TITLE 2
TABLE OF REVISIONS

The following table is included in this title to show the legislative history for each article and as a guide for determining whether each article properly reflects the current version. This table will be updated as each article is revised.

Pages in bound titles can be inserted and removed when sections are revised on an article-by-article basis. This table should be placed before the Table of Contents in the title.

The “Article” column lists each article number and the “Section” column lists any corresponding sections that have been revised, in sequence. The “Revised Date” column reflects the effective date of the revision (e.g., “6/20/15”). The “Resolution No.” column identifies the resolution approving the revision that was adopted by the Winnebago Tribal Council. If an article is not listed in the table, it has not been revised since the initial adoption of this title of the Tribal Code.

CIVIL PROCEDURE

(As redesignated February 24, 1994)

ARTICLE 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

2-101	Scope of this Act.	2-107	Declaratory judgment.
2-102	Jurisdiction in civil actions.	2-108	Court costs not charged to Tribe.
2-103	Title of this Act.	2-109	Effect of previous Court decisions.
2-104	Force of the Tribal common law.	2-110	C.F.R. not applicable.
2-105	Definitions.	2-111	Laws applicable to civil action.
2-106	No effect upon sovereign immunity.	2-112	Court action when no procedure provided.

2-101 Scope of this Act. This Act governs the procedure in the Courts of the Tribe in all suits of a civil nature whether cognizable as cases at law or in equity except where a law or ordinance of the Tribe specifies a different procedure. These Rules shall be construed to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of every action. [TCR 86-109]

2-102 Jurisdiction in civil actions. The Tribal Court may exercise jurisdiction over any person or subject matter on any basis consistent with the Constitution of the Tribe, the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, and any specific restrictions or prohibitions contained in federal law. [TCR 86-109]

2-103 Title of this Act. This Act shall be known as the Code of Civil Procedure. [TCR 86-109]

2-104 Force of the Tribal common law. The customs and traditions of the Tribe, to be known as the Tribal common law, as modified by the Tribal Constitution and statutory law, judicial decisions, and the condition and wants of the people, shall remain in full force and effect within the Tribal jurisdiction in like force with any statute of the Tribe insofar as the common law is not so modified, but all Tribal statutes shall be liberally construed to promote their object. [TCR 86-109]

2-105 Definitions. Unless a different meaning is clearly apparent from the context, the term:

1. “Chief executive officer” shall mean the executive director or a similarly styled and structured position in the administration of the government of the Tribe.
2. “Other Indian Tribe” shall mean any federally recognized Indian tribe other than this Tribe.
3. “Real property” or “non-trust interest in real property” shall mean any interest in real property within the Tribal jurisdiction other than the Indian trust title held by the United States for the use of any Indian or Indian tribe, or the fee title to any land held by any Indian or Indian tribe which is subject to restriction upon alienation imposed by the United States. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting or attempting to affect the trust or restricted title or trust or restricted Indian land.
4. “Reservation” means all the territory within the exterior boundaries of the Winnebago Indian Reservation (including Flowers Island and other Tribal land located east of the Missouri River) as set forth in the Winnebago Treaty of March 8, 1865 (14 Stat. 671) and the twenty (20) sections included in the strip purchased in Nebraska for Wisconsin Winnebagos (18 Stat. 170), June 22, 1874 and such lands as may be added thereto by Congress or the Tribe or reaffirmation of the title to lands through the Courts to the Tribe, except as otherwise provided by law. This definition of territorial jurisdiction includes all rights-of-way, waterways, streams, lakes, highways, railroad rights-of-way, mineral rights, etc.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

5. “Tribal legislative body” means the Tribal Council of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska.
6. “Tribe” means the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska unless the context clearly indicates another meaning. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-106 No effect upon sovereign immunity. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to be a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Tribe, its officers, employees, agents, or political subdivisions or to be a consent to any suit beyond the limits now or hereafter specifically stated by Tribal law. [TCR 86-109]

2-107 Declaratory judgment. The Court, in any actual controversy before it, shall have the authority to declare the rights of the parties of that suit in order to resolve disputes even though a money judgment or equitable relief is not requested or not due. In particular, the Court may issue its declaratory judgment recognizing Tribal common law marriages and divorces and provide for the custody of children and division of property in such divorces. [TCR 86-109]

2-108 Court costs not charged to Tribe. The Tribe, its officers, employees, agents, or political subdivisions acting in their official capacity shall not be charged or ordered to pay any Court costs or attorney fees under this Act, but if these entities prevail in the action, the cost which such entities would have been required to pay may be charged as costs to the losing party as in other cases. [TCR 86-109]

2-109 Effect of previous Court decisions. All previous decisions of the Courts of the Tribe, insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act, shall continue to have precedential value in the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-110 C.F.R. not applicable. Any and all provisions of part 11 of Title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations as presently or hereafter constituted are declared to be not applicable to the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-111 Laws applicable to civil actions.

1. In all civil cases, the Tribal Court shall apply:
 - a. The Constitution, statutes, and common law of the Tribe not prohibited by applicable federal law, and, if none, then
 - b. The federal law including federal common law, and, if none, then
 - c. The laws of any state or other jurisdiction that the Court finds to be compatible with the public policy and needs of the Tribe.
2. No federal or state law shall be applied to a civil action pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of this Section if such law is inconsistent with the laws of the Tribe or the public policy of the Tribe.
3. Where any doubt arises as to the customs and usages of the Tribe, the Court, either on its own motion or the motion of any party, may subpoena and request the advice of elders and counselors familiar with those customs and usages. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-112 Court action when no procedure provided. In any case in which no specific procedure is provided for by Tribal laws or Court rules, the Court may proceed in any lawful fashion not inconsistent with Tribal law, the rules of the Court, or the Indian Civil Rights Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-211	Signing of pleadings.
2-212	Defenses and objections—when and how presented--by pleadings or motions-- motion for judgment on the pleadings.

2-201 Commencement of Action. A civil action is commenced by filing a complaint with the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-202 One form of action. There shall be one form of action to be known as a “civil action.” [TCR 86-109]

2-203 “Claim” defined. As used in this Act, the term “claim” means any right of action which may be asserted in a civil action or proceeding and includes, but is not limited to, a right of action created by statute. [TCR 86-109]

2-204 Notice of pendency of action. Upon the filing of a complaint in the Tribal Court, the action is pending so as to charge third persons with notice of its pendency. While an action is pending, no third person shall acquire an interest in the subject matter of the suit as against the plaintiff’s title, except as provided in Sections 2-205 and 2-206 of this Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-205 Notice of pendency contingent upon service. Notice of the pendency of an action shall have no effect unless service of process is made upon the defendant within one hundred twenty days after the filing of the petition. [TCR 86-109]

2-206 Special notice for actions pending in other Courts. No action pending in either state or federal Court, or the Court of any other Indian tribe, shall constitute notice with respect to any real property or personal property located within the Tribal jurisdiction until a notice of pendency of the action, identifying the case and the Court in which it is pending and giving the legal description of the land affected, or the description of the personal property and its location (if known) affected by the action, is filed of record in the office of the clerk of the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-207 Pleadings allowed; form of motions.

1. Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and answer; a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under the provisions of Section 2-217; and a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the Court may order a reply to an answer or a third-party answer.
2. Motions and other papers.
 - a. An application to the Court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall:
 - i. Be made in writing;
 - ii. State with particularity the grounds therefor; and
 - iii. Set forth the relief or order sought.

The requirement of a writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

- a. The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these Rules.
- b. All motions shall be signed in accordance with Section 2-211 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-208 General rules of pleading.

1. Claims for relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (A) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (B) a demand for judgment for the relief the pleader seeks. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.
2. Defenses; form of denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms the party's defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If a party is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, the party shall so state, and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only part or a qualification of an averment, the pleader shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, the pleader may make denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs or may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as the pleader expressly admits; but, when the pleader does not so intend to controvert all its averments, including averments of the grounds upon which the Court's jurisdiction depends, the pleader may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in Section 2-211.
3. Affirmative defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively each of the following defenses relied upon:
 - a. Accord and satisfaction;
 - b. Arbitration and award;
 - c. Assumption of risk;
 - d. Contributory negligence;
 - e. Discharge in bankruptcy;
 - f. Duress;
 - g. Estoppel;
 - h. Failure of consideration;
 - i. Fraud;
 - j. Illegality;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

- k. Injury by fellow servant;
- l. Laches;
- m. License;
- n. Payment;
- o. Release;
- p. Res judicata;
- q. Statute of frauds;
- r. Statute of limitations;
- s. Waiver;
- t. Any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense.

When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the Court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

- 4. Effect of failure to deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.
- 5. Pleading to be concise and direct; consistency.
 - a. Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required.
 - b. A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them, if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as the party has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal, equitable, or other grounds. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in Section 2-211 of this Act.
- 6. Construction of pleadings. All pleadings shall be so constructed as to do substantial justice. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-209 Pleading special matters.

- 1. Capacity. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or to be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party, except to the extent required to show the jurisdiction of the Court. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of a party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued, or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, the party shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge, and that party shall have the burden of proof on that issue.
- 2. Fraud, mistake, condition of the mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other conditions of mind of a person may be averred generally.
- 3. Conditions precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.
- 4. Official document or act. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

5. Judgment. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign Court, judicial or quasi-judicial, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth a matter showing jurisdiction to render it.
6. Time and place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.
7. Special damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-210 Form of pleadings, motions, and briefs.

1. Caption; names of parties. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the Court, the title of the action, the file number, and a designation of the type of pleading in the terms expressed in Section 2-207(1). In the complaint, the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings, it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties. In the initial third-party complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, motion and petition in intervention or a pleading by a party suing or being sued in a representative capacity, appropriate designations of all affected parties shall be made and their names stated. Thereafter, papers relating to such matters may contain only the name of the first party in each category with an appropriate indication of other parties.
2. Paragraphs; separate statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as is practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings, motions, or briefs. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense founded upon other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.
3. Adoption by reference; exhibits. Statements in a pleading, motion, or brief may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion or brief. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading, or a motion, or a brief is a part thereof for all purposes. [TCR 86-109]

2-211 Signing of pleadings. Every pleading of a party represented by a licensed attorney or advocate shall be signed by at least one attorney or advocate of record in his/her individual name, whose address and telephone number shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney or advocate shall sign his/her pleading and state his/her address and telephone number. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by an affidavit. The English and American Common Law Rule in equity that the averments of an answer under oath must be overcome by the testimony of two witnesses or of one witness sustained by corroborating circumstances is not applicable in the Tribal Courts. The signature of an attorney or advocate constitutes a certificate by him/her that he/she has read the pleading; that to the best of his/her knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this Section, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a willful violation of this Section, an attorney or advocate may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted. [TCR 86-109]

2-212 Defenses and objections—when and how presented—by pleadings or motions—motion for judgment on the pleadings.

1. When presented.
 - a. A defendant shall serve an answer within twenty days after the service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant, except when service is made under any one of

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

Sections 2-316, 2-318 or 2-321 of this Act and a different time is prescribed in the order of Court, or under a statute of the Tribe. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him/her shall serve an answer thereto within twenty days after the service upon him/her. The plaintiff shall serve his/her reply to a counterclaim in the answer within twenty days after service of the answer, or, if a reply is ordered by the Court, within twenty days after the service of the order unless the order otherwise directs. The Tribe or an officer or agency thereof shall serve an answer to the complaint or to a cross-claim, or a reply to a counterclaim, within sixty days after the service upon the Tribal attorney, chief executive officer and chairman, (or the chief executive officer of the Tribe if there is no Tribal attorney) of the pleading in which the claim is asserted, provided that no default judgment shall be entered against the Tribe, and upon affidavit of the chief executive officer of the Tribe that the Tribe has no attorney but that an attorney contract is pending for Bureau of Indian Affairs approval, the Court shall allow the Tribe to answer within twenty days after the approval of the attorney contract or within sixty days after service, whichever is later.

The service of a motion permitted under this Section alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the Court: (i) if the Court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten days after notice of the Court's action; (ii) if the Court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten days after the service of the more definite statement.

- b. Within the time in which an answer may be served, a defendant may file an entry of reappearance and reserve twenty additional days to answer or otherwise defend. Any entry of appearance shall extend the time to respond twenty days from the last date for answering and is a waiver of all defenses numbered b, c, d, e and i of paragraph (2) of this Section, provided, that a waiver of sovereign immunity shall not be implied under defense I of paragraph (2) of this Section since a defense based upon sovereign immunity is a defense to the subject matter jurisdiction of the Court and not a defense to the parties' capacity to be sued.
2. How presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may, at the option of the pleader, be made by motion:
 - a. Lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter;
 - b. Lack of jurisdiction over the person;
 - c. Improper venue;
 - d. Insufficiency of process;
 - e. Insufficiency of service of process;
 - f. Failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted;
 - g. Failure to join a party under Section 2-403;
 - h. Another action pending between the same parties for the same claim;
 - i. Lack of capacity of a party to be sued; and
 - j. Lack of capacity of a party to sue.

A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, the adverse party may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting defense (F) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Section 2-1005, and all parties shall be - given reasonable opportunity to present all materials made pertinent to such a motion by Section 2-1005. Every motion to dismiss shall be accompanied by a concise brief in support of that motion unless waived by order of the Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

3. Motion for judgment on the pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Section 2-1005, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all materials made pertinent to such motion by Section 2-1005.
 4. Preliminary hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (A)-(J) in subdivision (2) of this Section, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in subdivision (3) of this Section shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the Court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.
 5. Motion for more definite statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, the party may move for a more definite statement before interposing a responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the Court is not obeyed within ten days after notice of the order or within such other time as the Court may fix, the Court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.
 6. Motion to strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading, or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by this Act, upon motion made by a party within twenty days after the service of the pleading upon the party or upon the Court's own initiative at any time, the Court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.
 7. Consolidation of defenses in motion. A party who makes a motion under this Section may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to the party. If a party makes a motion under this Section but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to the party which this Section permits to be raised by motion, the party shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in subdivision (8)(B) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.
 8. Waiver or preservation of certain defenses.
 - a. A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper venue, insufficiency of process, insufficiency of service of process or lack of capacity of a party to sue is waived (i) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in subdivision (7), or (ii) if it is neither made by motion under this Section nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Section 2-218(1) to be made as a matter of course, or (iii) if a permissive counterclaim is filed pursuant to Section 2-214(2).
 - b. A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under Section 2-403, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim, and a defense of another action pending may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Section 2-207(1), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.
 - c. Whenever it is determined, upon suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the Court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the Court shall dismiss the action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-25]

2-213 Final dismissal on failure to amend. On granting a motion to dismiss a claim for relief, the Court shall grant leave to amend if the defect can be remedied and shall specify the time within which an amended pleading shall be filed which should normally be ten days absent good cause for a shorter or longer time. If the amended pleading is not filed within the time allowed, final judgment of dismissal with prejudice shall be entered on motion except in cases of excusable neglect. In such cases, an amendment shall be made by the party in default within a time specified by the Court for filing an amended pleading. Within the time allowed by the Court for an amended pleading, a plaintiff may voluntarily dismiss the action without prejudice. [TCR 86-109]

2-214 Counterclaim and cross-claim.

1. Compulsory counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the Court cannot acquire jurisdiction. But the pleader need not state the claim if (A) at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action, or (B) the opposing party brought suit upon the claim by attachment or other process by which the Court did not acquire jurisdiction to render a personal judgment on that claim, and the pleader is not stating any other counterclaim under this Section.
2. Permissive counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.
3. Counterclaim exceeding opposing claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.
4. Counterclaim against the Tribe. This Act shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counterclaims or to claim credits against the Tribe or an officer or agency thereof. A compulsory counterclaim does not waive the defense of sovereign immunity when made by the Tribe or an officer or an agency thereof. A permissive counterclaim waives the defense of sovereign immunity for the purpose of determining the permissive counterclaim stated by the Tribe, its officer, or agency, but does not waive such defense for any other purpose.
5. Counterclaim maturing or acquired after pleading. A claim that either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving a pleading may, with the permission of the Court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.
6. Omitted counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, the pleader may by leave of Court set up the counterclaim by amendment, except that when such amendment is served within the time otherwise allowed for amendment without leave of the Court by Section 2-218(1) of this Act.
7. Cross-claim against co-party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.
8. Joinder of additional parties. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2-403 and 2-404.
9. Separate trials; separate judgments. If the Court orders separate trials as provided in Section 2-806(2), judgment on a counterclaim, or cross-claim, may be rendered in accordance with the terms of Section 2-1001(2) when the Court has jurisdiction to do so, even if claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-215 Counterclaim: effect of the statute of limitations.

1. Where a counterclaim and the claim of the opposing party arise out of the same transaction or occurrence, the counterclaim shall not be barred by a statute of limitation notwithstanding that it was barred at the time the petition was filed, and the counterclaimant shall not be precluded from recovering an affirmative judgment.
2. Where a counterclaim and the claim of the opposing party:
 - a. Do not arise out of the same transaction or occurrence; and
 - b. Both claims are for money judgments; and
 - c. Both claims had occurred before either was barred by a statute of limitations; and
 - d. The counterclaim is barred by a statute of limitations at the time that it is asserted, whether in an answer or an amended answer, the counterclaim may be asserted only to reduce the opposing party's claim.
3. Where a counterclaim was barred by a statute of limitations before the claim of the opposing party arose, the barred counterclaimant cannot be sued for any purpose. [TCR 86-109]

2-216 Counterclaims against assigned claims. A party, other than a holder in due course, who acquired a claim by assignment or otherwise, takes the claim subject to any defense or counterclaims that could have been asserted against the person from whom he/she acquired the claim, but the recovery on a counterclaim may be asserted against the assignee only to reduce the recovery of the opposing party. [TCR 86-109]

2-217 Third-party practice.

1. When defendant may bring in third party. At any time after commencement of the action a defending party, as a third-party plaintiff, may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to the third-party plaintiff for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The third-party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if the third-party plaintiff files the third-party complaint not later than ten days after serving the original answer. Otherwise, the third-party plaintiff must obtain leave on motion upon notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the summons and third-party complaint, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make any defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in Section 2-212 and any counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in Section 2-214. The third-party plaintiff may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third party has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert any defenses as provided in Section 2-212 and any counterclaims and cross-claims as provided in Section 2-214. A third-party defendant may proceed under this Section against any person who is not a party to the action who is or may be liable to the third-party defendant for all or part of the claim made in action against the third-party defendant. Any party may move to strike the third-party claim, or for its severance or separate trial.
2. When plaintiff may bring in third party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, the plaintiff may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this Section would entitle a defendant to do so.
3. Party defendants in real property actions. Abrogated. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-218 Amended and supplemental pleadings.

1. Amendments. A party may amend the party's pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, the party may so amend it at any time within twenty days after it is served. Otherwise, a party may amend the party's pleading only by leave of the Court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within ten days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer unless the Court otherwise orders.
2. Amendments to conform to the evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the Court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the Court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice the party in maintaining the party's action or defense upon the merits. The Court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence. Where the pre-trial conference order has superseded the pleadings, the pre-trial order is controlling, and it is sufficient to amend the order and the pleadings need not be amended.
3. Relation back of amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him/her, the party to be brought in by amendment (A) has received such notice of the institution of the action that the party will not be prejudiced in maintaining a defense on the merits, and (B) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against the party. The delivery or mailing of process to the Tribal attorney, or his/her designee, or the Tribal Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer and a Tribal Council member, or an agency or officer thereof who would have been a proper defendant if named, satisfies the requirement of clauses (1) and (2) of this subparagraph (3) with respect to the Tribe or any agency or officer thereof to be brought into the action as a defendant.
4. Supplemental pleadings. Upon motion of a party, the Court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit the party to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which would have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be granted even though the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or defense. If the Court deems it advisable that the adverse party pleads to the supplemental pleading, it shall so order, specifying the time therefore. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-219 Pre-trial procedure; formulating issues.

1. In any action, the Court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties and any unrepresented parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:
 - a. The simplification of the issues;
 - b. The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

- c. The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
 - d. The identification of witnesses and documents;
 - e. The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a master or other Tribal Court judge for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury;
 - f. Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.
2. The Court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The Court, in its discretion, may establish by rule a pre-trial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to non-jury actions or extend it to all actions. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-220 Lost pleadings. If a pleading is lost or withheld by any person, the Court may allow a copy thereof to be substituted. [TCR 86-109]

2-221 Tenders of money or property. When a tender of money or property is alleged in any pleading, it shall not be necessary to deposit the money or property in Court when the pleading is filed, but it shall be sufficient if the money or property is deposited in Court at trial, or when ordered by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-222 Dismissal of actions.

1. Voluntary dismissal: effect thereof.
 - a. By plaintiff: by stipulation. Subject to the provisions of Section 2-407 or Section 2-902 or any statute of the Tribe, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of the Court.
 - i. By filing a notice of dismissal at any time before service by the adverse party of an answer or of a motion of summary judgment, whichever first occurs; or
 - ii. By filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal without the consent of the defendants operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once voluntarily dismissed, with the consent of the defendants, in any Court of any Indian Tribe, the United States, or any state, an action based on or including the same claim, unless such previous dismissal was entered due to inability to obtain personal jurisdiction over an indispensable party or lack of subject matter jurisdiction in the Court in which the case was previously filed. If the plaintiff claims either or both of these exceptions, it shall so state in its notice of dismissal and shall apply to the Tribal Court, upon notice to all adverse parties, for an order determining that the previous dismissal was within one or both of the two stated exceptions and that the plaintiff was entitled to dismiss the current action without prejudice. The Court may grant such application in its discretion and allow the plaintiff to dismiss without prejudice on such terms as are just, due regard being had for costs, attorney fees, and inconvenience of the defendants, and any apparent motive to harass, embarrass, or delay the defendants.
 - b. By order of the Court. Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision of this Section, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 2

Court and upon such terms and conditions as the Court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon the defendant of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the Court. Unless otherwise provided in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

2. Involuntary dismissal: effect thereof. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with this Act, any Court rule, or any order of the Court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against the defendant. After the plaintiff, in an action tried with the Court without a jury, has completed the presentation of his/her evidence, the defendant, without waiving his/her right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The Court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the Court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the Court shall make findings as provided in Section 2-851(1). Unless the Court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision and any dismissal not provided for in this Section, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction, or for failure to join a party under Section 2-403, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.
3. Dismissal of counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. The provisions of this Section apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to paragraph (A) of subdivision (1) of this Section shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing. 2-314	Minimum contacts required for effective long arm service.
2-315	Consent is effective substitute for service.

2-301 Issuance of summons. Upon the filing of a complaint, the Court clerk shall forthwith issue a summons and deliver the summons for service with a copy of the complaint to the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney, Tribal police or Bureau of Indian Affairs Police officer or to a person specially appointed by the Court to serve it. Upon request of the plaintiff, separate or additional summons shall issue against any defendants. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-302 Form of summons. The summons shall be signed by the Court clerk, be under the seal of the Court, contain the name of the Court and the names of the parties, be directed to the defendant, state the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney, if any, otherwise the plaintiff's address, and the time within which this Act requires the defendant to appear and defend, and shall notify the defendant that in case of the defendant's failure to do so, judgment by default will be rendered against the defendant for the relief demanded in the complaint. When, under Section 2-318, service is made pursuant to a statute or rule of the Court, the summons, or notice, or order in lieu of summons shall correspond as nearly as may be to that required by the statute or rule of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 93-84, 94-07]

2-303 Who may serve process personally.

1. Process including a subpoena, if served in person, shall be served by a Tribal police officer, or a Bureau of Indian Affairs police officer, a person licensed to make service of process in civil cases pursuant to Court rule, or a person specially appointed by the Court for that purpose. A subpoena may also be served by any person over eighteen years of age who is not a party to the action.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. When process has been served and return thereof is filed in the office of the Court clerk, a copy of the return shall be sent by the Court clerk to the serving party's attorney within three days after the return is filed.
3. Process, other than a subpoena, shall not be served by a party's attorney except as provided in Section 2-304 of this Article. A party shall not make service of process unless appearing without an attorney, in which case the party may make service of process in the same manner and to the same extent that an attorney for the party could have served that process under this Article.
4. The Court shall freely make special appointments to serve all process under this paragraph. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-304 Service of process by mail.

1. A summons and petition, and a subpoena, may be served by mail by the plaintiff's attorney, or any person authorized to serve process pursuant to Section 2-303 of this Article.
2. Service by mail may be accomplished by mailing the subpoena, or a copy of the summons and petition, by certified mail, return receipt requested and delivery restricted to the addressee.
3. Service pursuant to this paragraph shall not be the basis for the entry of a default or a judgment by default unless the record contains a return receipt showing acceptance by the defendant or a returned envelope showing refusal of the process by the defendant. If delivery of the process is refused, upon the receipt of notice of such refusal and at least ten days before applying for entry of default or judgment by default, the person serving the process shall mail to the defendant by first-class mail postage prepaid a copy of the summons and petition and a notice that despite such refusal the case will proceed and that judgment by default will be rendered against him/her unless he/she appears to defend the suit. A copy of said notice and proof of mailing thereof shall be filed of record in the case prior to the entry of a judgment by default. Any such default or judgment by default shall be set aside upon motion of the defendant if the defendant demonstrates to the Court that the return receipt was signed or delivery was refused by an unauthorized person. Such motion shall be filed within one year after the defendant has notice of the default or judgment by default but in no event more than two years after the judgment.
4. In the case of an entity described in subsection (3) of Section 2-317 of this Article, acceptance or refusal by an officer or by any employee of the registered office or principal place of business who is authorized to or who regularly receives certified mail shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed.
5. In the case of a governmental organization subject to suit, acceptance or refusal by an employee of the office of the officials specified in the appropriate subsection of Section 2-317 of this Article who is authorized to or who regularly receives certified mail shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed. [TCR 86-109]

2-305 Service by publication. Service of summons upon a named defendant may be made by publication when it is stated in the petition, verified by the plaintiff or his/her attorney, or in a separate affidavit by the plaintiff or his/her attorney filed with the Court, that with due diligence service cannot be made upon the defendant by any other method. [TCR 86-109]

2-306 Publication service upon parties and the unknown successors of named parties.

1. Service of summons upon named parties, the unknown successor of a named party, a named decedent, or a dissolved partnership, corporation, or other association may be made by publication when it is stated in the complaint, verified by the plaintiff or his/her attorney, or in a separate affidavit by the plaintiff or his/her attorney filed with the Court, that the person who verified the complaint or the affiant does not know, and with due diligence cannot ascertain, the following:

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

- a. Whether a person named as a party is living or dead, and, if dead, the names and whereabouts of his/her successors, if any.
 - b. The names or whereabouts of a party and the unknown successors, if any, of the named decedent or other parties.
 - c. Whether a partnership, corporation, or other association named as a party continues to have legal existence or not; or the name or whereabouts of its officers or successors.
 - d. Whether any person designed in a record as a trustee continues to be the trustee; or the names or whereabouts of the successors of the trustee.
 - e. The names or whereabouts of the owners or holder of special assessment improvement bonds, or any other bonds, sewer warrants or tax bills or similar instruments.
2. Service pursuant to this Section shall be made by publication of a notice, signed by the Court clerk, in a newspaper authorized by law to publish legal notices which is published within the reservation. If no newspaper authorized by law to publish legal notices is published within the reservation, the notice shall be published in the same such newspaper of general circulation within the reservation which is published in an adjoining county.
3. All named parties, their unknown successors, and other persons who may be served by publication may be included in one notice. The notice shall state:
- a. The name of the Court in which the petition is filed.
 - b. The names of the parties.
 - c. Designate the parties whose unknown successors are being served, if any.
 - d. That the named parties and their unknown successors have been sued and must answer the complaint or other pleading on or before a time to be stated (which shall not be less than thirty-one (31) days from the date of the publication), or judgment, the nature of which shall be stated, will be rendered accordingly.
 - e. It is not necessary for the publication notice to state that the judgment will include recovery of costs in order for a judgment following the publication notice to include costs of suit.
4. If jurisdiction of the Court is based on property, any real property subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and any property or debts to be attached or garnished must be described in the notice.
5. Service is complete upon publication. [TCR 86-109]

2-307 Publication notice for recovery of money. When the recovery of money is sought, it is not necessary for the publication notice to state the separate items involved, but the total amount that is claimed must be stated. When interest is claimed, it is not necessary to state the rate of interest, the date from which interest is claimed, or that interest is claimed until the obligation is paid. [TCR 86-109]

2-308 Publication notice in quiet title actions. In an action to quiet title to real property, it is not necessary for the publication notice to state the nature of the claim or interest of either party, and in describing the nature of the judgment that will be rendered should the defendant fail to answer, it is sufficient to state that a decree quieting plaintiff's title to the described property will be entered. It is not necessary to state that a decree forever barring the defendant from asserting any interest in or to the property is sought or will be entered if the defendant does not answer. In quiet title action, notice shall be published twice. The second publication shall be not less than seven nor more than forty-five (45) days after the first publication. The answer shall be due thirty-one (31) days after the second publication, and service is complete upon the second publication. [TCR 86-109]

2-309 Completion of publication service. Service by publication is complete when made in the manner and for the time prescribed in this Article. Service by publication shall be proved by the affidavit of any person having knowledge of the publication with a copy of the published notice attached. No default judgment may be entered on such service until proof of service by publication is filed with and approved by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-310 Entry of default on party served by publication. Before entry of a default judgment or order against a party who has been served solely by publication under this Article, the Court shall conduct an inquiry to determine whether the plaintiff, or someone acting on his/her behalf, made a distinct and meaningful search of all reasonably available sources to ascertain the whereabouts of any named parties who have been served solely by publication under this Section. Before entry of a default judgment or order against the unknown successors of a named defendant, a named decedent, or a dissolved partnership, corporation, or association, the Court shall conduct an inquiry to ascertain whether the requirements described in subsection (1) of Section 2-306 of this Article have been satisfied. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-311 Vacating default judgments where service is by publication.

1. A party against whom a default judgment or order has been rendered, without other service than by publication in a newspaper, may, at any time within three years after the date of the judgment or order, have the judgment or order opened and be let in to defend.
2. Before the judgment or order is opened, the applicant shall notify the adverse party of his/her intention to make such challenge, and shall:
 - a. File a full answer to the petition;
 - b. Pay all costs if the Court requires them to be paid; and
 - c. Satisfy the Court by affidavit or other evidence that during the pendency of the action he/she had no actual notice thereof in time to appear in Court and make his/her defense.
3. The title to any property which is the subject of a default judgment and which passed to a purchaser in good faith by or in consequence of the judgment or order to be opened shall not be affected by any proceedings under this Section. Nor shall proceedings under this Section affect the title of any property sold before judgment under an attachment.
4. The adverse party, on the hearing of any application to open a judgment or order as provided by this Section, shall be allowed to present evidence to show that during the pendency of the action the applicant had notice thereof in time to appear in Court and make his/her defense. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-312 Certain technical errors not grounds for vacating judgment.

1. No judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered in any action against unknown heirs or devisees of a deceased person shall ever be construed, or held to be, either void or voidable upon the ground that an affidavit of the plaintiff to the effect that the name of heirs or devisees, or any of them, and their residences are unknown to the plaintiff, was not annexed to his/her complaint so long as said affidavit is on file in the action, and all such judgments, if not otherwise void, are hereby declared to be valid and binding from the date of rendition.
2. No judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered in any action against any person or party served by publication shall be construed or held to be void or voidable because the affidavit for such service by publication on file in the action was made by the attorney for the plaintiff or because the complaint or other pleading was verified, if verification is necessary, by the attorney for the plaintiff or party seeking such service by publication. In all such cases, it shall be conclusively presumed, if otherwise sufficient, that the allegations and statements made by such an attorney were and are in legal effect and for all purposes made by plaintiff and shall have the same force and effect as if actually made by the plaintiff.
3. All such judgments, if not otherwise defective or void, are hereby declared valid and legally effective and conclusive as of the date thereof as if such affidavit was made or the complaint or pleading was verified by the plaintiff or other party obtaining such service by publication. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-313 Meaning of “successors” for publication purposes. The term “successors” includes all heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees, and assigns, immediate and remote, of a named individual, partnership, corporation, or association. [TCR 86-109]

2-314 Minimum contacts required for effective long arm service. Service outside of the Tribal jurisdiction does not give the Court in persona jurisdiction over a defendant who is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of this Tribe, or who has not, either in person or through an agent, submitted him/herself to the jurisdiction of the Courts of this Tribe either by appearance, written consent, or having voluntarily entered into sufficient contacts with the Tribe, its members, or its territory to justify Tribal jurisdiction over him/her in accordance with the principals of due process of law and federal Indian law. [TCR 86-109]

2-315 Consent is effective substitute for service. If service cannot be made by personal delivery or by mail, a defendant of any class referred to in subsection (1) or (3) of Section 2-317 of this Article may be served as provided by Court order in any manner which is reasonably calculated to give him/her actual notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard. The Court may enter an order requiring such service whenever service has been by publication only prior to entering a default judgment.

2-316 Service pursuant to Court order. If service cannot be made by personal delivery or by mail, a defendant of any class referred to in subsection (1) or (3) of Section 2-317 of this chapter may be served as provided by Court order in any manner which is reasonably calculated to give him/her actual notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard. The Court may enter an order requiring such service whenever service has been by publication only prior to entering a default judgment.

2-317 Summons and complaint; person to be served. The summons and complaint shall be served together. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such copies as are necessary. These provisions are not jurisdictional, but if the failure to comply with them prejudices the party served, the Court may extend the time to answer. Service shall be made as follows:

1. Upon an individual other than an infant or incompetent person, by delivering a copy of the summons and a copy of the complaint to him/her personally or by leaving copies thereof at his/her dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.
2. Upon an infant or an incompetent person, by serving the summons and complaint to either parent, the legal guardian of the infant or incompetent person, if any, or the person with whom the infant resides if the infant is under the age of fourteen years, or upon the person with whom the incompetent person resides. If the infant is over the age of fourteen years, by serving either parent or the legal guardian of the infant, if any, or the person with whom the infant resides and by serving the infant personally if the legal guardian cannot be located.
3. Upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association which is subject to suit under a common name, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the defendant. Service may also be had upon such entities by delivering the summons and complaint to a place of business of such entity and leaving a copy with the person in charge of that place of business at the time service is made.
4. Upon the United States, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the United States attorney for the district in which the action is brought or to an assistant United States

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

- attorney or clerical employee designated by the United States attorney in a writing filed with the clerk for the Court and by sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail to the attorney general of the United States at Washington, District of Columbia, and in any action attacking the validity of an order of an officer or agency of the United States not made a party, by also sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail to such officer or agency.
5. Upon any officer or agency of the United States, by serving the United States and by sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail to such office or agency. If the agency is a corporation the copy shall be delivered as provided in subsection (3) of this Section.
 6. Upon a state, a state municipal corporation, or any other Indian tribe not a party to this Act, or other governmental organization thereof subject to suit, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the chief executive officer thereof or by serving the summons and complaint in the manner prescribed by the law of that state or Tribe for the service of summons or other like process upon any such defendant.
 7. Upon this Tribe by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the chief executive officer of the Tribe, and to the Tribal Chairman in a writing filed with the clerk of the Tribal Court, and by sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Tribal attorney and in any action attacking the validity of an order of an officer or agency of the Tribe not made a party, by also sending a copy of the summons and complaint by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to such officer or agency. The name and address of the Tribal attorney may always be obtained from the Bureau of Indian Affairs or the chief executive officer of the Tribe.
 8. Upon any officer or agency of this Tribe by serving the Tribe as provided by subsection (7) of this Section, and by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to such officer or agency. If the agency is a corporation, the copy shall be delivered as provided in subsection (3) of this Section. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-25]

2-317.1 Effect of service of some of several defendants.

1. Where the action is against two or more defendants, and one or more shall be served, but not all of them, the plaintiff may proceed as follows:
 - a. If the action be against defendants jointly indebted upon contract, tort, or any other cause of action, he/she may proceed against the defendants served, unless the Court otherwise orders; and if he/she recovers judgment, it may be entered against; (i) all the defendants thus jointly indebted only insofar as the judgment may be enforced against the joint property of all, and (ii) against the defendants served insofar as the judgment may be enforced against the separate property of the defendants served, and if they are subject to arrest, against the persons of the defendants served.
 - b. If the action be against defendants severally liable, he/she may, without prejudice to his/her rights against those not served, proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants.
2. A judgment against one or more defendants served, whether jointly or severally liable, shall not be construed to make such judgment a bar to another action against those not served. [TCR 86-109]

2-318 Service upon party not inhabitant of or found within the territorial limits of the reservation.

1. Whenever an ordinance of the Tribe or an order of the Court of the Tribe provides for service of summons, or of a notice, or of an order in lieu of summons upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the geographical boundaries of the Tribal reservation, service may be made under the circumstances and in the manner prescribed by the ordinance or order, or, if there is no provision therein prescribing the manner of service, in a manner stated in this Act.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. In any action against a foreign corporation or association where service is authorized by Tribal law upon a Tribal officer, and the party seeking service elects to serve the Tribal officer, service shall be made as follows:
 - a. The Tribal Court clerk shall issue a summons and shall forthwith mail or personally serve triplicate copies of said summons, together with a copy of the complaint and the service fee to the Tribal officer. The Court clerk shall make due return, indicating that the summons and complaint copies have been delivered to the Tribal officer and the date of such delivery. Receipt of the summons and complaint by the Tribal officer shall constitute service upon him/her. Within three working days after service upon him/her, the Tribal officer shall send copies of the summons and complaint to such foreign corporation or association, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its office as shown by the articles of incorporation, or charter, or by the latest information officially filed in the office of the Tribal officer. The summons shall set forth the last-known address of the office of the corporation or association as ascertained by the parties by use of due diligence, and the Tribal officer shall mail copies of the summons and complaint to the corporation or association at this address. The Tribal officer shall maintain one copy of the summons and complaint with the records of the corporation or association.
 - b. The original summons that is served on the Tribal officer shall be in form and substance the same as provided in suits against residents of the Tribal jurisdiction. The summons shall state an answer date which shall be not less than forty-five (45) days nor more than sixty days from the date that such summons was issued. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-319 Territorial limits of effective service.

1. All process, other than subpoena or process involving the detention, seizure, or arrest of persons or property, may be served anywhere within the reservation boundaries, or any Indian country, as defined by 18 U.S.C. 1151, which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribe and, when authorized by an ordinance or statute of the Tribe or by this Act, beyond these territorial limits.
2. In addition, persons who are brought in as parties pursuant to Section 2-217 of this Act, or as additional parties to a pending action or a counterclaim or cross-claim therein pursuant to Section 2-403, may be served in the manner stated in subsections 1-6 of Section 2-317 of this Act at all places outside the reservation of the Tribe but within the United States, and persons required to respond to an order of commitment for civil contempt may be served, but not arrested, at the same places.
3. A subpoena or process involving the detention, seizure, or arrest of persons or property, may be served and compulsorily enforced only within the Indian country, as defined by 18 U.S.C. 1151, which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribe. A subpoena or other process involving the detention, seizure or arrest of a person or property may be served anywhere within the United States, but no compulsory enforcement thereof may be maintained in this Court unless such person or property is located within the Indian country of the Tribe when service is made.
4. When the exercise of jurisdiction is authorized by Tribal or federal law, service of the summons and complaint may be made outside this reservation:
 - a. By personal delivery in the manner prescribed for service within this reservation.
 - b. In the manner prescribed by the law of the place in which the service is made for service in that place in an action in any of its Courts of general jurisdiction.
 - c. By publication, in appropriate circumstances.
 - d. As directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory, or

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

e. As directed by the Court. [TCR 86-109, 93-84]

2-320 Return of service of process.

1. The person serving the process shall make proof of service thereof to the Court promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the process. If service is made by a person other than a Tribal police officer, a Bureau of Indian Affairs police officer or their deputy, or an attorney by mail, he/she shall make an affidavit thereof. Return of receipt for certified or registered mail shall be attached to the proof of service if service was made by mail. A copy of each publication of notice shall be attached to the return of service by publication. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.
2. The person serving the summons shall state on the copy that is left with the party served, as well as on the return, the date that service is made. Where service is to be made by mail, the person mailing the summons shall state on the copy that is mailed to the party to be served the date of mailing. These provisions are not jurisdictional, but if the failure to comply with them prejudices the party served, the Court may extend the time to answer. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-321 Alternative provisions for service in a foreign country.

1. Manner. When the law of the Tribe referred to in Section 2-318 of this Article authorizes service upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the territorial limits of effective service of the Tribal Court, and when service is to be effected upon the party in a foreign country, it is also sufficient if service of the summons and complaint is made: (A) in the manner prescribed by the law of the Tribe, state, or foreign country for service in that Tribe, state, or country in an action in any of its Courts of general jurisdiction; or (B) as directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory when service, in either case, is reasonably calculated to give actual notice; or (C) upon an individual, by delivery to him/her personally, and upon a corporation or partnership or association, by delivery to an officer, a managing or general agent; or (D) by any form of mail, requiring a signed receipt, to be addressed and as directed by the order of the Court. Service under (C) or (D) above may be made by any person who is not a party and is not less than eighteen years of age or who is designated by order of the Tribal Court or by the foreign Court. On request, the clerk shall deliver the summons to the plaintiff for transmission to the person or the foreign Court or officer or who will make the service.
2. Return. Proof of service may be made as prescribed by Section 2-320 of this Article, or by the law of the Tribe, state or foreign country, or by order of this Court. When service is made by mail pursuant to subsection (1) of this Section, proof of service shall include a receipt signed by the addressee or other evidence of the delivery to the address satisfactory to the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-322 Subpoena.

1. For attendance of witnesses; form; issuance. Every subpoena shall be issued by the clerk under the seal of the Court, shall state the name of the Court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The clerk shall issue a subpoena for the production of documentary or other physical evidence signed and sealed, but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.
2. Production of documentary evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the Court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith may (A) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable

- and oppressive or (B) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.
3. Service. A subpoena may be served by a Tribal police officer, a Bureau of Indian Affairs police officer, or by any other person authorized by the Court or by this Act who is not a party and is not less than eighteen years of age. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and by tending to him/her the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the Tribe or an officer or agency thereof, fees and mileage need not be tendered, but fees paid shall be charged to such Tribal officer or agency budget. A subpoena may be served as provided in Section 2-304 if accepted by the addressee. All subpoena service expenses may be recovered as other costs.
 4. Subpoena for taking depositions; place of examination.
 - a. Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition as provided in Sections 2-505(2) and 2-506(1) or presentation of prepared notices to be attached to the subpoena constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance by the clerk of the Tribal Court of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of the examination permitted by Section 2-501(2), but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of Section 2-501(3) and subdivision (2) of this Section. The person to whom the subpoena is directed may, within ten days after the service thereof or on or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance, if such time is less than ten days after service, serve upon the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials. If objection is made, any party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials except pursuant to an order of the Court from which the subpoena was issued. The party serving the subpoena may, if objection has been made, move upon notice to the deponent for an order at any time before or during the taking of the deposition.
 - b. A resident of the Tribal jurisdiction may be required to attend an examination at any place within the exterior boundaries of the reservation as defined in Section 2-105(4) of this Act.
 5. Subpoena for hearing or trial.
 - a. At the request of any party, subpoenas for attendance at a hearing or trial shall be issued by the clerk of the Tribal Court. A subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial may be served at any place within the Tribal jurisdiction, or at any place without the Tribal jurisdiction that is within one hundred miles of the place of the hearing or trial specified in the subpoena; and, when a statute of the Tribe provides therefor, the Court upon proper application and cause shown may authorize the service of a subpoena at any other place.
 - b. A subpoena directed to a witness in a foreign country shall be issued under the circumstances and in the manner and be served as may be provided by any Tribal statute.
 6. Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him/her within the Tribal jurisdiction may be deemed a contempt of the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-330 Summons; time limit for service.

1. If service of process is not made upon a defendant within one hundred twenty days after the filing of the complaint and the plaintiff cannot show good cause why such service was not made within that period, the action shall be dismissed as to that defendant without prejudice upon the Court's own initiative with notice to the plaintiff or upon motion.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. If service of process is not made upon a defendant within one hundred eighty days after the filing of the complaint, the action shall be deemed to have been dismissed without prejudice as to that defendant. This Section shall not apply to service in a foreign country. [TCR 86-109]

2-331 Service and filing of pleadings and other papers.

1. Service: when required. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the Court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every paper relating to discovery required to be served upon a party unless the Court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except the pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons. In an action begun by seizure of property, in which no person need be or is named as defendant, any service required to be made prior to the filing of an answer, claim, or appearance shall be made upon the person having custody or possession of the property at the time of its seizure.
2. Service: how made. Whenever service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney (including any person licensed to practice law before the Tribal Court) the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party him/herself is ordered by the Court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to the attorney or party or by mailing it to the attorney or party at the attorney or party's last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the Court who shall mail a copy thereof to the party's last address of record. Delivery of a copy within this Section means: handing it to the attorney or to the party, or leaving it at an office with his/her clerk, or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at the person's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person fifteen years of age or older then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.
3. Service: numerous defendants. In any action in which there are an unusually large number of defendants, the Court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross-claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the Court directs.
4. Filing. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party together with a certificate of service, shall be filed with the Court within a reasonable time after service, but the Court may on motion of a party or on its own initiative order that depositions upon oral examination and interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admission, and answers and responses thereto not be filed unless on order of the Court or for use in the proceeding.
5. Filing with the Court defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the Court as required by this Article shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the Court except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with the judge, in which event the judge shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the clerk. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-340 Time.

1. Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Act, by order of the Court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, or any other day when the office of the clerk of the Court does not remain open for public business until 4:30 p.m. in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday or when the act to be done is the filing of a paper in Court, a day on which weather or other conditions have made the office of the clerk of the Court inaccessible or any other day when the office of the clerk of the Court does remain open for public business until 4:30 p.m. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than or equal to seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays or any other day when the office of the clerk of the Court does not remain open for public business until 4:30 p.m. shall be excluded in the computation. As used in this Section and in the provisions relating to the Court, “legal holiday” includes New Year’s Day, Tribal Constitution Anniversary Day (being February 28), Memorial Day, Independence Day, the Monday after the Winnebago Pow-Wow, Labor Day, Native American Day (being the fourth Monday in September), Tribal Election Day (being the first Tuesday after the first Monday in October), Veterans Day, and any other day appointed as a holiday by the President or the Congress of the United States or by the Tribe.
2. Enlargement. When by this Act or by a notice given thereunder or by order of the Court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the Court for cause shown at any time in its discretion may (A) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if request thereof is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order, or (B) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Sections 2-857(2), 2-852(3), (4) and (5), and Section 2-1009(2), except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.
3. For motions—affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than five days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by this Act or by order of the Court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in Section 2-1008(3), opposing affidavits may be served not later than one day before the hearing, unless the Court permits them to be served at some other time.
4. Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon the party and the notice or paper is served upon the party by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-341 General cases in which extraterritorial service authorized. Service of summons and complaint, third-party complaints, and other process by which an action is instigated may be made outside the territorial limits described in Section 2-319 in the following cases in addition to any circumstances specifically or otherwise provided for:

1. In all actions arising under the Tribal juvenile statutes or the Indian Child Welfare Act;
2. In all divorce actions when one of the parties is a resident of the Tribal jurisdiction or a member of the Tribe;
3. In all actions arising in a contract where the contract was entered into, or some material portion thereof was to be performed, within the Tribal jurisdiction; or

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 3

4. In all actions arising out of the negligent operation of an automobile within the Tribal jurisdiction by a non-resident when an injury to person or property resulted within the Tribal jurisdiction from the negligent operation of the motor vehicle. [TCR 86-109]

2-342 Legal newspaper. All newspapers regularly published at least once each week for a period of two years prior to the date of publication of a notice within the reservation or in any county adjacent thereto, and the Tribal newspaper shall be legal newspapers for the publication of any notice required to be published by Tribal law. [TCR 86-109]

PARTIES

2-401	Parties plaintiff and defendant: capacity.	2-406	Interpleader.
2-402	Joinder of claims, remedies, and actions.	2-407	Class actions.
2-403	Joinder of persons needed for just adjudication.	2-408	Derivative actions by shareholders and members.
2-404	Permissive joinder of parties.	2-409	Intervention.
2-405	Misjoinder and non-joinder of parties.	2-410	Substitution of parties.

2-401 Parties plaintiff and defendant: capacity.

1. Real party in interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in that person's own name without joining the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the Tribe so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the Tribe. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.
2. Capacity to sue or be sued. Except as otherwise provided by law, every person, corporation, partnership, or incorporated association shall have the capacity to sue or be sued in its own name in the Courts of the Tribe, and service may be had upon unincorporated associations and partnership as provided in Section 2-317(3) of this Act, upon a managing or general partner, or upon an officer of an unincorporated association.
3. Infants or incompetent persons. Whenever an infant or incompetent person has a representative, such as a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the infant or incompetent person. An infant or incompetent person who does not have a duly appointed representative may sue by next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for an infant or incompetent person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the infant or incompetent person.
4. Assignment of tort claims prohibited. Claims arising in tort may not be assigned and must be brought by the injured party, provided, that this subsection shall not preclude subrogation of the proceeds of such tort claims for the benefit of any person, including insurance companies, who have compensated the injured party for their injuries, including property damage, to the extent of the payment made by the third party.
5. Definitions. Abrogated. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-402 Joinder of claims, remedies, and actions.

1. Joinder of claims. A party asserting a claim for relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims, legal or equitable as the party may have against an opposing party.
2. Joinder of remedies: fraudulent conveyances. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the Court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to that plaintiff, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money.

3. Joinder of actions by the Court. Abrogated. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-403 Joinder of persons needed for just adjudication.

1. Persons to be joined if feasible. A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the Court of jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action shall be joined as a party in the action if:
- a. In the person's absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties.
 - b. The person claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in the person's absence may:
 - i. as a practical matter impair or impede the person's ability to protect that interest or
 - ii. leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of the claimed interest.

If the person has not been so joined, the Court shall order that the person be made a party. If the person should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, the person may be made a defendant, or in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff.

2. Determination by Court whenever joinder not feasible. If a person as described in subdivision (1)(a)-(b) hereof cannot be made a party, the Court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the Court in making such determination include:
- a. First, to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to the person or those already parties;
 - b. Second, the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided;
 - c. Third, whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; and
 - d. Fourth, whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for non-joinder.
3. Pleading reasons for non-joinder. A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any person as described in subdivision (a)(1)-(2) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.
4. Exception of class actions. This Section is subject to the provisions of Section 2-407. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-404 Permissive joinder of parties.

1. Permissive joinder.
- a. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, and if any question of law or fact common to all these persons will arise in the action.
 - b. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, and if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action, or if the claims are connected with the subject matter of the action.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

- c. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.
2. Abrogated.
3. Separate Trials. The Court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom the party asserts no claim, or who asserts no claim against the party, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-405 Misjoinder and non-joinder of parties. Misjoinder of parties is not grounds for dismissal of an action. Leave of the Court shall not be required when the pleader amends his/her pleadings within the time period for amendment of pleadings without leave of the Court specified in Section 2-215(1). Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately upon order of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-406 Interpleader.

1. Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that the plaintiff is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this Section supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted in Section 2-404.
2. The provisions of this Section shall be applicable to actions brought against a Tribal policeman or other officer for the recovery of personal property taken by him/her under execution or for the proceeds of such property so taken and sold by him/her; and the defendant in any such action shall be entitled to the benefit of this Section against the party in whose favor the execution issued.
3. The Court may make an order for the safekeeping of the subject of the action or for its payment or delivery into the Court or to such person as the Court may direct, and the Court may order the person who is seeking relief by way of interpleader to give a bond, payable to the clerk of the Court, in such amount and with such surety as the Court or judge may deem proper, conditioned upon the compliance with the future order or judgment of the Court with respect to the subject matter of the controversy. Where the party seeking relief by way of interpleader claims no interest in the subject of the action and the subject of the action has been deposited with the Court or with a person designated by the Court, the Court should discharge him/her from the action and from liability as to the claims of the other parties to the action with costs and, in the discretion of the Court, reasonable attorney fees.
4. In cases of interpleader, costs may be adjudged for or against any party, except as provided in subsection (3) of this Section. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

2-407 Class actions.

1. Prerequisites to a class action. One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if: (A) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, (B) there are questions of law or fact common to the class, (C) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and (D) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.
2. Class actions maintainable. An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of subsection (1) are satisfied and in addition:
 - a. The prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - i. Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class; or
 - ii. Adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.
 - b. The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.
 - c. The Court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: (i) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (ii) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; (iii) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; (iv) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.
3. Determination by order whether class action to be maintained; notice; judgment; actions conducted partially as class actions.
 - a. As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the Court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subdivision may be conditional and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.
 - b. In any class action maintained under subdivision (2)(c), the Court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that (i) the Court will exclude the member from the class if the member so requests by a specified date; (ii) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and (iii) any member who does not request exclusion may, if the member desires, enter an appearance through counsel.
 - c. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (2)(a) or (2)(b), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the Court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (2)(c), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (3)(b) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the Court finds to be members of the class.
 - d. When appropriate (i) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or (ii) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this Section shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

- e. Abrogated.
4. Orders in conduct or actions. In the conduct of actions to which this Section applies, the Court may make appropriate orders:
 - a. Determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;
 - b. Requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the Court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;
 - c. Imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;
 - d. Requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to the representation of absent persons and that the action proceed accordingly;
 - e. Dealing with similar procedural matters.The orders may be combined with an order under Section 2-219, and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.
5. Dismissal or compromise. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the Court directs. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-408 Derivative actions by shareholders and members.

1. In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall be verified and shall allege:
 - a. That the plaintiff was a shareholder or member at the time of the transaction of which the plaintiff complains or that the plaintiff's share or membership thereafter devolved on the plaintiff by operation of law.
 - b. That the action is not a collusive one to confer jurisdiction on a Court of the Tribe which it would not otherwise have. The complaint shall also allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action the plaintiff desires from the directors or comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for the plaintiff's failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort.
2. The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the Court directs. The Court shall not take jurisdiction over such actions concerning the internal affairs of corporations or other entities formally organized under the law of some other jurisdiction absent the consent of all parties to the controversy or some compelling reason to assume such jurisdiction.
3. An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action, the Court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in Section 2-407(4) and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in Section 2-407. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-409 Intervention.

1. Intervention of right. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (A) when a statute of the Tribe confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (B) when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and the applicant is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede the applicant's ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.
2. Permissive intervention. Upon timely application, anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a Tribal, federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirement or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion, the Court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.
3. Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties as provided in Section 2-331. The motion shall state the grounds therefore and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. If the motion to intervene is granted, all other parties may serve a responsive pleading upon leave of the Court.
4. Intervention by the Tribe. In any action, suit, or proceeding to which the Tribe or any agency, officer, or employee thereof is not a party in their official capacity, wherein the constitutionality or enforceability of any statute of the Tribe affecting the public interest is drawn in question the parties, and upon their failure to do so, the Court shall certify such fact to the chief executive officer of the Tribe, the Tribal attorney, and the Tribal legislative body and the Court shall permit the Tribe to intervene for presentation of evidence, if the evidence is otherwise admissible in the case, and for argument on the question of constitutionality or enforceability. The Tribe shall, subject to the applicable provisions of law, have all the rights of a party, and be subject to the liability of a party—as to Court costs only—to the extent necessary for a proper presentation of the facts and law relating to the question of constitutionality or enforceability of the Tribal laws at issue. It shall be the duty of the party raising such issue to promptly give notice thereof to the Court either orally upon the record in open Court or by a separate written notice filed with the Court and served upon all parties, and to state in said notice when and how notice of the pending question will be or has been certified to the Tribe as provided above. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-410 Substitution of parties.

1. Death. If a party dies, the Court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by any party or by the successors or representatives of the deceased party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided in Section 2-331 and upon persons, not parties in the manner provided for the service of a summons, and may be served within or without the Tribal jurisdiction. Unless the motion for substitution is made not later than ninety days after the death is suggested upon the record, the action shall be dismissed as to the deceased party.
 - a. In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 4

- b. Actions for libel, slander, and malicious prosecution shall abate at the death of the defendant.
- c. Other actions, including actions for wrongful death, shall survive the death of a party.
- 2. Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the Court upon motion served as provided in subdivision (1) of this Section may allow the action to be continued by or against his/her representative.
- 3. Transfer of interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the Court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in subdivision (1) of this Section.
- 4. Public officers; death or separation from office.
 - a. When a public officer is a party to an action in his/her official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his/her successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.
 - b. When a public officer sues or is sued in his/her official capacity, he/she may be described as a party by his/her official title rather than by name but the Court may require his/her name to be added. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

2-501	General provisions governing discovery.	2-508	Interrogatories to parties.
2-502	Depositions before action or pending appeal.	2-509	Production of documents and things and entry upon land for inspection and other purposes.
2-503	Persons before whom depositions may be taken.	2-510	Physical and mental examination of persons.
2-504	Stipulations regarding discovery procedure.	2-511	Requests for admission.
2-505	Depositions upon oral examination.	2-512	Failure to make or cooperate in discovery: sanctions.
2-506	Depositions upon written questions.
2-507	Use of depositions in Court proceedings.

2-501 General provisions governing discovery.

1. Discovery methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission. Unless the Court orders otherwise under subdivision (3) of this Section, the frequency of use of these methods is not limited. Discovery may be obtained as provided herein in aid of execution upon a judgment.
2. Scope of discovery. Unless otherwise limited by order of the Court in accordance with this Article, the scope of discovery is as follows:
 - a. In general. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
 - b. Insurance agreements. A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this paragraph, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.
 - c. Trial preparation: materials. Subject to the provisions of subdivision (2)(D) of this Section, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subdivision (2)(A) of this Section and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including the other party's attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of the party's case and that the party is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the Court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation. A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a Court order. The provisions of Section 2-512(1)(D) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this paragraph, a statement previously made is (i) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (ii) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

- d. Trial preparation: experts. Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of subdivision (2)(A) of this Section and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:
 - i. (a) A party may, through interrogatories, require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at a trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion. (b) Upon motion, the Court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to subdivision (2)(D)(iii) of this Section, concerning fees and expenses as the Court may deem appropriate.
 - ii. A party may discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only as provided in Section 2-510(2) or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.
 - iii. Unless manifest injustice would result, (a) the Court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under subdivisions (2)(D)(i)(b) and (2)(D)(ii) of this Section; and (b) with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision (2)(D)(ii) of this Section, the Court shall require the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.
3. Protective orders. Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, the Court in which the action is pending or alternatively, on matters relating to a deposition, the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is to be taken may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: (A) that the discovery not be had; (B) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (C) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (D) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (E) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the Court; (F) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the Court; (G) that a trade secret or other confidential research development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; (H) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the Court. If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the Court may, on such terms and conditions as

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Section 2-512(1)(D) apply to award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.
4. Sequence and timing of discovery. Unless the Court upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery.
 5. Supplementation of responses. A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement the response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:
 - a. A party is under a duty seasonably to supplement the response with respect to any question directly addressed to (i) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and (ii) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at a trial, the subject matter on which the person is expected to testify, and the substance of the person's testimony.
 - b. A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response if the party obtains information upon the basis of which (i) the party knows that the response was incorrect when made, or (ii) the party knows that the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.
 - c. A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the Court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.
 6. Discovery conference. At any time after commencement of an action, the Court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference on the subject of discovery. The Court shall do so upon motion by the attorney for any party if the motion includes:
 - a. A statement of the issues as they then appear;
 - b. A proposed plan and schedule of discovery;
 - c. Any limitations proposed to be placed on discovery;
 - d. Any other proposed orders with respect to discovery; and
 - e. A statement showing that the attorney making the motion has made a reasonable effort to reach agreement with opposing attorneys on the matters set forth in the motion. Each party and each party's attorney are under a duty to participate in good faith in the framing of a discovery plan if a plan is proposed by the attorney for any party. Notice of the motion shall be served on all parties. Objections or additions to matters set forth in the motion shall be served no later than ten days after service of the motion. Following the discovery conference, the Court shall enter an order tentatively identifying the issues for discovery purposes, establishing a plan and schedule for discovery, setting limitations on discovery, if any; and determining such other matters, including the allocation of expenses, as are necessary for the proper management of discovery in the action. An order may be altered or amended whenever justice so requires. Subject to the right of the party who properly moves for a discovery conference to prompt convening of the conference, the Court may combine the discovery conference with a pretrial conference authorized by Section 2-219.
 7. Signing of discovery requests, responses, and objections. Every request for discovery or response or objection thereto made by a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign the request, response, or objection and state the party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that the signer has read the request, response, or objection, and that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief formed after a reasonable inquiry it is: (A) consistent with this Act and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law;

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

(B) not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and (C) not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the discovery already had in the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation. If a request, response, or objection is not signed, it shall be stricken unless it is signed promptly after the omission is called to the attention of the party making the request, response, or objection, and a party shall not be obligated to take any action with respect to it until it is signed. If a certification is made in violation of this Section, the Court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, shall impose upon the person who made the certification, the party upon whose behalf the request, response, or objection is made, or both, an appropriate sanction, which may include an order to pay the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of the violation, including a reasonable attorney's fee. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-502 Depositions before action or pending appeal.

1. Before action.

- a. Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate testimony regarding any matter that may be cognizable in Tribal Court may file a verified petition in the Tribal Court if the Tribal jurisdiction is the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show: (i) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in the Tribal Court but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought; (ii) the subject matter of the expected action and the petitioner's interest therein; (iii) the facts which the petitioner desires to establish by the proposed testimony and the petitioner's reasons for desiring to perpetuate it; (iv) the names or description of the persons the petitioner expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known; and (v) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which the petitioner expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.
- b. Notice and service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the Court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least twenty days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served either within or without the Tribal jurisdiction in the manner provided in Section 2-317 for service of summons. If personal service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the Court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in Section 2-317(4) an attorney or advocate who shall represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent, the provisions of Section 2-401(3) apply. Any attorney appointed pursuant to this Section shall be compensated as provided by the Court from the Court fund, such compensation to be taxed as costs against the person perpetuating the testimony.
- c. Order and examination. If the Court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatives. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with this Article and the Court may make orders of the character provided for by Sections 2-509 and 2-510.
- d. Use of deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under this Article or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the Courts of the jurisdiction in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in the Tribal Court, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2-507(1).

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. Pending appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of the Tribal Court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefore has not expired, the Court may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the Tribal Court. In such case, the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the Tribal Court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the Tribal Court. The motion shall show (a) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he/she expects to elicit from each; (b) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the Court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by Sections 2-509 and 2-510, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these sections for depositions taken in actions pending in the District Court.
3. Perpetuation by action. This Section does not limit the power of a Court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-503 Persons before whom depositions may be taken.

1. Within the Tribal jurisdiction. Within the jurisdiction of the Tribe, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the Tribe, or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the Court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony. All parties shall be subject to these provisions anywhere within the reservation as defined in this Act. The term officer as used in Sections 2-505, 2-506, and 2-507 includes a person appointed by the Court or designated by the parties under Section 2-504.
2. Outside the Tribal jurisdiction. Outside the Tribal jurisdiction, depositions may be taken (A) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States; or (B) before a person commissioned by the Court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of the commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony; or (C) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or a letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impractical or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in (Name of Tribe, State, or Country)." Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the Tribal jurisdiction under these sections.
3. Disqualification for interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-504 Stipulations regarding discovery procedure. Unless the Court orders otherwise, the parties may by written stipulation (1) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions; and (2) modify the procedures provided by this Article for other methods of discovery except that stipulations extending the time provided in Sections 2-508, 2-509, and 2-511 for responses to discovery may be made only with the approval of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-505 Depositions upon oral examination.

1. When depositions may be taken. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of Court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of thirty days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant or service made by publication, except that leave is not required (A) if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery; or (B) if special notice is given as provided in subdivision (2)(b) of this Section. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided in Section 2-322. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of Court on such terms as the Court prescribes.
2. Notice of examination: general requirements; special notice; non-stenographic recording; production of documents and things; deposition of organization.
 - a. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.
 - b. Leave of Court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice (i) states that the person to be examined is about to go out of the Tribal jurisdiction and outside the reservation, or is about to go out of the United States, or is bound on a voyage to sea, and will be unavailable for examination unless the person's deposition is taken before expiration of the thirty (30) day period; and (ii) sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff's attorney shall sign the notice, and the attorney's signature constitutes a certification by the attorney that to the best of the attorney's knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true. The sanctions provided by Section 2-211 are applicable to the certification. If a party shows that when the party was served with notice under this subdivision (2)(b) the party was unable through the exercise of due diligence to obtain counsel to represent the party at the taking of the deposition, the deposition may not be used against the party.
 - c. The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition.
 - d. The parties shall stipulate in writing or the Court may upon motion order that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means. The stipulation or order shall designate the person before whom the deposition shall be taken, the manner of recording, preserving and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. A party may arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at the party's own expense. Any objections under subdivision (3), any changes made by the witness, the witness' signature identifying the deposition as the witness' own or the statement of the officer that is required if the witness does not sign, as provided in subdivision (5), and the certification of the officer required by subdivision (6) shall be set forth in a writing to accompany a deposition recorded by non-stenographic means.
 - e. The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with Section 2-509 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of Section 2-509 shall apply to the request.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- f. A party may, in the party's notice and in a subpoena, name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which the person will testify. A subpoena shall advise a non-party organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This subdivision (2)(f) does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these sections.
 - g. The parties may stipulate in writing or the Court may upon motion order that a deposition be taken by telephone. For the purposes of this Section and Sections 2-503(1), 2-512(1), 2-512(2)(a) and 2-322(4), a deposition taken by telephone is taken in the jurisdiction and at the place where the deponent is to answer questions propounded to the deponent.
3. Examination and cross-examination: record of examination; oath; objections. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of the Winnebago Rules of Evidence. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under the officer's direction and in the officer's presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with subdivision (2)(D) of this Section. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and the party taking the deposition shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.
4. Motion to terminate or limit examination. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as to unreasonably annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the Tribal Court or the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in Section 2-501(3). If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the Tribal Court. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of Section 2-512(1)(D) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.
5. Submission to witness; changes; signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by the witness, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance that the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within thirty days of its submission to the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless on a motion to suppress under Section 2-507(4)(D) the Court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.
6. Certification and filing by officer; exhibits; copies; notice of filing.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- a. The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by the officer and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the officer shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of [here insert name of witness]" and shall promptly file it with the Tribal Court or send it by registered or certified mail to the clerk thereof for filing. Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that if the person producing the materials desires to retain them the person may: (i) offer copies to be marked for identification and annexed to the deposition and to serve thereafter as originals if the person affords to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals; or (ii) offer the originals to be marked for identification, after giving each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, in which event the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to with the deposition.
 - b. Upon payment of reasonable charges therefore, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent. The Court may, by section, establish the maximum charges which are reasonable for such services.
 - c. The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.
7. Failure to attend or to serve subpoena; expenses.
- a. If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by that party and that party's attorney in attendance, including reasonable attorney's fees.
 - b. If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon the witness and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because that party expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by that party and that party's attorney in attendance, including reasonable attorney's fees. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-506 Depositions upon written questions.

1. Serving questions; notice. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Section 2-322. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of Court on such terms as the Court prescribes. A party desiring to take a deposition upon written questions shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating (A) the name and address of the person who is to answer them, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs; and (B) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association of governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of Section 2-505(2)(F). Within thirty days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within ten days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect questions upon all other parties. Within ten days after being served with redirect questions, a party may serve re-cross questions upon all other parties. The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

2. Officer to take responses and prepare record. A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly in the manner provided by Section 2-505(3), (5), and (6), to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received by the officer.
3. Notice of filing. When the deposition is filed the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-507 Use of depositions in Court proceedings.

1. Use of depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions:
 - a. Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.
 - b. The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated under Section 2-505(2)(F) or Section 2-507(1) to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.
 - c. The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the Court finds: (i) that the witness is dead; or (ii) that the witness is outside the jurisdiction of the Tribe, and cannot be served with a subpoena to testify at trial while within the Tribal jurisdiction unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering deposition; or (iii) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (iv) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (v) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open Court to allow the deposition to be used.
 - d. If only part of the deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require the offeror to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts. Substitution of the parties pursuant to Section 2-410 does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action in any court of any Indian tribe, the United States, or any state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties, or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor. A deposition previously taken may also be used as permitted by the Winnebago Rules of Evidence.
2. Objections to admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Section 2-503(2) and subdivision (3)(C) of this Section, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reasons which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.
3. Effect of errors and irregularities in depositions.
 - a. As to notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.
 - b. As to disqualification of officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- c. As to taking of deposition.
 - i. Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.
 - ii. Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of the parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.
 - iii. Objections to the form of written questions submitted under Section 2-506 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within five days after service of the last questions authorized.
- d. As to completion and return of deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Sections 2-505 and 2-506 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-508 Interrogatories to parties.

1. Availability: procedures for use. Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of Court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within thirty days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within forty-five days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The Court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under Section 2-512(1) with respect to an objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory.
2. Scope: use at trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters that can be inquired into under Section 501(2), and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the Winnebago Rules of Evidence. An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the Court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pre-trial conference or other later time.
3. Option to produce business records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, including a compilation, abstract or summary thereof, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit, or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries. A specification shall be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and identify, as readily as can the party served, the records from which the answer may be ascertained. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-509 Production of documents and things and entry upon land for inspection and other purposes.

1. Scope. Any party may serve on any other party a request (A) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on the requestor's behalf, to inspect and copy any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phono records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonable usable form), or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Section 2-501(2) and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (B) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Section 2-501(2).
2. Procedure. The request may, without leave of Court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts. The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within thirty days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within forty-five days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The Court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order under Section 2-512(1) with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested. A party who produces documents for inspection shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the request.
3. Persons not parties. A person not a party to the action may be compelled to produce documents and things or to submit to an inspection as provided in Section 2-322. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-510 Physical and mental examination of persons.

1. Order for examination. When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the Court may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a suitably licensed or certified examiner to produce for examination the person in the party's custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.
2. Report of examining physician.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- a. If requested by the party against whom an order is made under Section 2-510(1) or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to the requesting party a copy of the detailed written report of the examiner setting out the examiner's findings, including results of all tests made, diagnoses and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery, the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless, in the case of a report or examination of a person not a party, the party shows that the party is unable to obtain it. The Court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report on such terms as are just, and if an examiner fails or refuses to make a report the Court may exclude the examiner's testimony if offered at the trial.
- b. By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege the party may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine the party in respect of the same mental or physical condition.
- c. This subdivision applies to examinations made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This subdivision does not preclude discovery of a report of an examiner or the taking of a deposition of the examiner in accordance with the provisions of any other section of this Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-511 Requests for admission.

1. Request for admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Section 2-501(2) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of Court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within thirty days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the Court may allow, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by the party's attorney, but, unless the Court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of forty-five days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify an answer to deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, the party shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless the party states that the party has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by the party is insufficient to enable the party to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter on which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; the party may, subject to the provisions of Section 2-512(3) deny the matter or set forth reasons why the party cannot admit or deny it. The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the Court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the Court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this Section, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The Court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pre-trial conference at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Section 2-512(1)(d) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

2. Effect of admission. Any matter admitted under this Section is conclusively established unless the Court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provision of Section 2-219 governing amendment of a pre-trial order, the Court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action be sub-served thereby, and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the Court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice that party in maintaining the action or defense on the merits. An admission made by a party under this Section is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not any admission for any other purpose nor may it be used against the party in any other proceeding. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-512 Failure to make or cooperate in discovery: sanctions.

1. Motion for order compelling discovery. A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:
 - a. Appropriate Court. An application for an order to a party may be made to the Tribal Court, or, on matters relating to a disposition, to the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken if necessary. An application for an order to a deponent who is not a party may be made to the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken.
 - b. Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Sections 2-505 or 2-506, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Section 2-505(2)(F) or Section 2-506(1) or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Section 2-508, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Section 2-509, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before applying for an order. If the Court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to Section 2-501(3).
 - c. Evasive or incomplete answer. For purposes of this subdivision, an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.
 - d. Award of expenses of motion. If the motion is granted, the Court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust. If the motion is denied, the Court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances made an award of expenses unjust. If the motion is granted in

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 5

- part and denied in part, the Court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.
2. Failure to comply with order.
 - a. Sanctions by Court in jurisdiction where deposition is taken. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the Court in the jurisdiction in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that Court. Sanctions imposed in such matters by any foreign Court shall be given full faith and credit and promptly enforced by the Tribal Court, subject to the Tribal Court's authority to modify the sanctions as justice may require.
 - b. Sanction by Court in which action is pending. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Section 2-505(2)(F) or Section 2-506(1) to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under subdivision (1) of this Section or Section 2-510, the Court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:
 - i. An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;
 - ii. An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting that party from introducing designated matters in evidence;
 - iii. An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;
 - iv. In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of Court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination;
 - v. Where a party has failed to comply with an order under Section 2-510(1) requiring that party to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in paragraphs (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subdivision, unless the party failing to comply shows that the party is unable to produce such person for examination. In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising that party or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.
 3. Expenses on failure to admit. If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under Section 2-511, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, the requesting party may apply to the Court for an order requiring the other party to pay the other party the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The Court shall make the order unless it finds that (A) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Section 2-511(1); or (b) the admission sought was of no substantial importance; or (C) the party failing to admit has reasonable ground to believe that the party might prevail on the matter; or (D) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.
 4. Failure of party to attend at own deposition or serve answers to interrogatories or respond to request for inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Section 2-505(2)(f) or Section 2-506(1) to testify on behalf of a party fails (A) to appear before the officer who is to take the deposition, after being served with a proper notice; or (B) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Section 2-508, after proper service of the interrogatories, the Tribal Court on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under paragraphs (i), (ii), and (iii) of subdivision (1)(b) of this Section. In lieu of any order in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising that party or both to the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust. The failure to act described in this subdivision may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by Section 2-501(3). WITNESSES

2-601	Issue and service of subpoena for witnesses.	2-610	Requisites of attachment--order of commitment.
2-602	Subpoenas--contents.	2-611	Examination of prisoner.
2-603	Subpoena for deposition.	2-612	Prisoner's custody during examination.
2-604	Subpoena for agency hearings.	2-613	Witness privileged.
2-605	Witness may demand fees--exception.	2-614	Witness may demand fees each day--exception.
2-606	Disobedience of subpoena.	2-615	Special provisions for Tribal agencies.
2-607	Attachment of witness.
2-608	Punishment for contempt.
2-609	Discharge when imprisonment illegal.

2-601 Issue and service of subpoena for witnesses. The clerk of the Court shall, on application of any party having a cause or any matter pending in the Court, issue a subpoena for a witness, under the seal of the Court. The clerk may issue separate subpoenas for each person, issue one subpoena carrying the names of all persons subpoenaed, or may at the request of any party, issue subpoenas in blank. A subpoena may be served by the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or by the party, or any other person in the manner provided in Section 2-317. When a subpoena is not served by the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, proof of service shall be shown by affidavit; but no costs of service of the same shall be allowed, except when served by the Tribal police, a licensed process server, Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or a person serving by special appointment. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-602 Subpoenas--contents. The subpoena shall be directed to the person therein named, requiring him/her to attend at a particular time and place to testify as a witness; and it may contain a clause directing the witness to bring with him/her any book, writing or other thing, under his/her control, which he/she is bound by law to produce as evidence. [TCR 86-109]

2-603 Subpoena for deposition. When the attendance of the witness before any officer authorized to take depositions is required, the subpoena may be issued by such officer. [TCR 86-109]

2-604 Subpoena for agency hearings. When the attendance of the witness is required before any Tribal agency authorized to issue a subpoena, the subpoena may be issued by any officer of the agency or by such person as may be authorized to issue subpoena by agency rule. [TCR 86-109]

2-605 Witness may demand fees--exception. A witness may demand his/her traveling fees and fee for one day's attendance as shall be set by Court rule when the subpoena is served upon him/her; and if the same be not paid, the witness shall not be obligated to obey the subpoena. The fact of such demand and non-payment shall be stated in the return, provided, however, that witnesses subpoenaed by any Tribal department, board, commission or legislative committee authorized to issue subpoenas shall be paid their attendance and necessary travel, as provided by law for witnesses in other cases, at the time their testimony is concluded out of funds appropriated to such department, board, commission or legislative committee. In the case of subpoena issued by such Tribal agencies, the witness may not refuse to attend because fees and travel expenses were not paid in advance. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 6

2-606 Disobedience of subpoena. Disobedience of a subpoena, or refusal to be sworn or to answer as a witness, when lawfully ordered, may be punished as a contempt of the Court or officer by whom his/her attendance or testimony is required. [TCR 86-109]

2-607 Attachment of witness. When a witness fails to attend in obedience to a subpoena (except in case of a demand and failure to pay his/her fees), the Court or officer before whom his/her attendance is required may issue an attachment to the chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police or their deputy, commanding him/her to arrest and bring the person therein named before the Court or officer, at a time and place to be fixed in the attachment, to give his/her testimony and answer for the contempt. If the attachment is not for immediately bringing the witness before the Court or officer, a sum may be fixed not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) in which the witness may give an undertaking, with surety, for his/her appearance; such sum shall be endorsed on the back of the attachment; and if no sum is so fixed and endorsed, it shall be one hundred dollars ($100.00). If the witness is not personally served, the Court may, by a rule, order him/her to show cause why an attachment should not issue against him/her. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-608 Punishment for contempt.

1. The punishment for the contempt provided in Section 2-607 of this Act shall be as follows: when the witness fails to attend, in obedience to the subpoena, except in cases of a demand and failure to pay his/her fees, the Court or officer may fine the witness in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00). In case the witness attends but refuses to be sworn or to testify, the Court or officer may fine the witness in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) or may imprison him/her in the Tribal jail, there to remain until he/she shall submit to be sworn, testify, or give his/her deposition. The fine imposed by the Court or Tribal agency shall be paid into the Tribal treasury, and that imposed by the officer at a deposition shall be for the use of the party for whom the witness was subpoenaed. The witness shall also be liable to the party injured for any damages occasioned by his/her failure to attend, or his/her refusal to be sworn, testify, or give his/her deposition.
2. The punishment provided in this Section shall not apply where the witness refuses to subscribe a deposition. The punishment provided in this Section is civil in nature, and shall not be interpreted in any way as a criminal punishment, nor shall the punished person be deemed convicted of any criminal offense.
3. When the witness purges his/her contempt, the Court, officer, or agency may suspend any punishment imposed. [TCR 86-109]

2-609 Discharge when imprisonment illegal. A witness so imprisoned by an officer before whom his/her deposition is being taken, by a Tribal agency officer, may apply to a judge of the Tribal Court who shall have power to discharge him/her, if it appears that his/her imprisonment is illegal. [TCR 86-109]

2-610 Requisites of attachment--order of commitment. Every attachment for the arrest, or order of commitment to jail of a witness by the Court or an officer, pursuant to this Article, must be under the seal of the Court or officer, if he/she has an official seal, and must specify, particularly, the cause of arrest or commitment; and if the commitment be for refusing to answer a question, such question must be stated in the order. Such order of commitment may be directed to the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs police and shall be executed by committing him/her to the Tribal jail and delivering a copy of the order to the jailer. [TCR 86-109]

2-611 Examination of prisoner. A person confined in the Tribal jail may by order of the Tribal Court be required to be produced for oral examination at a hearing, but in all other cases, his/her examination must be by deposition. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 6

2-612 Prisoner's custody during examination. While a prisoner's deposition is being taken, he/she shall remain in the custody of the officer having him/her in charge who shall afford reasonable facilities for the taking of the deposition. [TCR 86-109]

2-613 Witness privileged. A witness shall not be liable to be sued in the Tribal Court if he/she does not reside within the Tribal jurisdiction by being served with a summons while going, returning, or attending in obedience to a subpoena. [TCR 86-109]

2-614 Witness may demand fees each day--exception. At the commencement of each day after the first day, a witness may demand his/her fees for that day's attendance in obedience to a subpoena; and if the same be not paid, he/she shall not be required to remain, except witnesses subpoenaed by any Tribal department, board, commission, or legislative committee or body authorized by law to issue subpoenas shall be paid for their attendance and necessary travel from that agency's approved budget as provided by law in other cases at the time their testimony is completed. [TCR 86-109]

2-615 Special provisions for Tribal agencies.

1. No Tribal agent or employee may be required to attend and testify in their official capacity for any private party absent the consent of their department head or higher ranking superior.
2. No Tribal agent or employee may be paid a witness fee in addition to their regular salary or other compensation, if they are on duty at the time they are required to attend and testify, and shall be deemed to have elected to receive their regular salary or other compensation unless they request leave without pay prior to the time they appear in response to the subpoena, provided, that when such agents or employees appear and testify while being paid the regular salary or other compensation, the normal witness fee shall be charged as costs in the case for the benefit of the Tribe, and the agent or employee's supervisor may require prepayment of said fees as a condition precedent of his/her approval for their appearance. Such witnesses shall be entitled to receive their travel costs, if any, from the party in advance as in other cases. [TCR 86-109]

ARTICLE 6, WITNESSES
SUBPART A
TESTIMONY UNDER PRIVILEGE AGAINST PROSECUTION

2-650	Privilege for committee testimony.	2-654	Disgrace as ground for refusal to testify.
2-651	Procedure for claiming privilege.	2-655	Prosecution.
2-652	Oaths.	2-656	Fees and mileage.
2-653	Penalties.

2-650 Privilege for committee testimony. No testimony given by a witness before the Tribal legislative body, or any agency established by Tribal law having power to issue a subpoena, shall be used as evidence in any criminal proceeding against him/her in any Court, except in a prosecution for perjury committed in giving such testimony if such person is granted immunity as provided in Section 2-651. An official paper or record produced by him/her is not within the privilege. [TCR 86-109]

2-651 Procedure for claiming privilege. In the case of proceedings before a committee or agency, when two-thirds of the members of the full committee or agency shall by affirmative vote have authorized such witness to be granted immunity under this Article with respect to the transactions, matters, or things, concerning which he/she is compelled, after having claimed his/her privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence by the direction of the presiding officer, and, when an order of the Tribal Court has been entered into the record requiring said person to testify or produce evidence, such person shall be privileged as stated in Section 2-650 of this Article. Such an order may be issued by a Tribal Court judge upon application by a duly authorized representative of the committee or agency concerned, accompanied by the written approval of the Tribal legislative body. The Court shall not grant immunity to any witness without first having notified the Tribal attorney of such action. The Tribal attorney shall be notified of the time of each proposed application to the Tribal Court and shall be given an opportunity to be heard with respect thereto prior to the entrance into the record of the order of the Tribal Court. No witness shall be exempt from prosecution for perjury or contempt committed while giving testimony or producing evidence under compulsion as provided in this Section. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-652 Oaths. The members of the Tribal legislative body, a chairman or equivalent officer or any committee or agency authorized to issue subpoenas, and any officer or employee of the commission or agency authorized by agency or commission rule, are empowered to administer oaths to witnesses in any case under their examination. [TCR 86-109]

2-653 Penalties.

1. Every person who, having been summoned as a witness by the authority of the Tribal legislative body or other Tribal agency, authorized to take testimony may compel attendance of witnesses by subpoena, to give testimony or produce papers under a grant of immunity provided by Section 2-651 upon any matter under inquiry before that body, willfully makes default, or who, having appeared, refuses to answer any question pertinent to the question under inquiry, shall be punishable by a civil fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) to be imposed by that body, and to an attachment and commitment to be imposed by that body to the Tribal jail until such testimony be given.
2. In addition to, or in the alternative to civil punishment, the agency may proceed in the Tribal Court for an order requiring such witness to testify, and if such order is issued and disobeyed by the witness, the witness shall be guilty of an offense, and may be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or imprisoned in the Tribal jail for a term not exceeding six months, or both. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-654 Disgrace as ground for refusal to testify. No witness is privileged to refuse to testify to any fact, or produce any paper, respecting which he/she shall be examined by the Tribal legislative body, or by any subordinate committee or agency thereof authorized to issue subpoenas, upon the ground that his/her testimony to such fact or his/her production of such paper may tend to disgrace or otherwise render him/her infamous, provided that such fact or paper is reasonably related to the exercise by the body, agency, or committee of authority delegated to it by law. [TCR 86-109]

2-655 Prosecution. Whenever a body before whom a witness granted immunity pursuant to this subpart believes that a criminal prosecution pursuant to Section 2-653(2) should be instituted, it shall certify such fact to the Tribal attorney general or prosecutor, whose duty it shall be to bring the matter in the Court by information or complaint for prosecution if the person has not purged his/her contempt within forty-eight (48) hours. [TCR 86-109]

2-656 Fees and Mileage.

1. Witnesses before legislative and administrative bodies compelled to attend by subpoena shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid in civil cases in the Tribal Court from the approved budget of said body.
2. Witness fees and allowances for mileage shall be set by rule of the Court. Witness fees shall not exceed the amount set for witness fees by Part 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Mileage fees shall not exceed the federal mileage rate. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-708	Sealing and retaining juror name cards.
2-709	Refilling wheel.
2-710	Summoning jurors.

2-701 Meeting for selection of jurors.

1. On the first Monday in November, or as soon thereafter as may be, and, at any time upon the order of the chief appellate judge of the appellate Court, the Jury Selection Board, composed of the Tribal secretary or one of his/her deputies, the Tribal tax director or one of his/her deputies, the chief of the Tribal police or one of his/her deputies, the chairman of the board of commissioners of the Tribal housing authority or his/her delegate, the Court clerk or one of his/her deputies, and one of the judges of the Court, shall meet at the office of the Court clerk and select from a list to be compiled of all qualified jurors, as prescribed in this Article, all qualified jurors for service in the Tribal Court for the ensuing calendar year in the manner hereinafter provided.
2. For the purpose of ascertaining the names of all persons qualified for jury service, it shall be the duty of the following officers to provide the following lists of qualified prospective jurors to the Court clerk:
 - a. The Tribal secretary shall supply a list of all enrolled Tribal members of their households over eighteen years of age who are residents of the Tribal jurisdiction.
 - b. The Tribal tax director shall supply a list of all individual taxpayers irrespective of Tribal membership over eighteen years of age who are residents of the Tribal jurisdiction.
 - c. The chairman of the board of commissioners of the Tribal housing authority shall supply a list of all known tenants of the housing authority and members of their households irrespective of Tribal membership over eighteen years of age who are residents of the Tribal jurisdiction.
 - d. The Court clerk shall supply a list of all persons over eighteen years of age irrespective of Tribal membership who have registered upon the Court clerk's jury selection roll for jury service.
3. Each such list shall contain, insofar as is known, the date of birth or age, name, and actual place of residence of each person within the category on the list.
4. Whenever possible, these lists shall be prepared at least thirty days prior to the meeting to allow time for the typing of the names contained therein on cards as hereafter or shall be presented typed upon the cards as thereafter provided.
5. Whenever such is or may become reasonably available and efficient, the lists may be printed from computer memory on cards in the manner hereafter provided. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-702 Court clerk's jury selection roll. It shall be the duty of the Court clerk to maintain at all times a jury selection roll upon which any person who is or may be eligible for jury service may enter their name, date of birth, and place of residence. Such roll shall be provided to the jury selection board in order that all qualified persons who may not be identified in paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of subsection (2) of Section 2-701 of this Article shall have the opportunity for jury service. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 7

2-703 Preparation of jury wheel. Said officers shall write or cause to be written or typed the names of all persons who are known to be, or may be qualified jurors under the law on separate cards of uniform size and color, writing also on said cards, whenever possible, the post office address of each juror so selected, along with their age or date of birth and place of residence under the direction of the Court clerk. Whenever such can be avoided, no person's name shall be placed upon more than one card. The expenses of preparation of such cards are to be paid from the Court fund. The cards containing said names shall be deposited in a circular hollow wheel, to be provided for such purpose by the Court clerk after the jury selection board has examined the contents thereof and removed therefrom and destroyed any cards found therein. Said wheel shall be in the form of a drum made of iron, steel, or other substantial material, and shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on its axle and big enough to freely mix all the cards placed therein, the size thereof in each case to be determined by the number of names placed therein, and shall be locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks, so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock; and said wheel and the clasps thereto attached into which the locks shall be fitted, shall be so arranged that said wheel cannot be opened unless both of said locks are unlocked at the time the wheel is opened. The keys to such locks shall be kept, one by the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police and the other by the Court clerk. The chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, and the Court clerk shall not open such wheel, not permit the same to be opened by any person, except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified; but said chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, and Court clerk shall keep such wheel, when not in use, in a safe and secure place where the same cannot be tampered with. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-704 Drawing general jury panel.

1. The judges of the Court shall, more than twenty (20) days prior to each jury docket of Court, determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the Court during the jury docket, and shall thereupon order the drawing of such number of jurors from the wheel, said jury to be known as the general panel of jurors for service for the respective jury docket for which they are designated to serve. A majority of said judges, or the Chief Judge, are authorized to act in carrying out the provisions of this Section.
2. The Court clerk or one of his/her deputies and the chief of the Tribal police, or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or one of his/her deputies in open Court and under the direction of the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court, or during his/her absence or disability, some other judge of the Tribal Court, shall draw from the wheel containing the names of the jurors, after the same has been well turned so that the cards therein are thoroughly mixed, one by one until the number of jurors for jury service as directed by the Court are procured and shall record such names as they are drawn. The officers attending such drawing shall not divulge the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror to any person.
3. Additional and other drawing of as many names as the Court may order may be had at any such time as the Court or judge may order for the completion of a jury panel, or for the impaneling of a new jury if, in the judgment of the Court, the same shall be necessary, or if, for any cause, the Court, in its discretion, shall deem other jurors necessary. The Court may excuse or discharge any person drawn and summoned as a juror, whenever, in its discretion, such action shall be deemed expedient.
4. No person may be required, over his/her objection, to render service as a juror for more than a total of twenty working days in any one calendar year unless, when this time limit is reached, he/she is sitting on a panel engaged in the consideration of a case, in which event he/she may be excused when such case is terminated; provided, that if the judge is of the opinion that the jury business of a jury docket fixed by the Court may be concluded within six days, he/she may require a jury, or a juror, to remain until the termination of said jury service. Persons summoned for jury service need not be required to serve during previously fixed days or weeks or a docket fixed by the Court for jury trials, but they may be recalled from time to time as the trial needs of the Tribal Court may require, without regard to the docket term fixed by the Court for jury trials for which they were originally summoned. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 7

2-705 Use of a jury panel. The general panel of jurors shall be used to draw juries in all actions tried during the jury docket for which they were summoned. In the event of a deficiency of said general panel at any given time to meet the requirements of the Court, the presiding judge having control of said general panel shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet such emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are not further needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel, except when only a single jury is needed or when the Court determines that undue delay will be caused thereby to the prejudice of a party, in which case the Court may issue an open venire to the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or other suitable person for such number of jurors as may be necessary to be selected from the body of the Tribal jurisdiction without resort to the jury wheel, provided, that no person shall be called to serve under an open venire more often than once each year. [TCR 86-109]

2-706 Certifying and sealing lists. The list of names so drawn for the general panel shall be certified under the hand of the Court clerk or the deputy doing the drawing and the judge in whose presence said names were drawn from the wheel to be the list drawn by said clerk for the said jury docket, and shall be sealed up in envelopes endorsed “jurors for the jury docket of the Tribal Court scheduled to commence on _____” (filling in the blank with the appropriate date) and the clerk doing the drawing shall write his/her name across the seals of the envelopes. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-707 Oath and delivery of envelopes. The judge attending the drawing shall deliver such envelopes to the Court clerk, or one of his/her deputies, and the judge shall, at the same time, administer to the Court clerk and to each of his/her deputies an oath in substance as follows: “You and each of you do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law, nor communicate to anyone the name or names of persons appearing on the jury lists until the time a list is opened as prescribed by law at which time it shall be published, that you will not, directly or indirectly converse or communicate with anyone selected as juror concerning any case pending for trial in the Court at the next jury docket, so help you God,” or as prescribed in subsection 732 (b) of this Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-708 Sealing and retaining juror name cards. When the names are drawn for jury service the cards containing such names shall be sealed in separate envelopes, endorsed “cards containing the names of jurors for the petit jury for the jury docket of the Tribal Court commencing on _____” (filling in the blank with the appropriate date); and said envelopes shall be retained securely by the clerk, unopened, until after the jury has been impaneled for such docket, and, after such jurors so impaneled have served one jury docket, the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors for that docket shall then be opened by the Court clerk, or his/her deputy, and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served on a jury shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the Court clerk or his/her deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving on a jury shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officer who shall next select jurors for the wheel, provided, that no person shall serve as a juror more often than once a year, except upon order of the Court for lack of sufficient jurors or as herein provided. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 7

2-709 Refilling wheel. If the wheel containing the names of jurors be lost or destroyed, with the contents thereof, or if all the cards in said wheel be drawn out, such wheel shall immediately be refurnished, and cards bearing the names of jurors shall be placed therein immediately in accordance with law. [TCR 86-109]

2-710 Summoning jurors. The summons of persons for service on the juries in the Tribal Court shall be served by the Court clerk by mailing a copy of such summons containing the time, place, and the name of the Court upon which said jurors are required to attend, by registered or certified mail, or as directed by the judge, to the person selected for service not less than ten days before the day said person is to appear as a juror in the Court. The Court clerk shall make a return of such service by filing an affidavit stating the date of mailing and type of mail used in sending the summons; provided, that this shall not prevent service of special open venire or talisman by the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-711 On-call system jurors.

1. When an on-call system is implemented by order of the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court, each juror retained for service subject to call shall be required to contact a center for information as to the time and place of his/her next assignment.
2. For purposes of this Section, “on-call system” means a method whereby the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court estimates the number of jurors required for a jury docket of Court, and those jurors not needed during any particular period are released to return to their home or employment subject to call when needed.
3. Pursuant to summons for service on petit juries in the Tribal Court, each qualified, nonexempt juror is retained for service subject to call and is assigned to a judge or a case. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-712 Drawing trial jurors from panel. Prospective jurors for the trial of an action shall be drawn by the Court clerk, in open Court in the presence of a judge, by lot either by wheel, by numbering the prospective jurors’ cards and then drawing numbers from a pool containing a numbered marker for each prospective juror available to be called, or by some similar form of random drawing approved by the Court. The initial six jurors shall be drawn as shortly before the trial of the action as is reasonably practical in the discretion of the Court. As prospective jurors are removed or dismissed by challenge, whether peremptory or for cause, the clerk shall draw another name from the general pool who shall take the place of the challenged prospective juror and be subject to voir dire to the same extent as the prospective jurors originally chosen. [TCR 86-109]

2-713 Qualifications and exemptions of jurors.

1. All members of the Tribe and other citizens of the United States who are over eighteen years of age and have resided within the Tribal jurisdiction for a period of thirty days, who are of sound mind and discretion and of good moral character are competent to act as jurors, except as herein provided.
2. The following persons are not qualified to serve as jurors:
 - a. Justices of the appellate Court of the Tribe, or the employees in their office.
 - b. Judges or magistrates of the Tribal Court, or the employees in their offices.
 - c. The Court clerk, or the employees in his/her office.
 - d. The chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police, his/her deputies, and the employees in the police department.
 - e. Jailers having custody of prisoners, or other Tribal, state, or federal law enforcement officers.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 7

- f. Licensed attorneys or advocates engaged in the practice of law.
 - g. Persons who have been convicted of any felony or crime involving moral turpitude, provided that when such conviction has been vacated, overturned upon appeal, or pardoned or when any such person has been fully restored to his/her civil rights by the jurisdiction wherein such conviction occurred, the person shall be eligible to serve as a juror.
 - h. Elected Tribal officials.
- 3. Persons over seventy years of age, ministers, practicing physicians, optometrists, dentists, public school teachers, federal employees, regularly organized full time fire department employees, and women with otherwise unattended minor children not in school may be excused from jury service by the Court, in its discretion, upon request.
 - 4. Any Tribal member, Tribal taxpayer, or person employed within the Tribal jurisdiction may serve as a juror notwithstanding that they are not a resident of the Tribal jurisdiction if they volunteer to do so by signing the jury selection roll maintained by the Court clerk. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-714 Substantial compliance. A substantial compliance with the provisions of this Article, shall be sufficient to prevent the setting aside of any verdict rendered by a jury chosen hereunder, unless the irregularity in drawing, and summoning, or impaneling the same resulted in depriving a party litigant of some substantial right; provided, however, that such irregularity must be specifically presented to the Court at or before the time the jury is sworn to try the cause. [TCR 86-109]

2-715 Oath to jury. After selection of the jury, and prior to the opening statements of the parties, the Court or clerk shall place the jury under oath or affirmation to well and truly try and determine the action before them exclusively upon the evidence presented in the Court and the law as given by the Court, and to return their true verdict thereon without partiality for any unlawful cause or reason. [TCR 86-109]

2-721 Discharge of employee for jury service--penalty. Every person, firm, or corporation who discharges an employee or causes an employee to be discharged because of said employee's absence from his/her employment by reason of said employee's having been required to serve as a juror on a jury of the Tribal Court, or any other Court, shall be guilty of an offense, and, upon conviction thereon, shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00). [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-722 Civil liability--damages. Every person, firm or corporation who discharges or causes to be discharged an employee because of said employee's absence from his/her employment by reason of said employee having been required to serve as a juror on a jury, in the Tribal Court or any other Court, shall be liable to the person so discharged in a civil action at law for both actual and punitive damages. Damages shall include all pecuniary losses suffered including, but not limited to, lost earnings, both past and future, mental anguish, and all reasonable damages incurred in obtaining other suitable employment, including the cost of relocation and retraining, if any, and a reasonable attorney's fee to be determined by the Court. TRIAL

2-801	Trial defined.	2-804	Trial by jury or by the Court.
2-802	Trial of issues.	2-805	Assignment of cases for trial.
2-803	Jury trial of right.	2-806	Consolidation; separate trials.

2-801 Trial defined. A trial is a judicial examination of the issues, whether of law or fact, in an action. [TCR 86-109]

2-802 Trial of issues. Issues of law must be tried by the Court. Issues of fact arising in actions for which a jury trial is provided by law may be tried by a jury, if a jury trial is demanded, unless a reference be ordered, as hereinafter provided. All other issues of fact shall be tried to the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-803 Jury trial of right.

1. Right preserved. The right of trial by jury as declared by the Tribal Constitution or a statute of the Tribe, or the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 shall be preserved inviolate. In all actions, except forcible entry and detainer, arising in contract or tort where the amount in controversy, or the value of the property to be recovered, as stated in the prayer for relief or an affidavit of a party, or as found by the Court where the amount in controversy is questioned by the affidavit of the adverse party, exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), except as otherwise specifically provided by law, and in all actions for the involuntary removal of children from the custody of their parents or custodian and the involuntary termination of parental rights, the action may be tried to a jury upon demand of any party. All other actions and issues of fact shall be tried to the Court.
2. Demand. Any party entitled to a jury trial may demand a trial by jury of an issue triable of right by a jury pursuant to any law of the Tribe by serving upon the other parties a demand therefore in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than ten days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be endorsed upon a pleading of the party. Such demand shall not be effective unless, at the time of filing or at such later time as the Court shall by rule allow, the party making such demand deposit with the Court clerk a reasonable jury fee in such amount as the Court shall by rule determine. The amount of such deposit shall be set by the Court in such amount as may be reasonably necessary to offset the costs of juror fees for the impaneling and trying of the action, without being in an amount which may preclude or prevent a party from exercising their right to a jury trial. Such rules shall contain a provision for waiver of the deposit requirement for persons proceeding in forma pauperis.
3. Same; specification of issues. In the demand, a party may specify the issues which the party wishes so tried; otherwise the party shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If the party has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within ten days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the Court may order, may serve a demand for a trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.
4. Waiver. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this Section and to file it as required by Section 2-331(4) constitutes a waiver by the party of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties. Even though previously demanded, the trial by jury may be waived by the parties, in actions arising on contract, and with the assent of the Court in other actions, in the following manner: By the consent of the party appearing, when the other party fails to appear at the trial by him/herself or attorney. By written consent, in person or by attorney, filed with the clerk. By oral consent, in open Court, entered on the journal. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-804 Trial by jury or by the Court.

1. By jury. When trial by jury has been demanded as provided in Section 2-803, the action shall be designated upon the docket as a jury action. The trial of all issues so demanded shall be by jury, unless (A) the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the Court or by an oral stipulation made in open Court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the Court sitting without a jury, or (B) the Court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury of some or all of those issues does not exist under the constitution and statutes or ordinances of the Tribe, or under the Indian Civil Rights Act.
2. By the Court. Issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in Section 2-803 shall be tried by the Court; but, notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such demand might have been made of right, the Court in its discretion or upon motion of a party may order a trial by jury of any or all issues properly triable to a jury.
3. Advisory jury and trial by consent. In all actions not triable by right by a jury the Court upon motion or of its own initiative may try any issue with an advisory jury or, except in actions against the Tribe when a statute of the Tribe provides for trial without a jury, the Court, with the consent of both parties, may order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right. [TCR 86-109, 93-84, 94-27]

2-805 Assignment of cases for trial. The district Court shall provide by rule for the placing of actions upon the trial calendar:

- a. Without request of the parties; or
- b. Upon request of a party and notice to the other parties; or
- c. In such other manner as the Courts deem expedient. Precedence shall be given to actions entitled thereto by any statute of the Tribe. [TCR 94-07]

2-806 Consolidation; separate trials.

1. Consolidation. When different actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the Court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delays.
2. Separate trials. The Court, in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, or third party claims, or issues, always preserving inviolate the right to trial by jury as declared by the Indian Civil Rights Act, the Tribal Constitution or as given by a statute of the Tribe. -

2-821 Summoning jury. The general mode of summoning and impaneling the jury, in cases in which a jury trial may be had, is such as is or may be provided by Article 7 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-822 Causes for challenging jurors. If there shall be impaneled, for the trial of any action, any juror, who shall have been convicted of any crime which by law renders him/her disqualified to serve on a jury; or who has been arbitrator on either side, relating to the same controversy; or who has an interest in the action; or who has an action pending between him/her and either party; or who has formerly been a juror on the same claim; or who is the employer, employee, counselor, agent, steward or attorney of either party; or who is subpoenaed as a witness; or who is of kin to either party within the second degree by blood or marriage, he/she may be challenged for such causes; in either of which cases the same shall be considered as a principal challenge, and the validity thereof be tried by the Court; and any juror who shall be returned upon the trial of any of the causes hereinbefore specified, against whom no principal cause of challenge can be alleged, may, nevertheless, be challenged on suspicion of prejudice against, or partiality for either party, or any other cause that may render him/her, at the time, an unsuitable juror; but a resident or taxpayer of the Tribal jurisdiction, or a member of the Tribe or any municipality therein shall not thereby be disqualified in actions in which the Tribe or such municipality is a party. The validity of all principal challenges and challenges for cause shall be determined by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-823 Examination of jurors. The Court may permit the parties or their attorneys to conduct the examination of prospective jurors or may itself conduct the examination. In the latter event, the Court shall permit the parties or their attorneys to supplement the examination by such further inquiry as it deems proper or shall itself submit to the prospective jurors such additional questions of the parties or their attorneys as it deems proper. [TCR 86-109]

2-824 Alternate jurors. The Court may direct that not more than three jurors in addition to the regular jury be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become or are found to be unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the regular jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a regular juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. Each side is entitled to one preemptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law if alternate jurors are to be impaneled. The additional preemptory challenges may be used against an alternate juror only, and the other preemptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against an alternate juror. [TCR 86-109]

2-825 Order of challenges. The plaintiff first, and afterward the defendant, shall complete his/her challenges for cause. They may then, in turn, in the same order, have the right to challenge one juror each, until each shall have preemptorily challenged three jurors, but no more. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

2-826 Challenges to jurors--filling vacancies. After each challenge, the vacancy shall be filled before further challenges are made; and any new juror thus introduced may be challenged for cause as well as preemptorily. [TCR 86-109]

2-827 Alternate method of selecting jury. Notwithstanding other methods, the trial judge may direct in his/her discretion that a jury in an action be selected by calling and seating twelve prospective jurors in the jury box and then examining them on voir dire; when twelve such prospective jurors have been passed for cause, each side of the lawsuit shall exercise its preemptory challenges out of the hearing of the jury by alternately striking three names each from the list of those so passed for cause, and the remaining six persons shall be sworn to try the case. If there be more than one defendant in the case, and the trial judge determines on motion that there is a serious conflict of interest between them, he/she may, in his/her discretion, allow each defendant to strike three names from the list of jurors seated and passed for cause. In such case, he/she shall appropriately increase the number of jurors initially called and seated in the jury box for voir dire examination. [TCR 86-109]

2-828 Oath of jury. The jury shall be sworn to well and truly try the matters submitted to them in the case before them, and to give a true verdict, according to the law and the evidence. [TCR 86-109]

2-829 Juries of less than six--majority verdict. All juries shall be composed of six persons, and a unanimous verdict shall be required, except that the parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of any number less than six and greater than two, or that a verdict or a finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury. TRIAL PROCEDURES

2-831	Order of trial.	2-839	Admonition of jury on separation.
2-832	Taking of testimony.	2-840	Information after retirement.
2-833	Exceptions unnecessary.	2-841	When the jury may be discharged.
2-834	Instructions to jury objection.	2-842	Re-trial.
2-835	Uniform jury instructions.	2-843	Proof of official record.
2-836	Objections to instructions--copies to parties.	2-844	Determination of foreign law.
2-837	View by jury.	2-845	Appointment and duties of masters.
2-838	Deliberation of the jury.

2-831 Order of trial. When the jury has been sworn in an action before a jury, and in trials to the Court, when the Court is ready to proceed, the trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the Court for special reasons otherwise directs:

1. The party on whom rests the burden of proving the issues may briefly state his/her case, and the evidence by which he/she expects to sustain it.
2. The adverse party may then briefly state his/her defense and the evidence he/she expects to offer in support of it, or the adverse party may reserve his/her opening statement until the beginning of the presentation of his/her evidence.
3. The party on whom rests the burden of proving the issues must first produce his/her evidence; after he/she has closed his/her evidence, the adverse party may interpose a motion for a directed verdict thereto upon the ground that no claim for relief or defense is proved. If the Court shall sustain the motion, no formal verdict of the jury shall be required, but judgment shall be rendered for the party whose motion for a directed verdict is sustained as the state of the pleadings or the proof shall demand.
4. If the motion for a directed verdict be overruled, the adverse party may then briefly state his/her case if he/she did not do so prior to the beginning of the presentation of the evidence, and, shall then produce his/her evidence.
5. The parties will then be confined to rebutting evidence unless the Court, for good reasons in furtherance of justice, shall permit them to offer evidence in the original case.
6. After the close of the evidence, and when the jury instructions have been finalized by the Court, the parties may then make their closing arguments as to the evidence proved and reasonable inferences to be drawn therefrom. The party having the burden of proving the issue shall first present his/her argument. Thereafter, the other party shall present his/her argument, and then, the party having the burden of proof shall have the opportunity for rebuttal argument. The Court may place reasonable limitation upon the time allowed for closing argument, provided, that each side to the action should have the same total time for argument if time restrictions are placed thereon.
7. After closing arguments of the parties have been completed, the Court shall instruct the jury as to the law of the case and shall give a copy of the written instructions to the jury for their use during their deliberations.
8. The Court shall then place the bailiff or some other responsible person under oath to secure the jury against interference, and the jury shall retire to determine its verdict. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

2-832 Taking of testimony.

1. Form. In all trials, the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, unless otherwise provided by a statute of this Tribe by this Act, or by the Winnebago Rules of Evidence.
2. Affirmation in lieu of oath. Whenever under this Act an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.
3. Evidence of motions. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the Court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the Court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.
4. Interpreters. The Court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix his/her reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the Court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 93-84, 94-07]

2-833 Exceptions unnecessary. Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the Court are unnecessary; but it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the Court is made or sought, makes known to the Court the action which he/she desires the Court to take or his/her objection to the action of the Court and his/her grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him/her. [TCR 86-109]

2-834 Instructions to jury--objection.

1. At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the Court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the Court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The Court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury. The Court, at its election, may instruct the jury before or after argument, or both. No party may assign as error the giving or the failure to give an instruction unless that party objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which the party objects and the grounds of the objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury. The Tribal Court shall furnish copies of the instructions to the plaintiff and defendant prior to the time said instructions are given by the Court to the jury.
2. All instructions requested, and modifications thereof, shall be reduced to writing, numbered, and signed by the party or his/her attorney asking the same and filed in the record of the case.
3. When either party asks special instructions to be given to the jury, the Court shall either give such instructions as requested, or positively refuse to do so; or give the instructions with modification in such manner that it shall distinctly appear what instructions were given in whole or part, and in like manner those refused, so that either party may except to the instructions as asked for, or as modified, or to the modification, or to the refusal.
4. All instructions given by the Court must be numbered, signed by the judge; and filed together with those asked for by the parties as part of the record. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-835 Uniform jury instructions. The appellate Court, in its discretion, is authorized to promulgate by rule uniform instructions to be given in jury trials or civil or criminal actions, which, if applicable in a civil or criminal action, due regard being given to the facts and prevailing law, shall be used unless the Court determines that the instruction does not accurately state the law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-836 Objections to instructions--copies to parties. Repealed. [TCR 94-07]

2-837 View by jury. Whenever, in the opinion of the Court, it is proper for the jury to have a view of the property that is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order them to be conducted, in a body, under the charge of an officer, to the place, which shall be shown to them by some person appointed by the Court for that purpose. While the jury is thus absent, no person, other than the person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

2-838 Deliberation of the jury. When the case is finally submitted to the jury, they shall retire for deliberation. When they retire, they must be kept together, in some convenient place, under charge of an officer, until they agree upon a verdict or be discharged by the Court, subject to the discretion of the Court, to permit them to separate temporarily at night, and at their meals. The officer having them under his/her charge shall not suffer any communication to be made to them, or make any him/herself, except to ask them if they are agreed upon their verdict, and to communicate a request by the jury to the Court, in open Court, unless by order of the Court; and he/she shall not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations, or the verdict agreed upon. [TCR 86-109]

2-839 Admonition of jury on separation. If the jury is permitted to separate, either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, they shall be admonished by the Court that it is their duty not to converse with, or suffer themselves to be addressed by, any other person, on any subject of the trial, and that it is their duty not to form or express an opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them. [TCR 86-109]

2-840 Information after retirement. After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the law arising in the case, they may request the officer to conduct them to the Court, where the information on the point of law shall be given in writing, and the Court may give its recollections as to the testimony on the point in dispute, or cause the same to be read by the stenographer or played back on an electronic recording device by the reporter in the presence of, or after notice to, the parties or their counsel. Upon motion in appropriate circumstances, the Court may order that other portions of the record relating to the same issue also be read or played back to the jury upon the questioned point. [TCR 86-109]

2-841 When the jury may be discharged. The jury may be discharged by the Court on account of the sickness of a juror, or other accident or calamity requiring their discharge, or by consent of both parties or after they have been kept together until it satisfactorily appears to the Court that there is no possibility of their agreeing. [TCR 86-109]

2-842 Re-trial. In all cases where the jury is discharged during the trial, or after the case is submitted to them, it may be tried again immediately, or at a future time, as the Court may direct. [TCR 86-109]

2-843 Proof of official record.

1. Authentication.

- a. Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any Indian Tribal jurisdiction, state, district, or commonwealth, or within a territory subject to the administrative or judicial jurisdiction of the United States, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by the officer's deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a Court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the Court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the officer's office.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

- b. Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of an embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the Court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final attestation or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification. The final certification is unnecessary if the record and the attestation are certified as provided in a treaty or convention to which the United States and the foreign country in which the official record is located are parties.
2. Lack of record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subdivision (1)(a) of this Section in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subdivision (1)(b) of this Section for a summary in the case of a foreign record, it is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.
3. Other proof. This Section does not prevent the proof of official records of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-844 Determination of foreign law. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign jurisdiction shall give notice in his/her pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The Court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under the Tribal rules of evidence. The Court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law. The Tribal Court shall take judicial notice of the law of any foreign jurisdiction within the United States published in any official publication of that jurisdiction upon reasonable notice of the law in question. The term "foreign jurisdiction within the United States" includes every federally recognized Indian Tribe, every state, territory, or possession of the United States, the United States, and their political subdivisions and agencies. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-845 Appointment and duties of masters.

1. Appointment and compensation. The Tribal Court with the concurrence of a majority of all the judges thereof may appoint one or more standing masters, and the trial judge, in an appropriate case, may appoint a special master to act in a particular case. The word "master" includes a referee, an auditor, and an examiner, a commissioner, and an assessor. The compensation to be allowed to a master shall be fixed by the Court and shall be charged upon such of the parties or paid out of any fund or subject matter of the action, which is in the custody and control of the Court as the Court may direct. The master shall not retain the master's report as security for the master's compensation; but when the party ordered to pay the compensation allowed by the Court does not pay it after notice and within the time prescribed by the Court, the master is entitled to a writ of execution against the delinquent party.
2. Reference. A reference to a master shall be the exception and not the rule. In actions to be tried by a jury, a reference shall be made only when the issues are complicated; in actions to be tried without a jury, save in the matter of account and of difficult computation of damages, a reference shall be made only upon a showing that some exceptional condition requires it.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

3. Powers. The order of reference to the master may specify or limit the master's powers and may direct the master to report only upon particular issues or to do or perform particular acts or to receive and report evidence only and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing the hearings and for the filing of the master's report. Subject to the specifications and limitations stated in the order, the master has and shall exercise the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before the master and to do all acts and take all measures necessary or proper for the efficient performance of the master's duties under the order. The master may require the production before the master of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents, and writings applicable thereto. The master may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order of reference and has the authority to put witnesses on oath and may examine them, and may call the parties to the action and examine them upon oath. When a party so requests, the master shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in Section 2-832(3) for a Court sitting without a jury.
4. Proceedings.
 - a. Meetings. When a reference is made, the clerk shall forthwith furnish the master with a copy of the order of reference. Upon receipt thereof, unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the master shall forthwith set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within twenty days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. It is the duty of the master to proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and master, may apply to the Court for an order requiring the master to speed the proceedings and make the report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the master may proceed ex parte, or, in the master's discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.
 - b. Witnesses. The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the master by the issuance and service of subpoenas as provided in Section 2-322. If without adequate excuse a witness fails to appear or give evidence, the witness may be punished for a contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided in Sections 2-512(2) and 2-322(6).
 - c. Statement of accounts. When matters of accounting are in issue before the master, the master may prescribe the form in which the accounts shall be submitted and in any proper case may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items thus submitted or upon a showing that the form of statement is insufficient, the master may require a different form of statement to be furnished, or the accounts or specific items thereof to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as the master directs.

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

5. Report.
- a. Content and filing. The master shall prepare a report upon the matters submitted to the master by the order of reference and, if required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, the master shall set them forth in the report. The master shall file the report with the clerk of the Court and serve on all parties notice of the filing. In an action to be tried without a jury, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference, the master shall file with the report a transcript of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The clerk shall forthwith mail to all parties notice of the filing.
 - b. In non-jury actions. In an action to be tried without a jury, the Court shall accept the master's findings of fact unless clearly erroneous. Within ten days after being served with notice of the filing of the report, any party may serve written objections thereto upon the other parties. Application to the Court for action upon the report and upon objection thereto shall be by motion and upon notice as prescribed in Section 2-340(4). The Court after hearing may adopt the report or may modify it or may reject it in whole or in part or may receive further evidence or may recommit it with instructions.
 - c. In jury actions. In an action to be tried by a jury, the master shall not be directed to report the evidence. The master's findings upon the issues submitted to the master are admissible as evidence of the matters found and may be read to the jury, subject to the ruling of the Court upon any objections in point of law which may be made to the report.
 - d. Stipulation as to findings. The effect of a master's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference; but, when the parties stipulate that a master's findings of fact shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered.
 - e. Draft report. Before filing the master's report, a master may submit a draft thereof to counsel for all parties for the purpose of receiving their suggestions. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

ARTICLE 8, TRIAL
SUBPART C
VERDICT

2-851	Findings by the Court.	2-855	Special verdict and interrogatories.
2-852	Delivery of verdict.	2-856	Jury must assess amount of recovery.
2-853	Requisites of verdicts.	2-857	Motions for a directed verdict and for judgment notwithstanding the verdict.
2-854	General and special verdict.

2-851 Findings by the Court.

1. Effect. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the Court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and judgment shall be entered pursuant to Section 2-1007; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions, the Court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Request for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial Court to judge the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a master, to the extent that the Court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the Court. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact and conclusions of law appear therein. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under Section 2-212(2) or Section 2-222(2).
2. Amendment. Upon motion of a party made no later than ten days after entry of judgment, the Court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial pursuant to Section 2-1008. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the Court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question had made in the Tribal Court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-852 Delivery of verdict. When the jury has agreed upon their verdict, they must be conducted into the Court, and their verdict rendered by their foreman. When the verdict is announced, either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the clerk or the Court asking each juror if it is his/her verdict. If anyone answers in the negative, the jury must again be sent out, for further deliberation. [TCR 86-109]

2-853 Requisites of verdicts. The verdict shall be written, signed by the foreman and read by the clerk to the jury, and the inquiry must be made whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagrees, the jury must be sent out again; but if no disagreement is expressed, and neither party requires the jury to be polled, the verdict is complete and the jury discharged from the case. If, however, the verdict be defective in form only, the same may, with the assent of the jury before they are discharged, be corrected by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-854 General and special verdict. The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is that by which they pronounce generally upon all or any of the issues, either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant. A special verdict is that by which the jury finds facts only. It must present the facts as established by the evidence, and not the evidence to prove them; and they must be so presented as that nothing remains to the Court but to draw from them conclusions of law. [TCR 86-109]

2-855 Special verdict and interrogatories.

1. Special verdicts. The Court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event, the Court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use other method of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The Court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the Court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives his/her right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires, he/she demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand, the Court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.
2. General verdict accompanied by answer to interrogatories. The Court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The Court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are consistent with each other, judgment shall be entered thereon, but, when the answers to one or more interrogatories is inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment may be entered pursuant to Section 2-1007 in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or the Court may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment shall not be entered, but the Court shall return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or shall order a new trial. [TCR 86-109]

2-856 Jury must assess amount of recovery. When, by the verdict, either party is entitled to recover money of the adverse party, the jury, in their verdict, must assess the amount or recovery. [TCR 86-109]

2-857 Motion for a directed verdict and for judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

1. Motion for directed verdict: When made; effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict that is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefore. The order of the Court granting a motion for a directed verdict is effective without any assent of the jury.
2. Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. Whenever a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the Court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment, a party who has moved for a directed verdict may move to have the verdict and any judgment entered thereon set aside and to have judgment entered in accordance with his/her motion for a directed verdict. A motion for a new trial may be joined with this motion, or a new trial may be prayed for in the alternative. If a verdict was returned, the Court may allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of the judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed. If no verdict was returned, the Court may direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed or may order a new trial.
3. Same: Conditional rulings on grant of motion.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 8

- a. If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, provided for in subsection (2) of this Section, is granted, the Court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the appellate Court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the appellee on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the appellate Court.
 - b. The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Section 2-1000 not later than ten days after entry of the judgment notwithstanding the verdict.
4. Same: Denial of motion. If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, on appeal, assert grounds entitling him to a new trial in the event the appellate Court concludes that the trial Court erred in denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. If the appellate Court reverses the judgment, nothing in this Section precludes it from determining that the appellee is entitled to a new trial, or from directing the trial Court to determine whether a new trial shall be granted. MISCELLANEOUS TRIAL PROVISIONS

2-872	Trial docket.	2-876	Continuances.
2-873	Trial docket for bar.	2-877	Trial by judicial panel.
2-874	Order of trial of cases docketed.	2-878	Bifurcated jury trials.

2-871 Provisions applicable to trials by Court. The provisions of this Article respecting trials by jury apply, so far as they are in their nature applicable, to trials by the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-872 Trial docket. A trial docket shall be made out by the clerk of Court, at least fifteen days before the first day of each jury or non-jury docket of the Court, and the actions shall be set for particular days in the order prescribed by the judge of the Court, and so arranged that the cases set for each day shall be considered as nearly as may be on that day. The trial docket shall be promptly mailed by the clerk to each party or their attorney of record whose action is placed on the trial docket. [TCR 86-109]

2-873 Trial docket for bar. The clerk shall make out a copy of the trial docket for the use of the bar, before the first day of the docket of the Court and cause the same to be available to the public. [TCR 86-109]

2-874 Order of trial of cases docketed. The trial of an issue of fact, and assessment of damages in any case, shall be in the order in which they are placed on the trial docket, unless by request of the parties with the approval of the Court, or the order of the Court, they are continued or placed at the heel of the docket, unless the Court, in its discretion hear at any time a motion, and may by rule prescribe the time for hearing motions. [TCR 86-109]

2-875 Time of trial.

1. Actions shall be triable at the first trial docket of the Court, after or during which the issues therein, by the time fixed for pleading are, or shall have been made up and discovery completed, or when the defendant has failed to plead within the time fixed, the cause shall be placed on the trial docket, and shall stand for trial at such term twenty days after the issues are made up and discovery completed, and shall two non-jury trial dockets and two jury trial dockets are completed during each calendar year, unless the majority of the judges of the Court by order determine that additional trial dockets are necessary to promptly dispose of cases pending before the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-876 Continuances. The trial of an action shall not be continued upon the stipulation of the parties alone but may be continued upon order of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-877 Trial by judicial panel.

1. The appellate Court may provide by rule for the trial of any action in the Tribal Court by judicial panel in any or all cases when no jury is allowed by law or demanded by the parties. The judicial panel shall consist of the presiding judge to whom the case was assigned, who shall make all rulings on questions of law during the trial of the action, and two or more judges, special judges, or magistrates who shall hear the evidence. The chief appellate judge of the appellate Court, with the consent of the majority of the active judges of the appellate Court, is hereby authorized to freely appoint any person licensed to practice law before the Court as a special judge for the purpose of sitting upon a judicial panel, and may compensate such person out of the Court fund reasonable compensation for his/her services, in an amount not exceeding the daily rate paid to regular judges of the Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2. The judicial panel shall jointly, by majority vote, determine the facts proved by the evidence and the panel shall enter findings of fact and conclusions of law as in a trial before a single judge.
3. In a trial before a judicial panel, the votes of the judges on the panel shall not be revealed, but the verdict and judgment shall be entered in accordance with the panel's findings of fact and conclusions of law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-878 Bifurcated jury trials.

1. The appellate Court may provide by rule for the bifurcation of any jury trial in a civil action sounding in tort so that the jury shall first hear evidence on, and render its verdict upon the issue of liability, and thereafter hear evidence on and render its verdict upon the issue of the amount of damages if liability has been found.
2. In such bifurcated trials, evidence of insurance coverage or similar agreements by third parties to pay any part of a judgment, and the nature and extent of such coverage or agreement shall be admissible and relevant to the issue of damages.
3. In any such cases not provided for by Court rule, the case may be determined in bifurcated proceedings as stated in subsections (1) and (2) of this Section by stipulation of the parties. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

| 2-902 | Receivers appointed by Tribal Courts. | 2-906 | Execution. |
| 2-903 | Deposit in Court. | | |
| 2-904 | Process in behalf of and against persons not parties. | | |

2-901 Seizure of person or property. At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law of the Tribe, existing at the time the remedy is sought. [TCR 86-109]

2-902 Receivers appointed by Tribal Courts. An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the Court. The practice in the administration of estates by receivers or by other similar officers appointed by the Court shall be in accordance with Tribal probate law, or, if none, then the practice heretofore followed in the Courts of the United States or as provided in rules promulgated by the Tribal Court. In all other respects, the action in which the appointment of a receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by this Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-903 Deposit in Court. In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of Court, may deposit with the Court all or any part of such sum or thing. Money paid into Court under this Section shall be deposited and withdrawn in accordance with Tribal law detailing accounting procedures for the Court clerk's office, and if there be none, then in accordance with the Tribal procedure for the administration and accounting of federal grant monies, upon order of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-904 Process in behalf of and against persons not parties. When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, he/she may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if he/she were a party; and, when obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, he/she is liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if he/she were a party. [TCR 86-109]

2-905 Security--proceedings against sureties. Whenever this Act or other Tribal law permits the giving of security by a party, and security is given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits him/herself to the jurisdiction of the Court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the Court as his/her agent upon whom any papers affecting his/her liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. His/her liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the Court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the Court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known. Any surety authorized to give a bond or stipulation or other undertaking in either the federal Courts or the state Courts within the state within which any portion of the Tribal jurisdiction lies, and any individual approved by the Court who resides within the jurisdiction of Tribe (except officers of the Court or elected Tribal officials) shall be eligible to give such bond or stipulation, or undertaking in the Tribal Court under this Act or other Tribal law unless otherwise prohibited by Tribal law. [TCR 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-906 Execution.

1. In General. Process to enforce a judgment for the payment of money shall be a writ of execution, unless the Court directs otherwise. In aid of the judgment or execution, the judgment creditor may obtain discovery from any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in this Act.
2. Against certain public officers. When a judgment otherwise authorized has been entered against a collector or other officer of revenue of the Tribe or against an officer, or employee, or agency of the Tribe in their official capacity; or if judgment is entered against an individual in his/her personal capacity who purported to act as an officer or employee of the Tribe, and the Court has given certificate of probable cause for his/her act wherein the Court determines that the individual had probable cause to believe that his/her action was authorized by the Tribe in his/her official capacity, execution shall not issue against the officer or his/her property but the final judgment shall be satisfied as may be provided by appropriation of such judgment (or such part thereof as the legislative body of the Tribe deems permissible considering the extent of available Tribal resources) from available Tribal funds. This Section is not intended, nor shall it be construed, as a waiver of sovereign immunity. [TCR 86-109]

INJUNCTIONS

2-911	Injunction defined.	2-919	Security.
2-912	Cause for injunction--temporary restraining order.	2-920	Use of affidavits.
2-913	Temporary restraining order; notice; hearing; duration.	2-921	Injunction by defendant.
2-914	Temporary restraining order--Service.	2-922	Injunction is equitable.
2-915	Preliminary injunction.	2-923	Modification of preliminary injunction.
2-916	Preliminary injunction--criteria.	2-924	Modification of permanent injunction.
2-917	Form and scope of injunction or restraining order.	2-925	Injunctions tried to the Court.
2-918	Employer and employee; interpleader; constitutional cases.	2-926	Enforcement of restraining orders and injunctions.

2-911 Injunction defined. The injunction provided for by this subpart is a command to refrain from or to do a particular act for the benefit of another. It may be the final judgment in an action or may be allowed as a provisional remedy, and when so allowed, it shall be by order. [TCR 86-109]

2-912 Cause for injunction--temporary restraining order. When it appears, by the verified complaint or an affidavit that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded, and such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of some act, the commission or continuance of which, during the litigation, would produce injury to the plaintiff; or when, during litigation it appears that the defendant is doing, or threatens, or is about to do, or is procuring or suffering to be done, some act in violation of the plaintiff's rights respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual, a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction may be granted to restrain such act. And when, during the pendency of an action, it shall appear, by affidavit or proof, that the defendant threatens or is about to remove or dispose of his/her property with intent to defraud his/her creditors, or to render the judgment ineffectual, a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction may be granted to restrain such removal or disposition by statute. [TCR 86-109]

2-913 Temporary restraining order; notice; hearing; duration. A temporary restraining order may be granted after commencement of the action without written or oral notice to the adverse party or his/her attorney only if:

1. It clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or his/her attorney can be heard in opposition; and
2. The applicant's attorney certifies to the Court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting his/her claim that notice should not be required.

Temporary restraining orders should not be granted except in cases of extreme urgency. Every temporary restraining order granted without notice shall be endorsed with the date and hour of issuance; shall be filed forthwith in the clerk's office and entered of record; shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice; and shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed ten days, as the Court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered into record. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the motion for a preliminary injunction shall be set down for hearing at the earliest possible time and take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing, the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction and, if he/she does not do so, the Court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On two days' notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the Court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification, and in that event, the Court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require. [TCR 86-109]

2-914 Temporary restraining order--service. Temporary restraining orders shall be served in the same manner as provided for service of the summons and complaint. [TCR 86-109]

2-915 Preliminary injunction.

1. Notice. No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the adverse party. Notice may be in the form of an order to appear at a designated time and place and show cause why a proposed preliminary injunction should not be issued, or in such form as the Court shall direct. The burden of showing the criteria for issuance of a preliminary injunction remains with the moving party.
2. Consolidation of hearing with trial on merits. Before or after the commencement of the hearing of an application for a preliminary injunction, the Court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing of the application. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon an application for a preliminary injunction that would be admissible upon the trial on the merits becomes part of the record on the trial and need not be repeated upon the trial. This subsection shall be so construed and applied as to save the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury. [TCR 86-109]

2-916 Preliminary injunction--criteria. Unless a statute of the Tribe provides specifically for preliminary injunctive relief upon a showing of particular circumstances, no preliminary injunction shall be granted unless upon hearing the evidence presented by the parties the Court determines that:

1. There is a substantial likelihood that the moving party will eventually prevail on the merits of their claim for a permanent injunction or other relief; and
2. The moving party will suffer irreparable injury unless the preliminary injunction issues. Irreparable injury means an injury that cannot be adequately remedied by a judgment for money damages; and
3. The threatened injury to the moving party outweighs whatever damage or injury the proposed preliminary injunction may cause the opposing party; and
4. The preliminary injunction, if issued, would not be adverse to the public interest, and would not violate the public policy of the Tribe or the United States. [TCR 86-109]

2-917 Form and scope of injunction or restraining order. Every order granting an injunction and every restraining order shall set forth the reasons for its issuance; shall be specific in terms; shall describe in reasonable detail, and not by references to the complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and is binding only upon the parties to the action, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2-918 Employer and employee; interpleader; constitutional cases. This Article does not modify any statute of the Tribe relating to temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunctions in actions affecting employer and employee; or relating to preliminary injunctions in actions of interpleader or in the nature of interpleader; or any other case where temporary restraining orders or preliminary injunctions are expressly authorized or prohibited upon certain express terms or condition. [TCR 86-109]

2-919 Security.

1. No restraining order or preliminary injunction shall issue except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the Court deems proper, for the payment of such costs, damages, and a reasonable attorney fee as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. No such security shall be required of the Tribe or of an officer or agency thereof.
2. The provisions of Section 2-905 apply to a surety upon a bond or undertaking under this Section.
3. A party enjoined by a preliminary injunction may, at any time before final judgment, upon reasonable notice to the party who has obtained the preliminary injunction, move the Court for additional security, and if it appears that the surety in the undertaking has removed from the Tribal jurisdiction, or is insufficient, the Court may vacate the preliminary injunction unless sufficient surety be given in a reasonable time upon such terms as may be just and equitable. [TCR 86-109]

2-920 Use of affidavits. On the hearing for a restraining order or preliminary injunction, each party may submit affidavits which shall be filed as a part of the record. [TCR 86-109]

2-921 Injunction by defendant. A defendant may obtain a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction upon filing his/her answer containing an appropriate counterclaim. He/she shall proceed in the manner hereinbefore prescribed. [TCR 86-109]

2-922 Injunction is equitable. Relief by way of a restraining order, preliminary, or permanent injunction is of equitable cognizance and shall be issued or refused in the sound discretion of the Court. Relief by way of injunction shall be denied where the moving party may be adequately compensated for his/her injuries in money damages. The Tribal Court shall not enjoin the enforcement of the Tribal tax laws or the collection of Tribal taxes except to the extent that such relief is specifically provided for in those tax laws. No injunction shall issue to control the discretion or action of a governmental officer or employee when such officer or employee had been delegated the authority to exercise his/her discretion in determining how to act upon the subject matter and is acting or refusing to act in a manner not prohibited by Tribal law or the Indian Civil Rights Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-923 Modification of preliminary injunction. If the preliminary injunction be granted, the defendant, at any time before the trial, may apply, upon notice, to the Court to vacate or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint and affidavits upon which the injunction is granted, or upon affidavits on the part of the party enjoined, with or without answer. The order of the judge, allowing, dissolving or modifying an injunction, shall be returned to the office of the clerk of the Court and recorded. [TCR 86-109]

2-924 Modification of permanent injunction. A final judgment containing a permanent injunction may be modified or dissolved by separate action upon a showing that the facts and circumstances have changed to the extent that the injunction is no longer just and equitable, or that the injunction is no longer needed to protect the rights of the parties. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2-925 Injunctions tried to the Court. All injunctive actions shall be tried to the Court and not to a jury unless the Court orders an advisory jury pursuant to Section 2-804(3) of this Act.

2-926 Enforcement of restraining orders and injunctions. A restraining order or injunction granted by a judge may be enforced as the act of the Court. Disobedience of any injunction may be punished as a contempt, by the Court or any judge who might have granted it. An attachment may be issued by the Court or judge, upon being satisfied, by affidavit or testimony, of the breach of the injunction, against the party guilty of the same, who may be required to make immediate restitution to the party injured, and give further security to obey the injunction; or, in default thereof, he/she may be committed to close custody, until he/she shall fully comply with such requirements, or be otherwise legally discharged, or be punished by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each day of, or separate act of, contempt, to be paid into the Court fund, or by confinement in the Tribal jail for not longer than sixty days.

2-931 Order of delivery--procedure.

1. The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of specific personal property may claim the delivery of the property at the commencement of suit, as provided herein.
 - a. The complaint must allege facts which show (i) a description of the property claimed; (ii) that the plaintiff is the owner of the property or has a special ownership or interest therein, stating the facts in relation thereto, and that he/she is entitled to the immediate possession of the property; (iii) that the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant; (iv) the actual value of the property, provided that when several articles are claimed, the value of each shall be stated as nearly as practicable; (v) that the property was not taken in execution on any order or judgment against said plaintiff, or for the payment of any tax, fine or amercement assessed against him/her, or by virtue of an order of delivery issued under this Act, or any other mesne or final process issued against said plaintiff; or, if taken in execution or on any order or judgment against the plaintiff, that it is exempt by law from being so taken; and, (vi) the prayer for relief requests that the Court issue an order for the immediate delivery of the property.
 - b. The above allegations are verified by the party or, when the facts are within the personal knowledge of his/her agent or attorney and this is shown in the verification, by said agent or attorney.
 - c. A notice shall be issued by the clerk and served on the defendant with the summons which shall notify the defendant that an order of delivery of the property described in the complaint is sought and that the defendant may object to the issuance of such an order by a written objection which is filed with the clerk and delivered or mailed to the plaintiff's attorney within five days of the service of the summons. In the event that no written objection is filed within the five (5)-day period, no hearing is necessary and the Court clerk shall issue the order of delivery. Should a written objection be filed within the five-day period specified, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for prompt hearing. At such hearing, the Court shall proceed to determine whether the order for prejudgment delivery of the property should issue according to the probable merit of the plaintiff's complaint. Provided, however, that no order of delivery may be issued until an undertaking has been executed pursuant to Section 2-933 of this Act.
 - d. Nothing in this Act contained shall prohibit a party from waiving his/her right to a hearing or from voluntarily delivering the goods to the party seeking them before the commencement of the proceedings or at any time after institution thereof.

2. Where the notice that is required by subsection (1) of this Section cannot be served on the defendant but the judge finds that a reasonable effort to serve him/her was made and at the hearing, the plaintiff has shown the probable truth of the allegations in his/her complaint, the Court may issue an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property. If an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property is issued without actual notice being given the defendant, the defendant may move to have said order dissolved and if he/she does not have possession of the property, for a return of the property. Notice of the right to move for return of said property shall be contained in the order for seizure and delivery of such property which shall be served upon the defendant or left in a conspicuous place where the property was seized, and the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, shall hold said property in such cases for three working days prior to delivery to the plaintiff in order to give the defendant a reasonable opportunity to move for the return of such property. Notice of said motion with the date of the hearing shall be served upon the attorney for the plaintiff in the action. The motion shall be heard promptly, and in any case within ten days after the date it is filed. The Court must grant the motion unless, at the hearing on defendant's motion, the plaintiff proves the probable truth of the allegations contained in his/her complaint. If said motion and notice is filed before the chief of the Tribal police or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, turns the property over to the plaintiff, the chief of the Tribal police, or Bureau of Indian Affairs police, shall retain control of the property pending the hearing on the motion.
3. The Court may, on request of the plaintiff, order the defendant not to conceal, damage or destroy the property or a part thereof and not to remove the property or a part thereof from the Tribal jurisdiction pending the hearing on plaintiff's request for an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property, and said order may be served with the summons. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-932 Penalty for damage of property subject to order of delivery. Any person who willfully and knowingly damages property in which there exists a valid right to issuance of an order of delivery, or on which such order has been sought under the provisions of this Act, or who conceals it, with the intent to interfere with enforcement of the order, or who removes it from the jurisdiction of the Court with the intention of defeating enforcement of an order of delivery, or who willfully refuses to disclose its location to an officer charged with executing an order for its delivery, or, if such property is in his/her possession, willfully interferes with the officer charged with executing such writ, may be held in civil contempt of Court, and shall be guilty of an offense, and if convicted of such offense shall be subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) and imprisonment for a term of not more than six months, or both; and, in addition to such civil and criminal penalties, shall be liable to the plaintiff for double the amount of damage done to the property together with a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the Court, which damages and fee shall be deemed based on tortious conduct and enforced accordingly. [TCR 86-109]

2-933 Undertaking in replevin. The order shall not be issued until there has been executed by one or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff, to be approved by the Court, an undertaking in not less than double the value of the property as stated in the complaint to the effect that the plaintiff shall duly prosecute the action, and pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him/her, including attorney's fees and, if the property be delivered to him/her, that he/she will return the same to the defendant if a return be adjudged; provided that where the Tribe or its agents or subdivisions is party plaintiff, an undertaking in replevin shall not be required of the plaintiff, but a writ shall issue upon complaint duly filed as provided by law. The undertaking shall be filed with the clerk of the Court and shall be subject to the provisions of Section 2-905 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-934 Replevin Bond--value. On application of either party which is made at the time of executing the replevin bond or the redelivery bond, or at a later date with notice to the adverse party, the Court may hold a hearing to determine the value of the property which the plaintiff seeks to replevy. If the value as determined by the Court is different from that stated in the complaint, the value as determined by the Court shall control for the purpose of Sections 2-933 and 2-938 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-935 Order of delivery. The order for the delivery of the property to the plaintiff shall be addressed and delivered to the chief of the Tribal police or to the Bureau of Indian Affairs police. It shall state the names of the parties, the Court in which the action is brought, and command the chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police to take the property, describing it, and deliver it to the plaintiff as prescribed in this Act, and to make return of the order on a day to be named therein. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-936 Order returnable. The return day of the order of delivery, when issued at the commencement of the suit, shall be the same as that of the summons; when issued afterwards, it shall be ten days after it is issued. [TCR 86-109]

2-937 Execution of order. The chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police, shall execute the order by taking the property therein mentioned. He/she shall also deliver a copy of the order to the person charged with the unlawful detainer of the property, or leave such copy at his/her usual place of residence, or at the place such property was seized. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-938 Re-delivery on bond. If, within three working days after service of the copy of the order, there is executed by one or more sufficient sureties of the defendant, to be approved by the Court or the chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police, an undertaking to the plaintiff, in not less than double the amount of the value of the property as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, to the effect that the defendant will deliver the property to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and will pay all costs and damages that may be awarded against him/her, the chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police shall return the property to the defendant. If such undertaking is not given within three working days after service of the order, the Chief of the Tribal police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs police shall deliver the property to the plaintiff. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-939 Exception to sureties.

2-940 Proceedings on failure to prosecute action. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and judgment rendered against him/her, or his/her action be dismissed, or if he/she otherwise fails to prosecute his/her action to final judgment, the Court shall, on application of the defendant or his/her attorney, proceed to inquire into the right of property, and right of possession of the defendant to the property taken. [TCR 86-109]

2-941 Judgment--damages--attorney fees. In an action to recover the possession of personal property, judgment for the plaintiff may be for the possession, or for the recovery of possession, or the value thereof in case a delivery cannot be had, and of damages for the detention. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and the defendant claims a return thereof, judgment for the defendant may be for a return of the property, or the value thereof in case a return cannot be had, and damages for taking and withholding the same. The judgment rendered in favor of the prevailing party in such action may include a reasonable attorney fee to be set by the Court, to be taxed and collected as costs. [TCR 86-109]

2-942 Officer may break into building. The chief of the Tribal police or other law enforcement officer, in the execution of the order of delivery issued by the Tribal Court, may break open any building or enclosure in which the property claimed, or any part thereof, is concealed, upon probable cause to believe that the property is concealed therein, but not until he/she has been refused entrance into said building or enclosure and the delivery of the property, after having demanded the same, or if no person having charge thereof is present. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2-943 Compelling delivery by attachment. In an action to recover the possession of specific personal property, the Court may for good cause shown, before or after judgment, compel the delivery of the property to the officer or party entitled thereto by attachment, and may examine either party as to the possession or control of the property. Such authority shall only be exercised in aid of the foregoing provisions of this subpart. [TCR 86-109]

2-944 Improper issue of order of delivery. Any order for the delivery of property issued under this subpart without the affidavit and undertaking required, shall be set aside and the plaintiff shall be liable in damages to the party injured. [TCR 86-109]

2-945 Joinder of cause of action for debt--stay of judgment. In any action for replevin in the Tribal Court, it shall be permissible for the plaintiff to join with the claim in replevin, a claim founded on debt claimed to be owing to the plaintiff if the debt shall be secured by a lien upon the property sought to be recovered in the claim in replevin. In such cases, the execution of the judgment for debt shall be stayed pending the sale of the property and the determination of the amount of debt remaining unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale thereto. ATTACHMENT

2-951	Grounds for attachment.	2-956	Order of execution.
2-952	Attachment affidavit.	2-957	Execution of attachment order.
2-953	Attachment bonds.	2-958	Service of order.
2-954	Order of attachment.	2-959	Re-delivery on bond.
2-955	When returnable.

2-951 Grounds for attachment. The plaintiff in a civil action for the recovery of money may, at or after the commencement thereof, have an attachment against the property of the defendant, and upon proof of any of the following grounds:

1. When the defendant, or one of several defendants, is a foreign corporation, or a nonresident of the Tribal jurisdiction (but no order of attachment shall be issued on this clause for any claim other than a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment or decree, unless the claim arose wholly within the Tribal jurisdiction); or
2. When the defendant, or one of several defendants, has absconded with intention to defraud his/her creditors; or
3. Has left the Tribal jurisdiction to avoid the service of summons; or
4. So conceals him/herself that a summons cannot be served upon him/her; or
5. Is about to remove his/her property, or a part thereof, out of the jurisdiction of the Court with the intent to defraud his/her creditors; or
6. Is about to convert his/her property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his/her creditors; or
7. Has property or rights in action, which he/she conceals; or
8. Has assigned, removed or disposed of, or is about to dispose of, his/her property, or a part thereof, with the intent to defraud, hinder or delay his/her creditors; or
9. Fraudulently contracted the debt, or fraudulently incurred the liability or obligations for which the suit has been brought; or
10. Where the damages for which the action is brought are for injuries arising from the commission of a criminal offense; or
11. When the debtor has failed to pay the price or value of any article or thing delivered, which by contract he/she was bound to pay upon delivery; or
12. When the action is brought by the Tribe, or its officers, agents, or political agencies or subdivisions for the purpose of collection of any Tribal tax, levy, charge, fee, assessment, rental, or debt arising in contract or by statute and owed to the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-952 Attachment affidavit. An order of attachment may be issued by the Court when:

1. There is filed in the office of the Court clerk a civil complaint stating a claim for relief and an application that the Court issue an order of attachment which states facts which show:
 - a. The nature of the plaintiff's claim;
 - b. That it is just;
 - c. The amount which the affiant believes the plaintiff ought to recover; and,
 - d. The existence of some of the grounds for an attachment enumerated in Section 2-951 of this subpart.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2. The application must be verified by the plaintiff, or, where his/her agent or attorney has personal knowledge of the facts, by said agent or attorney.
3. The defendant has been served with a notice, issued by the clerk, which shall notify the defendant that an order of attachment of property is requested and that he/she may object to the issuance of such an order by a written objection which is filed with the Court clerk and mailed or delivered to the plaintiff's attorney within five days of the receipt of the notice. A copy of plaintiff's application shall be attached to and served with the notice, and the notice and application may be served with the summons in the action.
4. If no written objection is filed within the five-day period, no hearing is necessary and the clerk may issue the order of attachment. If a written objection is filed within the five-day period, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for a prompt hearing with notice to the adverse party. If the plaintiff proves the probable merit of his/her cause and the truth of the matters asserted in his/her application for an order of attachment, the Court may issue the order of attachment. Provided, however, before an order of attachment is issued by either the Court or the clerk, the plaintiff has executed an undertaking pursuant to Section 2-953 of this Act. The Tribe and its agents shall not be required to execute an undertaking.
5. If the Court finds that the defendant cannot be given notice as provided herein, although a reasonable effort was made to notify him/her, but at the hearing the plaintiff proves the probable merit of his/her claim and the truth of the matters asserted in his/her application, the Court may issue the order of attachment. The defendant may subsequently move to have the attachment vacated as provided in Section 2-991.19 of this Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-953 Attachment bonds. The attachment bond for the benefit of the party whose property is attached shall be in such form and in such amount, not less than double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, as the Court shall direct, and shall guarantee payment of all damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees incurred as a result of a wrongful attachment. No bond shall be required of the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-954 Order of attachment. The order of attachment shall be directed and delivered to the chief of the Tribal police. It shall require him/her to attach the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, stocks, rights, credit, moneys and effects of the defendant within the Tribal jurisdiction not exempt by law from being applied to the payment of the plaintiff's claim, or so much thereof as will satisfy the plaintiff's claim, to be stated in the order as in the affidavit, and the probable cost of the action not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00). [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-955 When returnable. The return day of the order of attachment when issued at the commencement of the action, shall be the same as that of the summons, and otherwise within twenty days of the date of issuance. [TCR 86-109]

2-956 Order of execution. Where there are several orders of attachment against the defendant, they shall be executed in the order in which they are received by the chief of the Tribal police. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-957 Execution of attachment order. The order of attachment shall be executed by the chief of the Tribal police without delay. He/she shall go to the place within the Tribal jurisdiction where the defendant's property may be found, and declare that, by virtue of said order, he/she attaches said property at the suit of the plaintiff; and the officer shall make a true inventory and appraisal of all the property attached, which shall be signed by the officer and returned with the order, leaving a copy of said inventory with the person or in the place from which the property was seized. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-958 Service of order.

1. When the property attached is real property, the officer shall leave a copy of the order with the occupant, or, if there be no occupant, then a copy of the order shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the real property, where it is personal property, and he/she can get possession, he/she shall take such into his/her custody, and hold it subject to the order of the Court.
2. When the property attached is real property, third parties shall not be affected until a copy of the attachment order and the legal description of the real property attached shall be filed and placed on record in the land tract book maintained by the Court clerk. [TCR 86-109]

2-959 Re-delivery on bond. The chief of the Tribal police shall re-deliver the property to the person in whose possession it was found, upon the execution by such person, in the presence of the chief of the Tribal police, an undertaking to the plaintiff, with one or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that the parties to the same are bound, in double the appraised value thereof, that the property, or its appraised value in money, shall be forthcoming to answer the judgment of the Court in the action. GARNISHMENT

(As adopted November 17, 2010)

|-------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|---------------------------------------------------------|-------|------------------------------|
| 2-961 | Garnishment in aid of execution; when issued; procedure; court order; continuing lien; when invalid. | 2-964 | Answer; interrogatories; objections; contempt; hearing. | 2-965 | Exemptions from garnishment. |
| 2-962 | Priority of garnishments and liens. | | | | |
| 2-963 | Service upon garnishee; notice; hearing. | | | | |

2-961 Garnishment in aid of execution; when issued; procedure; court order; continuing lien; when invalid.

1. In all cases when a judgment has been entered by the Court, the judgment creditor or his or her agent or attorney may file an affidavit setting forth the amount due on the judgment, interest, and costs with the clerk and that he/she has good reason to and does believe that any person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, naming him, her, or it, has property of and is indebted to the judgment debtor. Upon the filing of said affidavit, the clerk shall issue a summons which shall set forth the amount due on the judgment, interest, and costs as shown in the affidavit and require such person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, as garnishee, to answer written interrogatories to be furnished by the judgment creditor with his/her affidavit and to be attached to such summons. The summons shall be returnable within ten days from the date of its issuance and shall require the garnishee to answer the attached interrogatories within ten days from the date of service upon him/her.
2. Except when wages are involved, the garnishee shall hold the property of every description and the credits, as defined in this Subpart D, of the judgment debtor in his/her possession or under his/her control at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories until the further order of the Court. If the only property in the possession or under the control of the garnishee at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories is credits of the judgment debtor and the amount of such credits is not in dispute by the garnishee, then such garnishee shall only hold the credits of the judgment debtor in his/her possession or under his/her control at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories to the extent of the amount of the judgment, interest, and costs set forth in the summons until further order of the Court. When wages are involved, the garnishee shall pay to the employee-judgment debtor the amount of earnings exempted from garnishment by Section 2-965(2), and any earnings remaining after such payment shall be retained by the garnishee until further order of the Court.
3. A garnishee holding only credits of the judgment debtor may pay the money owing to the judgment debtor by him into Court. He shall be discharged from liability to the judgment debtor for any money so paid not exceeding the judgment creditor's claim.
4. A garnishee shall not be subjected to costs beyond those caused by his resistance of the claim against him; and if he discloses the property under his control, or the true amount owing by him, and delivers or pays the same according to the order of the Court, he shall be allowed his costs.
5. If it appears from the answer of the garnishee that the judgment debtor is an employee of the garnishee, that the garnishee otherwise owed earnings to the judgment debtor when the garnishment summons was served, or that earnings would be owed within sixty days thereafter and there is not a successful written objection to the summons or interrogatories, on application by the judgment creditor, the Court shall order that the nonexempt earnings, if any, withheld by

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

- the garnishee after service of the summons be transferred to the Court for delivery to the judgment creditor who is entitled to such earnings.
6. Except for garnishments in support of a person, the payments may be made payable to the judgment creditor or assignee and shall be forwarded to the issuing court to record the judgment payment prior to the Court delivering the payment to the judgment creditor or assignee. The Court shall, upon application of the judgment creditor, further order that the garnishment is a continuing lien against the nonexempt earnings of the judgment debtor. An order of continuing lien on nonexempt earnings entered pursuant to this Section shall require the garnishee to continue to withhold the nonexempt earnings of the judgment debtor for as long as the continuing lien remains in effect.
 7. Beginning with the pay period during which the summons was served and while the continuing lien remains in effect, the garnishee shall deliver the nonexempt earnings to the Court for each pay period or on a monthly basis if the garnishee so desires and shall deliver to the judgment debtor his or her exempt earnings for each pay period.
 8. A continuing lien ordered pursuant to this Section shall be invalid and shall have no force and effect upon the occurrence of any of the following:
 - a. The underlying judgment is satisfied in full or vacated or expires;
 - b. The judgment debtor leaves the garnishee's employ for more than sixty days;
 - c. The judgment creditor releases the garnishment;
 - d. The proceedings are stayed by a court of competent jurisdiction, including the United States Bankruptcy Court;
 - e. The judgment debtor has not earned any nonexempt earnings for at least sixty days; or
 - f. The Court orders that the garnishment be quashed.
 9. "Credit" as used herein shall mean any money of the judgment debtor held by the garnishee or any liquidated and undisputed amount of money owed by the garnishee to the judgment debtor.
[TCR 11-26]

2-962 Priority of garnishments and liens.

1. To determine priority, garnishments and liens shall rank according to time of service.
2. Garnishments, liens, and wage assignments that are not for the support of a person shall be inferior to wage assignments for the support of a person. Garnishments, that are not for the support of a person and liens, shall be inferior to garnishments for the support of a person.
3. Only one order of continuing lien against earnings due the judgment debtor shall be in effect at one time. If an employee's wages are already being garnished pursuant to a continuing lien at the time of service of a garnishment upon an employer, the answer to garnishment interrogatories shall include such information along with the date of termination of such continuing lien and the title of the case from which such garnishment is issued. Except as provided in subsection 2 of this Section, a continuing lien obtained pursuant to this Section shall have priority over any subsequent garnishment or wage assignment. [TCR 11-26]

2-963 Service upon garnishee; notice; hearing.

1. The summons, interrogatories and order of garnishment shall be served upon the garnishee in the manner provided for service of a summons in a civil action.
2. The judgment creditor or his or her agent or attorney shall send to the judgment debtor by certified mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor a copy of the summons, interrogatories and order of garnishment. Judgment creditor shall include with the summons a notice to the judgment debtor regarding the exemptions from garnishment and the judgment debtor's right to have a hearing to determine whether any exemptions apply to the proposed garnishment.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

3. If the judgment debtor in a garnishment proceeding requests a hearing on exemptions, the Court shall grant the hearing within ten days of the request. [TCR 11-26]

2-964 Answer; interrogatories; response; objections; contempt; hearing.

1. The garnishee shall answer, under oath, all the interrogatories put to him touching the property of every description and credits of the defendant in his possession or under his control at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories, and he shall disclose truly the amount owing by him to the defendant, whether due or not, and, in case of a corporation, any stock therein held by or for the benefit of the defendant, at the time of the service of the summons and interrogatories.
2. A person who fails to respond or object to a summons and garnishment interrogatories served in accordance with this Subpart or make payment in accordance with this Subpart shall be subject to an action for contempt of Court. Such person, if found in contempt, shall be liable in the full amount of wages or credits of the judgment debtor held by them up to the full amount of the judgment, or 10% of the judgment, whichever is greater, plus judgment creditor's attorney fees and costs to bring the contempt action.
3. In lieu of responding to the garnishment interrogatories, a garnishee may file an objection(s) to the garnishment interrogatories within the time provided for the response thereto. The judgment creditor, the judgment debtor, or the garnishee may request a hearing with the Court to determine the validity of the asserted objections. The garnishee shall have the burden of proving the validity of its objections. The Court may award attorney fees and costs should the garnishee's objections be overruled.
4. After receipt of the garnishee's answer to garnishment interrogatories, the judgment creditor may request a hearing to determine the completeness and/or truthfulness of the garnishee's responses. The judgment creditor shall have the burden of proving that garnishee's responses to interrogatories are incomplete and/or untruthful. Should the garnishee's responses be upheld, the Court may award attorney fees and costs to the garnishee. The Court may combine a hearing under this subsection with a hearing requested pursuant to subsection 3 of this Section.
5. In its capacity as an employer, the Tribe, its officers and managers shall comply with the requirements of this Subpart. However, the Tribe shall not be subject to any fine or fee provided for in this Subpart. [TCR 11-26]

2-965 Exemptions from garnishment.

1. Credits held by a garnishee shall not be subject to execution where held in an account that enjoys any tax-exempt status under federal law for the purpose of providing for the judgment debtor's retirement from employment. All other credits held by a garnishee shall be fully subject to execution.
2. Judgment debtor's wages held or owed by a garnishee shall be exempt from execution up to 75% of the total wages owed or held. In determining the total wages under this subsection, amounts subject to a prior or subsequent order or garnishment in support of a minor child shall not be included. [TCR 11-26]

2-992.2	Persons ineligible.	2-992.7	Punishment for disobedience of Court.
2-992.3	Oath and bond.	2-992.8	Vacation of appointment by appellate Court.
2-992.4	Powers of receiver.
2-992.5	Investment of funds.

2-992.1 Appointment of receiver. A receiver may be appointed by the appellate Court, the Tribal Court, or any judge of either:

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property, or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his/her claim, or between partners or others jointly owning an interest in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff, or of any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund, or the proceeds thereof, is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.
2. In any action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his/her mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, where it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured, or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed, and that the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.
3. After judgment, to carry the judgment into effect.
4. After judgment, to dispose of the property according to the judgment, or to preserve it during the pendency of an appeal, or in proceeding in aid of execution, when an execution has been returned unsatisfied, or when the judgment debtor refuses to apply his/her property in satisfaction of the judgment.
5. In the cases provided in this Act, and by special statutes, when a corporation has been dissolved, or is insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights.
6. In all other cases where receivers should be appointed to protect the property and rights of the parties thereto in dispute by the usages of the Court in equity. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-992.2 Persons ineligible. No party, or attorney, or person so interested in an action shall be appointed receiver therein except by consent of all parties thereto. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.3 Oath and bond. Before entering upon his/her duties, the receiver must be sworn to perform them faithfully, and with one or more sureties, approved by the Court, execute an undertaking to such person and in such sum as the Court shall direct, to the effect that he/she will faithfully discharge the duties of receiver in the action and obey the orders of the Court therein. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.4 Powers of receiver. The receiver has, under the control of the Court, power to bring and defend actions in his/her own name, as receiver; to take and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, to collect debts, to compound for and compromise the same, to make transfers, and generally to do such act respecting the property as the Courts may authorize. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.5 Investment of funds. Funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest, by order of the Court; but no such order shall be made, except upon the consent of all the parties to the action, or

TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

except by order of the Court when the principal and interest earned thereon are guaranteed by the federal government and may be withdrawn within a reasonable time. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.6 Disposition of property litigated.

1. When it is admitted, by the pleadings or oral or written examination of a person, that he/she has in his/her possession or under his/her control any non-exempt money or other thing capable of delivery, which is held by him/her as trustee for a party, or which belongs or is due to a party, the Court may order the same to be deposited in Court or delivered to such party, with or without security, subject to the further direction of the Court.
2. Any person abiding by an order of the Court in such cases and paying or delivering the money or other property subject to said order into Court, shall not thereafter be liable to the party for whom he/she held as trustee, or to whom the money or property belonged or was due, in any civil action for the collection or return of the property or money delivered or paid into Court.
3. Such order may be made by ordering the party to procure the deposit or payment into Court of the property, which order may be enforced by contempt, or the Court, upon proper application, may order the person holding said property to be served with summons and brought into the action as a special defendant for the sole purpose of determining the nature and amount of property in his/her possession subject to payment into Court under this Section, and ordering said person to pay or deliver such non-exempt property into Court. After such payment has been made, the person shall be dismissed from the action.
4. In cases where judgment has been obtained against the party whose property or money is to be paid into Court, it is not necessary to formally appoint a receiver for the money or property paid into Court under this Section, but the Court clerk shall act as receiver, as an aid to the enforcement of judgment, and shall pay such money or deliver such property over to the person entitled thereto in conformity with the order of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-992.7 Punishment for disobedience of Court. Whenever, in the exercise of its authority, the Court shall have ordered the deposit or delivery of money or other thing, and the order is disobeyed, the Court, besides punishing the disobedience as for contempt, may make an order requiring the chief of the Tribal police to take the money, or thing, and deposit or deliver it, in conformity with the direction of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-992.8 Vacation of appointment by appellate Court. In all cases in the appellate Court in which a receiver has been appointed, or refused, by any justice of the appellate Court, the party aggrieved may within ten days thereafter have the right to file a motion to vacate the order refusing or appointing such receiver, and hearing on such motion may be had before the appellate Court, if the same be in session, or before a quorum of the justices of said Court in vacation, at such time and place as the said Court or the justices thereof may determine, and pending the final determination of the cause, if the order was one of the appointment of a receiver, the moving party shall have the right to give bond with good and sufficient sureties, and in such amount as may be fixed by order of the Court or a justice thereof, conditioned for the due prosecution of such case, and the payment of all costs and damages that may accrue to the Tribe, or any officer, or person by reason thereof, the authority of any such receiver shall be suspended pending a final determination of such cause, and if such receiver shall have taken possession of any property in controversy in said action, the same shall be surrendered to the rightful owner thereof, upon the filing and approval of said bond. ARTICLE 9, PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS
SUBPART G EMINENT DOMAIN

2-993.1	Who may exercise authority.	2-993.6	Appearance or answer.
2-993.2	What property may be condemned by eminent domain.	2-993.7	Amendment of pleadings.
2-993.3	Condemnation of property.	2-993.8	Substitution of parties.
2-993.4	Complaint.	2-993.9	Dismissal of action.
2-993.5	Process in eminent domain.	2-993.10	Deposit and its distribution.
		2-993.11	Costs.

2-993.1 Who may exercise authority. The Tribal legislative body, and any officer or agency of the Tribe specifically authorized to do so by statute may obtain real or personal property by eminent domain proceedings in conformance with the Tribal Constitution, the Indian Civil Rights Act, and this subpart. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.2 What property may be condemned by eminent domain. Except property made exempt from eminent domain by the Tribal Constitution and statutes, all property real and personal within the Tribal jurisdiction, not owned by the Tribe and its agencies, shall be subject to eminent domain except title to property held in trust by the United States for an Indian or Tribe, or property held by an Indian or Tribe subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States unless the United States has consented to the eminent domain of said property. Any lease or Tribally granted property conveyed by Tribal or federal law shall be subject to eminent domain in conformance with the Tribal Constitution and statutes and the Indian Civil Rights Act. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.3 Condemnation of property.

1. Applicability of other rules. The Rules of Civil Procedure for the Courts of the Tribe govern the procedure for the condemnation of real and personal property under the power of eminent domain, except as otherwise provided in this subpart.
2. Joinder of properties. The plaintiff may join in the same action one or more separate pieces of property, whether in the same or different ownership and whether or not sought for the same use.
3. Amount to be paid. The owner shall be entitled to receive just compensation for all property or rights to property taken from him/her in eminent domain proceedings. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.4 Complaint.

1. Caption. The complaint shall contain a caption as provided in Section 2-210(1), except that the plaintiff shall name as defendants the property, designated generally by kind, quantity, and location, and at least one of the owners of some part of or interest in the property.
2. Contents. The complaint shall contain a short and plain statement of the authority for the taking, the use for which the property is to be taken, a description of the property sufficient for its identification, the interests to be acquired, and as to each separate piece of property a designation of the defendants who have been joined as owners thereof or of some interest therein. Upon the commencement of the action, the plaintiff need join as defendants only the persons having or claiming an interest in the property whose names are then known, but prior to any hearing involving the compensation to be paid for a piece of property, the plaintiff shall add as defendants all persons having or claiming an interest in that property whose names can be ascertained by a reasonably diligent search of the records, considering the character and value of the property involved and the interest to be acquired, and also those whose names have otherwise been learned. All others may be made defendants under the designation "Unknown Owners." Process shall be served as provided in Section 2-993.5 of this subpart upon all defendants, whether named as defendants at the time of the commencement of the action or subsequently added, and a defendant may answer as provided in Section 2-993.6 of this subpart. The Court meanwhile may order such distribution of a deposit as the facts warrant.

3. Filing. In addition to filing the complaint with the Court, the plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk at least one copy thereof for the use of the defendants and additional copies at the request of the clerk or of a defendant. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.5 Process in eminent domain.

1. Notice; delivery. Upon the filing of the complaint the plaintiff shall forthwith deliver to the clerk joint or several notices directed to the defendants names or designated in the complaint. Additional notices directed to defendants subsequently added shall be so delivered. The delivery of the notice and its service have the same effect as the delivery and service of the summons.
2. Same; form. Each notice shall state the Court, the title of the action, the name of the defendant to whom it is directed, that the action is to condemn property, a description of his/her property sufficient for its identification, the interest to be taken, that the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney an answer within twenty days after the service of the notice, and that the failure so to serve an answer constitutes a consent to the taking and to the authority of the Court to proceed to hear the action and to fix the compensation. The notice shall conclude with the name of the plaintiff's attorney and an address where he/she may be served. The notice need contain a description of no other property than that to be taken from the defendants to whom it is directed.
3. Service of notice.
 - a. Personal service. Personal service of the notice shall be made in accordance with the rules for personal service of summons upon a defendant who resides within the United States or its territories or insular possessions and whose residence is known. A copy of the complaint may, but need not, be served.
 - b. Service by publication. Upon the filing of a certificate of the plaintiff's attorney stating that he/she believes a defendant cannot be personally served, because after diligent inquiry his/her place of residence cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff or, if ascertained, that it is beyond the territorial limits of personal service as provided in this Section, service of the notice shall be made on that defendant by publication in a newspaper published in the county where the property is located, or if there is no such newspaper, then in a newspaper having a general circulation where the property is located, once a week for not less than three successive weeks. Prior to the last publication, a copy of the notice shall also be mailed to a defendant who cannot be personally served as provided in this Section but whose place of residence is then known. Unknown owners may be served by publication in a like manner by a notice addressed to "Unknown Owners."
 - c. When publication service complete. Service by publication is complete upon the date of the last publication. Proof of publication and mailing shall be made by certificate of the plaintiff's attorney, to which shall be attached a printed copy of the published notice with the name and dates of the newspaper marked thereon.
4. Return; amendment. Proof of service of the notice shall be made and amendment of the notice or proof of its service allowed in the manner provided for the return and amendment of the summons. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.6 Appearance or answer. If a defendant has no objection or defense to the taking of his/her property, he/she shall serve a notice of appearance designating the property in which he/she claims to be interested. Thereafter he/she shall receive notice of all proceedings affecting it. If a defendant has any objection or defense to the taking of his/her property, he/she shall serve his/her answer within twenty days after the service of notice upon him/her. The answer shall identify the property in which he/she claims to have an interest, state the nature and extent of the interest claimed, and state all of his/her objections and defenses to the taking of his/her property. A defendant waives all defenses and objections not so presented, but at the trial of the issue of just compensation, whether or not he/she has previously appeared or answered, he/she may present evidence as the amount of the compensation to be paid for his/her property, and he/she may share in the distribution of the award. No other pleading or motion asserting any additional defense or objection shall be allowed. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-993.7 Amendment of pleadings. Without leave of Court, the plaintiff may amend the complaint at any time before the trial of the issue of compensation and as many times as desired, but no amendment shall be made which will result in a dismissal forbidden by Section 2-993.9 of this subpart. The plaintiff need not serve a copy of an amendment, but shall serve notice of the filing, as provided in Section 2-331 (2) of this Act, upon any party affected thereby who has appeared and, in the manner provided in Section 2-993.9 of this subpart, upon any party affected thereby who has not appeared. The plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk of the Court for the use of the defendants at least one copy of each amendment, and he/she shall furnish additional copies on the request of the clerk or of a defendant. Within the time allowed by Section 2-993.6 of this subpart, a defendant may serve his/her answer to the amended pleading, in the form and manner and with the same effect as therein provided. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.8 Substitution of parties. If a defendant dies or becomes incompetent or transfers his/her interest after his/her joinder, the Court may order substitution of the proper party upon motion and notice of hearing. If the motion and notice of hearing are to be served upon a person not already a party, service shall be made as provided in Section 2-993.5(3). [TCR 86-109]

2-993.9 Dismissal of action.

1. As of right. If no hearing has begun to determine the compensation to be paid for a piece of property and the plaintiff has not acquired the title or a lesser interest in the property or taken possession thereof, the plaintiff may dismiss the action as to that property, without an order of the Court, by filing a notice of dismissal setting forth a brief description of the property as to which the action is dismissed.
2. By stipulation. Before the entry of any judgment vesting the plaintiff with title or a lesser interest in or possession of property, the action may be dismissed in whole or in part, without an order of the Court, as to any property by filing a stipulation of dismissal by the plaintiff and the defendant affected thereby; and, if the parties so stipulate, the Court may vacate any judgment that has been entered.
3. By order of the Court. At any time before compensation for a piece of property has been determined and paid and after motion and hearing, the Court may dismiss the action as to that property, except that it shall not dismiss the action as to any part of the property of which the plaintiff has taken possession or in which the plaintiff has taken title or a lesser interest so taken, or, if the possession, title, or interest in such property is to be returned to the defendant upon dismissal by motion of the plaintiff, the Court may also award reasonable actual damages incurred, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1000.00) in excess of fair rental value of the premises during the period in which the plaintiff held possession or title against the plaintiff notwithstanding the doctrine of sovereign immunity. The Court at any time may drop a defendant unnecessarily or improperly joined.
4. Effect. Except as otherwise provided in the notice, or stipulation of dismissal, or order of the Court, any dismissal is without prejudice. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 9

2-993.10 Deposit and its distribution. The plaintiff shall deposit with the Court any money required by law as a condition to the exercise of the power of eminent domain; and, although not so required, may make a deposit when permitted by statute. In such cases the Court and attorneys shall expedite the proceedings for the distribution of the money so deposited and for the ascertainment and payment of just compensation. If the compensation finally awarded to any defendant exceeds the amount which has been paid to him/her on distribution of the deposit, the Court shall enter judgment against him/her and in favor of the plaintiff for the overpayment. [TCR 86-109]

2-993.11 Costs. Costs shall normally be paid by the plaintiff in condemnation actions unless the Court, in its discretion, determines that a defendant should pay his/her own costs, which may include a reasonable portion of plaintiff's costs because of inequitable conduct or other statutory reason. 2-1001 Judgment; costs.

1. Definition; form. "Judgment" as used in this Article includes a final determination of the rights of the parties in an action, including those determined by a decree and by any order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a master, or the record of prior proceedings.
2. Judgment upon multiple claims or involving multiple parties. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, or when multiple parties are involved, the Court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the claims, or rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.
3. Demand for judgment; default. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in the party's pleadings.
4. Costs. Except when express provision therefor is made either in a statute of the Tribe or in this Article, costs shall be allowed as of course to the prevailing party unless the Court otherwise directs; but costs, including attorney fees and statutory authorization for collection of damages or requirement for bonds or undertakings, against the Tribe, its officers and agencies shall be imposed only to the extent specifically permitted by Tribal law. A general statement in this Article that such are payable by a party or by the plaintiff or defendant is not authority to impose such costs, damages, or requirements upon the Tribe, its officers, and agencies. Costs may be taxed by the clerk on one day's notice. On motion served within ten days thereafter, the action of the clerk may be reviewed by the Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

5. Applied to probate proceedings. A judgment shall be considered a lawful debt in all proceedings held by the Department of the Interior or by the Tribal Court in the distribution of decedent's estates. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-1002 Default.

1. Entry. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk shall enter the party's default.
2. Judgment. Judgment by default may be entered as follows:
 - a. By the clerk. When the plaintiff's claim against a defendant is for a sum certain or for a sum which can by computation be made certain, the clerk upon request of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the defendant, if the defendant has been defaulted for failure to appear and if he/she is not an infant or incompetent person.
 - b. By the Court. In all other cases, the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the Court therefor; but no judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative who has appeared therein. If the party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, the party (or, if appearing by representative, the party's representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least three days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the Court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take in account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the Court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when and as required by any statute of the Tribe.
3. Setting aside default. For good cause shown, the Court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment of default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Section 2-1009 (2).
4. Plaintiff, counterclaimants, cross-claimants. The provisions of this Section apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Section 2-1001 (3).
5. Judgment against the Tribe. No judgment by default may be entered against the Tribe, its officers, or agencies unless sixty (60) days written notice has been served upon the chief executive officer and the Tribal legislative authority. If during such sixty-day period the Tribe is without counsel, and the Tribe has submitted to the Bureau of Indian Affairs an attorney contract for approval, no default may be entered until thirty days after approval of the contract. During such period, the Tribe, its agencies, or officers shall be allowed to cure any default. No judgment by default shall be entered against the Tribe, its agencies, or officers in any case until the claimant establishes his/her claim or right to relief, including his/her authority to bring the suit, and his/her damages by evidence satisfactory to the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-1003 Offer of judgment. At any time more than ten days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him/her for the money or property or to the effect specified in his/her offer, with costs then accrued. If within ten days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the clerk shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one party to another has been determined by verdict or order or judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability, or both, remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than ten days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability. [TCR 86-109]

2-1004 Judgment for specific acts--vesting title. If a judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver deeds or other documents or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the Court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the Court and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment or sequestration against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The Court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the Tribal jurisdiction, and the interest in said property at issue in the action is not held in trust by the United States as Indian lands, the Court in lieu of directing a conveyance of that interest may enter a judgment divesting the interest from any party and vesting it in others and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or judgment is for delivery or possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution or assistance upon application. [TCR 86-109]

2-1005 Summary judgment.

1. For claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of twenty days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in the party's favor upon all or any part thereof.
2. For defending party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in the party's favor as to all or any part thereof.
3. Motion and proceedings thereon. The motion shall be served at least ten days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be entered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.
4. Case not fully adjudicated on motion. If on motion under this Section judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the Court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.
5. Form of affidavits; further testimony; defense required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The Court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this Section, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the adverse party's pleading, but the adverse party's response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this Section, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If the adverse party does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against the adverse party.

6. When affidavits are unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that the party cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify the party's opposition, the Court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.
7. Affidavits made in bad faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the Court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this Section are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the Court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused the other party to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-1006 Declaratory judgment. The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment in actions arising in equity, or through contract, or pursuant to any specific Tribal law authorizing a declaratory judgment, shall be in accordance with this Article, and the right to trial by jury may be demanded under the circumstances and in the manner provided in Section 2-804. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The Court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar. [TCR 86-109]

2-1007 Entry of judgment.

1. Subject to the provision of Section 2-1001 (2), the Court shall promptly approve the form of the judgment, and the clerk shall thereupon enter it:
 - a. Upon a general verdict of a jury, or upon a decision by the Court that a party shall recover only a sum certain or costs or that all relief shall be denied, the clerk, unless the Court otherwise orders, shall forthwith prepare, sign and enter the judgment without awaiting any direction by the Court;
 - b. Upon a decision by the Court granting other relief, or upon a special verdict or a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories the Court shall promptly approve the form of the judgment, and the clerk shall thereupon enter it.
2. Every judgment shall be set forth on a separate document. A judgment is effective only when so set forth and when entered in the civil docket book. Entry of the judgment shall not be delayed for the taxing of costs. Attorneys shall not submit forms of judgment except upon direction of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1008 New trials; amendments of judgments.

1. Grounds. A new trial is a re-examination in the same Court, of an issue of fact, or of law, or both and may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the following reasons:
 - a. Irregularity in the proceedings of the Court, jury, referee, or prevailing party, or any order of the Court or referee, or abuse of discretion, by which the party was prevented from having a fair trial; or
 - b. Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party; or
 - c. Accident or surprise, which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against; or
 - d. Excessive or inadequate damages, appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice; or
 - e. Error in the assessment of the amount of recovery, whether too large or too small, where the action is upon a contract, or for the injury or detention of property; or
 - f. That the verdict, report, or decision is not sustained by sufficient evidence, or is contrary to law; or
 - g. Newly-discovered evidence, material for the party applying, which he/she could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the trial; or
 - h. Error of law occurring at the trial, and objected to by the party making application; or
 - i. When, without fault of the complaining party, it becomes impossible to make a record sufficient for appeal.

On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the Court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions, and direct the entry of a new judgment.

2. Time for motion. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than ten days after the entry of the judgment, except that a motion based upon newly discovered evidence shall be made within one year from the date of the judgment.
3. Time for serving affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has ten days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding twenty days either by the Court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The Court may permit reply affidavits.
4. On initiative of Court. Not later than ten days after entry of judgment the Court of its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the Court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the Court shall specify in the order the grounds therefor.
5. Motion to alter or amend a judgment. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than ten days after entry of the judgment. [TCR 86-109]

2-1009 Relief from judgment or order.

1. Clerical mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the Court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the Court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the appeal is docketed in the appellate Court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the appellate Court.
2. Mistakes; inadvertence; excusable neglect; newly discovered evidence; fraud; etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the Court may relieve a party or a party's legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (A) mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; (B) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Section 2-1008 (2); (C) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (D) the judgment is void; (E) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment on which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (F) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (A), (B), and (C) not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

A motion under this subsection (2) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This Section does not limit the power of a Court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified as provided in Title 28, U.S.C., Section 1655, of the proceedings, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the Court. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review, are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in this Article or by an independent action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-1010 Harmless error. No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the Court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the Court inconsistent with substantial justice. The Court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties. [TCR 86-109]

2-1011 Stay of proceedings to enforce a judgment.

1. Automatic stay; exceptions—injunctions, receiverships, and patent accountings. Except as stated in this Article, no execution shall issue upon a judgment nor shall proceedings be taken for its enforcement until the expiration of ten days after its entry. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action, or a judgment or order directing an accounting, shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal. The provisions of subsection (3) of this section govern the suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting of an injunction during the pendency of an appeal.
2. Stay on motion for new trial or for judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the Court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to Section 2-1008, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant Section 2-1009, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to Section 2-857, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Section 2-851(2).
3. Injunction pending appeal. When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the Court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.
4. Stay upon appeal. When an appeal is taken, the appellant by giving a supercedas bond may obtain a stay subject to the exceptions contained in subsection (1) of this Section. The bond may be given at or after the time of filing the notice of appeal or of procuring the order allowing the appeal, as the case may be. The stay is effective when the supercedas bond is approved by the Court.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

5. Stay in favor of the Tribe or agency thereof. When an appeal is taken by the Tribe or an officer or agency thereof or by direction of any department of the government of the Tribe, the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.
6. Power of the appellate Court not limited. The provisions in this Section do not limit any power of the appellate Court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.
7. Stay of judgment as to multiple claims or multiple parties. When the Court has ordered a final judgment under the conditions stated in Section 2-1001(2), the Court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1012 Disability of a judge. If a trial or hearing has been commenced and the judge is unable to proceed, any other judge may proceed with it upon certifying familiarity with the record and determining that the proceedings in the case may be completed without prejudice to the parties. In a hearing or trial without a jury, the successor judge shall at the request of a party recall any witness whose testimony is material and disputed and who is available to testify again without undue burden. The successor judge may also recall any other witness. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

2-1013 Reserved. [TCR 86-109]

2-1014 Judgment against infant. It shall not be necessary to reserve in a judgment or order the right of a minor to show cause against it after his/her attaining full age; but in any case in which such reservation would be proper, the minor, within two years after arriving at the age of eighteen years, may show cause against such order or judgment. [TCR 86-109]

2-1015 Judgments as liens. Judgments of the Tribal Court and the Courts of the United States shall be liens on real estate of the judgment debtor within the Tribal jurisdiction from and after the time a certified copy of such judgment has been filed in the Court clerk's land tract records book. A five-dollar ($5.00) fee shall be collected for each requested filing in the land tract records book. No judgment whether rendered by the Tribal Court or a Court of the United States shall be a lien on the estate of a judgment debtor until it has been filed in this manner. Execution shall be issued only by the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-1016 Discharge of money judgment liens. In the event of an appeal to the Tribal appellate Court from a money judgment, the lien of such judgment, and any lien by virtue of an attachment issued and levied in the action in which such judgment was rendered, shall cease upon the judgment debtor or debtor's depositing, with the Court clerk of the Tribal Court, cash sufficient to cover the whole amount of the judgment, including interest, costs and any attorney fees, together with costs and interest on the appeal, accompanied by a written statement, executed by the judgment debtor or debtors, that such deposit is made to discharge the lien of such judgment and any lien by virtue of an attachment issued and levied in the action, as provided for herein. It shall be the duty of the Court clerk, upon receipt of such a cash deposit and written statement, immediately to enter the same and the amount of cash received upon the civil appearance docket in the action, upon the judgment docket opposite the entry of such judgment, and upon the land tract records book if the judgment has been filed therein. It shall further be the duty of the Court clerk to deposit the cash so received in any action in a separate interest bearing official depository account and to hold the same pending final determination of the action, and, upon final determination of the action, to pay, or apply the same upon any judgment that might be rendered against the depositor or depositors, and to refund any balance in excess of any such judgment to the depositor or

depositors, or, in the event the action be finally determined in favor of the depositor or depositors, to refund the whole amount thereof to the depositor or depositors. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1017 Additional case deposits. A judgment creditor may, at any time, upon reasonable notice to the judgment debtor or debtors, move the Court for the deposit of additional cash, and if it appears that the cash which has been deposited is insufficient to cover the whole amount of the judgment, including interest, costs and any attorney fees, together with costs and interest on the appeal, the Court shall order the deposit of additional cash. If the additional cash is not deposited within a reasonable time, which time shall be set by the Court, the judgment shall be revived and attachment may be issued thereon. [TCR 86-109]

2-1018 Reversal by appellate Court. In the event of a reversal of the judgment by the appellate Court, no money deposited to discharge the lien of such judgment shall be refunded by the Court clerk until final disposition of the action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1019 Interest on money judgments. All money judgments of the Tribal Court shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent simple interest per annum, except authorized judgments against the Tribe, its political subdivisions, and agents in their official capacity which judgments shall not bear interest unless such is specifically provided for, provided that when a rate of interest is specified in a contract, the rate therein shall apply to the judgment debt and be specified in the judgment if the rate does not exceed the lesser of any limitation imposed by Tribal law, or the law of the jurisdiction in which the contract was made, upon the amount of interest which may be charged. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1020 Exempt property. The following property shall be exempt, except as to enforcement of contractual liens or mortgages, from garnishment, attachment, execution and sale, and other process for the payment of principal and interest, costs, and attorney fees upon any judgment of the Tribal Court:

1. Three-fourths of the new wages earned per week by the person or an amount equivalent to forty times the federal minimum hourly wages per week, whichever is greater, except as may be specifically provided by law for child support payments.
2. One automobile of fair market value not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).
3. Tools, equipment, utensils, or books necessary to the conduct of the person's business but not including stock or inventory.
4. Actual trust or restricted title to any lands held in trust by the United States, or subject to restrictions against alienation imposed by the United States but not including leasehold and other possessory interests in such property.
5. Any dwelling used as the actual residence of the judgment debtor, including up to five acres of land upon which such dwelling is located whether such dwelling is owned or leased by the judgment debtor.
6. Household goods, furniture, wearing apparel, personal effects, but not including televisions, radios, phonographs, tape recorders, home computers, (not otherwise exempt) more than two firearms, works of art, and other recreational or luxury items.
7. One horse, one bridle, and one saddle.
8. All implements of husbandry used upon the homestead, not more than four cows with their immature offspring, two hogs with their immature offspring, ten chickens, and feed suitable and sufficient to maintain said livestock and fowls for a period of one year.
9. All ceremonial or religious items. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1020.1 Payment of judgment from individual Indian moneys. Whenever the Tribal Court shall have ordered payment of money damages to an injured party and the debtor refuses or neglects to make such payment within the time set for payment by the Court, or when an execution is returned showing no property found, and when the debtor has sufficient funds to his/her credit at any Bureau of Indian Affairs Agency office to pay all or part of such judgment, the clerk of the Tribal Court, upon request of the judgment creditor, shall certify the record of the superintendent of the agency, who shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior the record of the case and the amount of available funds. If the secretary shall so direct, the disbursing agent shall pay over to the judgment creditor the amount of the judgment, or such lesser amount as may be specified by the secretary from the account of the judgment debtor.

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

SUBPART A FOREIGN JUDGMENTS

2-1021	Definition.	2-1025	Stay of execution of foreign judgment.
2-1022	Filing and status of foreign judgments.	2-1026	Fees.

2-1021 Definition. In this Article, “foreign judgment” means any judgment, decree, or order of a Court of the United States, any Indian Tribe, or of any other Court which is entitled to comity or full faith and credit in the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-1022 Filing and status of foreign judgments. A copy of any foreign judgment authenticated in accordance with the applicable act of Congress or of the statutes of the Tribe may be filed in the office of the Court clerk. The clerk shall treat the foreign judgment in the same manner as a judgment of the Tribal Court. A judgment so filed has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of the Tribal Court and may be enforced or satisfied in like manner. Provided, however, that no such filed foreign judgment shall be a lien on real estate of the judgment debtor until a certified copy of the judgment so filed is also filed in the office of the Court clerk as provided by law in the land tract record book. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

1. A foreign judgment is not conclusive if:
 - a. The judgment was rendered under a system that does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law;
 - b. The foreign Court did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant; or
 - c. The foreign Court did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter.
2. A foreign judgment need not be recognized if:
 - a. The defendant in the proceedings in the foreign Court did not receive notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable him/her to defend;
 - b. The judgment was obtained by fraud;
 - c. The cause of action on which the judgment is based is repugnant to the public policy of the Tribe;
 - d. The judgment conflicts with another final and conclusive judgment;
 - e. The proceeding in the foreign Court was contrary to an agreement between the parties under which the dispute in question was to be settled other than by proceedings in that Court; or
 - f. In the case of jurisdiction based only on personal service, the foreign Court was a seriously inconvenient forum for the trial of action.
3. No foreign judgment in the nature of an eviction or action for forcible entry and detention or detention only, no matter how denominated, shall be entitled to comity or full faith and credit if either party to the underlying action is a member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska and the Tribal Court would have possessed concurrent jurisdiction over the underlying action. No such judgment shall be recognized or entitled to any precedential value in the Winnebago Tribal Court System. This provision shall become effective immediately upon its adoption and shall apply to any action for which no final judgment has been rendered and entered in the civil docket book by the Winnebago Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1024 Notice of filing.

1. At the time of the filing of the foreign judgment, the judgment creditor or his/her lawyer shall make and file with the clerk of the Court an affidavit setting forth the name and last known post office address of the judgment debtor, and of the judgment creditor.
2. Promptly upon the filing of the foreign judgment and the affidavit, the clerk shall mail notice of the filing of the foreign judgment to the judgment debtor at the address given and shall make a note of the mailing in the docket. The notice shall include the name and post office address of the judgment creditor and the judgment creditor's lawyer, if any. In addition, the judgment creditor may mail a notice of the filing of the judgment to the judgment debtor and may file proof of mailing with the clerk. Lack of notice of filing by the clerk shall not affect the enforcement proceedings if proof of mailing by the judgment creditor has been filed. [TCR 86-109]

1. If the judgment debtor shows the Tribal Court that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted, the Court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment until the appeal is concluded, or until the time for appeal expires, or until the stay of execution expires or is vacated, upon proof that the judgment debtor has furnished the security for the satisfaction of the judgment required by the law of the jurisdiction in which it was rendered.
2. If the judgment debtor shows the Tribal Court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of the Tribal Court would be stayed, the Court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment for an appropriate period, upon requiring the same security for satisfaction of the judgment which is required in the Tribal jurisdiction. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1026 Fees. Any person filing a foreign judgment shall pay to the Court clerk those fees now and hereafter prescribed by the statute or by authorized Court rule for the filing of an action in the Court. Fees for docketing, transcription, or other enforcement proceedings shall be the same as provided for judgment of the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1027 Optional procedure. The right of a judgment creditor to bring an action to enforce his/her judgment instead of proceedings under this subpart remains unimpaired. [TCR 86-109]

2-1049	When lien restricted.

2-1031 Execution--defined. Executions shall be deemed process of the Court, and shall be issued by the clerk, and directed to the Chief of the Tribal Police. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1032 Kinds of executions. Executions are of three kinds:

1. Against the property of the judgment debtor.
2. For the delivery of possession of real or personal property, with damages for withholding the same, and costs.
3. Executions in special cases. [TCR 86-109]

2-1033 Property subject to levy. Lands, tenements, goods and chattels, not exempt by law shall be subject to the payment of debts, and shall be liable to be taken on execution and sold, as hereinafter provided. [TCR 86-109]

2-1034 Property bound after seizure. All real estate not bound by the lien of the judgment, as well as goods and chattels of the debtor, shall be bound from the time they shall be seized in an execution. [TCR 86-109]

2-1035 Execution must be issued within five years. If execution is not issued and filed as provided by this subpart within five years after the date of any judgment that now is or may hereafter be rendered, in the Tribal Court or if five years have intervened between the date that the last execution on such judgment was filed and the date that writ of execution was filed, such judgment shall become unenforceable and of no effect and shall cease to operate as a lien on the real estate of the judgment debtor. Provided, that this Section shall not apply to judgments in favor of the Tribe, its subdivisions or agents. [TCR 86-109]

2-1036 Priority among property. The writ of execution against the property of the judgment debtor, issuing from the Tribal Court shall command the officer to whom it is directed, that of the goods and chattels of the debtor he/she cause to be made the money specified in the writ; and for want of goods and chattels, he/she cause the same non-trust interest in lands and tenements of the debtor; and the amount of the debt, damages and costs, for which the judgment is entered, shall be endorsed on the execution. [TCR 86-109]

2-1037 Priority among executions. When two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be sued out and when two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be delivered to the officer prior to the date of sale of this property, no preference shall be given to either of such writs; but if a sufficient sum of money is not made to satisfy all such executions; the amount made shall be distributed to the several creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective demands, provided that nothing therein contained shall be so construed as to affect any preferable lien which one or more of the judgments, on which execution issued, may have on the property of the judgment debtor. [TCR 86-109]

2-1038 Levy by priority. The officer to whom a writ of execution is delivered shall proceed immediately to levy the same upon the goods and chattels of the debtor; but if no goods and chattels can be found, the officer shall endorse on the writ of execution, "no goods," and forthwith levy the writ of execution upon any interest in the lands and tenements of the debtor, which may be liable to satisfy the judgment; and if any of the interests in such lands and tenements of the debtor which may be liable shall be encumbered by mortgage or any other lien or liens, such lands and tenements may be levied upon and appraised and sold, subject to such lien or liens, which shall be stated in the appraisal. [TCR 86-109]

2-1039 Who makes levy. It shall be unlawful for anyone to levy an attachment or execution within the Tribal jurisdiction who is not a bonded Tribal or federal police officer. [TCR 86-109]

2-1040 When levy void. Any attachment or execution issued to or levied by anyone other than a bonded Tribal or federal police officer shall be void and of no effect and the Court clerk or other person issuing same, or officer or other person issuing same, as the case may be, together with their bondsmen shall be liable for any damage caused thereby. [TCR 86-109]

2-1041 Penalty for unlawful levy. Anyone violating the provisions of Section 2-1039 of this Article shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) or confinement in the Tribal jail not to exceed thirty days or both. [TCR 86-109]

2-1042 Levy on property claimed by third person. If the officer, by virtue of an execution issued from the Tribal Court, shall levy the same on any goods and chattels claimed by any person other than the defendant, or be requested by the plaintiff to levy on any such goods and chattels, the officer may require the plaintiff to give him/her an understanding with good and sufficient securities to pay all costs and damages that he/she may sustain by reason of the detention or sale of such property; and until such undertaking shall be given the officer may refuse to proceed as against such property. [TCR 86-109]

2-1043 Re-delivery to defendant. In all cases where the Tribal police chief or other officer shall, by virtue of an execution, levy upon any goods and chattels which shall remain upon his/her hands unsold, for want of bidders, for the want of time to advertise and sell, or any other reasonable cause, the officer may, for his/her own security, take of the defendant an undertaking, with security, in as such sum as he/she may deem sufficient, to the effect that the said property shall be delivered to the officer holding an execution for the sale of the same, at the time and place appointed by said officer, either by notice, given in writing, to said defendant in execution, or by advertisement published in a legal newspaper, naming therein the day and place of sale. If the defendant shall fail to deliver the goods and chattels at the same time and place mentioned in the notice to him/her, given, or pay to the officer holding the execution the full value of such goods and chattels, or the amount of said debt and costs, the undertaking, given as aforesaid, may be proceeded on as in other cases. [TCR 86-109]

2-1044 Notice of sale of chattels. The officer who levies upon goods and chattels, by virtue of an execution issued by the Tribal Court, before he/she proceeds to sell the same shall cause public notice to be given of the time and place of sale, for at least ten days before the day of sale. The notice shall be given by advertisement, published in some newspaper printed, or, in case no legal newspaper be published, by setting up advertisements in five public places in the reservation. Two advertisements shall be put up in the township where the sale is to be held; and where goods and chattels levied upon cannot be sold for want of bidders, the officer making such return shall annex to the execution a true and perfect inventory of such goods and chattels, and the plaintiff in such execution may thereupon sue out another writ of execution, directing the sale of the property levied upon as aforesaid; but such goods and chattels shall not be sold, unless the time and place of sale be advertised, as hereinbefore provided. [TCR 86-109]

2-1045 Further levy when property taken, insufficient. When any writ shall issue, directing the sale of property previously taken in execution, the officer issuing said writ shall, at the request of the person entitled to the benefit thereof, his/her agent or attorney, add thereto a command to the officer to whom such writ shall be directed, that if the property remaining in his/her hands not sold shall, in his/her opinion, be insufficient to satisfy the judgment, he/she shall levy the same upon lands and tenements, goods and chattels, or either, as the law shall permit, being the property of the judgment debtor, sufficient to satisfy the debt. [TCR 86-109]

1. When a general execution is issued and placed in the custody of the Tribal police chief for levy, a certified copy of such execution shall be filed in the office of the Court clerk and shall be indexed the same as judgment.
2. If a general or special execution is levied upon an interest lands and tenements, the Tribal police chief shall endorse on the face of the writ the legal description and shall have three disinterested persons who have taken an oath to impartially appraise the property so levied on, upon actual view; and such disinterested persons shall return to the officer their signed estimate of the real value of said property.
3. To extend a judgment beyond the initial or any subsequent statutory period, prior to the expiration of such period, a certified copy of a general execution thereon shall be filed and indexed in the same manner as judgments in the office of the Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1047 Waiver of appraisal. It is against the public policy of the Tribe to allow enforcement of execution upon realty without appraisal, and if the words "appraisal waived" or other words of similar import, shall be inserted in any deed, mortgages, bonds, notes, bill or written contract. They shall be of no effect whatsoever and an appraisal shall be ordered notwithstanding any contract to the contrary. [TCR 86-109]

2-1048 Return of appraisal. The officer receiving such return of appraisal pursuant to Section 2-1046(2) of this Article shall forthwith deposit a copy thereof with the clerk of the Court and advertise and sell such property, agreeable to the provisions of this Article. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1049 When lien restricted. If, upon such return, as aforesaid, it appear, by the inquisition, that two-thirds of the appraised value of said non-trust interest in lands and tenements so levied upon, is sufficient to satisfy the execution, with costs, the judgment on which such execution issued shall not operate as a lien on the residue of the debtor's estate, to the prejudice of any other judgment creditor; but no such property shall be sold for less than two-thirds of the value returned in the inquest; and nothing in this Section contained shall, in any way, extend to affect the sale of lands by the Tribe but all lands, the corporation or associations indebted to the Tribe, for any debt or taxes, or in any other manner, shall be sold without valuation for the discharge of such debt or taxes, agreeable to any laws in such cases made and provided. [TCR 86-109]

2-1050 Notice of sale of realty. Any non-trust interest in lands and tenements taken on execution shall not be sold until the officer causes public notice of the time and place of sale to be given by publication for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper and by putting up an advertisement upon the Courthouse door or other common bulletin board within a common area of the Courthouse and in five other public places in the reservation, two of which shall be in the township where such lands and tenements lie. Such sale shall not be held less than thirty days after the date of the first publication of the notice herein required. [TCR 86-109]

2-1051 Confirmation of sale. If the Court, upon return of any writ of execution, for the satisfaction of which lands or tenements have been sold, shall, after having carefully examined the proceedings of the officer be satisfied that the sale has, in all respects, been made in conformity with the provisions of this Article, the Court shall direct the clerk to make an entry on the journal that the Court is satisfied of the legality of such sale, and an order that the officer make to the purchaser a deed for such interest in lands and tenements; and the officer, on making such sale, shall deposit the purchase money with the clerk of the Court where the same shall remain until the Court shall have examined his/her proceedings as aforesaid, when such clerk of the Court shall pay the same of the person entitled thereto, agreeable to the order of the Court. [TCR 86-109]

2-1052 Police chief's deed. The chief of the Tribal police or other officer who, upon such writ or writs of execution, shall sell the said lands and tenements, or any part thereof, shall make to the purchaser as good and sufficient deed of conveyance of the land sold, as the person or persons against whom such writ or writs of execution were issued could have made of the same, at or any time after they became liable to the judgment. The deed shall be sufficient evidence of the legality of such sale, and the proceedings therein, until the contrary is proved, and shall vest the purchaser as good and perfect an estate in the premises therein mentioned as was vested in the party at, or after, the time when such lands and tenements became liable to the satisfaction of the judgment; and such deed of conveyance, to be made by the chief of Tribal police or other officer, shall recite the execution or executions, or the substance thereof, and the names of the parties, the amount and date of rendition of each judgment, by virtue whereof the said lands and tenements were sold as aforesaid, and shall be executed, acknowledged and recorded as is or may be provided by law, to perfect the conveyance of such interests in real estate in other cases. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1053 Advance of printer's fees. The officer who levies upon the goods and chattels, or lands and tenements, or who is charged with the duty of selling the same by virtue of any writ of execution, may refuse to publish a notice of the sale thereof by advertisement in a newspaper until the party for whose benefit such execution issued, his/her agent or attorney, shall advance to such officer so much money as will be sufficient to discharge the fees of the printer for publishing such notice. [TCR 86-109]

2-1054 Demand for printing fees. Before any officer shall be excused from giving the notification mentioned in Section 2-1052, he/she shall demand of the party for whose benefit the execution was issued, his/her agent or attorney, the fees in said section specified. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

2-1055 Place of sale. All sales of interests in lands or tenements under execution shall be held at the Tribal Courthouse unless some other place within the reservation is designated by the judge having jurisdiction in the case. No Tribal policeman or other officer making the sale of property, either personal or real, nor any appraiser of such property, shall either directly or indirectly, purchase the same; and every purchase so made shall be considered fraudulent and void. [TCR 86-109]

2-1056 Other executions of realty not sold. If lands or tenements, levied on aforesaid, are not sold upon one execution, other executions may be issued to sell the property so levied upon. [TCR 86-109]

2-1057 Levy on realty under several executions. In all cases where two or more executions shall be put into the hands of the Tribal police or other officer, and it shall be necessary to levy on real estate to satisfy the same, and either of the judgment creditors, in whose favor one or more of said executions are issued, shall require the Tribal police or other officer to levy said executions, or so many thereof as may be required, or other officer to levy said executions, or so many thereof as may be required, on separate parcels of real property of the judgment debtor or debtors, it shall be the duty of the officer, when required, to levy the same on separate parcels of the real property of the judgment debtor or debtors, when, in the opinion of the appraisers, the property of said debtors will not be sufficient, at two-thirds of its appraised value, to satisfy all the executions chargeable thereon, such part of the same shall be levied on, to satisfy each execution, as will bear the same proportion in value to the whole, as the amount due to the execution bears to the amount of all the executions chargeable thereon, as near as may be according to the appraised value of each separate parcel of said real property. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1058 Deed by successor of officer making sale. If the term of service of the Tribal police chief or other officer who has made, or shall hereafter make sale of any non-trust interest in lands and tenements, shall expire, or if the Tribal police chief or other officer shall be absent, or be rendered unable by death or otherwise, to make a deed of conveyance of the same, any succeeding Tribal police chief or other officer or the law enforcement officer acting on his/her behalf, on receiving a certificate from the Court from which the execution issued for the sale of said non-trust interest in lands and tenements, signed by the clerk, by order of said Court, setting forth that sufficient proof has been made to the Court that said sale was fairly and legally made, and on tender of the purchase money, or if the same or any part thereof be paid then on proof of such payment and tender of the balance, if any, may execute to said purchaser or purchasers, or his/her legal representatives, a deed of conveyance of said lands and tenements so sold. Such deed shall be as good and valid in law and have the same effect as if the Tribal police chief or other officer who made the sale had executed the same. [TCR 86-109]

2-1059 Payment to defendant of overplus after sale. If, on any sale made as aforesaid, there shall be in the hands of the Tribal police chief or other officer more money than is sufficient to satisfy the writ or writs of execution, with interest and costs, the Tribal police chief or other officer shall, on demand, pay the balance to the defendant in execution. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1060 Reversal of judgment after sale of interest in land. If any judgment or judgments, in satisfaction of which any non-trust interest in lands or tenements are sold, shall at any time thereafter be reversed, such reversal shall not defeat or affect the title of the purchaser or purchasers; but in such cases, restitution shall be made, by the judgment creditors, of the money, for which such lands or tenements were sold, with lawful interest on the day of sale. [TCR 86-109]

2-1061 Execution on judgment in favor of Tribe. In all civil actions wherein the Tribe as plaintiff, has heretofore or may hereafter recover judgment, and where in any such action an execution has or may be issued, the Tribe through the officer or officers on whose relation the action was brought, may bid at such execution sale, and buy said property offered for sale, for any amount not to exceed the amount of the judgment in such action and such additional amount as may be approved by the Tribal legislative body said amount to be credited upon the judgment.

And further, when such property offered for the sale as execution is bought by the Tribe, said property may be sold for the Tribe by the officer or officers upon whose relation the Tribe was party plaintiff, and further provided that at such execution sales the attorney or attorneys representing the Tribe may bid for the Tribe, not to exceed the amount of the judgment and such additional amount as may be approved by the Tribal legislative body, provided, however, that said bid is not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) higher than the next best bid, and if there be no other bidder, then not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00).

And further provided that in disposing of such property so acquired, if it be personal property the officer or successor of the officer in whose relation the Tribe was plaintiff may sell said property by executing a good and sufficient bill of sale, to be attested by the secretary of the Tribe. Provided, however, that in no event shall any sale be valid under this Article for any amount less than the amount for which said property was originally bid in by the Tribe. The funds obtained upon the sale of any such property shall be placed in the fund for which the judgment was obtained, or if none, then in the Tribal land purchases fund for the purchase of further real property to the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-1062 Reappraisal where realty twice advertised for sale. In all cases where a non-trust interest in real estate has been or may hereafter be taken on execution and appraised and twice advertised and offered for sale, and shall remain unsold for the want of bidders it shall be the duty of the Court, on motion of the plaintiff, to set aside such appraisal and order a new one to be made, or to set aside such levy and appraisal and order a new execution to issue, as the case may require. [TCR 86-109]

2-1063 Return of execution. The chief of the Tribal police or other officer to whom any writ or execution shall be directed shall return such writ to the Court to which the same is returnable, within ninety days from the date thereof. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1064 Principal and surety. In all cases where judgment is rendered in the Tribal Court upon any instrument of writing in which two or more persons are jointly and severally bound, and it shall be made to appear to the Court, by parole or other testimony, that one or more of said persons so bound, signed the same as surety or bail, for his/her or their co-defendant, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said Court, in recording the judgment thereon to certify which of the defendant is principal debtor, and which are sureties or bail. And the clerk of the Court aforesaid shall issue execution on such judgment, commanding the chief of the Tribal police or other officer to cause money to be made of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of the principal debtor. In case of lack of sufficient property of the principal debtor, the officer shall cause money to be made of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of the surety or bail. In all cases, the property, both personal and real, of the principal debtor, within the jurisdiction of the Court, shall be exhausted before any of the property of the surety or bail shall be taken in execution. [TCR 86-109, 94-07, 94-27]

2-1065 Hearing on assets. In addition to other discovery procedures, the Court, at any time after judgment upon motion of the judgment creditor, may order the judgment debtor to appear and answer concerning his/her property subject to execution to satisfy the judgment. The order to appear shall be served on the judgment debtor as a summons is served and may contain an order prohibiting the conveyance of any non-exempt property, and may order the production of any books, records, documents, or papers relating to the judgment creditor's property. Such order may be enforced by contempt proceedings. [TCR 86-109, 94-27]

SUBPART C
CONTRIBUTION

2-1072 Joint tort-feasor; contribution; indemnity; exemptions; covenant not to sue, etc.

2-1071 Joint debtors or sureties. When property, liable to an execution against several persons, is sold thereon, and more than a due proportion of the judgment is laid upon the property of one of them, or one of them pays, without a sale, more than his/her proportion, he/she may regardless of the nature of the demand upon which the judgment was rendered, compel contribution from the others; and when a judgment is against several, and is upon an obligation of one of them, as security for another, and surety pays the amount, or any part thereof, either by sale of his/her property or before sale, he/she may compel repayment from the principal; in such case, the person so paying or contributing is entitled to the benefit of the judgment, to enforce contribution or repayment, if within ten days after his/her payment he/she files with the clerk of Court notice of his/her payment and claim to contribution or repayment. Upon filing of such notice, the clerk shall make an entry thereof in the margin of the docket. [TCR 86-109]

1. When two or more persons become jointly or severally liable in tort for the same injury to person or property or for the same wrongful death, there is a right of contribution among them even though judgment has not been recovered against all or any of them except as provided in this Section.
2. The right of contribution exists only in favor of a tortfeasor who has paid more than his/her pro rata share of the common liability, and his/her total recovery is limited to the amount paid by him/her in excess of his/her pro rata share. No tortfeasor is compelled to make contribution beyond his/her own pro rata share of the entire liability.
3. There is no right of contribution in favor of any tortfeasor who has intentionally caused or contributed to the injury or wrongful death.
4. A tortfeasor who enters into a settlement with a claimant is not entitled to recover contribution from another tortfeasor whose liability for the injury or wrongful death is not extinguished by the settlement nor in respect to any amount paid in a settlement which is in excess of what was reasonable.
5. A liability insurer which by payment has discharged, in full or in part, the liability of a tortfeasor and has thereby discharged in full its obligation to insurer, is subrogated to the tortfeasor's right of contribution to the extent of the amount it has paid in excess of the tortfeasor's pro rata share of the common liability. This provision does not limit or impair any right of subrogation arising from any other relationship.
6. This Article does not impair any right of indemnity under existing law. When one tortfeasor is entitled to indemnity from another, right of the indemnity obligee is for indemnity and not contribution, and the indemnity obligor is not entitled to contribution from the obligee for any portion of his/her indemnity obligation.
7. This subpart shall not apply to breaches of trust or of other fiduciary obligation.
8. When a release, covenant not to sue or a similar agreement is given in good faith to one of two or more persons liable in tort for the same injury or the same wrongful death:
 - a. It does not discharge any of the other tortfeasors from liability for the injury or wrongful death unless its terms so provide; but it reduces the claim against others to the extent of

- any amount stipulated by the release or the covenant, or in the amount of the consideration paid for it, whichever is the greater; and
- b. It discharges the tortfeasor to whom it is given from all liability for contribution to any other tortfeasor. [TCR 86-109]

COSTS

2-1081	Affidavit in forma pauperis.	2-1087	Several actions on joint instruments.
2-1082	False swearing in such case.	2-1088	Clerk to tax costs.
2-1083	Costs where defendants disclaim.	2-1089	Cost of notice or other legal publication.
2-1084	Certain costs taxed at discretion of Court.	2-1090	Attorney fees taxable as costs.
2-1085	Costs to successful party as matter of course.	2-1091	Costs defined.
2-1086	Costs in other cases.	2-1092	Authority of Court to fix cost rates.

2-1081 Affidavit in forma pauperis. Any person who cannot afford to pay costs of an action in order to vindicate his/her rights may be allowed by the Court to proceed without paying costs upon the filing of an affidavit in forma pauperis. The affidavit in forma pauperis shall be in the form following and attached to the petition, viz:

(Name of Tribe, name of reservation) in the Tribal Court of (name of Tribe): I do solemnly swear that the cause of action set forth in the petition hereto prefixed is just, and I (or we) to further swear that by reason of my (or our) poverty, I am unable to give security for costs. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1082 False swearing in such case. Any person willfully swearing falsely in making the affidavit aforesaid, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of perjury, and punished as the law prescribes. [TCR 86-109]

2-1083 Costs where defendants disclaim. Where defendants disclaim having any title or interest in land or other property, the subject matter of action, they shall recover their costs, unless for special reasons the Court decides otherwise. [TCR 86-109]

2-1084 Certain costs taxed at discretion of Court. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the costs of motions, continuances, amendments and the like, shall be taxed and paid as the Court, in its discretion, may direct. [TCR 86-109]

2-1085 Costs to successful party as matter of course. Where it is not otherwise provided by this and other statutes, costs shall be allowed of course to the party, upon judgment in his/her favor, in actions for the recovery of money only, or for the recovery of specific, real or personal property. [TCR 86-109]

2-1086 Costs in other cases. In other actions, the Court may award and tax costs, and apportion the same between the parties on the same or adverse sides, as in its discretion it may think right and equitable. [TCR 86-109]

2-1087 Several actions on joint instruments. Where several actions are brought on one bill of exchange, promissory note or other obligation, or instrument in writing, against several parties who might have been joined as defendants in the same action, no costs shall be recovered by the plaintiff in more than one of such action, if the parties proceeded against in the other actions were, at the commencement of the previous action, openly within the Tribal jurisdiction or otherwise subject to suit and service of process in the Tribal Court and the whereabouts of such persons were known or could have been ascertained with reasonable diligence. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1088 Clerk to tax costs. The clerk of the Tribal Court shall tax the costs in each case, and insert the same in their respective judgments, subject to relaxation by the Court, on motion of any person interested. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1089 Cost of notice or other legal publication. Whenever any notice, or other legal publication is required by law to be made in any action or proceeding pending in the Court, the cost of such publication shall be taxed as other costs in said action or proceeding. [TCR 86-109]

2-1090 Attorney fees taxable as costs.

1. In any civil action to recover on an open account, a statement of account, account stated, note, bill, negotiable instrument, or contract relating to the purchase or sale of goods, wares, or merchandise, or for labor or services, unless otherwise provided by law or the contract which is the subject of the action, the prevailing party shall be allowed a reasonable attorney fee to be set by the Court, to be taxed and collected as costs.
2. In any civil action to enforce payment of or to collect upon a check, draft or similar bill of exchange drawn upon a bank or otherwise, payment upon which said instrument has been refused because of insufficient funds or no account, the party prevailing on such cause of action shall be awarded a reasonable attorney's fee, such fee to be assessed by the Court as costs against the losing party; provided, that said fee shall not be allowed unless the plaintiff offers proof during the trial of said action that prior to the filing of the petition in the action demand for payment of the check, draft or similar bill of exchange had been made upon the defendant by registered or certified mail not less than ten days prior to the filing of such suit.
3. In any civil action or proceeding to recover for the overpayment of any charge for water, sanitary sewer, garbage, electric or natural gas service from any person, firm or corporation, or to determine the right of any person, firm or corporation to receive any such service, the prevailing party shall be allowed a reasonable attorney fee to be set by the Court, to be taxed and collected as costs.
4. In any civil action brought to recover damages for breach of an express warranty or to enforce the terms of an express warranty against the seller, retailer, manufacturer, manufacturer's representative or distributor, the prevailing party shall be allowed a reasonable attorney fee to be set by the Court, which shall be taxed and collected as costs.
5. In any civil action to recover damages for the negligent or willful injury to property and any other incidental costs related to such action, the prevailing party shall be allowed reasonable attorney's fees, Court costs and interest to be set by the Court and to be taxed and collected as other costs of the action, except that a plaintiff who is required to pay costs pursuant to Section 2-1003 of this Article may not recover his/her attorney's fees as provided by this subsection. [TCR 86-109]

2-1091 Costs defined. Costs include, in addition to items of expense specifically recoverable as costs pursuant to any statute of the Tribe, fees required to be paid by law for the filing of any paper in any action, expense for service of process as provided by law, costs of transcripts, Tribal police fees for service of papers and mileage, costs of publication of any notice required to be published, printing of briefs or other documents required by the Court to be printed, and any other items made recoverable as costs by Court rule. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1092 Authority of Court to fix cost rates. The Court by rule may set the fees and costs of any service performed by the Court clerk or the Tribal police chief on behalf of the parties when such fees and costs are not provided for by Tribal statute. Such fees and costs shall be maintained at the minimum level possible considering the needs of the Court fund. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 10

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS

2-1102	Limitation of real actions.	2-1107	Limitation of new action after failure.
2-1103	Persons under disability-- in real property actions.	2-1108	Extension of limitation.
2-1104	Limitation of other actions.	2-1109	Statutory bar absolute.
		2-1111	Limitation of building construction tort claims.

2-1101 Limitations applicable. Civil actions can only be commenced within the periods prescribed in this Article after the cause of action shall have accrued; but where, in special cases, a different limitation is prescribed by statute, the action shall be governed by such limitation. There shall be no statute of limitation applicable against civil actions brought by the Tribe on its own behalf except to the extent that a statute of limitation is expressly stated to be applicable to the Tribe by this Code or some Tribal statute. [TCR 86-109]

2-1102 Limitation of real actions. Actions for the recovery of real property or for the determination of any adverse right of interest therein, can only be brought within the periods hereinafter prescribed, after the claim shall have accrued, and at no other time thereafter.

1. An action for the recovery of non-trust interest in real property sold on execution, or for the recovery of real estate petitioned by judgment in kind, or sold, or conveyed pursuant to petition proceedings, or other judicial sale, or an action for the recovery of real estate distributed under decree of the Court, in administration or probate proceedings, when brought by or on behalf of the execution debtor or former owner, or his/her or their heirs, or any person claiming under him/her or them by title acquired after the date of the judgment or by any person claiming to be an heir or devisee of the decedent in whose estate such decree was rendered, or claiming under, as successor in interest, any such heir or devisee, within five years after the date of the recording of the deed made in pursuance of the sale or proceeding, or within five years after the date of the entry of the final judgment of partition in kind where no sale is had in the partition proceedings; or within five years after the recording of the decree of distribution rendered by the Court in an administration or probate proceeding; provided, however, that where any such action pertains to real estate distributed under decree of the Court in administration or probate proceedings and would at the passage of this Article be barred by the terms hereof, such action may be brought within five years after the passage of this Act.
2. An action for recovery of real property sold by executors, administrators, or guardians, upon an order of judgment of a Court directing such sale, brought by the heirs or devisees of the deceased person, or the ward of his/her guardian, or any person claiming under any or either of them, by the title acquired after the date of judgment or order, within five years after the date of the recording the deed made in pursuance of the sale.
3. An action for the recovery of real property sold for taxes, within five years after the date of the recording of the tax deed.
4. An action for recovery of real property not hereinbefore provided for, within twenty years.
5. An action for the forcible entry and detention or forcible entry only of real property, within three years.
6. Paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) shall be fully operative regardless of whether the deed or judgment or the precedent action or proceeding upon which such deed or judgment is based is void or voidable

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

in whole or in part, for any reason, jurisdictional or otherwise; provided that this paragraph shall not be applied so as to bar causes of action which have heretofore accrued, until the expiration of five years from and after its effective date.

7. Nothing in this Section should be construed to impose any statute of limitation upon the enforcement of a right to possession of real property held by the United States in trust for any Indian or Indian Tribe under any law of the United States or restricted against alienation by any law of the United States in uniformity to the laws of the United States relating to such real property. [TCR 86-109]

2-1103 Persons under disability--in real property actions. Any person entitled to bring an action for the recovery of real property, who may be under any legal disability when the cause of action accrues, may bring his/her action within two years after the disability is removed. [TCR 86-109]

2-1104 Limitation of other actions. Civil actions other than for the recovery of real property can only be brought within the following periods, after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterwards:

1. Within seven years: An action upon any contract, agreement or promise in writing.
2. Within five years: An action upon a contract express or implied not in writing; an action upon a liability created by statute including a forfeiture or penalty except where the statute imposes a different limitation and an action of a foreign judgment.
3. Within three years: An action for trespass upon real property; an action for taking, detaining, or injuring personal property, including actions for the specific recovery of personal property; an action for injury to the rights of another, not arising on contract except as otherwise provided in building construction tort claims, and not hereinafter enumerated; an action for relief on the ground of fraud--the cause of action in such case shall not be deemed to have accrued until the discovery of the fraud.
4. Within one year: An action for libel, slander, assault, battery, malicious prosecution, or false imprisonment.
5. An action upon the official bond or undertaking of an executor, administrator, guardian, Tribal police officer, or any other officer, or upon the bond or undertaking given in an attachment, injunction, arrest or in any case whatever required by the statute, can only be brought within five years after the cause of action shall have accrued. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1105 Persons under disability in actions other than real property actions. If a person entitled to bring an action other than for the recovery of real property be, at the time the cause of action accrued, under any legal disability, every such person shall be entitled to bring such action within one year after such disability shall be removed. [TCR 86-109]

2-1106 Absence or flight of defendant. When a cause of action accrues against a person and that person is out of the Tribal jurisdiction or has concealed him/herself, the period limited for the commencement of the action shall not begin to run until he/she comes into the Tribal jurisdiction, or while he/she is concealed. If, after a cause of action accrues against a person and that person leaves the Tribal jurisdiction or conceals him/herself, the time of his/her absence or concealment shall not be computed as any part of the period within which the action must be brought. Provided, however, that if any statute which extends the exercise of personal jurisdiction of the Court over a person or corporation based upon service outside the Tribal jurisdiction, state, or nation, or based upon service by publication permits the Court of this Tribe to acquire personal jurisdiction over the person, the period of his/her absence or concealment shall be computed as part of the period within which the action must be brought. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-1107 Limitation of new action after failure. If any action is commenced within due time, and a judgment thereon for the plaintiff is reversed, or if the plaintiff fails in such action otherwise than upon the merits, the plaintiff, or, if he/she should die, and the cause of action survive, his/her representatives may commence a new action within two years after the reversal or failure although the time limit for commencing the action shall have expired before the new action is filed. An appeal of any judgment or order against the plaintiff other than on the merits as above stated shall toll the two-year period during the pendency of the appeal. [TCR 86-109]

2-1108 Extension of limitation. In any case founded on contract, when any part of the principal or interest shall have been paid, or an acknowledgment of an existing liability, debt or claim, or any promise to pay the same shall have been made, an action may be brought in such case within the period prescribed for the same, after such payment, acknowledgment or promise; but such acknowledgment or promise must be in writing, signed by the party to be charged thereby. [TCR 86-109]

2-1109 Statutory bar absolute. When a right of action is barred by the provisions of any statute, it shall be unavailable either as a cause of action or ground of defense, except as otherwise provided with reference to a counterclaim, setoff, or cross-claim. [TCR 86-109]

2-1110 Law governing foreign claims. The period of limitation applicable to a claim accruing outside of the Tribal jurisdiction shall be that prescribed either by the law of the place where the claim accrued or by the law of this Tribe, whichever last bars the claim. [TCR 86-109]

2-1111 Limitation of building construction tort claims. No action to recover damages (1) for any deficiency in the design, planning, supervision or observation of construction or construction of an improvement to real property, (2) for injury to property, real or personal, arising out of any such deficiency, or (3) for injury to the person or for wrongful death arising out of any such deficiency, shall be brought against any person owning, leasing, or in possession of such an improvement or performing or furnishing the design, planning, supervision or observation of construction or construction of such an improvement more than ten years after the substantial completion of such an improvement. 2-1202	Tribal custom marriage and divorce.	2-1206	Approval of wills.
2-1204	Determination of paternity and support.

2-1201 Recording of marriages and divorces. All marriages and divorces to which an Indian person is a party, whether consummated in accordance with the state law or in accordance with Tribal law or custom, shall be recorded in writing and executed by both parties thereto within three months at the office of the clerk of the Tribal Court in the marriage record and a copy thereof delivered to Bureau of Indian Affairs agency of the jurisdiction in which either or both of the parties reside for agency records. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1202 Tribal custom marriage and divorce.

1. Indians who desire to become married or divorced by the custom and common law of the Tribe shall conform to the custom and common law of the Tribe. Indians who assume or claim a divorce by Tribal common law and custom shall not be entitled to remarry until they have complied with the Tribal common law and remain separated for six months as in the case of statutory divorces, nor until they have recorded such divorce at the office of the clerk of the Tribal Court with a copy delivered to the Bureau of Indian Affairs agency for agency records.
2. The validity of Indian custom marriage and divorce shall continue to be recognized as heretofore.
3. In any case wherein the marital status of an Indian person is at issue, the Court shall have full authority to determine the marital status of the parties to any purported Tribal common law marriage or divorce and enter its declaratory judgment thereon. [TCR 94-07]

2-1203 Tribal custom adoption. Tribal custom adoptions shall continue to be recognized and shall be fully recognized by the Court, without the necessity of filing any document, when proven for the purpose of establishing extended family status in child custody actions, determining child custody, the obligation to support children and other family matters. However, Tribal common law adoptions shall not be recognized for the purpose of probate of descendant's estates unless, prior to the death of the descendant, the common law adoption was formalized by action of the Tribal Court, or in the case of adults, by a writing acknowledging such adoption filed in the Tribal Court. A Tribal common law adoption as a child of another does not terminate parental rights of the parents, nor deprive the natural parents of their ultimate right to the custody of a child who is adopted by another pursuant to the Tribal common law. [TCR 86-109]

2-1204 Determination of paternity and support. The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction of all suits brought to determine the paternity of a child and to obtain a judgment for the support of the child. A judgment of the Court establishing the identity of the father of the child shall be conclusive of that fact in all subsequent determinations of inheritance by the Department of the Interior or by the Tribal Court. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

1. When any member of the Tribe dies within the Tribal jurisdiction or while owning a non-trust interest in land within the Tribal jurisdiction, leaving property other than an allotment or other trust property subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, any person claiming to be an heir of the decedent and may bring suit in the Tribal Court to determine the heirs of the decedent and to divide among the heirs such property of the decedent. No determination of heirs shall be made unless all the possible heirs known to the Court, to the superintendent of the Indian Agency, and to the claimant have been notified of the suit as in service of summons and given full opportunity to come before the Court and defend their interests. Possible heirs who are not residents of the Tribal jurisdiction may be notified by certified mail, return receipt requested, and if said notice is returned refused or otherwise unclaimed, by further first-class mail containing a copy of the original notice and an additional notice stating to the recipient that the action will proceed ten days after mailing of the second notice. A copy of every such notice must be preserved in the record of the case.
2. In the determination of heirs the Tribal Court shall apply the written laws of the Tribe or the custom of the Tribe as to inheritance if such custom is proved and no written law exists. Otherwise, the Court shall apply state law in deciding what relatives of the decedent are entitled to be his/her heirs.
3. Where the estate of the decedent includes any interest in restricted allotted lands or other property held in trust by the United States, over which the administrative law judge would have jurisdiction, the Tribal Court may distribute only such property as does not come under the jurisdiction of the administrative law judge. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1206 Approval of wills. When any member of the Tribe dies while domiciled within the Tribal jurisdiction or while owning non-trust interest in land within the Tribal jurisdiction, leaving a will disposing of property other than an allotment or other trust property subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, the Tribal Court shall, at the request of any person named in the will or any other interested party, determine the validity of the will after giving notice and full opportunity to appear in Court to all persons who might be heirs of the decedent, as under the preceding section. A will shall be deemed valid if the decedent has a sane mind and was not subject to any undue influence of any kind from another person, and if the will was made in accordance with Tribal law or custom or made in writing and signed by the decedent in the presence of two witnesses who also sign the will. If the Court determines the will to be validly executed, it shall order the property described in the will to be given to the persons named in the will or to their heirs; but no distribution of property shall be made in violation of a Tribal law or proven Tribal custom which restricts the privilege of Tribal members to distribute property by will. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1207 Recognition of same-sex marriages. Same-sex marriages are recognized by the Court on the same terms and conditions as opposite-sex couples. [TCR 22-86A]

2-1211 Grounds for divorce. The district Court may grant a divorce for any of the following causes:

1. Abandonment for one year.
2. Adultery.
3. Impotency.
4. When the wife at the time of her marriage, was pregnant by another than her husband.
5. Extreme cruelty.
6. Fraudulent contract.
7. Incompatibility.
8. Habitual drunkenness.
9. Gross neglect of duty.
10. Imprisonment of the other party in a state or federal penal institution under sentence thereto for the commission of a felony at the time the petition is filed.
11. Insanity for a period of five years. The fact and duration of insanity being proved by the testimony of two physicians. Such divorce does not relieve the sane spouse from the obligation and support and shall not be granted unless a guardian has been appointed. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1212 Residence of plaintiff or defendant. Either the plaintiff or the defendant in an action for divorce must have been an actual resident, in good faith, of the Tribal jurisdiction for three months next preceding the filing of the petition, or a member of the Tribe. [TCR 86-109]

2-1213 Personal jurisdiction. The Court may exercise personal jurisdiction over a person whether or not a resident of the Tribal jurisdiction who lived within the Tribal jurisdiction in a marital or parental relationship, or both, as to all obligations for alimony and child support where the other party to the marital relationship continues to reside in the Tribal jurisdiction. When the person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the Court has departed from the Tribal jurisdiction, he/she may be served outside of the Tribal jurisdiction by any method that is authorized by the statutes of the Tribe. In all other cases, the Court may grant a divorce but may not enter a personal judgment for alimony or child support. The Court may grant a divorce to a same-sex couple on the same terms and conditions as an opposite-sex couple. [TCR 86-109, 22-86]

2-1214 Custody of children, disposition of property. That the parties appear to be in equal wrong shall not be a basis for refusing to grant a divorce. If a divorce is granted, it shall be granted to both parties. In any such case or where the Court grants alimony without a divorce or in any case where a divorce is refused, the Court may for good cause shown make such order as may be proper for the custody, maintenance and education of the children, and for the control and equitable division and disposition of the property of the parties, or of either of them, as may be proper, equitable and just, having due regard to the time and manner of acquiring such property, whether the title thereto is in either or both of said parties. In making a property settlement, the Court shall have due regard for the needs of the family and justice to the parties. [TCR 86-109]

2-1215 Orders concerning property, children, support and expenses. After a petition has been filed in an action for divorce and alimony, or for alimony alone, the Court may make and enforce by attachment or otherwise, such order to restrain the disposition of the property of the parties or of either of them, and for the use, management, and control thereof, or for the control of the children and support of the wife or husband during the pendency of the action, as may be right and proper; and may also make such order relative to the expenses of the suit as will insure an efficient preparation of the case; and, on granting a divorce the Court may require the husband or wife to pay such reasonable expenses of the other in the prosecution or defense of the action as may be just and proper considering the respective parties and the means and property of each; provided further, that the Court may in its discretion make additional orders relative to the expenses of any such subsequent actions, brought by the parties or their attorneys, for the enforcement or modification of any interlocutory or final orders in the divorce action made for the benefit of either party or their respective attorneys. Provided, no ex parte orders shall be issued until the opposing party is granted an opportunity to be heard, unless such ex parte order provides that instead of performing thereunder the opposing party may appear on a date certain, not more than twenty days thereafter, and show good cause as to why he/she should not comply with said order. [TCR 86-109]

2-1216 Care and custody of children. A petition or cross-petition for a divorce, legal separation, or annulment must state whether or not parties have minor children of the marriage. If there are such children, the Court shall make provision for guardianship, custody, support and education of the minor children, and may modify or change any order in this respect, whenever circumstances render such change proper either before or after final judgment in the action.

Any child, not emancipated and declared an adult by Court order shall be entitled to support by the parents until the child reaches eighteen years of age. If the Court determines that the parents are unable to provide for the support of the children, it may order any person obligated to support the children by the Tribal common law to be brought into the action by service of summons, and may enter an order requiring said person to contribute to the support of the children within their means. [TCR 86-109]

2-1217 Preference of child. In any divorce action in which the Court must determine custody, the child may express a preference as to which of its parents the child wishes to have custody. The Court may determine whether the best interest of the child will be served by the expression of preference and if the Court so finds then the Court may consider the expression of preference by the child in determining custody. Provided, however, the Court shall not be bound by that choice and may take other facts into consideration in awarding custody. [TCR 86-109]

2-1218 Paternity determination. In an action for a divorce, legal separation or annulment where there are children born to the parties, the Court may determine if the parties to the action are the parents of the children although the Court finds that the parties are not married; and if the parties to the action are the parents of the children, the Court may determine which party should have custody of said children, and it may award child support to the parent to whom it awards custody, and make an appropriate order for payment of costs and attorney's fees. [TCR 86-109]

2-1219 Interest on delinquent payments. When ordered by the Court, Court-ordered child support payments and Court-ordered payment of suit monies shall draw interest at the rate of ten percent per year from the date they become delinquent, and the interest shall be collected in the same manner as the payments upon which the interest accrues. [TCR 86-109]

2-1220 Restoration of wife's maiden name. When a divorce is granted, the wife shall be restored to her maiden or former name if she so desires. [TCR 86-109]

2-1221 Disposition of property. The Court shall enter its decree confirming in each spouse the property owned by him or her before marriage and the undisposed property acquired after marriage by him or her in his or her own right. Either spouse may be allowed such alimony out of real and personal property of the other as the Court shall think reasonable, having due regard to the value of such property at the time of the divorce. Alimony may be allowed from real or personal property, or both, or in the form of money judgment, payable either in gross or in installments, as the Court may deem just and equitable. As to such property, whether real or personal, which has been acquired by the parties jointly during their marriage, whether the title thereto is in either or both of said parties, the Court shall make such division between the parties as may appear just and reasonable, by a division of the property in kind, or by setting the same apart to one of the parties, and requiring the other thereof to pay such sum as may be just and proper to effect a fair and just division thereof having due regard to the needs of the family. The Court may set apart a portion of the separate estate of a spouse to the other spouse for the support of the children of the marriage where custody resides with that spouse. [TCR 86-109]

2-1222 Effect of divorce. A divorce granted at the instance of one party shall operate as a dissolution of the marriage contract as to both and shall be a bar to any claim of either party in or to the property of the other, except in cases where actual fraud shall have been committed by or on behalf of the successful party. [TCR 86-109]

2-1223 Remarriage and cohabitation. It shall be unlawful for either party to an action for divorce whose former husband or wife is living to marry a person other than the divorced spouse within six months from date of the decree of divorce or to cohabit with such other person during said period and if an appeal be commenced from said decree, it shall be unlawful for either party to such cause to marry any other person and cohabit with such person until the expiration of thirty days from the date on which final judgment shall be entered pursuant to such appeal. Any person violating the provisions of this Section by such marriage shall be deemed guilty of bigamy. Any person violating the provisions of this Section by such cohabitation shall be deemed guilty of adultery. An appeal from a judgment granting or denying a divorce shall be made in the same manner as in any other civil case. [TCR 86-109]

2-1224 Punishment for certain remarriage and cohabitation. Every person convicted of bigamy as such offense is defined in the foregoing section shall be punished by imprisonment in the Tribal jail for a term of not more than six months. [TCR 86-109]

2-1225 Remarriage within six months. A marriage wherein one of the parties had not been divorced for six months shall hereafter be grounds for annulment of marriage by either party. [TCR 86-109]

2-1226 Time when judgment final. Every decree of divorce shall recite the day and date when the judgment was rendered. If an appeal be taken from a judgment granting or denying a divorce, that part of the judgment does not become final and take effect until the appeal is determined. If an appeal be taken from any part of the judgment in a divorce action except the granting of the divorce, the divorce shall be

final and take effect the date the decree of divorce is rendered, provided neither party thereto may marry another person until six months after the date the decree of divorce is rendered; that part of the judgment appealed shall not become final and take effect until the appeal be determined. [TCR 86-109]

2-1227 Avoidance of marriage of incompetents. When either of the parties to a marriage shall be incapable, from want of age or understanding, of contracting such marriage, the same may be declared void by the Tribal Court, in an action brought by the incapable party or by the parent or guardian of such party; but the children of such marriage begotten before the same is annulled, shall be legitimate. Cohabitation after such incapacity ceases, shall be a sufficient defense to any such action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1228 Alimony without divorce. The wife or husband may obtain alimony from the other without a divorce, in an action brought for that purpose in the Tribal Court, for any of the causes for which a divorce may be granted. Either may make the same defense to such action as he/she might to an action for divorce, and may, for sufficient cause, obtain a divorce from the other in such action. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1229 Evidence. No divorce shall be granted without proof taken upon the record as in other cases. [TCR 86-109]

2-1230 Setting aside of divorce decrees. When a decree of divorce has been issued by the Tribal Court, said Court is hereby authorized to dissolve said decree at any future time, provided that both parties to the divorce action file a petition, signed by both parties, asking that said decree be set aside and held for naught. And further provided that both parties seeking to have the decree set aside shall make proof to the Court that neither one has married a third party during the time since the issuance of the decree of divorce. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1231 Termination of money payments.

1. In any divorce decree which provides for periodic alimony payments, the Court shall plainly state, at the time of entering the original decree, what dollar amount of all or a portion of each such payment is designated as support, and what dollar amount of all or a portion of such payment is a payment pertaining to a division of property. Upon the death of the recipient, the payments for support if not already accrued, shall terminate, but the payments pertaining to a division of property shall continue until completed; and the decree shall so specify. The payments pertaining to a division of property shall be irrevocable. Upon the presentation of proper proof of death of such recipient, the Court shall order the judgment for the payment of support to be terminated, and lien thereof released unless a proper claim shall be made for any amount of past due support payments by an executor, administrator or heir within ninety days from the date of death of the recipient. The Court shall also provide in the divorce decree that any such payment of support shall terminate after remarriage of the recipient, unless the recipient can make a proper showing that some amount of support is still needed and that circumstances have not rendered payment of the same inequitable. Provided however, that unless the recipient shall commence an action for such determination within ninety days of the date of such remarriage, the Court shall, upon proper application, order the payment of support terminated and the lien thereof discharged.
2. An order for continuing the payments of support shall not be a lien against the real property of the person ordered to make such payments unless the Court order specifically provides for lien on real property or an arrearage in such payments of support has been reduced to a judgment.
3. The voluntary cohabitation of a former spouse with a member of the opposite sex shall be a ground to modify provisions of a final judgment or order for alimony as support. If voluntary

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

cohabitation is alleged in a motion to modify the payment of support, the Court shall have jurisdiction to reduce or terminate support payments upon proof of substantial change of circumstances relating to need for support or ability to support. As used herein, cohabitation shall mean the dwelling together continuously and habitually of a man and a woman who are in a private conjugal relationship not solemnized as marriage according to law, or not necessarily meeting all the standards of a common law marriage. The petitioner shall make application for modification and shall follow notification procedures as used in other divorce decree modification actions. [TCR 86-109]

2-1232 Mailing of alimony and support payments. If a judicial order, judgment or decree directs that the payment of child support, alimony, temporary support or any similar type of payment be made through the office of the Court clerk, then it shall be the duty of the Court to transmit such payments to the payee by first class United States mail, if requested to do so by the payee. Such payments shall be mailed to the payee at the address specified in writing by the payee. In the event of a change in address of the payee, it shall be the duty of payee to furnish to the Court clerk in writing the new address of the payee. [TCR 86-109]

2-1233 Modification of decree. Notwithstanding that a decree of divorce has become final, the Court may modify its judgment relative to child support or alimony at any time in the interest of justice and equity, having due regard for the needs of the family or families of the parties, upon motion for modification filed in the original action and served with summons requiring an answer to said motion within twenty days. Such motions shall be heard as if they were an independent proceeding and discovery may be had. The order of the Court determining the motion for modification shall be a final appealable order. [TCR 86-109]

2-1234 Effect on common law divorce. This subpart shall not be interpreted in derogation of the Tribal common law of divorce, but is intended for use by those who prefer the statutory method of divorce or who cannot agree as to child custody and support, spousal support, property division, or other similar matters upon which agreement is necessary to effectuate a Tribal common law divorce. [TCR 86-109]

2-1235 Requirement of parenting education.

- a. Any party to a divorce action or an action involving child custody or visitation shall be required by the Court to complete a parenting education course pursuant to this Section prior to the entry by the Court of a final judgment or order modifying the final judgment in such action. The Court must approve the course, and participation in the course may be delayed or waived by the Court for good cause shown.
- b. A parenting education course pursuant to this Section shall be designed to educate the parties about the impact of the pending divorce, custody, or visitation action upon their children. The course shall include but not be limited to, information on the developmental stages of children, adjustment of children to parental separation, dispute resolution and conflict management, guidelines for visitation, stress reduction in children, and cooperative parenting.
- c. Each party shall be responsible for the costs, if any, of attending a Court-ordered parenting education course. The Court may specifically allocate costs between the parties for their required participation in the course.
- d. At the request of any party, the parties shall be allowed to attend separate courses or to attend the same course at different times, specifically if violence has been present in the relationship or one party has threatened the other party with violence.

FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER

2-1301	Forcible entry and detention.	2-1309	Procedure where no jury available.
2-1302	Powers of Court.	2-1310	Attorney fee.
2-1303	Extent of jurisdiction.	2-1311	Writ of execution; form; new trial.
2-1304	Issuance and return of summons.	2-1312	Stay of execution.
2-1305	Service of summons.	2-1313	Forcible entry and detainer action on small claims docket.
2-1306	Constructive service of summons.	2-1314	Affidavit; form.
2-1307	Answer or affidavit by defendant.	2-1315	Summons; form.
2-1308	Trial by Court.

2-1301 Forcible entry and detention. The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction to try all actions for the forcible entry and detention, or detention only, of real property, and claims for the collection of rent or damages to the premises may be included in the same action, but other claims may not be included in the same action. A judgment in an action brought under this Article shall be conclusive as to any issues adjudicated therein, but it shall not be a bar to any other action brought by either party. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1302 Powers of Court. The Court shall have power to inquire, in the manner hereinafter directed, as well against those who make unlawful and forcible entry into lands and tenements, and detain the same, as against those who, having a lawful and peaceable entry into land or tenements, unlawfully and by force hold the same, and if it be found, upon such inquiry, that an unlawful and forcible entry has been made, and that the same lands and tenements are held unlawfully, then the Court shall cause the party complaining to have restitution thereof. [TCR 86-109]

2-1303 Extent of jurisdiction. Proceedings under this Article may be had in all cases against tenants holding over their terms and, incident thereto, to determine whether or not tenants are holding over their terms; in sales or real estate on executions, orders or other judicial process, when the judgment debtor was in possession at the time of the rendition of the judgment or decree, by virtue of which such sale was made; in sales by executors, administrators, guardians and on partition, where any of the parties to the partition were in possession at the commencement of the suit, after such sales, so made, on execution or otherwise, shall have been examined by the Court, and the same adjudged valid; and in the cases where the defendant is a settler or occupier of lands and tenements without color of title, and to which the complainant has the right of possession. This Section is not to be construed as limiting the provisions of the preceding section. [TCR 86-109]

2-1304 Issuance and return of summons. The summons shall be issued and returned as in other cases, except that it shall command the chief of the Tribal police or other person serving it, to summon the defendant to appear for trial at the time and place specified therein, which time shall be not less than five days nor more than ten days from the date that the summons is issued. The summons shall appraise the defendant of the nature of the claim that is being asserted against him; and there shall be endorsed upon the summons the relief sought and the amount for which the plaintiff will take judgment if the defendant fails to appear. In all cases, pleadings may be amended to conform to the evidence. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1305 Service of summons. The summons may be served as in other cases except that such service shall be at least three days before the day of trial, and the return day shall not be later than the day of trial, and it may also be served by leaving a copy thereof with some person over fifteen years of age, residing on the premises, at least three days before the day of trial; or, if service cannot be made by the exercise of reasonable diligence on the tenant or on any person over the age of fifteen (15) years residing on the premises, the same may be served by registered mail with return receipt postmarked at least three days before the date of trial. [TCR 86-109]

2-1306 Constructive service of summons. If, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, service cannot be made upon the defendant personally nor upon any person residing upon the premises over fifteen years of age, then in lieu of service by registered mail, service may be obtained for the sole purpose of adjudicating the right to restitution of the premises by the Tribal Police's posting said summons conspicuously on the building on the premises, and, if there be no building on said premises, then by posting the same at some conspicuous place on the premises sought to be recovered at least ten days prior to the date of trial, and by last-known address by registered or certified mail at least seven days prior to said date of trial. Such service shall confer no jurisdiction upon the Court to render any judgment against the defendant for the payment of money nor for any relief other than the restoration of possession of the premises to the claimant. Such service shall not be rendered ineffectual by the failure of the defendant to actually receive or sign a return receipt for such mailed process. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1307 Answer or affidavit by defendant.

1. In all cases in which the defendant wishes to assert title to the land or that the boundaries of the land are in dispute, he/she shall, before the time for the trial of the cause, file a verified answer or an affidavit which contains a full and specific statement of the facts constituting his/her defense of title or boundary dispute. If the defendant files such a verified answer or affidavit, the action shall proceed as one in ejectment before the Tribal Court. If the defendant files an affidavit, he/she shall file an answer within ten (10) days after the date the affidavit is filed.
2. In all cases in which the cause of action is based on an asserted breach of a lease by the defendant, or the termination or expiration of a lease under which the defendant claims an interest in the property in a verified answer or affidavit, the plaintiff may proceed with the forcible entry and detainer action instead of an ejectment action.

2-1308 Trial by Court. All cases for forcible entry and detainer or detainer only shall be tried by the Court unless the rent and damages prayed for exceed ten thousand ($10,000) dollars. [TCR 86-109]

2-1309 Procedure where no jury available. If a jury be properly demanded by either party, and no jury is available from the general panel, the judge shall immediately direct that an open venire be issued to the chief of the Tribal police or one of his deputies, for such number of jurors as may be deemed necessary, to be selected without resorting to the jury wheel. The persons selected shall have the qualifications of jurors. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1310 Attorney fee. A reasonable attorney fee shall be allowed by the Court to the prevailing party. [TCR 86-109]

2-1311 Writ of execution; form; new trial. If judgment be for plaintiff, the Court shall, at the request of the plaintiff, his/her agent or attorney, issue a writ of execution thereon, which shall be in substantially the following form:

The [Tribe]. The [Tribe] to the Chief of the Tribal Police:

Whereas, in a certain action for the forcible entry and detention [or for the forcible detention as the case may be] of the following described premises, to wit:

defendant, judgment was rendered on the ___ day of _____, 20__, that the plaintiff have restitution of said premises; and also that he/she recover rent, attorney fees and costs in the sum of _____; you, therefore, are hereby commanded to cause the defendant to be forthwith removed from said premises and the said plaintiff to have restitution of the same; also that you levy on the goods and chattel of the said defendant, and make the cost aforesaid, all accruing costs, and of this writ, make legal service and due return.

Witness my hand this ___ day of _____, 20__.

A. B. Judge

A motion for a new trial may be filed only within three days of judgment but shall not operate to stay execution. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1312 Stay of execution. If no supersedeas bond be posted within the time provided herein, the officer shall forthwith restore the plaintiff to possession of the premises by executing the writ prescribed in the preceding section and shall make levy to collect the amount of the judgment and all accruing costs. The officer's return shall be as upon other executions. [TCR 86-109]

2-1313 Forcible entry and detainer action on small claims docket. An action for forcible entry and detainer brought pursuant to procedures prescribed otherwise in this Title standing alone and when joined with a claim for recovery of rent, damages to the premises, where the total recovery sought, exclusive of attorney's fees and other Court costs, does not exceed the jurisdictional amount for the small claims Court, shall be placed on the small claims docket of the Tribal Court. The Court clerk shall in connection with such actions prepare the affidavit, by which the action is commenced, and the summons and generally assist the unrepresented plaintiffs to the same extent that he/she is now required so to do under the Small Claims Procedure Act. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1314 Affidavit; form. The actions for unlawful entry and detainer standing alone or when joined with a claim for collection of rent or damages to the premises, or both, shall be commenced by filing an affidavit in substantially the following form with the clerk of the Court:

2-1401 Persons who may prosecute writ. Every person restrained of his/her liberty, under any pretense whatever, may prosecute a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of the restraint, and shall be delivered therefrom when the restraint is illegal. [TCR 86-109]

2-1402 Application for writ. Application for the writ shall be made by petition, signed and verified either by the plaintiff or by some person in his/her behalf, and shall specify:

1. By whom the person, in whose behalf the writ is requested, is restrained of his/her liberty, and the place where restrained, naming all the parties, if they are known, or describing them, if they are not known.
2. The cause or pretense of the restraint, according to the best knowledge and belief of the applicant.
3. If the restraint be alleged to be illegal, in what the illegality consists. [TCR 86-109]

2-1403 Writ granted. Writs of habeas corpus may be granted by any judge or magistrate of the Tribal Court, either in open Court, or in vacation; and upon application the writ shall be granted without delay. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1404 Direction and command of writ. The writ shall be directed to the officer or party having the person under restraint, commanding him to have such person before the Court, or judge, at such time and place as the Court or judge shall direct, to show cause if any he/she has for the restraint imposed upon the person on whose behalf the writ is issued, to do and receive what shall be ordered concerning him/her and have then and there the writ in his/her possession. [TCR 86-109]

2-1405 Delivery to Tribal police chief. If the writ be directed to the chief of the Tribal police, it shall be delivered by the Clerk to him/her without delay. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1406 Service on party other than Tribal police chief. If the writ be directed to any other person, it shall be delivered to the chief of the Tribal police and shall be by him/her served by delivering to such person without delay. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE

2-1407 Service when person not found. If the person to whom such writ is directed cannot be found, or shall refuse admittance to the chief of the Tribal police, the same may be served by leaving it at the residence of the person to whom it is directed, or by affixing the same on some conspicuous place, either of his/her dwelling house or where the party is confined under restraint. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1408 Return and enforcement of writ. The chief of the Tribal police or other person to whom the writ is directed shall make immediate return thereof, and if he/she neglects or refuses, after due service, to make return, or shall refuse or neglect to obey the writ by producing the party named therein, and no sufficient excuse be shown for such neglect or refusal, the Court shall enforce obedience by attachment. [TCR 86-109]

2-1409 Manner of return. The return must be signed and verified by the person making it, who shall state:

1. The authority or cause of restraint of the party in his/her custody.
2. If the authority be in writing, he/she shall return a copy and produce the original on the hearing.
3. If he/she has had the party in his/her custody or under his/her restraint, and has transferred him/her to another, he/she shall state to whom, the time, place and cause of the transfer. He/she shall produce the party on the hearing, unless prevented by sickness or infirmity or other cause, which must be shown in the return. [TCR 86-109]

2-1410 Proceedings in case of sickness or infirmity. The Court or judge, if satisfied with the truth of the allegation of sickness or infirmity or other good cause for not producing the body of the person, may proceed to decide on the return, or the hearing may be adjourned until the party can be produced. The plaintiff may accept to the sufficiency of, or controvert the return or any part thereof, or allege any new matter in avoidance; the new matter shall be verified, except in cases of commitment on a criminal charge; the return and pleadings may be amended without causing any delay. [TCR 86-109]

2-1411 Hearings and discharge. The Court or judge shall thereupon proceed in a summary way to hear and determine the cause, and if no legal cause be shown for the restraint or for the continuance thereof, shall discharge the party. [TCR 86-109]

2-1412 Limits an inquiry. No judge shall inquire into the legality of any judgment or process, whereby the party is in custody, or discharge him/her when the term of commitment has not expired in either of the cases following:

1. Upon process issued by any Court or judge of the United States, or of any state or where such Court or judge has exclusive jurisdiction; or,
2. Upon any lawful process issued on any final judgment of a Court of competent jurisdiction; or,
3. For any contempt of any Court, office or body having authority to commit; but an order of commitment as for a contempt, upon proceedings to enforce the remedy of a party, is not included in any of the foregoing specifications;
4. Upon a warrant or commitment issued from the Tribal Court, or any other Court of competent jurisdiction, upon indictment or information. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1413 Writ upon temporary commitment. No person shall be discharged from an order of temporary commitment issued by any judicial or peace officer for want of bail, or in cases not bailable, on account of any defect in the charge or process, or for alleged want of probable cause, but in all such cases, the Court or judge shall summon the prosecuting witnesses, investigate the criminal charge, and discharge, let to bail or recommit the prisoner, as may just and legal, and recognize witnesses when proper. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 14

2-1414 Writ may issue to admit to bail. The writ may be had for the purpose of letting a prisoner to bail in civil and criminal actions. [TCR 86-109]

2-1415 Notice to interested persons. When any person has an interest in the detention, the prisoner shall not be discharged until the person having such interest is notified. [TCR 86-109]

2-1416 Powers of Court. The Court or judge shall have power to require and compel the attendance of witnesses and to do all other acts necessary to determine the case. [TCR 86-109]

2-1417 Officers not liable for obeying orders. No Tribal policeman or other officer shall be liable to a civil action for obeying any writ of habeas corpus or order of discharge or enforcement made thereon. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1418 Issuance of warrant of attachment. Whenever it shall appear by affidavit that anyone is illegally held in custody or restraint, and that there is good reason to believe that such person will be carried out of the jurisdiction of the Court or judge, or will suffer some irreparable injury before compliance with the writ can be enforced, the Court or judge may cause a warrant of attachment to be issued, reciting the facts, and directed to the chief of the Tribal police, commanding him/her to take the person thus held in custody or restraint, and forthwith bring him/her before the Court or judge, to be dealt with according to law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1419 Arrest of party causing restraint. The Court or judge may also, if the same be deemed necessary, insert in the warrant a command for the apprehension of the person charged with causing the illegal restraint. [TCR 86-109]

2-1420 Execution of warrant of attachment. The officer shall execute the Warrant of Attachment by bringing the person therein named before the Court or judge; and the like return and proceedings shall be required and had as in case of writs of habeas corpus. [TCR 86-109]

2-1421 Temporary orders. The Court or judge may make any temporary orders in the cause or disposition of the party during the progress of the proceedings, that justice may require. The custody of any party restrained may be changed from one person to another, by order of the Court or judge. [TCR 86-109]

2-1422 Issuance and service on Sunday. Any writ, warrant, or process authorized by this Article may be issued and served, in case of emergency on any day including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. [TCR 86-109]

2-1423 Issue of process. All writs and other process, authorized by the provisions of this Article may be issued by the clerk of the Court upon direction of a judge, and except summons, sealed with the seal of such Court and shall be served and returned forthwith, unless the Court or judge shall specify a particular time for any such return. And no writ or other process shall be disregarded for any defect therein, if enough is shown to notify the officer or person of the purpose of the process. Amendments may be allowed, and temporary commitments, when necessary. [TCR 86-109]

2-1424 Protection of infants and insane persons. Writ of habeas corpus shall be granted in favor of parents, guardians, masters, husbands and wives; and to enforce the rights and for the protection of infants and insane persons; and the proceedings shall, in all such cases, conform to the provisions of the Article. MANDAMUS

2-1503	Forms and contents of writs.	2-1509	Similarity to civil action.
2-1504	When peremptory writ of issues.	2-1510	Recovery by plaintiff.
2-1505	Petition upon affidavit.	2-1511	Damages bar further actions.
2-1506	Allowance and service of writ.	2-1512	Penalty for refusal or neglect to perform.

2-1501 Functions of mandamus. The writ of mandamus may be issued by the appellate Court or the Tribal Court, or any justice or judge thereof to any inferior tribunal, corporation, board or person, to compel the performance of any act which the law specially enjoins as a duty, resulting from an office, trust or station; but though it may require an inferior Tribunal or officer to exercise its judgment or proceed to the discharge of any of its functions, it cannot control judicial discretion, or discretion committed to a Tribal agency by law unless exercised in violation of law. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1502 Writ not issued where remedy at law. This writ may not be issued in any case where there is a plain and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law. It may be issued on the information of the party beneficially interested. [TCR 86-109]

2-1503 Forms and contents of writs. The writ is either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ must state, concisely, the fact showing the obligation of the defendant to perform the act, and his/her omission to perform it, and command him/her that immediately upon the receipt of the writ, or at some other specified time, he/she do the act required to be performed or show cause before the Court at a specified time and place, why he/she has not done so; and that he/she then and there return the writ with his certificate of having done as he/she commanded. The peremptory writ must be in a similar form, except that the words requiring the defendant to show cause why he/she has not done as commanded, must be omitted. [TCR 86-109]

2-1504 When peremptory writ of issues. When the right to require the performance of the act is clear, and it is apparent that no valid excuse can be given for not performing it, a peremptory mandamus may be allowed in the first instance; in all other cases, the alternative writ must be first issued. The peremptory writ should not be issued if there is any doubt that a valid excuse may exist. [TCR 86-109]

2-1505 Petition upon affidavit. The petition for the writ must be made upon affidavit, and the Court may require a notice of the application to be given to the adverse party, or may grant an order to show cause why it should not be allowed, or may grant the writ without notice. [TCR 86-109]

2-1506 Allowance and service of writ. The allowance of the writ must be endorsed thereon, signed by the judge of the Court granting it, and the writ must be served personally upon the defendant; if the defendant, duly served, neglects to return the same, he/she shall be proceeded against as for contempt. [TCR 86-109]

2-1507 Answer. On the return day of the alternative writ, or such further day as the Court may allow, the party on whom the writ shall have been served may show cause, by answer made in the same manner as an answer to complaint in a civil action. [TCR 86-109]

WINNEBAGO TRIBAL CODE
TITLE 2 ARTICLE 15

2-1508 Failure to answer. If no answer be made, a peremptory mandamus must be allowed against the defendant; if answer be made, containing new matter, the same shall not, in any respect, conclude the plaintiff, who may, on the trial or other proceeding, avail him/herself of any valid objections to its sufficiency, or may countervail it by proof, either in direct denial or by way of avoidance. [TCR 86-109]

2-1509 Similarity to civil action. No other pleading or written allegation is allowed than the writ and answer; these are the pleadings in the case, and have the same effect, and are to be construed and may be amended in the same manner, as pleadings in a civil action; and the issued thereby joined must be tried, and the further proceedings thereon had, in the same manner as in a civil action. [TCR 86-109]

2-1510 Recovery by plaintiff. If judgment be given for the plaintiff, he/she shall recover the damages which he/she shall have sustained, to be ascertained by the Court, or by referees, as in a civil action, and costs; and a peremptory mandamus shall also be granted to him/her without delay. [TCR 86-109]

2-1511 Damages bar further actions. A recovery of damages, by virtue of this Article against a party who shall have made a return to a writ of mandamus, is a bar to any other action against the same party for the making of such return. [TCR 86-109]

2-1512 Penalty for refusal or neglect to perform.

1. Whenever a peremptory mandamus is directed to any public officer, body or board, commanding the performance of any public duty specially enjoined by law, if it appears to the Court that such officer, or any member of such body or board, has, without just excuse, refused or neglected to perform the duty so enjoined, the Court may impose a fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00), upon every such officer or members of such body or board. Such fine, when collected, shall be paid into the Tribal treasury.
2. Whenever the peremptory writ of mandamus is directed to any private person commanding the performance of any private duty specifically enjoined by law, if it appears to the Court that such person has, without just excuse, refused or neglected to perform the duty so enjoined, the Court may impose a civil fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) upon such person and may commit him/her to the custody of the Tribal police for a term of sixty days or until he/she shall perform or agree to perform such duty or otherwise purge his/her contempt. The Court may, in an appropriate case, order the chief of the Tribal police to perform the act required which performance shall have the same effect as if performed by the person to whom the peremptory writ was issued. 2-1603	Persons who may bring action.	2-1607	Separate action for damages.

2-1601 Quo warranto; relief obtainable by civil action. The writ of quo warranto, and proceedings by information in the nature of quo warranto, are abolished and the remedies heretofore obtainable in those forms may be had by civil action; provided, that such cause of action may be instituted and maintained by the contestant for such office at any time after the issuance of the certificate of election by the Tribal election board, and before the expiration of thirty days after such official is inducted into office; provided further, that all suits now pending, contesting such elections, shall not be dismissed because of the prematurity as to time of their commencement, which shall be deemed valid and timely, if commenced after the issuance of the election certificate or after twenty days after the result of said election having been declared by such election board; and provided further, that this Article shall not apply to any primary election. [TCR 86-109]

2-1602 Grounds for action. Such action may be brought in the appellate Court by its leave or in the Tribal Court, in the following cases:

1. When any person shall usurp, intrude into, or unlawfully hold or exercise any public office, or shall claim any franchise within the Tribal jurisdiction or any office in any corporation created by authority of this Tribe;
2. Whenever any public officer shall have done or suffered any act which, by the provisions of law, shall work a forfeiture of his/her office;
3. When any association or number of persons shall act within the Tribal jurisdiction as a corporation without being legally incorporated or domesticated;
4. When any corporation does or admits acts that amount to a surrender or a forfeiture of its rights and privileges as a corporation, or when any corporation abuses its power or intentionally exercises powers not conferred by law;
5. For any other cause for which a remedy might have been heretofore obtained by writ of quo warranto, or information in the nature of quo warranto. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1603 Persons who may bring action. When the action is brought by the Tribal attorney general when directed to do so by competent authority, it shall be prosecuted in the name of the Tribe, but where the action brought by a person claiming an interest in the office, franchise or corporation, or claiming any interest adverse to the franchise, gift or grant, which is the subject of the action, it shall be prosecuted in the same and under the direction, and the expense of such persons. Whenever the action is brought against a person for usurping an office by the Tribal attorney general, he/she shall set forth in the petition the name of person rightfully entitled to the office and his/her right or title thereto; when the action in such case is brought by the person claiming title, he/she may claim and recover any damage he/she may have sustained. [TCR 86-109]

2-1604 Judgment is contest of office. In every case contesting the right to an office, judgment shall be rendered according to the rights of the parties, and for the damages the plaintiff or person entitled may have sustained, if any, to the time of the judgment. [TCR 86-109]

2-1605 Judgment for plaintiff. If judgment be rendered in favor of the plaintiff or person entitled, he/she shall proceed to exercise the functions of the office, after he/she has been qualified as required by law; and the Court shall order the defendant to deliver over all the books and papers in his/her custody or within his/her power, belonging to the office from which he/she shall have been ousted. [TCR 86-109]

2-1606 Enforcement of judgment. If the defendant shall refuse or neglect to deliver over the books and papers, pursuant to the order, the Court, or judge thereof shall enforce the order by attachment or imprisonment, or both. [TCR 86-109]

2-1607 Separate action for damages. When judgment is rendered in favor of the plaintiff, he/she may, if he/she has not claimed his/her damages in the action, have a separate action for the damages at any time within one year after the judgment. The Court may give judgment of ouster against the defendant, and exclude him/her from the office, franchise or corporate rights; and in cases of corporations, may give judgment that the same shall be dissolved. [TCR 86-109]

2-1608 Corporation. If judgment be rendered against any corporation, or against any persons claiming to be a corporation, the Court may cause the costs to be collected by execution against the persons claiming to be a corporation, or by attachment against the directors or other officers of the corporation, and may restrain any disposition of the effects of the corporation, appoint a receiver of its property and effects, take an account, and make a distribution thereof among the creditors and person entitled. 2-1703 Preparation of affidavit. The claimant shall prepare such an affidavit as is set forth in Section 2-1702 of this Article or, at his/her request, the clerk of said Court shall draft the same for him/her. Such affidavit may be presented by the claimant in person or sent to the clerk by mail. Upon receipt of said affidavit, properly sworn to, the clerk shall file the same and make a true and correct copy thereof, and the clerk shall fill in the blanks in the order printed on said copy and sign the order. [TCR 86-109]

2-1704 Service of affidavit. Unless service by the Tribal police chief or other authorized person is requested by the plaintiff, the defendant shall be served by mail. The clerk shall enclose a copy of the affidavit and the order in an envelope addressed to the defendant at the address stated in said affidavit, prepay the postage, and mail said envelope to said defendant by certified mail and request a return receipt from addressee only. The clerk shall attach to the original affidavit the receipt for the certified letter and the return card thereon or other evidence of service of said affidavit and order. If the envelope is returned undelivered and sufficient time remains for making service, the clerk shall deliver a copy of the affidavit and order to the Tribal police chief who shall serve the defendant in the time stated in Section 2-1.

2-1705 Date for appearance. The date for the appearance of the defendant as provided in the order endorsed on the affidavit shall be no more than thirty days nor less than ten days from the date of said order. The order shall be served upon the defendant at least seven days prior to the date specified in said order for the appearance of the defendant. If it is not served upon the defendant, the plaintiff must apply to the clerk for a new alias order setting a new day for the appearance of the defendant, which shall not be more than thirty days nor less than ten from the date of the issuance of the new order. When the clerk has fixed the date for appearance of the defendant, he/she shall inform the plaintiff either in person or by certified mail, of said date and order the plaintiff to appear on said date.

2-1706 Transfer of actions. On motion of the defendant the action shall be transferred from the small claims docket to the general civil docket of the Court, provided said motion is filed and notice given to opposing party at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time fixed in the order for defendant to appear or answer and, provided further, that the defendant deposit the cost of filing a complaint in a civil action and thereafter the action shall proceed as other civil actions and shall not proceed under the small claims procedure. The clerk shall enclose a copy of the order transferring the action from the small claims docket to the general docket in an envelope addressed to the plaintiff, with postage prepaid. Within twenty days of the date the transfer order is signed, plaintiff shall file a civil complaint that conforms to the standards of civil pleadings and shall be answered and proceed to trial as in other civil actions. If the plaintiff ultimately prevails in the action so transferred by the defendant, a reasonable attorney's fee shall be allowed to plaintiff's attorney to be taxed as costs in the case. [TCR 86-109]

2-1707 Counterclaim or setoff. No formal pleading, other than the claim and notice, shall be necessary, and there is no requirement to assert any counterclaim or cross-claim, but if the defendant wishes to state a new matter which constitutes a counterclaim or a setoff, he/she shall file a verified answer, a copy of which shall be delivered to the plaintiff, his/her attorney in person, and filed with the clerk of the Court not later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the hour set for the appearance of said defendant in such action. Such answer shall be made in substantially the following form:

2-1708 Actions for amounts exceeding excess of two thousand dollars. If a claim, a counterclaim, or a setoff is filed for an amount in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), the action shall be transferred to the general civil docket of the Tribal Court unless both parties agree in writing and file said agreement with the papers in the action that said claim, counterclaim or setoff shall be tried under the small claims procedure. If such an agreement has not been filed, a judgment in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) may not be enforced for the part that exceeds two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) shall deposit with the clerk of the Court costs that are charged in other cases, less any sums that have been already paid to the clerk, or his/her claim shall be dismissed and the remaining claims, if any, shall proceed under the small claims procedure. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1709 Attachment or garnishment, other matters. No attachment or prejudgment garnishment shall issue in any suit under the small claims procedure. Proceedings to enforce or collect a judgment rendered by the trial Court in a suit under the small claims procedure shall be in all respects as in other cases. No depositions shall be taken or interrogatories or other discovery proceedings shall be used under the small claims procedure except in aid of execution. No new parties shall be brought into the action, and no party shall be allowed to intervene in action. [TCR 86-109]

2-1710 Trial by Court. Actions under the small claims procedure shall be tried to the Court. Provided, however, if either party wished a reporter, he/she must notify the clerk of the Court in writing at least forty-eight (48) hours before the time set for the defendant's appearance and must deposit with said notice with the clerk the sum of twenty dollars ($20.00) against the costs or producing the record. The plaintiff and the defendant shall have the right to offer evidence in their behalf by witnesses appearing at such hearing, and the judge may call such witnesses and order the production of such documents as he/she may deem appropriate. The hearing and disposition of such actions shall be informal with the sole object of dispensing speedy justice between the parties. [TCR 86-109]

2-1711 Payment of judgment. If judgment be rendered against either party for the payment of money, said party shall pay the same forthwith, provided, however, the judge may make such order as to time of payment or otherwise as may, by him/her, be deemed to be right and just. [TCR 86-109]

2-1712 Appeals. Appeals may be taken from the judgment rendered under small claims procedure to the appellate Court of the Tribe in the same manner as appeals are taken in other civil actions, provided that any party that did not request a reporter as provided in Section 2-1710 shall not be granted a new trial or other relief on appeal due to lack of a record. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1713 Fees. A fee shall be charged and collected for the filing of the affidavit for the commencement of any action, for the filing of any counterclaim or setoff, for the mailing of the copy of the affidavit as determined by rules of the Court, and, if the affidavit and order are served by the Tribal police, the clerk shall collect the usual police service fee, which shall be taxed as costs in the case. After judgment, the clerk shall issue such process and shall be entitled to collect such fees and charges as are allowed by law for the like services in other actions. All fees collected hereunder shall be deposited with other fees that are collected by the Tribal Court. Provided that any statute providing for an award of attorney's fees shall be applicable to the small claims division if the attorney makes an appearance in the case, whether before or after judgment or on hearing for disclosure of assets. [TCR 86-109, 94-07]

2-1714 Costs. The prevailing party in an action is entitled to costs of the action, including the costs of service of the order for the appearance of the defendant and the costs of enforcing any judgment rendered therein. [TCR 86-109]

1. Except as otherwise provided herein, judgments rendered under the small claims procedure shall not be entered upon the judgment docket. Such judgment shall not become a lien upon real property unless entered upon the judgment docket as hereinafter provided.
2. Any small claims judgment, when satisfied by payment other than through the office of the Court clerk or otherwise discharged, may be released by the Court upon written application to the Court by the judgment debtor and upon proof of due notice thereof having been mailed by the Court clerk to the judgment creditor at his last-known address at least ten days prior to the hearing of the application. Payment of all costs necessary to accomplish said release shall be paid by the judgment debtor.
3. Such judgment shall become a lien on any non-trust interest real property of the judgment debtor within the Tribal jurisdiction only from and after the time a certified copy of the judgment has been filed in the office of the Court clerk for entry in the clerk's land tract records book. No judgment under the Small Claims Procedure Act shall be a lien on the real property of a judgment debtor until it has been filed in this manner. When a judgment is entered upon the judgment docket, the Court clerk shall instruct the prevailing party of the manner in which to proceed to file such judgment for the purpose of obtaining a lien against the real property of the judgment debtor and the Court clerk shall provide the proper certified copy of the judgment necessary to file. [TCR 86-109]

2-1716 Fee for docketing judgment. The Court clerk shall, upon payment by the prevailing party of a fee established by Court rule, cause the judgment to be entered upon the judgment docket. Fees collected pursuant to this Section shall become part of the cost of the action. [TCR 86-109]

2-1717 Other action in small claims Court. By leave of the Court, and with the consent of all parties, other actions not provided for herein, or exceeding the maximum amount allowed to be claimed by Sections 2-1710 and 2-1708, except action for liable and slander may be tried under the small claims procedure. The motion for leave to file in such cases shall contain the consent of the defendant endorsed thereon, or such consent shall be promptly filed upon the submittal for filing of the small claims affidavit.
