Justice for Kozee!: Native women seek stronger charges for death of Kozee Decorah

Tuesday, June 16, 2020
By Kevin Abouzeck

OMAHA, Nebraska -- Shortly after 2 p.m. Monday, the news came.

The nearly 30 people standing outside the federal courthouse in Omaha gathered around Tanya Hindsley as she lifted her megaphone.

"We made a big impact today you guys," the Ho-Chunk woman said. "Justice for Kozee! He's going to stay in jail!"

Hindsley words came near the end of a nearly four-hour rally for justice for her sister, Kozee Decorah, a 22-year-old Ho-Chunk woman whose burned body was found May 16 on the Winnebago Reservation in northeast Nebraska.

Her boyfriend and the father of her children, Jonathan Rooney, a 25-year-old Winnebago man, was arrested and charged with manslaughter for his alleged involvement in her death. On Monday, Rooney was scheduled to appear in federal court but waived his appearance, meaning he won't be released on bail immediately.

According to a federal criminal complaint filed May 29 against Rooney, Decorah called Winnebago tribal police just before 8 p.m. May 16 saying she, Rooney and their infant son had gotten stuck on a muddy road in a remote area of the reservation.

Two tribal conservation officers were sent to find Decorah but couldn't find her. They found a vehicle, a GMC Yukon, before driving to Walthill to see if Decorah had made it home.

Later that night, two Winnebago conservation officers noticed a fire inside an outhouse next to a cabin. Inside the cabin, they found Rooney lying naked under a blanket on a mattress on the floor with his infant son next to him.

A tribal conservation officer and a tribal firefighter then found bones, including a human skull, in the fire burning in the outhouse next to the cabin. Rooney was found with a smear of blood or bruising on his arm and scratches on his left shoulder, as well as an injury to his right cheek.

FBI special agent Samuel Roberts and a tribal officer went to the cabin and outhouse on May 17 and found a skull and ribs in the embers of the fire. They also found droplets of blood on the floor and door of the cabin, as well as blood on a piece of wood on top of a gas grill.

"The blood on the wood appeared to be a handprint," Roberts wrote in the criminal complaint against Rooney.

Roberts then interviewed Rooney, who admitted that he and Decorah had argued that night after she had asked him if he was using drugs. He said Decorah hit him, and he pushed her out of the cabin and shut the door. He then lay down on the mattress.

He told Roberts that he thought he had been drugged and was set up by Decorah to go to prison for murdering her.

Asked if things had gotten out of control that night, Rooney told Roberts that he had been "backed into a corner." He then asked for an attorney, ending the interview with Roberts.

An FBI evidence response team later found a gas can and chainsaw in the Yukon.

A forensic dental consultant later concluded the bones in the fire were the remains of Decorah.

On Monday, Decorah's friends and family, as well as activists with the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women movement, held signs and banners that read: "Justice for Kozee," "No More Stolen Sisters" and "Speak Sisters! Stand and Rise! It Is Time!" They wore T-shirts emblazoned with Decorah's image and the words "Rest in heaven." They handed out cards with information about Decorah to pedestrians and motorists in downtown Omaha.

"No bail, keep him in jail!" they yelled.

They gathered for more than four hours in nearly 100-degree heat to send a message to authorities and to the state of Nebraska that they wanted justice for Kozee and they wanted harsher criminal charges to be filed against Rooney. Decorah's family has criticized U.S. Attorney Joe Kelly's decision to only charge Rooney with manslaughter, which carries a maximum punishment of 15 years in prison and a $250,000 fine.

"We came here to get justice for our sister, and that's what we want," Hindsley said.

MMIW activist Marisa Cummings blamed a racist colonial justice system for failing to seek justice for Native women.

"If Kozee was a white woman killed by a Native man on Indian land, the charges would have been felony murder," she said. "It's not fair and it's not right, but it seems like we're always on the streets fighting for the lives of our people."

Omaha activist Renee Sans Souci, whose niece Ashlea Aldrich was found dead on the Omaha Reservation in January, called on Native men to stop abusing Native women.

No one was ever charged in connection with Aldrich's death, though her family has contended that she was murdered by her boyfriend and left in a field.

"There was no justice there carried out in the way that should have been done," Sans Souci said. "Our men need to stand up. They need to be healed. Take that responsibility to heal and to help us. Stop the violence. Stop killing us."

In a meeting on Monday morning, FBI representatives assured Decorah's family that harsher charges would be filed against Rooney, Hindsley said.

She said she couldn't understand why Rooney would commit such a heinous act against her sister. She said Rooney had threatened to kill Decorah in the past.

But Hindsley said her family isn't seeking revenge, only justice.

"I don't know what happened to him when he was growing up, but I'm pretty sure some pretty awful things had happened to him to make him the way that he was," she said.

She said the family has struggled to continue seeking justice for Decorah, while also fighting to get her remains and her children returned to her family in Wisconsin.

Speaking through tears Monday, Hindsley described her sister as a fancy dancer who loved to run.

"She loved to feel free," she said. "She loved life. She missed her dad a lot, but she knew that the Creator was there."

And she said her sister could be annoying as well.

"She would make people wait for her," she said. "You'd be honking, 'C'mon Kozee. Let's go.' She'd just be in there doing her hair or whatever."

"She's making us wait now. She's still making us wait," she said, fighting back tears.

"And it's so hard to think that I'm never going to see her again."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

JESUS OUR SAVIOR LUTHERAN OUTREACH

Pastor Ricky Jacob

"I admit that I am privileged"

(John 15:20-21).

I did not choose to be privileged, but by the grace of Creator God, I am privileged. It is solely by the grace of God that I am a child of God. I was adopted into God's family, having my sins washed away through the water of Holy Baptism and having God place His Sacred name on me - with these words: "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

This goes along with Jesus' special calling of his disciples whom he chose: "You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit—fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. This is my command: Love each other" (John 15:16-17 NIV84).

I am privileged and there is no doubt about that. With privilege comes responsibility. By the grace of God, and through absolutely no credit to me, I have been called to serve our Creator and to love others as I have been loved. Now this speaking the truth in love is not always received well. Take for example how this world treated the very privileged Son of God and I should expect nothing less.

Jesus went on to instruct his chosen disciples with these words: "If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you" (John 15:18-19).

Jesus had more to say and to teach: "Remember the words I spoke to you: 'No servant is greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also. They will treat you this way because of my name, for they do not know the One who sent me.

Jesus continues, "If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. Now, however, they have no excuse for their sin. He who hates me hates my Father as well. If I had not done among them what no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have seen these miracles, and yet they have hated both me and my Father. But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law: 'They hated me without reason'" (John 15:22-25).

Yes, by the grace of God, I have been chosen by God. To Creator God be all glory and praise. As the Apostle Paul wrote: "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love he predestined us to be adopted as his sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will—to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding" (Ephesians 1:3-8).

I close with these words of blessing - that place being a privileged child of God into proper perspective. Jesus preached, "Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you" (Matthew 5:10-12).

In Loving Memory...

Ramona K. Wolfe (Chamberlain)

wanted. On one occasion, her and Felix even took monopoly money as a form of payment from a baby (as what they called all the children). They enjoyed seeing all the children happy and wanted them to know how special they are. The Sweet Lodge was a place for all to go in the evenings for food, snacks, and treats. She sure loved her little store. Her other endeavor was her annual Homecoming Celebration Pow-wow stand #8. All that ended once her Companion of many years, Cho-ka Felix, passed and her Dementia set in. Ca-ca Mona will be greatly missed by her grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Ramona entered rest on May 24, 2020 in Sioux City, IA. Funeral services were Thursday, May 28, 2020 at 2:00 PM at the Wolfe Residence (Ramona's home) in Winnebago, NE with Curtis Free officiating.

Ramona is survived by her Great grandson of whom she adopted Jeremiah Wolfe(son), Grandchildren Chad Rave, Natasha Wolfe, Bobbie Wolfe, Thomas E. Wolfe Jr., Reuben Snake, Chotch-he Wolfe, all of Winnebago, NE; Audrey Wolfe, Scott Kearnes Sr., of Sioux City, IA; including 33 great-grandchildren and 11 great-great grandchildren.

Ramona was preceded in death by her sons Thomas E. Wolfe Sr. and Michael D. Wolfe, her parents Catherine DeCora and Toby Chamberlain and her grand-parents Mr. & Mrs. Charles E. DeCora (White Eagle).

Pallbearers were Chad Rave, Thomas Wolfe Jr, Scott Kearnes Sr, Jonathan Grant, Reuben Snake, Chotch-He Wolfe, Rocky Kearnes Jr, and Logan Freemont Jr.

Honorary Pallbearers were Toby Chamberlain Jr, Darrell Wells, Floyd Olson, Jeremiah Wolfe, Berry Wells, Stewart Walker, Felix White III, and John White.

Ramona was laid to rest next to her sons at the Winnebago Cemetery.

Ramona entered this life on May 21, 1940 in Omaha, NE. Born to Catherine DeCora and Toby Chamberlain, she was raised by her beloved grandparents until their passing when she was 10 & 11 years old. When she became of age, Ramona married Edward T. Wolfe and had two sons. Her family lived in Macy, Nebraska until she signed up for the relocation program which lead her into moving to Denver, Colorado and to Oakland, California before returning to Winnebago where she made her home. She later divorced and never remarried but had a common law marriage with her companion Felix White Jr. until his passing in 2010.

Ramona was a proud enrolled member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, where she served on the Tribal Council for a total of 24 years and worked as a tribal employee for 40 years. Ramona truly loved her Ho-chunk people and community. She served her years to help our members in every way possible. She had a huge heart for all children, which is why she opened the "Sweet Lodge." She wanted all the little children to be able to come in with their pennies to buy candy. It was the cutest to see the little ones walk in and be able to buy the sweets they

The late Vice-Chairman Curtis St.Cyr 1st Memorial

Last year, on June 16th, 2019 our beloved father, brother, my husband and tribal leader left us to start his journey to our creator. We had his first memorial this past Saturday. We ask that you excuse us because our teachings tell us to feed the people during a memorial but we wanted everyone to be safe due to the current pandemic. We decided to scale back the memorial and just have immediate family. We want to thank Clint Free and his wife, Kiva and their family for helping with his memorial and taking care of Curtis while he is on his journey. Our hearts can't thank you enough. This year has been hard but we have had tremendous support and comfort from all of you. We miss and think about Curtis everyday. Thank you for allowing me to express my feelings and I hope for many good blessings for the each of you.

Sincerely,
Therese St.Cyr and daughter Patricia, & sons Garan, Lewis and Gentry

New Cases and Additional COVID-19 Related Deaths Reported in Winnebago

Totals	Tested	Positive	Negative	Pending	Deaths	Recovered
Winnebago	375	66	307	2	3	50

WINNEBAGO, NE – Two more positive COVID-19 related cases and two additional deaths related to COVID-19 have been reported in Winnebago. The two additional positive cases are both reported in good condition and recovering at home. The two COVID-19 related deaths were not related to each other and in both cases the individual had underlying health issues. Winnebago now has a total of sixty-six positive cases of Coronavirus, and of those fifty people have already recovered. There have now been a total of three COVID-19 related deaths within the Winnebago Community.

“Our thoughts and prayers are with the families who lost a loved one. We were fortunate to have only one new positive case from the recent mass testing event but the fact that we also had two COVID-19 related deaths around the same time amplifies the need for us to take this virus seriously by following all safety precautions. We are a small community and every single life lost to this virus is one too many,” said Danelle Smith, Winnebago Comprehensive Healthcare System CEO.

This comes after a successful mass testing event was held in Winnebago last Tuesday, June 9th. TestNebraska, which is a state initiative aimed to bring COVID-19 testing to Nebraska residents, teamed up with the Winnebago Health Department and the Winnebago Tribe to test any Winnebago resident that wanted to be tested. The goal was to dramatically increase the rate of COVID-19 testing on the Winnebago Reservation to help reduce the spread of COVID-19. A total of 228 individuals were tested in four hours, and of those tests only one person from Winnebago was confirmed positive with COVID-19.

COVID-19 is a respiratory illness with no known cure or vaccine. Winnebago community members experiencing shortness of breath, sore throat, runny nose, and cough are urged to call the COVID-19 Hotline at (402) 922-1508. Per Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines, it is recommended that individuals stay home except to get necessary medical care. Individuals with underlying conditions, such as diabetes or those with compromised immune systems are the most high-risk for contracting the virus.

Winnebago Comprehensive Healthcare System is operated by the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska and consists of two divisions. Twelve Clans Unity Hospital is a 13-bed state-of-the-art healthcare facility that serves an estimated 10,000 Native Americans who live on the Winnebago Reservation and in the surrounding region. Health care services provided by the hospital include an ambulatory care clinic, inpatient care, express care clinic, pharmacy, radiology, emergency care, medical laboratory, physical therapy, social services, and more. The Winnebago Public Health Department strives to create and maintain a healthy community by providing a wide range of total health and wellness programs. These programs include physical, mental, safety, and social services that benefit the Winnebago community.

On Common Ground

The lessons learned under duress, are the ones that seem to remain with us over time, don't touch a hot stove, don't hit your thumb with a hammer, wear a mask and wash your hands. I think 2020 is going to remain in our collective memories for many years. We will talk about Covid-19 with our children, grandchildren, and our great-grandchildren. Nothing will seem quite the same as it was, in some ways, that is a good thing, maybe we won't take our health for granted in the future, maybe we'll make planting a garden a yearly event once more. I certainly hope so.

The Winnebago Tribal Council is 100% AGAINST Meth. Not only is Meth harmful to the individual, it destroys families and our community. Meth use is not the HoChunk/Winnebago way of life. On 12-30-19, during the Winnebago Mid-monthly Tribal Council meeting, a motion was passed to publish all meth related offenses occurring on the Winnebago reservation, in the Winnebago Indian News.

The following individual(s) has been arrested for a meth offense...

As of 6-24-20, no recent meth arrests have been reported.
