WCHS HOLDS ANNUAL HEALTH FAIR

By Brian Chamberlain

[Winnebago, NE] The Winnebago Health Department held its annual health fair on a gorgeous late spring day here. The annual event sponsored by the Winnebago Tribe's Health and Wellness fields put forth another great event that always garners a wide array of participants. Hosted by 12 Clans Unity Hospital, the event happened on the west side of the facility on the lower-level patio. "The day is gorgeous! I'm glad we came by." Said one tribal member who attended the event.

Service (WCHS) and the Winnebago Tribe's Health Department have been hosting this annual fair for over 30 years. "I didn't know that it's been going on that long. But I've been coming to it since I was a little girl, so yeah." stated one of those who we interviewed during the event. This year's fair was also covered by the Big Voice Radio. Both hosts for the station, Bethani Redhorn and Garan Coons, who is also the Communications Officer for the Tribe were on hand to help build awareness of the event and welcome guests. WCHS staff member Crystal Snowball was one of the many tribal members working at the event. She told the WIN, "We had so many shirts to give away. There's not many left. I like seeing our people wear them around." Along with the numerous t-shirts that were handed out from across the board, the various sub-departments also had other collateral items to share. Of course, the main purpose of the event was to provide valuable information to our people for all their health care and wellness needs. Everything the Winnebago Tribe offers in this important field was on full display at this year's health-based fair. All kinds of things from prescription services and information to dental procedure and daily care to child wellness and immunizations were present. Even long-standing efforts at women's health care needs and awareness, like breast cancer prevention & examinations, were available. The blood drive bus was also onsite for anyone wanting to help save a life by donating some blood.

WinnaVegas Announces Major Renovation to Casino Resort

Sloan, Iowa – WinnaVegas Casino Resort recently announced several major renovation projects to enhance the property's amenities and the guest experience at the resort. Current renovations are part of a larger casino and resort remodeling plan that management will announce further details at a later date. WinnaVegas Casino Resort is currently in its 32nd year of operation.

The Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska and WinnaVegas management recently awarded the project renovations to three local businesses in the Siouxland area. Blankenship Paint and Glass, Curry Floors, and Bacon Creek Design will begin construction and remodeling efforts starting in June with a completion date of August 1, 2024. Total renovations will be more than 1 million dollars.

"This is an exciting time for our guests and associates as we make a major investment into the development of our property," said Tom Teesdale, WinnaVegas Casino Resort General Manager. Teesdale continued "The Winnebago Tribal Council believes it is important to utilize and support local businesses in Siouxland for these projects; We're thrilled about these new partnerships and we look forward to a year of innovation and further development of the property in 2024 and beyond."

Curry Floors will replace all the flooring in the hotel rooms, suites, and all public areas of the hotel attached to the Casino Resort. Bacon Creek Design is designing and renovating the existing main casino bar into a larger space with new equipment, seating, and additional amenities for casino guests. Blankenship Paint and Glass will start construction on a new VIP glass-enclosed casino host office to provide better service and amenities that come with being a Diamond Cardholder at WinnaVegas Casino Resort.

Ho-Chunk, Inc.'s newly developed Legacy Learning Program has begun its 8-week pilot program. In an effort to promote the workforce, the Community Development Department is working on addressing two issues identified during an Economic Impact Study: Lack of males in the workforce and child poverty. During the length of the program, opportunities to create and develop skillsets through hands-on learning, workforce readiness training, and life skills are made available to tribal and community members. Shout out to those who supplied resources for the program: Ho-Chunk Construction Group, Ho-Chunk Community Impact and the Engagement Department. For more information or any questions, reach out to the Program Manager: Janelle DeCora at jdecora@hochunkinc.com

Recently the 2024 Bago Purler Wrestling Camp was hosted at the Winnebago Public School. The camp lasted 2 ½ days where wrestlers learned different techniques and ran drills. A total of 90 boys and girls were in attendance. Thank you to Adam Tranmer and crew for helping grow this sport in NE. Photos courtesy of Adam Tranmer.

SUMMER BEGINS IN WINNEBAGO

By Brian Chamberlain

[Winnebago, NE] Every year the Memorial Day Holiday marks the unofficial beginning of summer. This year the kickoff began with a literal bang. With the end of the school year, kids are free to roam, and the sunshine abounds creating the most delicious time of year to be outdoors. With all this activity there comes the need to review what is going on in and around the community. Safety is always on the mind of our parents. Nobody wants to spoil anyone's fun, but there must be a minimum level of attention paid toward keeping everyone safe and out of harm's way.

Because temperatures rise well into the 80s or above, most kids like to get into the pool, or even in the sprinklers. Some even find the local pond where mud and all the things that make being a kid fun exist. To help in this realm we're going to cover some of the basics in each of the areas we feel could be the most helpful. We'll begin with water safety.

Water Safety Tips:

When at the swimming pool, only those who can swim should enter any depth unsupervised. Drowning takes place in any depth, even inches, especially for small children. For those kids who are too young or have not yet mastered the skill of swimming, parents or a capable adult should always accompany them. Also, when possible, attend swimming pools with On Duty Lifeguards. For more information please visit: <https://www.poolsafely.gov/parents/safety-tips/>

Fun on the water also comes in the form of boating and using other watercraft. In these situations, always make sure the kiddies are securely fastened inside a well-fitted life jacket. Water tends to be unsettled, and the slightest rocking of a boat or craft can cause one to fall overboard into the water. Lifejackets are one of the best ways to help keep everyone safe. For more information please visit:

<https://www.commerce.gov/news/blog/2022/08/know-you-go-boating-safety-tips-noaa>

<https://www.nsc.org/community-safety/safety-topics/seasonal-safety/summer-safety/boating>

And who doesn't remember playing in the mud, or at a pond or other standing water reservoir? These areas abound, especially following a thunderstorm. Always make sure proper supervision is being given to help avoid any unnecessary injuries. Also, some water-borne illnesses can be contracted. Local authorities should be sought when any questions arise. For more information please visit: <https://www.watersafetyusa.org/prevent-unsupervised-access>

Finally, everyone needs to be properly hydrated. Including pets! Don't forget about our four-legged loved ones. Pets don't perspire in the same way humans do, so having access to clean, fresh water is an absolute must for any pet parents. Remember, as the temperatures climb, the water you provide can save a life. Also, if you take your pet with you to the local water feature, for more information please visit: <https://www.medvet.com/pet-water-safety/>

In this same way, people also need to ensure their water intake is adequate. When working out in the sun or doing any activity when the weather is hot always be sure to drink enough water. "I always need reminders about drinking water during the heat." Says David Edwards CEO at WCHS/12 Clans Unity Hospital. The WCHS has provided some documentation following this article that can help keep you well within the range of good hydration. For more information please visit:

<https://health.unl.edu/10-tips-staying-hydrated-summer%C2%A0>

As the summer season rolls on the WIN will continue to bring you valuable information regarding how to take care of yourself and those you care about. The heat is a very real thing, so do your best not to underestimate the effects it can have on people and pets. Always check on those without access to adequate air conditioning, especially on the hottest days. And never, ever forget about the pets that depend on you for fresh water and shade. Be safe this summer and have a great time!
