the board of directors without action by the shareholders.
2. If a domestication is abandoned under subsection (1) after articles of charter surrender have been filed with the Tribal Secretary but before the domestication has become effective, a statement that the domestication has been abandoned in accordance with this section, executed by an officer or other duly authorized representative, shall be delivered to the Tribal Secretary for filing prior to the effective date of the domestication. The statement shall take effect upon filing and the domestication shall be deemed abandoned and shall not become effective.

WINNEBAGO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ACT OF 1989
(As redesignated March 9, 1994)

|---------|---|---------|--------------|
| 11A-301 | Citation. | 11A-303 | Purposes. |
| 11A-302 | Declaration of need and legislative findings. | 11A-304 | Definitions. |

11A-301 Citation. This Article may be cited as the Winnebago Economic Development Act. [TCR 89-36]

11A-302 Declaration of need and legislative findings. It is hereby declared and found:

1. That the health, safety and welfare of the people of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska are enhanced by continual encouragement, development growth and expansion of private enterprise within the Indian Country under the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. That the Indian Country under the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska is an economically depressed area that needs particular attention to create new jobs, stimulate economic activity and attract private sector investment to improve the quality of life for those within the Winnebago reservation. It is, therefore, the purpose of this Act to stimulate employment, business and industrial growth and to encourage new economic activity in the Indian Country under the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe by means of developing the legal and physical infrastructure necessary for business and industry, the removal of unnecessary governmental barriers to the creation of economic growth, providing assistance to business and industries, providing tax incentives and utilizing to the farthest extent Tribal sovereignty and the Indian Tribal Government Tax Status Act of 1982.
2. That the jurisdictional area of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska is an area of chronic and substantial economic underdevelopment, and there exists a critical need for the development of economic and industrial activities within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska in order to address the disproportionate and persistent unemployment rate which detrimentally affects the Tribal membership and other persons within the Tribe's jurisdiction.
3. That active and planned Tribal participation by the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska in both its business and governmental capacity in economic endeavors can have a significant and positive impact on the long-term economic stimulation of the local economy for both the Tribe and the local economy.
4. That economic strategy maintaining a sound balance between the development of the Tribe's economic and industrial opportunities-Tribal business-within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, and the acquisition of land for these purposes, is essential to the prosperity, peace and welfare of those within the Winnebago reservation.
5. That a critical need exists for the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska to focus its considerable energies and strengths on the development of diversified and stable economic endeavors within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska that includes and emphasizes both the development of the Tribe as business initiator, planner, manager of Tribal enterprises and upon the Tribe as government creating the legal infrastructure necessary to support, enhance, and encourage the creation of a heretofore non-existent private business sector within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11A ARTICLE 3

6. That it is vital for the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska to establish a focal point for economic development activities within the Tribal structure by Tribal legislation to which the Tribal Council can delegate specific duties and with which it can work in creating Tribal enterprises and developing the legal infrastructure necessary to support the development of a private business sector within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.
7. That in order to address these identified needs and to establish a focal point through which solutions can be analyzed, proposed and initiated, the Tribal Council has found it necessary in the public interest that it create and authorize the operation the Winnebago Economic Development Authority through Tribal Council Resolution #89-36.
8. That the creation and operation of the authority serves an essential governmental function of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska by allowing the Tribe to address the serious economic, social, and health problems associated with the serious unemployment and underemployment within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, the general lack of available Tribal funds available to address these problems, the general lack of a sufficient land base for the economic development needs of the Tribe, and the attendant impact upon the public health, safety, and welfare.
9. That the creation and operation of the authority addresses a situation which has not, and cannot, be wholly relieved through the operation of private sector enterprises alone, and that providing job training and relief from critical unemployment and underemployment rates, the development of Tribal revenue generating public and private sectors, the acquisition of land by the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska for development purposes and developing Tribal sources of financing economic development and land acquisition are public uses and purposes that are essential governmental functions of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, for which public monies can be spent and private property acquired, and are governmental functions of Tribal concern.
10. That the necessity in the public interest for the provisions hereinafter enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination. [TCR 89-36]

11A-303 Purposes. The economic development authority shall be organized and operated for the purposes of:

1. Remediating the disproportionate unemployment rate of Tribal members and other persons residing within the Winnebago reservation.
2. Remediating the disproportionate underemployment rate of Tribal members and other persons within the Winnebago reservation.
3. Providing revenues with which the Tribe may address other pressing matters of public health, safety, and welfare, or for other Tribal purposes.
4. Attracting private industry to the Winnebago reservation.
5. Expanding the Tribal land base and economic development potential through the purchase of additional land for Tribal use.

8. Making recommendations to the Tribal Council as to legislation for development of Tribal business enterprises.
9. Making recommendations to the Tribal Council useful and necessary for the development of private sector business enterprises within the jurisdiction of the Tribe such as, but not limited to, recommendations regarding taxation, business licensing finance, land acquisition, use and zoning requirements, environmental protection, and authorized forms for business structures such as corporations, joint ventures, partnerships.

| 11B-504 | Distribution Upon Dissociation. | 11B-508 | Liability for Wrongful Distribution. |

11B-501 Interim Distributions. Except as provided in this Section, an Owner is entitled to receive distributions from an LLC before the Owner's dissociation from the LLC and before its dissolution and winding up to the extent and at the times or upon the events specified in the Operating Agreement, or to the extent and at the times determined by the Owners or managers. [TCR 10-42]

11B-502 Allocation of Distributions. Distributions of cash or other assets of an LLC shall be allocated among the Owners as provided in Operating Agreement, or if the Operating Agreement does not so provide, on the basis of the value of the contributions made by each Owner. [TCR 10-42]

11B-503 Distribution Upon Partial Redemption. Except as provided in this Section, upon the distribution in partial liquidation of an Owner's interest, the redeeming Owner is entitled to receive the amount to which the Owner is entitled under the Operating Agreement and, if not otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, the fair value of the redeemed interest based on the Owner's right to share in distributions from the LLC. [TCR 10-42]

11B-504 Distribution Upon Dissociation. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, upon an event of dissociation under Section 307 that does not cause dissolution of the LLC, a dissociating Owner is entitled to receive any distribution to which Owner is entitled under the Operating Agreement and, if not otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, the fair market value of the Owner's interest in the LLC based on the Owner's rights to share in distributions from the LLC. [TCR 10-42]

11B-505 Distribution in Kind. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement:

1. An Owner may not demand and receive any distribution from an LLC in any form other than cash.
2. An Owner may not be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind except for a liquidating distribution made proportionately. [TCR 10-42]

11B-506 Right to Distribution. At the time that an Owner becomes entitled to receive a distribution from an LLC, the Owner has the status of and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor of the LLC with respect to the distribution; provided, however, that such right shall not in any way limit any other remedy available to such Owner under any other provision of applicable law of the Operating Agreement. [TCR 10-42]

11B-507 Limitations of Distributions.

1. An LLC may not declare or make a distribution to any of its Owners, if after giving effect to the distribution, any of the following would occur:
 - a. The LLC would be unable to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 11B ARTICLE 5

- b. The fair market value of the LLC's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the Operating Agreement provides otherwise, the amount that would be needed for the preferential rights upon dissolution of Owners, if any.
2. An LLC may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited by subsection (1), above, on any of the following:
 - a. Financial statements and other financial data prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable under the circumstances.
 - b. A fair market valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.
3. An LLC's indebtedness to an Owner incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this Section is at parity with the LLC's indebtedness to its general unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by written agreement. This Section does not affect the validity or priority of a security interest in an LLC's property that is created to secure the indebtedness to the Owner. [TCR 10-42]

11B-508 Liability for Wrongful Distribution.

1. Except as provided in subsection (2) below, an Owner (other than the Tribe or Tribal Entity) or manager who votes or assents to a distribution in violation of Section 507 or of the Operating Agreement is personally liable to the LLC for the amount of the excess distribution, subject to contribution from all other managers or Owners participating in such action.
2. An action to recover under this Section may be brought in the Tribal Court; however, a proceeding under this Section is barred unless it is brought within two (2) years after the date of the distribution.
3. Nothing in this Code serves to waive any aspect of the Tribe's sovereign immunity, and any waiver thereof must be provided explicitly in the LLC's Operating Agreement. [TCR 10-42]

| 11B-604 | Assignment of LLC Interest. | | |

11B-601 Ownership of LLC Property.

1. All property originally transferred to or acquired by an LLC is property of the LLC and not the Owners individually.
2. Property acquired with LLC funds is presumed to be LLC property.
3. Property may be acquired, held, and conveyed in the name of the LLC. [TCR 10-42]

11B-602 Transfer of Property. [TCR 10-42]

11B-603 Nature of Interest. An LLC interest is personal property. [TCR 10-42]

11B-604 Assignment of LLC Interest.

1. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement:
 - a. An LLC interest is assignable in whole or in part.
 - b. An assignment of an LLC interest entitles the assignee to receive only the distributions and to share in the allocations of profits and losses to which the assignee would be entitled with respect to the assigned interest.
 - c. An assignment of an LLC interest does not dissolve the LLC.
 - d. Unless and until the assignee becomes an Owner of the LLC under Section 606, the assignment of an LLC interest does not entitle the assignee to participate in the management or exercise rights of an Owner.
 - e. Unless and until the assignee of an LLC interest becomes an Owner of the LLC under Section 606, the assignor continues to be an Owner.
 - f. The assignor of an LLC interest is not released from any personal liability arising under this Code as an Owner of the LLC solely as a result of the assignment.
2. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, the granting of a security interest, lien, or other encumbrance in or against any or all of an Owner's LLC interest is not assignable and shall not cause the Owner to cease to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of an Owner. [TCR 10-42]

11B-605 Rights of Judgment Creditor. Upon application to a court of competent jurisdiction, including a court other than the Tribal Court having valid jurisdiction over an Owner, by any judgment creditor of the Owner, the court may charge the LLC interest of any Owner (other than the Tribe) with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the Owner's LLC interest in distributions made by the LLC to Owners and other assigned interest holders in the usual course of business. This Section does not deprive any 11B-606 Right of Assignee to Become an Owner.

1. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, an assignee of an LLC interest may become an Owner only if the other Owners unanimously consent.
2. An assignee of an LLC interest who becomes an Owner has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities of the assignor under the Operating Agreement and this Code.
3. Unless otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement, an assignor of an LLC interest is not released from any liability to the LLC without the written consent of all the Owners, whether or not the assignee becomes an Owner. [TCR 10-42]

11B-607 Powers of Legal Representative. If an Owner who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges the Owner to be incompetent to manage his or her person or property, the Owner's personal representative, administrator, guardian, conservator, trustee, or other legal representative shall have all the rights of an assignee of the Owner's interest.  - e. State that the signatories understand that the acknowledgment is the equivalent of a judicial adjudication of paternity of the child and that after the rescission period has ended a challenge to the acknowledgment is permitted only on the basis of fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact.
3. The WTN-CSEP and/or the Winnebago Tribal Court shall instruct the parties to send the notarized Tribal Acknowledgment of Paternity form to the state department of public health to request the amendment of the birth record of the child, if appropriate. [TCR 08-79]

1. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 12-421 and 12-422 of this Article, a valid Tribal acknowledgment of paternity filed with the WTN-CSEP or the Winnebago Tribal Court is equivalent to an adjudication of paternity of a child and confers upon the acknowledged father all of the rights and duties of a parent and must be recognized as a basis for a support order in any proceeding to establish, enforce, or modify a support order.
2. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 12-421 and 12-422 of this Article, a valid Tribal denial of paternity by a presumed father filed with the WTN-CSEP or the Winnebago Tribal Court when executed in conjunction with a valid Tribal acknowledgment of paternity is equivalent to an adjudication of the nonpaternity of the presumed father and discharges the presumed father from all rights and duties of a parent. [TCR 08-79]

12-420 No Filing Fee. The WTN-CSEP shall not charge a fee for filing a Tribal acknowledgment of paternity, denial of paternity, rescission of acknowledgment of paternity, or rescission of denial of paternity. [TCR 08-79]

1. Sixty days after the effective date of the acknowledgment or denial, as provided in Section 12-418; or
2. Within ten days after the first hearing, in a proceeding to which the signatory is a party, before a court to adjudicate an issue relating to the child, including a proceeding that establishes a child support obligation. [TCR 08-79]

12-422 Challenge After Expiration of Period for Rescission.

1. After the period for rescission under Section 12-421 has expired, a signatory of a Tribal acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity may commence a proceeding to challenge the acknowledgment or denial only on the basis of fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact.
2. There is no time limitation on when a party may commence a proceeding to challenge the Tribal acknowledgment or denial of paternity as provided for in subsection 1 of this Section.
3. A party challenging a Tribal acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity has the burden of proof. [TCR 08-79]

12-423 Procedure for Rescission or Challenge.

1. Every signatory to a Tribal acknowledgment of paternity and any related Tribal denial of paternity shall be made a party to a proceeding to challenge the acknowledgment or denial.
2. For the purpose of challenging a Tribal acknowledgment of paternity or a denial of paternity, a signatory submits to personal jurisdiction of this Tribe by signing the Tribal acknowledgment or denial of paternity.
3. Except for good cause shown, during the pendency of a proceeding to challenge a Tribal acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall not suspend the legal responsibilities of a signatory arising from the acknowledgment, including the duty to pay child support.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

4. A proceeding to challenge a Tribal acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity shall be conducted in the same manner as a proceeding to adjudicate parentage under this Article.
5. At the conclusion of a proceeding to rescind or challenge a Tribal acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall instruct the parties to send the Tribal Court order to the State department of public health to request the amendment of the birth record of the child, if appropriate. [TCR 08-79]

12-424 Full Faith and Credit. In any proceeding in which paternity or denial of paternity of a child is alleged, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall give full faith and credit to a determination of paternity or nonpaternity by another tribe or state, made before a determination of paternity under the laws of this Tribe, whether established through voluntary acknowledgment or through administrative or judicial processes. The paternity or nonpaternity determination made by the other jurisdiction must be in compliance with the law of that jurisdiction and due process satisfied. [TCR 08-79]

12-425 Release of Information – Tribal Acknowledgment or Denial of Paternity. The WTN-CSEP and the Winnebago Tribal Court may release copies of the Tribal acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity to a signatory of the acknowledgment or denial and to appropriate state and tribal courts or other state or tribal child support IV-D agencies. [TCR 08-79]

12-426 Scope of Genetic Testing. Sections 12-426 through 12-436 govern genetic testing of an individual to determine parentage, whether the individual:

1. Voluntarily submits to testing; or
2. Is tested pursuant to an order of the Winnebago Tribal Court. [TCR 08-79]

12-427 Order for Genetic Testing.

1. The Winnebago Tribal Court may order genetic testing.
2. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 12-426 through 12-436, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall order the child and other designated individuals to submit to genetic testing if the request for testing is supported by the sworn statement of a party to the proceeding:
 - a. Alleging paternity and stating facts establishing a reasonable probability of the requisite sexual contact between the individuals; or
 - b. Denying paternity and stating facts establishing a possibility that sexual contact between the individuals, if any, did not result in the conception of the child.
3. If a request for genetic testing of a child is made before the birth of the child, the Winnebago Tribal Court may not order in-utero testing.
4. If two or more men are subject to court-ordered genetic testing, the testing may be ordered concurrently or sequentially. [TCR 08-79]

12-428 Requirements for Genetic Testing.

1. Genetic testing must be of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the field of genetic testing and performed in a testing laboratory accredited by:
 - a. The American Association of Blood Banks, or a successor to its functions;
 - b. The American Society for Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics, or a successor to its functions; or
 - c. An accrediting body designated by the federal Secretary of Health and Human Services.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

2. A specimen used in genetic testing may consist of one or more samples, or a combination of samples, of blood, buccal cells, bone, hair, or other body tissue or fluid. The specimen used in the testing need not be of the same kind for each individual undergoing genetic testing.
3. Based on the ethnic or racial group of an individual, the testing laboratory shall determine the databases from which to select frequencies for use in calculation of the probability of paternity. If there is a disagreement as to the testing laboratory's choice, the following rules apply:
 - a. The individual objecting may require the testing laboratory, within thirty days after receipt of the report of the test, to recalculate the probability of paternity using an ethnic or racial group different from that used by the laboratory. The cost of any retesting shall be the responsibility of the individual who objected.
 - b. The individual objecting to the testing laboratory's initial choice shall:
 - i. If the frequencies are not available to the testing laboratory for the ethnic or racial group requested, provide the requested frequencies compiled in a manner recognized by accrediting bodies; or
 - ii. Engage another testing laboratory to perform the calculations.
 - c. The testing laboratory may use its own statistical estimate if there is a question regarding which ethnic or racial group is appropriate. If available, the testing laboratory shall calculate the frequencies using statistics for any other ethnic or racial group requested.
4. If, after recalculation using a different ethnic or racial group, genetic testing does not rebuttably identify a man as the father of a child under Section 12-430, an individual who has been tested may be required to submit to additional genetic testing. [TCR 08-79]

12-429 Report of Genetic Testing.

1. A report of genetic testing must be in a record and signed under penalty of perjury by a designee of the testing laboratory. A report made under the requirements of Sections 12-426 through 12-436 of this Article is self-authenticating.
2. Documentation from the testing laboratory of the following information is sufficient to establish a reliable chain of custody that allows the results of genetic testing to be admissible without testimony:
 - a. The names and photographs of the individuals whose specimens have been taken;
 - b. The names of the individuals who collected the specimens;
 - c. The places and dates the specimens were collected;
 - d. The names of the individuals who received the specimens in the testing laboratory; and
 - e. The dates the specimens were received. [TCR 08-79]

12-430 Genetic Testing Results — Rebuttal.

1. Under this Article, a man is rebuttably identified as the father of a child if the genetic testing complies with Sections 12-426 through 12-436 and the results disclose that:
 - a. The man has at least a ninety-nine percent probability of paternity, using a prior probability of five-tenths, as calculated by using the combined paternity index obtained in the testing; and
 - b. A combined paternity index of at least one hundred to one.
2. A man identified under subsection 1 as the father of the child may rebut the genetic testing results only by other genetic testing satisfying the requirements of Sections 12-426 through 12-436 which:
 - a. Excludes the man as a genetic father of the child; or
 - b. Identifies another man as the possible father of the child.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

3. Except as otherwise provided in Section 12-435, if more than one man is identified by genetic testing as the possible father of the child, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall order them to submit to further genetic testing to identify the genetic father. [TCR 08-79]

12-431 Costs of Genetic Testing.

1. Subject to assessment of costs under Sections 12-437 through 12-459 of this Article, the cost of initial genetic testing must be advanced:
 - a. By the WTN-CSEP in a proceeding in which the WTN-CSEP is providing services;
 - b. By the individual who made the request;
 - c. As agreed by the parties; or
 - d. As ordered by the Winnebago Tribal Court.
2. In cases in which the cost is advanced by the WTN-CSEP, the WTN-CSEP may seek reimbursement from a man who is rebuttably identified as the father. [TCR 08-79]

12-432 Additional Genetic Testing.

1. The Winnebago Tribal Court or the WTN-CSEP shall order additional genetic testing upon the request of a party who contests the result of the original testing.
2. If the previous genetic testing identified a man as the father of the child under Section 12-430, the Tribal Court or WTN-CSEP may not order additional testing unless the party provides advance payment for the testing. [TCR 08-79]

12-433 Genetic Testing When Specimens Not Available. If a genetic-testing specimen is not available from a man who may be the father of a child, for good cause and under circumstances the Winnebago Tribal Court considers to be just, the Court may accept voluntary genetic testing of the following individuals:

1. The parents of the man;
2. Brothers and sisters of the man;
3. Other children of the man and their mothers; and
4. Other relatives of the man necessary to complete genetic testing. [TCR 08-79]

12-434 Deceased Individual. For good cause shown, the Tribal Court may order genetic testing of a deceased individual. [TCR 08-79]

12-435 Identical Brothers.

1. The Winnebago Tribal Court may order genetic testing of a brother of a man identified as the father of a child if the man is commonly believed to have an identical brother and evidence suggests that the brother may be the genetic father of the child.
2. If each brother satisfies the requirements as the identified father of the child under Section 12-430 without consideration of another identical brother being identified as the father of the child, the Tribal Court may rely on non-genetic evidence to adjudicate which brother is the father of the child. [TCR 08-79]

12-436 Confidentiality of Genetic Testing. The report of genetic testing for parentage is confidential. An individual who knowingly releases an identifiable specimen of another individual for any purpose other than that relevant to the proceeding regarding parentage without a court order or the written permission of the individual who furnished the specimen is deemed to have violated the client's confidentiality and is subject to Section 12-409 of this Article. [TCR 08-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

12-437 Proceeding to Adjudicate the Parentage of a Child — Authorization. A civil proceeding may be maintained to adjudicate the parentage of a child. The proceeding is governed by the Winnebago Civil Procedure Code. [TCR 08-79]

12-438 Standing to Maintain Proceeding. Subject to Sections 12-416 through 12-425 and Sections 12-441 and 12-443, a proceeding to adjudicate parentage may be maintained by:

1. The child;
2. The mother of the child;
3. A man whose paternity of the child is to be adjudicated;
4. The WTN-CSEP;
5. An authorized adoption agency or licensed child-placing agency; or
6. A representative authorized by law to act for an individual who would otherwise be entitled to maintain a proceeding but who is deceased, incapacitated, or a minor. [TCR 08-79]

12-439 Parties to Proceeding. The following individuals must be joined as parties in a proceeding to adjudicate parentage:

1. The mother of the child; and
2. A man whose paternity of the child is to be adjudicated. [TCR 08-79]

12-440 No Limitation — Child Having No Presumed, Acknowledged, or Adjudicated Father. A proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having no presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated father may be commenced at any time, even after:

1. The child becomes an adult, but only if the child initiates the proceeding; or
2. An earlier proceeding to adjudicate paternity has been dismissed based on the application of a statute of limitation then in effect. [TCR 08-79]

12-441 Limitation — Child Having Presumed Father.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of this Section, a proceeding brought by a presumed father, the mother, or another individual to adjudicate the parentage of a child having a presumed father must be commenced not later than ten years after the birth of the child.
2. A proceeding seeking to disprove the father-child relationship between a child and the child's presumed father may be maintained at any time if the Winnebago Tribal Court determines that:
 - a. The presumed father and the mother of the child neither cohabited nor engaged in sexual intercourse with each other during the probable time of conception; and
 - b. The presumed father never openly held out the child as his own.
3. For purposes of this Section and Section 12-442, an action to establish support for a child is a proceeding to adjudicate parentage if the child's presumed father raises nonpaternity as a defense to the action. [TCR 08-79]

12-442 Authority to Deny Motion for Genetic Testing.

1. In a proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having a presumed father or to challenge the paternity of a child having an acknowledged father, the Winnebago Tribal Court may deny a motion seeking an order for genetic testing of the mother, the child, and the presumed or acknowledged father if the Court determines that:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

- a. The conduct of the mother or the presumed or acknowledged father estops that party from denying parentage; and
 - b. It would be inequitable to disprove the father-child relationship between the child and the presumed or acknowledged father.
2. In determining whether to deny a motion seeking an order for genetic testing under this Section, the Court shall consider the best interest of the child, including the following factors:
- a. The length of time between the proceeding to adjudicate parentage and the time that the presumed or acknowledged father was placed on notice that he might not be the genetic father;
 - b. The length of time during which the presumed or acknowledged father has assumed the role of father of the child;
 - c. The facts surrounding the presumed or acknowledged father's discovery of his possible nonpaternity;
 - d. The nature of the relationship between the child and the presumed or acknowledged father;
 - e. The age of the child;
 - f. The harm that may result to the child if presumed or acknowledged paternity is successfully disproved;
 - g. The nature of the relationship between the child and any alleged father;
 - h. The extent to which the passage of time reduces the chances of establishing the paternity of another man and a child support obligation in favor of the child; and
 - i. Other factors that may affect the qualities arising from the disruption of the father-child relationship between the child and the presumed or acknowledged father or the chance of other harm to the child.
3. In a proceeding involving the application of this Section, a minor or incapacitated child must be represented by a guardian ad litem.
4. Denial of a motion seeking an order for genetic testing must be based on clear and convincing evidence.
5. If the Court denies a motion seeking an order for genetic testing, it shall issue an order adjudicating the presumed or acknowledged father to be the father of the child. [TCR 08-79]

12-443 Limitation — Child Having Acknowledged or Adjudicated Father.

1. If a child has an acknowledged father, a signatory to the acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity may commence a proceeding seeking to rescind the acknowledgment or denial or challenge the paternity of the child only within the time allowed under Section 12-421 or 12-422.
2. If a child has an acknowledged father or an adjudicated father, an individual, other than the child, who is neither a signatory to the acknowledgment of a paternity nor a party to the adjudication and who seeks an adjudication of paternity of the child must commence a proceeding not later than ten years after the effective date of the acknowledgment or adjudication.
3. A proceeding under this Section is subject to the application of the principles of estoppel established in Section 12-442. [TCR 08-79]

12-444 Joinder of Proceedings. A proceeding to adjudicate parentage may be joined with a proceeding for adoption, termination of parental rights, child custody or visitation, child support, divorce, annulment, legal separation or separate maintenance, probate or administration of an estate, or other appropriate proceeding. [TCR 08-79]

12-445 Proceeding Before Birth. A proceeding to determine parentage may be commenced before the birth of the child, but may not be concluded until after the birth of the child. The following actions may be taken before the birth of the child:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

1. Service of process;
2. Discovery; and
3. Except as prohibited by Section 12-427, collection of specimens for genetic testing. [TCR 08-79]

12-446 Child As Party — Representation.

1. A minor child is a permissible party, but is not a necessary party to a proceeding under Sections 12-437 through 12-459.
2. The Winnebago Tribal Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent a minor or incapacitated child if the child is a party or the Court finds that the interests of the child are not adequately represented. The Court may apportion the costs of the guardian ad litem between the parties as appropriate. [TCR 08-79]

12-447 Admissibility of Results of Genetic Testing — Expenses.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of this Section, a record of a genetic-testing expert is admissible as evidence of the truth of the facts asserted in the report unless a party objects to its admission within fourteen days after its receipt by the objecting party and cites specific grounds for exclusion. The admissibility of the report is not affected by whether the testing was performed:
 - a. Voluntarily or pursuant to an order of the Court or a support enforcement agency; or
 - b. Before or after the commencement of the proceeding.
2. A party objecting to the results of genetic testing may call one or more genetic-testing experts to testify in person or by telephone, videoconference, deposition, or another method approved by the Tribal Court. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the party offering the testimony bears the expense for the expert testifying.
3. If a child has a presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated father, the results of genetic testing are inadmissible to adjudicate parentage unless performed:
 - a. With the consent of both the mother and the presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated father; or
 - b. Pursuant to an order of the Court under Section 12-427.
4. Copies of bills for genetic testing and for prenatal and postnatal health care for the mother and child which are furnished to the adverse party not less than ten days before the date of a hearing are admissible to establish:
 - a. The amount of the charges billed; and
 - b. That the charges were reasonable, necessary, and customary. [TCR 08-79]

12-448 Consequences of Declining Genetic Testing.

1. An order for genetic testing is enforceable by contempt.
2. If an individual whose paternity is being determined declines to submit to genetic testing ordered by the Winnebago Tribal Court, the Court for that reason may adjudicate parentage contrary to the position of that individual.
3. Genetic testing of the mother of a child is not a condition precedent to testing the child and a man whose paternity is being determined. If the mother is unavailable or declines to submit to genetic testing, the Court may order the testing of the child and every man whose paternity is being adjudicated. [TCR 08-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

12-449 Admission of Paternity Authorized.

1. A respondent in a proceeding to adjudicate parentage may admit to the paternity of a child by filing a pleading to that effect or by admitting paternity under penalty of perjury when making an appearance or during a hearing.
2. If the Winnebago Tribal Court finds that the admission of paternity satisfies the requirements of this Section and finds that there is no reason to question the admission, the Court shall issue an order adjudicating the child to be the child of the man admitting paternity. [TCR 08-79]

12-450 Temporary Order.

1. In a proceeding under Sections 12-437 through 12-459, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall issue a temporary order for support of a child if the order is appropriate and the individual ordered to pay support is:
 - a. A presumed father of the child;
 - b. Petitioning to have his paternity adjudicated;
 - c. Identified as the father through genetic testing under Section 12-430;
 - d. An alleged father who has declined to submit to genetic testing;
 - e. Shown by clear and convincing evidence to be the father of the child; or
 - f. The mother of the child.
2. A temporary order may include provisions for custody and visitation as provided by other laws of this Tribe. [TCR 08-79]

12-451 Rules for Adjudication of Paternity. The Winnebago Tribal Court shall apply the following rules to adjudicate the paternity of a child:

1. The paternity of a child having a presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated father may be disproved only by admissible results of genetic testing excluding that man as the father of the child or identifying another man as the father of the child.
2. Unless the results of genetic testing are admitted to rebut other results of genetic testing, a man identified as the father of a child under Section 12-430 must be adjudicated the father of the child.
3. If the Court finds that genetic testing under Section 12-430 neither identifies nor excludes a man as the father of a child, the Court may not dismiss the proceeding. In that event, the results of genetic testing, and other evidence, are admissible to adjudicate the issue of paternity.
4. Unless the results of genetic testing are admitted to rebut other results of genetic testing, a man excluded as the father of a child by genetic testing must be adjudicated not to be the father of the child. [TCR 08-79]

12-452 Jury Prohibited. The Winnebago Tribal Court, without a jury, shall adjudicate paternity of a child. [TCR 08-79]

12-453 Closed Hearings. On request of a party and for good cause shown, the Winnebago Tribal Court may close a proceeding under Sections 12-437 through 12-459. [TCR 08-79]

12-454 Order On Default. The Winnebago Tribal Court shall issue an order adjudicating the paternity of a man who:

1. After service of process, is in default; and
2. Is found by the Court to be the father of a child. [TCR 08-79]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

12-455 Dismissal for Want of Prosecution. The Winnebago Tribal Court may issue an order dismissing a proceeding commenced under this Article for want of prosecution only without prejudice. An order of dismissal for want of prosecution purportedly with prejudice is void and has only the effect of a dismissal without prejudice. [TCR 08-79]

12-456 Order Adjudicating Parentage.

1. The Winnebago Tribal Court shall issue an order adjudicating whether a man alleged or claiming to be the father is the parent of the child.
2. An order adjudicating parentage must identify the child by name and date of birth.
3. The order must include the social security numbers of the child and the individuals determined to be the child's parents.
4. The order may contain any other provision in the best interest of the child, including payment of support, payment of expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement, custody of the child, visitation with the child, and furnishing of bond or other security for payment of support. A support order must be for a payment in an amount consistent with the Tribal child support guidelines promulgated by the Winnebago Tribal Court. All remedies for the enforcement of support, custody, and visitation orders under Title 12, Article 5 of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Tribal Code apply. The Tribal Court has continuing jurisdiction to modify an order for future support of the child, subject to Title 12, Article 5 of the Winnebago Tribal Code, and for custody of and visitation of the child.
5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 of this Section, the Court may assess filing fees, reasonable attorney's fees, fees for genetic testing, other costs, and necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in a proceeding under Sections 12-436 through 12-459. The Court may award attorney's fees, which may be paid directly to the attorney, who may enforce the order in the attorney's own name.
6. The Court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against the WTN-CSEP, except as provided by other law.
7. On request of a party and for good cause shown, the Court may order that the name of the child be changed.
8. If the order of the Court is at variance with the child's birth certificate, the Court shall instruct the parties of the order to send the order to the state department of public health to request an amended birth registration. An order adjudicating parentage must be filed with the state registrar of vital statistics. [TCR 08-79]

12-457 Binding Effect of Determination of Parentage.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of this Section, a determination of parentage is binding on:
 - a. All signatories to an acknowledgment or denial of paternity as provided in Sections 12-416 through 12-425; and
 - b. All parties to an adjudication by a court acting under circumstances that satisfy the jurisdictional requirements of Sections 12-404 and 12-405.
2. A child is not bound by a determination of parentage under this Article unless:
 - a. The determination was based on an unrestricted acknowledgment of paternity and the acknowledgment is consistent with the results of genetic testing;
 - b. The adjudication of parentage was based on a finding consistent with the results of genetic testing and the consistency is declared in the determination or is otherwise shown; or
 - c. The child was a party or was represented in the proceeding determining parentage by a guardian ad litem.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 4

3. In a proceeding to dissolve a marriage, the Court is deemed to have made an adjudication of the parentage of a child if the Court acts under circumstances that satisfy the jurisdictional requirements of Sections 12-404 and 12-405 and other applicable Tribal law, and the final order:
 - a. Expressly identifies a child as a “child of the marriage,” “issue of the marriage,” or similar words indicating that the husband is the father of the child; or
 - b. Provides for support of the child, custody of the child, or visitation with the child by the husband unless paternity is specifically disclaimed in the order.
4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of this Section, a determination of parentage may be a defense in a subsequent proceeding seeking to adjudicate parentage by an individual who was not a party to the earlier proceeding.
5. A party to an adjudication of paternity may challenge the adjudication only under law of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska relating to appeal, vacation of judgments, or other judicial review. [TCR 08-79]

12-458 Liability for Collection of Support.

1. The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska is not liable for child support that was collected from or on behalf of a former parent and disbursed to an obligee as under Title 12, Article 5, of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Tribal Code.
2. The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska is not liable for child support that was collected from or on behalf of a former parent and retained by the Tribe unless ordered by a Court after being presented with genetic test results that would otherwise be admissible under this Article showing that the former parent is not the genetic parent of the child. [TCR 08-79]

12-459 Application of the Winnebago Parentage Act. This Act shall govern all proceedings to acknowledge paternity or adjudicate parentage commenced after the effective date of this Act. [TCR 08-79]

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

12-501 Act, How Cited. Sections 12-501 to 12-567 shall be known and may be cited as the Winnebago Child Support Act. [TCR 08-79]

12-502 Findings. The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska has historically placed a great emphasis on the needs of its youth and families. Under values of the Tribe, children are viewed as sacred, and they are the Tribe's most important resource. The Tribe has a compelling interest to promote and maintain the health and well-being of Tribal children and families. The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska acknowledges the financial difficulties and hardship facing many Tribal children due to a lack of parental support. The non-support of children by their parents is not consistent with the values of the Winnebago Tribe. The Tribe will not tolerate the non-support of its children. The Winnebago Tribe finds that it is in the best interests of the Tribe to make laws which establish a Tribal child support IV-D agency in an effort to offer the community effective, fair, accessible, and culturally appropriate child support services. [TCR 08-79]

12-503 Purpose. The Winnebago Child Support Act, Title 12, Article 5, has been enacted for the following purposes:

1. To ensure that children within the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska receive adequate support from their parents;
2. To motivate parents to meet the financial and emotional needs of their children;
3. To compel, when necessary, the parent of a child to perform the moral and legal duties owed to the child;
4. To promote fairness to the children and families seeking services from the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Child Support Enforcement Program and who come before the Winnebago Tribal Court for actions under this Article;
5. To exercise Tribal sovereignty and open the lines of communication in working with foreign jurisdictions with the goal of providing a continuum of child support services to Tribal children whether they reside on or off the Winnebago Reservation;
6. To provide for the supervision and administration of child support functions on a Tribal-wide basis; and
7. To reaffirm Tribal sovereignty and Tribal self-determination by providing for the exercise of the greatest possible Tribal jurisdiction over the greatest number of child support cases involving Tribal children and families. [TCR 08-79]

3. The WTN-CSEP and Winnebago Tribal Court may limit the information disclosed to persons, agencies, and entities named in this Section to that information necessary to accomplish the purposes for which it is requested or for which it is being disclosed. Nothing in this Section gives these entities or persons the right to review or copy the complete case record. [TCR 08-79]

12-508 Penalty for Unauthorized Disclosure. Any person, including but not limited to any Tribal employee, Tribal Court employees, and employees of the WTN-CSEP and Tribal TANF, who willfully discloses otherwise confidential information related to an action to determine parentage, other than expressly authorized and provided for under this Article, may be subject to a civil fine not to exceed five hundred ($500.00) dollars in addition to any disciplinary actions authorized under the Tribal personnel policies and procedures. Actions brought under this Section may be initiated by the filing of a sworn statement of the alleged unauthorized disclosure. [TCR 08-79]

12-509 Attorney Represents Tribe's Interest in the Enforcement of Child Support Obligations. In any action brought to establish paternity, secure repayment of governmental benefits paid, to secure current or future support of children, or establish, enforce, or modify a child support obligation, the WTN-CSEP may employ or contract with a licensed attorney. An attorney so employed or contracted represents the interest of the Tribe in the enforcement of child support obligations. Nothing in this Section may be construed to modify confidentiality required of the WTN-CSEP. Representation by the employed or contracted attorney may not be construed to create an attorney-client relationship between the attorney and any party or witness to the action, other than the Tribe, regardless of the name in which the action is brought. [TCR 08-79]

12-510 Notice. All parties to a proceeding under this Article shall receive written notice of the time and place of a proceeding and shall receive written notice of their right to be heard at such a proceeding. The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska civil procedure laws are applicable to all child support cases unless a more specific procedure is provided in this Article. [TCR 08-79]

ESTABLISHMENT & MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT

12-511 Duty to Support Children. Parents shall give their children support and education suitable to the child's circumstances. The Tribal Court may compel either or both of the parents to provide for the support of their children by establishing a child support order upon an application of the Tribal child support guidelines, adopted as Title 1C of the Winnebago Tribal Court Rules. [TCR 08-79]

12-512 Liability of Stepparent For Support. A stepparent is not bound to maintain the spouse's child(ren) unless the child is received into the stepparent's family. If the stepparent receives the child into the family, the stepparent is liable, to the extent of the stepparent's ability, to support the child during the marriage and so long thereafter as they remain in the stepparent's family. Such liability may be enforced against the stepparent by any person furnishing necessities to such children. If the children are received into the stepparent's family and supported by the stepparent, it is presumed that the stepparent does so as a parent, in which case the children are not liable to the stepparent for their support, or the stepparent to them for their services. The legal obligation of a natural or adoptive parent to support that person's children is not affected by the liability imposed upon their stepparent by this Section. [TCR 08-79]

12-513 Termination of Parental Rights — Duty of Support. A termination of parental rights does not terminate the duty of either parent to support the child before the child's adoption unless that duty is specially terminated by order of the Court after notice of a proposed termination or relinquishment is given to the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Child and Family Services in the manner appropriate for the service of process in a civil action under the laws of this Tribe. A termination of a child support obligation under this Section does not relieve a parent of the duty to pay any unpaid child support. [TCR 08-79]

12-514 Support For Children After Majority — Retroactive Application.

1. A judgment or order requiring the payment of child support until the child attains majority continues as to the child until the end of the month during which the child is graduated from high school or attains the age of nineteen years, whichever occurs first, if:
 - a. The child is enrolled and attending high school and is eighteen years of age prior to the date the child is expected to be graduated; and
 - b. The child resides with the person to whom the duty of support is owed.
2. A judgment or order may require payment of child support after majority under the circumstances described in subsection 1 of this Section.
3. The person to whom the duty of support is owed under either subsection 1 or 2 of this Section may file an affidavit with the Tribal Court stating that the requirements of subsection 1 are met, the school in which the child is enrolled, and the anticipated date of the child's graduation. Upon filing of the affidavit, the child support resumes pursuant to subsection 1 or pursuant to the terms of a judgment or order described in subsection 2. A fee may not be charged for filing such an affidavit.
4. The civil court clerk shall serve the affidavit by first-class mail upon the person owing the duty of support. If at any time thereafter the person owing the duty of support files a motion with the Tribal Court, supported by that person's affidavit that the child is no longer enrolled in or attending high school, the Court shall determine if the child is enrolled in and attending high school and shall enter an order accordingly.
5. This Section applies to child support orders concerning children described in subsection 1 or 2 of this Section, regardless of the date of entry of the order, provided that the affidavit described in subsection 3 of this Section is filed not later than ninety days after the child graduates from high school or reaches age nineteen, whichever occurs first.
6. This Section does not preclude the entry of an order for child support which continues after the child reaches age eighteen, if the parties agree, or if the Court determines the support to be appropriate.
7. For purposes of this Section, a child is treated as being in school during summer vacation if the child was enrolled in and attending school and did not graduate from high school at the end of the school period immediately preceding the summer vacation. [TCR 08-79]

12-515 Support by Tribe — Liability of Parent's Estate. If a parent chargeable with the support of a child dies leaving it chargeable upon the Tribe and leaving an estate sufficient for its support, the WTN-CSEP, in the name of the Tribe, may claim provision for its support from the parent's estate by civil action, and for this purpose may have the same remedies as any creditor against that estate and against the heirs, devisees, and next of kin of the parent. [TCR 08-79]

12-516 Allowance to Parent for Support of Child. The Tribal Court may direct an allowance to be made to a parent of a child out of the child's property for its past or future support and education on such conditions as may be proper, whenever such direction is for the child's benefit. [TCR 08-79]

12-517 Duration of Child Support Obligations. Unless dates for the commencement or termination of a child support obligation are specified by the Tribal Court's order, a judgment or order requiring the payment of child support is effective as to the child in the month in which the order is signed and continues until the end of the month in which the support obligation terminates. [TCR 08-79]

12-518 Periodic Review of Child Support Orders.

1. Each child support order must be reviewed by the WTN-CSEP no less frequently than thirty-six months after the establishment of the order or the most recent amendment or review of the order by the Tribal Court or WTN-CSEP unless:
 - a. In the case of an order with respect to which there is in effect an assignment of the child support for receipt of public assistance, the WTN-CSEP has determined that a review is not in the best interests of the child and neither the obligor nor the obligee has requested review; or
 - b. In the case of any other order neither the obligor nor the obligee has requested review.
2. Each child support order, in which there is in effect public assistance or with respect to which either the obligor or the obligee has requested review, must be reviewed by the WTN-CSEP if:
 - a. More than twelve months have passed since the establishment of the order or the most recent amendment or review of that order by the Court or the WTN-CSEP, whichever is later; and
 - b. The order provides for no child support and was based on a finding that the obligor has no ability to pay child support.
3. If, upon review, the WTN-CSEP determines that the order provides for child support payments in an amount that is inconsistent with the amount that would be required under the Winnebago Tribal Court Rules of Tribal Child Support Guidelines, the WTN-CSEP may seek an amendment of the order. If the order provides for child support payments in an amount less than eighty-five percent of the amount that would be required by those guidelines, the WTN-CSEP shall seek an amendment of the order.
4. If a child support order sought to be amended was entered at least one year before the filing of a motion or petition for amendment, the Court shall order the amendment of the child support order to conform the amount of child support payment to that required under the child support guidelines, whether or not the motion or petition for amendment arises out of a periodic review of a child support order, and whether or not a material change of circumstances has taken place, unless the presumption that the correct amount of child support would result from the application of the child support guidelines is rebutted. If a motion or petition for amendment is filed within one year of the entry of the order sought to be amended, the party seeking amendment must also show a material change of circumstances.
5. A determination that a child who is the subject of a child support order is eligible for public assistance provided by any state or tribal government agency, constitutes a material change of circumstances.
6. The availability of health insurance at reasonable cost to a child who is the subject of a child support order constitutes a material change of circumstances. The need to provide for a child's health care needs, through health insurance or other means, constitutes a material change of circumstances. [TCR 08-79]

12-519 Notice of Periodic Review of Child Support Orders.

1. The WTN-CSEP shall provide written notice that a child support order being enforced by the WTN-CSEP may be subject to review under Section 12-518. The notice may be sent by first-class mail to the obligor and the obligee, at the addresses they have most recently provided to the WTN-CSEP, at least thirty-five days before the commencement of the review.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

2. The notice to the obligor must inform the obligor of the duty to furnish the information required by Section 12-520 and that a failure to furnish the required information may result in the entry of an order compelling the furnishing of the information. The notice must also inform the obligor that the review determination will be mailed to the obligor following the review. The notice must be accompanied by an income report form, together with instructions for the accurate completion of the income report form. [TCR 08-79]

12-520 Obligor's Duties Upon Review — Failure to Provide Information.

1. The obligor shall provide information to the WTN-CSEP concerning the obligor's income, which is sufficient to accomplish the review, no later than five working days before the date of review. The information must be furnished by providing an income report, in the form and manner required by the WTN-CSEP, accurately completed and attested to by the obligor, earnings statements secured from the obligor's current income payer if the obligor changed employment after the end of the latest income tax year for which the obligor filed a return, and providing:
 - a. A verified copy of the latest income tax return, filed with the internal revenue service or any state official administering a state income tax if the obligor pays state income tax, which accurately reports the obligor's income for a fiscal year ending no more than seventeen months prior to the date of the review; or
 - b. A written authorization by which the WTN-CSEP may secure a verified copy of the latest income tax return, filed with the tax commissioner, which accurately reports the obligor's income for a fiscal year ending no more than seventeen months prior to the date of review.
2. If the obligor has not produced information under subsection 1 of this Section concerning the obligor's income, sufficient to accomplish the review, the WTN-CSEP may base its review determination on the assumption that the obligor's income has increased at the rate of ten percent per year since the child support order under review was entered or last modified. [TCR 08-79]

12-521 Notice of Review Determination.

1. Following review, the WTN-CSEP shall promptly provide written notice of its determination on review. The notice may be sent by first-class mail to the obligor and the obligee, at the addresses they have most recently provided to the WTN-CSEP.
2. If the WTN-CSEP has made a determination that no amendment to the amount of child support should be sought, the notice must inform the obligor and the obligee of the right of each to challenge that determination by seeking an amendment to the amount of child support, from the Tribal Court, at any time before the termination of the support order.
3. If the WTN-CSEP has made a determination to seek an amendment in the amount of child support, the notice must be mailed at least thirty-five days before the date of a hearing on a motion for amendment made by the child support agency under Section 12-518, and must inform the obligor and the obligee of the right of each to challenge that determination by opposing that amendment before the Court. The notice to the obligor must be accompanied by:
 - a. A proposed modification of the child support order to provide for payment of child support in the amount required under the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Tribal Court Child Support Guidelines;
 - b. A document by which the obligor may consent to the proposed modification; and
 - c. An address and telephone number that the obligor may use to receive information from or schedule a meeting with the WTN-CSEP staff. [TCR 08-79]

12-522 Motion for Amendment of Child Support Order — How Made — Presumption When Obligor’s Income Unknown.

1. Upon a determination by the WTN-CSEP, made under Section 12-518, that it may or must seek amendment of a child support order, the WTN-CSEP may file and serve a motion and supporting documents.
2. The Tribal Court may determine the motion based upon the files, records, and evidence received in consideration of the motion. If the WTN-CSEP certifies that, despite diligent efforts to secure reliable information concerning the obligor’s income, the obligor has not produced such information, and if the obligor provides the Tribal Court with no reliable evidence concerning the obligor’s income, it is presumed that the obligor’s income has increased at the rate of ten percent per year since the child support order was entered or last modified. [TCR 08-79]

12-523 Request For Review — Notice of Right to Request Review.

1. An obligor or an obligee may request review under Section 12-518, by applying to the WTN-CSEP for child support services, and indicating, in the manner there provided, a desire to have a child support order reviewed. Each judgment or order issued by the Tribal Court which includes an order for child support must include a statement advising of the right to request a review under this Section.
2. If a party to a child support matter is receiving services from the WTN-CSEP and an order for current child support has issued out of that matter, the WTN-CSEP shall provide notice of the right to request a review or further review of that child support order, to the obligor and obligee, not more than three years after the most recent child support order, review of that child support order, or notice of right to request a review of that child support order. [TCR 08-79]

TRIBAL TANF AND ASSIGNMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENTS TO THE WTN-CSEP

12-524 Recipients of Tribal TANF — Assignment of Support Payments.

1. If public assistance is provided by the Winnebago TANF Program to or on behalf of a dependent child or a dependent child’s caretaker, there is an assignment by operation of law to the Winnebago Tribal TANF Program of any and all rights in, title to, and interest in any support obligation, payment, and arrearages owed to or on behalf of the child or caretaker, not to exceed the amount of public assistance paid for or on behalf of the child or caretaker.

12-541 Immediate Income Withholding.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2 of this Section, each judgment or order which requires the payment of child support subjects the income of the obligor to automatic income withholding, regardless of whether the obligor's support payments are delinquent.
2. If a party to a proceeding, who would otherwise be subject to immediate income withholding under subsection 1 of this Section, demonstrates, and the Tribal Court finds that there is good cause not to require immediate withholding, or if the parties, including any assignee of support rights, reach a written agreement that provides for an alternative arrangement for assuring the regular payment of child support, the Tribal Court need not subject the income of the obligor to immediate withholding and shall enter a written finding to this effect.
3. Notwithstanding Section 12-544, any failure to comply with an agreement under this subsection subjects the income of the obligor to income withholding under this Section.
4. A finding that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding under subsection 2 of this Section must be based on at least:
 - a. A written determination that, and an explanation of why, implementing immediate income withholding would not be in the best interests of the child;
 - b. Proof of timely payment of previously ordered support, if any; and
 - c. A requirement that the obligor keep the civil court clerk and the WTN-CSEP informed of any employment-related health insurance to which the obligor has access.

[TCR 08-79]

12-543 Requests by Obligee for Income Withholding — Approval — Procedures and Standards.

1. An obligee may apply to the WTN-CSEP for approval of an income withholding request. The income of the obligor becomes subject to income withholding on the date an approved request is made.
2. In approving an obligee's request for income withholding, the WTN-CSEP shall consider:
 - a. An obligor's threat to discontinue child support payments;
 - b. An obligor's having made child support payments sufficient to avoid a delinquency but insufficient to conform to the ordered amount; and
 - c. Any other factor applicable to the request for income withholding.
3. Upon application of an obligee requesting income withholding, the WTN-CSEP shall promptly approve or disapprove the request. The WTN-CSEP may not approve the obligee's request in a case where the Tribal Court has determined that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding unless the Court first changes its determination. WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

12-544 Procedure — Notice to Obligor. If immediate income withholding under Section 12-541 has not been implemented and an obligor is delinquent, if an obligee's request for income withholding is approved, or if the Tribal Court changes its finding that there is no longer good cause not to require immediate income withholding, the WTN-CSEP shall serve the notice required under this Section upon the obligor whenever issuing an income withholding order. The notice must state:

1. That the obligor is delinquent in the payment of child support, that a request for withholding has been made by the obligee and approved by the WTN-CSEP, or that there is no longer good cause not to require immediate income withholding, as the case may be, and the obligor is therefore subject to an income withholding order on all income;
2. The amount of child support owed and the amount of arrearage, if any;
3. The total amount of money that will be withheld by the income payer from the obligor's income in each month as determined under the Tribal Court Child Support Guidelines;
4. That the income payer may withhold an additional sum of up to three dollars per month to cover the income payer's expenses;
5. That the income withholding order has been issued without further order of the Tribal Court;
6. That the obligor may contest the issuance of the income withholding order by filing a written request for hearing within ten days of the date of the notice made under this Section;
7. That if the obligor contests the income withholding order pursuant to Section 12-545, a hearing will be held and the Court will determine and issue an order consistent with the requirements of Section 12-545; and
8. That the income withholding order applies to any current or subsequent income payer or period of employment. [TCR 08-79]

12-545 Hearing Upon Obligor's Request.

1. If the obligor files a request for a hearing within ten days of the date of the notice made pursuant to Section 12-544, the Tribal Court shall hold a hearing within ten working days after the date of the request.
2. The Tribal Court may order that the income withholding order be withdrawn if at the hearing the obligor establishes:
 - a. In a case where withholding would be based on an alleged delinquency, that there has been a mistake in the identity of the obligor; or
 - b. In a case where an approved request for withholding has been made by the obligee, that the approval of the request constituted an abuse of discretion.
3. If at the hearing the obligor establishes that there is an overstatement in the amount of support stated to be owed by the obligor, the Tribal Court may amend the amount to be withheld.
4. In the absence of a finding of a mistake of fact in a case where withholding would be based on an alleged delinquency, or in the absence of an abuse of discretion in the approval of an obligee's request for withholding, the Tribal Court shall confirm the income withholding order. Payment of past-due support after issuance of notice under Section 12-544 may not be the basis for an order that the income withholding order be withdrawn.
5. An obligor is not precluded, by subsection 1, from seeking appropriate relief from a judgment or order affecting a child support obligation nor is the Tribal Court precluded from granting such relief. An obligor's request for such relief, whether made by motion under Title 2, Article 2, Winnebago Civil Procedure Code, or otherwise, may not be considered during the hearing described in subsection 1 of this Section. [TCR 08-79]

In addition, the income payer may deduct a fee of up to three dollars per month from the obligor's income to cover expenses involved in transmitting payment. The income payer may also retain an additional sum of three dollars per month from the obligor's income to cover expenses involved in transmitting payment.
6. The amount to be withheld, including amounts to cover expenses involved in transmitting payment, may not exceed fifty percent of the obligor's disposable income from this income payer as provided under the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1673(b)), but a payment of an amount less than the ordered amount must be accompanied by a written calculation disclosing any of the obligor's income and disposable income which is payable by the income payer.

5. Any contempt proceeding against an income payer under this Section must be commenced within one year after the income payer's act or failure to act upon which such proceeding is based.
6. Compliance by an income payer with an income withholding order operates as a discharge of the income payer's liability to the obligor as to that portion of the obligor's income so affected.
7. Upon receipt of an order for support entered in another tribe or state and the registration of the foreign order with the Tribal Court, the WTN-CSEP shall initiate income withholding.
 - a. An income payer within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Reservation shall withhold income based on foreign court orders for withholding that have been registered in the Winnebago Tribal Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

- b. An employer receiving an income withholding notice from another tribe or state that has been registered in the Winnebago Tribal Court shall withhold and distribute the funds as directed in the withholding notice and shall apply the law of the obligor's principal place of employment when determining:
 - i. The employer's fee for processing an income withholding notice;
 - ii. The maximum amount permitted to be withheld from the obligor's income; and
 - iii. Deadlines for implementing and forwarding the child support payment.
 - c. An obligor may contest withholding under this subsection as provided for in this Section.
 - d. An employer receiving an income withholding order or notice from another tribe or state that has not been registered in the Winnebago Tribal Court must forward the order or notice to the WTN-CSEP for registration in Tribal Court before withholding and distributing the funds under the order.
8. An income payer who has been served with an income withholding order issued under Section 12-546 for an obligor which includes an amount for past-due support shall notify the WTN-CSEP before making any lump sum payment of one thousand dollars or more to the obligor. "Lump sum payment" includes pay in lieu of vacation or other leave, bonus, commission, and any other payment to an obligor but does not include periodic payments made on regular paydays as compensation for services and does not include reimbursement for expenses incurred by the obligor on behalf of the income payer.
- a. An income payer who provides notice of a lump sum payment to the WTN-CSEP under this subsection may not make more than one-half of the payment to the obligor for thirty days from the date of the notice to WTN-CSEP or until the income payer receives written authorization from the WTN-CSEP to make the lump sum payment to the obligor, whichever occurs first.
 - b. Notwithstanding paragraph A of this subsection, an income payer who provides notice of a lump sum payment to the WTN-CSEP under this subsection may not make a lump sum payment to an obligor if the income payer has been notified that an execution, garnishment, attachment, or other process has been initiated regarding the lump sum payment to satisfy a child support obligation of the obligor.
 - c. An income payer who owes a lump sum payment under this subsection is subject to the duties and liabilities in this Section unless the context indicates otherwise.
 - d. This subsection does not apply to any portion of a lump sum payment that must be paid to satisfy an income withholding order issued under Section 12-546.
9. An income payer who complies with an income withholding order that is regular on its face is not subject to civil liability to any individual or agency for conduct in compliance with the order.
10. An income payer who fails to deliver income for more than seven business days after the date one or more obligors are paid may be charged a late fee equal to twenty-five dollars per obligor for each additional business day the payment is delinquent or seventy-five dollars for each additional business day the payment is delinquent, whichever is greater. A late fee charged under this subsection is payable fifteen days after service on the employer, by first-class mail, of notice of the imposition of the late fee. Failure to pay a late fee under this subsection may be punished as a contempt of court. Any late fee collected by the WTN-CSEP under this subsection must be paid to the WTN-CSEP for distribution under Section 12-532 and any remaining balance must be paid to the obligor. If an income payer has failed to deliver income for more than one obligor, any late fees collected under this Section must be divided equally among all affected obligors.
- [TCR 08-79]

12-550 Requests for Information from Income Payer.

1. The WTN-CSEP may mail a request for information to the income payer in any matter in which it secures reliable information that the income payer may be indebted to an obligor. The request must identify the obligor by name, and, if known, address and social security number.
2. Within ten days after receipt of a request for information issued under subsection 1 of this Section, an income payer shall provide the requester with a written statement informing the requester whether or not the income payer is, or within the one hundred eighty days immediately preceding receipt of the request has been, an income payer with respect to that obligor. If the income payer is, or within the previous one hundred eighty days has been, an income payer with respect to that obligor, the income payer shall furnish information to the requester, including:
 - a. The amount of any income currently paid to the obligor, calculated on a monthly basis;
 - b. The total amount of income paid to the obligor in the twelve months preceding the month in which the request is received;
 - c. Information regarding any health insurance that may be made available to the obligor's children through the income payer;
 - d. The social security number under which payment of any income by the income payer to the obligor is reported;
 - e. The obligor's address; and
 - f. If the income payer is no longer an income payer with respect to that obligor, the date of last payment and any forwarding address.
3. Any income payer failing to comply with any requirements of this Section may be punished for contempt of court. The Tribal Court shall first afford such income payer a reasonable opportunity to purge itself of contempt.
4. A proceeding against an income payer under this Section may be commenced upon motion by the WTN-CSEP and must be commenced within ninety days after the income payer's act or failure to act upon which such proceeding is based. [TCR 08-79]

12-551 Amendment — Termination of Income Withholding Order. Upon amendment or termination of an income withholding order, the WTN-CSEP shall send appropriate notice to the income payer. An income withholding order is to be amended by the WTN-CSEP when the total amount of money to be withheld is changed by elimination of arrearages or by court-ordered change in amount of child support. An income withholding order is to be terminated when the duty to support ceases and all child support arrearages have been paid. When two or more income payers have been subjected to income withholding orders with respect to a child support obligation, the WTN-CSEP shall suspend the income withholding order directed to one or more income payers, provided that the amount of child support withheld by the remaining income payer or payers equals the child support obligation determined under the Tribal Court Child Support Guidelines. The WTN-CSEP shall immediately reinstate any suspended income withholding order should any child support obligation of the obligor thereafter become delinquent. The WTN-CSEP shall provide a copy of the reinstated income withholding order, by first-class mail, to the obligor and the income payer. [TCR 08-79]

12-552 Interstate Income Withholding — Initiation by the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska to Another Jurisdiction. On application of any applicant for IV-D services from the WTN-CSEP, an obligee or an obligor of a support order issued by this Tribe, or a public assistance agency to which an obligee has assigned support rights, the WTN-CSEP shall request the child support enforcement agency of another tribe or state in which the obligor of a support order derives income to enter the order for the purpose of obtaining income withholding against such income. The WTN-CSEP shall make that request within twenty days of the later of the date income withholding is determined appropriate or the date of receipt of any information necessary to carry out withholding. The WTN-CSEP shall compile and transmit to the child support agency of the other tribe or state all documentation required to enter an order for this purpose. The WTN-CSEP shall also transmit to the child support agency of the other tribe or state certified copies of any subsequent modifications of the support order. If the WTN-CSEP receives notice that the obligor is contesting the income withholding in another tribe or state, it shall immediately notify the individual obligee of the date, time, and place of the hearings and of the obligee's right to attend. [TCR 08-79]

12-553 Child Support Exempt from Process. A child support obligation owed to an obligee who is a judgment debtor may not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, or other process except to satisfy that child support obligation. [TCR 08-79]

12-554 Administrative Seek Employment Orders.

1. Court order. For any support order being enforced by the WTN-CSEP, the WTN-CSEP may seek a court order requiring the obligor to seek employment if:
 - a. Employment of the obligor cannot be verified;
 - b. The obligor is in arrears in court-ordered child support or maintenance payments or both in an amount equal to or greater than three times the obligor's total monthly support and maintenance payments; and
 - c. The obligor is not in compliance with a written payment plan.

Upon proper notice being given to the obligor, the Tribal Court may enter a seek employment order if it finds that the obligor has not provided proof of gainful employment and has not consented to an order for income withholding under this Article or entered into a written payment plan approved by the Court or the WTN-CSEP.

2. Contents of order. The order to seek employment shall:
 - a. Order that the obligor seek employment within a determinate amount of time;
 - b. Order that the obligor file with the WTN-CSEP on a weekly basis a report of at least five new attempts to find employment or of having found employment, which report must include the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of any employers or businesses with whom the obligor attempted to seek employment and the name of the individual contact to whom the obligor made application for employment or to whom an inquiry was directed;
 - c. Notify the obligor that failure to comply with the order is evidence of a willful failure to pay support under this Article;
 - d. Order that the obligor provide the WTN-CSEP with verification of any reason for noncompliance with the order; and
 - e. Specify the duration of the order, not to exceed three months. [TCR 08-79]

12-555 Driver's License and Occupational License Suspension, Motor Vehicle Lien. If the WTN-CSEP determines that the obligor is in arrears in court-ordered child support or maintenance payments or both in an amount equal to or greater than three times the obligor's total monthly child support payments and not in compliance with a written approved payment agreement pursuant to this Article, the WTN-CSEP is authorized to request assistance from another tribal or state child support enforcement IV-D agency in the pursuit of the suspension of the obligor's driver's license or occupational license. The WTN-CSEP is also authorized to request assistance from another tribal or state IV-D agency to seek a motor vehicle lien against the obligor. [TCR 08-79]

1. If a person against whom an order or decree for support has been entered under this Article, or a comparable law from another jurisdiction, is in arrears in court-ordered child support payments in

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

- an amount equal to or greater than the obligor's total monthly child support payments and is not in compliance with a written payment plan approved by the Tribal Court or the WTN-CSEP, the person may be cited and punished by the Tribal Court for contempt pursuant to this Section, this Article, and other applicable tribal law.
2. Any person found in contempt of court as specified in the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Code, Title I, Article 5, Contempts, may be subject to a civil fine not to exceed five hundred ($500.00) dollars and sentenced to serve no more than six (6) months in jail. A person may be subject to additional fines or jail time for subsequent violations of court orders. A person found in contempt of court for nonpayment of child support may make bond set by the Tribal Court pursuant to Section 1-806 of the Winnebago Code. The Tribal Court shall apportion the bond between the child support arrears and the court fine according to Section 1-806 of the Winnebago Code.
 3. If the Tribal Court cites a person for contempt under this Section the Court may order the performance of community service work up to 32 hours per week for six weeks for each finding of contempt if the obligor:
 - a. Is able to work full time;
 - b. Works an average of less than 32 hours per week; and
 - c. Has actual weekly gross income averaging less than 40 times the federal minimum hourly wage under United States Code, title 29, section 206(a)(1), or is voluntarily earning less than the obligor has the ability to earn, as determined by the Tribal Court.
 4. An obligor is presumed to be able to work full time. The obligor has the burden of proving inability to work full time.
 5. A person ordered to do community service work under this Section may, during the six-week period, apply to the Tribal Court or the WTN-CSEP to be released from the community service work requirement if the person:
 - a. Provides proof to the Tribal Court or the WTN-CSEP that the person is gainfully employed and submits to an order for income withholding under this Article;
 - b. Enters into a written payment plan regarding both current child support and arrearages approved by the Tribal Court and the WTN-CSEP; or
 - c. Provides proof to the Tribal Court or the WTN-CSEP that, subsequent to entry of the order, the person's circumstances have so changed that the person is no longer able to fulfill the terms of the community service order.
 6. The performance of community service work does not relieve a child support obligor of any unpaid accrued or accruing support obligation. [TCR 08-79]

INTERGOVERNMENTAL CHILD SUPPORT CASES —
AFFORDING FULL FAITH AND CREDIT

12-557 Full Faith and Credit of Foreign Child Support Orders. The WTN-CSEP and Tribal Court shall recognize child support orders issued by other tribes and states, in accordance with the requirements under the Full Faith and Credit for Child Support Orders Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1738B. The WTN-CSEP shall extend the full range of services available under its IV-D plan to respond to all requests from, and cooperate with, other tribal and state IV-D agencies. [TCR 08-79]

REGISTRATION OF FOREIGN CHILD SUPPORT ORDER FOR ENFORCEMENT

12-558 Registration of Foreign Child Support Order for Enforcement.

1. A support order or an income-withholding order issued by a tribunal of another tribe or state may be registered in the Winnebago Tribal Court for enforcement.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

2. A support order or income-withholding order of another tribe or state may be registered in the Winnebago Tribal Court by sending the following documents and information to the Winnebago Tribal Court:
 - a. A motion and affidavit to the Tribal Court from the party requesting the order be registered.
 - i. The affidavit must include a statement that a written request has been received from another tribe or state requesting the registration of a foreign order.
 - b. Two copies of all orders to be registered including any modifications of an order, one of which must be certified by the issuing court.
 - c. A sworn statement by the party seeking registration or a certified statement by the custodian of the records showing the amount of any arrearage. [TCR 08-79, 14-86]

12-559 Effect of Registration for Enforcement. A support order or income-withholding order issued in another tribe or state is registered when the order is filed in the Winnebago Tribal Court. A registered order issued in another tribe or state is enforceable in the same manner and is subject to the same procedures as an order issued by the Winnebago Tribal Court. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall recognize and enforce, but may not modify, a registered order if the tribunal that issued the order had jurisdiction. [TCR 08-79]

12-560 Choice of Law. The law of the tribe or state that issued the order governs the nature, extent, amount, and duration of current payments and other obligations of support and the payment of arrearages under the order. In a proceeding for arrearages, the statute of limitation under the laws of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska or of the state or tribe that issued the order, whichever is longer, applies. [TCR 08-79]

12-561 Notice of Registration of Order. When a support order or income-withholding order issued in another tribe or state is registered in the Winnebago Tribal Court, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall notify the nonregistering party. The notice must be accompanied by a copy of the registered order and the documents and relevant information accompanying the order. The notice must inform the nonregistering party:

1. That a registered order is enforceable as of the date of registration in the same manner as an order issued by the Winnebago Tribal Court;
2. That a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order must be requested within 20 days after notice;
3. That failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner will result in confirmation of the order and enforcement of the order and the alleged arrearages and precludes further contest of that order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted; and
4. Of the amount of any alleged arrearages.

Upon registration of an income-withholding order for enforcement, the Winnebago Tribal Court as the registering tribunal shall notify the obligor's employer pursuant to this Article. [TCR 08-79]

12-562 Procedure to Contest Validity or Enforcement of Registered Order.

1. A nonregistering party seeking to contest the validity or enforcement of a registered order in the Winnebago Tribal Court shall request a hearing within 20 days after notice of the registration. The nonregistering party may seek to vacate the registration, to assert any defense to an allegation of noncompliance with the registered order, or to contest the remedies being sought or the amount of any alleged arrearages pursuant to this Section.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

2. If the nonregistering party fails to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner, the order is confirmed by operation of law.
3. If a nonregistering party requests a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall schedule the matter for hearing and give notice to the parties of the date, time, and place of the hearing. [TCR 08-79]

12-563 Burden on Party Contesting the Registration or Enforcement.

1. A party contesting the validity or enforcement of a registered order or seeking to vacate the registration has the burden of proving one or more of the following defenses:
 - a. The issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction over the contesting party;
 - b. The order was obtained by fraud;
 - c. The order has been vacated, suspended, or modified by a later order;
 - d. The issuing tribunal has stayed the order pending appeal;
 - e. There is a defense under the laws or policy of this Tribe to the remedy sought;
 - f. Full or partial payment has been made; or
 - g. The statute of limitation precludes enforcement of some or all of the arrearages.
2. If a party presents evidence establishing a full or partial defense under this Section, the Winnebago Tribal Court may stay enforcement of the registered order, continue the proceeding to permit production of additional relevant evidence, and issue other appropriate orders. An uncontested portion of the registered order may be enforced by all remedies available under the laws of this Tribe.
3. If the contesting party does not establish a defense under this Section to the validity or enforcement of the order, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall issue an order confirming the order of the issuing tribunal.
4. Confirmation of a registered order, whether by operation of law or after notice and hearing, precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted at the time of registration. [TCR 08-79]

REGISTRATION OF FOREIGN CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS FOR MODIFICATION

12-564 Registration Child Support Order for Modification. A party or the WTN-CSEP seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a child support order issued in another tribe or state shall register that order in the Winnebago Tribal Court in the same manner provided in Section 12-558 of this Article if the order has not been registered. A petition for modification may be filed at the same time as a request for registration, or later. The pleading must specify the grounds for modification. The Winnebago Tribal Court may enforce a child support order of another tribe or state registered for purposes of modification, in the same manner as if the order had been issued by the Tribal Court, but the registered order may be modified only if the requirements of this Section and Section 12-565 have been met. [TCR 08-79]

12-565 Modification of Child Support Order of Another Tribe or State.

1. After a child support order issued in another tribe or state has been registered in the Winnebago Tribal Court, the Tribal Court may modify that order after notice and hearing, it finds that:
 - a. The following requirements are met:
 - i. The child, the individual obligee, and the obligor do not reside within the exterior boundaries of the issuing tribe or state;
 - ii. A petitioner who is a nonresident of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska seeks modification; and
 - iii. The respondent is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska; or

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

- b. The child, or a party who is an individual, is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribal Court and all of the parties who are individuals have filed written consents in the issuing tribunal for the Winnebago Tribal Court to modify the support order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the order. However, if the issuing tribe or state is a foreign jurisdiction that has not enacted a law or established procedures substantially similar to the procedures in this Article, the consent otherwise required of an individual residing within the external boundaries of the Winnebago Reservation is not required for the Winnebago Tribal Court to assume jurisdiction to modify the child support order.
2. Modification of a registered child support order is subject to the same requirements, procedures, and defenses that apply to the modification of an order issued by the Winnebago Tribal Court and the order may be enforced and satisfied in the same manner.
3. On issuance of an order modifying a child support order issued in another tribe or state, the Winnebago Tribal Court becomes the tribunal of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.
4. The Winnebago Tribal Court shall recognize a modification of its earlier child support order by a tribunal of another tribe or state which assumed jurisdiction under the Full Faith and Credit for Child Support Orders Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1538B and, upon request, except as otherwise provided in this Article, shall:
 - a. Enforce the order that was modified only as to amounts accruing before the modification;
 - b. Enforce only nonmodifiable aspects of that order;
 - c. Provide other appropriate relief only for violations of that order which occurred before the effective date of the modification; and
 - d. Recognize the modifying order of the other tribe or state, upon registration, for the purpose of enforcement.
5. If all of the parties who are individuals reside within the external boundaries of the Winnebago Reservation and the child does not reside in the issuing tribe or state, the Winnebago Tribal Court has jurisdiction to enforce and to modify the issuing tribe's or state's child support order in a proceeding to register that order. The Winnebago Tribal Court exercising jurisdiction as provided in this Section shall apply the Full Faith and Credit for Child Support Orders Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1538B to the enforcement or modification proceeding, and the Court shall apply the procedural and substantive law of this Tribe.

Within 30 days after issuance of a modified child support order, the party obtaining the modification shall file a certified copy of the order with the issuing tribunal that had continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the earlier order, and in each tribunal in which the party knows the earlier order has been registered. A party who obtains the order and fails to file a certified copy is subject to appropriate sanctions by a tribunal in which the issue of failure to file arises. The failure to file does not affect the validity or enforceability of the modified order of the new tribunal having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction. [TCR 08-79]

12-566 Application of the Winnebago Child Support Act. This Act shall govern all child support proceedings commenced after the effective date of this Act. [TCR 08-79]

12-567 Transferring of a Foreign Child Support or Custody Case. A support or custody case of another tribe or state may be transferred to the Winnebago Tribal Court if at least one of the parties or one of the children in the case is an enrolled member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. The following documents and information must be filed in the Winnebago Tribal Court:

1. A properly filed Motion to accept the transfer of the case with proper notice to all parties. The notice must be sent by United States Mail, with sufficient first class postage affixed, to the parties last known address. Proper notice must inform the parties of the following:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

- a. That a transferred case is enforceable as of the date of acceptance by the Winnebago Tribal Court;
 - b. That a transferred case is enforceable in the same manner as a case that originated in the Winnebago Tribal Court;
 - c. That a hearing to contest the acceptance of the transfer of a case must be requested in writing and filed with the Winnebago Tribal Court within 20 days of the filing of the Motion;
 - d. That failure to contest the acceptance of the transfer of a case within the required time frame will result in the acceptance of said case by the Winnebago Tribal Court and precludes further contest of that case with respect to any matter that could have been asserted;
 - e. The name of the child or children for which paternity was established;
 - f. The current support obligation if any; and
 - g. The amount of any alleged arrears if any.
2. A certified copy of the order transferring the case to the Winnebago Tribal Court from the transferring tribe or state.
 3. Two copies including one certified copy of all orders including any modifications of an order.
 4. A sworn statement by the party seeking registration or a certified statement by the custodian of the records showing the amount of any arrearage. [TCR 14-86]

12-568 Effect of Accepting a Transferred a Case. A support or custody case from another tribe or state that is properly transferred to the Winnebago Tribal Court becomes a Winnebago Tribal Court case. The jurisdiction of the transferring tribe or state terminates upon the Winnebago Tribal Court's acceptance of the transfer. A transferred case is enforceable in the same manner and is subject to the same procedures as an order issued by the Winnebago Tribal Court. A transferred case can be modified in the same manner as an order issued by the Winnebago Tribal Court. [TCR 14-86]

12-569 Notice of Acceptance of Transferred Case. When a case from another tribe or state has been transferred and accepted by the Winnebago Tribal Court, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall notify the parties and the transferring tribe or state that the Winnebago Tribal Court has accepted the transferred case. The notice must be accompanied by a copy of the transferred case's order or orders and any modifications of said order or orders. [TCR 14-86]

12-570 Procedure to Contest the Acceptance of a Transferred Case. Any named party in the transferred case may seek to contest acceptance of the transferred case. A party wishing to contest the acceptance of the transfer of a case must:

1. File a written objection with the Winnebago Tribal Court
2. This written objection must be filed within 20 days of the filing of the Motion
3. If any party fails to contest the transfer of the case in a timely manner the case will be accepted by the Winnebago Tribal Court.
4. If a party files a written objection with the Winnebago Tribal Court in a timely manner, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall schedule the matter for hearing and give notice to the parties of the date, time and location of the hearing. [TCR 14-86]

12-571 Burden on Party Contesting the Transfer of a Case.

1. A party contesting the transfer of a case from another tribe or state has the burden of proving one or more of the following defenses:
 - a. The issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction over the contesting party;
 - b. The order was obtained by fraud;
 - c. The order has been vacated, suspended, or modified by a later order;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 12 ARTICLE 5

- d. The issuing tribunal has stayed the order pending appeal;
 - e. There is a defense under the laws or policy of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska to the remedy sought;
 - f. Full or partial payment has been made;
 - g. The statute of limitation precludes enforcement of some or all the arrearages.
2. If a party presents evidence establishing a full or partial defense under this Section, the Winnebago Tribal Court may stay the acceptance of the case, continue the proceedings to permit production of additional relevant evidence, and issue other appropriate orders. An uncontested portion of the transferred case may be accepted and may be enforced by all remedies available under Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska's laws.
 3. If the contesting party does not establish a defense to the transfer of the case under this Section, the Winnebago Tribal Court shall issue an order accepting the transfer of the case.
 4. Acceptance of a transferred case whether by operation of law or after a hearing precludes further contest of the case with respect to any matter that could have been asserted at the time of the acceptance of the transfer. [TCR 14-86]

The Winnebago Tribal Court shall have the authority to appoint executors and administrators, determine heirs, determine the validity of wills, and to probate and distribute the estates and wills of any member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska with respect to property located on the reservation except as to trust or restricted land subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.
2. The United States Department of Interior Office of Hearings and Appeals shall have the authority to appoint executors and administrators, determine heirs, determine the validity of wills, and to probate and distribute the estates and will of any member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska with respect to trust or restricted land on the reservation in accordance with the requirements of this Code. [TCR 03-192]

14-102 General definitions. The following words have the meanings given below when used in this Title 14, unless a different meaning is apparent from the context:

1. “Reservation” means all the territory within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Indian reservation (including Flowers Island and other Tribal land located east of the Missouri River) as set forth in the Winnebago Treaty of March 9, 1965 (14 Stat. 67 1) and the twenty (20) sections included in the strip purchased in Nebraska for Wisconsin Winnebagos (18 Stat . 170), June 22, 1874 and such lands as may be added thereto by Congress or the Tribe or reaffirmation of the title of lands through the courts to the Tribe, otherwise provided by law. This definition of reservation includes all rights-of-way, waterways, streams, lakes, highways, railroad rights-of-way, mineral rights, etc.
2. “Tribal member” means a member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.
3. “Tribe” means the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.
4. “Tribal Court” means the Court of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.
5. “Trust real estate” or “trust land” means land held in trust by the United States Government for the benefit of the Tribe or a member of the Tribe.
6. Children and issue include adopted children, both legally and the traditional way of adoption and children of unwed parents where the Tribal Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction determines that paternity has been acknowledged or established. [TCR 03-192]

14-103 Evidence as to death or status. In proceedings under this Title 14, the Rules of Evidence in civil procedure, including any relating to simultaneous deaths, are applicable unless specifically displaced by this Title 14. In addition, the following rules relating to determination of death or status are applicable:

1. A certified or authenticated copy of a death certificate purporting to be issued by an official or agency of the place where the death purportedly occurred is prima facie proof of the fact, place, date and time of death and the identity of the decedent;
2. A certified or authenticated copy of any record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that a person is missing, detained, dead, or alive is prima facie evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances and places disclosed by the record or report;
3. A person who is absent for a continuous period of seven years, during which he/she has not been heard from, and whose absence is not satisfactorily explained after diligent search or inquiry is presumed to be dead. His/her death is presumed to have occurred at the end of the period unless there is sufficient evidence for determining that death occurred earlier. [TCR 03-192]

14-104 Records. The clerk of the Tribal Court shall keep a file for each decedent’s estate of all the documents filed with the Court pursuant to this Title 14. Upon payment of the fees required by law, the clerk must issue certified copies of any probated wills, letters issued to personal representatives, or any other record or paper filed, or recorded. The certificates relating to letters must show the date of appointment. [TCR 03-192]

14-105 Oaths. Except as otherwise provided in this Title 14, every document filed with the clerk pursuant to this Title 14 shall be deemed to include an oath to the effect that the representations are true to the best knowledge, information and belief of the person subscribing and signing the document. Deliberate falsifications of such documents shall subject the individual to penalties of perjury. [TCR 03-192]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 14 ARTICLE 1

14-106 Notices. Whenever notice of a hearing on any petition or other probate document or matter is required and except for specific notice requirements otherwise provided, proper notice of the time and place of any hearing to be given to any interested person or his/her attorney shall be given as follows:

1. By mailing a true copy of said notice together with the supporting documents at least fourteen days prior to the time fixed for hearing by first class mail addressed to the person to be notified or his/her attorney at the last known post office address given for either, or at his/her last known office or place of residence, or
2. By delivering a true copy thereof to the person to be notified at least fourteen days prior to the date fixed for hearing.
3. If the address or identity of any such person is not known and cannot by the exercise of reasonable diligence be ascertained, notice shall be given by (a) posting a copy of such notice in at least three conspicuous public places on the reservation, such places to be fixed by the Tribal Court for the purpose of posting public notices, for at least fourteen (14) days prior to the time fixed for hearing; and (b) by publishing at least once a week for three consecutive weeks a copy of such notice in a legal newspaper having a general circulation on the reservation, the last publication of which is to be at least three days before the time set for hearing.

Proof of the giving of such notice shall be made by affidavit by the person accomplishing the posting or mailing or personal service and shall be filed with the Court at or prior to the time fixed for hearing. An interested person may waive notice or any other requirement for the mailing on receipt of instrument by a writing signed by him/her or his/her attorney and filed in the proceeding. [TCR 03-192]

14-107 Renunciation of inheritance. Any person who is an heir, devisee, legatee, or beneficiary under a testamentary instrument or under the laws of intestate succession may renounce in whole or in part his/her inheritance or interest by filing with the Court written instrument verified under oath at any time prior to the entry of a decree of distribution. Upon such proper renouncement, the interest renounced passes as if the person renouncing it predeceased the decedent. [TCR 03-192]

14-108 Effect of divorce, annulment, or decree of separation. Any person who is divorced from the decedent or whose marriage to the decedent has been annulled is not a surviving spouse unless by virtue of a subsequent marriage he/she is married to the decedent at the time of death. A decree of separation which does not terminate the marital status of husband and wife shall not be considered a divorce for inheritance purposes. [TCR 03-192]

14-109 Effect of fraud and evasion. Whenever fraud has been perpetrated in connection with any proceeding or in any statement filed under this Title 14 or if fraud is used to void or circumvent the provisions or purposes of this Title 14, any person injured thereby may obtain appropriate relief against the perpetrator of the fraud or restitution from any person (other than a bona fide purchaser) benefiting from the fraud, whether innocent or not. Any proceeding must be commenced within two years after the discovery of the fraud, but no proceeding may be brought against one not a perpetrator of the fraud later than five years after the time of commission of the fraud. This Section has no bearing on remedies relating to fraud practiced on a decedent during his/her lifetime which affects the succession of his/her estate. [TCR 03-192]

14-110 Disqualification of a willful slayer. Any surviving spouse, heir, devisee, surviving joint tenant, beneficiary of a bond, life insurance policy, or other testamentary device who criminally and intentionally kills the decedent is not entitled to any benefit under a will or under this Title 14 or any other law of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska regarding decedent's estate, and the estate of such decedent will pass as if the killer had predeceased the decedent. A final judgment of conviction of an offense containing the elements of criminal intentional killing is conclusive for the purpose of this Section. In the absence of a conviction, the Court may determine by a preponderance of the evidence whether the killing was criminal and intentional for purposes of this Section. [TCR 03-192]

14-111 Petition for appointment of administrator or executor. Whenever a member of the Winnebago Tribe dies with or without a will leaving property on the reservation which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribal Court, any person claiming to be an heir of the decedent or a creditor of the decedent may petition the Court for appointment of an administrator or executor of the decedent and for admission for probate of any instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of the decedent and for distribution of the property. The petition shall state the names and last known addresses of all persons known to the petitioner who may be heirs, devisees, or legatees of the decedent; shall request that a hearing date be fixed on the question of appointment of an administrator or executor of the estate; shall request that notice to creditors be given; shall establish the interest of the petitioner in the estate; shall submit with the petition the purported instrument alleged to be the last will and testament of the deceased, and shall request that notice of hearing be given. Upon the request of such petition, the Court shall fix a time and place for hearing and shall order that persons named in the petition be given notice as provided by this Title 14. [TCR 03-192]

14-112 Priorities of appointment. The following persons, legally competent, shall be afforded priority in order of their listing for appointment as administrator or executor:

1. Any person nominated in the last will and testament of the deceased.
2. The surviving spouse.
3. Children in descending order of age.
4. Other blood relatives in the order of their closeness of relationship.
5. Any other Tribal member who is a creditor of the deceased.
6. Any other Tribal member. [TCR 03-192]

14-113 Duties of administrator or executor. The duties of the administrator or executor shall be to take possession of all property of the deceased subject to this Title 14 and within one month after his/her appointment make an inventory and appraisal of such property and file the original with the Court and mail copies thereof to all persons named in the petition. Such administrator or executor shall within sixty days investigate and attempt to determine and file with the Court a report listing all of the known relatives of the decedent and heirs and devisees who, in the opinion of the executor or administrator, are entitled to distribution of the decedent's estate. The executor or administrator shall give notice to creditors as provided elsewhere in this Title 14, and upon completion of the notice to creditors, shall report to the Court on the amount and nature of each creditor's claim and recommend to the Court with reference to each claim whether or not the same should be allowed and paid. The executor or administrator shall prosecute and defend all actions by and against the estate and shall have the authority to institute actions for the purpose of recovering assets of the decedent's estate. In addition, the executor or administrator shall submit accountings to the Court in accordance with this Title 14, and upon the completion of his/her duties shall distribute the estate in accordance with any order of the Court. The executor or administrator shall file a bond in an amount set by the Court to insure his/her faithful and honest performance of his/her duties as administrator with such sureties as the Court may require. Said bond may be waived by the Court with the consent of the persons entitled to distribution of the decedent's estate or if waived by the decedent's will. [TCR 03-192]

14-114 Oath and letters of appointment. Upon his/her appointment as administrator or executor, the person appointed shall take an oath subscribed to the effect that he/she will faithfully and honestly perform the duties of the administrator or executor. Upon the taking of such oath and filing of the bond, if any, the administrator or executor shall be granted letters of administration or letters of testamentary as proof of his/her appointment. [TCR 03-192]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 14 ARTICLE 1

14-115 Notice to creditors. The administrator or executor of the estate shall cause notice to creditors to be posted in at least three conspicuous places on the reservation at the places designated by the Tribal Court. Said notice shall state that an administrator or executor has been appointed for the estate of the decedent and that any person claiming to be a creditor of the decedent shall have ninety (90) days from the date of the first posting of said notice to present their claim to the clerk of the Tribal Court and that only those claims which are timely presented shall be paid by the estate. Notice by mailing as otherwise provided by this Title 14 shall also be given to any creditor actually known to be such by the administrator or executor. No creditor who holds a security interest in any asset of the decedent's estate shall be required to file a claim in order to be paid. [TCR 03-192]

14-116 Priority of payment of demands against the estate. Where any lien for any demand or claim exists by virtue of a mortgage, pledge, attachment, judgment or execution levy, such lien shall have preference according to its priority to the extent of such demand on any specific property upon which such lien shall have attached. Otherwise, all demands against the estate of any deceased person must be paid in the following order:

1. The expenses of administration;
2. Funeral expenses including the reasonable cost of a burial lot and a reasonable sum for the marker on the grave;
3. The expenses of last illness;
4. Tribal loans;
5. Any debt that may be due by the decedent personally to servants and employees for services rendered within sixty (60) days preceding the decedent's death;
6. Debts having preference by the laws of the United States;
7. All other claims.

If the estate is insufficient to pay all of the debts of any one class, each creditor must be paid pro-rata in proportion to his/her claim, and no creditor of any class shall receive any payment until all of those of the preceding class are paid in full. If the executor or administrator disputes the amount or validity of any claim filed against the estate, he/she shall report the same to the Court who shall fix a time and place for hearing on the validity of such claim, and notice as provided by this Title 14 shall be given to the creditor or claimant. At the time and place fixed for such hearing, the Court shall determine the extent and validity of the claim and shall enter an appropriate order, either allowing or discarding said claim. [TCR 03-192]

14-117 Distribution of property if no taker. If there is no person available to take all or any portion of the decedent's estate, then the property shall pass to the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. [TCR 03-192]

14-118 Restrictions on interests.

1. Pursuant to the Indian Land Consolidation Act (25 U.S.C.S., section 2205), non-members of the Tribe or non-Indians shall not be entitled to receive by devise or descent any interest in trust or restricted lands within that Tribe's reservation or otherwise subject to that Tribe's jurisdiction; provided that:
 - a. If an Indian dies intestate, the surviving non-Indian or non-member spouse and/or children may elect to receive a life estate in as much of the trust or restricted lands as such person or persons would have been entitled to take in the absence of such restriction eligibility for inheritance and the remainder shall vest in the Indians or Tribal members who would have been heirs in the absence of a qualified person taking a life estate;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 14 ARTICLE 1

- b. If an intestate Indian decedent has no heir to whom interests in trust or restricted lands may pass, such interests shall escheat to the Tribe, subject to any non-Indian or non-member spouse and/or children's rights as described in paragraph (1) of this Section;
 - c. If an Indian decedent has devised interests in trust or restricted lands to persons who are ineligible for such an inheritance by reason of a Tribal ordinance enacted pursuant to this Section, the devise shall be voided only if, while the estate is pending before the Secretary for probate, the Tribe acquires such interests by paying to the Secretary, on behalf of the devisees, the fair market value of such interests as determined by the Secretary as of the date of the decedent's death; provided, that any non-Indian or non-member spouse and/or children of such decedent who have been devised such interests may retain, at their option, a life estate in such interests. Any eligible devisee shall also have the right to renounce his/her devise in favor of a person or persons who are eligible to inherit.
2. The right to receive a life estate under the provisions of this Section shall be limited to:
- a. A spouse and/or children who, if they had been eligible, would have inherited an ownership interest of 10 per centum or more in the tract of land, provided that the Tribe acquires such interests which are less than 10 per centum in the tract of land by paying to the Secretary, on behalf of the devisees, the fair market value of such interests as determined by the Secretary as of the date of the decedent's death; or
 - b. A spouse and/or children who occupied the tract as a home at the time of decedent's death. [TCR 03-192]

14-119 Status of heirs. No person is disqualified to take as an heir because he/she or any person through whom he/she claims is not a member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska or because he/she does not live on the reservation. [TCR 03-192]

14-120 Debts owed to the decedent. No debt owed to the decedent is charged against the share of any person except the debtor. [TCR 03-192]

14-121 Reopening of estates. Any estate may be reopened whenever necessary to dispose of decedent's property discovered after the estate has been closed or to make other necessary corrections. [TCR 03-192]

14-122 Rule of interpretation. In any question arising under the provisions of this Title 14 the Tribal Court shall apply the general principles of probate as announced in the statutory rules of the State of Nebraska except where such rules conflict with specific enactments of this Title 14 or other enactments of the Tribal Code. [TCR 03-192]

14-123 Construction. This Title 14 shall be liberally construed and applied so as to do substantial justice. [TCR 03-192]

14-124 Severability. If any provisions of this Title 14 or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Title 14 which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Title 14 are declared to be severable. [TCR 03-192]

14-125 Citation. This Title 14 shall be known as the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Probate Code. [TCR 03-192]

14-126 Who may make a will. Any person eighteen or more years of age who is of sound mind may make a will. [TCR 03-192]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 14 ARTICLE 1

14-127 Execution. Except as provided for holographic wills, every will shall be in writing signed by the testator or in the testator's name by some other person in the testator's presence and by his/her direction, and shall be signed by at least two persons each of whom witnessed either the signing or the testator's acknowledgment of the signature or of the will. [TCR 03-192]

14-128 Holographic will. A will which does not comply with the next preceding section is valid as a holographic will, whether or not witnessed, if the signature and the material provisions are in the handwriting of the testator. [TCR 03-192]

14-129 Self-proved will. An attested will may, at the time of its execution or at any subsequent date, be made self-proved, by the acknowledgement thereof by the testator and the affidavits of the witnesses, each made before a notary public or Tribal judge and evidenced by the notary or judge's certificate under official seal, attached or annexed to the will in form and content substantially as follows: Forms for self-proved wills shall be provided at the Tribal Court. 14-130 Who may witness.

1. Any person generally competent to be a witness may act as a witness to a will.
2. A will or any provision thereof is not invalid because the will is signed by an interested witness. [TCR 03-192]

14-131 Choice of law as to execution. A written will is valid if executed in compliance with this Probate Code or if its execution complies with the law at the time of execution of the place where the will is executed, or of the law of the place where at the time of execution or at the time of death the testator is domiciled or has a place of abode. [TCR 03-192]

14-132 Revocation by writing or by act a will or any part thereof is revoked.

1. By a subsequent will which revokes the prior will in whole or in part expressly or by inconsistency; or
2. By being burned, torn, canceled, obliterated, or destroyed with the intent and for the purpose in his/her presence and by his/her direction. [TCR 03-192]

14-133 Revocation by divorce; no revocation by other changes of circumstances. If, after executing a will, the testator is divorced or has his/her marriage annulled, the divorce or annulment revokes any disposition or appointment of property made by the will to the former spouse, any provision conferring a general or special power of appointment on the former spouse and any nomination of the former spouse as executor, trustee, conservator, or guardian, unless the will expressly provides otherwise. Property prevented from passing to a former spouse because of revocation by divorce or annulment passes as if the former spouse failed to survive the decedent, and other provisions conferring some power or office on the former spouse are interpreted as if the spouse failed to survive the decedent. If provisions are revoked solely by this Section, they are revived by testator's remarriage to the former spouse. A decree of separation which does not terminate the status of husband and wife is not a divorce for purposes of this Section. No change of circumstances other than as described in this Section revokes a will. [TCR 03-192]

14-134 Revival of revoked will.

1. If a second will which, had it remained effective at death, would have revoked the first will in whole or in part, is thereafter revoked, the first will is revoked in whole or in part unless it is evident from the circumstances of the revocation of the second will or from testator's contemporary or subsequent declarations that he/she intended the first will to take effect as executed.
2. If a second will which, had it remained effective at death, would have revoked the first will in whole or in part, is thereafter revoked by a third will, the first will is revoked in whole or in part except to the extent it appears from the terms of the third will that the testator intended the first will to take effect. [TCR 03-192]

14-135 Incorporation by reference. Any writing in existence when a will is executed may be incorporated by reference if the language of the will manifests this intent and describes the writing sufficiently to permit its identification. [TCR 03-192]

14-136 Events of independent significance. A will may dispose of property by reference to acts and events which have significance apart from their effect upon the dispositions made by the will, whether they occur before or after the execution of the will or before or after the testator's death. The execution or revocation of a will of another person is such an event. [TCR 03-192]

14-137 Requirement that devisee survive testator by one hundred hours. A devisee who does not survive the testator by one hundred (100) hours is treated as if he/she predeceased the testator, unless the will of the decedent contains some language dealing explicitly with simultaneous deaths or deaths in a common disaster, or requiring that the devisee survive the testator or survive the testator for a stated number of days. [TCR 03-192]

14-138 Simultaneous death.

1. Where the title of property or the devolution thereof depends upon priority of death and there is no sufficient evidence that the persons have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property of each person shall be disposed of as if he had survived, except as provided otherwise.
2. Where two or more beneficiaries are designated to take successively by reason of survivorship under another person's disposition of property and there is no sufficient evidence that these beneficiaries have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property thus disposed of shall be divided into as many equal portions as there are successive beneficiaries, and these portions shall be distributed respectively to those who would have taken in the event that each designated beneficiary had survived.
3. Where there is no sufficient evidence that two joint tenants by the entirety have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property so held shall be distributed one-half as if one had survived and one-half as if the other had survived. If there are more than two joint tenants and all of them have so died, the property thus distributed shall be in the proportion that one bears to the whole number of joint tenants.
4. Where the insured and the beneficiary in a policy of life or accident insurance have died and there is no sufficient evidence that they have died otherwise than simultaneously, the proceeds of the policy shall be distributed as if the insured had survived the beneficiary.
5. Those provisions on simultaneous death shall not apply in cases where the decedent has made provision for a different distribution in a will, trust, deed or contract of insurance. [TCR 03-192]

14-139 Rules of construction and intention. The intention of a testator as expressed in his/her will controls the legal effect of his/her dispositions. The rules of construction expressed in the succeeding sections of this Probate Code apply unless a contrary intention is indicated by the will. [TCR 03-192]

14-140 Construction that will passes all property; after-acquired property. A will is construed to pass all property which the testator owns at his/her death, including property acquired after the execution of the will. [TCR 03-192]

14-141 Anti-lapse; deceased devisee; class gifts. If a devisee who is a grandparent or a lineal descendant of a grandparent of the testator is dead at the time of execution of the will, fails to survive the testator, the issue of the deceased devisee who survive the testator by one hundred (100) hours take in place of the deceased devisee, and if they are all of the same degree of kinship to the devisee, they take equally; but if of unequal degree, then those of more remote degree take by representation. One who would have been a devisee under a class gift if he/she had survived the testator is treated as a devisee for purposes of this Section his/her death occurred before or after the execution of the will. [TCR 03-192]

14-142 Failure of testamentary provision.

1. Except as provided in the next proceeding section, if a devisee other than a residuary any reason, it becomes part of the residue.
2. Except as provided in the next proceeding section, if the residue is devised to two or the share of one of the residuary devisees fails for any reason, his/her share passes to the other residuary devisees in proportion to their interests in the residue. [TCR 03-192]

14-143 Exercise of power of appointment. A general residuary clause in a will, or a will making general disposition of all of the testator unless specific reference is made to the power or there is another indication of intention to include the property subject to the power. [TCR 03-192]

The allowance may be paid in a lump sum or in periodic installments. It is payable to the surviving spouse, if living, for the use of the surviving spouse and minor and dependent children; otherwise, to the children or persons having their care and custody as their needs may appear. The family allowance is exempt from and has priority over all claims except for the homestead allowance. If, upon such hearing, the Court finds that such Estate is an exempt Estate, the Court shall enter an order directing the Personal Representative to distribute such Estate to the surviving spouse and/or the minor children of the Decedent as set forth in the order and provide that no further proceedings are necessary and that, upon distributing the distributive share or shares of such Estate to those entitled thereto and filing receipts therefore, the Estate shall be closed.  - a. The petition shall contain his/her objections and exceptions to the will. Issues addressing the competency of the deceased and his/her ability to make a last will and testament, or respecting the execution by the deceased of the last will and testament under restraint or undue influence or fraudulent representations, or for any other cause affecting the validity of the will or a part of it shall be tried and determined by the Court.
 - b. If no person raises such objections within the one-hundred twenty days (120) days stated above, the approval of the Probate or rejection of such shall be binding and final.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 14

2. Notice of Contest. Upon filing a contest, a notice shall be issued to the Personal Representative of the Decedent's Estate, and to all Heirs at law, Legatees named in the will, or to their guardians if any of them are Minors, or their Personal Representatives if any of them are dead, requiring them to appear before the Court, on a day therein specified, to show cause why the petition should not be granted.
3. Burden of Proof. In any will contest proceedings, the burden of proof shall rest upon the person contesting the Court's previous order. The Court's previous order shall stand unless the person contesting it provides clear and convincing evidence to the contrary.
4. Court orders following Hearing on Contest. If a Court finds that a petitioner has proven with clear and convincing evidence that the previous order of the Court accepting or rejecting a will in whole or in part or a finding that the Decedent died Intestate was in error, the Court shall issue a new order reflecting the evidentiary findings made following the contest proceedings. The new order may accept or reject a will, in whole or in part, may find that the Decedent dies Intestate, and may amend the letters of appointment of the Personal Representative for the Estate.
5. Costs. In a contest proceeding, assessment of costs shall be in the discretion of the Court. If the contestant is not successful, the Court may assess the costs against the contestant, including, unless it appears that the contestant acted with probable cause and in good faith, such reasonable attorney fees as the Court may deem proper. [TCR 14-124]

14-114 Abatement.

1. Except as provided in subsection 14-114.2, shares of distributees abate, without any preference or priority as between Non-Trust and Non-Restricted Real Property or Personal Property, in the following order:
 - a. Property not disposed of by the will.
 - b. Residuary devises.
 - c. General devises.
 - d. Specific devises.

For purposes of abatement, a general devise charged on any specific property or fund is a specific devise to the extent of the value of the property on which it is charged, and upon the failure or insufficiency. Abatement within each classification is in proportion to the amounts of property each of the beneficiaries would have received if full distribution of the property had been made in accordance with the terms of the will.

2. If the will expresses an order of abatement, or if the testimony plan or the express or implied purpose of the devise would be defeated by the order of abatement stated in Section 14-114.1, the shares of the distributees abate as may be found necessary to give effect to the intention of testator.
3. If the subject of a preferred devise is sold or used incident to administration, abatement shall be achieved by appropriate adjustments in, or contribution from other interests in the remaining asset. [TCR 14-124]

14-115 Disqualification of a Willful Slayer. Any surviving spouse, heir, Devisee, surviving joint tenant, beneficiary of a bond, life insurance policy, or other testamentary devise who is found criminally responsible for the death of the Decedent is not entitled to any benefit under a will or under this Title 14

TITLE 14

or any other law of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska regarding Decedent's Estate, and the Estate of such Decedent will pass as if the killer had predeceased the Decedent. A final judgment of conviction of an offense containing the elements of criminal intentional killing is conclusive for the purpose of this Section. [TCR 14-124]

14-116 Waiver of Right to Elect and of Other Rights.

1. The right of election of a surviving spouse and the right of the surviving spouse to a homestead allowance, exempt property, and family allowance, or any of them, may be waived wholly or partially, before or after marriage, by a written contract, agreement, or waiver signed by the surviving spouse.
2. A surviving spouse's waiver is not enforceable if the surviving spouse proves that:
 - a. he or she did not execute the waiver voluntarily;
 - b. the waiver was unconscionable when it was executed and, before execution of the waiver, he or she:
 - i. was not provided a fair and reasonable disclosure of the property or financial obligations of the Decedent;
 - ii. did not voluntarily and expressly waive, in writing, any right to disclosure of the property or financial obligations of the Decedent.
3. The issue of unconscionability of a waiver is for decision by the Winnebago Tribal Court as a matter of law.
4. Unless it provides to the contrary, a waiver of "all rights," or equivalent language, in the property or Estate of a present or prospective spouse or a complete property settlement entered into after or in anticipation of separation, divorce, or annulment is a waiver of all rights to elective share, homestead allowance, exempt property, and family allowance by each spouse in the property of the other and a renunciation by each of all benefits that would otherwise pass to him or her from the other by intestate succession or by virtue of any will executed before the waiver or property settlement. [TCR 14-124]

14-117 General Provisions.

1. Effective Date. After duly approved by the Tribal Council this Title shall be forwarded to the Secretary for approval. This Title shall become effective one-hundred eighty (180) days after the date it is approved by the Secretary.
2. Severability. If any section, clause, or provision of this Code, or its application to any person or circumstance is declared invalid for any reason by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of the Code or application to any other person or circumstance shall still be valid and in effect. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND PURPOSE

| | | | |
|--------|--|--------|---|
| 15-101 | Sovereign Power to Regulate. | 15-106 | Illegality of State Tax Collection by Utilities. |
| 15-102 | Critical Need for Utility Regulation on Reservation. | 15-107 | Benefits Provided by Tribal Government to Utilities. |

| | | 15-111 | Explicit and implicit Intention for State Law Preemption. |

15-101 Sovereign Power to Regulate. The power to regulate utilities is an inherent and essential part of the authority of any reservation tribal government. The power is therefore an aspect of the retained sovereignty of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska except where it has been limited or withdrawn by federal law. Services, rates, policies, procedures and practices of utilities operating within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Reservation have a demonstrable impact upon the political integrity, economic security, and health and welfare of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. Tribal regulation of utilities operating within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Reservation is an essential government function of the Winnebago Tribe. The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska is the only sovereign with authority to exercise civil regulatory jurisdiction within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Reservation.

The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska is a sovereign Indian tribe organized under a constitution and bylaws ratified by the Tribe on February 29, 1936, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on April 3, 1936, pursuant to section 16 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), as amended by the Act of June 15, 1934 (49 Stat. 378). Pursuant to Article III of the Constitution of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, as amended, the Winnebago Tribal Council is the governing body of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. This Title is enacted pursuant to the inherent sovereign tribal powers expressly delegated to the Tribal Council in Article IV, Section 1, Subsections (g), (i), (o), (q), and (r) of the Tribal Constitution. This Title seeks to establish a structure for the many growing and future utilities-providing entities on the Reservation. [TCR 07-53]

15-102 Critical Need for Utility Regulation on Reservation. As both Indian and non-Indian populations within the boundaries of the Reservation increase, and as additional residential, commercial, government and agricultural activities multiply, the need for adequate utility regulations concomitantly increases. Inasmuch as the Reservation is checker boarded with trust and non-trust land, and as trust land and non-trust land are crisscrossed by utility lines, pipelines, rail lines, and rights-of-way of utilities and entities, the Tribe, tribal members and nonmembers have a critical need for the Tribe to regulate and coordinate all utilities and entities providing utility services within the Reservation. [TCR 07-53]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 15 ARTICLE 1

15-103 Demonstrably Serious Impacts of Utility Activities upon Economic Security, Health and Welfare of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska and Winnebago Tribal Members. The rural nature of the Reservation and particular needs of the residents and businesses residing on the Reservation all present a compelling and urgent need for a seamless regulatory structure. Those particular needs stem from the following Reservation characteristics:

1. Many homes of Tribal members, particularly government financed homes, are “all electric,” that is, heated solely by electricity;
2. The health and the lives of many elderly and ill Tribal members and non-members are at risk during harsh winter and summer months;
3. The high cost of electricity within the Reservation;
4. The need to minimize and stabilize the high cost of electricity to the Tribe, Tribal members and non-members and to economic enterprises owned by the Tribe and Tribal members;
5. The urgency of minimizing and stabilizing cost of electricity to attract new and expanded investment and business on the Reservation; and
6. The absolute necessity of adequate and reliable electricity for critical medical procedures and treatments received by ill persons on the Reservation.

These reasons, amongst others, all demonstrate the serious impacts of utility services upon the economic security, health, and welfare of the Tribe and Tribal members. [TCR 07-53]

15-104 State Jurisdiction and Regulation Not Applicable within Winnebago Reservation. The State of Nebraska lacks jurisdiction to regulate utilities within the Reservation and any attempted imposition of state regulation of such utilities manifestly interferes with the right of the Tribe and Tribal members to make their own laws and be ruled by them. Moreover, utility regulation is preempted by the Tribe and federal government with respect to all HUD homes of Tribal members, other homes and businesses of Tribal members financed in whole or in part by the Tribe or the federal government, all Tribal buildings, facilities and businesses of the Tribe financed in whole or in part by the Tribe or the federal government or all Bureau of Indian Affairs or other federally owned or operated buildings. [TCR 07-53]

15-105 Finding of Consensual Relations between Utilities Operating Within Reservation and the Tribe, Tribal Members and Non-Members of Tribe. The Council finds that every utility that enters and operates within the Reservation, enters into consensual relations, commercial dealings and contracts with residents of the Reservation, Indian and non-Indian, and with the Tribe, to provide services, operate facilities, construct and erect pipelines, transmission lines, poles, towers, and other improvements upon and across the Reservation lands owned by Indians, non-Indians and the Tribe. The Council further finds that the services, rates, policies, procedures and practices of every utility located and operating upon the Reservation have a demonstrably serious impact which imperils the economic security, health, welfare and general well-being of the Tribe, its members, and all residents of the Reservation and that regulation of every such utility by the Tribe is a necessary and proper exercise of the sovereign authority of the Tribe. The Council further finds that regulation of such utilities located, operating or providing services upon the reservation is an essential governmental function of the Tribe and that regulation of every such utility located, operating or providing services upon the Reservation by the State of Nebraska or any municipality or political subdivision of the State is an infringement upon the right of the Tribe to make its own lands and be governed by them and demonstrably imperils the political integrity and right of self-government of the Tribe. [TCR 07-53]

15-106 Illegality of State Tax Collection by Utilities. Any and all state taxes, whether embedded in rates or identified as a line item on retail or commercial utility bills, are illegal as a matter of public policy and law for any and all Indian persons, tribally-owned enterprises and tribal programs located on the Reservation. [TCR 07-53]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 15 ARTICLE 1

15-107 Benefits Provided by Tribal Government to Utilities. Among the numerous benefits provided by the Tribal government to all utilities located, operating or providing services within the Reservation are the following:

1. The provision of governmental services, including sewer and water systems, police and fire protection, clearing and maintenance of approved right-of-ways on trust and allotted lands on the Reservation, and a Tribal court system of general jurisdiction;
2. The promotion and regulation of economic activities within the Tribe's sovereign jurisdiction;
3. The orderly development and protection of the Reservation lands, resources and communities. [TCR 07-53]

15-108 Purpose. The Tribal Council hereby declares it to be in the public interest that all Utilities be regulated as provided by this Title in order to:

1. Inventory and regulate all utility facilities and any and all right of way corridors, encumbrances, and uses on the Reservation;
2. Provide all retail customers of utility services and commodities within the Reservation with adequate and reliable services at reasonable rates, consistent with the financial and economic requirements of such Utilities and their need to construct facilities to provide such services and commodities or otherwise to obtain utility supplies;
3. Avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities which increase costs of service to the consumer and to minimize disputes between Utilities that may result in inconvenience or diminished efficiency in service to such customers;
4. Control rates, connection of service, disconnection of service, reconnection, deposit and overdue payment charges;
5. Prohibit discriminatory or unreasonable preferences or advantages to any consumer or group of consumers by providers of utility services.
6. Promote consistency and a seamless regulatory structure for the Reservation and its residents through exclusive tribal regulation of Utilities. [TCR 07-53]

15-109 Scope of Services to be Regulated.

1. Services to be regulated by the Winnebago Tribe shall initially include electricity, telecommunications, water, wastewater, gas, and heating services.
2. At such time as the Winnebago Tribe shall deem appropriate, the Winnebago Tribe shall extend its active regulatory jurisdiction to other utility services and facilities, as its utility Board shall identify. [TCR 07-53]

15-110 Territory, Persons and Property Affected. To the extent permitted by Tribal and federal law, this Title, including any subsequent amendments and related regulations, and Board regulatory authority shall apply to the Winnebago Reservation, as defined by its historical boundaries under the treaties with the United States signed on March 8, 1865 and June 22, 1874, including, but not limited to, all lands, islands, waters, roads, and bridges, and all interests herein, whether in trust or non-trust status, and such other lands, islands, waters or any interest therein thereafter added to the Reservation, including Thurston and Woodbury Counties. [TCR 07-53]

15-111 Explicit and Implicit Intention for State Law Preemption. The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska has exclusive jurisdiction over utilities or entities operating within or maintaining, or controlling any utility equipment or utility facilities within the Reservation that furnish or seek to furnish at retail price any utility service product or commodity to any consumer. The Tribe, subject solely to the supremacy of federal law, exercises civil regulatory jurisdiction over all residents on the Reservation. In order to provide for the equitable regulation and protection of such utilities, the Tribe, Tribal members and non-members within the Reservation, it is the express intent of the Council that this Title shall preempt any law enacted by the State of Nebraska or local jurisdictions within the State purporting to regulate such utilities located, operating or providing services within the Reservation. 17-217 Cure of default by subordinate lienholder or other lienholder. Any subordinate lienholder or other lienholder who has cured a default shall thereafter have included in its lien the amount of all payments made by such subordinate lienholder or other lienholder to cure the default(s), plus interest on such amounts at the rate stated in the note for the leasehold mortgage or other debt instrument, together with reasonable costs and attorneys' fees. [TCR 08-28]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 15 ARTICLE 1

2. Assigning such lease to the lender or the lender's assignee. [TCR 08-28]

17-219 Sale of premises ordered by Tribal Court. Whenever a petition shall be filed for the foreclosure or satisfaction of a mortgage or other debt instrument, other than a leasehold mortgage, evidencing an interest in real property or improvements, the Tribal Court shall have power to decree a sale of the pledged or mortgaged premises, or such part thereof as may be sufficient to discharge the amount due on the mortgage or other debt instrument, and the cost of suit; provided, however, that no decree of sale shall issue for ninety days following the date on which the debtor received notice of such action. [TCR 08-28]

17-220 Limitation on power of Tribal Court. When a petition shall be filed for the satisfaction of a mortgage or other debt instrument, other than a leasehold mortgage, evidencing an interest in real property or improvements thereto, the Tribal Court shall have the power only to decree and compel the delivery of the possession of the premises or the improvements to the purchaser thereof. Any action to recover a deficiency shall be brought as a separate action at law. [TCR 08-28]

[TCR 08-28]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 17 ARTICLE 1

17-224 Effect of prior judgment. If it shall appear that any judgment has been obtained in a suit at law in a court of competent jurisdiction for the money demanded by such petition, or any part thereof, the Tribal Court may recognize and enter such judgment, provided the same is consistent with applicable Tribal and federal law. In any case where a prior judgment has been obtained, the Tribal Court shall not hear an action unless pursuant to an execution against the property of the defendant in such judgment the Tribal law enforcement officer or other proper officer shall have returned notice that the execution is unsatisfied in whole or in part, and that the defendant has no property whereof to satisfy such execution except the mortgage premises or improvements. [TCR 08-28]

17-225 Sale of premises by Tribal law enforcement officer or Tribal Court officer. All sales of mortgaged premises or other interests in real property, other than a leasehold mortgage; under a decree shall be made by a Tribal law enforcement officer or some other person authorized by the Tribal Court to perform such sale, and, in all cases where a Tribal law enforcement officer shall make such sale, he/she shall act in his/her official capacity as an officer of the Tribal Court. [TCR 08-28]

17-226 Publication and posting of notice of sale. The Tribal Court, in any sale of property valued at more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), shall order publication of the sale. Notice shall be published one day per week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in Thurston County, Nebraska authorized to publish legal notices. In addition, notice of such sale shall be posted in the Tribal administration building continuously for three weeks prior to the date of sale. [TCR 08-28]

17-227 Content of notice. Each notice shall specify the name of the mortgagor and of the mortgagee and of the assignee of the mortgage, if any, and the original principal amount secured by said mortgage; the date of the mortgage and when and where recorded; a statement regarding the trust or restricted status, if any, of the real property, and when and where any leasehold or other interest is recorded; the amount claimed to be due thereon, and taxes, if any, paid by the mortgagee at the date of the notice; a description of the mortgaged premises, conforming substantially to that contained in the mortgage; the time and place of sale; and the time allowed by law for redemption by the mortgagor, his/her personal representative or assigns. [TCR 08-28]

17-228 Transfer of property to purchaser. Following a sale by a Tribal law enforcement officer or other Tribal court-appointed official, deed shall thereupon be executed by such individual, which shall vest in the purchaser the same estate that would have vested in the mortgagee or other lienholder if the equity of redemption had been foreclosed, and no other or greater, and such deeds shall be as valid as if executed by the mortgagor and mortgagee and shall be an entire bar against each of them and all parties to the suit in which the decree for such sale was made, and against their heirs respectively, and all persons claiming under such heirs. [TCR 08-28]

17-229 Application of proceeds to discharge of debt and ownership surplus. The proceeds of every sale made under a decree in equity shall be applied to the discharge of the debt adjudged by the Tribal Court to be due, and of the costs awarded, and, if there be any surplus, it shall be brought into Tribal Court for the use of the defendant or of the persons entitled thereto, subject to the order of the Tribal Court. [TCR 08-28]

17-230 Disposition of unclaimed surplus. If such surplus or any part thereof, shall remain in the Tribal Court for the term of three months without being applied for, the Tribal Court may direct the same to be put out at interest under the direction of the Tribal Court for the benefit of the defendant, his/her representative or assigns, to be paid to them by order of the Tribal Court. [TCR 08-28]

17-231 Cure Period. A petition for foreclosure of any mortgage having remaining interest and principal payments due thereon shall be dismissed by the Tribal Court if the defendant deposits with the

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 17 ARTICLE 1

Court, at any time before the decree of sale is entered, the amount of principal payments due to date and interest due, with costs. [TCR 08-28]

17-232 Stay of proceedings upon payment by defendant of sums due. After a decree of sale is entered against a defendant, the Tribal Court shall stay proceedings under the petition if a defendant deposits with the Court the full amount of principal due to date and interest due, with costs: provided, however, the Tribal Court shall enter a decree of foreclosure and sale to be enforced by further order of the Court in the event the defendant subsequently defaults in the payment of any portion or installment of the principal, or any interest due. [TCR 08-28]

17-233 Sale of premises in parcels. If the defendant shall fail to bring into Tribal Court the amount due, with costs, or if for any other cause a decree shall pass for the complainant, the Tribal Court may direct a reference to a Tribal law enforcement officer to ascertain and report the situation of the mortgaged premises, or may determine the same on oral or other testimony, and if it shall appear that the same can be sold in parcels, without injury to the parties, the decree shall direct so much of the mortgaged premises to be sold as will be sufficient to pay the amount then due on such mortgage, with costs, and such decree shall remain a security for subsequent default. [TCR 08-28]

17-234 Order of sale upon default in payment of installments. If, in the event of a stay under Section 17-232 above, there shall be any default subsequent to such decree in the payment of any portion or installment of the principal, or any interest due upon such mortgage, the Tribal Court may, upon the petition of the complainant, by a further order, founded upon such first decree, as will be sufficient to satisfy the amount so due, with the costs of such petition and subsequent proceedings thereon, and the same proceedings may be had as often as a default shall happen. [TCR 08-28]

17-235 Sale of entire property. If in any of the foregoing cases it shall appear to the Tribal Court that the mortgaged premises or other interest in real property are so situated that a sale of the whole will be most beneficial to the parties, the decree shall, in the first instance, be entered for the sale of the whole premises or total interests accordingly. [TCR 08-28]

17-236 Disposition of proceeds of sale of entire property. In such case the proceeds of such sale shall be applied as well to the interest, portion, or installment of the principal due as toward the whole or residue of the sum secured by such mortgage or other debt instrument, and not due and payable at the time of such sale; and if such residue does not bear interest, then the Tribal Court may direct the same to be paid with a rebate of the legal interest, for the time during which such residue shall not be due and payable; or the Tribal Court may direct the balance of the proceeds of such sale, after paying the sum due, with costs, to be put out at interest, for the benefit of the complainant, to be paid to him/her as the installments or portions of the principal or interest may become due, and the surplus for the benefit of the defendant, his/her representative, or assigns, to be paid to them on the order of the Tribal Court. [TCR 08-28]

17-237 Actions to be taken upon satisfaction or payment.

1. In all cases of foreclosure of mortgages or other interest in real property, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the Tribal Court, on the satisfaction or payment of the amount of the decree, to forward to the register of deeds of Thurston County, Nebraska, if appropriate, the Aberdeen Area Land Titles and Records offices or the secretary, as appropriate, a certificate setting forth the names of parties, plaintiff and defendant, descriptions of the premises mentioned in the decree, for which certificate such clerk shall collect a fee of three dollars ($3.00), which amount shall be taxed as part of the costs in the case, and said sum shall be paid to the clerk of the Tribal Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 17 ARTICLE 1

2. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the Tribal Court to forward to the Tribal credit department a copy of the certificate specified in subsection (1) of this section. [TCR 08-28]

17-238 Fee lands not affected. Foreclosure actions relating to fee lands located within the boundaries of the Winnebago reservation shall be governed by the laws of the State of Nebraska; provided, however, the chairman of the Winnebago Tribe shall receive notice of all such actions by first-class mail. [TCR 08-28]

17-239 Fee land foreclosures. In the event any Winnebago Tribal member of any Tribal entity possesses an interest in fee land located within the boundaries of the Winnebago reservation that is the subject of a foreclosure action in state court, such individual may apply to the Tribal Court for an order directing a Tribal law enforcement officer or other Tribal court-appointed officer to take such actions as necessary to assist the state officers and/or to facilitate the foreclosure action. 18-301 Natural guardians; parental preference.

1. The father and mother are the natural guardians of their minor children and are duly entitled to their custody and to direct their education being themselves competent to transact their own business and not otherwise unsuitable, and if in the best interest of the minor child. If either dies or is disqualified from acting, or has abandoned his or her family, the guardianship devolves upon the other except as otherwise provided in this Section.
2. In the appointment of a parent as a guardian when the other parent has died and the child was born out of wedlock, the Court shall consider the wishes of the deceased parent as expressed in a valid will executed by the deceased parent. If in such valid will the deceased parent designates someone other than the other natural parent as guardian for the minor children, the Court shall take into consideration the designation by the deceased parent. In determining whether or not the natural parent should be given priority in awarding custody, the Court shall also consider the natural parent’s acknowledgment of paternity, payment of child support, and whether the natural parent is a fit, proper, and suitable custodial parent for the child.
3. The Court may appoint a standby guardian for a minor whose parent is chronically ill or near death. The appointment of a guardian under this subsection does not suspend or terminate the parent’s parental rights of custody to the minor. The standby guardian’s authority would take effect, if the minor is left without a remaining parent, upon (1) the death of the parent, (2) the mental incapacity of the parent, or (3), the physical debilitation and consent of the parent.
4. The Court may appoint a guardian for a minor if all parental rights of custody have been terminated or suspended by prior or current circumstances or prior Court order.
5. A biological parent has a superior right to legal and physical custody of that parent’s child over a non-parent.
 - a. A biological parent will prevail over a non-parent unless the biological parent is shown to be unfit.
 - b. A biological parent is deemed “unfit” if a personal deficiency or incapacity which has prevented, or will probably prevent, performance of a reasonable parental obligation in child rearing and which has caused, or probably will result in, detriment to a child's well-being. [TCR 11-72]

18-302 Petition for Appointment of Guardian. Any person may file with the clerk a verified petition for the appointment of a guardian. The petitioner shall state the following information so far as known to the petitioner.

1. The name, age and physical address of the proposed ward and post office box address if there is no physical address where mail is regularly delivered.
2. The petitioner's relationship to the proposed ward.
3. That the proposed ward is in either of the following categories and the factual basis in support thereof;
 - a. Is a person whose decision-making capacity is so impaired that the person is unable to care of the person's personal safety or to attend to or provide for necessities of the person such as food, shelter, clothing, or medical care, without which physical injury or illness might occur.
 - b. Is a minor and the parent(s) or legal guardian died, became disqualified from acting, or has abandoned the minor.
4. The name and physical address of the proposed guardian and post office box address if there is no physical address where mail is regularly delivered, and that such person is qualified to serve in that capacity.
5. That the proposed ward is an enrolled member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, or is eligible for enrollment, or resides within the reservation, or that the proposed guardian is an enrolled member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, or is eligible for enrollment, or resides within the reservation, and that the proposed ward's best interests require the appointment of a guardian.
6. The name and address of the person or institution, if any, having the care, custody or control of the proposed ward. [TCR 11-72]

18-303 Notification of Guardianship Powers. In a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian, the proposed ward shall be given written notice by the Court or the person designated by Court order, which advises the proposed ward that if a guardian is appointed, the guardian may, without Court approval, provide for the care of the ward, manage the ward's personal property and effects, assist the ward in developing self-reliance and receive professional care, counseling, treatment or services as needed, and ensure that the ward receives necessary emergency medical services. The notice shall also advise the proposed ward that, upon the Court's approval, the guardian may change the ward's permanent residence to a more restrictive residence, and arrange for major elective surgery or any other non-emergency major medical procedure. The notice shall clearly advise the proposed ward of the right to counsel and the potential deprivation of the proposed ward's civil rights. The notice shall also state that the proposed ward may use the ward's own attorney instead of an attorney appointed by the Court. In an involuntary guardianship proceeding, the notice shall be served upon the proposed ward with the notice of the filing of the petition as provided in Section 18-208. [TCR 11-72]

18-304 Powers and duties of Guardian; general.

1. Except as otherwise specifically ordered or limited by the Court, a guardian of an incapacitated person has the same powers, rights, and duties respecting his or her ward that a parent has respecting his or her unemancipated minor child, except that a guardian is not liable to third persons for acts of the ward solely by reason of the parental relationship. In particular, and without qualifying the foregoing, a guardian has the following powers and duties, except as may be specified by order of the Court:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 18 ARTICLE 3

- a. To the extent consistent with the terms of any Court order relating to detention or commitment of the ward, the guardian is entitled to custody of the person of the ward and may establish the ward's place of abode within or without the reservation. When establishing the ward's place of abode, a guardian shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that the placement is on the least restrictive alternative. A guardian shall authorize a placement to a more restrictive environment only after careful evaluation of the need for such placement. The guardian may obtain a professional evaluation or assessment that such placement is in the best interest of the ward.
 - b. If entitled to custody of the ward, the guardian shall make provision for the care, comfort, and maintenance of the ward and, whenever appropriate, arrange for the training and education of the ward. Without regard to custodial rights of the ward's person, he or she shall take reasonable care of his or her ward's clothing, furniture, vehicles, and other personal effects and commence protective proceedings if other property of his or her ward is in need of protection.
 - c. A guardian may give any consents or approvals that may be necessary to enable the ward to receive medical, psychiatric, psychological, or other professional care, counsel, treatment, or service. When making such medical or psychiatric decisions, the guardian shall consider and carry out the intent of the ward expressed prior to incompetency to the extent allowable by law.
 - d. If no conservator for the estate of the ward has been appointed, he or she may:
 - i. Institute proceedings to accompany any person under a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward to perform his or her duty;
 - ii. Receive money and tangible property deliverable to the ward and apply the money and property for support, care, and education of the ward; but he or she may not use funds from his or her ward's estate for room and board which he or she, his or her spouse, parent, or child has furnished the ward unless a charge for the service is approved by order of the Court made upon notice to at least one of the next of kin of the ward, if notice is possible. He or she must exercise care to conserve any excess for the ward's needs.
 - e. To take or provide for the custody of the person of the ward and shall be required to care for the health, safety and welfare of such minor or incapacitated and provide for their education and medical care as needed or appropriate.
 - f. Guardian may petition the Court for authority to do any act about which he/she is uncertain, and the Court may grant such authority, after such notice and hearing, if any, as the Court may direct if such appears to be consistent with the best interest of the minor or incapacitated.
2. Providing for the care, comfort and maintenance of the ward, including the appropriate training and education to maximize the ward's potential.
 3. Taking reasonable care of the ward's clothing, furniture, vehicle and other personal effects.
 4. Assisting the ward in developing maximum self-reliance and independence.
 5. Ensuring the ward receives necessary emergency medical services.
 6. Ensuring the ward receives professional care, counseling, treatment, or services as needed. If necessitated by the physical or mental disability of the ward, the provision of professional care, counseling, treatment, or services is limited to the provision of routine physical and dental examinations and procedures under anesthesia is included, if the anesthesia is provided within the scope of the health care practitioner's scope of practice. [TCR 11-72]

18-305 Powers and Duties of Guardian; subject to approval of the Court. A guardian may be granted the following additional powers only upon Court approval.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 18 ARTICLE 3

1. Changing the ward's permanent residence if the proposed new residence is more restrictive of the ward's liberties than the current residence.
2. Arranging for the provision of major elective surgery or any other non-emergency major medical procedure.
 - a. "Major elective surgery" does not include the provision to the ward of professional care, counseling, treatment, or services limited to the provision of routine physical and dental examinations and procedures under anesthesia, if the use of anesthesia is necessitated by the physical or mental disability of the ward, and if the anesthesia is provided within the scope of the health care practitioner's scope of practice.
3. Consent to the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures.
4. Consent to the marriage or adoption of the ward. [TCR 11-72]

18-306 Powers and duties of Guardian; other.

2. The Court may direct that the guardian only have a specially limited responsibility for the ward. In that event, the Court shall state those areas of responsibility which shall be supervised by the guardian and all other shall be retained by the ward.
3. The Court may make a finding that the ward lacks the capacity to contract a valid marriage. From time to time, upon a proper showing, the Court may modify the respective responsibilities of the guardian and the ward, after notice to the ward and an opportunity to be heard. Any modification that would be more restrictive or burdensome for the ward shall be based on clear and convincing evidence that the ward continues to fall within the categories of Section 18-211 and that the facts justify a modification of the guardianship. [TCR 11-72]

18-307 Powers and duties of guardian of a minor.

1. A guardian of a minor has the powers and responsibilities of a parent who has not been deprived of custody of his minor and unemancipated child, except that a guardian is not legally obligated to provide from his own funds for the ward and is not liable to third persons by reason of the parental relationship for acts of the ward. In particular, and without qualifying the foregoing, a guardian has the following powers and duties:
 - a. To take reasonable care of the ward's personal effects and commence protective proceedings if necessary to protect other property of the ward;
 - b. To receive money payable for the support of the ward to the ward's parent, guardian or custodian under the terms of any statutory benefit or insurance system, or any private contract, devise, trust, conservatorship or custodianship;
 - c. To exercise due care to conserve any excess for the ward's future needs unless a conservator has been appointed for the estate of the ward, in which case such excess shall be paid over at least annually to the conservator;
 - d. To facilitate the ward's education, social, or other activities and to authorize medical or other professional care, treatment, or advice; provided, that a guardian is not liable by reason of this consent for injury to the ward resulting from the negligence or acts of third persons unless it would have been illegal for a parent to have consented;
 - e. To report the condition of the ward and of the ward's estate which has been subject to the guardian's possession or control, as ordered by the Court, and upon termination of the guardianship settle with the ward and pay over and deliver all of the estate and effects remaining in the guardian's hands or due from the guardian on settlement to the person or persons who shall be lawfully entitled thereto.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 18 ARTICLE 3

2. A guardian of a minor may exercise the following powers and duties:
 - a. To receive money or personal property from any person under a duty to pay or deliver money or personal property to a minor;
 - b. To institute proceedings to compel the performance by any person of a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward.
3. The appointment of a guardian for a minor shall not relieve the minor's parent or parents, liable for the support of such minor, from their obligation to provide for such minor. For the purposes of guardianship of minors, the application of guardianship income and principal after payment of debts and charges of managing the estate, in relationship to the respective obligations owed by fathers, mothers, and others, for the support, maintenance and education of the minor shall be:
 - a. The income and property of the father and mother of the minor in such manner as they can reasonably afford, regard being had to the situation of the family and to all the circumstances of the case;
 - b. The guardianship income, in whole or in part, as shall be judged reasonable considering the extent of the guardianship income and the parents' financial ability;
 - c. The income and property of any other person having a legal obligation to support the minor, in such manner as the person can reasonably afford, regard being had to the situation of the person's family and to all the circumstances of the case; and
 - d. The guardianship principal, either personal or real estate, in whole or in part, as shall be judged for the best interest of the minor, considering all of the circumstances of the minor and those liable for his support.
4. The Court may from time to time authorize the guardian to use so much of the guardianship income or principal, whether personal or real estate, as it may deem proper, considering all the circumstances of the minor and those liable for his support, if it is shown that (a) an emergency exists which justifies an expenditure, or (b) a fund has been given to the minor for a special purpose and the Court can, with reasonable certainty, ascertain such purpose. [TCR 11-72]

18-308 Qualification of guardian. Any competent natural person 21 years of age or older or a suitable institution, except any institution or employee of such institution that provides care, treatment or housing to the ward, may serve as a guardian; provided that, nothing in this Section shall prevent a spouse, adult child, parent or other relative from being appointed as guardian. Preference shall be given to relatives of the ward in order of their closeness of relationship and some preference shall also be given to a person with whom the ward is living at the time of the guardianship hearing. In all cases, the Court shall determine the best interests of the ward in selecting a guardian. [TCR 11-72]

18-309 Appointment of guardian based on incompetency.

1. If the allegations of the petition as to the status of the proposed ward and the necessity for the appointment of a guardian are proved by clear and convincing evidence, the Court may appoint a guardian.
2. Every guardian appointed as provided herein shall serve until discharged by the Court. [TCR 11-72]

18-310 Appointment of guardian based on minority.

1. Upon hearing, if the Court finds that a qualified person seeks appointment, the required notices have been given, and the welfare and best interests of the minor will be served by the requested appointment, it shall make the appointment. In other cases, the Court may dismiss the proceedings, or make any other disposition of the matter that will best serve the interest of the minor.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 18 ARTICLE 3

2. If, at any time in the proceeding, the Court determines that the interests of the minor are or may be inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, giving consideration to the preference of the minor if the minor is fourteen years of age or older.
3. Appointment of a guardian of a minor shall be subject to Section 18-301 and the appointment preferences under Section 18-213. [TCR 11-72]

18-311 Appointment of temporary guardian.

1. A temporary guardian may be appointed, but only after a hearing on such notice, and subject to such conditions, as the Court shall prescribe.
2. In an emergency, the Court may appoint a temporary guardian, pending notice and hearing. Any request for an emergency guardianship must be supported by an affidavit detailing the need for the guardianship and the reason why an emergency guardianship without hearing and notice is necessary. [TCR 11-72]

18-312 Bond. A guardian shall not be required to give bond unless the Court, for good cause, finds that the best interests of the ward require a bond. The Court may require a guardian to provide security in the form of a bond or otherwise to assure the faithful performance of the guardian's duties. Any surety of any such security will be deemed to have consented to the jurisdiction of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Tribal Court for the purposes of action against such security. [TCR 11-72]

18-313 Reporting requirements — guardian.

1. A guardian appointed under this Article shall file with the Court the following written verified reports:
 - a. An initial report within 60 days of the guardian's appointment.
 - b. An annual report every year within 90 days of the annual anniversary of appointment of the guardian, unless the Court otherwise orders that a report should be filed every six (6) months or at some other interval to be determined by and in the discretion of the Court.
 - c. A final report within 30 days of the termination of the guardianship unless that time is extended by the Court.
2. Reports required by this Section must include:
 - a. The current mental and physical condition of the ward.
 - b. The present living arrangements of the ward, including a description of each resident where the ward has resided during the reporting period.
 - c. A summary of the medical, education, vocational and other professional services provided for the ward.
 - d. A report of the ward's income, assets, debts, disbursements and other relevant financial information for the reporting period.
 - e. A description of the guardian's visits with and activities on behalf of the ward.
 - f. A recommendation as to the need for continued guardianship.
 - g. Other information requested by the Court or useful in the opinion of the guardian.
 - h. Reports of the guardian shall be reviewed by the Court and either approved or not approved. If the report is not approved, notice shall be given to the guardian as to the deficiencies in the report and the Court shall set a deadline by which the report must be resubmitted.
 - i. Reports required by this Section shall be served on any attorney representing the ward in the guardianship proceeding and all other parties appearing in the proceeding.
3. The Court shall provide forms to the guardians to assist in completion of the reporting requirements. [TCR 11-72]

18-314 Guardian's compensation.

1. No guardian shall receive any compensation for acting as such without the prior approval of the Court and pursuant to Section 18-220.
2. The right to receive compensation as guardian shall be deemed waived for all years in which such is not requested and received. [TCR 11-72]

18-315 Property delivered — penalty. Upon the removal or upon termination of guardianship, the guardian shall be required by order of the Court to deliver to the person who may be entitled thereto all the property in the guardian's possession or under the guardian's control belonging to the ward no later than 30 days following the removal or termination, and if the guardian fails or refuses to comply with any proper order of the Court, the guardian may be sanctioned, fined, and/or committed to jail until the guardian complies. [TCR 11-72]

18-316 Testamentary appointment of guardian for incapacitated person.

1. The parent of an incapacitated person may, by will, appoint a guardian of the incapacitated person. A testamentary appointment by a parent becomes effective when, after having given seven days' prior written notice of his intention to do so to the incapacitated person and to the person having his care or to his nearest adult relative, the guardian files acceptance of appointment in the Court in which the will is informally or formally probated if, prior thereto, both parents are dead or the surviving parent is adjudged incapacitated. If both parents are dead, an effective appointment by the parent who died later has priority unless it is terminated by the denial of probate in formal proceedings.
2. The spouse of a married incapacitated person may, by will, appoint a guardian of the incapacitated person. The appointment becomes effective when, after having given seven days' prior written notice of his intention to do so to the incapacitated person and to the person having his care or to his nearest adult relative, the guardian files acceptance of appointment in the court in which the will is informally or formally probated. An effective appointment by a spouse has priority over an appointment by a parent unless it is terminated by the denial of probate in formal proceedings.
3. On the filing with the Court in which the will was probated, of written objection to the appointment by the person for whom a testamentary appointment of guardian has been made, the appointment is terminated. An objection does not prevent appointment by the Court in a proper proceeding of the testamentary nominee or any other suitable person upon an adjudication of incapacity in proceedings under the succeeding Sections of this part. [TCR 11-72]

18-317 Termination of guardianship for incapacitated person; liability for prior acts; obligation to account. The authority and responsibility of a guardian for an incapacitated person terminates upon the death of the guardian or ward, the determination of incapacity of the guardian, or upon removal or resignation. Testamentary appointment under an informally probated will terminates if the will is later denied probate in a formal proceeding. Termination does not affect his liability for prior acts nor his obligation to account for funds and assets of his ward. [TCR 11-72]

18-318 Testamentary appointment of guardian of minor. The parent of a minor may appoint by will a guardian of an unmarried minor. Subject to the right of the minor under Section 18-318, a testamentary appointment becomes effective upon filing the guardian's acceptance in the Court in which the will is probated if, before acceptance, both parents are dead or the surviving parent is adjudged incapacitated. If both parents are dead, an effective appointment by the parent who died later has priority. Upon acceptance of appointment, written notice of acceptance must be given by the guardian to the minor and to the person having his care, or to his nearest adult relation. [TCR 11-72]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 18 ARTICLE 3

18-319 Objection by minor of fourteen or older to testamentary appointment. A minor of 14 years or older may object to the appointment of his testamentary guardian prior to becoming effective, or object to a previously accepted appointment, by filing with the Court — if the will went through probate in the Tribal Court — a written objection to the appointment before it is accepted or within 30 days after notice of its acceptance. An objection may be withdrawn. An objection does not preclude appointment by the Court in a proper proceeding of the testamentary nominee or any other suitable person; however, the Court shall take the objection into consideration when making the appointment. If any money is payable, or becomes payable, to the proposed ward by any third party, entity or agency of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska tribal government, or federal, or state government, the petition shall so state.

[TCR 11-72]

18-402 Permissible court orders. The Court has the following powers which may be exercised directly or through a conservator with respect to the estate and affairs of protected persons:

1. While a petition for appointment of a conservator is pending and after preliminary hearing and without notice to others, the Court has power to preserve and apply the property of the person to be protected as may be required for his or her benefit or for the benefit of his or her dependents.
2. After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment exists for a minor (without other disability), the Court has all those powers over the estate and affairs of the minor which are or might be necessary for the best interests of the minor, the minor's family, and members of the minor's household.
3. After hearing and upon determining by clear and convincing evidence that a basis for an appointment or other protective order exists with respect to a person for reasons other than minority, the Court has, for the benefit of the person and members of his or her household, all the powers over his or her estate and affairs which he or she could exercise if present and not under disability except the power to make a will. These powers include, but are not limited to, power to make gifts, to convey or release his or her contingent and expectant interests in property including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety, to exercise or release his or her powers as trustee, personal representative, custodian for minors, conservator, or donee of a power of appointment, to enter into contracts, to create revocable or irrevocable trusts of property of the estate which may extend beyond his or her disability or life, to exercise or release of his or her powers as settler of a revocable trust to exercise options. In a proceeding for the appointment of a conservator, the proposed ward shall be given written notice which advised the proposed ward that if a conservator is appointed, the conservator may, without Court approval, manage the proposed ward's principal, income, and investments, sue and defend any claim by or against the ward, sell and transfer personal property, and vote at corporate meetings. The notice shall also advise the proposed ward that, upon the Court's approval, the conservator may invest the ward's funds, execute leases, make payments to or for the benefit of the ward, support the ward's legal dependents, compromise or settle any claim, and do any other thing that the Court determines is in the ward's best interests. The notice shall clearly advise the proposed ward of the right to counsel and the potential deprivation of the proposed ward's civil rights. The notice shall also state that the proposed ward may use the ward's own attorney instead of an attorney appointed by the Court. The notice shall be served upon the proposed ward as provided in Section 18-208. [TCR 11-72]

TITLE 18 ARTICLE 4

18-404 Appointment of conservator.

1. If the allegations of the petition as to the status of the proposed ward and the necessity for the appointment of a conservator are proved by clear and convincing evidence, then the Court may appoint a conservator.
2. Every conservator appointed as provided herein shall serve until discharged by the Court. [TCR 11-72]

18-405 Appointment of temporary and/or limited conservator.

2. A temporary conservatorship shall not extend longer than six (6) months from the date of appointment.
3. The Court may appoint a limited conservator to assist in the accomplishment of any protective arrangement or other single transaction. Such limited conservator shall serve until discharged by Court order and report to the Court of all matters done pursuant to the order of appointment. [TCR 11-72]

18-406 Duties of conservator.

1. It is the duty of the conservator of the estate to protect and preserve it, to invest it prudently, to account for it as herein provided, and to perform all other duties required of the conservator by law, and at the termination of the conservatorship, to deliver the assets of the ward to the person entitled thereto.
2. The conservator shall report to the Court at least annually unless the Court otherwise orders that a report should be filed at shorter intervals to be determined by and in the discretion of the Court, and the report shall comply with the provisions of Section 18-418. [TCR 11-72]

18-407 Powers of the conservator without further Court order. Upon appointment by the Court as the ward's conservator, the conservator shall have the full power, without further order of the Court, with relation to the estate of the ward:

2. Any modification of the powers of the ward that would be more restrictive of the ward's control over the ward's financial affairs shall be based upon clear and convincing evidence and the burden of persuasion is on the conservator. Any competent natural person 21 years of age or older or a corporation with general power to serve as trustee, except any institution or employee of such institution that provides care, treatment or housing to the ward, and exhibits ability to exercise the powers to be assigned by the Court may serve as a conservator; provided that, nothing in this Section shall prevent a spouse, adult child, parent or other relative from being appointed as conservator. Preference shall be given to relatives of the ward in order of their closeness of relationship and some preference shall also be given to the expressed wishes of the ward. In all cases, the Court shall determine the best interests of the ward in selecting a conservator. [TCR 11-72]

18-413 Bond — approval by Clerk. The bond shall not be deemed sufficient until it has been examined and approved by the Clerk who shall endorse such approval thereon. In the event the bond is not approved, the conservator or guardian shall, within such time as the Court directs, secure and file a bond with satisfactory surety or sureties. [TCR 11-72]

18-414 Review by Clerk when inventory is filed. At the time the inventory of the estate is filed, the Clerk shall review the amount of bond and report to the Court as to any apparent insufficiency thereof. [TCR 11-72]

3. No order shall be entered approving an annual report of a conservator until the Court costs which have been docketed have been paid or provided for. The Court may, upon application, enter an order waiving payment of the Court costs in indigent cases. 5. Reports required by this Section shall be served on the attorney representing the ward in the conservatorship proceeding and all other parties appearing in the proceeding.
6. Failure by the conservator to file the report may result in removal of the conservator and forfeiture of the bond. [TCR 11-72]

18-419 Title to ward's property. The title to all property of the ward is in the ward and not the conservator, subject however, to the possession of the conservator and to the control of the Court for the purposes of administration, sale or other disposition, under the provisions of law. [TCR 11-72]

18-420 Conservator's right to possession. Every conservator shall have a right to, and shall take, possession of all of the real and personal property of the ward. The conservator shall pay the taxes and collect the income therefore until the conservatorship is terminated. The conservator may maintain an action for the possession of the property and to determine the title to same. [TCR 11-72]

18-421 Presumption of fraud. It shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the claimant or an agent of the claimant, stating that the amount is justly due, or if not due, when it will or may become due, that no payments have been made thereon which are not credited, and that there are no offsets to the same, to the knowledge of the affiant, except as stated therein.
2. The Clerk shall mail the duplicate to the conservator or the conservator's attorney of record.
3. If a claim is founded upon a written instrument, the original of such instrument, or a copy thereof, with all endorsements, must be attached to the claim. 18-427 Execution and levy prohibited. No execution shall issue upon, nor shall any levy be made against any property of the estate of a ward under judgment against the ward or conservator, but the provisions of this Section shall not be so construed as to prevent the enforcement of a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon property in an appropriate proceeding. [TCR 11-72]

18-428 Claims of conservators. If the conservator is a creditor of the ward, the conservator shall file the claim as with other creditors, and the Court shall appoint a temporary conservator to represent the ward at the hearing on the conservator's claim.

18-430 Liens not affected by failure to claim. Nothing in Section 18-422 shall affect or prevent an action or proceeding to enforce any mortgage, pledge or other lien upon the property of the ward. Such proceedings shall not be subject to claims under this Code. [TCR 11-72]

18-431 Pending actions. Any action pending against the ward at the time the conservator is appointed shall be considered a claim filed in the conservatorship if notice is served on the conservator as defendant, and a duplicate of the proof of service of notice of such proceeding is filed in the conservatorship proceeding. [TCR 11-72]

18-433 Disallowance of claim by conservator. At any time after the filing of a claim against an estate, the conservator may give the claimant and the claimant's attorney of record, if any, written notice of disallowance of claim. The notice shall be given by certified mail addressed to the claimant at the address stated in the claim and to the claimant's attorney of record, if any. A presented claim is allowed if it is not disallowed by written statement mailed by the conservator to the claimant and/or claimant's attorney within sixty (60) days after its presentation. [TCR 11-72]

18-434 Notice of disallowance and request for hearing. A notice to a claimant of disallowance of claim shall advise the claimant that the claim has been disallowed and will be forever barred unless the claimant shall, within 20 days after the date of mailing the notice, file a request for hearing on the claim with the Clerk, and mail a copy of such required for hearing to the conservator and the conservator's attorney of record, if any, by certified mail. [TCR 11-72]

18-437 Request for hearing by claimant. At the time of the filing of a claim against an estate, or at any time thereafter prior to the time that the claim may be barred by the provisions of Section 18-436, or the approval of the final report of the conservator after notice to the claimant, the claimant may file a request for hearing with the Clerk, and mail a copy of the request for hearing to the conservator and the conservator's attorney of record, if any. [TCR 11-72]

18-438 Applicability of Rules of Civil Procedure to hearing on claim. Within 20 days from the filing of a request for hearing on a claim, the conservator shall move or plead to said claim and file any counterclaim against the claimant for an offset against the claim or other counterclaim in the same manner as though the claim were a petition filed in an ordinary action, and thereafter, all provisions of the law and Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply. [TCR 11-72]

18-439 Payment of claims in insolvent conservatorships. When it appears that the assets in a conservatorship are insufficient to pay in full all the claims against such conservatorship, the conservator shall report such matter to the Court, and the Court shall, upon hearing, with notice to all persons who have filed claims in the conservatorship, make an order for the pro rata payment of claims giving claimants the same priority, if any, as they would have if the ward were not under conservatorship. Preference shall be given to prior claims for the care, maintenance and education of the ward or the ward's dependents. [TCR 11-72]

18-440 Conservator may make gifts. For good cause shown and under order of Court, a conservator may make gifts on behalf of the ward out of the assets under a conservatorship to persons or religious, education, scientific, charitable, or other nonprofit organizations to whom or to which such gifts were regularly made prior to the commencement of the conservatorship, or on a showing to the Court that such gifts would benefit the ward or the ward's estate from the standpoint of income, gift, estate, or inheritance

Upon the termination of a conservatorship, the conservator shall pay the costs of administration and shall render a full and complete accounting to the ward and the ward's attorney, if any, or on the ward's guardian and attorney for the guardian, if any, and to the Court. Notice of the final report shall be served on the ward and the ward's attorney, if any, or the ward's guardian and attorney for the guardian, if any, in accordance with Section 18-209 unless notice is waived. [TCR 11-72]

18-445 Removal of conservator by Court. When any conservator is, or becomes, disqualified or has mismanaged the estate, dies, fails or failed to perform any duty imposed by law, or by any lawful order of Court, then the Court may remove the conservator. The Court may upon its own motion, and shall upon the filing of a verified petition by any person interested in the estate, including a surety on the conservator's bond, order the conservator to appear and show cause why the conservator should not be removed. Any such petition shall specify the grounds of complaint. The removal of a conservator after letters are duly issued to the conservator shall not invalidate the conservator's official acts performed prior to removal. [TCR 11-72]

18-446 Property delivered — penalty. Upon the removal of any conservator, the conservator shall be required by order of the Court to deliver to the person who may be entitled thereto all the property in the conservator's possession or under the conservator's control belonging to the estate of the ward and if the conservator fails or refuses to comply with any proper order of the Court, the conservator may be sanctioned, fined, or committed to jail until the conservator does. [TCR 11-72]
